

Red Walkout Ends; Coaxing Still Stalled

By FORREST EDWARDS
PANMUNJOM (AP)—The two Red satellite members of the Korean Commission ended a three-day walkout today but there was no indication they had won their point—that anti-Red Koreans be forced to hear Communist efforts to wheedle them home.

The explanations have been stalled since Monday when the Polish and Czech delegates left the commission after being voted down by the Indians, Swedes and Swis.

In today's meeting they apparently repeated the demand without success and the explanations remained at a standstill.

The Communist delegates are forcing the point by disregarding the 14,600 Chinese who apparently will listen, insisting instead on talking with the 7,800 Koreans who refused with a show of belligerence.

The Red reluctance to meet the Chinese may grow from the stinging propaganda beating they took in the first two days of interviews—only 19 of 921 Chinese chose the road to communism.

After unsuccessful efforts by Indian guards to get the Koreans peacefully to the interviews the Red efforts were called off in stalemate.

Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya, Indian chairman of the repatriation commission, said after Thursday's session that Indian troops are unable to produce the Koreans "at this time."

However, the 2-hour, 25-minute meeting was not adjourned but was recessed until Friday, leading observers to speculate that some new line of argument may have been presented.

Before the meeting Thimayya said he would ask for an indefinite recess, but he declined comment on that point after the session.

A reliable source said Thimayya told the commission members they were unable to get anything done at the present time and he suggested a recess until Monday.

The recess was opposed by the other four.

The Swiss and the Swedes contended that the commission was prepared at any time to approve further explanations for willing Chinese prisoners and consequently should remain in session in the event the Reds agree.

The Poles and the Czechs again insisted that North Korean captives be made available for interviews. Thimayya reported that the custodian force could not produce the North Koreans.

The days without interviews are chipping time from the explanation period set by the armistice, which was Dec. 23 by Allied interpretation and Dec. 24 by the Indian view.

The Allies already have refused several requests for extensions.

Some observers have speculated the Reds may be willing to stall out the period without any more interviews—avoiding a worse propaganda beating—and then perhaps protest later that they never had a fair deal.

Meanwhile, the Army announced that Capt. Edward S. Dickenson, the former prisoner who switched his choice from Communism to home, was flown to Tokyo Thursday for a medical checkup.

Dickenson is from Big Stone Gap, Va. The Army was permitting no interviews or photographs at the field except for Air Force personnel.

Dickenson was one of 23 Americans, 1 Briton and 325 South Koreans who had elected to stay behind in the war prisoner exchange, which ended in mid-September.

The Communists also got back a prisoner Thursday—a Chinese who was the cause of an angry U. N. protest over a three-hour grilling by Red explainers which the Allies termed "cruel and unusual... brain-washing."

It is the particulars of Hall's arrest and the handling of the ransom money that is under investigation. Half of the $600,000 ransom is unaccounted for.

Police Chief Jeremiah O'Connell told newsmen the investigation may recall Shoulders for further questioning but not today.

Cab Official Witness In Ransom Quiz

ST. LOUIS (AP)—An official of the taxicab firm employing the driver whose tip put the kidnap-slayers of 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease behind bars was a surprise witness today at a top-level police inquiry into police handling of the case.

The first witness at the hearing entered its fourth day was Joseph Costello, an ex-convict and an official of the Ace Cab Co.

Costello's name had not been on the list of scheduled witnesses for today.

Police Lt. Louis Shoulders, key witness in the inquiry, was questioned for seven hours yesterday. He was back in seclusion at his home today.

It was Shoulders who received the tip from the cab driver and arrested Carl Austin Hall, the confessed kidnap-killer, on Oct. 6 and recovered some of the ransom money.

It is the particulars of Hall's arrest and the handling of the ransom money that is under investigation. Half of the $600,000 ransom is unaccounted for.

Police Chief Jeremiah O'Connell told newsmen the investigation may recall Shoulders for further questioning but not today.

Shoulders ducked past newsmen after testifying yesterday and rode a private elevator to the ground floor of police headquarters. His appearance came as a surprise.

He had been excused through the first two days of testimony because of a nervous condition.

Russia Cuts Her Jet Strength In Eastern Germany

By DANIEL DE LUCE
BERLIN (AP)—The Soviet Union has cut its jet air force in Germany by 20 per cent, it was learned on high Western authority today.

One hundred twin-jet bombers, which had posed an atomic threat to the Western capitals, have been pulled out of Soviet bases lying between the Elbe and Oder.

Four hundred Soviet jet fighters remain in East Germany and constitute a powerful air screen for Russia's ramparts in Europe.

But the Soviet front line air force here is temporarily without bombers—and that means temporarily without a real offensive wallop.

The withdrawal of the twin-jets followed the surprise Russian evacuation of four air bases in East Germany in July and August. They have not been made operational again. The Russians keep a dozen other German fields in active use.

High officers in the West are not sure where the bombers were sent in the Soviet bloc or when replacements may arrive. The Kremlin's motive for the cutback is a puzzle too.

The whittling of jet strength from 500 to 400 has not been accompanied by a reduction in ground forces. Gen. Andrei A. Grechko's group of six armies has the same total of 22 infantry, mechanized and armored divisions as in previous years.

Russian troops in Germany number less than 400,000, the Allies have more. In combat effectiveness, the two sides are virtually on a par, however. It has been that way since 1951.

But at present, the Americans and British enjoy for the first time a definite numerical and qualitative edge in jets inside Germany. Last spring the U. S. Air Force rushed in faster F86 Sabres to replace F84 Thunderjets, and the advantage began to shift westward.

The ground parity and the air edge in Germany are behind cautiously optimistic admissions by Allied military people that western Europe is protected just now against a knock-out threat.

To regain the invasion potential they had before Western rearmament, the Russians would need a big, long, and easily detectable buildup in this country, Allied strategists say.

U.S. Announces Atomic Power Plant Is Planned

Stevens Asserts Atomic Cannon Big Defense Aid

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Secretary of the Army Robert T. Stevens said today the new atomic cannon "will greatly enhance our defensive capabilities, which is why we have shipped some of them to Europe."

Stevens' remarks, in an address prepared for the National Guard convention here, had interest in light of a statement earlier this week by Secretary of Defense Wilson.

At a news conference in Washington Wilson was asked if the development of new weapons would make possible any substantial reduction in the number of American troops overseas.

Stevens said in his prepared discussion: "Ultimately, as Army guided missiles are perfected, they too will aid in delivering flammable materials (atomic explosives) or conventional explosives in close support of ground forces."

"The important thing is that we have the gun now, and can give our field commanders the capability of using atomic explosives safely and accurately in darkness or in any kind of weather, if it should become necessary to do so."

"The antiaircraft defenses of our great cities and industrial centers, prime targets for enemy atomic attack, have been materially strengthened in many ways, including the equipping of some battalions with the new electronically controlled Skyweeper (a 75 millimeter gun)."

"The first battalions of Nike—the Army's new antiaircraft guided missile—will soon be in position and these deadly new missiles will greatly improve our defenses."

First Big Try To Tame Fission For Use In Peace

CHICAGO (AP)—The United States today announced the first full-scale attempt to tame atomic power for peace—a move billed as "America's answer" to Soviet claims of mastery over dread new nuclear weapons of war.

Thomas E. Murray, a member, said the Atomic Energy Commission will build an industrial power reactor producing at least 60,000 kilowatts of electrical energy—enough to run a city to 50,000.

He said the project will cost "many tens of millions of dollars" and that the AEC hopes to have an operating plant in three to four years.

The plant, Murray said, may be located "at or near" an AEC facility for separating uranium-235, the paydirt of atomic power, from natural uranium. The AEC has one such facility at Oak Ridge, Tenn., and is building others at Paducah, Ky., and Portsmouth, Ohio.

He said Westinghouse Corp. will be the principal contractor for the new plant which, he said, is of a design "inherited from a naval project." Rear Adm. H. G. Rickover, the Navy's reactor expert, was given "immediate responsibility" for the new program.

Murray's historic announcement—a little more than eight years after the United States unleashed the world's first atomic bomb at Hiroshima—came in a speech prepared for the electric companies' public information program.

He said the AEC decided to beat Russia to the punch by pushing ahead first with an industrial power program instead of concentrating almost exclusively on reactors for military use.

"This is America's answer—a significant peacetime answer—to recent Soviet atomic weapons tests," Murray said. "It should show the world that, even in this gravest phase of arming for defense, America's eyes are still on the peaceful future."

Murray said the world was stunned when Russia announced recently it had the hydrogen bomb.

But he said world peace would have been more gravely endangered if Russia had announced successful operation of an industrial power plant—and had offered to swap atomic know-how for uranium produced by other countries.

"There is no secret that our atomic weapons program depends upon receipt of substantial quantities of uranium from foreign nations," he said.

Rainfall .81 Inch Until 1:30

Rain, blinding and brief, created near flood problems here shortly after noon Thursday.

The U. S. Weather Bureau at Webb AFB reported .81 inch up to 1:30 p.m. It has ceased raining at the station at that time but was still peppering in downtown areas.

Water was over curbs at several points downtown and got high enough to barely trickle into the west entrance of the State Hotel momentarily. West Third, east of Galveston, was inundated.

A new line of thunderstorms built up over the Texas Panhandle and South Plains Thursday as the week's second cool front slipped into the state.

The Weather Bureau said the squall line should move slowly southeastward during Thursday and Friday.

Weather observers described the front as a "good, big, strong mass of cool air," but said it wouldn't "barrel-house" into the state because of a low pressure area over Arizona. The low showed a strong flow of warm, moist air ahead of the cool front, boosting chances for rain in Texas.

At mid-morning, Lubbock and Amarillo had thunderstorms in progress. Light rain peppered Dallas, Waco, Cotulla and Victoria.

The Weather Bureau indicated some of the season's coldest temperatures up to now were in store for the Panhandle-Plains country by Friday morning. But no freezing weather was expected.

Nobel Award In Medicine Is Announced

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—A Harvard University scientist and a German-born British professor jointly won the 1953 Nobel Prize for medicine and physiology today for their discovery of fundamental life mechanisms inside human cells.

The honor went to Dr. Fritz Albert Lipmann, 54, professor of biochemistry at Harvard Medical School, Cambridge, Mass., and Dr. Hans Adolf Krebs, 53, professor of biochemistry at Britain's Sheffield University.

They will share the 175,292 Swedish crowns ($33,840) prize money.

Dr. Lipmann gained the distinction through his discovery of a coenzyme A, an organic substance that plays an important part in nearly every biological process. Dr. Krebs was cited for his "wheel of fortune" explanation of how food becomes energy in living tissue. The two developments are closely related.

UF Campaign Is Nearing Climax

Two special events Friday will highlight Howard County's United Fund campaign which is moving rapidly toward a climax.

Body Of Missing Longshore Boss Found In Hudson

NEW YORK (AP)—The body of Michael Brogan, 49, longshore boss who vanished almost two weeks ago, was recovered yesterday from the Hudson River.

Friends said they feared Brogan was a victim of four play when he disappeared Sept. 20 during the battle for union supremacy between the International Longshoremen's Assn. and the IILA-AFL.

Brogan reportedly at first refused to sign a loyalty pledge to the old IILA but later changed his mind—apparently under duress.

Dr. Thomas A. Gonzales, chief medical examiner, said the body bore "no visible marks of violence at this time."

O'Brien To Get Medal Tuesday

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower will place the Medal of Honor around the neck of Marine 2nd Lt. George H. O'Brien Jr., Big Spring, Tex., next Tuesday—exactly a year to the day after the Marine's heroic stand in Korea.

Six other veterans of the Korean fighting also will receive Medals of Honor at the White House ceremony at noon, Oct. 27.

O'Brien, a mild-mannered oil engineer called into service as a reserve officer without any previous combat experience, will get the nation's highest award for "indomitable determination and valiant fighting spirit."

The citation credits him with leading an attack on a vital Communist hill in Korea on Oct. 27 of last year while he was a rifle platoon commander in the 1st Marine Div.

Although shot in the arm and knocked down several times by concussion of grenades the Texas led the assault for about four hours, then remained to cover the withdrawal of his troops when the attack ended.

"I don't think I deserve it," O'Brien said modestly when informed of the award. The boys in my platoon did all the work."

Farm Bureau Plans Cotton Quota Meet

A meeting of great interest to all cotton farmers will be held at the Settles Hotel at 10 a.m., Oct. 26. It has been jointly announced by C. H. DeVaney of Coahoma, vice president of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation, and Cecil Leatherwood, recently re-elected president of the Howard County Farm Bureau.

The purpose of the meeting is to discuss proposed cotton allotments and to give the farmers an opportunity to express their feelings about this program. Both DeVaney and Leatherwood have described this meeting as extremely important.

It is one of 11 such conferences that will be held throughout the state Monday and Tuesday.

"There are approximately 150,000 cotton farmers in Texas," Leatherwood recalls, "and there is the risk of the proposed allotment program taking 40 per cent of their normal income away from them."

Leatherwood said the compromise on the national level, will increase the acreage of Texas farmers by 1,635,600 acres.

The proposed cotton allotment is for 7,304,000 acres for Texas. The compromise plan advocated by the AFBF and the TFBF would increase this to 8,939,900 acres which they estimate will result in a savings of $100 million for Texas producers.

Other meetings Monday will be held in Wichita Falls, Waxahatchie, Beville, and Pearland. On Tuesday similar meetings will be held at Wellington, Lubbock, Paris, Brownwood, La Grange and Harlingen.

PLAN FOR 1954

Conservative Democratic party leaders were reported organizing Thursday for a precinct-by-precinct fight to keep control of the party in Texas.

Many of the organizers, including Gov. Allan Shivers, were vigorously active in the campaign to throw Texas to Republican Dwight Eisenhower in 1952's national election.

But as they met in Austin Wednesday, one of their number—U. S. Senator Price Daniel—told a San Antonio news conference that "Texas is a Democratic state."

"I don't think the Republicans are going to win any (statewide) offices next year."

At the same time, former Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn tore into Republican farm policies at a Democratic rally in McAlester, Okla., and the Democratic National Committee man from Wisconsin said:

"The cause of Democracy would be served by the election of Republican governors in Texas and South Carolina in 1954." Speaking in Milwaukee, Carl W. Thompson applauded President Eisenhower's announced intention of strengthening the Republican Party in the

Conservative Democrats Gird For Fight In Texas Precincts

South and entering a full slate of GOP candidates there.

Senator Daniel in his press conference said Eisenhower's victory in Texas last year was not a Republican victory. "It was a personal victory for Eisenhower," the senator said, "an expression of resentment against the way the federal government tried to steal our Tideland, and a retaliation of Trumanism."

In McAlester, Rep. Rayburn told his audience that even Republican congressmen now "are demanding that Mr. Eisenhower fire Ezra Taft Benson out of the Cabinet."

"Every time he has opened his mouth," Rayburn said of the Agriculture Department chief, "he has scared the living daylight out of every farmer in the United States."

Senator Daniel apparently agreed with Rayburn, at least in part. He described Benson as "a fine man," but added:

"He has to do something to make the cattlemen have more confidence in him... this administration cannot be marked down as a successful one as long as the farmer is suffering as he is today. President Eisenhower x x x has continued to say he will stay with the price support program. If

Soil Conservation District Officials Vote Benson Bypass

HOUSTON (AP)—Directors of the National Assn. of Soil Conservation Districts yesterday voted to bypass the Department of Agriculture in their federal government contacts, they sent a telegram to President Eisenhower.

The directors didn't say what was in the telegram.

They did say they were unhappy about their relations with the Agriculture Department. It was reported they would ask for a conference with the President.

The directors conclude their 4-day meeting here today.

William L. Southworth, League City, said the association includes 13,000 volunteers and "they are hopping mad because of the total and deliberate disregard of their association by the Agriculture Department."

"All we are told," he said, "is that the department has conservation plans and which will eliminate what it calls bureaucracy."

Benson continues to talk about veering away from that, there's likely to be a shakeup."

Governor Shivers was present for only part of the organization meeting in Austin and made it plain that the gathering was no re-election campaign meeting for him. He gave no hint of his future political plans. Shivers has been mentioned as a possible senatorial candidate and as a candidate for re-election.

Rayburn warned against isolationism in his Oklahoma speech.

"The five years of World War II cost the nation 400 billion dollars and thousands of lives," he said, "because we were penny-pinching isolationists."

"I want to balance the budget and reduce taxes," he declared, "but not at the peril of the United States and the liberty and freedom of the American people."

"That's where the Democrats will stand in the second session of the 83rd Congress. We think more of the boys and girls of this country and more of our freedoms than we do of our pocketbooks."

Senator Robert Kerr of Oklahoma was to repay Rayburn's Oklahoma visit. Kerr will speak Thursday night at Paducah before a meeting of farmers and ranchers.

Shatters A Tradition

Miss R. Belladonna Villines poses in the lawyers' lounge after smashing an old Supreme Court tradition that no one even remotely resembling a "sweater girl" must ever divert the attention of the justices from their thoughts of the law. She did it by going before the court in Washington in her tight-fitting knit dress to be admitted to Supreme Court practice. Miss Villines—that's her professional name—is a lawyer who practiced in Chicago until recently. Now she resides in Arlington, Va., with her husband, Donald Coenen, a magazine editor. (AP Wirephoto).

Seven Of 8 Persons Have Ability To Resist Cancer

LOS ANGELES (U)—Seven out of eight persons have a natural ability to resist cancer, an American Cancer Society official reports. Dr. Ian MacDonald, president of the society's California division and associate clinical professor of surgery at the University of Southern California, told a news conference yesterday that if the true character of cancer could be determined at its inception, doctors would have a far greater chance to conquer it. His theory, he told newsmen, is that the character of a cancer is determined at its beginning, long before it is discovered. It will be the slow growing type, which may be carried for 10 years, or it will be the highly invasive form which can cause death in a matter of months.

At its very beginning, he believes, the growth comes into conflict with the body's natural defense mechanism. In most cases the natural resistance triumphs, and the cancer never develops, he said. If the opposing forces are near balance the cancer may grow slowly and may be discovered in time. But if the defense mechanism is overpowered at the beginning, death usually comes quickly. MacDonald reported that 3 out of 10 cancer cases are being cured today and the figure could be boosted to 5 if the public heeded fully the warning of cancer groups to take advantage of detection surveys and to respond otherwise to danger signals.

U. S. Arms Aid Pact Plans Near Complete

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (U)—Plans are about complete for funneling U.S. military aid to Western European countries through the projected European Defense Community as soon as it is ratified. This was reported today by government officials who pictured Secretary of State Dulles and other top officials as confident that the long-stalled EDC treaty will be finally approved in the next three or four months.

That action would clear the way

Woman Halts Car With One Hand

CHESTER, PA., (U)—Mrs. Eleanor Pilkington, 61, was sitting with her two grandchildren in a car parked on a supermarket lot Tuesday night when the vehicle started to roll backward. Knowing nothing about auto operation and fearing for the safety of the children—Susan Sweigert, 15 months old, and Dale, three months—Mrs. Pilkington leaped out of the car and grabbed desperately at one of the rear tires. It worked. Her hand, pinned beneath the wheel, halted the rolling car. And her screams brought rescuers to the scene who lifted the car to free her. X-rays at Chester Hospital showed no broken bones.

Reds Showing New Anti-American Film

MOSCOW, (U)—A new Soviet color movie portraying American businessmen and generals as using six Negroes as human guinea pigs in testing a fearful secret war weapon is now playing to packed houses in many Moscow theaters. The strongly anti-American film, which opened here this week, is entitled "Silver Dust." It gives the impression that only "progressives" in the United States oppose the machinations of evil persons. The Negroes are those who sympathize with a Negro character who announces he is a Communist.

Second Snowstorm

DENVER (U)—The second snow-laden storm in a week hit Colorado and Wyoming yesterday, leaving drifts along the Continental Divide and closing at least two highways.

for rearming of West Germany, the only nation which has ratified it so far. Other signers are France, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg.

State Department informants said a special agreement covering the delivery of American aid to EDC, being worked out with a defense community preparatory commission at Paris, is substantially completed.

In brief, the requirements are that the aid must be used to strengthen the free world, that there be adequate publicity as to the source, and that the aid not be transferred to other areas without U. S. approval.

Officials said the agreement has been negotiated in line with basic U. S. policy, as laid down by Congress in recent foreign aid bills, that U. S. aid may be given to international organizations where that is desirable.

Beyond this, an amendment to the bill passed last year specified that only a portion of the authorized military help for Western Europe could be delivered prior to the formation of the European Defense Community.

One result of this distribution of military equipment through EDC is that it will not be handed over directly to West Germany. Officials feel this should prove reassuring in some degree to French concerned about a revival of German militarism.

Gate Crashers Are 'Reactionaries' To Guatemalan Reds

GUATEMALA, Guatemala (U)—Gate crashers fought with ticket holders for seats yesterday at the bullfight here which was part of the opening program for Guatemala's annual October national fair. Eight persons were injured and the bullring was considerably damaged.

The government-controlled national radio said the gate crashers were "reactionaries" trying to sabotage the state-sponsored exposition.

About 2,500 persons crashed the bullring gates and the scramble for seats led to the riot with ticket holders. An undisclosed number of arrests were made.

Frogman Dives, Hits Slot Machine Jackpot

GLOUCESTER, Mass. (U)—A "frogman" photographer dived 45 feet in a water-filled granite quarry and hit the jackpot yesterday.

William C. Loeffler, in goggles and fins, found two slot machines dumped in prohibition times. When he brought them to the surface, he poured $27 in quarters and nickels.

Reds Search Woods For German Fighters

BERLIN (U)—Communist police tommygun squads searched Potsdam district woods today for underground fighters who killed four Red officers in gun battles. The manhunt was pressed almost to the Berlin city border. The four Communist police officers were shot last week in the Cottbus area near the Polish frontier. The Red police said two "Fascist terrorists" were arrested yesterday in connection with the killings, but others were still at large and believed trying to escape to West Berlin.

WHY PAY MORE THAN $1.69 FOR A REDUCER?

Read what Mrs. B. A. MILLER, 1212 South Hamwood, Sherman, Texas, has to say:
"I have lost 20 pounds taking Barconate with very little effort on my part. I feel like a new person. I am glad to say the Barconate way of reducing is pleasant and easy.
We receive letters like Mrs. Miller's every day from grateful women.
Just ask your druggist for four ounces of Liquid Barconate. Mix with grapefruit juice as directed on bottle. Then take according to directions.
If the very first bottle doesn't show you the sensible way to take out extra fat, without starvation diet, calorie counting or back-breaking exercises, just return the empty bottle for your money back."

County Receives Paving Request

Petition has been received by county commissioners urging paving of a segment of road from Vincent westward to a connection with pavement through Luther. Carl Lockhart and about 50 other ers signed the petition. They request paving for a distance of about 10 miles. The segment would complete hard-surface road from Luther to Vincent and connect near Vincent with the Big Spring-Snyder highway. Commissioners have taken no action on the matter. Judge R. H. Weaver said the commissioners court has recognized need for the road and that it would serve numerous residents of that section, including the Reef Fields Gasoline installation. The judge said commissioners are giving consideration to the proposal with an eye toward making the improvements as soon as possible. Due to prior commitments for highway right-of-way, action now is not feasible, according to Judge Weaver.

Ike Likely To Face Pressure To Enter Congressional Campaigns

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower is likely to face mounting pressure from Republican office holders to abandon his political umbrella approach in favor of direct activity in next year's campaign for control of Congress. In a sharp departure from the policies of his immediate predecessors, Eisenhower told a news conference yesterday he does not intend to make the presidency an agency for use in partisan elections. Instead, he said he hopes to develop an enlightened and progressive program which will serve as a real umbrella under which his party's candidates can operate.

Sen. Mundt (R-SD), who is running next year, applauded the President's decision to attempt to "make a record we can brag about," as Mundt put it. "I don't think that a President coming into your district to help you is any more effective than one who comes in to purge you," he said. Mundt was alluding to the late Franklin D. Roosevelt's unsuccessful efforts in 1938 to purge some Democratic Congress members. While none of the handful of lawmakers here would comment publicly, there apparently are many Republicans who don't share Mundt's view that presidential campaigning is no help to individual candidates.

GOP Leaders Differ Over Social Security Tax Hike

By CHARLES F. BARRETT
WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Curtis (R-Neb) said today a scheduled 33 per cent increase in social security taxes seems necessary to carry on the vast program of death and retirement benefits. Curtis is chairman of a special social security subcommittee of the House Ways and Means Committee. He plans hearings next month as part of a board investigation of the present social security system. His comment puts him at odds with Rep. Richard M. Simpson (R-Pa), another influential member of the tax-writing Ways and Means Committee, who said it would be wise to freeze social security taxes at their present levels. Simpson noted that for many persons in low income groups the scheduled social security tax increase would more than offset 10 per cent reduction in personal income taxes also set for Jan. 1. Under present laws, the social security tax jumps automatically on Jan. 1 from 3 per cent to 4 per cent of a person's salary, up to $3,600 a year. Half of the tax is paid by the employer and half by the employee, so the individual rate would go up from 1 1/2 to 2 per cent a year. The total increase could amount to roughly one billion dollars next year. Simpson's call for a freeze on the tax could be a forecast that the administration will revive its request next year. The tax could be lowered back to 1 1/2 per cent on individuals even after it jumped automatically.

Michigan GOP leaders have sought and thus far failed to get Eisenhower's promise to do some campaigning in their state next year in behalf of Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich), chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee. Ferguson may have a tough reelection battle on his hands if Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams decides to run for the Senate. Outnumbered by the Democrats, 48-47, the Republicans can ill afford the loss of any Senate seats. Eisenhower also has turned down appeals for intervention in behalf of Republican Jaul J. Troast in the latter's current race for governor in New Jersey. Eisenhower said specifically he won't lend a helping hand to Virginia Republicans who are trying to elect State Sen. Ted Dalton as governor. GOP candidates who want to cash in on what they regard as Eisenhower's popularity are likely to keep on trying to get him actively into next year's campaign.

Informer May Not Be So Straight Himself

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—It was all perfectly legal, explained an underworld informer known to police as "Officer 6's." Elmo Cherry, 30, being tried on a burglary charge, explained he was trying to get information on two companions when he broke in to a department store. Lt. Harry Stego said Cherry had provided him with information in the past, but he didn't authorize the break-in. Cherry said he has reformed since serving his last sentence for second degree burglary in 1950.

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Two Danish freighters were loaded with goods destined for Vladivostok today, the first shipment under a new 150 million dollar trade agreement between Argentina and Russia. The cargo consisted of 1,200 tons of pork, 1,200 tons of lamb and 63,313 boxes of butter.

Husband Didn't Like His Wife Very Much

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A night club dancer is seeking a divorce on testimony that her husband, a bowling alley operator, demanded that she change her appearance after they were married in 1946. Jeanne Ackerman told a Superior Court judge yesterday: "He wanted me to cut my hair, cap my teeth and submit to plastic surgery on my nose." The judge indicated he would grant her a divorce when a property settlement is submitted by her and Olin L. Ackerman, the husband.

Confiscated Liquor Sale Ordered Here

Six hundred and 89 containers of liquor went on trial in District Court Wednesday and lost. Plaintiff, the State of Texas, alleged the containers were illicit and subject to forfeiture. Judge Charlie Sullivan entered a judgment forfeiting the liquor and ordering its sale by the state. District Attorney Elton Gilliland said the 689 containers were found in a car near here in August. No one appeared in court to claim the beverages.

Chicago Fires Up

CHICAGO (AP)—Chicago's spell of hot, dry weather has increased the number of fires. The average in the last four days has been 211 a day, compared with a normal average of 140, fire officials said.

Judgment For Bank Entered

Judgments amounting to $83,635 were entered by District Judge Charlie Sullivan Wednesday in favor of the First National Bank of Stanton against Charles Eberley and Annie Belle Eberley. The bank had sued Mr. and Mrs. Eberley for foreclosure of an $81,000 deed of trust. The court decided the plaintiff was not entitled to recover judgment in the amount of $4,000 on a note for that amount, and entitled to recover $77,000 plus interest. Interest at the rate of six per cent, from April 22, 1952, on $30,000; from April 29, 1952, on $19,500; and from June 12, 1952, on $27,500, was awarded plaintiff. Judgment was entered against separate property of Annie Belle

Anderson Says Reds May Be Amenable

CARLSBAD, N. M. (AP)—Sen. Anderson (D-NM) says there are "some influences now at work in Russia" that might make the Russians more amenable to agreement for international control of atomic weapons. He did not elaborate on these "influences." Anderson is a member of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy. "We must not let these few years slip by when we may have a slight superiority over Russia without trying to gain an understanding," he told the Carlsbad Rotary Club yesterday.

California Voting In Nov. 10 Election Could Indicate Trend

By GABER DAVIDSON
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Another important early test of voter reaction to the Eisenhower administration will be forthcoming Nov. 10 when a special California congressional election is held in a Los Angeles district.

The 24th Congressional District election is attracting a nationwide attention in view of the setback the Republicans got in a similar election in Wisconsin last week. Republicans are frankly worried and Democrats are hopeful as the campaigns in the California district build up.

GOP Gov. Goodwin J. Knight warned in Sacramento Tuesday that there is danger the Republicans may lose as they did in Wisconsin Oct. 14 when Lester R. Johnson won in a district that had never before elected a Democrat.

That election, Knight said, was "a defeat and not an incident."

The special election in the California district was called to fill a vacancy created when Paul Poulsen, a Republican, resigned from Congress to become mayor of Los Angeles.

Two Republicans and two Democrats are campaigning for the seat in Congress.

The 24th District is a typical big-city area. It comprises a north-central area of Los Angeles city and the city of South Pasadena. Most of the residents are average white-collar and working-class people. Campaign workers say only a small percentage of the district is considered "slit stocking."

The balloting in this election should provide a poll of a fairly typical group of city voters while the Wisconsin vote was a test of a predominantly rural district.

In California virtually all Republican organizations are throwing their support to Glenard P. Lipscomb, a state assemblyman and secretary of Vice President Richard Nixon's national campaign last year. Lipscomb is a Los Angeles accountant. The other Republican in the race is state legislator John L. E. Collier, Los Angeles businessman.

Impellitteri Ruled Off New York City Mayoral Ballot

NEW YORK (AP)—Mayor Vincent R. Impellitteri has been ruled off the ballot for the Nov. 3 mayoral election because he failed to file enough valid signatures to his nominating petitions as an independent candidate.

Impellitteri has declined so far to say whether he will conduct a write-in campaign, the only course left to him if he continues efforts to win re-election.

State Supreme Court Justice William H. Munson ruled yesterday that the mayor's experience party petitions contained no more than 5,276 valid signatures among the 24,187 filed. The law requires a minimum of 7,500.

A spokesman for the Republican mayoral candidate, former Acting Postmaster Harold Riegelman, claimed that the barring of Impellitteri would help Riegelman.

City Council President Rudolph Hahey, mayoral candidate of the Liberal and Independent parties and onetime chief counsel to the Kefauver committee, condemned the development would aid him.

There was no immediate comment—except that the ruling had been expected—from the camp of Manhattan Borough President Robert F. Wagner Jr., who beat Impellitteri for the Democratic nomination by almost 2 to 1 at the Sept. 15 primary. Wagner's supporters had estimated before yesterday's ruling that Wagner would get at least 40 per cent of the Impellitteri vote if the mayor were ruled off the ballot.

The Impellitteri petitions had been challenged by Democratic organization counsel for Wagner.

The biggest factor in Impellitteri's loss of a ballot place was the failure of 13,800 of his petition signers to register for the 1953 general election.

Lady Sought New Clothes For Kids, Broke Into Store

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—A woman who said she didn't want her children "to go to school with patched britches" has been sent to prison for 10 years for a $1,600 grocery store holdup.

That is the minimum sentence for the robbery charge to which Mrs. Loretta Manning, 27, pleaded guilty.

Criminal Court Judge L. A. Grayson gave a 12-year sentence yesterday to her husband George, 28. Manning also pleaded guilty. He said his part was hiding the money after Mrs. Manning made her getaway.

Relatives are caring for the children, boys 7 and 11.

Carpenter's Helper Kills Self By Hanging

HOUSTON (AP)—A 39-year-old carpenter's helper committed suicide by hanging himself in his garage yesterday.

A verdict of suicide was made by justice of the peace Lee Maes in the death of L. J. Uhlir.

Mary Margaret McBRIDE Says

Planning to retire? What would you say to a place where you can ocean-bathe and fish all the year around, where there are no local taxes to pay, no jails, no policemen, and you can get a house just as good as the Joneses for $4,000?

I'm talking about the Outer Banks, a chain of islands along the coast of North Carolina where the country's first national seashore recreational area is being developed.

Joseph C. Buckley, an advertising executive whose leisure time is dedicated to helping people plan retirement told me about Outer Banks. It was a complete surprise to me as was most of what Joseph Buckley had to say. He knows so much about the whole subject he's written a handbook of 329 pages that tell you how to plan your income, your vacation and your avocation with a view to making retirement a pleasure instead of a heartbreaking necessity because of age or infirmity.

Although you hear about it now from every side as if they'd just discovered it, there's nothing new about the word "retired." I've been familiar with it all my life, only it was always coupled with "farmer" where I came from. A retired farmer was one who had sold off his farm or turned it over to his son or son-in-law to run. Then with his wife he'd moved into the nearest town where he hung about the village store, spitting and gossiping, at loose ends for the rest of his life. And no wonder, for the land and what grew on it, together with his cows and horses, had been his whole world and when he gave them up he found nothing to put in their place.

Joseph Buckley's idea, which is the modern one, calls for retirement to a new life rather than a retirement FROM life.

"When a person retires now he simply changes to a new occupation or a new career in which he can continue to grow in personal value and usefulness," explains this friend of the old.

He knows about dozens of aged men and women who are enjoying themselves mightily. One, now 106, kept on being a fine chef until he was 90. A 118-year-old Texan recently went to town to see if he was old enough for an old-age pension. A 102-year-old Californian not long ago jumped on his motor scooter and drove to the local police station to file a complaint when some boys smashed a window in his home. These are Mr. Buckley's stories, not mine, readers. Also it is he, not I, who predicts that some day it may be possible for a doctor to go to the deathbed of a man of 85 and tell him: "There's been a mistake. You have another 50 years to live."

Whether it ever does come about that man can have a life expectancy of 150 years, both sexes certainly are living longer and thus posing new problems for themselves, their children and their government. And they can do more than anybody else to help the situation simply by careful thinking and planning in time.

If Outer Banks is filled up before you get there, there will still be space in California, favorite retiring spot of the elderly to date, and in Florida, second favorite. Also in many locations in the South where a couple can live cheaper than anywhere else in this country, according to Mr. Buckley.

As a matter of fact, he adds, you might even stay home near your friends and just turn the basement into a woodcutting shop, open a bird sanctuary in the back yard or start a little bakery in your own kitchen, thereby giving yourself a brand new life.

How Air Defense Would Cut Casualties Told

An enemy air attack on all the major cities of the United States would result in two million casualties, even if we were using our best defense, it was estimated at a panel discussion on civil defense at the 1953 Hyperion Club Wednesday.

This would be one-sixth of the number that would result if we had no defense at all, panel members said.

The group met in the home of Mrs. J. Gordon Bristow. On the panel were Mrs. W. C. Blankinship, Mrs. C. D. Wiley, Mrs. W. N. Norred and Mrs. Shine Phillips. "If War Happens Here—How, Why and What in Big Spring" was the topic.

The figure of two million casualties was contrasted with the twelve million that would result if we had no defense against enemy attack. Using the same type of defense employed in London during World War II, the casualties would number 4,500,000. These estimates were based on anticipated results from the dropping of 130 bombs on all the major cities of the United States at once.

Panel members said that Russia is now capable of attacking all the major cities at once and that we could have less than ten minutes warning. Even with our best defense, seven out of 10 planes would get through to attack. It was reported.

It was announced that W. D. Berry is in charge of civil defense in Big Spring. Eighteen members and two guests, Mrs. D. B. Read and Mrs. Norred, attended. The tea table was laid with a cutwork cloth and centered with an arrangement of white dahlias and bells of Ireland, Mrs. Clyde Angel poured.

HOLLYWOOD - This city earns its title of Cinderella town because everyday you hear of some girl making an almost overnight transition from nonentity to celebrity... crashing the gates of the Hollywood hall of fame. Kathleen Hughes is a girl making this climb and executives at Universal International, who hold her contract, murmur, "Wait until you see her in 'The Glass Walk.'" When I lunched with Kathleen at the studio, she ordered a Tartar Sandwich (raw ground beef with egg yolk) and skim milk. I repeated some of the nice things which had been said about her. "It's wonderful to be discovered!" Kathleen exclaimed. "You know I kicked around Hollywood for five years before anything happened. 'Couldn't your uncle help you?' I referred to F. Hugh Herbert, author of 'The Moon is Blue.' 'He thought I was too tall,' Kathleen confessed. 'How tall are you?' I asked. 'With high heels nearly six feet, but suddenly nobody minds. It has certainly worked magic for me,' Kathleen murmured gleefully. 'What?' I asked eagerly. 'My new attitude toward myself. I used to wear flat shoes, peasant skirts and blouses and looked like an overgrown Alice in Wonderland. But Paul Henreid

3 More Churches To Get Aid For Floats

The first three churches to contact the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce can have $50 each for the making.

The only catch, according to Chamber project supervisor Loyd Wooten, is that the money be used toward decorating a float for the Christmas parade.

The Chamber of Commerce had a fund of $300 set aside for the Christmas project, and it was decided to divide the money among six churches. Three churches have already asked for money.

Plans for shaping up for the entire Christmas parade, and decorations are practically ready for hanging. C. W. Grigsby, chairman of the merchant's committee in charge of the Christmas program, says it will be sometime in November before operations start full blast, however.

Eisenhower's Talk At National Meet Reported

Mrs. Felix Cormier, El Paso, field secretary of the Texas Council of Church Women, told of the inspiring address of President Eisenhower at the 6th Biennial Assembly of United Church Women in her report Wednesday at the meeting of District 11 at the First Presbyterian Church.

She pointed out how the President and leaders of the United Churches emphasized the large part that women play in the United Churches when they spoke at the assembly in Atlantic City early in October.

In covering race relations Mrs. Cormier pointed out that church women must "watch decisions of the Supreme Court on segregation problems and prepare themselves to meet and make adjustments locally. The only way a woman can look at the problem of race relations is as a Christian."

After the report Mrs. Cormier answered questions posed by the group concerning local problems.

It was announced that Mrs. Shine Phillips would be the new president of the local Council of Church Women succeeding Mrs. J. Fred Whitaker who served for three years as president.

Workshops and local reports were included on the day's agenda.

During the luncheon hour a candle was lit and a prayer was offered in memory of Mrs. Sylvia Lamun, a Big Spring council member who recently passed away.

Flags of the United Nations and fall flowers decorated the luncheon tables.

Musical selections were offered throughout the day by Mrs. Elmo Rainbolt, Roberta Gay, Mrs. Harold Jones and Mrs. Noble Kenne-meur.

The visiting state officers were entertained at a dinner Tuesday night at Twine Cafe by members of the executive board of the local council.

About 65 women attended Wednesday's meetings.

Christmas Presents Already?

The answer is "yes" at Mrs. Johnny Green's house, and she's busy monogramming, embroidering and doing cutwork—all on her sewing machine.

ON SEWING MACHINE

You Can Fill Your Own Monogramming Orders

It's practically as easy for the home sewer to personalize Christmas gifts at home as it is for her to have a salesgirl fill out an order blank for monogramming.

And it's lots more fun.

Mrs. Johnny Green, for example, has done monogramming of table linens, towels, sheets and pillow cases for many, many kinds of gifts and she's already beginning work for Christmas gifts.

She has also done embroidery on her sewing machine. For both monogramming and embroidery she uses a standard transfer pattern or makes her own and draws it on the article.

Her cutwork pieces include aprons, scarves and pillow cases. Mrs. Green says that although she can use some standard cutwork patterns with her machine others she cannot. She designs her own but suggests that local sewing centers can give advice on what standard patterns to use.

Her machine will also do applique and her prize example is a black and red bridge table cloth applied with hearts, diamonds, clubs and spades.

Mrs. Green has a swing needle machine but you can do monogramming on a straight needle machine without special attachments. You just remove the presser foot from the machine, drop the feed and place the area to be stitched in an embroidery hoop.

Local sewing centers offer instructions in this kind of work, no matter what kind of machine you have.

Handkerchiefs and shirts take smartly to monogramming done on either kind of machine. The signature stitch is used for monogramming a handkerchief or a man's shirt just above the cuff.

Sewing experts have also worked out attractive stitching for ties. You can buy ready-made ties of plain fabric or make your own from a pattern.

You'll find the fancy work you and your sewing machine can do will go a long way toward answering your question, "What in the world should I give HIM for Christmas?"

Mrs. Tippie Has Charge Of Program

Mrs. R. A. Chambers opened the meeting with a prayer and Mrs. E. E. Blankinship gave the devotion.

Mrs. Wash closed the meeting with a prayer. Sixteen attended.

A large group of Howard County singers attended the county singing convention recently at the Forsan Methodist Church. Special quartets were presented at the quarterly music session.

Two Texas colleges have recently been added to the list of institutions of higher learning approved by the American Association of University Women.

SAMIA'S GOWNS SOLD IN DALLAS

DALLAS (U)—Egyptian dancer Samia Gamal was without a gown to her name in Dallas today.

Her last fancy ensemble went the way of all the others—across the auction block where her estranged husband, playboy Sheppard (Abdullah) King II, is selling her possessions.

Two Chicagoans received the gown at a party from two unidentified Dallas friends.

W. B. Schmidt said his friends had paid $40 for the gown as a present for Mrs. Schmidt, a dance instructor in Chicago.

She said the gown could be "quite respectable" if worn with something underneath.

"Otherwise, it's rather flimsy," she said.

Samia had protested earlier that she would "tell all" if her husband sold the gowns.

31 Students On Honor Roll At Senior High

Thirty-one students made a "straight A" card for the first six weeks, reports from the Big Spring Senior High showed Thursday.

All of those making the top honor roll were taking at least four courses and some were carrying a load of five courses, said Roy D. Worley, principal.

At the other extreme, there were 27 who failed three or more courses for the period. The percentages were normal, said Wilder A. Roe, director of guidance. The all A students figured out at 4.78 per cent, the F students at 4.3 per cent. On a national level, the two tend to balance out.

There were 84 pupils who failed on as many as two subjects during the first six weeks. A total of 123 missed fire on a single subject. Thus, approximately seven out of 10 were passing in all their work.

Currently, Roe is working with all the failures in an attempt to ascertain possible causes. Supervisors and teachers follow on remedial work in an effort to bring them up to a passing or better grade.

Listed on the honor roll for having made A on all subjects were Ruth Ann Abot, Janice Anderson, Joyce Anderson, Robert Angel, Audrey Arnold, Dorothy Arnold, Peggy Bradford, Ellouise Carroll, China Carroll, Nancy Conway, Joe Dawes, Beverly Edwards, Barbara Elmore, Margaret Fryar, Nina Fryar, Barbara Gay, Patsy Grant, Virginia Hatch, Mary Ellen Hayes, Mary Ivey, Leroy LeFever, Alice Ann Martin, Joyce Nix, Claudia Saunders, Barbara Smith, Donovan Smith, Mary Beth Stratton, John Westbrook, Tommie Jo Williamson.

Funeral will be held at 2 p.m. Friday for Miss Mittie Viola Evans, 72, who died Thursday after a long illness.

Miss Evans, who resided at 216 W. 2nd, had been ill for the past year. She was a native of Falls County, where she was born Oct. 9, 1881. Twenty-five years ago she moved to Big Spring.

Rites will be at the Eberley-River Chapel with the Rev. Clyde Nichols, minister of the First Christian Church, officiating. Burial will be in the Trinity Memorial Park.

Miss Evans leaves three brothers, John T. Evans, Houston; Ed Evans, Big Spring; and Lloyd Evans, Jacksboro; two sisters, Mrs. George Owen, Big Spring, and Mrs. Nellie Loggins, Bosque. One sister preceded her in death.

Funeral services will be conducted by Rev. Keating, Ted Carter, Bunton Evans, Walter Sparks, Monroe Kelly, and Jack Dunn.

Patients at the Big Spring Veterans Hospital were entertained in Grand Ole Opry style Wednesday afternoon by Minnie Pearl and her troupe.

Safety Expert At Webb AFB Pledges Support Of CTC

Webb Air Force Base's new civilian safety expert, Jolly W. O'Brien, this morning pledged full support to the projects of the Big Spring Citizens' Traffic Commission.

O'Brien, who has been in Big Spring less than a week, held conference with the CTC's executive secretary, George Oldham, this morning. They discussed safety work now underway and future plans.

Traffic safety is a problem at Webb now, O'Brien told Oldham. While the base accident record is exceptionally good, the off-base accident total is high.

With O'Brien in the huddle at Oldham's office was Sgt. Claud Montgomery, assigned to safety maintenance at Webb. O'Brien lives at 908 Gollad.

Cry For Cattle Price Supports Is Growing

The cry for federal price supports on livestock grew louder Thursday as the state of Texas speeded plans to get hay to drought-stricken cattle.

In the state and across the nation there were these developments:

WASHINGTON: The White House said Wednesday night that Secretary of Agriculture Benson has alerted the Air Force to help move hay to drought-stricken areas, if it should become necessary. Officials said use of the Air Force was only a possibility, that nothing is set on the plan as yet.

WASHINGTON: The White House said 425 drought-stricken counties in 13 states were receiving federal aid. Then the Agriculture Department added 29 more counties in six states—Arkansas, Kentucky, Missouri, North Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia—to bring the total to 454. Other states getting federal aid are Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado, Nevada, New Mexico, Kentucky, Mississippi, and North Carolina. In Texas 86 counties are eligible for aid.

KANSAS CITY: Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White represented Gov. Shivers of Texas here Thursday at a meeting to work out details of hay distribution. Under the plan the federal government will absorb one half of transportation costs, up to 10 dollars per ton.

FORT WORTH: Livestock traders said Wednesday they believed the peak of cattle movement to market had passed. For the third day in a row receipts at Fort Worth and 11 other major terminals were lower than the comparable day last week. Prices were fully steady to higher on most classes, and from one-half to one cent higher than last week's close.

SAN ANTONIO: Senator Price

Daniel said he would wire Agriculture Secretary Benson to urge the federal government to purchase cattle from ranchers.

PADUCAH, Tex.: Price supports for cattle will be the topic at a cattlemen's meeting in Paducah, Tex., tonight. Senator Kerr (D-Okl.) will be the principal speaker at the meeting, sponsored by the farmers union.

MEALESTER, Okla.: Rep. Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) said Secretary Benson was "scaring the living daylight" out of farmers "every time he opens his mouth."

DENVER, Colo.: A delegation of about 100 livestock producers from 23 states will descend on Washington Sunday to ask Secretary Benson and President Eisenhower for price supports on livestock. The caravan, it was announced in Denver, is sponsored by the National Farmers Union and its state organizations.

AUSTIN: This week's rains were helping range and pasture conditions in both East Texas and West Texas. One more rain, the Department of Agriculture said Wednesday, was needed to assure good winter grazing in West Texas. Some places got it.

Legion Seeks 650 Members

The American Legion will start tonight with the organization's regular meeting at the Legion Hotel. The membership drive is part of a statewide project. Ed Fisher of the local post said the Big Spring quota is 650 members. There are now 225 on the rolls.

Hilton Lambert of Snyder, commander of the American Legion District 19, will be speaker for the evening. He and his staff will discuss the membership drive as it will affect the 800 cooperating posts in Texas.

Fisher said today that he hopes a large number of men who are not members attend the meeting. "Everyone with an honorable discharge and war time service is eligible for membership and is invited," he said.

Hendrix, Charged Here, Given Term In Fisher Case

Randall Leon Hendrix, 20, who faces a murder charge here, was given an eight-year prison sentence by Judge Owen Thomas in Roby Wednesday for the burglary of a Sylvester store June 2.

Hendrix, from Sweetwater, is charged here with the fatal shooting Oct. 3 of his 14-year-old bride, Junior Coleman Lawhon, 20, also of Sweetwater. He was given a five-year sentence in Roby also.

Hendrix was given ten-year sentences, to run concurrently, on each of five burglary charges in Abilene Oct. 15. Lawhon was given four five-year terms to run concurrently.

The two men pleaded guilty to the Roby charges.

reactor eggs in one basket," he said. "In the immediate future," he said, "we expect to propose the construction of different types of reactors that will explore promising avenues of approach to practical nuclear power."

Murray said the tremendous cost of building, testing and perfecting an industrial atomic power plant rules out any such development by private enterprise without government help, but "the work should gradually be transferred from the federal government."

While Westinghouse was chosen as principal contractor, he said, the AEC welcomes offers from other firms "to invest risk capital in the building of the steam and turbine portions, as well as in the operation of the entire plant."

Surviving are his son, W. C. Gardner, Bronte; a brother, W. A. Gardner, Sweetwater; a sister, Mrs. K. N. Greer, Andrews. The remains were taken in a Nalley coach to the Kinney Funeral home in Stamford.

Mr. Gardner was born in Eastland County Sept. 12, 1894, and he lived a number of years at Andrews.

Stamford Man's Rites Set Today

Graveside rites were to be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Spring Creek cemetery, near Stamford, for Clayton Gardner, 59.

He died in a hospital here Wednesday noon. His home was in Stamford.

Escapee Still Being Sought

Howard Van Zandt who bolted the Howard County Jail Sunday evening continues to evade capture despite an alert throughout West Texas and New Mexico.

No trace of Van Zandt has been uncovered since he disappeared in the direction of the railway yards here after slugging a trusty and fleeing from the jail. The sheriff's department said it has received report of a mysterious visitor to a hotel in Andrews Sunday night, but the man left the hotel before the proprietor answered his knock on the door. Van Zandt had lived in the hotel prior to his arrest last month, officers said.

Deputies also investigated a report the escapee had been seen at Ackerly, but the lead fizzled.

Van Zandt was arrested Sept. 8 on charges of forgery and passing. He was held here in lieu of $1,000 bond after waiving examining trial.

Three Uninjured As Car Overturns

Three persons were uninjured Wednesday when the car in which they were riding over turned on Highway 80 about three miles east of Big Spring.

Deputy Sheriff Jim McCoy said left rear wheel came off the car, apparently causing the accident. The vehicle overturned three times.

Driver of the car, a 1941 Buick, was J. O. Bailey Jr., of Big Spring, the deputy said. Riding with Bailey were his wife and mother-in-law. The mishap occurred shortly after noon Wednesday.

Courthouse Due For Completion Dec. 15

Work on Howard County's new courthouse should be completed in about six weeks, Judge R. H. Weaver estimated this morning.

"We should be moving in by Dec. 15," the judge said.

Installation of marble wainscoting is progressing, painting has been started in the jail section of the building and workmen now are on final stages of plasterwork.

A special meeting of the county commissioners court was to be called for this afternoon or Friday to discuss plans for installation of water treatment facilities, the judge reported.

$25 Fine Assessed On Assault Count

Harry Dooley was fined $25 and costs this morning when he pleaded guilty to charges of aggravated assault.

Dooley was arrested at his home Wednesday afternoon by officers of the sheriff's department. He was charged in County Court.

Livestock Market Gaining Strength

The market shows signs of regaining some of its former strength at Wednesday's Big Spring Livestock Auction Company's sale.

Cattle were generally $1 higher across the board.

Bulls sold up to 12.75, butchers cows from 8.00 to 10.00, cutters from 6.00 to 7.50 and fat calves and yearlings up to 16.50.

Part-Time Pastor To Be Honored As Tiniest Mailman

ORANGE (AP)—A part-time Methodist minister who totes a mail bag during the week is retiring tomorrow as the nation's "tiniest" mail carrier.

63-years-old and 115 pounds large, will call it quits. Postmaster Cecil Coale estimates Burton has walked a distance equal to five times around the world. Burton, underweight by Post Office standards, got the job by weighing in with his overcoat on and a brick in each pocket. The well-traveled Burton will now devote his full-time to the door-to-door travel, Charlie Burton.

Arkansas And Texas Argue In Grant Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court took under advisement yesterday the arguments presented by attorneys for Arkansas and Texas in a dispute over a half-million-dollar pledge to the University of Arkansas hospital at Little Rock. The court will announce later whether it will accept jurisdiction in the case. The pledge was made to the Arkansas institution by the William Buchanan Foundation of Bowie County, Tex. Texas seeks to block the grant by injunction proceedings in Bowie County. The foundation, formed in 1923, has agreed to give Arkansas University the half million for use on a crippled children's addition to the University's 6 1/2 million dollar hospital now under construction. Texas, however, in the Bowie County injunction contended that, under the trust agreement, all funds were to be spent for the benefit of Bowie County residents. Bowie County is the county in which Texarkana, Tex., is located. Arkansas contended that the matter was a dispute between two states and, therefore, the Supreme Court has exclusive and original jurisdiction.

Conservative Is Named Mayor Of Western Berlin

BERLIN (AP)—Dr. Walter Schreiber, leader of the conservative minority on West Berlin's City Council, was elected mayor of this Soviet-encircled city today. He succeeds the late Ernest Reuter, a Socialist. Schreiber, 69-year-old former deputy and a doughty fighter against communism, has been in charge of the municipal administration since Reuter's death Sept. 29. Schreiber's conservative coalition of Christian Democrats and Free Democrats held a majority on the Council for the past three years but Reuter's personal prestige kept him in office. The Council chose Schreiber mayor on a close party-line ballot. He received 62 votes from his conservative coalition. His opponent, Dr. Otto Suhr, Socialist president of the Council, gained 57 from his own party. One Socialist abstained.

Jones, Houston publisher, former Secretary of Commerce and one-time head of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. The grants will total $2,500 a year over a 10-year period and will provide from $200 to $500 for eight freshmen each academic year. Jones is a native of Robertson County, Tenn., and a member of Peabody's board of trustees.

Gov. Shivers Tells Baptists That Communism To Decay

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Austin Sunday School teacher and Texas Governor Allan Shivers told the Texas Baptist General Convention last night that Communism will crumble because it puts government above God and man. The governor told the 7,000 delegates that Communism was not a government but a religious fanaticism that was doomed. "God placed man here for a purpose," he said "and man must serve God and government must serve man if a nation or an individual is to prosper." The governor said, "Man and government must serve each other but God comes first, man and government last." He said violating this order, which Communism does, marked its doom. "We make the mistake of believing Communism is a form of government. It is not. It is religious fanaticism and an atheistic doctrine that affects the hearts of men," he said. The governor told the delegates of his decision to teach a men's Bible class. "I had quite a debate over whether I had time. . . I find I have plenty of time and get the greatest amount of pleasure from it (teaching) than anything that has happened to me." he said. The governor called teaching the Bible "a source of great inspiration to me." The convention approved a $14,000,000 budget for 1953-54 by acclamation. Half of the budget will be used to run the annual convention and to pay for half of the Southern Baptist Convention. The other part of the budget goes into the endowments of the General Convention's educational institutions, hospitals, and orphanages.

Tremendous Rains Sweep Italy's Boot

REGGIO CALABRIA, Italy (AP)—Tremendous cloudbursts swept across the toe of the Italian boot today, wrecking homes and flooding rivers. First reports, all unofficial, said at least 48 persons were killed. Eyewitnesses said the death toll might go much higher. Many of the dead were said to have been buried under the debris of shattered homes.

Crippled Hunter Kills Bear

Bryan Arritt, 50, "wheel-chair hunter" of Yuba City, Calif., poses with a 225-pound black bear he bagged in a hand-to-hand encounter near Yuba City. When four shots failed to stop the onrushing bear, Arritt, unable to move from the blanket where fellow deer hunters had placed him, hit the bear with his gun and with rock shown under the bear's head. He managed to hold it off long enough to reload and shoot it in the head. Arritt was shaken but unhurt. (AP Wire-photo.)

Lamb And Beef Featured In Nation's Stores

Lamb, beef and a long list of vegetables look like the best buys of the week in food stores.

There won't be much difference in lamb and beef prices, but food men agreed they represent the best values in the meat division.

Although prices generally will be unchanged, some stores said they planned to trim prices on items such as legs of lamb, lamb shoulder chops and sirloin steak.

Other features will include porterhouse steak, rib roast, chuck roast and ground beef.

Fresh ham and smoked picnic will be on sale in some markets, but pork prices generally will be higher.

Apples, pears and avocados head the list of good fruit buys. Most other fruits will be higher.

Two Ships Hit In Foggy St. Lawrence

QUEBEC (U)—A Norwegian freighter and a small Italian freighter collided in dense fog in the St. Lawrence River Wednesday.

Involved in the collision were the 7,258-ton Norwegian vessel Stugard and the 2,049-ton Italian freighter Carla Maria G. Reports received here on the collision gave this account:

The Italian vessel ran herself aground to avoid striking. The Stugard stood by until it appeared the Italian freighter was not in danger and then proceeded to Montreal.

Later, the Carla Maria G. freed herself and turned toward Quebec. A tug set out to tow her to port if necessary.

The collision near Portneuf, Que., occurred at a point where the St. Lawrence is less than two miles wide. It is about 31 miles southwest of Quebec.

The Italian freighter had left Montreal yesterday after unloading her cargo and was heading for Halifax.

SAYS HAYMES

Keeping Current Is Problem For Stars

By LEE LINDER
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22 (U)—How does a guy who earned maybe as much as a half-million dollars a year in some of the last 10 years wind up broke and in debt?

Crooner Dick Haymes, who is such a guy, calls it "plain stupidity." A simpler explanation you couldn't ask for.

"The outgo ran higher than the income," he says. That happens to most of us.

But do you know what eventually breaks a guy?

"Trying to keep current," says Haymes, "trying to live within your income, and at the same time catch up with back debts."

"It's a snowball going downhill. The more money you earn, the more money you owe. That's the simple truth."

The 34-year-old Haymes told how it goes between shows at a curtailed 10-day engagement at the Latin Casino here, which hired him for $7,200 but held it up on government orders.

The income tax collector says there's $9,600 owing on disallowed deductions in 1951. Haymes protested vigorously.

"If it's a valid debt, I'll be glad to give them a thousand a week to pay it off," he said. "$9,600 isn't such a big debt."

The singer, commuting by chartered plane between Philadelphia and Greenwich, Conn., where his bride, Rita Hayworth, was staying, quit the show in a huff when the government refused to accept the installment offer.

"I can't pay my expenses, or even travel to work, if they take my whole salary," he said.

So what does he owe? "My total indebtedness," Dick says, "and I'm leveling, is about 140 thousand, of which 50 grand is for attorney fees."

Haymes is booked solid—he says

—for two years or more, with gross earnings this year estimated at more than $200,000.

"I guess it will take about three years to get in the clear," he said. Here "very roughly" is how Haymes spends his pay checks:

1. 10 per cent of his gross earnings goes to his agent, Music Corporation of America, which handles all the bookings.

2. 3 per cent, also of gross, goes to a business manager. (Right now, he doesn't have a business manager.)

3. 25 per cent, again of gross, is withheld income tax—just part of his total federal tax bill. (On estimated net annual earnings of about $100,000—after all normal expenses—he'd have to pay an income tax of about $70,000.)

4. $9,600 a year, or $800 a month, for support of his three children of his second marriage.

5. $4,800 a year, or $400 a month, for alimony payment (until she remarries) to his third wife.

6. Attorneys, pianist, publicity, secretarial fees cost Haymes "not less than $50,000 a year, and usually about $15,000 more."

7. Traveling expenses for himself and his associates cost around $20,000 a year. ("Everywhere we travel it runs high.")

Thus, on the average, if Haymes should gross $150,000 a year he should have about $25,000 left after paying his agents, attorneys, traveling expenses and taxes. Out of this, naturally, he has to buy clothes, maintain a home, support his family and pay his debts.

If his income grosses $250,000 his take after all costs should be in the neighborhood of $40,000.

Right now, Haymes says, he doesn't have a tax lawyer or a business manager, but he hopes to get together with Rita and her attorneys soon and get the same men to handle their business.

"You'd be surprised," he says, "how much wasted money there is."

Fat In Blood May Indicate State Of Heart To Doctors

LOS ANGELES (U)—Doctors soon may be able to predict the likelihood of heart attacks by studying the distribution of fat particles in blood serum.

Dr. William J. Zinn told the annual symposium on heart disease yesterday that a good emulsification or even distribution of fat particles indicates a good heart and good blood vessels in most cases.

Persons suffering from heart disease and those who have family histories of diabetes or heart trouble usually show a poor emulsification of fat in their blood serum, he said.

Forewarned, patients can take precautionary steps which may prevent heart attacks and prolong their lives, said Zinn.

Swisher Rancher Has Double Fair Honors

DALLAS (U)—Swisher County rancher Leo Witkowski took double honors at the State Fair's Milking Shorthorn Show Tuesday.

Witkowski showed the grand champion bull and the female and was named the premier exhibitor and breeder.

Lamon Cooper, 17, of Plano, showed the grand champion female in the Junior Milking Shorthorn Show for the second straight year.

grain and winter cover crops continued in that area.

Early vegetables progressed and planting for later harvest was active in most fall and winter areas. Moisture was regarded as adequate in most areas but the wide daily range in temperatures retarded fruiting of tomatoes.

Range and pasture feed was coming along slowly in the west where early October rains fell. Wheat and oat pasture prospects were generally good in the northern plateau and southern low plains counties. One more rain would assure good winter grazing, USDA said.

Cattle were shrinking on the dry, coarse unpalatable grass over the eastern third of the state. Marketing was very heavy.

Fake Bombs Might Be Used To Stir Up Panic During War

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter
NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP)—Suppose an A-bomb or an H-bomb is dropped on your city—but it doesn't go off.
Is it a dud? Or is it a time-bomb?
Or is it a complete fake, a Machiavellian money wrench of panic designed to send people fleeing and paralyze an emptied city?
This strange bomb may come when an enemy is bombing other places or after your city had been announced as a target. What happens? What do we do?

These questions and their thorny problems are presented by Jack De Ment, research chemist and director of the De Ment Laboratories, Portland, Ore., writing in the Military Engineer.
Strangely, there's been little mention of the possibility of atomic duds. And less speculation about clever fake bombs, looking like the real thing, but with no nuclear gear.
It's time for some realistic thinking about these possibilities, De Ment says.
Many ordinary bombs in World War II were duds or time-bombs. Special bomb disposal crews had the ticklish job of disarming or removing them.
Whole city blocks sometimes closed off until daring specialists could deal with a bomb. Sometimes attempts to disarm them set them off.
A-bombs or H-bombs are much more complex things. There's a good chance, De Ment says, that some stockpiled or new bombs could be duds from mechanical or human failure.
How much of a modern city might have to be evacuated until a dud A-bomb could be removed? Or until it was established that it wasn't a time-bomb?
Atomic or hydrogen bombs are most destructive when exploded in the air. Bombs exploded on the ground would not devastate so large an area, but they would make the immediate area radioactive and unsafe for humans for years. Duds which later went off would do this. So would time-bombs.
A-bombs exploding underwater in a harbor or lake would throw a radioactive rain over a wide area of a city. Is the thing that falls into New York Harbor or San Francisco Bay, for example, a dud, forever harmless, or is it a time-bomb? Do ships abandon that harbor? When can the port be used again?
Fake bombs could be a potent new psychological weapon, even a real weapon.
Two cities might be bombed, and a fake bomb dumped into the third. Until you know it's a fake, the area is deserted, factories shut down. Would there be panic, or riots? De Ment asks.
The fake bomb could be used to neutralize and empty a city which an advancing enemy wanted to save intact. In World War II, bombers sometimes avoided areas of cities which their army later hoped to use.

UNLIKE HIS DAD

Things Are Looking Well For Charlie Chaplin Jr.

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Things are going well for at least one Chaplin—Charles Chaplin Jr.
After years of apprenticeship, young Charlie is finally getting his break. He plays the lead as the heavy in "My Pal Shep," a mountain movie produced by Robert L. Lippert Jr.
"I couldn't be happier," enthused the comedian's son. "I wouldn't even mind being typed as a heavy, because I know I could switch to other kinds of roles with no trouble. My strong suit is actually comedy—but my own kind. I do light comedy, not my dad's."
Charlie has had a rough go in his struggle for acting success. He has studied in various acting groups in Hollywood and New York. Before his present break, his only achievements had been two small Broadway roles, some TV parts and a bit as a clown in his father's last picture, "Limelight."
"Believe me, I've had lean days," he remarked. "There were times in New York when I literally hadn't enough to buy a meal. I was too proud to write home for money. So I'd mooch a dinner off a friend, returning the favor when I got a job."
"The only thing that has kept me going is a small income—it's really small—from a trust fund my father set up for my mother, grandmother and myself."
Charlie lives with his mother, Lita Grey Chaplin, and grandmother. He's a tense, handsome fellow of 28 years with black hair that is already turning grey. He's had a grey streak since he was 14. He's 10 months younger than his brother, Sydney, who is pursuing his acting career in Europe.

to prove myself. Luckily I'm good at boxing.
"The name has given me attention I might not have otherwise had. It has also gotten me bad publicity when I've made mistakes. I once tried to get away from the name. I got a job as a disc jockey in San Luis Obispo (Calif.) under another name. But when a friend came by and said, 'Well, if it isn't Charlie Chaplin Jr.' The masquerade was over."
"No, I've never thought about changing my name permanently. A person should be proud of his family name. I'm proud of mine. I'm going to keep it and take the good with the bad."

Travis Sends DWI Deliveryman To Jail

AUSTIN (AP)—The first guilty verdict in Travis County under a new drunk driving law has been brought in.
A 25-year-old bakery deliveryman was found guilty of a first offense and sentenced to three days in jail and fined $50. The new law makes a three-day jail sentence mandatory on conviction of first-offense drunken driving.

Airman second class—R. L. Brown, A. Guevara, Salvador Cupo, Ralph N. Guito Jr., Carl A. Lindsay, William R. Paschal, Ray Sanders, Leroy N. McLaury, Thomas K. Stanford, Donald Bahr, Joe C. Bradshaw, William A. Bray, Pete Rozas, John Maner, Art Taylor, Arnold H. Gould, Leland Heriman, Martin L. Morrison, Richard W. Wilde, Allen J. Witmer, Bobby R. Eason, Gerald E. Harbin, Oran E. Approves Treaty

TRIPOLI, Libya (AP)—The Libyan Senate today approved by a vote of 16 to 3 a 20-year treaty with Britain swapping Libyan air and land bases for British money and materials.
Chesapeake Bay is 195 miles long and at places 30 miles wide.

might be spotted on battlefield areas where you didn't want an enemy to concentrate manpower or firepower, De Ment suggests.
Fake bombs would be cheap, would actually stretch your supply of real bombs when used this way.
How do you learn quickly whether a bomb dropped into a harbor was real, or a fake?
A big difficulty is that few Americans have any idea what an A-bomb or H-bomb actually looks like, or could look like.
No picture has ever been published. De Ment says maybe it is time to do so, if security permits. It would be best to publish pictures of what Russian bombs look like, if that is known to us.

In wartime any unusual looking thing dropped by enemy planes is likely to cause fear, or even panic. A complication in trying to show the public what a dud or fake bomb might look like is that atomic weapons apparently are being made in different varieties. And they could be camouflaged inside commonplace or strange outer coverings.
The possibility of enemy duds or use of fakes may force organization of atomic bomb disposal squads, De Ment says. That would take time. It also would mean telling such crews many secrets of atomic weapons. Without such squads, atomic experts would have to be called away from vital production work to go somewhere to deal with the "dud."
De Ment thinks we would try to avoid real duds or failures, to prevent an enemy from learning our bombs designs and capture of precise atomic materials. He says our bombs doubtless are being designed so they destroy themselves without an atomic explosion if the atomic blast fails to occur. Bombs might also be designed so they would explode if any attempt was made to open or disarm them.
But if we design our bombs to prevent duds, can we be sure an enemy is taking the same precaution? Or that he won't use fake bombs?

THE GRUB LINE

With Franklin Reynolds

LAMESA—County Judge R. F. Spraberry says he believes the remodeling job on the older part of the Dawson County Court House will be completed, and that portion of the building ready for occupancy, by Nov. 15, although the contractor, the Suggs Construction Co., of Big Spring, has until the second day of the New Year to complete the work.

The new "Annex" on the south side, which is really an integral part of the building itself, has already been completed and is being used as intended. On the fourth floor is the jail; on the third floor is the district court, an office for the district judge, the office of the county attorney and the law library; on the second floor are the offices of the county judge, the county clerk and the county treasurer; while on the annex ground floor are the offices of the sheriff, the Justice of the Peace and the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Currently the DPS office is occupied only by the driver's license examiner since the Texas Ranger who was there, Slim Rogers, was transferred to Waco several months ago, and the two highway patrolmen who were "let out" several weeks ago have not been replaced yet.

The new annex, construction of which was started in June of 1952, with furniture, and equipment including the new jail, cost approximately $202,000. The renovation of the rest of the building, including new furniture, is costing $75,000.

The lawn is being preserved as it was and the band stand is still being used, every day the weather permits, by the old-timers who seem to never be able to determine just who is the best domino player in Dawson County.

There is an elevator in the new Court House Annex, but it will not be used by the public. It is a utility elevator that can be used only by Court House officials who have keys for it. Mainly it will be used for transporting persons between the sheriff's office and the jail. Throughout the Annex the stairways have been designed so they are easy to either ascend or descend.

like best about their Chamber of Commerce is that it thinks in agricultural terms. It is the servant of the farmer as much as the servant of the merchant or banker, and in facing the economic problems presented by the drought it has proved its value.

The annual Fiesta de Lamesa was such a tremendous success this year that plans are already being formed for a bigger and better and more colorful and extravagant fiesta in 1954.

But next on the Chamber of Commerce agenda is the observance of the Christmas season. The streets this year are to be decorated with the aluminum foil decorations similar to those used in Big Spring and these will be up and the Christmas street lights will be turned on Nov. 19.

On the first or second day of December an elaborate Christmas pageant, with choral singing, will be presented on the Court House Lawn and Square. Then on the evening of Dec. 10 there will be the annual parade and pre-Christmas visit of jolly Old Santa Claus himself. On this occasion the Round-

GRADUATION

Both aerial and ground trimmings will garnish Webb's next graduation ceremony.

When class 53-G graduates on Monday, November 2, it'll be open post, wing review, and a return of the aerial salute so long missing at Webb commencement exercises.

Colonel Fred M. Dean will declare open post from 1 to 4:30 p.m. At 1:30 over 2,000 Webb officers airmen and cadets will march in wing review on the flight line. This will be climaxed by a 16-ship jet aerial salute and demonstration of maneuvers taught in all basic single engine schools.

Formal graduation will follow in the Academic Auditorium at 3:30 p.m. Col. Dean would like to invite all to attend this portion of the program but because of limited seating capacity, chairs will be reserved for those invited by letter.

Members of the Chaplains Section are currently modifying the interior of the building. The first floor will be converted into an assembly room and nine class rooms will be partitioned on the second floor.

CATHOLIC CHAPLAIN
Webb will have a new Catholic chaplain no later than December 11 to replace Father Henry N. Dunkel, who has been re-assigned to Thule, AFB, Greenland.

Major Grant E. Mann, Wing Chaplain, announced the chaplain to be assigned to Webb is now attending the November Chaplain up Club, the Chamber of Commerce's membership and big events organization, will help Old Santa in delivering sacks of candy and other goodies to the more than 2,000 children who are expected to be present.

J. P. White is foreman of the Roundup Club which is divided into "Cowpokes" and "Wranglers." The top cowpoke is L. I. Dean. The others are Rupert Austin, Skeet Noret, C. W. Tarter, Charles Lusk, Tim Cook, Dick Collins and Jeff Shipp.

Carl Smith is the top wrangler and the members of his gang are Clyde Privitt, Spud Stuart, Jake Lippard, Ronnie Shepherd, Bean Blair, Dan Gaither and Lee Billingsley.

Jake Lippard, who is manager of Anthony's Store in Lamesa, is general chairman of the entire Christmas observance program.

New Route Tried To Plane Crash Site In Mexico

MONTERREY (U)—Search parties, tired, wet and hungry, tried today a new route to the scene of a plane crash which killed an estimated 12 persons.

They were turned back at nightfall by the difficult ground barring the way into Devil's Back Canyon. Heavy rain hampered the searchers and blocked most plane flights over the scene. Military officials discussed asking the U. S.

Air Force to land a helicopter but there was no assurance it could land near the wreck. Mexican parachute troops were brought here, but the low ceiling kept them from jumping into the area.

Definite information on the number of persons in the plane and who they were was still lacking.

Denounces Offer

BERLIN (U)—The Soviet Union's official newspaper in East Germany compared Chancellor Konrad Adenauer to Hitler today and denounced his offer of security guarantees to Russia as "the speech of a warmonger."

KING OF THE CORNS

3-MINUTE POPCORN

The mountains are 5,000 feet high and the plane crashed at the 4,000 foot level.

It seemed fairly certain that one U. S. citizen, Clifford Safley of San Diego, Calif., was one of the victims. He has not been reported since the crash. One last hope that he might have returned to Mexico City by train was dashed last night when the train arrived without him.

MRS. JOE B. HEDLESTON AND NANCY
... Daughter is proud of her talented mother

Guacamole Salad Is Choice Of Hedlestons

Joe B. Hedleston, 700 W. 16th, has a combination cook-artist-seamstress in his wife, Mrs. Hedleston began painting in oils about two years ago and their lovely home is enhanced with pastels and still-life scenes from her own brush.

The Hedlestons have two lovely daughters, one a blonde, Nancy, 2 years, and brunette Nita Jo, a 15-year-old junior in high school. They are both lucky to have a mother who whips up clothes for them at home.

About her painting, Mrs. Hedleston says her pictures make wonderful gifts for her relatives "who live so far away from here that they could never hurt my feelings by not hanging them." Another skill of Mrs. Hedleston is copper tooling. She makes plaques that are delightful wall decorations.

The whole family are salad eaters and Mr. Hedleston's choice is a guacamole salad that his wife makes.

2 peeled ripe avocados
1 peeled ripe tomato
1 minced, peeled small onion

2 teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper

Sweet Potato Tips

Sweet potatoes are coming to the markets in large quantities now. The crop this year is well above that of a year ago.

Boil sweet potatoes without peeling. When tender, drain and slip off the skins. Thirty to 35 minutes cooking time will be required to boil sweet potatoes.

Try baked potatoes too. Bake at 350F for 90 to 60 minutes. Serve hot with plenty of butter.

A Good Buy In Oranges

Mrs. R. W. Darrow selects some Florida oranges that are just coming into local produce departments. Oranges, other citrus fruits and apples will be good buys this fall.

Buy Florida, Texas Oranges For Juice

Large Florida oranges that are just coming into the stores now are one of the best buys in the produce departments of local grocery stores, according to Bob Spears, manager of a super market here. They are cheap now, and they and Texas oranges are juicy. In fact there is little difference in the Texas and Florida variety.

But for the housewife's information, California oranges are better for paring and eating than for juice.

In giving tips on how to select fruit, Spears said that the spoilage begins on oranges at the ends. They begin to get soft and brown as they spoil. The same thing happens to grapefruit.

Apples are coming in now and they will get cheaper all along. The citrus fruits and apples come in season as the peaches, plums, apricots and pears go out. Nor is this the season to buy cantaloupes.

Spears explains that the bitterness that is sometimes tasted in lettuce doesn't mean that the lettuce is bad. It comes from a white juice in the stem, the juice will run out when the stem end is trimmed.

Cauliflower is a year around vegetable and happens to be a good buy now.

Because squash is locally grown it is usually cheaper here than in some places; however, it is now coming in from other areas and will be higher in price until spring arrives.

The peak of the season for corn is past and shoppers will note that the price has gone up. The tried and true way for testing good corn is to dent it with a fingernail. If it spatters it's tender. Most mirrors over corn bins in produce departments are well-spattered from the customers' testing. Most of the corn sold here comes from California.

In Spears' opinion tomatoes receive the hardest treatment from the customers. They are subjected to a good bit of squeezing. The vine ripened tomatoes are the tastiest and you can usually pick these

Cottage Cheese Apple Pie Takes 10 Minutes To Fix

A really easy, quickly prepared pie is this cottage cheese apple sauce combination. It's ready for the oven in only ten minutes. When it's served, crisp and golden brown on top, with a satisfying filling of apple layer and soft creamy cottage cheese, you'll have an immediate hit dessert.

COTTAGE CHEESE APPLE PIE
Ingredients:
2 eggs
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ cup sugar
¼ cup light cream scalded
¼ cup double rich milk
1 cup cottage cheese

1 teaspoon vanilla
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
1½ cups thick sweetened apple sauce
Method:
Lightly beat eggs; add salt, sugar, cream, milk, cottage cheese and vanilla. Mix cinnamon and nutmeg with apple sauce and spread over bottom of 9-inch pastry shell. Pour cottage cheese mixture over top and sprinkle with cinnamon. Bake in hot oven (425F) for 10 minutes, then reduce heat to slow (300F) and bake about 40 minutes. Yield: 6 servings.

Oyster Months 'R' Here; Serve Them Several Ways

Those "R" months are here again and with their arrival oysters are on the market. Although some oysters can be bought most of the year now, in the "r" months they come into their own, both in quality and quantity. Even the flavor improves.

Although some persons will insist oysters are never better than when eaten raw, we've collected these recipes for cooking this versatile sea food.

One of the simplest ways to serve oysters is in good old-fashioned stew. Serve it at the table from the chafing dish and the family won't be bashful about asking for seconds.

For the best stew, don't make it too far ahead of serving time. Serve with crisp fresh vegetables.

OYSTER STEW
Ingredients:
1 pint oysters
6 tablespoons butter
1 quart milk, scalded
¼ teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
Paprika
Method:
Drain and save liquor from oysters. Melt butter in saucepan, add oysters, and cook slowly until edges begin to curl. Add oyster liquor, hot milk, salt and pepper. Pour into bowls and top with paprika and extra butter. Serves six.

Oyster bisque, a richer variation of oyster stew, makes a good first course for company dinner. Garnish with chopped parsley for a little color.

OYSTER BISQUE
Ingredients:
3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
1½ teaspoons salt
Dash of cayenne
Dash of paprika
1 tablespoon minced onion
1 cup top milk or light cream
3 cups milk
1 cup coarsely chopped oysters (1½ cups whole oysters)
¼ cup butter
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
Method:
Combine tapioca, salt, cayenne, paprika, onion, top milk and milk in top of double boiler. Place over rapidly boiling water and cook 10 to 15 minutes, stirring frequently. Add oysters and butter. Mix and keep over hot water 15 to 20 minutes, to thoroughly blend flavors. Serve in cups or bowls. Garnish with chopped parsley. Makes four to six servings.

Use Chili Powder On Many Dishes

Looking for an economical, one-dish meal to serve guests or family this weekend? More and more homemakers are finding a delicious answer is a heaping, steaming bowl of chili con carne. America has really taken the famous "Cowboy's stew" to heart. Last year more chili meat products were canned in this country than any other food except soups, luncheon meats and ham. And countless more meals, from society buffets to casual family affairs, featured homemade chili.

The American Spice Trade Association, which has designated October as Chili Month, offers this spicy advice on making chili con carne and other chili seasoned dishes:

"Chili powder, the spice used in chili con carne, is a seasoning blend, usually made of ground chili pepper, oregano, cumin, garlic and salt. It is a warm, not hot, spice. Chili dishes should always be seasoned to taste as preferences vary widely on this spice. One good idea is to place a shaker of chili powder on the table when serving chili dishes so each person can suit his own taste.

"In buying meat for chili con carne, ask the butcher to use his chili plate in the meat grinder. This gives a coarse grind which keeps the meat from becoming mushy during the long cooking process.

"Chili con carne is made with or without beans. If you include beans, be sure not to add them until the final period of cooking, or they will become too soft. Kidney beans and Pinto beans are most commonly used.

In addition to chili con carne, chili powder makes good flavoring for many other dishes. Try a little next time you serve seafood, scrambled eggs, beef stew or vegetable salad.

Go English With Yorkshire Pudding

An interesting main dish is Yorkshire pudding. And to make it as English as Piccadilly Square serve it with economical roast beef—short ribs especially.

YORKSHIRE PUDDING

1 cup flour
¼ teaspoon salt
2 eggs
1 cup milk
¼ cup beef drippings
Method:
Sift flour; measure; sift again with salt. Beat eggs well and stir into flour. Add milk and beat with a rotary beater until smooth. Pour two teaspoons beef drippings into each of six muffin tins; place in a 400 degree oven for about 3 minutes or until pans are hot. Pour in batter and bake at 400 degrees for 40 minutes. Serve with gravy from short ribs. Six servings.

Fort Worth Has Changed A Lot Since The Early Frontier Days

By TIM PARKER
Associated Press Staff

The fast draw, the slug of whisky, the poker table, the rutted and muddy street, the hostile Indians, frontier justice without benefit of court.

Those were the marks of Fort Worth, the frontier town.

Now it is an aircraft manufacturing center, a meat packing colossus, a complex of small manufacturers, even a respectable education center.

Fort Worth is "a young hellion who has matured into an unwonted respectability."

But generations will pass before the flavor of a frontier town is gone entirely. Because Fort Worth lived it up as a frontier town, the last chance for some hell raising before the loneliness of the farther west.

Cities have characters of their own. Fort Worth is described well in the first complete history of the city, "Fort Worth, Outpost on the Trinity," was written by Oliver Knight, formerly of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram news staff. The 302-page book is published by the University of Oklahoma Press and sells for $3.75.

One who writes a history of a city must decide between making it complete, or making it interesting throughout. It can't easily be both, because the complete history lists all the mayors, tells who founded which banks and hotels, the names of the men on the first city planning board, the birthdate and original sites of all the churches.

Knight's solution is a palatable compromise. Chapters tell of gun fighting, political intrigue, whisky drinking, and Indian chasing.

The fort at the fork of the Trinity was a small thing when a soldier who had stolen a pig was sentenced "to remain the entire day on the hot parade ground with the dead pig suspended from his neck."

You discover Fort Worth "stole" an election to become the county seat. Spirited rebels there hanged two abolitionists during the Civil War. Every gun in town was fired to celebrate the first telegraph wire.

Long hair Jim Courtright, the frontier marshal, "for the first,

Webb To Have Own UF Drive

Webb Air Force Base will soon follow in the footsteps of its civilian Big Spring neighbor. In 1954 the base will stage its own United Fund drive—thus wrapping up all welfare campaigns in one fell swoop.

With Colonel Henry S. Tyler, Wing Executive Officer, as fund committee president, groundwork for an all-out drive in March is now being planned.

"Our civilian friends," Col. Tyler said, "have rid themselves of these constant drives by establishing United Funds to which they contribute just once yearly to cover all worthy welfare organizations. Air Force bases recently received authority to establish similar funds."

The past year Webb personnel gave $3,789.66 in four major drives.

"I know this is a little early to start talking about the new fund," the colonel concluded, "but the success of it depends on whole-hearted support, so begin to plan for it now. We're not going to set any goals. We warmed up pretty well in 1953. Now we've got a new system and can do better."

Guiana Shows Surprise At Plot Charges

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (AP)—British Guianans generally expressed surprise Wednesday over official British charges that the colony's ousted leftist government plotted to burn business property and homes of government officials and white men.

But officials of the People's Progressive party (PPP)—which controlled the government before Britain revoked the colony's constitution Oct. 9 and fired six Cabinet officials—took the line that the accusations were an imperialist-inspired concoction brewed by the London government and its representatives in the colony.

The plot charges were made in a white paper issued in London yesterday as Britain's Parliament reassembled after its summer recess. The London government said its information on the alleged plot came "from reliable sources" who were not named.

The white paper asserted British troops which were rushed to Georgetown foiled Communist-inspired plans to turn the colony into a totalitarian state. It listed 11 charges against ousted Prime Minister Cheddi Jagan and his PPP regime, ranging from the fire plot to plans to rewrite the colony's school textbooks with a political bias.

Jagan has denied British accusations that he and his 5-month-old government had schemes for turning British Guiana into a Moscow puppet state. He is presently en route to London to put his case before colonial authorities.

The white paper charges apparently shocked the majority of Guianans. Businessmen and ordinary citizens expressed alarm over the report.

The white paper asserted the plot to fire business places and homes was to be put into effect if the colony's constitution were revoked, its left-wing ministers arrested or if Jagan's Cabinet were challenged by Britain's governor, Sir Alfred Savage.

Wanted British Peer In Paris Now

PARIS (AP)—Lord Montagu of Beaulieu, young British peer wanted by British police to face a "serious charge," arrived here Wednesday by plane from New York.

It was not learned whether he would remain in Paris or continue to Britain to face the charges. It was understood he wanted to consult his lawyers here about the charge, the nature of which has not been disclosed by British authorities.

Montagu, 27, was in the United States visiting his sister, Mrs. Grainger Weston of Waco, Tex. He had been expected back in England to take charge of preparations for the wedding of another sister, Lady Mary Clare Douglas Scott-Montagu, to Lord Garnock Oct. 31.

A recent announcement in London said that Montagu's own planned marriage to Ann Gage, 21, would not take place.
