Math Books, Current Science, American Observer, Weekly News Review and Professional Books for the teachers. The total paid out for books and magazines this year is $48.32. Thirty-six books have been returned from the bindery. After being recovered they are like new. $49.73 was spent for the re-covering of the books. The $1.00 library fees paid by the high school students help to cover the cost of new books and magazines added to the library each year. Fiction for English classes will be purchased soon.

MEET THE SENIORS Name—James Emmett Cooke. Age—16. Birthplace—McLean. Schools attended—McLean. Ambition—history teacher and millionaire. Hobby—boxing. Activities—football, tennis and band. School I plan to attend—Oklahoma University.

FRESHMEN In college the freshmen are called slime; They're trilled, and thrashed, and spanked. The way they are treated is simply a crime. When they're locked up and off their backs their clothes are yanked. But in our school we're not that bad; To have our "fish" we're just ever so glad. Welcome Freshmen, welcome Freshmen

SPORTS By Mack TIGERS DEFEAT MOBEETIE The Tigers completely smothered the Mobette Hornets in their first conference game of the season, and ran up a score of 58-6 with the reserves playing nearly half of the game. The Tigers scored during each quarter; 20 points the first quarter, 6 the second, 13 the third, and 19 the fourth. The visitors' lone score came during the second period soon after the reserves took over the battle for the Tigers, with the ball deep in their own territory. It is doubtful whether McLean has ever witnessed prettier ball carrying than was done in this game by Stratton, Christian, Cunningham and Laswell during the two quarters they worked in the back field. Once, when they got possession of the ball on their own 20, as a result of a touchback, they each took turns at carrying the ball and in the four plays the ball was placed on the Hornets' 1 yard line, a distance of 79 yards. The first three plays of the series netted exactly 20 yards each, and the fourth 19 yards. These boys carried the ball for 27 downs and gained a total of 360 yards, or about 13 yards per play. Cunningham made the longest run of the game when he got loose through the right side of the line and ran 45 yards for a touchdown. It is also doubtful whether McLean fans have ever seen a line so perfect in blocking their man out of the plays and opening holes for the backs to go through. During the game McLean made 18 first downs, gained 467 yards from scrimmage, completed two of the three passes tried for a gain of 40 yards, punted twice for a total of 40 yards, lost the ball one time when fumbled, recovered one fumble, intercepted one pass and received 25 yards of penalties. Mobette made 4 first downs, gained 82 yards from scrimmage, completed 8 passes of 14 for a total gain of 34 yards, punted 7 times for a total of 130 yards, lost the ball one time when fumbled, recovered one fumble and received 30 yards of penalties. Lineup: McLean—center, McCarty, guards, Cooke, Chilton; tackles, Kennedy; King; ends, Johnson, Nicholson; backs, Laswell, Christian, Cunnham, Stratton, substitutes — Back, Graham, Price, Watson, Braxton, Roth, Overton, Cupell, Chambers, Brawley, Finley, Cash, Hess, Coleman. Mobette—center, W Sims; guards, J. Sims, Cook; tackles, Gudge, Bran-non; ends, Ridgway, Owens; backs, Ring, Crump, Farmer, Seitz. Substitutes—Dart, Gordon, Ward, Zill, Moore, Bartham, Dunn, Johnson. Referee, Brown, McMurry College; umpire, Biggers, W. T. S. T. C.; head lineman, Duncan, Trinity University; field judge, Powers.

Beat Memphis—Beat Shamrock TIGERS TO MEMPHIS OCT. 11 The next game on the Tiger schedule is with Memphis on their home court. The Memphis boys are reported to be plenty tough and are likely to put up a fight. They are strong contenders for the district championship. They are strongest in the air, so Coach Allen is keeping his backs busy knocking down passes this week, as the local boys have showed up a little weak in this phase of defense in the former games played.

The Road to Better Health By Dr. Robert Ambrose Elliott RHEUMATISM Who knows what rheumatism is? Ask any member of the medical profession and his answer will be obscure. To be honest, it is a difficult question to answer. In fact I doubt if it can be answered. There are certain conditions that we may be able to explain as the presence of uric acid and streptococcus in one or more of its classifications. But these conditions are typical of many other diseases as well. So, that hardly answers the question: "What is rheumatism? Your best answer, no doubt, will come from someone who has suffered from rheumatism, but his explanation will describe how the disease affected him. The next unfortunate sufferer will describe his symptoms, and so on. Its Symptoms For the sake of argument I will say that rheumatism is a constitutional disease marked by such symptoms as pain, redness, congestion or swelling of the connective tissue of the body, affecting the muscles and joints. Pain is always present and the presence of pain is one of the reasons why this article is written. Relief May Be Had Exposure being a factor, rheumatic sufferers make good weather prophets. When once the disease is well established, relief may be had only at intervals. Calcium deposits or uric acid deposits have changed the nature of the above mentioned tissues and stiffness of the joints and muscles results and the person so afflicted becomes a confirmed rheumatic. Yet, don't become discouraged! There are any number of remedies which give relief. Sodium salicylate has long been an "old standby." It combats an acid with an acid and is something like fighting fire with fire. The citrus fruits contain citric acid and are also well recommended. In fact citric acid as found in the citrus fruits has a very important part to play in rheumatism. The lemon is a citrus fruit. So is the orange, grapefruit and tangerine, but lemons and grapefruit are almost indispensable in the treatment of rheumatism, especially in adults and older patients. Oranges and tangerines are best for growing children. I have found in my practice that oranges in excess often aggravate rheumatic and neuralgic patients. Try hot lemonade along with other recognized rheumatic remedies you may be taking if you suffer from rheumatism and you may have a pleasant surprise in store for yourself.

Who will believe the message of Jehovah? Experience tells us that few will believe that God may really reveal Himself and His whole purpose to them. The picture is one of a shoot coming up out of the dry soil from the root of a tree that has been cut down. The tree was David. The shoot was Christ—a shoot out of the root of Jesse—the dry ground the poor conditions under which He came and worked. The Jews were looking for a mighty tree, they found an un- commonly sprout and would not believe Him. The prophet here makes the true statement concerning the coming Messiah. We know that He did bear our griefs and carried our sorrows, but the people who did not, and even now do not accept His burden bearing, feel that the punishment of God lay upon Him. He did that which men are not willing to recognize. His burden bearing was not all. The hurt that should come because of our transgressions of God's laws is found in His body shielding us. The bruising that comes as a result of our sins is upon Him rather than upon us. We deserve anything but peace. Our desert is chastise- ment, but He has taken that in order that we might have peace instead. In- stead of our bodies and lives being marked by sin, the mark of the whip of punishment rested upon His body. Therefore, because He bleeds, we are healed from our iniquities. That is a lot in the light of the fact that we each have gone our own ways in the paths of sin and self-satisfac- tion. Such is a paradox, and yet it is the way God had of working the thing out. We have sinned. We are unable to bear the punishment of that sin. Therefore, God just places that sin upon His righteous Servant. There is the plan of salvation.

The Servant bore His suffer- ing silently, because He bore it by His own choice, and not by necessity. As is portrayed in Phil. 2. He emptied Himself of His heavenly glory to bear the sins of the world, that His grave might be made with that of sinners, though He was buried in the tomb of the rich. The lack of the neces- sity was what constituted the grace in His sacrifice. All this pleased Jehovah. God had made His people and they had sinned. He wanted to bring them back to a state of divine association. There was but one way—for His righteous Servant who had the power to choose to bear the iniquity of the people. This pleased God. Christ was willing to make this division of

His glory with the creation of God— with the great and strong—those who were willing to share it with Him— those who were able to appreciate and accept it humbly from the hand of God as a gift. It was God's doing, not man's. It is man's to accept or reject.

The writer, Isaiah, was taking his message from God who looked down through time to see the things of the future years as the present. Might we remember that God still sees the future as the present, and heed the admonition He gives us. The same message He had for His people those thousands of years ago will still be valuable if we heed it. But no, we look for something we do not find and perish. Here is His message, accept it and live.

Text: "Labor not to be rich—Prov. 23:4a.

RICHES OR HAPPINESS?

We often hear of people who would like to have a million dollars. They feel quite certain of what they would do with their coveted lump of gold. Such is human nature. Many people would like to acquire wealth by a "get-rich-quick" scheme. Then, they learn their financial miseries would be at an end. But—would they? Now and then the newspapers give us reports of such who acquired riches all of a sudden. Instead of being rid of their miseries they acquired more trouble. Here is a typical ex- ample:

In 1929 a 27-year-old woman won a $15,000 Irish Sweepstakes prize. She thought herself to be the "luckiest woman in the U. S." The press re- cently reported, "Now she's out of a hospital after a physical breakdown, feeling, 'My winnings have brought me nothing but misery.' . . ." This woman from Hoboken, New Jersey, would have been happier, no doubt, if she had never bought a sweep- stakes ticket. Fame and fortune were hers—but not for very long. Good health is more desirable than wealth. The "get-rich-quick" scheme never brought good results. Why? Because such a method is not sanctioned by the Lord.

The Lord says through the writer of Proverbs: "Labor not to be rich." He also says: "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favor than silver and gold." Prov. 22:1.

Wealth without sanction and bless- ing is on the same level with poverty and ruin. It is not wrong to be wealthy if the riches are acquired honestly and used to spread the king- dom of Christ and to help mankind. However, it is no disgrace to be poor financially. Many poor people are very happy. They do not live beyond their means. They do not covet riches which cannot be theirs. In their poverty they are blessed with hap- piness and contentment. Such bless- ings cannot be purchased with gold. We should labor to be rich in faith and not to be rich in dazzling gold and silver which may deprive us of happiness and be instrumental in the loss of our faith in the Lord. To many riches were not a blessing but a damnable curse.

Let us be content with what we have. The Lord will provide us with daily necessities. It is better to be poor but happy than to be wealthy and miserable. And so, "Labor not to be rich." The Lord knows what is best for all of His faithful children.

Household Hints

By Jean Mueller

Cooler days make us want more substantial breakfasts. Here are a few of my favorite recipes:

CORNMEAL MUSH

Let one quart of milk come to a boil. Have ready one pint of cornmeal, one teaspoon of salt, thinned with one pint of cold water, and stir into the boiling milk and cook slowly for about one hour. Let it stand overnight in a wet bread pan. Dip the slices of mush in flour or egg and cracker crumbs. Fry in hot butter.

POTATO PANCAKES

3 cups raw potatoes grated or ground fine in the food chopper. Do not drain. Add 3 eggs and salt and pepper to taste. Fry thin in hot bacon fat and serve immediately with jelly and fried bacon.

COFFEE CAKE

Here is a very good coffee cake that can be made while you are getting breakfast, and it will be ready to serve when your breakfast is ready.

- 1 level tablespoon shortening
- 1/2 cup sugar
- Mix, do not cream
- Beat in 1 egg
- 1 cup milk
- 2 cups flour
- 2 level teaspoons baking powder
- Pinch of salt
- Spread in tins 1/2 inch thick. Mix one egg yolk with one tablespoon of milk and use to moisten the top of the batter. On top of this sprinkle the following mixture:
- 2 teaspoons cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1 cup water
- 1/2 cup chopped almonds
- 1/2 teaspoon cardamon
- Bake in moderate oven 20 minutes.

QUICK PUFF PUDDING

- 1 pint flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 2 cups milk
- 1/2 teaspoon salt

Put well greased cups in a steamer. Put a spoonful of batter in each cup then a spoonful of berries or any other kind of fruit. Cover with another spoonful of batter. Steam for 20 minutes. Serve with cream while hot.

DO YOU KNOW THAT:

1. Baked potatoes are more tender and the quality of the potatoes is greatly improved if they are greased with butter before they are put in the oven?
2. Crisp salads can be had by keeping the salad materials in the refrigerator and by not mixing the salad and dressing until just before serving?

SAVED!

After the last of the dinner guests had taken their departure, the lady of the house rang for the cook. "Nora," she began, "I found a rubber glove in the soup tonight." "Oh, thank you, mum!" - was the grateful reply. "I thought I'd lost it."

A Friendly Suggestion

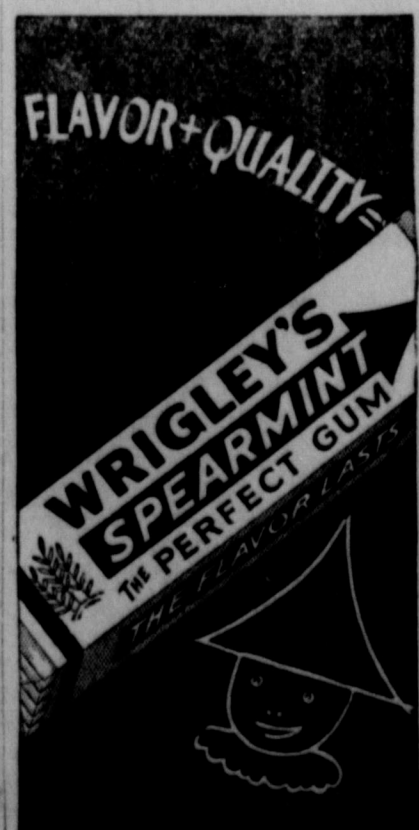

"I want to speak to you as one of the plain people." "Don't do it," replied Farmer Corn-tassel. "You want to realize that times have changed and a prosperous agriculturist looks on himself as somebody rather special."

Fierce Fight, Huh?

"No, John, I don't think a manicurist should marry a dentist." "And why not?" "If we fought, it would be tooth and nail." -Answers Magazine.

A DEPARTMENT STORE

Last week a man came into this office with blood in his eye, a couple of dollar bills clutched in his hand, and a thorough determination to assert the righteousness of his anger.

He was angry. Not plain angry but just hopping mad. It seems there had been something in the paper he didn't like, some editorial comment which marched in icy tread right down the marrow of his backbone. And so he stopped his paper—wouldn't have the dirty sheet come into his home again.

It was not an unusual incident—such things happen once or twice in every newspaper office in the average year. Sometimes they happen more or less often, depending on how outspoken, how brave or how tactless an editor may be.

But the incident gave us cause to reflect. Your home town newspaper is, after all, a rather elaborate department store with items designed to appeal to every age and taste. Sports, editorial matter, society items rural correspondence—each has its own particular following.

Likewise, each store on Main street carries a number of items, hoping that one or at most a few will appeal to every customer. Now it happens that we don't like limburger cheese. Possibly something faulty in our makeup, but we just don't like it. And yet Mr Behnke sells limburger—rank, odiferous limburger. And we continue to buy from Mr. Behnke, buying what we prefer and not boycotting him because he sells limburger.

And our wife quite often buys a little something at Cristy's—to an extent, in fact, which has definite bearing on the family budget. Yet our good friend Mr. Cristy has in stock dresses so ill-adapted to our wife's face and figure that there'd be an ugly family scene if she toted one home. So she doesn't, but chooses items which agree with her taste, and all goes well.

But that same "choosy" selection of items doesn't seem to apply to the printed department store which this office edits and issues each week, probably because we sell each customer not one item or two, but a sample of every item in the store.

So, if the editorials clash with your taste, turn to the front page or the sports. If the broken slugs have a strong limburger smell and you don't like that odor, turn to the want ads. Remember, we offer you for slightly over three cents a choice of every item on our menu. Please don't kick if you don't like them all!—Post, Waupaca, Wis.

PAID NEWSPAPERS ONLY

A new Oklahoma law, effective July 24, provides that a newspaper must be published two years with paid circulation before it can become a legal publication.

"What's the matter with you and your girl?"

"We had a tiff. I told her I was going away forever, and she told me to go."

"Well, if you're any man at all you'll stay away at least a couple of evenings before going to see her again."

Abraham Lincoln

In answering an inquiry from a New York concern, as to the credit standing of one of his neighbors, Abraham Lincoln, before his election to the presidency, wrote as follows:

"Yours of the tenth received. First of all, he has a wife and baby; together they ought to be worth five hundred thousand dollars to any man. Secondly, he has an office in which there is a table worth a dollar and a half, and three chairs worth, say, a dollar. Last of all, there is on one corner a rat hole which will bear looking into."

Cheap, shoddy printing is another rat hole that will bear careful scrutiny.

There are printing buyers to whom price seems to be the all important consideration. Any old thing that can be read at all, seems to satisfy them.

However, we believe that there is a market for good typography; printing that one can take a pride in, printing that is easily read and carries one's message in a way that will influence the prospective customer.

The small difference in the cost of better printing is more than offset by the quality of results, and, above all, the satisfaction which follows good merchandise.
