MISSING TEDDY BEAR FOUND AND ALL'S WELL IN WOLFE HOUSEHOLD

DETROIT, Oct. 18. (AP)—The W. Wolfe family arose refreshed this morning after the first good night's sleep in weeks.

Six-year-old Judy, with her teddy bear back, had stopped crying. Judy lost "Jimmie" the bear while the family was vacationing in the West.

Each night the parents had lain awake later in the night when her father wrote a letter to the automobile club of Michigan.

Could they find a 16-inch frayed teddy bear lost somewhere in the West?

Auto club agents sprang to the search and retraced the route taken by the Wolfes. At Denver they found Jimmie, cuddled in the arms of another little girl.

Last night Judy went to sleep contentedly. Jimmie was in his accustomed place as a pillow under her head.

The lights in the Wolfe home blinked out early.

Novel Strike Ends As Workers Vote Selves Back Into Health

NEW YORK, Oct. 18. (AP)—Some 1,300 CIO city sanitation department workers have voted themselves back in good health after reporting sick during a novel work stoppage yesterday.

They decided last night that their health would permit a return to work.

A sanitation department official threatened disciplinary action against workmen who could not prove they actually were ill.

A spokesman for Local 333, CIO United Public Workers, replied that disciplinary action would bring a walkout of the entire union membership of from 6,000 to 7,000 among the department's 9,800 workers.

The union is demanding a 40-hour week instead of the present 48-hour week with no overtime.

Sanitation Commissioner William J. Powell accused the demonstrators of trying to embarrass O'Dwyer's administration politically.

WORLD CONFLICT SEEN

Nehru Says India Out Of Cold War

NEW YORK, Oct. 18. (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru of India declared last night his country intends to take no sides in the cold war. But India, he emphasized, will "not be neutral" in situations where "man's liberty or peace is in danger." Neutrality then, he said, would be "a betrayal of what we have fought for and stood for." The Indian statesman voiced his statement of policy in a speech accepting an honorary doctor of laws degree bestowed on him by Columbia University.

Nehru declared that "the very process of marshalling the world into two hostile camps precipitates the conflict which it is sought to avoid." He recalled the teachings of the late Mohandas K. Gandhi, India's beloved champion of freedom, who preached brotherly love. Indian foreign policy, Nehru said, has these "main objectives": "The pursuit of peace, not through alignment with any major power or group of powers, but through an independent approach to each controversial or disputed issue; the liberation of subject peoples; the maintenance of freedom, both national and individual; the elimination of racial discrimination; and the elimination of want, disease and ignorance which afflict the greater part of the world's population." "Political subjection, racial inequality, economic inequality and misery—these are the evils which we have to remove if we would ensure peace," the prime minister declared. Contending "racial superiority has been most widely and most insolently exhibited" by westerners toward Asia and Africa, he called racial discrimination "one of the great danger points of our modern world." "Out of this evil may come a conflagration of which no man can see the range of consequence," he warned.

Raising Guppies Has Its Points

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 18. (AP)—Raising guppies may seem like an uninteresting hobby until you get one with two heads. That's what happened to Mrs. Kenneth Pettibone. Her mama guppy has given birth to a twin gigned offspring. You'd probably need a magnifying glass to tell, but Mrs. Pettibone says both heads are perfectly formed and complete. In fact, the critter eats with both mouths at the same time. The guppy, a tropical fish which carries and gives birth to its young like a mammal, doesn't eat much anyway. When born it's about as big as an aspirin tablet.

INGRID'S HUSBAND IS SOLACING HIMSELF FOR LOSS OF HIS MATE

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 18. (AP)—Dr. Peter Lindstrom, estranged husband of Ingrid Bergman, "can't go out in public," a friend says, without people start trying to concoct a romance. The friend, Dr. Lee Siegel, told of an evening of night clubbing with Dr. Lindstrom. Sunday night the actress' husband went out with Dr. Siegel and Mrs. Siegel, who is Actress Norren Nash. At one spot they met Dress Designer Marusia Radunska, who recently divorced Radio Announcer Don Wilson. Marusia told a newsmen that her heel caught in the hem of her dress and she stumbled. She said Dr. Lindstrom gallantly caught her and carried her over a doorway. The Siegels had gone home. After a dance or so, Marusia left with her friends and Dr. Lindstrom drove away alone. Dr. Siegel said the physician and Marusia never had met before. "We thought it would do Dr. Lindstrom good to go out for an evening," Dr. Siegel explained, "but right away people are trying to make a romance out of a casual meeting." Miss Bergman, in Rome, has announced her intention to divorce Dr. Lindstrom. Friends say she plans eventually to wed Director Roberto Rossellini. Her representative said she and Rossellini soon will start on a film on the life of Saint Francis' Assisi.

RIBBON RAMBLINGS By Mildred Young

Have you noticed your grocery bill going down any recently? You probably haven't noticed. But current reports of the Department of Agriculture show that in spite of all the things being done to attract the consumer, Mrs. America is buying less food than she did three years ago—even though the income is higher.

Are you eating less than a couple of years ago? Or just tossing less in the garbage pail?

Some analysts who worked on this study think the return of other goods to the stores completed with the family food budget. Others doubt that the average man cuts down on the amount of food he eats to buy the household gadget, though he might shift to cheaper foods.

Even with food shortages, we put away more poundage of food during the war years than any previous year. Since then we have gradually been cutting down.

Mere quantity is not all that's changed over the years either. The department's figures reflect a long-time trend from a simple bread-meat-potato diet to the more varied table of today. Swift transportation and better storage facilities bring fresh fruits and vegetables to the nation's table the year round but the significant thing is that people's taste in food changed, too. The most notable fact however, is that there is less difference between the food likes and uses of the rich and poor.

Orange juice became a staple of the American breakfast chiefly at the expense of stewed fruit and apples. We eat about as much meat, far more eggs, oils, dried beans, peas and sugar than in the early 1900's. Put away only about 115 pounds of potatoes and 165 pounds of grain products compared with 204 and 291 in 1909. But all these heavy consumption foods have shown a decline in the past four or five years.

There are three chief reasons for the food changes: improved marketing conditions, fluctuation in the family income and public education of nutrition.

District Award For Art Work Is Won By Midland

MIDLAND, Oct. 18—Announcement of a district award won by the Modern Study club for work of the 1948-49 season has been received here by Mrs. F. R. Schenck, president. Mrs. Walter Scott Douglas of San Angelo, chairman of the Penny Art Fund of the Texas Federation of Women's clubs, announced the award.

The award was made to "the one club in the Eighth District having done the most to promote interest in art," and the club will receive an oil painting which will be presented during the annual TFWC convention in Austin November 16-18.

Such an award in each TFWC district every year is one of the purposes of the Penny Art Fund. Basis of the prize is a report of the club's activities in the field of art, made by answering a questionnaire. Mrs. Harrie A. Smith was art chairman in the Modern Study club and is serving again this year.

Programs on art and displays of art were included in the club course last season, and it also sponsored an antique and hobby show open to the public. Members presented one program on American art with display of a copy of a print or painting received in answer to roll call. A guest, Mrs. Robert L. Clarke, spoke on another date with the subject "What to Look for in a Picture," illustrating her talk with pictures from an exhibit of oils and pastels by members of the Palette club.

Another program included a talk on American pottery with a showing of ancient and modern pottery. The club also displayed at one meeting a group of serigraphs from a national collection brought to Midland by the American Association of University Women observance of American Art Week and contribution to the Penny Art Fund completed its art activities.

Teacher's Pet Is Taxpayer's Plague

TROUT RIVER, N. Y., Oct. 18. (U. P.)—Six year-old Carolyn White is the "teacher's pet," but to the 50 taxpayers of this Canadian border town she is a "little expensive." Carolyn, a first grader, is the only pupil in the town's one-room school and is costing taxpayers about $2,400 a year. That averages $48 per taxpayer. The school had 13 pupils last year. The others have transferred to schools in nearby towns or have moved away. The school's expenses are $2,000 for the teacher's salary and $400 for books, paper and wood for the stove. James Elliott, town trustee, figures that is a "little expensive" for one little girl. Carolyn likes being the teacher's "pet pupil." She says the only thing she misses is "someone to sit on the other end of the teacher-totter during recess."

Tragic Irony Found In Death Of Youth

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 18. (U. P.)—A bullet piercing Robert's head, coroner's autopsy report added tragic irony to a teen-ager's story to police that he fired a "mercy bullet" into the head of his 10-year-old brother who lay moaning in agony from an accidental shot suffered but a few minutes before. Dr. Frederick Newbarr, county autopsy surgeon, disclosed yesterday that the first shot destroyed half the brain of Robert James Elliott, 10, and that he would have died in a few moments. Richard Manning Elliott, 15, told police Sunday night that he could not bear to see his brother suffering so fired a second bullet into his head "to put him out of his misery." Dr. Newbarr's report said the second slug, in itself, could not have caused death. The boys, son of a physician, were home alone watching a western movie on television when the older boy told his brother that he wanted to show him "a gun like they used in the Old West." In showing the .33 caliber revolver, Richard told detectives that it went off accidentally with the

Only Empty Hole Is Found Where $20,000 Cached

LONG BEACH, Calif., Oct. 18. (U. P.)—Only an empty hole in a bakery floor was found by police searching for $20,000 a bedridden mother said her convict son hid there. A penciled letter from a Mrs. H. C. Bartlett of Kansas City, Kan., was addressed to Edward Towne, former owner of a bakery near the ocean here. On a crude map of the bakery kitchen, Mrs. Bartlett marked a spot where she said her son cached the money, stolen in a 1944 Los Angeles robbery.

deep. It contained only a few bits of metal, presumably parts of a can or pipe. Det. Capt. L. Q. Martin believes the money, if there was any, was decomposed in the dampness. Mrs. Bartlett referred to her son only as "Sonny" and said he was serving a life term for murder. She wrote that "we need the money now" and asked that $15,000 be sent her and "you keep $5,000." The bakery now is owned by William C. Rade. Mrs. Bartlett said her son worked there in 1944.

Noted Throat Specialists report on 30-day Test of Camel Smokers...
NOT ONE SINGLE CASE OF THROAT IRRITATION due to smoking CAMELS!

Yes, these were the findings of noted throat specialists after a total of 2,470 weekly examinations of the throats of hundreds of men and women who smoked Camels—and only Camels—for 30 consecutive days.

Meet MISS RITA TENNANT, Seattle secretary, who recently made the 30-Day Test of Camel MILDNESS under the observation of a noted throat specialist.

ALTHOUGH SHE'S SMOKED many brands, Rita changes to Camels for her 30-Day Test. Like the other smokers in the nationwide test, her throat is examined every week by a specialist.

ANI SATURDAY—OFFICE CLOSED! Off to the tennis courts for Rita! She calls time-out for a Camel and confides: "I am really delighted to be making the test. Every Camel tastes so good!"

30TH DAY...FINAL EXAMINATION! Her doctor reports NO SIGN OF THROAT IRRITATION due to smoking CAMELS! Rita remarks: "And smoking is really fun with Camels!"

IT'S FUN! Smoke Camels—and only Camels—for 30 days. Compare them in your "T-Zone" (T for taste, T for throat). Let your throat tell you about Camel's cool mildness. Let your taste tell you about Camel's wonderful flavor.

YES, MY DOCTOR'S REPORT JUST PROVED WHAT MY OWN THROAT TOLD ME ABOUT CAMELS. THEY'RE SO MILD! AND THEY TASTE SO GOOD!

NPA Says Any Future American Depression Won't Be Like 1929

By SIGRID ARNE (For James Marlow) WASHINGTON, Oct. 17—JUST HOW THICK is the crust of our comparative prosperity right now? Is there a depression right below the surface? The National Planning Association (NPA) says the crust is pretty thick compared to 1929 and that any depression need be no more than a temporary lull.

HERE ARE THE HIGH SPOTS: In 1929 private debt ($16.9 billion) was nearly twice that the nation was earning that year. National income then was $57.4 billion. Now private is $172.2 billion, only 83 per cent of the $225 billion we are earning this year.

Opponents hang to the time-tested arguments that a woman's place is in the home, that few court houses have facilities for women jurors, and that the so-called weaker sex should be protected from the sordidness of criminal trials.

PRICE GUARANTEE CUT SLATED

Consumers May Find Eggs Are 10 Cents Cheaper Next Year

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18. (AP)—Consumers may get their 1950 supply of eggs at prices averaging around 10 cents a dozen cheaper than this year. Such a price reduction would be possible if the Agriculture Department decides to carry out tentative plans to lower price guarantees to poultrymen. Top-quality eggs are selling for as much as 90 cents a dozen retail in some areas, officials said.

The department is required by law to support producer prices at 90 per cent of parity until Jan. 1. Parity is a price standard set by law designed to be equally fair to farmers and those who buy their products.

But the department may lower the support to 75 per cent of parity after the first of the year. Poultrymen have been producing about five per cent more eggs than consumers will buy at the 90 per cent support guarantee. The extra supply is being bought by the government in the form of dried eggs. The government has had little luck in attempts to dispose of the dried eggs abroad.

Officials figure that if the support price were dropped to 75 per cent of parity, consumers would buy more — perhaps all that farmers would produce. In such an event, the government would not have to go into the market to remove a part of the supply.

This belief that consumers would buy what now constitutes a surplus is based on studies which show, officials said, that the demand for eggs is elastic. That is, the lower the price, the more consumers as a whole will buy, and vice versa. A reduction in the price support also could be expected to have an adverse effect on production. There would be less incentive for some farmers — particularly those with high production costs — to stay in the business.

The government expects to take an eventual loss of perhaps $85 million on stocks of dried eggs acquired last year and this in carrying out support programs. Such a loss would reflect sale of the eggs abroad at prices below what the government paid.

'ENEMY' SUB SCORES

Carrier 'Sunk' In Miki Maneuvers

ABOARD USS ELDORADO, Oct. 18. (AP)—An "enemy" submarine torpedoed and sank the Aircraft Carrier Valley Forge today in a mock attack on the Miki maneuvers invasion force. Maneuver umpires determined that the underwater killer scored three hits on the big flattop about 650 miles west of San Diego, under the rules, however the sunk ship was put of action only an hour.

With the Carrier Boxer, the Valley Forge formed the air power spearhead for Rear Adm. R. J. Rodgers' task force on its way to recapture Hawaii from the mythical enemy. Warships are conveying the 2nd Army Infantry Division from Fort Lewis, Wash., for an amphibious assault on the white beaches of Oahu.

Earlier, the task force lost the destroyer, John A. Bole in its steady duel with harrassing aggressor submarines. The submarine Ronquill claimed the successful attack yesterday on the Bole, steaming alone for a rendezvous with the other fleet units.

Anti submarine planes reported destruction — by the war games rules — of the third enemy sub in three days. This time it was the Segundo, knocked out by a Martin torpedo bomber 80 miles ahead of this force.

Those attending were Mrs. Ed J. Carpenter, Mrs. Noble Read, Mrs. Mark Reeves, Mrs. H. H. Tanner, Mrs. B. R. Thompson, Mrs. Tom Barber, Mrs. Sam Armstrong, Mrs. I. H. Severance, Mrs. Morris Ledger, Mrs. W. W. Lay, Mrs. C. D. Read and Mrs. J. Paul Eppler.

Mrs. and Mrs. Faye Mosier and Gayla have returned from a visit with friends and relatives in Baird and Coleman. Mrs. Winston Bryant has returned from Abilene where she was a guest of her parents. Mrs. Barclay Graham and Patricia have recently moved to their new home, 1005 Wood.

VOTE SET TODAY

End To Long Bell Walkout In Sight

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Oct. 18. (AP)—An end to the four-month-old, violent Bell Aircraft strike appeared at hand today. Striking CIO United Auto Workers were scheduled to vote tonight on tentative settlement terms accepted by both company and union leaders. Union spokesman said they would urge members of the striking local to accept the agreement.

A state fact-finding board which entered the dispute a week ago, announced the tentative settlement yesterday. Terms of the agreement were not disclosed pending union action.

However, the board said all matters in dispute would be submitted to it for arbitration, and that the board's decision "shall be final." The local, which represents 1,700 production workers at the Bell plant near this city, walked out June 13 for a 10-cent hourly wage increase and company-paid pensions. The strike was marked by a series of picket line skirmishes which resulted in scores of arrests. Bell termed the union demands "unreasonable," claiming the first quarter of 1949 was the first period in which the company had shown a profit in four years.

Bell also said its wages, averaging $1.78 hourly, were among the highest in the aircraft industry. Another obstacle to settlement of this dispute was the status of about 20 unionists called "subversive" by the company. These men, Bell said, were responsible for the outbreaks of violence during the strike. Bell's first in its 15-year history. During the strike, so-called "flying squads" of unionists planted non-strikers going to the plant. Fist and club fights resulted.

Three weeks ago, the local organized a women's auxiliary which manned picket lines for three days. A cavalcade of buses and autos taking workers into the plant was stoned. Deputy sheriffs used tear gas and smoke bombs, some raining from helicopters overhead, to break up the brawl.

WILL CUT FEED HIGH

Martin To Protect Soil With Stubble

R. E. Martin, cooperator with the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District, plans to leave 200 acres of feed stubble this fall on his farm in the R-Bar soil conservation group as a protection against blowing. Martin said he would cut his feed at least 14 inches high to leave enough stalk to keep his soil from blowing and washing.

Other district cooperators who have stubble planted for cover crops are H. L. Patton, Alex Walker and Willis Winters. Patton, manager of the J. Y. Robb farm at Lomax, drilled 200 acres to rye. Patton also has matted clover water high on a 50 acre field. The clover was planted last spring for a soil building crop to add nitrogen and organic matter to the soil.

Walker planted 150 acres of rye for a cover crop on three farms, 70 acres on his two farms in the Morgan soil conservation group and 80 acres on his home place. Walker also completed a conservation plan on his 160-acre home place last week.

Reds Control All China Coastline

CHUNGKING, Oct. 18. (AP)—Communist amphibious troops completed Red control of the China coast line from Canton north today by seizing the old treaty port of Amoy. Chinese Communist newspapers in Hong Kong reported the Reds also had taken Swatow, another port about 115 miles south of Amoy.

In gloomy Chungking, the new Nationalist capital, Acting President Li Tsung-shan called desperately for political reforms to spark new life in the dying government. Li blamed past setbacks on failure to reform the government. He charged anew that the Reds, under Soviet direction and leadership, intended to turn China into a Russian vassal state.

Loss of Amoy, after a long siege, was equated by southwest military headquarters on Formosa. The island city—just three miles off the Red held mainland—is 636 miles south of Shanghai and 230 miles north of Hong Kong.

The military spokesman said the Nationalist garrison retreated to nearby Kingmen Island.

Long To Fight Legalization Of Pricing System

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18. (AP)—Sen. Long (D-La.) promised to talk at length today against a compromise bill to legalize the so-called basing point pricing system.

He wouldn't confirm reports that had prepared a six-hour blast at the measure, but acknowledged that he expected "to take quite a while" to talk about it.

Long said he didn't expect to finish his speech until after dark. And he added that he would oppose any proposal to get a vote before the Senate quits for the day.

Sen. O'Connor (D-Md.), a member of the Senate-House conference group that worked out the compromise, called on the Senate yesterday to approve the bill.

Freighter Sunk In Collision With Aircraft Carrier

BERWICK, Eng., Oct. 18. (AP)—The British Aircraft Carrier Albion, and a small coal freighter collided in a gale in the North Sea today. The freighter sank swiftly and eight hours later only three of the 24 crewmen aboard were known to have survived.

Lifeboats fought the foaming waves hunting survivors near the Farns Islands off the northeast coast of England.

The newly built 18,300-ton Albion was manned by a civilian crew and was in low to drydock for completion. The collision rammed a hole in the carrier and she was reported taking water.

The Albion had aboard three survivors from the freighter, the 2,025-ton Maystone, carrying coal to London. A spokesman for the owners of the Maystone said lifeboat crews still at sea had some hopes of picking up other survivors.

The collision occurred eight miles off England's northeast coast, near Berwick. Lifeboats from the Berwick Coast Guard station put out into rain and wind-tossed waves to hunt for survivors.

The Albion, being towed by a tug, was on her way from a shipyard at Jarrow to a drydock at Rosyth, Scotland, for construction work before being turned over to the Royal Navy.

Little Boy's Tip Ends Manhunt For Hawkins

DALHART, Oct. 18. (AP)—A little boy ended the big manhunt for Lenard "Lucky" Hawkins, wanted for murder.

"There's a man out there who wants some matches," 10-year-old John William Smith told his mother. "I think he's the man they're looking for."

Eight officers flushed the one-time bush league baseball player from his hiding place in a clump of trees near Middle Water, 20 miles southwest of here, at 4:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Hawkins, 34, is charged with murder in the shooting of Alfred Clark, 23, of Boise City, Okla. Clark's body was found last Wednesday near Jerseyville, Ill.

The no-resistance surrender of Hawkins ended one of the biggest manhunts in the history of the Panhandle.

Mrs. W. S. Smith called police. Her son had been asked by Hawkins to bring him some matches. The boy told his mother that he thought "the man was the one they're looking for" and then took the matches back to Hawkins.

The clump of trees was about 30 yards from the Smith home.

Officers found a .32 caliber automatic pistol in the waistband of Hawkins' trousers, but he offered no resistance.

Texas Ranger Captain Bob Crowder said Hawkins told officers the shooting of Clark was an accident. Crowder questioned Hawkins when he was brought here after his arrest.

Dalhart had been closely watched since Saturday, when Hawkins was seen here. It was believed he was hiding somewhere in the town.

Clark had left his job in Clayton, N. M., with a man who offered to split a set of world series tickets with him, if Clark would use his car for the trip to St. Louis. They believed the series would be played there.

The first concern for Clark came on Oct. 7, when a Dainart car reported she had been kidnaped in Clark's car.

After Clark's body was found, the hunt for Hawkins started.

Jess Fells, game warden, said Hawkins said he would go back to Illinois to "explain Clark's death the best he could."

Fells, one of the officers in on the capture, said Hawkins told him he had been hiding in a maize field at the northeast edge of Dalhart since Saturday Sunday night.

Hawkins told Fells, he made his way through deep, rugged gullies to Middle Water.

Hawkins made one dramatic, violent appearance here Saturday morning.

He came in a Dalhart restaurant where Juanita Groves, 19, was eating breakfast. He was carrying a pistol.

The girl who had tipped officers that Hawkins was in the Texas Panhandle screamed and fled to the rear of the cafe. Hawkins chased her, but Cook Jack Woodruff tangled with him in the kitchen. Hawkins slugged the cook on the head with his pistol and got away. The girl escaped.

Mrs. Groves said she had known Hawkins in New Mexico and Montana and that she had been kidnaped in a car containing papers which identified it as Clark's.

Big Spring Pupils Face Report Cards For First 6 Weeks

Report cards are due to be distributed Wednesday to pupils in the Big Spring school system.

The cards will cover the first six-weeks work, completed last Friday. Most of the last week examinations were given in high elementary school levels.

Meantime, school administrators are directing school back into regular routine following disruptions of the Centennial week. They also are completing six-week checks on attendance and enrollment.

W. C. Blankenship said that contacts were being made with the officer and visiting teacher as a combined post. Under state law funds are allowed the various districts on the basis of actual average classroom attendance.

Aside from the absentees necessitated by harvest work on the part of some scholastics, there are some absences which are pulling down the daily average. Because the state law does not compensate for any sort of absence, administrators appealed to parents to cooperate in the greatest, safe attendance.

Really 'Painless' Dentistry Slated

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18. (AP)—You soon may have "painless" dentistry that really doesn't hurt—tooth drilling without drills.

The millennium for tender-toothed dental patients may be reached within a year the American Dental Assn. convention learned here yesterday.

The new method involves a machine invented by Dr. R. B. Black, Corpus Christi, and perfected by the S. S. White Dental Manufacturing Co. of Philadelphia.

Instead of drilling, it uses a blast of carbon dioxide gas, shot at 75 pounds a square inch pressure through a nozzle only 18 thousandths of an inch in diameter. A finely ground abrasive, aluminum oxide is carried against the tooth to be drilled by the high pressure gas and does the cutting finely and precisely. The benefits are lack of vibration, heat or bone-conducted sound, all of which combine to produce the "hurt" in tooth drilling.

Two Fined $200 On Driving Charges
