

It's Possible

Household Hints

By Jean Mueller

It's autumn time . . . how about preserving some of the leaves? To preserve their color, iron them first with a warm iron, not a hot iron, on which some spermaceti has been slightly rubbed. The iron must be hot enough to keep the spermaceti soft or it will not spread on the leaves.

DO YOU KNOW THAT:

1. Cooked food should never be shut up tightly when hot?
2. To slice hard boiled eggs without crumbling, use a knife dipped in boiling water and wiped dry, and repeat as often as it cools?
3. To renovate a food chopper and sharpen the knives grind a piece of sand soap through it?

The bread slices can be cut with cookie cutters in other fancy shapes, spread thinly with butter and arrange different combinations attractively.

Here are a few suggestions:
Cream cheese, mixed with chopped nuts, with currant jelly in the center.
Cream cheese with pimienta chopped, and with green pepper in the center.

Very thin slice of tomato, wiped dry, with a bit of dressing in the center, with chopped green pepper.

Grated cheese, highly seasoned, between thin slices of buttered bread. Toast, open and put in slice of tomato with a little mayonnaise.

THE MESSAGE OF JEREMIAH

Lesson text, Jeremiah 7:1-11, 22-23.
Golden text, "Obey my voice and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people." Jeremiah 7:23.

Last Sunday we studied the life of Jeremiah from a historical standpoint. This Sunday we are to study it from the standpoint of the message he had for the people. To get the proper meaning for this message we must recall the sweeping reforms of King Josiah. For almost fifty years Manasseh had led the people into every kind of idolatry and wickedness. Josiah loved Jehovah and attempted to turn the people back to God. Jeremiah was about the same age as Josiah and began his ministry of prophesying about the same time that Josiah came to the throne.

The Book of the Law was found and read to the people. The king hated all the images of the false gods to be destroyed and their worship to be discontinued. The people followed the king with wild enthusiasm, but they changed their worship in form only. They took great care to perform all the sacrifices in the temple of Jehovah without permitting this conduct to change their thinking, acting or living. This did not satisfy God. He commanded Jeremiah to stand before the entrance of the temple and shout his message to the people.

He calls upon the people to amend their ways and doings. To put it in modern terms, he was calling on them to change their habits and living. They were carrying on the ceremonial ritual which they had not been heretofore doing. But they were living the same as they had always done. They were depending on the holiness of the temple to save them from the punishment of evil by God. Many times had God told His people that it was not their sacrifices that He wanted, but the surrendered hearts that such sacrifices represented. If the sacrifice did represent their spiritual obedience to Him, it meant nothing to Him. Money was not in sacrifice. So ought we to remember today. There is no safety in church membership—it is as a whitened sepulchre filled with dead men's bones. Christ wants a heart that has been changed through results in worship, and not worship from an unchanged heart. The peace and prosperity of God's people depended upon such worship. And no one does the peace and prosperity of our nation today depend completely upon the true surrender of its people to God. Leaders and business do not become this—and we have not been blessed with peace and prosperity either.

God demanded that the lives of His Hebrew people show their change of heart by establishing social justice, righteous judgment, care of strangers, widows, orphans, and the oppressed, and that innocent blood not be shed. He expected the worship of the people, but He demanded that it be backed with such proof of its reality.

It is a call for all the modern world to heed—church affiliation will not cover up wicked deeds from the eyes of God. The modern conception that there is protection from the wrath of God through the communion of the church as she reaches her long arms out to her communicants is no more satisfying to God than was the hypocritical sacrifices of the Hebrews who went straight from the temple to ravage the widows and oppressed of their few possessions.

3. God decreed that Judah must cease to walk after other gods. The king had destroyed the images and the ceremonial worship of all other gods. But Jehovah was not to be fooled. He knew the hearts of the people. They had not given up the wicked and immoral pleasures that went with the serving of other gods. They were willing to give up the ceremonial forms, but not the part they really cherished in their hearts. So they were going through the ceremonial worship of Jehovah and at the same time in spirit and truth worshipping Baal and Ashteroth. How much easier it is for many modern Christians to sit through a picture show, football game or many other good things than it is through a sermon or service for God. These are good things and are to be enjoyed in their place, but not more than service to Jehovah. But also how many nominal Christians enjoy card playing, games with gambling propensities, Sunday outings and kin folk gatherings more than the services of Jehovah. Such an attitude is what God was talking about.

4. The people felt that a ceremonial worship gave them the privilege to use the rest of their time as they pleased without responsibility to God. This He said was robbery, and that such belief followed up with the resultant action made God's house a house and gathering place of robbers. This is strong language, but remember it is the pronouncement of God and not a man. Let us beware of our personal attitude toward our daily responsibility for God.

SPORTS

McLEAN WINS OVER MEMPHIS

The McLean Tigers added the Memphis Cyclone to their list of victories Friday night, when they completely outplayed them and ran across three touchdowns to their one. The Tigers scored during each of the last three quarters. Stratton made all the touchdowns and kicked the goal for one extra point. The lone counter for the Cyclone came early in the fourth period. After three quarters of struggling on the ground with little effect, they took to the air and soon placed the ball on the two yard line, from which point Davis, substitute back, went across the pay line. Crump received a pass for the extra point. Mrs. D. M. Thomas returned Sunday from Lockney, where she has been recuperating from a case of typhoid fever.

Stratton, McLean full, was the outstanding star of the game. He made many short gains from three to 12 yards, and twice broke through for long gains of 37 and 44 yards for touchdowns. Deason and Powers stood out in the home boys' offense. The McLean line stood like a stone wall and was never weakened by the many puffs of the Cyclone. They seemed to have never realized there was more than a gentle breeze blowing. Lineups: McLean—Johnson, Kennedy, Chilton, McCarty, Cooke, King, Nicholson, Christian, Lasswell, Cunningham; Stratton; substitutes, Brawley, Roth, Memphis—McAbee, Swift, Bourland, Gimes, Sanders, Walker, Malone, Powers, Deason, Childress, Adcock; substitutes, Crump, Davis, Estes.

Cigarettes give a lot of pleasure to a lot of people.

More cigarettes are smoked today because more people know about them—they are better advertised. But the main reason for the increase is that they are made better—made of better tobaccos; then again the tobaccos are blended—a blend of Domestic and Turkish tobaccos. Chesterfield is made of mild, ripe tobaccos. Everything that science knows about is used in making it a milder and better-tasting cigarette. We believe you will enjoy them.

When anyone talks about someone else to you, it is pretty certain that he will talk about you to someone else.

The McLean Garden Club could well stage a flower show each year. There are many pretty flowers growing in town this fall that would grace any show.

McLean's streets are getting in bad condition in some parts of town. Dirt streets are a problem in any town, and it is a pity that McLean could not have the principal streets paved with relief labor as many towns have done.

Some plan of street improvement is going to have to be worked out, and the sooner it is done the sooner will we have decent streets and the sooner will the expense of trying to keep dirt streets in shape stop.

Maybe The News should not speak for those merchants who do not speak for themselves, but we can say that local advertisers deserve the consideration of careful buyers. Money can be saved by buying from advertisers in the home paper, for advertisers can sell cheaper on account of increased volume and then they are doing their part in loyalty to the home community and in turn should receive the loyalty of other who believe in their community.

Clean-up week is doubly important at this time in view of the fact that it will be practically universal all over the state. Such weeks are designated in most towns about twice a year from a health and fire prevention standpoint, but this year a great deal of thought is being given to the idea of cleaning up as a matter of civic pride. A lot of towns allow junk yards along the highways and other unsightly things to accumulate that make a very undesirable impression on visitors. All this kind of thing will be discouraged while the centennial celebration is in the making and in progress. Let us hope that the idea will become a permanent one in the mind of every citizen and that hereafter more thought will be given to beautification than has ever been given before.

OPTIMO

By A. T. Wilson

Happy Day Optimo says:
I had rather be living today than at any time during the world's history, for a person can get more satisfaction out of life than Father Adam could when he had all the world for himself and wife, but got in bad before his honeymoon was over. He didn't even have a flashy necktie or a pair of striped trousers. After living 930 years he died without even seeing a picture show, hearing a radio, riding an auto or airplane, tasting good whiskey or coffee, smoking a cigarette, and never once saw a football game. Life in those days most certainly was a slow and painful process. We have made more progress in the last three score and ten years than in either Adam's or Methuselah's lifetime, and a man can see more of the world in a month's time than Marco Polo saw in his years of travel. And a modern man's heart sure does go out to old Columbus as he crawled up the ship's mast to look in vain for the new world, dreading to come down for fear a mutinous crew would put him to death. In ancient and medieval times a man could not serve God according to the dictates of his own conscience, but now a man can serve God or the devil more ways than a farmer can whip a mule. In ancient days they stoned a man to death for picking up sticks to cook with on Sunday, but now a man can cut, thresh and store a thousand bushels of wheat on Sunday and people will say he is about half smart. The laws of the Medes and Persians were written in blood and were enforced to the letter, as Daniel found out, but now a man can trample the laws of the nation under foot and yet go scot free. Moses made some harsh laws, but now justice is tempered with mercy. There never was a time when a man could pluck the government with impunity as he can now and get by with it as he can now.

The school kids of today don't have half the snotty noses, dirty hands, or that awful odor that results from baths untaken. Seventy years ago it took a person days to make a pair of pants that would draw up above your shoe tops when washed and make you look like Ned in the first reader, but now lots of laborers earn enough in one hour to buy a pair of pre-hunk pants that will continue to fit perfectly. Georgia stock farmers used to meet in town and ask each other "how many furrows are you going to the row?" and now they say "how many rows do you take at a through?" Fifty years ago when a man died with appendicitis the doctor would call the disease some hifalutin' name folks couldn't pronounce, but now they take you to a hospital, operate, and tell you to pick up your bed and walk and it's not much worse than a bad cold.

A man ran himself to death carrying the news of a great battle, 29 miles to Athens, and made record time, but Admiral Dewey cabled the news of the battle of Manila Bay to New York and it got there several hours before it was fought (by New York time).

There was a time when some men had to keep up over a hundred wives, but the law won't allow him to keep up but one now. A man sued a woman for alimony the other day, and in a few more years he may be collecting it. One of the best signs that humans are living longer, which must be evidence that they are living more comfortably than in bygone years, and lastly, but not least, the shot gun weddings are not nearly so frequent as of yore. Surely, after watching several hundred happy and healthy school children go blithely away from the school house, you will readily conclude that the country has not gone to the dogs as Calamity Harpoon Pessimism would have you believe.

When the human element adjusts itself to our mechanical inventions and takes advantage of scientific research and we learn to quit fighting one another, which is all coming about in the near future, we will enter into one of the greatest eras of peace, prosperity and pleasant progress that the world has ever known and the coming generation are the ones that will get the job done. Beyond the depression (Alps) lies Italy where the sun shines, the birds sing and the flowers bloom.

Smart Play Frock That's Easy to Sew

PATTERN 2382

Pleated for play, in a very new way, this child's frock gives her plenty of room for romping. Her mother will find this smart frock so easy to cut and put together, and a very economical pattern, since bloomers are included with the dress. You can make these up in the same material, or just plain white to wear with other frocks, and no child can have too many pairs. The buttoned closing of the frock takes a new slant, and don't worry about those four pleats! They're as easy a decoration as you've ever made. Colorful novelty cotton for that crisp look, and a choice of short or long sleeves. Pattern 2382 is available in sizes 2, 4, 6 and 8. Size 6 takes 2 1/2 yards 36 inch fabric and 3/4 yard contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included. Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE. Address orders to the Sewing Circle Pattern Dept., 243 West Seventeenth St., New York City.

The Road to Better Health

By Dr. Robert Ambrose Elliott

CROUP

Croup is somewhat of a companion to a cold, or coryza. However, we associate croup with children. Croup with hoarseness can affect adults as well as children; in fact, the membranous type or diphtheria often claims its victims in all classes at all ages. Croup, like fires, seems to possess a sinister thing in common, namely, they occur more often and carry with them the element of something to be dreaded.

Seldom Fatal

Members of the medical profession who have practiced for some time and most any one of a large family will have no difficulty in remembering the time when they were sure the little sufferer would expire only to come through the night with all symptoms apparently subsided. There is hardly a picture to be drawn that manifests more of a serious nature than a child with a bad case of croup. The symptoms are hoarseness, laryngitis (affecting the vocal cords), a hoarse voice nearly always accompanied with a hoarse cough. When the congestion is considerable and the exudate is thick and tenacious, then breathing is difficult and seemingly impossible.

These symptoms present a gloomy picture, but peculiar as it may seem, fatal results seldom occur unless the true membranous is present instead of the spasmodic type. Diphtheria or membranous croup is easy to determine, especially by those of some experience. The usual chills and fever are present and early a pale ashen grey membrane covers or partly covers the back part of the throat and tonsils. An attempt to remove this film very likely will cause bleeding and the appearance of an ashen grey membrane described should prompt speedy attention. Get the family doctor on the job at once. Lose no time because minutes mean much just now.

How to Treat It

Getting back to the common spasmodic type of croup, you will find that quick relief is often achieved through the means of a flannel soaked in cold water and wrapped entirely around the neck. Cover this with dry wrapping of some sort to keep the cold in, and the wet from soaking the bedding. Use a mild gargle, and apply most any of the common bland non-irritating local applications found in your drug store.

Latest Millinery Style Trends

hoods are here to broadcast to style-seeking enthusiasts who are looking for something "different." In recording latest millinery style trends special highlights flash across the picture, such as the new braided effects done either in santonche or rattail. Gold cord and tassels, drum-major pompons bespeak the military influence which is so widely exploited. As to the models illustrated, the little felt at the top to the left carries a Breton sailor brim, for Bretons are even more popular than they were. The crown is pressed in a novel way which is a characteristic feature of the newer hats. Note two ostrich tips. If you are the type that looks well in the new halo brims, it's your good fortune for they are "in" this season. The one shown at the top to the right in the group, is velvet with bandeau of velvet ribbon. "Bow at the front" is a favorite theme among milliners at present. Going to wear feathers on our hats? Three out of the half dozen models here pictured answer in the affirmative. A parrot with long tail feathers in brilliant red, yellow, blue and green graces the side of a black felt sports hat as centered in the picture. Plumes are pressed into the brim and crown. The velvet hat in the lower left corner has gone military with its trimming of gold cord and tassel semi-circling the crown. It has the new forward brim. The Mercury hat as shown to right below, of pleated felt simulating a feathered wing, is extremely smart. It's wine-colored felt. Comes last, but not least, in the inset below the new baby bonnet which makes youth look fresh, coy and demure all at once. It is of black velvet and fits like a skull cap. Curled ostrich tips west the crown.

As to brims, it is the brim with the forward plunge, the brim that goes streamline right over the forehead, that carries a message of real importance, because it is distinctly new. Then, too, these brims fold up so as to hug the crown at the back, which makes them delightfully wearable with high coat collars.

New, too, is the peaked crown which is decidedly conical in shape. Usually a roll of velvet forms the turban headline for the pointed crown. As to more startling millinery news, bonnets and

THERE'S no such word as "can't" when it comes to finding a becoming hat. Yes, indeed you can. Somewhere in the vast showing of millinery fashions your hat is waiting for you, for there is simply no limit to variety of types that appear on the program of modish headgear this season.

To enumerate a few—there is the turban (very smart in Paris with high whimsical crowns and amusing veils) and the off-face types, especially the halo brims which Agnes launched at the first of the season. The Tyrolean sports effects top tall tweeds to perfection. These are notably in felt but they are really at their best in genuine Austrian velvet trimmed with a jaunty multi-colored quill. Then there is the ever beloved beret answering "present" to the roll call. However it is a beret of many moods this season. As to brims, it is the brim with the forward plunge, the brim that goes streamline right over the forehead, that carries a message of real importance, because it is distinctly new. Then, too, these brims fold up so as to hug the crown at the back, which makes them delightfully wearable with high coat collars.

New, too, is the peaked crown which is decidedly conical in shape. Usually a roll of velvet forms the turban headline for the pointed crown. As to more startling millinery news, bonnets and

WOOL-SLEEVED FUR

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Here's a smart new idea; one of those touches that tells at a glance that 'tis a high fashion. We are referring to the wool sleeves set into a swag fur coat, as you will note if you look close. Soft gray flecked woolen and gray kidskin are beautifully combined in this stunning street ensemble. Note the high turnover cowl of the gilet, which is worn over the blouse for extra warmth on chilly days. The coat may be fastened high at the throat. Gray is regarded as one of the leading colors for fall.

Cellophane Flowers
A cluster of cellophane flowers which look as though they were made of glass is tucked into the collar of an evening wrap.

Bag and Gloves
An outstanding accessory rule this fall is for gloves and bag to match in color.

FURS OUTSTANDING ON STYLE PROGRAM

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

According to early season predictions furs will be the outstanding fashion note of the season, whether it's just an ascot or a full-length mink. The American woman is beginning to realize that furs are no longer luxuries, but are absolutely necessary to her wardrobe. The demand this year is tending more towards higher priced furs rather than for inferior unreliable types.

According to latest reports, mink, caracul and Persian lamb will be the most popular dress furs this season with Hudson seal, kidskin, leopard and leopard cat leading in the sports furs.

Paris couturiers are outdoing themselves in a most beautiful working of furs. Notably in the early showings is a white broadtail evening wrap, also a silver fox cape enveloping 12 skins of leather weight. Velvet trimmed with chinchilla is another intriguing treatment exploited.

With Paris style leaders featuring fur in every conceivable manner America has accepted the challenge with the result that during national fur week set for the near future furs will be dramatized in a way that will outclass all previous showings.

Revival of "Dog Collar" Heads New Autumn Ideas

Key-shaped bar pins and a revival in "dog collars" of the type worn by dowagers at the turn of the century head the list of new fall ideas in costume jewelry.

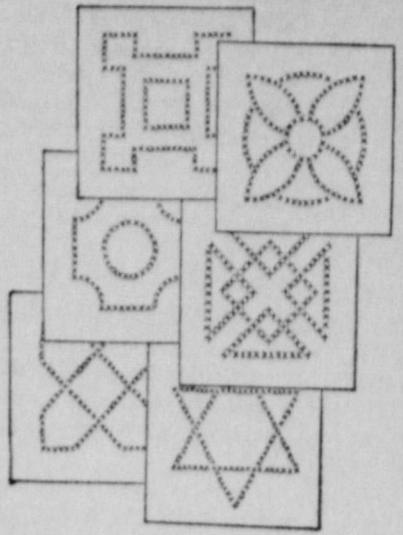

The key pins are shown in gold or silver hued metals of several styles. The 1935 version of the "dog collar" has a youthful air, with a definite appeal to the college girl without a sign of a double chin or wrinkled throat.

One style was of three strands of pearls. The black velvet band in narrow or wide widths is back. One 2-inch velvet band had a large rhinestone ornament in front. A 3/4-inch band had a tiny rhinestone ornament in front and one in either side.

Flaring Collar
A charming dinner dress of black transparent velvet has wide flaring collar and cuffs of novelty white velvet. Fullness in the sleeves comes from shirring at the shoulders, and with shirring at the soft neckline.

CROSS-STITCH QUILT BLOCKS

By GRANDMOTHER CLARK

Cross-stitch is about the simplest thing in handwork. Little girls make their stitches in cross-stitch. These six-inch blocks are stamped in cross-stitch designs on white muslin and little girls to grandmothers will enjoy making them into everything from small dollies to pillow tops, scarfs and bedspreads. Easy to carry around, working one at a time and then assembling into articles wanted when all the squares are finished.

Outfit No. 464 consists of 6 of these six-inch stamped squares and will be mailed to you for 10 cents. Address Home Craft Co., Dept. A, Nineteenth and St. Louis Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

Inclose stamped, addressed envelope for reply when writing for any information.

Radios Gain in Sweden

Celebrating its tenth anniversary of broadcasting service, the government-owned radio system of Sweden is pointing with pride to the fact that there are about 600,000 licensed radios in the country as against only 5,000 eight years ago. Trade Commissioner Basil D. Dahl reports to the Department of Commerce from Stockholm.

The market for radios in Sweden is estimated at 50,000 to 60,000 a year, most of them being of domestic origin due to patent restrictions that limit imports. Swedish set owners pay an annual license fee of 10 crowns (about $1.75) to their government for the listening privilege.

World's Most Famous Babies Eat Oatmeal

The Dionne Quintuplets, wards of the King, eat the same cereal that is eaten by millions of babies who don't get their names in the papers—oatmeal. The Canadian government chose a staff of special experts for the care of the Quints. And these experts, their scientific knowledge endorsing the instinctive choice of mothers the world over, have chosen oatmeal for the cereal of the famous five.

Oatmeal, eminent medical authorities agree, has an abundance of everything a child's cereal should have—body-building minerals, muscle-building protein, and the supremely important Vitamin B for keeping fit.

Food science says that Vitamin B is the best safeguard against those dangerous enemies of childhood—nervousness, constipation, and poor appetite due to lack of that vitamin in the diet.

Shock Bursts Brain
Evidence that people killed by lightning or by other shocks of high-voltage electricity die because their brains or blood vessels have exploded has been reported by Dr. Macdonald Critchley, nerve specialist of the King's College hospital in London.

This is believed to be why shock victims who recover report that of the sensation of such a shock is that of a violent blow. Specimens of nerve tissue taken from people who have been shocked, Doctor Critchley finds to be shredded or "ballooned," as though an explosion had occurred inside them. Blood vessels in the brain are found to be burst so that blood has run out much as it does when one of these blood vessels bursts spontaneously and causes apoplexy. Small hollow spaces in the brain tissue frequently look at though they had been burst by violent explosions inside them.

OH, MISS—I'D LIKE MY CHECK, PLEASE
YOU'LL HAVE TO WAIT A MINUTE... I CAN'T BE EVERYWHERE AT ONCE!
ASK HIM IF HE'D LIKE A CUP OF COFFEE—DOWN THE BACK OF HIS NECK!
WHY MARY! THAT'S NO WAY TO TREAT MR. JENKINS! DON'T YOU KNOW HIS FATHER IS THE RICHEST MAN IN TOWN?
I DON'T CARE—HE'S JUST ANOTHER FUSSY CUSTOMER TO ME!
TELL HER THAT IF SHE HAD YOUR HEADACHES AND INDIGESTION, CUSTOMERS WOULDN'T GET OUT OF HERE ALIVE!

I KNOW YOU'RE NOT FEELING WELL, BUT DIDN'T THE DOCTOR TELL YOU TO GIVE UP COFFEE AND SWITCH TO POSTUM?
YES, BUT WHY SHOULD I? COFFEE NEVER HURT ME!
OF COURSE NOT! PAY NO ATTENTION TO SUCH TRIPE!
WELL, MARY, IF YOUR DISPOSITION DOESN'T IMPROVE WE'LL HAVE TO GET ALONG WITHOUT YOU! CUSTOMERS ARE COMPLAINING!
THEN—I SUPPOSE I'LL HAVE TO TRY POSTUM!
CURSES! THAT LICKS ME! I NEVER COULD STAND UP AGAINST POSTUM!

WHY IS MARY LEAVING? SINCE SHE SWITCHED TO POSTUM SHE'S BEEN OUR MOST POPULAR WAITRESS!
OH, DIDN'T SHE TELL YOU? SHE'S ENGAGED TO MARRY YOUNG MR. JENKINS WHO COMES IN HERE EVERY DAY!
I THOUGHT only children had to avoid coffee... how could it have been harming you?
"Oh, many adults, too, find that the caffeine in coffee upsets their nerves, causes indigestion or prevents sound sleep!"
If you suspect that coffee disagrees with you... try Postum for 30 days. It contains no caffeine. It is simply whole wheat and bran, roasted and slightly sweetened. It's easy to make, and costs less than half a cent a cup. Postum is delicious and may prove a real help. A product of General Foods.

UPSETS
The proper treatment for a bilious child

TO RELIEVING CONSTIPATION
I II III
Decreasing dose today; a smaller quantity tomorrow; less each time, until bowels need no help at all.

Every mother knows the reason why her child stops playing, eats no food, and is hard to manage. Constipation. What a pity so few know the simple way to set things right! The ordinary laxatives, of even ordinary strength, destroy all hopes of restoring regularity. A liquid laxative is the answer. The answer to all your troubles over constipation. A liquid laxative can be measured. The dose can be reduced to any age or need. Reduce the dose each time, until the bowels are moving of their own accord and need no help. This treatment will succeed with every child with any adult. Doctors use a liquid laxative. Regularly use the liquid form. If it suits for their use, it is best for your child. The liquid laxative they generally use is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Any druggist has it.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, our governor, James V. Allred, has asked that cities cooperate in designating the week of October 21 to 26 as a clean-up week, in anticipation of next year's Centennial celebration, and,

WHEREAS, it is desirable that all weeds, especially Russian thistles, should be cut from the streets, alleys and vacant lots in McLean, and burned, and

WHEREAS, all rubbish, junk and other things that mar the appearance of our town should be cleaned up as a matter of health and civic pride;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, D. A. Davis, mayor of the City of McLean, by and with the consent of the City Council, do hereby proclaim the week of October 21 to 26, 1935, as CLEAN-UP WEEK, and call upon every citizen to gather up rubbish, and pile it in convenient heaps where the city garbage wagon can haul it away free of cost to the citizens; that weeds be cut and all premises be cleaned up so that our town may present the best appearance possible.

Dated October 16, 1935.
(Signed) D. A. DAVIS,
Mayor, City of McLean, Texas.

RELIEF—A LIABILITY

A short time ago one of my wealthy friends, who owns a large country estate, asked me to recommend a good house painter. I recommend a repaint all of his building, a job which would run to several thousand dollars.

I told him Ed Pixley was the best painter I knew in our part of the country.

"Has he been on relief?" asked my friend. "If he has, I don't want him. I am all through hiring men who have been on relief. They have all become too lazy to be interested in doing real work." I met Ed Pixley in front of the bank that afternoon. He told me that all the family were working at whatever they could find to do, and were managing to scrape along. "We haven't gone on relief yet, and we are not going to," said Ed. I told him about my friend. Ed cranked up his old car and started right after the job. He got it.

I have heard other employees say the same thing about workers who have been on relief.—P. P. Stockbridge.

CUTE LITTLE BOOGER

A Californian condescended to visit his friend in Florida, who was also something of a booster for his own state.

For three days everything the Floridian showed his friend was met with a total lack of enthusiasm and the bored remark that "it wouldn't be anything out in California."

In desperation the Floridian on the third evening parked a large turtle in his neighbor's bed. Upon retiring the California man, his foot making clammy contact with the shell, shot from the bed, yanked down the coverlet, and exclaimed, "Great snakes, what's that?"

"That? Oh, just one of our Florida bedbugs," retorted the Southerner, crushingly.

The Californian came close to the animal, squinted and remarked, "He's a 'littie' son-of-a-gun, ain't he?"

The News editor has received a card from Dr. C. B. Batson, who is taking a post graduate course at the Mayo Bros. Sanitarium in Rochester, Minn. Dr. Batson says he enjoyed reading last week's News.

J. D. Kerr of Amarillo was in McLean Wednesday.
