McLean's High School Band Wins First at Amarillo

Highest Grade Made in Contest

Two First Places Made with 95% Grade

The McLean high school band under the direction of Prof. Robt. C. Davidson, entered class C division of the band contests in Amarillo Friday, winning first place in the performance of the contest number and first place in the sight reading contest. The band made a grade of 95%, which is considered an unusually high average. Other winning bands in class C were Canadian, second; Panhandle, third, and Amarillo College of Music, fourth.

These contests are a part of the music festival contests held every year in Amarillo, by the Panhandle Music Teachers Association. The bands are classified according to school enrollment. Class A includes high schools having an enrollment of 400 or over; class B, between 200 and 400; class C, 200 or under; class D, grammar school and junior high school pupils. Every band member must be a regular pupil of the school.

This is the first time the McLean high school band has entered this contest, and the first time it has played anywhere as a strictly high school organization.

The following attended the contest with the band and helped make the trip both pleasant and safe for the band members: Mrs. C. C. Bogan, Mrs. W. E. Bogan, Mrs. D. M. Graham, Mrs. E. E. Watkins, Mrs. Jno. W. Butler, Mrs. Robt. C. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Massay, R. L. Appling, Messrs. Wingo, Gardner and Paul Mertil.

The following is the personnel of the band as it entered the contest: Clarinets: Harold Hodges, Johnnie Mertil, Duard Lynch, Spencer Sitter, Averill Christian, Kathryn Hales. Cornets: C. C. Bogan, Jesse Dean Cobb, Walter Charles Watkins, Dorothy Jean St. Clair, James Emmett Cooke, Jack Bogan, James Lee Rice, Charles Finley. Saxophones: C. W. Bogan, Nora Ashby, Juanita Ball, Allison Cash, Stanton Gardner. Melophones: Hobby Appling, Burl Wingo, Billy Bert Sanders. Baritone: Luella Jones, Bruce Graham. Trombones: R. L. Floyd, James Massay, Donald Butler. Bass: Millard Windom, Elzie Worthen. Drums: Wilburn Lynch, Arthur Ledbetter, Addison Harris.

Ben Howard had charge of tuning the band, and Pierce Davidson had charge of the music.

KEE CHILD FUNERAL

Funeral services were held at the McLean Church of Christ last Saturday afternoon for Virgil LeRoy Kee, aged 4 years, 3 months, 23 days, conducted by Eld. S. A. Ribble of Shamrock.

Interment was made in Hillcrest cemetery, Mortician C. S. Rice in charge.

C. J. Cash was in Pampa Thursday.

Newspaper advertising is far more effective in promoting retail sales than is magazine advertising. Carter D. Poland, soap manufacturer of Annonist, Ala., told merchants at a convention of the American Retailers' Association in St. Louis. Poland said that advertising in newspapers is generally read by the public, while magazine magazines seldom get more than a glance. "Use advertising generously," he advised. "Make it newsy and put the truth in it. Your own advertising can be worth far more to you than any form of national advertising."

Tampke's Boys Win 4 of the 6 Firsts at Pampa

Competing with eight schools and 90 boys, the McLean poultry and livestock teams under the direction of Dr. A. A. Tampke, won first place in their respective divisions at the Pampa poultry show. The poultry team won for the third consecutive year, winning the trophy every since the inception of the show three years ago.

J. Billingslea won high score for individual, with 300 points out of a possible 350. Wilburn Lynch was 5th high man, J. C. Breeding 6th, and Arthur Lee Howard 9th. The team made a score of 818 points.

Archie Hibler won first in examination, with 141 points; J. Billingslea 2nd and J. C. Breeding 3rd, with 138 and 129 points respectively. The team was first in examination.

The livestock team won with a score of 1027 points, with Clarendon a close second, with 1010.

Erwin Browning was high man with 357 points. Clyde Andrews and Bert Carpenter tied for 6th place with 335 points each.

Lavelle Christian, who was an alternate, scored 363 points, the highest made by any individual, but could not be counted on the team score, as he had not been designated a team member.

The McLean dairy team placed fourth, with Bazel Pettit as high man. The Pampa chamber of commerce served dinner, and transportation was furnished by J. M. Carpenter, E. Browning and Mrs. T. H. Andrews; appreciation of which was expressed by the contestants.

MCLEAN PIANO PUPILS WIN

Piano pupils of Mrs. Willie T. Boyett won places at the music festival at Amarillo last week. Dorothy Sitter won a red ribbon for girls' solos for 9 years and under. Margaret Hess won red ribbon for 17 and under, and Jewel Shaw red ribbon for girls 19 and over.

These were the only entrants from McLean, each winning the same place in their respective grades.

Mrs. James S. W. Rice, J. M. Noel, C. S. Rice, D. A. Davis and G. V. Koons visited Mrs. S. L. Montgomery on the ranch Friday.

Mrs. J. W. Kibler returned last week from a visit with relatives at Pampa.

POSTMASTER HANDS NEWS EDITOR LEMON

Postmaster John B. Vannoy handed the News editor a couple of lemons Monday, one of them measuring 16 inches around and weighing 1 1/2 pounds; the other, which was of conventional shape, weighed 14 ounces and was 11 1/2 inches around. The large one looked somewhat like a small pumpkin and was of excellent flavor. A dozen ordinary lemons weigh 2 1/2 pounds.

The lemons were picked by Mr. Vannoy at Fairfairs, where they claim to grow fruits of finer flavor than elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Vannoy returned Saturday from a two weeks' trip through Oklahoma, to Paris, Huntsville, Galveston, Corpus Christi, Texas, and Matamoros, Mexico.

The Vannoys visited with W. B. Brewster at El Campo. Mr. Brewster was an early settler at McLean, coming here some 24 years ago, clerking in the old Palace Drug Store and later in the C. A. Cash general store.

They called on a number of kinsfolk, one of the most pleasurable visits being with an aunt of Mr. Vannoy's whom he had not seen for 54 years. The lady is 74 years old and her husband 83, both of them being spry for their ages.

A number of folks whom the Vannoys had not seen for a long time were visited, but they found them all living and in good health with but one exception; an aunt of Mr. Vannoy's having died a few years ago.

WELLINGTON BANS SUNDAY SHOWS

Acting upon a petition filed before the city council at Wellington, signed by the six ministers, members of the pastors' association; the city council voted to close all Sunday picture shows, beginning this week.

Mrs. Will Harlan and children of White Deer visited relatives here last week end.

Rev. Beavers Speaker at Lions Luncheon

Rev. M. M. Beavers of Clarendon, presiding elder of the Methodist Church for this district, and Pastor Jno. H. Crow were guests at the Lions luncheon held Tuesday, with Rev. Beavers as the principal speaker of the occasion.

Rev. Beavers said that the original Lions Club rejected the preacher Daniel, when he was thrown into their den, but modern Lions are only like the original in that they are always ready to eat.

The speaker congratulated the McLean club for keeping active during these trying times, saying that all worth while activities should be kept going during these times. "It is time for us to pay our debts we owe to our neighbors in loving service," said Rev. Beavers. "We have been living too fast to take into account our debts to others."

The club voted to pay the registration fee for two delegates to the district convention at Lubbock.

G. C. Boswell reported the Lions spelling contest, and stated that ten cars are needed to transport McLean contestants to the county meet Saturday.

The meeting closed with T. A. Landers reading a paper warning against peddlers and stray salesmen, which provoked comment, and the meeting was turned into an experience meeting with every member wanting to bring personal instances of unsatisfactory transactions with out-of-town solicitors.

METHODIST REVIVAL NOW IN PROGRESS

The revival meeting at the First Methodist Church is progressing nicely with Presiding Elder M. M. Beavers of Clarendon doing the preaching, and C. E. Worthen, local chorister, in charge of the singing.

Special music has been arranged for both services Sunday.

AGRICULTURE BOYS HAVE ICE CREAM FEAST

The McLean F. F. A. students had an ice cream feast Tuesday night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Tampke, to celebrate their judging victory at Pampa last Saturday.

The boys brought milk, eggs, freezers, lemons and ice, and there were eleven gallons of cream made for the party. Cake and delicious drinks were also provided.

A total of 70 students from the vocational agriculture and home economics departments, and several other high school girls, shared in what the entire group termed the biggest ice cream feast they ever participated in. Everybody ate cream to their own hearts content, and when the party broke there was still half a gallon of cream left.

Music, songs, games and 42 were played during intermission, when cream was not served.

Miss Seal and her capable students were of great assistance in helping serve and entertain the youths.

A BOOZE PARTY

Justice of the Peace C. S. Rice held a booze party Tuesday afternoon when 55 gallons of confiscated home brew was destroyed by order of Judge W. R. Ewing, of the district court.

Messrs. Williams, Bush and Goodman assisted in pouring the booze, that was contained in half gallon jars, down the sewer, in the presence of a number of spectators.

Twelve gallons were captured on December 2, 1931, and 46 gallons on January 27. Three gallons were sent to Pampa as evidence.

Some fear was expressed that the stuff would eat up the sewer pipes, but there was no question that it was destroyed, as was evidenced by the interested audience.

Miss Gorda Lou Haynes, who is attending school at Weatherford, Okla., visited her mother, Mrs. Callie Haynes, last week end.

Funeral Services Presbyterian Ch. Saturday 2:30

McLean Merchant Dies at Amarillo Hospital

C. A. Strandberg, aged 59, died at an Amarillo hospital this (Thursday) morning at 2 o'clock, following an extended illness.

Mr. Strandberg became worse last week, and was taken to Amarillo in an unconscious condition Sunday, and died without having regained consciousness.

While funeral arrangements had not been entirely completed this morning, waiting word from relatives in Illinois; in a telephone conversation with Axtel Strandberg, brother of the deceased, at Amarillo, it was stated that funeral services will be held at the First Presbyterian Church here, Saturday at 2:30 p. m., and interment made in Hillcrest cemetery.

The mayor has issued a proclamation for the stores to close for the funeral.

Mr. Strandberg entered the grocery business in McLean in 1922, and has closely identified with the business and civic interests of the town every since. He won the distinction of the most useful citizen of the community at the chamber of commerce picnic last summer.

He leaves a wife, one child, other relatives, and a host of friends to mourn his passing.

CONTRADICTORY REPORTS ON GAS RATE QUESTION

An article in the Amarillo News and other papers yesterday indicated that Col. Thompson, McLean city attorney, had secured an order from the Railroad Commission upholding the city ordinance establishing a 30c gas rate. It further stated that the bond posted by the gas company was to be turned over to the city to insure a refund of excess charges from October 30, 1931.

Up to press time this morning, the city had no official confirmation of the report, and an interview with Manager Tillery of the gas company revealed that the company has no official information.

Mr. Tillery stated that he had called their attorney at Wichita Falls as soon as he read the article, and the attorney, having read the article in a Wichita paper, had called the Railroad Commission by phone, reporting that the commission stated that no order had been issued in the case.

FIRE IN RAILROAD YARD MONDAY MORNING

Fire destroyed a box car containing fixtures for the new Corner Drug Co., to occupy the building formerly occupied by the Montgomery Drug Co., early Monday morning.

The fire siren was sounded down by the high winds of Sunday, and the firemen had to be called by telephone.

It is thought that the fire was of incendiary origin, as the blaze was all over the car, and very little of the contents was of an inflammable nature, only a little packing around the marble slabs for the fountain.

Monday's fire will be no loss to the company, as the freight was still in charge of the railroad.

SPECIAL EASTER MUSIC

Musical programs for Easter have been arranged at the First Methodist, First Presbyterian and First Baptist Churches for both services next Sunday. Choirs have been practicing for some time, and good music may be heard at all of the churches at the morning and evening services.

AGRICULTURE BOYS WIN CUPS

The vocational agriculture boys went to Pampa Saturday and took part in the judging contest held there. The boys made a very remarkable showing by retaining the poultry cup and also winning the livestock cup.

J. Billingslea was high individual in the poultry contest with a total of 300 points out of a possible 350. Lavelle Christian made the highest score in livestock judging, making 363 points out of 400. Erwin Browning was second with 357 points. The dairy team also made a good showing. They won fourth place. Bazel Pettit was third high individual in that contest.

All the boys placed high, and they expect to make a fair showing at Lubbock, where they will judge on March 28. All the team members are working hard to get in shape for the contest at Lubbock, and also for the one at A. & M. College.

Mr. Tampke is giving a party for the boys, and all who go are bound for a very good time. This will be the second party the agriculture boys have had this year, and all are looking forward to it very eagerly.

ONE ACT PLAYERS BENEFITTED

The one act players who have returned from Canyon expressed themselves as having been greatly benefited by the participation in the contest held there last week end. Although they did not win in the contest, none is sorry he went, and each person enjoyed the trip immensely.

COUNTY COUNCIL P. T. A.

MEETS HERE SATURDAY

On last Saturday the County Council of the P. T. A. met in the high school building. Visitors from all parts of the county began arriving early in the morning. They were greeted by the reception committee, which consisted of Mrs. G. C. Boswell, Mrs. E. E. Watkins and Mrs. R. L. Appling. Each guest registered in a "shamrock" booklet.

At noon a most delicious luncheon was served. The tables were artistically decorated to carry out the St. Patrick idea. On each plate was a miniature shamrock. The luncheon was prepared by the ladies of the P. T. A. and served by the home economics girls. During the lunch hour everyone was introduced. Supt. Boswell presided.

After lunch the meeting adjourned to the auditorium where a most interesting program was rendered. The home economics girls presented a skit, "Wife Wanted." Miss Mayfield, city nurse of Pampa, made a talk, setting forth the duties of a county nurse. Mrs. Cecil G. Goff sang two beautiful solos. The meeting was then turned into a round table discussion of the question of a county health nurse. The discussion was opened by County Judge Stennis.

The guests departed late in the day. They complimented the hospitality of our city.

Below are the guests of the day: Laketon: Miss Lets Little, Mr. and Mrs. John R. White and daughter and Lyle Maxwell. Back: Mrs. Percy E. Barker, Miss Ivy Hinkle, Mrs. Roy Barker, Ernest Barker and Mrs. J. W. Ivey. Pampa: Mrs. A. N. Illey, Mrs. J. Frank Murry, Mrs. J. B. Townsend, Vida Cox, Terisa Humphreys, Mrs. T. W. Sinahnam, Mrs. E. C. Will, Jno. B. Hessey, R. A. Selby, S. D. Stennis, Ivan Mayfield, Mrs. V. E. Patherne, Mrs. W. B. Murphy, Mrs. Claude Lard, Mrs. H. T. Moore, Hoover: Mrs. J. M. Daughterty, Mrs.

F. E. Hicks, and Marion B. Brooks. Miami: N. A. Gray, Conway: Mrs. R. W. Callham. Lefors: Mrs. R. C. Ogden, Mrs. W. F. Solonka, Mrs. R. D. Land, Mrs. F. R. Yeakley, Mrs. H. O. Carreette, Marion B. Brooks and E. G. Sanders. McLean: Jewell Cousins, Mrs. R. L. Appling, Mrs. E. E. Watkins, Mrs. G. C. Boswell, G. C. Boswell, A. R. McHaney, Mrs. O. E. Lochridge, Mrs. G. V. Koons, Lorena Ashby, Aline McCarty, Elizabeth Kennedy, Mrs. Mary R. Sligar, Mrs. Jim Back, R. L. Appling, Mrs. Raymond Glass, Mrs. T. N. Holloway, Mrs. Jno. Butler, Mrs. A. A. Tampke, Mrs. W. E. Bogan, Mrs. Carl Carpenter, Ruby Seal, and the following home economics girls: Oleta Holloway, Juanita Coleman, Kathleen Lacy, Emma Jean Ayer, Maxine Fowler, Maudelle Corum, Sybil Young and Ellen Moore.

Officers for the coming year were elected.

HIGH SCHOOL BAND WINNER

Friday, March 18, the high school band made their trip to Amarillo. They won first place in class C and brought home the banner. Because of the many orchestras from other towns, the bands were delayed until one o'clock, at which time the mass band concert was given.

The McLean band drew fourth place in the class C entry. At three o'clock they started their performance. After listening to Amarillo, Canadian and Panhandle, they were somewhat downhearted. They played their very best, and felt better.

The judge gave his criticism: There was a good tune in the alto section, room for improvement in the second and third cornets, the saxophone played very well in tune, and the bass solo was weak. The sight reading was most dreaded, and most surprising of all. The selection was "Dream Castle." It was easier than was expected.

FACULTY PARTY

Recently Mesdames McHaney and Davidson entertained the faculty of the school with a lovely 42 party. The guests were most enthusiastic in playing the games for several hours. Late in the evening lovely refreshments of cake, ice cream and punch were served.

DECLAMATION ELIMINATION

The elimination for the declamation contest will be held Wednesday afternoon in the auditorium of the high school building. Winners of first places will represent this school at Lefors. Judges will be from Clarendon.

FIRST WEEK OF INT. LEAGUE

Playground ball teams, volley ball teams, tennis teams and debate teams first part of the county interscholastic will go to Lefors Saturday for the league meet. It is hoped that patrons will supply cars to carry these contestants to Lefors. The pupils are working hard and intend to bring home the honors again this year.

Below is a description of Mr. Bodine, written by Irene Smith:

Our janitor is a very friendly fellow with a pleasant countenance. He is very tall and equally thin. His hair is gradually becoming lighter with the care and toil of his later years. His eyes are gray and seem as if they are always smiling. He goes about his work, or perhaps I should say duties, since that is what he considers them, with an ease and manner that to the onlooker would suggest anything but discontentment. He always has a cheery good morning or good afternoon, suiting the time of day. It does not seem to be a matter of importance at all how great a number of ink bottles we break on the floor of the school house, he never grumbles, and the sunshine is still there. When I see him walking, he reminds me of a Quaker, or what I think a Quaker would look like if I were to see one. He has the air of one who is at peace with the world and its maker, which is the greatest jewel of life.

Below is a practice essay written by Avalee Back:

KINDNESS

Kindness is one of the greatest words we can define. If one is to be kind, he must or will have other good qualities, such as loveliness, courtesy, thoughtfulness, and usually modesty. A kind word or action done to someone who is in need will never be forgotten. He who can be kind to the unthankful and the evil has reached a point worthy of being great. A definition of kindness might be: He who is disposed to good and is capable of conferring happiness. In paraphrasing we might say, "Blessed are the kind, for they shall receive kindness." Do not we all appreciate the fact that someone was thoughtful and kind enough to establish homes for the destitute and institutions for the unfortunate? When an opportunity knocks on our door let us not let it pass unheeded, for even the lowest may be an angel of God. Deeds of kindness will even answer for us in the final judgment.

Rev. M. M. Beavers, presiding elder of this district of the Methodist Church, who is holding a revival meeting here this week, brought a most interesting and inspirational message to the student body in the assembly hour on Wednesday morning. It was a great pleasure to have this visitor.

Tom Blake returned Saturday from a trip to New Mexico.

W. T. Wilson was in Mobeetie Sunday.

T. N. Holloway was in Amarillo last Thursday.

Jack Donovan of Mangum, Okla., was in McLean Saturday.

E. E. Dishman was in Pampa Friday.

Racy Morse of Lubbock spent the week end with home folks here.

When PAIN Comes

WHAT many people call indigestion very often means excess acid in the stomach. The stomach nerves have been over-stimulated, and food soured. The corrective is an alkali, which quickly neutralizes acids. And the best alkali known to medical science is Phillips Milk of Magnesia.

One spoonful of this harmless, tasteless alkali neutralizes instantly many times as much harmful acid, and then the symptoms disappear at once. You will never use crude methods when you learn the efficiency of this. Go get a small bottle to try.

Get the genuine Phillips Milk of Magnesia, the kind physicians have prescribed for 50 years in correcting excess acids. 25c and 50c a bottle—any drugstore.

GOLF GOSSIP

By D. A. Davis

No matter how hard you try to get along with folks and how hard you try to please them and how hard you try to do a difficult job well, sooner or later you will say something when you should ought to have been listening, or be listening when by rights you should have been talking. No matter how nice you are, or regardless of all the nice things you say about some folks, most generally you can't please them to save your life. And Boyd Meador is one of our golfers I can't get along with at all. Away last summer when we had our tournament, and which has been forgotten by most folks, he comes along and accuses me of being partial and having pets and leaving all the prominent golfers out of this column, when they do something out of the ordinary.

What Boyd was a-ravin' about was the results of his and Bill Gilstrap's golf match last summer where a bottle of Sweetum hair tonic was involved. Boyd claims he went to quite a lot of trouble and expense getting Bill down here from Amarillo to play off that match. Said he had to feed Bill while he was down here, as well as furnish him plenty of chewing tobacco, which was the most expensive part of it all; and after beating him and winning the hair tonic, I did not say a single word about it. So, folks, what I started out to say was that Boyd Meador beat Bill Gilstrap last summer for the Sweetum hair tonic that Everett Bros. put up as one of the prizes.

I notice in Popular Science where some guy has invented a putter that has an umbrella built in the handle so when you get tired and hot you can open it up, and presto! you are out of the hot sun. Now if some guy will invent a golf club with some kind of a rubber mattress so you can unfold it and blow it up so you can lie down and take a nap while Sammie Cubine gets his proper stance when he goes to hit a ball, or while Dosh Bentley gets ready to make a putt, or while Grover Boswell is finding his tee, they would be doing a mighty good thing for us McLean golfers.

It looks like we will be forced to employ a "grounds keeper" to keep the sandstorms from cluttering up our grounds with other people's sand. It might be cheaper to order a sandstorm from the south to blow that sand back where it belongs. Anyway this is a problem for the newly elected officers to worry over, and not mine.

Tuesday evening was a fine afternoon for playing golf, and quite a few of the boys were out playing. Roy Campbell broke loose and shot a 35 again, which is some mighty good playing, and quite a few others made some good scores. Pete Rice played a round and came in with a 46. The only thing wrong with Pete's playing was he forgot the layout of the grounds and started out on the wrong fairways eight or nine times.

Here is something for you to think about. What do you say that all of us turn in our scores to our secretary and let him keep a score card each month showing our averages, so he can keep a tab on each player and thus enable him to match us up when we play other clubs? As little as you think of it, that is a mighty good thing for us to do. There is no use matching one of our 46 players with a visitor that can shoot a 41 to 44. If we do we are sure to get our ears knocked down every time we play. There is more in properly matching our men than any other one thing we can do. And another thing, be honest with yourselves and turn in just what you make and no more. Unless you do, it will hurt you more than it will anyone else if you are matched up as a 40 shooter when really you are a 44 or 46 shooter.

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB

By Club Secretary.
The Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. R. W. Coleman on Friday at 2:30 p. m. Seven members and one visitor were present.
After the business meeting adjourned, the ladies worked on quilts.
It was voted that the program committee should meet next week with the president and fill out programs in the year books.
Friday of this week there will be a call meeting, with the agent present, for yard demonstration, at the home of Mrs. Bob Sanders. If the weather should not be favorable, a food demonstration will be given by the agent at the home of Mrs. Bridge.

All members are requested to bring plants and seed for exchange; also pieces for wedding ring and friendship quilts.
The club will meet with Mrs. Sam McChellen on the next regular meeting on April 1st.

BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL

The two adult ladies' classes of the Baptist Sunday school will meet with the Fellowship class (the men's class) Sunday morning for opening exercises. A special program has been arranged. The song service will be under the direction of Wayland Floyd. The orchestra under the direction of Robert Davidson will play a special selection.

The fellowship class had the largest attendance last Sunday it has had since its organization, the first Sunday of the year; there were 24 present. Mr. Francis of Perryton was a visitor. Harvey Grigsby was received as a new member. C. L. Wood joined the Sunday before.
A. R. McHaney, president of the class, says the outlook for a large men's class is brighter now than it has been any time since it was organized. Many men of the town have indicated their intention of joining at an early date. Rev. S. A. Cobb is teacher. The time of meeting is 9:45. Come once, and you will want to come again.

TRAVEL STUDY CLUB

Reported.

The Travel Study Club met with Mrs. Butler on March 17. The subject for discussion was national parks.

Mrs. Ed Dishman was leader of the discussion. Mrs. Boswell took us through Yellowstone, a trip on paper that made us wish it could be real. Mrs. Tom Massay told of Mt. Rainier and its marvelous scenery. Mrs. E. E. Watkins gave Glacier National Park, and a brief outline of the expenses of a trip through the parks. A reading by Miss Cook was enjoyed very much.

These subjects are very interesting and the members are learning much of the wonders of our country.

During the social hour, it being St. Patrick's Day, all claimed Irish blood while partaking of the delicious shamrock ice cream and angel food. Those present were: Mesdames W. E. Bogan, C. C. Bogan, G. C. Boswell, C. G. Goff, D. A. Davis, Ed Dishman, Tom Massay, E. E. Watkins, Bob Lynch, C. E. Worthen and Miss Cook.

Panhandle Press Association

A summary of the monthly and quarterly reports of the treasurer of Carson county was published in that county's papers last week. The law requires stated reports from counties, cities and school districts, but as no penalty is attached, it is not always obeyed.

The editor of The News has been invited to take part in the All Nations Press Exhibition to be held at Tiflis, this year, and to have a copy of the home paper on exhibition. It is expected that newspapers from 249 countries, in 181 different languages, will be represented.

Should the full payment bill for war veterans become a law, Gray county veterans would receive $362,717.80, Wheeler county $255,413.10, Donley $168,502.04, Collingsworth $237,449.62. Each holder of a certificate was really due an amount equal to the face value of his certificate last October, as they represent an honest debt by congress for services rendered.

Supt. Boswell was given a vote of honor at the County Council P. T. A. in session here Saturday for being the only school superintendent to have a perfect attendance record at the county meetings. Mr. Boswell is a schoolman who does not lose sight of any phase of school work, keeping up all angles in order to be of service to his community.

The West Texas chamber of commerce is advocating that farmers borrow as little as possible from the government. The more they borrow the more they will have to pay, and they will be paying the government instead of a home man. "Let's borrow as little as possible of this year's production loan" is the slogan adopted by the organization.

The McLean band made the highest grade of any band in the Amarillo competition, regardless of class. This record is remarkable when it is remembered that this was the first time the band had played with only school children as members, and in some cases was the first appearance of a player in the band, their studies heretofore being individual efforts.

Card playing, prize fighting, horse races, wrestling, and so-called sports of similar nature of no benefit to anyone but the promoters, can get columns of free space in the metropolitan newspapers, but let a man offer something of value and he will be charged full advertising rates. Any time we fall for such guff as is sometimes handed in as news we will be ready to quit the newspaper game.

It is now the time of the year for an annual spring clean-up day, but the city forces will not have much to do after Marshal Sparks gets thru with the streets and alleys, as they now present a better appearance than in some time. Men are working out their street tax in a way that adds much to the town's appearance. A little co-operation from the property owners will give us a clean town this spring.

For the past six years The News has had a standing offer to publish financial reports from the city and school district free of charge, working on the theory that the slight cost of publishing might deter such reports from being made; but it seems that we might have been too presumptuous, as no reports have been handed in, and we here and now withdraw the offer. We will be glad to have them, and think that the taxpayers deserve them, but we will charge the regular legal rate for them.

The wets like to tell of the evils of prohibition, and at the same time say that there is no prohibition. They say you cannot make people good by law, but they would not like to see many other laws repealed that are on the books to make people conform to the rights of others. Anyone who is old enough to remember the old saloon days knows that you could see drunks in the gutters, poverty stricken families and wife-beaters in every community—a comparison with our own times that does not speak well for the wets.

A man who was working on an old motor last Sunday evening requested the editor not to mention the fact in the paper that he was working on Sunday. It so happens that the gentleman once conducted a religious meeting in McLean, and when taxed with the statement that he would not have been found working on Sunday at one time in his life, admitted the fact. With prominent labor men asking for a six-hour day and five days work per week, there should be very little excuse for most Sunday work.

We note in a neighboring paper that while the president of their chamber of commerce was in a nearby town in the interest of a local activity, he was reported in another town shopping. These kind of things happen too often for the good of the home town. Preaching trade at home does no good unless it is practiced. To be consistent, the man who makes his money out of the community should spend his money in the community, if he expects the other fellow to have any money to spend with him. This is true whether it be dry goods, or printing.

The front page of the newspaper is its show window, and it is the intention of the editor to place the most important things of the week on this page—things that affect the largest number of people. This cannot be determined until the page is made up at the last minute, and many weeks things of little importance are placed on the first page on account of nothing special happening that particular week. This work is strictly the business of the editor, and he takes pride in trying to have a good looking front page each week. There is no use for anyone to ask for an advertisement on the front page. You only embarrass the editor for this matter must be left to some individual judgment, if the community is to have a paper to be proud of. We make an earnest effort to please everyone, but must insist that our judgment in making up the paper be used. Advertising must be placed to show the best advantage, and if any particular page is desired other than the first page, which carries no advertising, an extra charge is made for the position. And, while we are on the subject, we ask for early copy on many things because we cannot get everything in type at the last minute. This page, for example, is made up on Wednesday; we have only two pages left Thursday morning. It is not a question of "saving space" for an article; it takes a lot of real work each day of the week to get articles in type. If it will be remembered that the editor's bread and butter depends upon printing everything of interest to the people, displayed in a way to please people, you will see that there is no intention to give any one places of preferment that does not deserve it.

Mrs. L. Sligar, Misses Noel and Bailey acted as judges for the Whitefish school declamation contest Tuesday. Supt. Boswell says the McLean schools are glad to assist any school in work of this kind.

Mrs. D. C. Carpenter is a new subscriber to the home paper.

HARDENING OF THE ARTERIES

By Dr. William J. Scholes
Hardening of the arteries is called arteriosclerosis. It is one of the most important features of the process of growing old. Hence, the saying that "a man is as old as his arteries." Arteries which have begun to harden lose their elasticity and some of their capacity to function. Consequently, there is some degree of interference with the blood-supply of the organs of the body, which gradually atrophy and slow up in their activity. The total result is a slowing-up of the activity of the individual. He becomes "old."

Some people seem to inherit better arterial tissue than others. This, together with a life in which the arteries are not abused or damaged, often seems to defer the hardening process beyond the average. Those who begin life with poor arterial tissue, and whose lives result in damage to these structures, may develop arteriosclerosis long before the average.

Common Causes
Syphilis and other infections, lead-poisoning, overeating, excessive muscular activity, and a life of hurry and tension, are regarded as the common causes of arteriosclerosis. Some include alcohol and tobacco in the list.

Bodily and mental fatigue, dizziness, headache, ringing in the ears, and numbness and cramps are early symptoms. All of these may be caused by other conditions, so are not peculiar to arteriosclerosis.

Practise Moderation
Avoidance of infections, or their eradication if present, moderation in all things, including eating, working and muscular activity, and periods of relaxation, lessen the strain on the arteries, and help to prevent them from growing old too early. Even when the process has begun before it should, much can often be done to stay its progress if one is aware of his condition. That is one good reason why a yearly medical examination is advisable.

JESUS RISES FROM THE DEAD

By Rev. Cecil G. Goff

Golden text, 1 Cor. 15:20. Lesson text, John 20:11-23.

Jesus had been buried Friday afternoon by Joseph of Arimathea and Nicodemus, in a new tomb belonging to Joseph. The Jews had asked that a Roman guard be placed at the tomb and that the rock door be sealed with a Roman seal.

v 1-11. Early on Sunday morning, the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene, and others, as we learn from the other Gospels, went to the sepulcher where Jesus was laid. The Roman soldiers were gone, the seal was broken, the stone was rolled away. Mary ran to call the disciples, Peter and John came and entered the tomb. They found only the grave clothes of the Master, and left. Mary arrived alone, after the disciples left, and stood without the tomb weeping.

v 12, 13. There appeared suddenly in the tomb two angels robed in white, sitting at either end of the tomb. Jesus was gone, and God knew something about it. He sent His messengers to tell those who loved Him and His Son. The angels asked Mary why she was weeping. Her reply was that Jesus' body had been taken away. John does not stop to permit the angels to speak, but turns his attention immediately to Jesus. According to the record given in other three Gospels, however, the angels testified to the risen Lord.

v 14-16. Mary turned and there stood a man who asked her why she wept. She did not know him, but inquired about her Master's body. He called her by name. If it was Jesus, she knew Him, for she called Him Rabbouni, or teacher.

v 17, 18. Jesus' body was a transformed body—the resurrection body. He commanded her not to touch Him, but rather to go tell His disciples that He had risen. Mary hastened to bear the message. He also met and gave other women a like commandment.

v 19. Later in the day the disciples had shut themselves in. The Jews were no doubt quite well satisfied after Jesus had been crucified. But when Jesus arose, the soldiers went to the priests. The thing meant the forfeiture of the lives of the guards if it became known to the Roman officers. The priests bribed the soldiers to tell that while they slept, the disciples took away the body of Jesus. They also promised to stand between the soldiers and the governor, should he hear it (Matt. 28:11-15). Thus, no doubt, the Jews were looking for the disciples, to punish them, by the time evening was come. No wonder they had hid away behind closed doors. But while they were here Jesus suddenly appeared in their midst and spoke the words of comfort they needed: "Peace be unto you."

v 20. There was among them a good deal of doubt. Thus Jesus showed them the holes in His hands and the torn place in His side. This convinced all of those present so that they were glad and rejoiced. No greater comfort could have come to their hearts. Jesus, their Lord and Master, had died, but was now risen from the dead and in their midst to give them power and comfort.

Previous to this, however, on the afternoon of the same day, Jesus had appeared to two men. They were going to Emmaus, which was about eight miles from Jerusalem. Jesus joined them and discussed the crucifixion with them. When they arrived at Emmaus they stopped to eat. Jesus broke bread and blessed it and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened and they knew Him, but He was gone!

It seems that no one saw Jesus for a week, but on the next Sunday when the disciples were gathered together, Jesus again appeared to them. This time Thomas was present and accepted the truth of the risen Lord.

Seven of the disciples decided to go back to fishing. They toiled all night and caught nothing. When morning was come there stood nearby on the shore, a man who told them to cast their nets on the other side. They did so and caught so many fish that they were not able to draw in the net. Then John recognized Jesus and told Peter. Peter cast himself into the water and swam ashore while the others came in a little boat.

Jesus appointed a mountain in Galilee where He would meet His disciples. More than five hundred went there. Some doubted, but Jesus drew near and spoke with them. Here He gave His great commandment, sending His followers continually into all places in the world, seeking to bring men to the Master.

After forty days Jesus led His disciples out of Jerusalem near to Bethany. He talked with them on the way, and then when He reached the place He was going, He lifted up His hands and ascended.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Easter Party Suggestions

Easter egg hunt.
These games are really for children but can be adapted to older people. Buy pretty candy eggs. Hide them anywhere in the house. Let the guests hunt for them. Have egg-shaped bags made of tarlatan to hold eggs. Give simple prize to one finding the most eggs.

Cob-Web party.

Tie an egg-shaped card—on which name of guest has been written—to end of string. Wind each string around banister. Then wind strings up and down stairs. At the hidden end of string have a gift wrapped in shape of egg.

Favors.

Favors can be given inside of eggs made of cotton. Wrap cotton around gift. Make it in shape of egg. Tie yellow or purple ribbon around each egg.

Chicken hunt.

This is as good as the egg hunt for an Easter party. Buy little yellow chicks. Hide them. Playing loud and soft music to signify nearness to chicks makes this game a little different.

Egg rolling.

If a party is given in the country or in a yard where there is an attractive hill, the egg rolling custom certainly makes a delightful amusement.

COOKING HINTS

Eggs for Easter Breakfast

I think that boiled eggs served in their shells in pretty egg cups are most appropriate for Easter morning breakfast. There are, of course, three kinds of these: namely—soft, medium and hard, but the most generally liked are the medium of four-minute eggs.

Method: Place eggs on stove in cold water. After water starts to boil, let eggs boil 4 minutes.

Poached eggs on toast make a tasty breakfast.

If the family is too large to bother with individual eggs for breakfast, scrambled eggs are always good and are easy to cook and serve.

At all events, serve eggs for Easter morning breakfast.

Mushroom Soup

1/2 pound mushrooms.
1 quart veal or chicken broth.
1 onion.
2 heaping tablespoons butter.
3 tablespoons flour.
1/2 cup of cream.
Salt and pepper.

or

1/2 pound mushrooms.
1 pint liquid mushrooms and onions cooked in.
1 pint milk.
1 little onion.
3 tablespoons flour.
2 tablespoons butter.
Method: Chop mushrooms. Cut up onion. Cook 20 minutes. Melt butter. Stir in flour. Add liquids slowly, stir until thick, and season. Mix well.

BAKING HINTS

Hot Cross Buns

2 tablespoons butter.
1/4 cup sugar.
1 cup scalded milk.
Salt.
1/2 yeast cake.
1/4 cup lukewarm water.
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon.
3 cups flour.
1 egg.
1/4 cup raisins.
1/4 cup currants.

Method: Dissolve 1/2 yeast cake in lukewarm water. Mix butter, sugar and salt. Add to milk. When lukewarm, add dissolved yeast cake, flour, cinnamon and well beaten egg. Mix well. Add raisins and currants. Cover and let stand over night to rise. In morning, shape like large biscuits. Place in pan 1 inch apart, let rise, brush over with beaten egg. Bake 20 minutes. Cool, and with ornamental frosting make a cross on top of each bun.

The staff members are bringing home the bacon. Each one is handing his report in on time. Really, it seems that the staffers enjoy writing their reports now. The students are also learning to depend more upon themselves. They learn to do more by doing, rather than having to be told everything.

The staffers plan to have some fun when West Texas weather permits. They believe in work, but there must be some play.

ATHLETIC TEAMS TO LEFORS SATURDAY

The elementary school will send teams to Lefors Saturday to compete in the following events: Tennis, singles and doubles for both boys and girls; volley ball for girls; playground ball, boys and girls.

Miss Coleman has charge of the tennis, Miss Cummings the volley ball and girls playground ball; and Mr. McHaney boys playground ball.

Competition is sure to be keen in all these events, but the McLean school expects to bring back its share of the honors.

With only two weeks left to prepare for the interscholastic league work, the teachers and pupils of the elementary school are working hard to win their share of the events at the county meet and qualify representatives to the district meet at Canyon.

The school will compete in the following events: Music memory, choral singing, junior and sub-junior spelling, picture memory, essay, junior boys and girls declamation, arithmetic, tennis doubles and singles, volley ball, girls and boys playground ball, junior and senior track.

The McLean school has won the ward school championship the past two years. The large loving cup given by the Southwestern Public Service Company last year has been won only one year, however, and must be won three years in succession before it becomes the permanent property of a school. Although the school is working against odds since the high seventh grade pupils are in the high school and there are only 12 pupils enrolled in the low seventh, while some competing schools have the full seventh grade with more than 200 pupils in the grade, yet Mr. McHaney, his teachers and the student body have their minds set to win every point possible and if at all in their power win the championship again. Some fifty or sixty pupils will take part in the different events.

Only a few of the elimination contests have been held. The names of the representatives in the various contests will appear in this column next week.

MISS BAILEY'S ROOM

The pupils in our room having perfect spelling papers for this week are: Jesse Blake Gerard, Valeria Bacon, Marvin Bowman, Peggy Marie Greer, Beatrice Stotts, Evonne Floyd, Thelma Jean Dishman, Mary Ellen Gething, Lorene Spears, Cecil Simpson.

The Y class finished the "Sailing Tub Reader" today. We are always happy to get a new reader.

L. L. Smith is our representative for the story telling contest. We are proud of him and we help him all we can by being good listeners when he tells his story.

MISS NOEL'S ROOM

The pupils who are on the honor roll in arithmetic this week are Clayton Mann, Arthur Boyd and Maudie Dale Woods.

We have a health chart, and every child who washes his hands and bathes regularly gets his name on the chart and is given a gold star. Every one is working hard to get a star every week.

MUSIC

We are working very hard getting ready for our choral contest and music memory contest for the interscholastic meet at Lefors on April 1. We have been dramatizing interesting incidents taken from the lives of the composers we have studied.

Building scales using the major scale pattern has been the subject of much discussion and has caused some hard work the past week.

We have had some splendid symphony orchestras in our different classes. Each child was allowed to select the kind of instrument he would like to play. Then a conductor for the orchestra was chosen. Next a concert manager was selected. These two arranged the players in the proper seating arrangement and gave them a picture of the instrument they were to play. Then they were ready to perform. A selection rendered by a symphony orchestra was played on the portable. As the different instruments were heard, the child holding that instrument held it above his head.

FOURTH GRADE

We have lost three pupils from our room. Jewel and Marie Yohe have moved to Shamrock. Mary Ruth Blake moved to New Mexico.

Harold Watkins was absent Friday because he was ill. He is back in school this week. Several pupils were absent Monday because of bad weather.

MRS. HARRIS' ROOM

Our room was given a picnic by the room mothers, Mrs. Amos Thacker and Mrs. Johnnie Back, for having the most visitors on parents' day. We left the school building at one o'clock and went to the park, where we played games, and everyone had a good time. Then came our surprise of pop corn balls, candy and peanuts.

The following children have had perfect spelling lessons the past week: Ida Mae Stockton, Vernon Ruff, Betty Jo Crockett, Carl Raymond, Joe Charles Roberts, Louise King, Lason Lee, Opal Thacker, Ira Patty, Bernice McClellan, Edith Ayer, Christine Kennedy, Lena Mae Glenn and J. R. Glenn.

MRS. SLIGAR'S ROOM

We enjoyed our reading tests very much. Our scores ranged from 47, which lacked one of being perfect; down to 9. One child showed a reading grade of 3.45, and a reading age of 9 years. We are looking forward to taking another test soon. We are working hard on the tiny tots' story telling contest. Our room will enter three or four contestants in the elimination next Tuesday.

WISE OWLS AND SLY FOXES

By Louise Stotts
 The Wise Owls who stayed on the spelling honor roll last week were Jack Young, Johnnie Mae Scott, Louise Stotts, and Vada Appling. Eddie Smith was the only one that stayed on the Sly Foxes spelling honor roll.

We have added a few more signs on our "Road to Grown-up Town." The signs are "Bathtub Bay," "Tooth Brush Trail," "Road to Revolving Lighthouse," and "Vegetable Parade Grounds." The signs are looking better every day. Bobby Nell Davidson's sign went up on the "Road to Grown-up Town" Monday because her sign was the best of all the signs. Dora Mae has more signs on the highway than any one else in the class.

MEDICINE TIME

By Margaret Kennedy
 Well, folks, I guess you'd like to hear One of my speeches, and give a cheer. Now when it comes to medicine time, I had rather not try to think of a rhyme. You know how bad it always tastes. When you want to go for a race, When you have to take it each Saturday: Inside it makes you go all "pitter-patterry." I guess you've heard all there is to hear, So now I'll let you cheer and cheer.

THE LITTLE BEGGAR BOY AND HIS SONG

By W. C. Stotts
 As I look from the window of my castle down on the street, I see all sights and smell nice things to eat. Over on one side in a lonely spot I see a sight that makes my blood hot— A little boy dressed in a dirty rag. As he signs, he makes an effort to beg. As I listen to the words, and how he sings, Of old fashioned songs and of up-to-date things; As he sings an old one, he reminds me of something long gone— The little beggar boy and his song. Of the day when I lay in my mother's lap And she sang me to sleep for my evening nap. Probably his mother, before she had died, Had sung him to sleep with the same joy and pride. The sun is setting and night is drawing in near:

My worry and my troubles seem to disappear, And I close my eyes and drift away to paradise— Back to my old mother singing me her lullabies. She held me in one arm, and with the other shelling beans, She sang me the lullaby the beggar boy now sings.

When I opened my eyes, the little beggar had fallen asleep, And something went into my heart, away down deep. I rang for a butler and said: "Go bring the boy up and put him to bed." After thinking it over, I thought it a deed To put him fine clothes and everything he would need; To teach him to do right and never wrong— The little beggar boy and his song!

Now folks, read this letter and wait until next week to see what the answer is.

Dear Opt: I was wondering the other day if Pocahontas really saved John Smith's life. Some people think that she did, and some think that she didn't. So I don't know which way to believe. I am just between a rock and a hard place, as some people might say.

The day I had to walk home in the sand I had a person to ask me which way I thought. I didn't know what to say, so I decided to write to you and find out. Please answer soon and tell me before someone else asks me.

FIFTH SPELLING

The following pupils have made a hundred last week: Mabel Back, Willie Louelle Cobb, George Colebank, Thelma Jo Gray, Margie Lochridge, Jessie May Lynch, Julia Mertel, Billie Bert, Ruth Thacker, C. A. Watkins and Mary Louise Smith.

THRIFTY TEXANS PROGRAM

Chairman James Lee Rice took charge of the program. He called upon Faye Coleman to assist him with the Texas word pictures. These were really good. It was rather unusual when so many wrote about the fall of the Alamo! Or was it unusual? That seems to be the most impressive scene to a Texan.

J. L. Hess and daughter, Miss Ruth, were in Amarillo Saturday.

INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE

By Wilma Sue West
 In declamation we had an elimination contest Wednesday at the high school auditorium. There were six boys and six girls. The following were left in: Mary Alice Wilson, Eula Fay Foster, Willie Louelle Cobb, Marietta Young, Wilson Shaw, J. D. Back and James Lee Rice.

MY IDEA OF A BIG BROTHER

By Jessie May Lynch
 I think a big, kind, sweet brother would be so nice. I want one that is not so rough and "pushy," and who would be kind to his sister. My ideal brother wouldn't get angry so quickly. If I were a boy, I would be nice, very nice to girls. I wouldn't chase them on my horse. Neither would I turn the hose in their face while they were taking a shower bath. Would you hide anyone's bathing suit? I wonder if there are any nice brothers!

SPORTS

By Junior Braxton
 The Anti-Cans' in the sixth grade had a contest. The side that lost had to take the winners on a picnic. We are going next week. The high school boys played the grammar school Thursday. The score was 12 to 9 in favor of the grammar school. The high school girls played the grammar school girls. The score was 22 to 11 in favor of the high school.

HONOR ROLL IN SPELLING

Tourist—"Could you give me a room and bath?"
 Landlady—"I can give you a room but not a bath."
 Teacher—"Who can tell me what the former ruler of Russia was called?"
 Class (in unison)—"Czar."
 Teacher—"Correct. And what was his wife called?"
 Class—"Czarina."
 "Correct. And what were the Czar's children called?"
 A pause, and then a small timid voice piped up—"Czardines."
 Teacher—"Are there any more questions you would like to ask about whales?"
 Small Girl—"Teacher, what has the prince got to do with them?"
 Believe this! Bernard Lowe made "low" score in a hunter's contest in history.
