CLUB ORGANIZED

Economics Club was Thursday. Officers as follows: President, vice president, Georg's ecretary-treasurer, Dorothy Sitter; program chairman, Margaret Kennedy; program committee, Bernice McClellan, Gloria Moon and Marquette Payne; social chairman, Jessie Mae Lynch; social committee, Leta Mae Phillips and Veima Mann; reporter, Mabel Back. Other members are: Molita Turman, Donna Gail Harris, Shirley Johnston, Willie Louelle Cobb, Helen Rigdon and Verlyn Hinton.

Seventeen girls enrolled in the club this year. Much interest in shown in membership. We expect to see a very active club this year. A good program of work is being outlined by the program committee. The first regular meeting was called Sept. 15, in the home economics department, at 6:30.

Several new members enrolled in the department last week, making the total enrollment 90. This is an increase over that of the past year. The lockers in the clothing room were improved last week end. They are easier to use now. Also the general appearance of both the labora-

AGRICULTURAL REPORT

The agricultural boys are busy setting up their projects and getting them started. Many of their projects have already started and the others will start according to the season of the year.

Sixty birds were caponized during class periods last Friday. Only two were killed, which was a very good record. A large percentage of the boys can caponize their own birds now with a very small loss from killing and having sties. Caponizing chickens was an interesting job to the agricultural boys, this being the first time for most of them to see the operation.

The F. P. A. Chapter will elect officers and set up their objectives for the year this week end. The officers and objectives will appear in the next issue of The McLean News. The dairy and poultry judging team will judge at the Quail community fair Friday, and in Amarillo at the Tri-state fair, Monday.

SHERLOCK SNOOPINGS

Sherlock thinks that Joe Hefner really has "it" bad. LaBede, freshman, has just lately decided that it doesn't pay to argue with upper classmen, after an encounter with Marietta. Did you see Willie L. Cobb and Julia McCarty marching to the bridal march?

S. S. LESSON

By Rev. Cecil G. Goff, Pastor First Baptist Church

CHRISTIAN LIVING

Lesson text, Romans 12:1-3, 9-21. Golden text, "Christ liveth in me." Galatians 2:20. The Christian religion is more than creed. It is also character. There are all too many who claim the Christian faith who know it only as creed. Creed is necessarily a part of any religion, but the religion that ends with creed is a hollow shell. The beauty of the Christian religion is that its creed is only a stepping stone to the real heart of the religion—Christian character is the heart of the religion.

This is the thing Paul is saying in the "therefore" in the beginning of the twelfth chapter of Romans. That word signifies that the reason for the action to be described has preceded that verse. In the words of Mr. Allan, as he sums up the reasons for such action as is described in chapter 12, Paul might have been saying something like this: "I appeal to you in view of all these wonderful realities of grace which you have experienced—because, while guilty of sin, and having fallen short of the glory of God, you have been justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus; because you have peace with God; because you have been raised up to walk in newness of life; because you are children of God; because whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved; because the lest cannot hear without a preacher, and men cannot preach unless they are sent—I appeal to you because of these truths which you accept and believe," that you present your bodies living sacrifices, holy, acceptable unto God which is your reasonable service.

All too many think of Christianity as a matter of hand shaking and fraternal membership in an organization that is called a church. There is little realization on their part of what it cost Christ to save a soul. Usually in many such cases the individual is Christian in name only. Under such circumstances there can be little to be expected from such people in the matter of sacrificing for Christ. Pulpit eloquence and beautiful song services can never make up for the lack of vital personal experience with Christ. Too many have attempted to substitute ritual in service, and in some instances in individual lives, for the real thing of the Christian religion. When the vital element of personal experience with Christ is left out it becomes religion without the word Christian attached. The entire passage for this week's lesson would indicate, along with the rest of the New Testament, that the life of a Christian is to be different from that of an individual who is not a Christian. A Christian life is one that belongs to Christ because He bought it and paid for it with the price of the cross. In such a life Christ is to order what is to be done and what is not to be done. What do you suppose Christ would order for every Christian on Sunday morning and Sunday night? Where do you suppose Christ would order every Christian to go on Wednesday night? If Christ were spending our pay checks or cotton money, how do you suppose He would spend it? Well, just insofar as there is a difference in the places Christ would go and the way He would spend money and the places we go and the ways we spend our money, to the extent of that difference we are wrong. Men and women who call themselves Christian ought to live up to the name of the Savior they bear or quit being hypocrites. Christ might well repeat His accusations against the Pharisees, in these modern days, when He called them whited sepulchres filled with dead men's bones. The call comes from heaven, from the lost dead in hell, and from a lost world, for Christians to live up to their profession. To profess and not live that profession is to be Too many Christians today are calling for soft loving preaching as Christ did. But lo! Christ spoke the truth, took the scourge and drove the money changers from the temple, and pointed out the hypocrites. Let it not be necessary for the minister of the present day be forced to do that, but let each heart be its own judge in the light of the Wonderful Words of the Master and live according to His Word a life surrendered to Him and His will.

News from Back

Miss Ethelyn Williamson from Borger visited in the home of her parents last week end. Earl Moon and Winfred Finley were dinner guests of the Vester Dowell family Sunday. Don't forget our "get acquainted" program Thursday night. We are expecting a large crowd. Misses Rheta Pearl and Virginia Hale spent Sunday at the teachers' age, visiting Chilla Pearson. We are glad to have May Lee Morse back in school this week. She has been absent several days. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dowell and family called at the Pearson home Sunday afternoon. Two new pupils, Thomas and John Saunders, Jr., have enrolled in the upper grades. We are glad to have these two boys with us. Mrs. Cecil Back visited her mother at Lefors Sunday. Larry Cunningham left Friday for Lubbock to attend Texas Tech.

COLONIAL CITIES

A seventh grade history class, which had just finished studying colonial life, was on examination. One of the questions was: "Discuss city life in colonial times." One boy wrote: "There were not many cities, and what there were, were out in the country." John Sparks of Anna, Ill., is visiting friends here this week. BEAUTIFUL DRESSES CAN NOW BE MADE EASILY

You'll really enjoy sewing when there's no drudgery connected with it—when results are always all you hoped they would be. You can afford many more clothes for yourself and the children when it costs so little to make them. It rarely costs more than a penny to sew an entire dress. Besides, with an electric machine available, you can repair and remodel a lot of things you wouldn't pay to have done over. Try the new Electric Sewing Machines—see for yourself how easy it is. You just guide the material—the machine does the rest. The original cost is low—surprisingly low.

May we give you six dollars?

NOT in cash, of course. We're speaking of its equivalent. But here is something for you to consider. Every year this newspaper brings you at least three outstanding novels in serial form. Purchased as books each would cost not less than $2, making a total expenditure of at least $6 per year.

Like yourself, we could find plenty of uses for that $6. Some member of the family is always in need of a new pair of shoes or some other necessity. But at the same time your requirements for good reading material must be met. By accepting these three novels each year we feel you are treating yourself to real enjoyment, at the same time giving your purse a substantial boost.

These novels are a source of constant pride to us. Every year we select them from the season's most outstanding best sellers, offered in serial form by a large newspaper syndicate organization. We'd like to feel that you—as a subscriber—always look forward to reading the coming installment in the next issue. It gives us a great satisfaction to know that here is another reason why our paper is popular in the home.

You are invited to begin reading our novels now. These regular brief visits to fictionland will prove a delightful interlude from your work-a-day activities. And it will make us happy to know that you are getting enjoyment from them.

No matter how good the mousetraps are, they will not be bought. They have to be sold.

The assumption that the world will beat a path to the door of the world's greatest mousetrap maker, though his house be found in the wilderness, has bankrupted a million hopeful business men.

And selling mousetraps is no different in this respect than selling clothes, toothbrushes, diamonds, steam shovels, your services, or whatever else you have.

Things just have to be sold these days... through intelligent effort and the right sales medium. Why not investigate our service? We will be glad to help you plan an advertising campaign that will get results.

Caveman Style
A woman who was having a house built detected the bricklayers having the bricks with his trowel. With a triumphant gleam in her eyes she approached him swiftly and said: "Isn't that rather a primitive way of cutting a brick in half?"
The man looked up, smiled and said: "Lor' bless yer deat heart, lidy there's a far more primitive way than this, believe me."
"Really, and what's that?" she inquired.
"Biting it, lidy, biting it."

"to-School" Knits and Prints

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

G-DONG goes the bell that ends the knell of vacation as in "first day of school." Again doting mothers are concerned with the problem of practical and as attractive as school wardrobes for the young of the household, for as mother knows much of the and happiness of little girls in classroom depend upon the of self confidence which a frock inspires.

Help in this matter of apparel—little daughter to a nicely here two suggestions we have to—knits and prints. Perhaps it be more accurate to say as well as knits for as crocheting is being done days as knitting. Simply a of choice. To emphasize segue for crochets and prints are showing three as cunning room outfits as ever a fond er might hope to include in a girl's clothes collection.

Little Miss Twelve posing to left in the picture arrayed in ensemble that couldn't be prettified. It is crocheted in shades of blue knit-cro-sheen. The encouragement of would-be mothers who feel the urge to this most attractive outfit we telling you that the stitch is simple and goes like light—when once you get started. The has goes of the lighter blue blouse hidden by the scarf matching light blue. It has a high neck that closes with a string. There are crochet buttons to add glamor to the occasion. A cutey-cute bag, the scarf and hat are crocheted to match.

A many-piece crocheted outfit as described, the practical side of the question is self-evident. The blouse, the skirt and the jacket may be worn separately, which means that any number of changes are possible, being just what is a most needful virtue for school togs.

The simplicity and practicality of the blouse-and-skirt two-piece to the right is a big argument in its favor. This crocheted suit for the grammar school Miss is a real find when it comes to appropriate dress for play or for classroom. The blouse contrasts the dark skirt which is in keeping with the present style trend to bring out striking color effects. The wide sailor collar provides a nautical touch. The gay fassel tie gives a final flourish to this most attractive back-to-school dress which is so easily crocheted of mercerized knitting and crochet cotton. We almost forgot to mention the crowning glory of these crocheted garments — they wash perfectly and with as little trouble as a gingham, a pique or any wash fabric.

Picture for yourself little daughter clad in a cunning print such as the little girl centered in the picture is wearing. The grand thing about dresses made of the new prints this season is that it is perfectly safe to buy the correct size for no longer does one have to allow for shrinkage. That is, if the fabric is one of the newer prints that are sanforized shrunk. It means a great deal to know that little daughter's gay print frock will not shrink out of fit in tubbing.

In the washgoods sections one finds the cunningest classroom prints imaginable such as fashions the little girl's dress pictured.

SQUIRREL IN VOGUE

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

pleasing topic of conversation for fur stylists and one that is ending no-end enthusiasm, is in and to the revival of the ever loved youthful-looking and wonderfully flattering gray squirrel. When you go fur-coat shopping, keep this in mind and look for the squirrel models that are being so welcome a re-appearance. Perfect for sports and for formal wear also, is the stunning double-duty coat pictured. It has a back squirrel worked in the new split skin fashion.

ALIX SCULPTURES CLOTHES TO FIGURE

Outstanding among silhouettes for fall are those drawn by Alix. Her dresses are fashions, to display every curve of a rounded, feminine form through masterly manipulation and drapery of soft, clinging fabric. This season, as last, her favorite is jersey, both silk and rayon.

Some of her skirts are so full and flaring that they resemble lampshades or parachutes, while others are caught under the hem like Turkish trousers. All coats are cut with a swirling flare.

Evening clothes, particularly, would delight an ancient Greek sculptor. Fullness is concentrated in groups of folds or gathers directly in front or back, not obscuring, but, rather, emphasizing, lovely curving outlines.

Borders of four or five bright colors emphasize the flare at the hem of many evening dresses.

Luxury and Elegance to Dominate Fall Costumes

Elegance and luxury will dominate the mode this autumn if the costumes already appearing are any criterion. Magnificent fabrics, beautifully cut on exquisite lines, is the recipe for late afternoon and informal and formal evening clothes.

Typical of this trend is a white skirt ensemble with a long slim skirt of white and silver blistered crepe and a simple surplice bodice of plain silver metal cloth. The shoulders, with double puffs and the tailored lapel collar, are smart notes on the short jacket that is fitted in back and open in front.

Motorist's Buttons

Among the novelty buttons that have made their appearance are those that carry the various road signs for motorists.

BRISBANE

THIS WEEK

World's Chemists Busy
The New Hell Broth
Our Huge Gold Pile

The great fighters in Asia and Europe in the days of Frederick the Great and Napoleon had little idea of war's future. But marvelous things, some of the greatest, Napoleon especially, might have done with today's inventions.

Frederick the Great's father selected the tallest men he could find for his guard, probably kept them away from the firing line. In battle they would have been killed first, hit by the bullets that go over the heads of shorter men.

Arthur Brisbane

The wholesale killers of the old days prepared their killings by marching men up and down, drilling them, encouraging them with titles, brass bands to lead them, fancy uniforms. All that means little now.

About 100 miles from Berlin there is a station called Leuna. There most useful work is done, in theory and through study of the manufacture of synthetic petroleum; and there most important, learned men with big heads, spectacles and an amount of education that would make you dizzy if you could imagine it, concentrate their brains on the preparation of better, more efficient poison gases and high explosives.

Every country has its similar death laboratory; men perhaps as efficient as those of Germany, though Germany is the kingdom of chemistry, the teacher of other nations.

Henry Irving, on the stage of his theater in London, prepared an impressive presentation of the witches in "Macbeth," old, toothless hags, preparing their hell-broth, with power to summon spirits from the dead and make them foretell the future.

Far more efficient are those solemn German chemists, physicists and other professors, preparing the real hell-broth of poison gas, upon which the future of civilization and the domination of the earth may depend for many centuries.

We had our periods of universal barbarism and cannibalism, our ages of flint, bronze and iron, our many interesting forms of rulership, planned to give one or a few control over all the others. We had the age of military feudalism, and many think that we are now seeing the end of "industrial feudalism."

There may be in the centuries ahead of us a period of airplane-poison gas rule, which will make the peoples of the world as completely subject to a single dictatorship as were the ancient galley-slaves, swinging their oars under the lash.

There are a good many things we haven't seen and many to which we devote too little thought, including perhaps the fact that it is dangerous to be too rich if you are not prepared to defend yourself against burglars.

Those thousands of millions in gold that we are hiding away in a hole in the ground, as ingeniously as any squirrel hiding his hickory nuts, may bring us trouble some day.

The thought of those ten thousand millions' worth of gold bars and dollars, hidden not very far below the surface, might cause some ingenious Asiatic or European to say to himself:

"For one or two billions I could prepare the necessary machinery, flying ships and poison gas included, to conquer the necessary areas of the United States and frighten the others into submission. Having laid down my layer of gas, I would descend and take the ten thousand millions and go home with a clean profit of eight billions in gold."

Mussolini races his big Italian built automobile, the engine burning alcohol, made of Italian farm products—no gasoline. Some lawmakers in America suggest compelling the use of 10 per cent alcohol in all fuel for American automobiles. Fuel alcohol can be made from corn, and the law, it is said, would give work to 2,000,000 men on 20,000,000 acres of farm land.

It seems impossible to believe the hideous accounts of the maltreatment and cruel deaths inflicted upon women in the civil war now raging in Spain.

That men should fight and murder each other is to be expected, since they are at best "half tiger, half monkey," and often the monkey gives way to the tiger. But that they should inflict shameful ill-treatment and hideous death on defenseless women seems utterly unbelievable, even when you know what men are, in a mob.

Shirtwaister for School Girl

1959-B.

Here is the frock for juniors to make for school days. A combination of rhythm in its hemline, rhyme in its color scheme and racy in its style. For late summer wear, try tub silk, linen, cotton or shantung with long or short sleeves. For autumn and winter—"tweedy" silk crepe or broadcloth.

The waist, gathered slightly to the shoulder yoke front and back, has a center pleat and pockets for trimming. Buttons—a matter of

OF INTEREST TO THE HOUSEWIFE

A damp cloth dipped in baking soda will remove tea and coffee stains from china cups.

Never prune climbing roses in the fall. Cut out all dead canes but wait until next spring before cutting out dead shoots.

In pressing never put an iron on the right side of any goods except cotton. Always lay a cloth between the iron and the goods.

If the soil in which bulbs are to be planted is acid, work hydrated lime into the top soil two weeks before planting.

Pull out old stalks in your vegetable garden as soon as the crop has been picked. This will make the cleaning up of the garden later much easier.

Woodwork which has to be painted should be well smeared with lime water, which can be obtained at any druggist's. Let dry and then paint. The paint will dry in half the time. Put the brush in water when you have finished. It will be quite soft for next day.

Order hyacinth, tulip, narcissus, snowdrop and crocus bulbs now. In preparing beds for these bulbs mix bonemeal liberally into the soil, but never permit manure to come in contact with the bulbs. They should be surrounded only by soil or sand.

Crowning Fortune
The high prize of life, the crowning fortune of a man, is to be born to some pursuit which find him in employment and happiness—whether it be to make baskets or broad-swords, or canals, or statutes, or songs.—Emerson.

Father of the Future
The wise man must remember that while he is descendant of the past, he is a parent of the future; and that his thoughts are as children born to him, which he may not carelessly let die.—Herbert Spencer.
