

Weekly News Review

House Un-Americanism Body Probes Hollywood Communism

By Joseph W. LaBine

A. F. OF L.'S JOHN FREY, INVESTIGATOR DIES They were obliged to discuss John Lewis.

Domestic

Last year Chicago Times Reporter John Metcalfe joined Fritz Kuhn's German-American Bund, traveled 20,000 miles attending Bund meetings, then resigned to write a startling expose for his paper. Direct result was a $25,000 house committee on un-American activities, which met last week under Texas' Martin Dies.

Ex-Bundsmen Metcalfe told how Fritz Kuhn organized 500,000 German-Americans under instructions from Adolf Hitler, how in return Kuhn was given a whip hand over Germany's ambassador to the U. S. He told of Chicago's "Silver Shirts," organized to smash Communism.

Ex-Bundsmen Peter Gissibl told how Nazi spies consorted with German-Americans, how the Red Star line "fixed it" so spies could slip back home when they got in trouble. But it was American Federation of Labor's John P. Frey who tossed in the biggest bombshell and caused C. I. O.'s John L. Lewis to snort with rage.

Nazism is one thing, but Metal Tradesman Frey promised to identify "several national C. I. O. officers" as Communists. Would he mention John Lewis? "How could I avoid it!" replied Mr. Frey.

The Frey disclosures had barely started before Committee Investigator Edward Sullivan hurried into Washington from California, anxious to reveal how C. I. O.'s Harry Bridges, America's most famous alien, "attended 'top fraction' meetings of the Communist party and received aid from officials of the U. S. labor department while patriotic citizens were trying to have him deported for his Communist activities."

Continued Investigator Sullivan: "Witnesses can be produced who can name the day when an official of the immigration service contacted Harry Bridges and called him to his office, where he read... a confidential letter of instructions on his future behavior, written by an outstanding official of the labor department."

That Communist Bridges is financed by Hollywood cinema stars was Mr. Sullivan's next charge. Armed with this evidence, supported by Unionist Frey whose accusations John Lewis seemed unwilling to answer, the Dies committee prepared to remain in Washington two more weeks. In New York they will pick up more tasty rumors, then move west across the nation to smell out Communism in a Hollywood.

Foreign

Many years ago Germany's great Bismarck fooled his opponents by telling the truth, knowing they would not believe. Last week, when Adolf Hitler called 500,000 reserves to the colors for war games with a million regular soldiers, all Europe became jittery. But in Berlin there was scoffing; if Germany planned anything but peaceful moves, she would have assembled her giant war machine secretly. Remembering Bismarck, answering too that secret mobilization on such a giant scale would be impossible, Berlin's nervous diplomatic corps sped the news back home to Paris, London and Prague. There, these things happened:

(1) In Prague, England's Lord Runciman has spent a fortnight mediating differences between loyal Czechs and their disgruntled fellow-countrymen, Sudeten Germans. Sudetens want autonomy, eventual annexation by Germany. Was it possible that Germany's mobilization foreshadowed a quick annexation move? As Premier Milan Hodza rejected a Sudeten demand for autonomy, all Czechoslovakia became worried and Lord Runciman wished he were back home.

(2) In Paris, where the government has also been having trouble with Munich, French frontiers along Germany and Italy were virtually locked. Next, Interior Minister Albert Sarraut re-enforced his counter-spying service against Germany.

(3) In London, Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain forgot his catarrh and returned from Scotland. Since Germany recently closed its fortified zones to all military men, Britain's war office warned its officers to get special certificates to avoid "trouble" during travels in Germany.

Chief dynamite in Germany's maneuvers lay in the possibility of an incident that would topple Europe's delicately balanced peace structure.

When Japan and Russia signed a truce in their month-old undeclared war on the Manchukuan-Siberian border, only the most optimistic observer could predict lasting peace. As a redemarcation commission prepared last week to settle the boundary dispute, two incidents threatened once more to send Russia's bear charging up bullet-pocked Changkufeng hill. On isolated Saghalien island, half Russian, half Jap, Soviet guards fired on a touring member of the Japanese parliament. Next day Tokyo's troops took advantage of the truce, advanced 100 meters up Changkufeng hill while Russian guns bristled. Since wisdom was the better part of valor, the Japs immediately retreated.

Politics

Dearer than anything else to Franklin Roosevelt is his legislative program, blocked last session not by a Republican minority but by anti-New Deal Democrats. No silent sufferer, Mr. Roosevelt decided long ago that congress needed new blood to replace opponents of his reorganization bill, wage-hour bill and lesser measures. This year's primaries offered an opportunity.

By last week his "purge" program was not a success. But neither had New Dealism suffered many losses in elections thus far. Bound to break the impasse, Mr. Roosevelt decided to stake his political future on his tremendous personal popularity in the South. Fortnight ago at Barnesville, Ga., he bluntly read out of the party Sen. Walter F. George, who sat scowling in the audience (see picture). Last week 69-year-old Senator George took up the "challenge" and set out to beat New Dealer Lawrence Camp in Georgia's primary, September 14.

GEORGIA'S GEORGE He had reason to scowl.

Stalking next into South Carolina, the President intimated that Senator Ellison D. ("Cotton Ed") Smith would be unwelcome at Washington next winter, intimated also that South Carolinians should send in his place Gov. Olin D. Johnson.

Back in Washington, news of the South's "purge" gave political commentators enough hard tack to chew on until election day. What Franklin Roosevelt wanted was complete domination of congress, insuring passage of his legislative program. Thus would he be able to dictate his 1940 successor, dispelling the third term buzzaboo.

People

Last month Anne Lindsay Clark married Son John Roosevelt, who a fortnight ago took an $18-a-week job in the Boston department store of late Democrat Edward Filene. Last week Anne Roosevelt's sister, Sally, who has sung her way to nominal fame in a night club, said she would marry George Xavier McLanahan of New York.

Wed only two weeks to his telephone operator sweetheart from Gore Bay, Ont., 21-year-old Auto Heir Daniel C. Dodge was honeymooning on Manitoulin island off Lake Huron's Georgian bay. One afternoon as he rummaged around the garage with his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bryant, a stick of dynamite exploded. Completely shattered was Dodge's left arm, his face torn, his eyes blinded. Rushed off by boat to a distant hospital by his badly injured friends, Dodge suffered excruciating agony. Finally he stood up, swayed, jumped into the water, drowned. Next day Bryant was not expected to live.

Crime

One morning last fall, 18-year-old Paul Dwyer of South Paris, Me., was arrested in North Arlington, N. J. Stuffed in the trunk of his automobile was the corpse of James G. Littlefield, elderly country doctor. Stuffed in the back seat was that of Dr. Littlefield's wife. Paul Dwyer went to prison under life sentence for double murder. Then he changed his story. Said Dwyer:

Francis Carroll, a former deputy sheriff, had improper relations with his daughter, Barbara, Dwyer's sweetheart. When Dr. Littlefield learned of this, Carroll killed him. Later he killed the doctor's wife. Fear of Carroll caused Dwyer to admit both murders.

Last week these horrible accusations were settled. Francis Carroll was convicted, sent to prison for life. It appeared likely that sallow-faced Paul Dwyer would be pardoned, though he might still be charged with guilty knowledge of the slayings. Meanwhile Barbara Carroll received offers to appear in a Boston night club.

Aviation

Transatlantic commercial air supremacy has long since been willed by public consent to U. S. and Great Britain, though until last year neither nation did anything to justify the public's approval. A few weeks ago Nazi Germany sent its Nordwind, Nordstern and Nordmeer catapulting from the Azores to New York and back, placing a new nation in the race for Atlantic air supremacy. Last week Adolf Hitler's birdmen did something still better.

Non-stop from Berlin to New York in 24 hours, 56 minutes, came the 26-passenger Brandenburg. Two days later Brandenburg was again in Berlin, making her return trip in the record time of 19 hours, 55 minutes. No longer a secret is Hitler's ambition to make not London, not Paris, but Berlin the European starting point for transatlantic flights.

Down from the clouds east of Mexico City plummeted an airliner. First a crash, then flames, and 11 were dead. Down from fog-bound skies into Germany's Black forest came a Czechoslovak liner bound from Prague to Paris. Sixteen died. Down to their deaths off England's coast went six crew members of a royal air force flying boat, bringing to 126 the total fatalities in that service this year. Thus, in 12 hours, in Mexico, England and Germany, 33 lives were snuffed out.

Sports

When Broker J. Smith Ferebee played 144 holes of golf in Chicago last fortnight, it looked like a new marathon fad would start, rivaling marathon dancing, surpassing the toughest flagpole sitter. Last week at St. John, Ind., 23-year-old Charles Grant started playing golf at dawn. By 3 p. m. he had covered 162 holes, by sundown, 225. His worst 18-hole round: the tenth, scoring 81.

Miscellany

From San Francisco's Golden Gate exposition grounds last week came orders that publicity on the 1939 fair must show more fair buildings, fewer fair maidens. Result was a new bit of publicity, something fair officials had not expected. Up and down in front of the administration building paraded "the most beautiful picket line in America." Their placards: "We're out on a limb." "We want a leg-acy."

Last fortnight Britain's proud Queen Mary made a westward Atlantic passage in 3 days, 21 hours, 48 minutes, clipping better than an hour from the record of her rival, France's Normandie. Last week Queen Mary steamed east from New York, made the crossing in 3 days, 20 hours, 42 minutes, to beat another Normandie record. Said a proud officer: "This is the lion's turn to roar."

Last June 1 a big malamute dog went hunting with his master off Alaska's frozen Bering strait. Lingered off shore to gobble seal meat, the beast was carried to sea on an ice floe. Last week, more than two months later, the master again went hunting, this time with Father Bernard R. Hubbard, Alaskan missionary. On lonely Point Hope, 250 miles away, the dog bounded up. He had cruised the entire distance on a cake of ice, had thrived on seal meat.

Floyd Gibbons' ADVENTURERS' CLUB

HEADLINES FROM THE LIVES OF PEOPLE LIKE YOURSELF!

"The Furred Terror"

By FLOYD GIBBONS Famous Headline Hunter

HELLO EVERYBODY:

Orville E. Gibbs of Jackson Heights, N. Y., is today's Distinguished Adventurer, and the tale he tells is one that will make the hair creep up the back of your neck. It's a yarn that reminds me of the gladiatorial arenas of Rome where they used to throw Christians to the wolves and pit men in deadly combat against Numidian lions and bears from the German forests.

But it was neither a lion nor a wolf, nor a bear that brought this package of thrills to Orville Gibbs, and instead of a Roman arena, he fought it out in the living room of his own house.

I don't know how it was in Roman times, but nowadays adventures, like Charity, almost always begin at home.

All his life, Orville Gibbs has been thrown into intimate contact with wild animals. He ran away as a boy to join a circus, started as a water carrier for the elephants and worked his way up until he was a full-fledged trainer handling all sorts and species of wild beasts. From the circus he drifted to Hollywood and helped direct animal films. While he was there he was given several monkeys which he kept in cages in back of his house. He trained these monkeys, and they're still there, taken care of by his father. None of them ever gave any trouble.

Jack Was a Bright Monkey.

But there's always an exception. Orville moved East, then went to South America, bought another bunch of monkeys and shipped them to his home in New Rochelle, N. Y. He and his wife started to train the whole bunch, but one of them—Jack—was brighter than the others. Orville concentrated on him. He would bring him into the house and have all sorts of fun with him. But Orville's wife kept away from that monk. He hid bitten at her arm several times.

One evening Orville brought Jack into the house. He had him on his lap, playing with him in the usual manner when suddenly, without warning, Jack emitted a ferocious screech and leaped for Orville's throat. And that was the beginning of as horrible a battle as any Roman arena ever saw.

"As he came for me," says Orville, "I threw my right arm to ward him off. Jack's teeth snapped shut, and he broke practically every bone in my hand. The hand started bleeding as if an artery had been severed. I was so stunned that I could do little but shove him away, and at that he made another screech and leaped again.

He crunched Orville's left wrist.

It Looked Bad for Orville.

"I threw up my left arm. He crunched it at the wrist, piercing the skin and breaking several bones. Then I leaped to my feet, just as he jumped at me again. I was dressed in riding clothes, and the heavy boots stood me in good stead. I kicked at him savagely and it stopped him for a moment, but he bit clear through the boots several times."

That was just the start of a terrible fracas—and a mighty bad start for Orville. "There I was," he says, "cornered by a wild monkey, weighing thirty-two pounds—screeching horribly—and leaping from chair to chair to table trying to get at me. Whenever he thought he had me he leaped at my throat, and here I was, my hands useless, bleeding like a stuck pig, and growing weaker every minute."

Orville's wife had run from the room. He shouted to her to pass him his rifle and cautiously she broke a pane from one of the French doors and pushed the weapon through. "To my horror," says Orville, "I could not even pull the trigger. I passed the gun back through the broken pane to my wife telling her to cock it—all this time dodging several savage rushes and leaps. Finally the gun came through, cocked. I don't know to this day how I ever succeeded in aiming it and pulling the trigger, but if I had placed the gun to his head and fired I couldn't have made a more perfect shot—right between his eyes!"

He Shot the Maddened Beast.

Blood began to pour from the gaping hole in the monkey's head. But still, to Orville's horror, THE BEAST CAME ON AGAIN AND AGAIN! Frozen with terror he passed the gun out again for his wife to cock. And again Orville doesn't know how he ever managed to fire it. This time the bullet caught the animal right through the eye and down he went.

"And," says Orville, "down I went, too!"

"Orville's wife called the hospital. The ambulance came, and the orderlies found him lying on the floor covered with blood. Orville's own doctor rushed to the hospital. "And," says Orville, "he didn't have his glasses with him. While I lay groaning and bleeding, they sent back for the glasses. They gave me morphine and more morphine. By the time the glasses did come the doc told me that I was so well doped up that I might as well go on the operating table without an anesthetic."

Orville told him to go ahead. It took them exactly one hour and a half and forty-eight stitches to sew up the holes that animal had made. After that came Pasteur injections. His hands were reopened and the bones reset. "And now," he says, "I'm back to work with a stiff right thumb and a pair of hands and wrists that will be weak for some time to come."

And nowadays, Orville has a motto. No more monkeys! Copyright—WNU Service.

Dental Cabinet Modernized

A dental cabinet with photoelectric control of the drawer compartments has recently been designed which permits the dentist to open the drawers without actually touching the cabinet. The drawers can be operated individually by passing a finger over beams of light directed at a photo-electric cell. Its use eliminates the possibility of transferring disease from the mouth of one patient to another through the handling of cabinet drawers.—Electronics.

Ancient Dwarfs

A runted and twisted tree patriarch, said to be more than 400 years old, is one of the sights in the famous tree nursery of Kintaro Kibe in Tokyo in which hundreds of strange dwarf trees are exhibited.

Isle of Man, Small Island

The Isle of Man is a small island in the Irish sea nearly the same distance from England, Scotland and Ireland. It has an area of 27 square miles and a population of 50,000.

Rats Conquer at Airfield

Officials were astonished when at an airfield near Karachi they saw seven stationary planes sink in the earth. Investigation disclosed that thousands of rats had tunneled under the ground. Poison was spread to kill the rodents, but with little effect. Gassing, firing, trapping and all other modern devices were employed against them, but without success. At last, says the London Daily Express, the authorities, exasperated, gave in. Now the rats are in full charge of the airfield.

How Barnum Advertised Circus

When P. T. Barnum's circus was in winter headquarters at Bridgeport, Conn., he had a man plow a field by elephant power as a means of advertising the circus to passengers on a railroad nearby.

California Once Tropical

Evidence that California was in a tropical climate millions of years ago was unearthed when a petrified palm tree was discovered at Lodi, Calif. The specimen weighs 190 pounds.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D., Dean of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. © Western News-press Union.

Lesson for August 28

ELI: RESPONSIBILITY FOR OTHERS

LESSON TEXT—1 Samuel 3:11-14; 4:1-15. GOLDEN TEXT—Train up a child in the way he should go. Proverbs 22:6a. PRIMARY TEXT—When God Spoke to a Boy. JUNIOR TEXT—When God Spoke to a Junior. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Should We Do as We Please? YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Challenge of Christian Fatherhood.

The responsibilities and privileges of fatherhood need special emphasis, and the lesson of today gives excellent opportunity for such consideration. Too often the rearing of children, which is almost inevitably largely in the hands of the mother, is entirely delegated to her, and the father becomes the man who pays the bills, occasionally carries out a severe act of discipline, but otherwise is almost a stranger to his children.

Girls as well as boys appreciate and respond to the loving and understanding fellowship of a father who really improves the opportunity to build himself into the lives of his children.

Eli is a striking illustration of a man who had attained an honorable position in life and who had discharged his public duties with success, but who failed his own boys, because of weak indulgence. Not a few Christian workers have followed in Eli's path.

I. A Weak Father and Vile Sons (3:13).

The sons of Eli were wicked men who dared even to use the service of the temple for the gratification of fleshly appetites and lusts. (See 2:12-17, 22.) Eli protested against their most flagrant sin (2:23, 24), but evidently he had lost his influence over them, for they did not hearken.

It is not always true that the wickedness of a son is the result of weakness in the father, nor is it always the case that weak fathers have vile sons. Often the sons live far better lives than their fathers, and frequently a godly and faithful father suffers the heartbreak of having a wayward son. But usually "like father, like son" is true. Boys learn from their fathers—not so much by words of admonition, as by deeds. Let us tell our boys how to live by first living a consistent Christian life, and then lovingly but insistently requiring of them during their days of irresponsibility conformity to the standards of God. We need to build moral fiber into American youth of our country if it is not to fall into the decadence of the civilizations of the past.

II. Judgment—Personal and National (3:12, 14; 4:7).

Sin brings a horrible harvest of sorrow, suffering and judgment, not only to the individual but to his family, and ultimately to the nation. No man can ever divorce himself from his relationship to his family. His people will suffer for his waywardness, perhaps more than he suffers himself. The nation is made up of homes, and consequently when the family suffers the nation will suffer too.

There is a strange theory current that social and political entities have an existence apart from the people who make them up, that our people can drink and gamble and steal and kill, and yet somehow we will still be the "land of the free and the home of the brave." America is what the families in your community and mine are, and our families are what we are. May God help us to be better fathers, mothers, brothers, and sisters.

III. Responsibility and Opportunity.

This division of our lesson is drawn from no special portion of the Scripture lesson, but is presented to place squarely before us the fact that we (and we are speaking specifically to fathers) have a plain and inescapable responsibility for our family life, as well as to emphasize the fact that this is not a responsibility of which we should be afraid. It is God's gift of glorious opportunity.

Eli was a personal success as a priest. He had many commendable qualities, not the least of which was his gracious recognition of the ministry of Samuel, who had grown up in his presence and yet who was recognized by Eli as the messenger of God. (Compare Mark 6:1 and I Tim. 4:12.) But he missed life's greatest opportunity by neglecting his own boys. Sad to say, many a father has followed him, yes, even we are sorely tempted to make our business (and it may be the "business" of the Lord) the thing of primary concern, and let our children fit in where they may, or not at all.

Let us look on the brighter side in closing our study and recall the inspiring contribution that has been made to our national life, to our spiritual life and our social advancement by those who have come out of the most humble worldly beginnings, but with the rugged characters—physically, morally, and spiritually stalwart—which have been nurtured in a true Christian home. It pays, not only for the person, but for the family, but also for the nation, to have Christian fathers.

Let the Critters Do the Work

By T. C. Richardson, Secretary
Breeder-Feeder Association

At this season crops are maturing and harvesting is ahead. A great deal of labor may be saved by turning livestock in the fields and allowing them to feed themselves. Under proper handling there is little waste of grain, and animals get the benefit of green forage that would not be saved otherwise, and which adds to the value of the grain by helping to balance the ration. If fields are not already fenced, a temporary fence of 32-inch woven wire will confine sheep and hogs, and with a few stanch posts at wide intervals, small stakes driven into the ground will support it. It can be readily rolled up and moved several times, and when it becomes too badly bent to stand up in a temporary fence, it is still good for permanent use where solid corner posts permit tight stretching.

Hogs are well known to be the best gleaners of grain, with sheep next. If crops are harvested by cattle it is always advisable to follow with hogs. The cheapest pork, both in labor cost and the amount of grain required to make 100 pounds of meat, is produced by a combination of green pasture, hogging down feed crops, and the self-feeder. Carl P. Thompson, extension swine specialist of Oklahoma, voices the experience of the best hog men when he says that it is doubtful if a farmer can afford to raise hogs unless they can run on pasture a good part of the year.

Besides the labor saving element, it is good for the health of both hogs and sheep to get off the permanent pastures and on the cultivated fields, where internal parasites are less prevalent. It is best to confine the animals to a space that can be cleaned up in ten days to three weeks, rather than permit them to roam at large for a month or more. In the final stages of grazing, grains will be slowed up by their walking over large fields in search of food, and there will be more wastage in the long run. It goes without saying that shade and water must be easily and continuously accessible to the animals while hogging down crops. Experiments have shown that a bushel of grain goes a great deal farther in meat production if the animal can drink when thirsty instead of waiting for periodic waterings several hours apart.

Mineral mixtures and protein supplements are usually not indispensable if hogs have access to good pastures and legume, or skim milk, but experienced hog men say protein supplements always pay. Corn and cowpeas, corn and soy beans, corn and peanuts, make good fattening rations when hogged down together. With corn alone it is advisable to supply a mineral mixture and a protein supplement in self-feeders. Either wood ashes or air-slaked lime and salt in equal parts is good, and bone-meal may be profitably added under some conditions. Charcoal is commonly used and hogs like it.

The protein supplement may be based on cottonseed meal, linseed meal, peanut meal or tankage. The experiment stations of the Southwest have worked out formulas for protein supplements for their respective states, according to the availability and adaptation of the materials. Cottonseed meal is available everywhere in the Southwest, and may be safely and profitably fed to hogs by following directions furnished by extension hog specialists and county agents who keep up with experimental results.

Enough feed goes to waste on most Southwestern farms to produce all the pork and beef or mutton the family could use. Pasturing the fields is the only way much of this waste can be turned to profit, and the most economical way of harvesting and selling crops that are adapted to harvesting by animals. Let the critters do the work.

News from Pakan

Mr. and Mrs. John Cadra and son, John, of Chicago, Ill., arrived Wednesday to spend a few days with friends and relatives. They left for their home Monday afternoon.

John, Milam, Dorothy and Anna Mertel, and Sam Pakan were Amarillo visitors Monday.

The young people of this community enjoyed a roller skating party in Shamrock Wednesday night.

Dusan Pakan and John Hrncliar, Jr., have returned from a few days' vacation in Colorado and New Mexico. John Hrncliar, Sr., and daughter, Dorothy; Mrs. Miro Pakan and Paul Macina went to Amarillo Tuesday of last week to see the Will Rogers pageant.

The Rev. and Mrs. Adam Valencik left for Lakewood, Ohio, Monday morning after several weeks' visit in the John Valencik and other homes in this community.

The Slovaks gathered Sunday night for an ice cream social. Songs were sung, horseshoes were played, and groups talked. Then ice cream and cookies were served. Everyone enjoyed the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stauffer and daughters, Grace and May Ruth; Mrs. Hazel Stauffer and daughter, Ruth Marie, were Amarillo visitors Tuesday.

Little Miss Wyanette Caldwell of Liberal, Kan., is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Holloway.

Mr. and Mrs. Vester Smith were in Amarillo Wednesday of last week.

LYNCH SECOND-HAND STORE AND PIPE YARD
Phone 9502, East of Post Office
Lefors, Texas

Water well casing and pumping equipment, oil field supplies, pipe straightening, bending, shopping, general welding. Cash paid for all used goods, for lumber, for pipe, pipe fittings, heavy machine and shop equipment, sheet and scrap iron, metals, etc., etc.

CONCRETE BUILDING BLOCKS
for Sale or Trade

Rubble design (rough hand hewn hard rock effect) ideal for residences, basements, business buildings, retaining walls, foundations, terracing, curbing, rock fences etc., etc. Dimensions 8"x8"x16", 15c each. F. H. A. Loans, Sept. 8

LEADERSHIP

The leader for the time being, whoever he may be, is but an instrument, to be used until broken and then to be cast aside; and if he is worth his salt he will care no more when he is broken than a soldier cares when he is sent where his life is forfeited in order that the victory may be won. In the long fight for righteousness, the watchword for all of us, is spend and be spent. It is a little matter whether any one man fails or succeeds; but the cause shall not fail, for it is the cause of mankind. We, here in America, hold in our hands the hope of the world, the fate of the coming years; and shame and disgrace will be ours if in our eyes the light of high resolve is dimmed, if we trail in the dust the golden hopes of men. If on this new continent we merely build another country of great but unjustly divided material prosperity, we shall have done nothing; and we shall do as little if we merely set the greed of envy against the greed of arrogance, and thereby destroy the material well-being of all of us.—Theodore Roosevelt.

Noel Clifton has returned from a visit to Dawson, N. M.

DR. CLIFTON HIGH

announces the opening of his office at 301 Combs-Worley Bldg.
Pampa - - - Texas

Practice limited to Eye, Ear Nose and Throat

HAPPY EYES

Everything to gain and nothing to lose, when you make vision clear and comfortable with special ground lenses.

Finest Equipment

used for analyzing your eye trouble. Best material used in your glasses. Considering time and efficiency, the best cost less. You can travel far, and to big towns, but cannot get better optical service than you get in a conveniently located office in Shamrock, with a personal interest in your welfare. No long waiting to get in the office—
NO RUSHING THE PATIENT THROUGH an examination.

It will only take a minute or two to tell if you can pass visual test for DRIVER'S LICENSE.

Dr. V. R. Jones

OPTOMETRIST
214 N. Main Street
SHAMROCK, TEXAS

PRUDENT

Wife—I want some money.
Tight-fisted Hubby—Say, what did you do with that last dollar I gave you?

Wife—I spent 37c in 1936, 40c in 1937, and 23c this year.

Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Shaw, Jr., and children of Grady, N. M., are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Shaw, and other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bidwell of Amarillo visited their parents and grandparents, Mrs. J. L. Bidwell, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dougherty, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Brawley and baby of Stillwater, Okla., visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Browley, last week end.

Mrs. C. E. Anderson has returned from a visit with relatives at Rising Star.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Stone of Amarillo visited their daughter, Mrs. C. A. Cryer, over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Johnson visited at Hereford Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Clifton of Alanreed were in McLean Friday.

Cool off!

Come in out of the heat and cool off at our soda fountain.

COLD DRINKS, ICE CREAM SODAS SUNDAES, ETC.

You are always welcome.

ERWIN DRUG CO.

VOTE FOR

W. E. James

for

COUNTY TREASURER

Second Democratic Primary

HONEST - - EFFICIENT DEPENDABLE

Your vote and influence Saturday in my behalf will be sincerely appreciated.

Elect the Leader--

The candidate who led the District by OVER 700 VOTES in the July Primary.

The lawyer who has actively practiced law more than twice as long as his opponent.

CLIFFORD BRALY
DISTRICT ATTORNEY
31ST JUDICIAL DISTRICT

Your Assurance of Law Enforcement

DEATH LEVELS ALL

In the democracy of the dead all men are at last equal. There is neither rank nor station nor prerogative in the republic of the grave. At this fatal threshold the philosopher ceases to be wise, and the song of the poet is silent. Dives relinquishes his million and Lazarus his rags. The poor man is as rich as the richest, and the rich man is as poor as the poorest. The creditor loses his money, and the debtor is acquitted of his obligation. There the proud man surrenders; the invalid needs no physician, and the laborer rests from unrequited toil.

Here at last is Nature's final decree in equity. The wrongs of time are redressed. Injustice is expiated, the irony of Fate is refuted; the unequal distribution of wealth, honor, beauty, pleasure, and opportunity, which makes life such a cruel and applicable tragedy, ceases in the calm of death. The strongest there is no supremacy, and the weakest needs no defense. The mightiest gain succumbs to that invincible adversary, who disarms alike the victor and the vanquished.—John J. Galle.

Mrs. Harve Smith and brother, Leslie Bogard, of Clarendon visited their sister, Mrs. J. B. Pettit, and Pettit over the week end.

Say it with printing—flowers die.

VOTE FOR

Art Hurst
FOR SHERIFF

Art Hurst Will

1. Enforce every law as it is written, without exception.
2. Make Gray county a cleaner and better place in which to live.
3. Owe no political obligations to any person, firm or organization.
4. Have no favorites.
5. Treat every citizen having business with the sheriff's office with fairness and courtesy.
6. Make Gray county a reliable, steady and level-headed officer.

VOTE FOR

Art Hurst

SATURDAY, AUGUST 27

Travel TEXAS

Up to the mountains, off to the lake, into the woods, down to the seashore, or south to the border what a wonderful range of choice the Texas has when vacation-time comes! And such a joy it is to watch the highway network spread. So many new roads are available for the purpose. New and better roads are being opened up for your pleasure, your safety and your delight.

presented by TEXAS GOOD ROADS ASSOCIATION

Fun for the Whole Family

BIG TOP

By ED WHEELAN

LALA PALOOZA Babette Juggles the Figure

By RUBE GOLDBERG

S'MATTER POP—Who's Who on the Parlor Frontier

By C. M. PAYNE

MESCAL IKE

By S. L. HUNTLEY

Off to a Bad Start

POP—Something With a Bite in It

By J. MILLAR WATT

THE KEY OF THE CAR

By GLUYAS WILLIAMS

RIGHT THROUGH

"Here's something queer," said the dentist, who had been drilling into a tooth. "You said the tooth had never been filled, but I find flakes of gold on the point of my drill. "I knew it," moaned the patient. "You have struck my back collar stud."

Explained

Waiter—Your coffee, sir—special from Australia, sir.
Diner (sarcastically)—O, so that's where you've been!

Not His Fault
"What a wonderful linguist that man is. Is there any tongue he hasn't mastered?"
"Yes. His wife's."

SAFE

They were entertaining the vicar at lunch, and the guest remarked to the small son of the house "Don't you ever say prayers before your meals, child?"
"Oh, no," said the youngster. "Dad says our cook's pretty reliable."—Royal Arcanum Bulletin.

Smart Dresses for Now and Later On

HERE are two perfectly charming fashions that will fill a definite place in your life if you make them up immediately in pretty cotton or cool silk. And they are so perfectly in key with future fashions that you should by all means repeat them later in fall and winter materials. You'll be surprised, when you study the detailed sew chart included in each pattern, how quickly and easily you can finish them. You don't need experience. Even beginners enjoy working with these simple patterns.

Tailored Dress of Pique.

If your daytime wardrobe needs replenishing for the remaining weeks of summer, make this nice tailored dress of pique or gingham, and see how refreshed and comfortable you'll feel. Later on, wear it for fall in challis, jersey, or flat crepe. The short sleeves, easy waistline and action pleats in the skirt make this dress very easy to work in—and the deeply notched collar and patch pockets give it finish enough so that it is appropriate for street wear, too.

Tiny-Waisted Afternoon Dress.

Here's the type of dress that all important fashion sources show for fall! The shaped, rather high square neckline, the short sleeves, puffed at the top, the gathers that give you flattering bust fullness and the very, very small waist—these are all new notes. Just five steps, too, in the sew chart. For immediate wear, make it up in dotted Swiss or voile. Your fall version should be thin wool, crepe de chine or rayon jersey.

The Patterns.

No. 1462 is designed for sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 requires 4 1/2 yards of 39-inch material.

No. 1561 is designed for sizes 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20. Size 14 requires 4 1/2 yards of 39-inch material; 1 1/2 yards ribbon for belt.

Send your order to The Sewing Circle Pattern Dept., Room 1020, 211 W. Wacker Dr., Chicago, Ill. Price of patterns, 15 cents (in coins) each.

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

Live Your Best Today

You better live your best and act your best and think your best today; for today is the sure preparation for tomorrow and all the other tomorrows that follow.—Harriet Martineau.

HANDY Home Uses MOROLINE

Excess Greater Evil Surfeit has killed more than famine.—Theognis.

NERVOUS?

Do you feel so nervous you want to scream? Are you cross and irritable? Do you need those diabetes pills?
If your nerves are on edge and you feel functionally disturbed and feel like you need a good general system tonic, try Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound, made especially for women.
For over 60 years one woman has told another how to get "nervous" with reliable Pinkham's Compound. It helps nature build up more physical resistance and thus helps calm quivering nerves and lessen discomforts from annoying symptoms which often accompany female functional disorders.
Why not give it a chance to help YOU? Over one million women have written in reporting wonderful benefits from Pinkham's Compound.

WNU—T 34-38

HELP KIDNEYS

To Get Rid of Acid and Poisonous Waste
Your kidneys help to keep you well by constantly filtering waste matter from the blood. If your kidneys get functionally disturbed and fail to remove waste matter, there may be poisoning of the whole system and body-organ distress.
Urining, usually or too frequent urination may be a warning of some kidney or bladder disturbance.
You may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—and weak, nervous, all played out.
It sure seems it is better to rely on a medicine that has won country-wide acclaim than on something less favorably known. Buy Doan's Pills. A medicine of proved people's endorsement. Don't. And your kidneys!

DOAN'S PILLS

"IRIUM sold me 100" on Pepsodent Tooth Powder!

Pepsodent alone of all tooth powders contains remarkable Irium!

What a supreme thrill! To have your own mirror show you teeth far brighter—teeth sparkling with all their dazzling natural brilliance! This exciting experience has been reported by scores following their use of Pepsodent Powder containing Irium.

Use Pepsodent Powder containing Irium, and see your faithful brushing properly rewarded by teeth that glisten and gleam with all their natural beauty! And Pepsodent Powder contains NO GRIT NO FUMES, NO BLEACH Buy Pepsodent tonight—and start tomorrow right!

*Pepsodent's trade mark for Purified Aeryl Sodium

The Yard Beautiful

By R. O. Monosmith, Landscape Architect, Oklahoma A. & M.

VALUE OF TREES

Do you know what the tree in your yard is worth in dollars and cents? As a line of speculation that goes well with a lawn chair and a glass of lemonade, you might like to estimate the values of your trees. This time of year trees may be worth more to you as a source of shade than their pecuniary value would indicate.

There are lots of folks that think trees "just grow" and attach no real value to them. Others, like a very wealthy family in western Massachusetts, after building a fine home beneath a giant American elm, say, "We wouldn't take a million dollars for that tree," and can afford to be sincere in the matter.

Five thousand dollars was offered an individual on Long Island, New York, for a single purple beech that was five feet in trunk diameter, and spread over one hundred feet. The offer was refused. It is said that five thousand dollars was spent by the federal government for moving a large magnolia recently to the grounds of the Department of Agriculture. These are unusual cases and represent maximum values.

The shade tree in your yard, if it is sound, a good type as American elm, and well located, should be worth approximately seventy-five dollars if the trunk diameter at breast height is ten inches. The value is estimated at three hundred dollars if the diameter is twenty inches. These are considered basic values of shade trees upon land valued at two thousand dollars an acre (or lot), and are derived by giving a valuation of one dollar for each sectional square inch of trunk at breast height. These values apply to the better types of shade trees such as American elm, hackberry and oak. If local conditions lower the value of the tree for shade tree purposes, there is a provision for as much as a 20% reduction. Other types of trees such as silver maple, tulip tree and sycamore are reduced from 20 to 40% under the value of American elm. An even lower rating is given such trees as cottonwood and black locust, their rating being from 30 to 50% under the American elm.

There are other factors involved. Land values, physical condition of the tree and personal opinion all affect the value. A table of standards is available for lots of varying value. For instance, trees on lots valued at five hundred dollars should be reduced by 75% under the one dollar per square inch. Upon lots valued at one thousand dollars, tree values are reduced 50%, whereas a lot (or acre) valuation of four thousand dollars will increase the valuation of the tree by 50%.

"What's that? You still wouldn't sell yours for ten thousand dollars? Sure, I feel that way, too—let's be extravagant together!"

Miss Lydia Switzer is visiting home folks at Middle Water.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS
Subject to action of the second Democratic Primary.

For Commissioner, Precinct 4:
C. M. CARPENTER
W. T. WILSON

For County Treasurer:
D. R. HENRY
W. E. JAMES

For Sheriff:
J. C. (Cal) ROSE
ART HURST

For District Attorney:
C. E. CARY
CLIFFORD BRALY

FLOYD GIBBONS
FAMOUS HEADLINE HUNTER
Read his "Adventurer's Club"

A Dangerous Shadow On Our Highways

Of all drivers involved in fatal accidents last year, 7.8% had been drinking. This is neither worse nor better than the 1936 record.

Of all pedestrians killed last year, 12.9% had been drinking. This figure may be compared with 11.2% in 1936.

These figures are based on a broad spread of official state reports and are offered as the best information available on the subject. The accuracy of the picture presented by the statistics will be questioned because reporting methods differ in the various states, and because of differences of opinion as to what constitutes drunkenness.

The News printing department has an order for yearbooks for the Junior Progressive Study Club, whose first meeting of the season will be held Sept. 8, with Mrs. M. H. Lasater.

Mrs. Mabel Foley of Pampa is visiting Mrs. L. H. Shockley and other friends here this week.

Lawrence and Misses Jackie and Margaret Foley of Pampa visited in McLean Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. James of Alanreed were in McLean Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Covington and children of Oklahoma City visited in the Chas. L. Anderson home Saturday.

Mrs. Paul Kennedy of White Deer visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Noel, Thursday.

Mrs. E. B. Gardner orders the home paper sent to her son, Stanton, at North Bergen, N. J.

Arle Carpenter of Lefors was a business visitor in McLean Thursday.

Mrs. C. G. Nicholson visited relatives at Sunray last week.

OUR READERS ARE NOT—

TRAINED SEALS BUT THEY RESPOND TO AD SUGGESTIONS

A SERVICE
Is a Memory Everlasting
For 22 years we have served this community.
There is no substitute for experience.

C. S. Rice Funeral Home
Day Phone 42 - Night Phone 13
McLEAN, TEXAS

A Vote for Cal Rose is a vote against the greedy, selfish interests who perpetrate their own power and promote their own mercenary plans for the future.

Elect Cal Rose
Sheriff, Gray County

Mrs. S. J. Dyer, Ruel Smith and Vester Smith visited Mrs. Dyer's mother and the other ladies' mother-in-law, Mrs. W. M. Smith, at an Amarillo hospital Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Johnston and daughter, Miss Shirley, have returned from a trip to Colorado Springs, Colo., Santa Fe, N. M., San Angelo, and other places.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bentley and children of Hugopan, Kan., visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Bentley, over the week end.

Mrs. J. B. Pettit visited her daughter, Mrs. Wheeler Carter, at Pampa last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Butler of Claude visited in McLean one day last week.

T. E. Windom has returned to his home at Texico, N. M., after a visit with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sparks visited their daughter, Mrs. D. C. Regal, and family in Amarillo Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Rice have returned to their home at Lubbock after a visit with relatives here.

Mrs. John C. Haynes and children of Pampa visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell Saturday.

Mrs. W. L. Campbell and children of Pampa visited in McLean Friday.

Mrs. T. A. Landers and Miss Fern Landers visited in Miami Monday.

—and you are ready to enjoy yourself, no matter how hot the weather.

—Visit our shop.

—Always cool and comfortable.

A COOL CLEAN SHAVE and HAIRCUT

Elite Barber Shop

BEAUTY SERVICE
True beauty requires care. A naturally lovely skin, beautiful hands and hair are seldom the result of accident. Our BREE CREAMS will keep your skin soft and lovely and our manicurists can give your hands a distinctive, attractive appearance.

Try us for what you need in beauty culture.

Orchid Beauty Shop
Licensed Realistic Shop

IRVIN S. COBB
Whose Column of Humorous Comment Is Now Feature of This Paper.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Robertson and children of Lefors visited in McLean Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Anderson visited relatives at Borger Sunday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Gertrude Van Bibber.

Miss Georgia Wilson will teach music in the Sam Houston school at Pampa the coming term.

Dewey Campbell orders his subscription figures moved forward another year.

Miss Marie Landers of Miami visited home folks here Sunday.

NEED GLASSES?

See

F. W. HOLMES
OPTOMETRIST
Sayre - - - Oklahoma Suggest an Appointment

Trimble Grocery Co.
FRIDAY AND SATURDAY SPECIALS

CABBAGE	per lb	2c
PEP BRAN	3 for	25c
PEANUT BUTTER	qt	25c
BLACKBERRIES	No. 2 2 for	19c
COFFEE	Folger's 2 lb	51c
MATCHES	carton	17c
TOMATO JUICE	Heinz per can	7 1/2c
MEAL	Snowdrift 10 lb	25c
COTTAGE CHEESE	lb	10c
OLEOMARGERINE	lb	13c
SALT SQUARES	lb	9c

DON'T FORGET OUR 5c TABLE

AN OPEN LETTER

Dear Friends:

With the Second Primary Election so near at hand, I would certainly fail to respond to a clear call of duty if I did not at this time call upon a few of my friends to support the candidacy of C. V. TERRELL for Railroad Commissioner. The race for Railroad Commissioner overshadows all other state races from the standpoint of its being a campaign between experience, honor, ability and efficiency against youth and inexperience. The Railroad Commission, more so than any other public office that I know of at this time, demands men of sterling character, men who have been tried and proved their honor, their ability and their fairness. Since we have found such a man in C. V. TERRELL, I am definitely in favor of keeping him in office.

It is true that Mr. Terrell has been in the public limelight for many years, but it is not undemocratic to retain in public office a man who has served the people well, a man towards whom the finger of scandal has never been pointed. To the contrary, it is democracy itself to keep men in office who have proved that they can cope with the intricate and numerous problems that confront those who hold the more important public offices.

It is my sincere thought that this is a dangerous time to change the personnel of the Railroad Commission. This body is closely connected with, and serves as a balance for a delicate and sensitive oil situation. A new man on this board, although he might be guided by the noblest of intentions, might unbalance an entire industry. The oil business of Texas is about its chief industry, and anything that will create confusion in it will consequently be damaging to all other businesses. It is at this time being regulated so that the little man has a fair chance with the big. Nobody gets rich overnight in it, as was once the case, but there is a stability and security that was at one time lacking.

In the interest of our schools as well as the oil industry, I respectfully commend Mr. Terrell to you, and sincerely hope that you can support him in the coming election. With kindest personal regards, I am,

Yours very truly,

(VESTER SMITH)

or r On charm-ill fill a e if you ately in
And they with fulater in You'll study the d in each d easily ou don't eginners e simple ue.
be needs remaining this nice gingham, and comater on, s, jersey,
sleeves, on pleats ess very e deeply pockets that it is ar, too.
Dress.
s that all es show their high t sleeves, bers that waist—
Just five art. For it up in Your fall ool, crepe
r sizes 34,
Size 36 re-inch mar sizes 12,
requires erial; 1 1/2 ie Sewing
oom 1020, icago, Ill. cents (in service.
Today best and your best sure prep-nd all the follow.—
Evil ore than
S? it to accomto you need and you feel to tonic, try Compound. has told an-with reliable nature build d thus help discomforts sh often ap-orders.
help YOU re-written in Pinkham's 34-38
EYES
Acid Faste rep you will make matter kidneys get and fail—there may be system and frequent ur-famous kidney ng backache, of discomng, puffiness
s, nervousness to rely on a remedy with ing less favor-this. A multi-remedy
LLS

THE McLEAN NEWS

Published Every Thursday
News Building, 210 Main Street
Phone 47

T. A. LANDERS, Publisher

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
in Texas
One Year $2.00
Six Months 1.25
Three Months .65
Outside Texas
One Year $2.50
Six Months 1.50
Three Months .85

Entered as second class matter
May 8, 1905, at the post office at McLean, Texas, under act of Congress

MEMBER
National Editorial Association
Texas Press Association
Panhandle Press Association

Display advertising rate, 25c per column inch, each insertion. Preferred position, 30c per inch.
Resolutions, obituaries, cards of thanks, poems, and items of like nature charged for at line rates.

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation, which may appear in the columns of this paper, will be gladly corrected upon due notice of same being given to the editor personally, at the office at 210
Main Street, McLean, Texas.

Sometimes he who laughs last is the dumbest.

No disease or condition can be cured by ignoring it.

There is nothing in the world so slippery as standing on your dignity.

Success is hard to obtain and many times just as hard to maintain.

Some men act like the Golden Rule is to apply only to the other fellow.

Look the other man in the eye when talking to him—and tell him the truth.

Seeing is not always believing—how many people have you seen that you would not believe?

Every man is entitled to his own religious and political belief, and it's not up to anyone to attempt to change either.

Every candidate for state office pledged cooperation with the governor-elect, if elected, so there should be no difficulty in voting for or against, for that reason.

If Mr. O'Daniel's ticket wins, it will simplify matters greatly hereafter, if the plan is adopted.
Just let the successful candidate for governor give the nod and there will be no necessity for a second primary.

The opening of schools pretends better business conditions and the resumption of normal living for most people. School facilities deserve the cooperation of all agencies for the progress of the community, and many times this cooperation, or lack of it, spells success or failure for the school term.

MILLINERY

Mr. Smith—Why, darling! What ails your eye? Why the bandage?
Mrs. Smith—Don't be ridiculous!
This is my new hat.

Take off your hat to the past and take off your coat to the future.

Castles in the air cost a deal to keep up.—Lytton.

Hikers of England are using roller skates this season.

It's hard to control your destiny
if you can't control yourself.

EYES
MR. MERCHANT
The EYES of the COMMUNITY WOULD BE ON YOUR AD-
IF IT HAD BEEN IN THIS ISSUE

TOWN GARDENERS

We mentioned the fact last week that Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Denning are moving to town from their farm where they have resided for many years. No sooner had the paper been issued from the post office than Mr. Chandler went to Denning and asked him to sign a pledge. Now Mr. Denning is not a drinking man and his experience in the matter of pledges has almost always had to do with drinking. So he asked Mr. Chandler just what he meant anyway, and Mr. Chandler said: "We want you to pledge not to work a garden when you move to town, because if you do, then my wife will want me to work one."

Stockdale Progress.
Let us hope that Mr. Denning declined to sign the pledge, although State Press, for one, discerns the logic and justification for Mr. Chandler's request. When one man exhibits industry around the house it sets an example to the heads of neighboring houses, and the result is that a dozen men may be deprived of their ease by the one man who succumbs to the habit of working.
State Press has long contended that the man in the home will never recover mastery until he quits shaving and lets his whiskers grow heck, west and crooked. This personal method, combined with his insistence on wearing his hat in the house, will secure to the family man his rightful position of boss. No man who shaves every morning, all over his face, and takes his hat off when he comes in at the front door, can expect to exercise authority on his own premises.
He may more reasonably expect to be set to work in the kitchen, garden, the flower garden or the kindergarten. Raising flowers, vegetables and children is women's work. But the men will continue under subjugation until they discover the art of intimidation, which cannot be made to work without the assistance of rugged masculine looks and manners.—State Press in Dallas News.

FAST AGE

"I tell you we're living in a fast age."
"Right you are. I have to hustle these days to keep up with myself."

The tax makers are figuring on raising the income tax rates, but they are not doing anything about raising incomes.—Dallas News.

The Eskimos are the only known people—past or present—who have a 100% record of no decayed teeth.

More applications for positions these days carry the line "I own my own car" than "I own my own home."

Then there was the guy who gave everyone such a pain that the aspirin people paid him a royalty.

Electric Welding
Motor Reconditioning Starters, Generators, Battery Charging, Machine Work.
Nothing too big, or too small.
Satisfaction Guaranteed

Hervey Machine Shop and Garage

The State Fair of Texas will honor its founders and pay a tribute to the newspapers of Texas for their success in building the "world's largest and most beautiful fair" during its first fifty years, with a monument to be unveiled on opening day, Saturday, October 8, which is also Press Day.

Every newspaper in Texas has been invited to send in a front page of its paper, upon which has been published a story on its community, which will be placed in a metal chest and placed in a crypt under the tablet "acknowledging a debt of gratitude to the Press of Texas."
The monument will stand eight feet tall on a base six feet in height.
It will be finished in sand and ground granite. The monument is being executed by Jose Martin and Rousal Josset.

BEAUTIFY YOUR HOME
Judicious planting of hardy shrubs and trees will enhance the appearance and value of your home. Let us landscape your place.

BRUCE NURSERY
Trees with a Reputation
Alanreed, Texas

INSURANCE
Life Fire Hail
I insure anything. No prohibited list.
I represent some of the strongest companies in the world.

T. N. Holloway
Reliable Insurance

Does
EXPERIENCE — EFFICIENCY SERVICE — Count?
Vote for
D. R. Henry
FOR COUNTY TREASURER
After all that has been said and published regarding the matter, Alanreed was successful in 1918 in electing a County Treasurer who served in that capacity until January 1, 1929. This is no misleading statement—investigate it.
I want your support on August 27, and will surely appreciate it. Be sure and go to the polls and vote your choice next Saturday.

With the Churches

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Troy A. Sumrall, Pastor
Sunday school 9:45 a. m.
Preaching at 11 a. m.
Preaching at 8:15 p. m.
B. T. U. at 7 p. m.
Choir rehearsal Wednesday, 7:30
p. m.
Prayer meeting Wednesday, 8:15
p. m.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

W. A. Erwin, Minister
Sunday school 10 a. m.
Morning worship at 11.
Christian Endeavor at 7:15 p. m.

DENWORTH BAPTIST CHURCH

H. T. Sullivan, Pastor
Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.
Preaching at 11 a. m.
B. T. U. at 6:30 p. m.
Interest is increasing in the services, especially the B. T. U. program.
Every Wednesday evening we have over 60% of the church membership present for prayer meeting.
Come help make these good services possible.

MAGIC CITY BAPTIST CHURCH

H. T. Sullivan, Pastor
Sunday school at 10 a. m.
Preaching service at 11 a. m.
B. T. U. at 7:30 p. m.
Two good services last Sunday.
The attendance was very encouraging.
Every member is urged to attend all services, including the prayer meeting Thursday evening.

METHODIST W. M. S.

Mrs. A. B. Christian and the girls who attended the encampment at Ceta Canyon recently, brought the program at the meeting of the Methodist women Tuesday afternoon.
Using as a subject, Memories of Canyon Ceta Camp, the following program was given:

Song.
Devotional, Building Life—Georgia Colebank. Scripture references used were Eph. 6:10, "Be strong in the Lord and the power of His might," and Isa. 40:31, "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary, and walk and not faint."

Prayer—Mrs. Christian.
Song, Life Is a Friendly Road—Lois Kirby.

Morning worship—Ruth Thacker.
Vesper service—Opal Thacker.
Sports—Dorothy Sue Young.
Orchestra and Music—Willie Louelle Cobb.

The Schedule of Camp—Velma Mann.
Members present were: Mesdames
J. L. Hess, J. E. Kirby, L. S. Tinnin,
S. A. Cousins, C. A. Cryer, W. B.
Swim, W. E. Bogan, E. C. Crews,
J. A. Sparks, A. B. Christian.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY

The Presbyterian Auxiliary met in the basement of the church at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, with the president, Mrs. Sitter, in charge.
Mrs. Jess Kemp had charge of the program. Mrs. Alexander read the minutes in the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Hambright. Mrs. W. A.
Erwin gave a brief outline of the book to be studied this fall.

Those taking part on the program were: Mesdames S. L. Humphreys, E. J. Windom, Arthur Erwin, Raymond
Glass, John B. Rice, Kemp, and Miss Mary Louise Brawley.
Others present were: Mesdames J.
B. Hembree, Oscar Goodman, Mattie
Graham, Mills, Carl Jones, Eroy Cubine, and Mittie Paschal.

Miss Georgia Stratton and Master
Bart Pesonen of Santa Fe, N. M., are visiting the former's relatives here.

The News inadvertently left out the membership committee of which Boyd Meador is chairman, from the list of Lions Club committees last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Switzer and daughter and Mrs. Elmer Decker left Sunday on a vacation trip to Colorado and New Mexico.

DON'T SCRATCH
To relieve the itching associated with Minor Skin Irritations, Prickly Heat, Eczema, Ivy Poisoning, and Chiggers, get a bottle of LITTELL'S LIQUID a sulphurated compound. Used for more than twenty-five years. Price 50c
CITY DRUG STORE

DR. A. J. BLACK
Optometrist
Eyes Examined - - Glasses Fitted
322 Rose Bldg. Phone 332
Pampa, Texas

YOU SPEND HAPPY EVENINGS
IN A LIGHT CONDITIONED HOME
Evening is the time for relaxation—for pleasant conversation and companionship. Evening is the time for reading, embroidering, knitting and home lessons.
All these things are more pleasant to do when there is plenty of good, helpful light to do them by. In the modern light conditioned home, new I. E. S.
lamps provide perfect light for every seeing task.
Do you know whether or not your light is right? We'll be glad to make a light check of your home with the Sight Meter, free of charge.
Southwestern PUBLIC SERVICE Company

Also Cam-Indian part-and dog.
country of destroyed by about on a caused, to a witnesses of are greeted by producing a the big m with him new from the Su and to have the daughter, the witness of about picture for P his time to b to keep his from the boy now it at For pain all later also meets M with A a rival for is in love a guide specially via CHAP
When the closed behin Alan. "Why
"I've done after. "I f my pouch w
"Maybe d started Noel.
"Thy sav at Pierre di stood but R they saw."
"Dej spik not see."
"If they d ing to accou that I drew summer—ne ance with G
Bay. Nobod
bush so som we met some and this is h
The return interrupte er, when th the trac return of D gers from so of a rear du r's house.
gri opened and, with a s well at the r ought and arms.
"Petite Ma
the has grov delighted c water long playmate an thought of h now."
"Alce, Alec
"We all miss him too, but er not miss
"Oh, Roug Kissing her sheeks as he than sudden mauciousness ment at the er room st with large da of blue-black "Welcome, Berthe Dessa
natively gr straight, the f stant in a f fanness of you've not ta Alan, as you sted. "You
He laughed
as leanness.
Berthe. I'm upper."
"Oh, I'm with relief. T bered. She protesting fr be door and ed Cameron
"Arsene sav in the tra ered. "I ov er just now one to the p with the polic Police! The Alan Camer suddenly felt strangers who ay before an uncan McNi
ay Company knowledge; th to go to the h government
el So River at bill! And ain #7
"Alan, wha
the deman broken face.
"Nothing, m effort he r sation. "Th ward," he ugh. "I've h each two ye over when I wa that fall.
"I'm glad, A ysterious wi to know b you.
leaving her checked her like me?"
change

THE RIVER of SKULLS

by George Marsh

PENN PUBLISHING CO.

WNU SERVICE

SYNOPSIS

Alan Cameron, young trapper, Noel, his Indian partner, and Rough, husky Ungava rover's camp in the desolate Big River country of Northern Canada. Their supplies destroyed by wolves, they are forced to hunt on wolf meat until they come, stranded, to a substantial log house in the wilderness of Talking River, where they are greeted by a big blond man with a gun, introducing himself as John McCord, hunter. The big man asks Alan if he dares go with him next year to the River of Skulls beyond the Sinking Lakes, where no man is said to have been before. Heather McCord, the daughter, who had come with him to the wilderness, wins the immediate devotion of Alan. On the eve of Alan's departure for Fort George, McCord suddenly decides to bring his back some dogs, and to keep his mouth shut to questions. He sends the boy money, warning him not to show it at Fort George, and promises to explain it later. Returned to Fort George, Alan meets McCord and Slade, Provincial police, with Arsene Rivard, clerk, and Alan's rival for Berthe Dessane, with whom he is in love. The two police are looking for a guide to the Big River wilderness. Accidentally Alan drops one of McCord's pills.

CHAPTER III—Continued

When the door of the trade-room closed behind Pierre, Noel turned to Alan. "Why you drop dat money?" "I've done it, Noel," groaned the other. "I forgot I had that bill in my pouch when I got the tobacco." "Mebbe dey not see eet," commented Noel.

"They saw it; they couldn't help it. Pierre didn't see from where he stood but Rivard and the others—they saw."

"Dey spik togadder; mebbe dey not see." "If they did see it, how am I going to account for it? They'll learn that I drew no money here last summer—never touched our balance with Gabriel or the Hudson's Bay. Nobody takes money into the bush so they're bound to suspect we met somebody. He trusted me and this is how I repay him."

The return of Pierre from his cabin interrupted the conversation. Later, when the sound of voices outside the trade-house announced the return of Dessane and the strangers from supper, Alan slipped out of a rear door and went to the factor's house. A black-eyed mite of a girl opened the door to his knock and, with a shriek of joy, threw herself at the returned wanderer who caught and tossed her high in his arms.

"Petite Manon! What a great girl she has grown!" he cried, as the delighted child clung to him. "All winter long Alan has missed his playmate and wondered if she ever thought of him far away in the snow."

"Alee, Alee!" laughed the child. "We all miss Alee! Berthe she miss him too, but Arsene, he try to make her not miss him. How is Roughy?" "Oh, Roughy's fine."

Kissing her on each of her brown cheeks as he held her in his arms, Alan suddenly reddened with self-consciousness. Smiling in amusement at the man and child, in an inner room stood a girl of eighteen with large dark eyes and a wealth of blue-black hair.

"Welcome, M'sieu le voyageur!" Berthe Dessane ran to him and impulsively grasped his hands. Her straight, thick brows met for an instant in a frown as she noted theanness of his face. "Oh, but you've not taken care of yourself, Alan, as you promised!" she protested. "You look tired and thin."

He laughed at her solicitude over his leanness. "We haven't starved, Berthe. I'm going to Pierre's for supper."

"Oh, I'm so glad," she said with relief. Then her face suddenly sobered. She sent her little sister protesting from the room, closed the door and returned to the puzzled Cameron.

"Arsene saw you drop some money in the trade-room," she whispered. "I overheard him tell father just now at supper. They have gone to the trade-house to talk with the police."

Police! The bronzed features of Alan Cameron went slowly gray. He suddenly felt weak and cold. These strangers who had arrived only the day before and of whose presence Alan McNab, at the Hudson's Bay Company, seemed to have no knowledge; these men who wanted to go to the head of the river were government men—Provincial Police! So Rivard had seen him drop that bill! And how was he to explain it?

"Alan, what is the matter?" Berthe demanded, shocked by his sudden face.

"Nothing, nothing at all!" With an effort he regained his self-possession. "That's a good joke on you," he continued, forcing a laugh. "I've had that money in my pouch two years—got it at Whale River when I went with the goose that fall."

"I'm glad, Alan. Arsene was so tiresome with father, I wanted to know because—he does not know you."

Turning her by the shoulders Alan reached her dark eyes. "Do you know me?" he demanded. "Has some changed you?"

The long-lashed lids of her black eyes winked hard as she smiled back at him. "You know I do—Alan. I'm so glad—you've come back—so early."

"Thanks for what you told me, Berthe! I'm going to Pierre's house—for supper," he said at the door.

No, he reassured himself, as he walked away through the wet snow, Rivard hadn't poisoned her mind yet.

Over the hot supper at Pierre's the two boys talked with their host of the winter on the headwaters.

"Pierre," said Alan, at length, as he pushed back his chair and lit his pipe, "you are my friend and will tell me. What did Rivard say when he came back with those strangers to the trade-room?"

A smile lit the broad face of the head voyager. His small eyes twinkled as he answered: "He pull dose polece ovaire een de corner and whisper. He know Pierre sees your fr'en."

"So they're Provincial Police from Quebec? Who are they after?" Pierre shrugged. "I do not know; M'sieu Dessane tell dem you know de headwater country, you and Noel, so dey want you to guide dem."

"How did dey get here?" "Yesterday dey come een ova'r de shore ice by dog-team. Dey got two half-breed wid dem—bad looking feller."

"But father says the coast is not clear!"

"And Gabriel told them I was the man they wanted."

"Ah-hah, dey say dey pay you well to guide dem."

"Well, Pierre, Noel and I are going up the coast for dogs. They'd better get someone else for a guide. I might lose the way."

Back in his own house at the Hudson's Bay settlement, Alan and Noel considered the situation.

Suddenly the great dog lying at their feet lifted his head. His throat swelled in a low rumble as he stalked to the door on stiff legs and sniffed at the crack. The eyes of the two men met as they nodded significantly. Shortly there were low voices outside which were answered by the sniffing dog with a snarl. There was a knock and a voice called:

"Tie up that man-eating husky, will you?"

Alan ordered Rough to lie down in a corner of the room, then opened the door. McQueen and Slade entered, casting furtive glances around the room for the dog.

"I don't like that dog," said McQueen. "Put him outside, will you! He might jump on us."

"Yes, he might. He's a good judge of men—that dog."

Alan realized that he was going pretty far. These men were Provincial Police, with wide powers. But they had not as yet identified themselves to him, and he had that excuse for his actions. He opened the door and let Rough out.

"We want a word with you, alone," said McQueen.

"Noel, here, is my partner," replied Alan. "We have no secrets from each other."

"But you sometimes have a secret together, eh?" broke in Slade. Alan gazed blankly into Slade's leering eyes. Police or no, he didn't like the cut of the jibs of these two men. "Secret together, what do you mean?" he asked.

"Well, my lad, I'm kind of curious to know what a hunter just out of the bush is doing with a piece of Canadian paper money," said McQueen. "I suppose you got it from a bear?"

Alan yawned, then calmly surveyed the exasperated McQueen from head to foot. "When you show me what business it is of yours, I may tell you."

McQueen's pale eyes flamed with anger. "We're Provincial Police! Didn't you know that? You'd better keep a civil tongue in your head, young man!"

"Why didn't you tell me who you were?" countered Alan, revelling in the discomfort of the thick-set officer. "Rivard didn't say a thing about it when I met you, and neither did you! I suppose you've got something to prove it?"

McQueen threw open his outer and inner coats, displaying a badge of German silver on his heavy shirt.

"That satisfy you? I'm a sergeant of Provincial Police, Province of Quebec. I thought they'd told you. Slade, here, is a corporal."

"I haven't seen Gabriel since I got in and Rivard said nothing about your being police," avoided Alan, truthfully. He realized the danger of further antagonizing his callers. They had wide powers in the hinterlands when in pursuit of wanted men. They might even force him to accompany them to the headwaters. But remorse over his carelessness flicked him as a whip flicks a harness-sore dog.

"Now will you tell us where you got that money?"

"I got that money from Neil Campbell, at Whale River, two years ago."

With a shrug and a smile of impotency McQueen turned to Slade. "Guess we'd better let these boys get some sleep," he said good-naturedly. "They're tired and cross, need plenty of rest and grub—then we'll have a talk with them."

"You'll have plenty of time to talk," said Alan, winking at the stiff-faced Noel. "After the ice from the upper river passes, the river will run high with snow water for weeks. You'll have plenty of time."

"Well, good-night, boys, no hard feelings! See you later!"

Alan stood motionless in the doorway until the two callers disappeared in the gloom, then closed the door and turned to Noel.

"I've got to see Neil Campbell before anyone else from Fort George reaches him. As soon as the ice clears the coast we head for Whale River."

CHAPTER IV

The vanguards of the marching spring had reached Fort George and swept on up the East Coast of the great salt bay of the north.

It was late in May and two men waited while the lifting sun and the rain winds from the foot of James Bay warred with the floe-ice that blocked the bleak East Coast. Not yet might a canoe hope to pass the treacherous Cape of the Four Winds and reach Whale River.

And while the anxious Alan fretted to be off, officers McQueen and Slade made repeated attempts to entangle him in the details of the story of how he happened to have Canadian money in his possession.

It had been bitter news to Alan when Gabriel Dessane told him the details of the police.

"Alan, I don't blame you for being a little stiff before you knew who they were," said Gabriel, "but the law requires that we give the police any help possible. Their papers order us to furnish guides, supplies, whatever they require. They're after a man who went in to Nichicun by way of Rupert House, last summer—a man charged with murder."

"Murder! John McCord with the straight gazing eyes and the big heart—a murderer!"

Forty-Acre "Fort," Inclosed by High Cliffs, Once Was a Cache of Bandits

Nestling in the hills near here, a freak of nature, a high-walled circular fort containing 40 acres, has been publicized by the Shawnee division of the United States forest service to the extent that thousands of persons have visited the place during the last year, writes an Equality, Ill., correspondent in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The fort, a walled-in mystery to the present generation, is, according to tradition, an inclosure that early Nineteenth century horse thieves used as a cache for stolen horses, cattle and other things. It is almost round in shape and its walls are perpendicular cliffs from 60 to 120 feet high all around except on the south side where there is a narrow winding way by which one may reach its top. Across this narrow way there is a tumble-down stone wall erected by unknown hands in the distant past.

Because the high-walled enclosure is well watered by an overflowing spring and heavily vegetated, cattle and horses could be held here for an indefinite period without fear of discovery.

"His Indians came out at East Main in December—deserted him," continued Dessane. "He had hired them to go in with him to trade for furs. They came out to get dogs and supplies but he wanted them to go into the interior, this summer, and they were afraid to go. That was his plan—to lose himself in the interior. That was why the police were suspicious when you dropped that bill you got from Neil Campbell," the stunned Alan heard Dessane say, as if from a distance.

"They know there's no money used in the back country and they suspected you might have run into him."

Alan's level eyes met the friendly gaze of the factor as he replied: "Yes, I understand. But I don't go up river with these police. I've got to get some good dogs from the Huskies. That will take me weeks."

"Well, I'll tell Sergeant McQueen that you must get your dogs from the Eskimos first, if he insists on taking you to the headwaters instead of some of our Indians."

But while the laggard spring touched the East Coast slowly with its magic, to Alan who chafed at the delay, harassed by his problem, there was one great consolation in his enforced idleness, Berthe. Far away, indeed, seemed the man and the girl on the Talking River, when he sat with the small Manon on his knees while he watched the busy fingers of her sister at her sewing. But equally far seemed the day when Alan Cameron, humble trapper of fur, could take this black-eyed girl in his arms and tell her his love.

So the days passed while Alan and Noel made frequent trips to the mouth of the river to watch the condition of the floe-ice along the coast. Then, one day, they learned from Andrew Christie, Hudson's Bay factor, that McQueen had hired a York boat. That meant that the police were going to try to slip up the coast to Whale River to check his story.

"Noel," said Alan, as the two sat in Alan's cabin, "ice or no ice, we leave for Whale River tonight! We must beat McQueen to Neil Campbell or they will know we met John McCord and compel us to take them to the headwaters."

"You t'ink Neil weel tell dem he geeve you de money?"

"He'd die for me, Noel. I pulled him out of the river here when he was clerk at the Hudson's Bay."

Early that evening Alan walked with Berthe along the high shore of the river near the Revillon Freres post. He would not see her again in weeks for his quest for dogs would take him far north of the Whale.

"It won't be long, now, Berthe, before we can start," he said, watching the breeze whip a plume of her black hair across her face.

"But father says the coast is not clear!" she protested. "It would be very dangerous for you to start in a canoe in all that drifting ice."

"I may have to go to Richmond Gulf, Berthe, before I meet the Eskimos. They won't reach Whale River until too late. I've got to find them, you know, if I want to get good dogs."

She laid her hand on his arm. "There's something I want to tell you, Alan. The police are going to Whale. I heard Arsene tell father."

"Yes, I know that. They don't believe I got that money from Neil and are going to find out."

"But I believe you, Alan, and so does father."

"I know you believe me, Berthe. You're a wonderful friend—you don't know what that means to me. And I can't sneak away without saying good-bye. I may not see you again—for weeks."

(TO BE CONTINUED)

As to Knitting a Chic Fall Sweater

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

IT'S time to knit! Or do you happen to be a crocheter instead of a knitter? Either way you do it, it's time to make one of the perfectly charming sweaters here pictured.

We'll wager that at sight of these ultra chic and fascinating sweater fashions your fingers will begin to tingle, your heart action quicken as a sudden urge sweeps o'er you to clickety click those knitting needles of yours faster than they ever clicked before. Or if, perchance, it's a crochet needle you wield, we've an idea it's going to go at rapid pace to complete a "darling" sweater like the crocheted model shown above to the right in the illustration, for of course you will be wanting to have it ready to wear with the new fall suit. The other two sweaters in the picture are knitted.

We agree with you, this trio of hand-made sweaters certainly has a chic and charm about them that is far beyond the ordinary. Not that there is anything complicated about the knitting and crocheting of 'em, for each of the models is really very simple to make.

"Sweaters this year," comes word from Paris, "will be new because of their departure from the conventional." Short, just over the hipbone is the foreword that reaches us in regard to the new fall sweaters. Many are slide fastened for mostly everything is being zippered among the new fashions that can be zipped. The majority of new sweaters have low necks.

The band-and-bow trim that gives such dainty feminine detail to the sweater pictured above to the right in the group is definitely new. It affords a grand opportunity to carry out a two-color scheme which is something to take note of, considering that bicolor treatments are highly important in the current styling program. The three bands of contrasting color are fastened with bows made of tufts of fringe formed of the identical mercerized crochet cotton used to make the sweater. You'll love this band-and-bow trimming the more you wear your sweater.

The jacket-like sweater blouse above to the left has that air of sophisticated simplicity about it that every woman versed in the art of smart costuming covets. It is knit of knit-crocheseen in an open-work stitch interspersed with solid blocks that gives a sort of plaided effect. This sweater is the type that looks just as well when you remove your jacket as it does with the jacket on. Make it up in one of the lovely new muted colors and you will find it an indispensable and flattering accessory. The square neck line is a high-style feature. So also are the crochet buttons up the front. Most fashion reports have much to say in regard to the flair for buttons running to larger rather than small this season.

With word emanating from Paris that "it's a year for sweaters in versatile styles," cardigans get headline attention. Variety in cardigan styles is the new mandate, but it must be "variety without fussiness." A cardigan type that embodies all of Paris sweater dictates is the short-sleeved one shown below. It is knit and crocheted of lustrous mercerized cotton. Work it up in a contrast of your two favorite colors.

© Western Newspaper Union.

SUMMER ERMINE

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

In the way of a summer evening wrap the short fur, feather or marabou bolero ranks at the top of the list, making an agreeable change from the fashionable cape. The one pictured is in natural beige summer ermine, worn over a white crepe frock with accordion pleated skirt. The smart young women who go to parties and such adore these boleros. The bolero in brown fur (very important for fall) is forecast as a smart daytime item.

Brushed-Up Coiffures Now Go With Doll-Sized Hats

It seems as if the idea of brushed-up hair is gaining, whether we like it or not. At any rate buyers returning from midsummer trips report that they will show the new tiny doll-sized hats launched by Schiaparelli worn atop higher hair-dress that brings curls up off the ears. It remains to be seen how well the fashion will "take." You never can tell, fickle fashion, fickle public are apt to go to any extreme.

PART FABRIC, PART KNIT NEW FORMULA

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

College girl, here's your cue to smartness in dress this fall. Which is to the effect that the sweater and the cloth skirt in accurate color match is a fashion "must" this coming season. So there's lots of fun ahead matching a sweater knit of shetland, cashmere or angora wool to the skirt of patterned tweed, or if you prefer, a monotone wool of plain or novelty weave. Your choice runs from rich dark autumn tones to the now-so-fashionable pastel colors.

Then there are those amazing three-piece ensembles that employ the identical yarn employed in knitting the sweater, as is used for weaving the cloth for jacket and skirt. There's no-end chic in the costumes of cloth that have short fur jackets with sleeves and borderings, knit of yarn in colors that tune to the scheme of things.

Cerise Added to Popular Pinks by Paris Stylist

Cerise is a new step on the ladder of pinks. A pleasant variation of the more purplish fuchsia shade, the cerise is used by Lelong for a flowing sash tying around a deep blue evening gown with a halter neck.

And the same vivid shade is the background for a dainty white-dotted Swiss, which forms the bodice for a bouffant white tulle skirt. The bodice is draped up and over the right shoulder but comes under the left arm, thus leaving the left shoulder strapless, while the right is well covered.

Adding Bright Touch

Flowers on the bodice of an evening frock matched by flowers in the hair supply all the decoration that one could want for festive occasions.

Moldy Colors

Moldy colors are being proudly displayed at the moment as being high style.

News from Denworth

Come to Sunday school Sunday at 9:45. Election of officers for the coming year will be held this Sunday, and everyone is urged to be present.

There were 29 present at the mid-week prayer service. The study is taking us through 1st Peter. Everyone is urged to attend these mid-week services.

MISS DOWELL HONORED

Miss Eva Dowell was honored at a surprise go-to-college party recently at the home of Mrs. R. L. Marshall, young people's B. T. U. leader.

A pot luck dinner was served at 7 o'clock, followed by the party, during which an autograph book was passed around for each to write in. There were 81 attending the dinner and party. Games and contests were enjoyed until a late hour.

Those present were: Misses Dorcas Williamson, Norma Lee and Mary Louise Lantz, Mildred, Ruth and Dorothy Kratzer, Iona Hale, Georgia Nelle Browning, Rheta Pearl Hale, Joyce Browning, Virginia Hale, Ermalee Floyd and Mabel Back of McLean, Maxine Williamson of Shawnee, Okla.

Messrs. Coleman Brown, J. L. Jones, W. R. Brown, Jr., Stayton Jones, Morse Ivey, Lawrence Jones, Jr., Ed Denton, Kenneth Browning, Maynard Johnson, Windy Finley and Jack Young of McLean, Burnis and Wilbur Gettle.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Jones and children, Billie Ruth, Wanda, Freddie and Bobby; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Meyers and daughter, Ray Jean; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Copeland and sons, Adrian and Jim Bill; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lowe and granddaughter, Delores Madero of Pampa; B. A. Dowell, Mrs. Lula Gettle, Mrs. Forrest Hupp and children, Jack and Waneeta Ann; Rev. H. T. Sullivan and children, Reta Joyce and Terry, of Magic City; Mrs. J. M. Hale and sons, Bob and Joe, of Beaumont; Mrs. Fred Woelck of El Dorado, Kan.; Rev. and Mrs. W. O. Cooley of Kellerville, W. H. Floyd of McLean.

Messrs. and Mesdames Fred Browning, E. L. Robinson, Ray Lowe, J. H. Flesher, H. D. Hale, Dick Brown, Bob James, Ernest Dowell, Racy Morse, A. G. Norton of McLean, R. L. Marshall, Vester Dowell, and the honoree.

Ten of the girls stayed all night with Miss Eva for a slumber party, and the boys had a slumber party at the home of Mrs. Denton.

At 5 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Robertson and Mrs. Vester Dowell met the boys and girls at a nearby creek for a sunrise breakfast. Later, games of tennis were played.

Miss Dowell is entering a business college in Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dawson and

Cleota Harrison of Pampa visited Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wells Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Wells have just moved into our community from Pampa, and we extend them a hearty welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Livingston of Tulsa, Okla., visited in the home of their brother-in-law, M. R. Travis, last week. Cella Livingston, the lady's sister, accompanied them.

Mrs. J. M. Hale and sons, Bob and Joe, who have been visiting the lady's brother-in-law, H. D. Hale, and family the past week, have returned to their home at Beaumont.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Moon of Pampa spent the week end in the Ernest Dowell home.

News from Ramsdell

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Johnston and children of Plainview visited in the homes of Lewis and Claude Powell from Sunday until Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Davidson made a business trip to Wellington Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bones of Campo, Colo., visited from Tuesday night until Wednesday morning with the former's father, J. I. Bones. They were accompanied home by their daughter, Bernice, who had been visiting here.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Powell and Dock Grogan returned Thursday from Maryville, Calif., where they had been visiting their children for the past three weeks. Emmett accompanied them home.

Those attending the Embroidery Club meeting at the home of Mrs. Lewis Powell Thursday were: Mesdames J. G. Davidson, Claude Powell, Clyde Brown, Ferd Bones, Miss Iva Davidson and the hostess. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Clyde Powell, Sept. 15.

Miss Iva Davidson spent Friday night with her sister, Mrs. Ferd Bones.

J. V. Younger spent the week end with his wife at Canyon.

Don Powell spent last week with his uncle, Claude Powell.

Mrs. Gertrude Van Bibber, who is working at McLean, spent last week with her mother, Mrs. J. I. Bones.

Miss Iva Davidson spent Saturday night with Miss Pauline Van Huss at Lone Mound.

Dinner guests in the Ferd Bones home Sunday were: Bill Young of Ringgold, Mr. and Mrs. Smith Tucker and sons, Earl and Billie, of Grimes, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Davidson.

Mr. and Geo. Gale and family are moving to Row, where Mr. Gale will be section foreman.

J. E. Major and son, Robert, of Albuquerque, N. M., visited their sister and aunt, Mrs. J. W. Story, over the week end.

Mrs. Witt Springer, Miss Frances Springer and Paul Dowell were in Amarillo Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Enloe Crisp and children of Alanreed visited the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Davenport, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Allison and children and mother have returned from a trip to Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Morgan and son of Canadian visited in the Bryan Roby home over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Andrews made a business trip to Childress Thursday.

Judge C. E. Cary of Pampa was in McLean Saturday.

D. R. Henry, county treasurer, was in McLean Saturday.

D. C. Carpenter made a business trip to Oklahoma Friday.

Mrs. N. A. Greer was in Oklahoma Friday for medical treatment.

Tom Clark and family have moved to McLean from Amarillo.

YOUR CAR

WILL RUN BETTER

if you let us service it with Phillips gasoline and oil. Quality products at fair prices.

66 Service Station
Boyd Meador, Owner

September Specials

- $5.00 Machineless Wave $4.00
- $5.00 Machine Wave $3.50
- $3.50 Machine Wave $2.50
- $2.00 Machine Wave $1.50
- Oil Bleach $1.00
including Oil Shampoo
- Hot Oil Shampoo and Set 50c
- Plain Shampoo and Set 35c
- Eyebrow and Lash Dye 35c

Down to work for the school girl means a permanent that's plain and needs little attention. Top of the head softly waved with deep curls just at the back.

Phone 149 for Appointment NOW!

Landers Beauty Shoppe

Miss Myrtle Andrews has returned from a visit with her brother, Clyde, and family at Tucumcari, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wood of Pampa visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Wood, Saturday.

Dr. C. B. Batson made a business trip to Pampa Thursday.

Mrs. Inez McLarty of Vaughn, N. M., is visiting relatives here.

George Thut of Lefors was a business visitor in McLean Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pettit visited relatives at Clarendon Thursday.

Mesdames R. T. Dickinson, Bryan Burrows and Olen Shamlin were in Amarillo Thursday.

Judge and Mrs. Sherman White and son of Pampa visited in McLean Thursday.

Mrs. C. S. Rice visited in Pampa one day last week.

Constable Dempse Bulls of Shamrock was in McLean Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McLaughlin visited at Mineral Wells last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Upham were in Pampa Wednesday of last week.

HERE'S THE SHAVING VALUE THAT WON MEN EVERYWHERE

4 PROBAK JUNIOR BLADES 10¢

You, too, will agree that you never got so much shaving satisfaction at so little cost! Try Probak Jr. Blades and you'll never again gamble on unknown blades. Get a package of these world-famous blades today—4 for only 10¢.

PROBAK JUNIOR BLADES

New School Supplies

Much progress has been made in the manufacture of school supplies and we have one of the largest stocks yet shown in McLean.

Take the new theme paper for instance—printed in a light shade of green to save eyestrain. Soon we may expect all bookkeeping supplies in this modern shade.

See our displays before buying.

CITY DRUG STORE

"More Than a Merchant"
Witt Springer, Prop.

Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins Shawson are visiting the lady's relatives at Anderson.

Miss Nina Scifres has returned her home at Lubbock after a visit with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Lindsay daughter of Pampa visited in McLean Friday.

VOTE For C. V. TERRELL of Wise County

Candidate for RAILROAD COMMISSIONER

Mr. Terrell has served faithfully the best interests of this State. He has demonstrated his ability and fairness. This section of Texas has received prompt and courteous attention from him at all times. He deserves your vote on his record.

RE-ELECT C. V. TERRELL!

An Announcement

of Importance to Every Person in This Section

THE LANFORD DRUGLESS CLINIC, SHAMROCK, TEXAS

WILL CONDUCT A Two Weeks' Clinic Starting August 29

Dr. Knapp of Minneapolis, Minn., will be associated with Dr. Lanford in conducting the clinic. Dr. Knapp is a trained technician who has successfully conducted similar clinics all over the United States. You are invited to take advantage of this opportunity, AUGUST 29 to SEPTEMBER 10. Come in and meet Dr. Knapp and talk over your health problems with her and Dr. Lanford.

During Clinic Weeks, X-Ray pictures of colon will be made for you at cost, enabling you to see for yourself the exact condition of the colon.

For your convenience, the Lanford Drugless Clinic will open evenings and Sundays during the clinic.

FREE CONSULTATION AND EXAMINATION

Lanford Drugless Clinic, Shamrock, Texas

THE PURPOSE OF THE CLINIC

... will be to introduce to the people of this territory, the new

Gordon Detoxifier

which is being installed this week at the Lanford Drugless Clinic. This new equipment will enable us to better care for your health.

WHAT OUR TREATMENT DOES

1. Washes out the contents of the colon (large bowel) and the poisons it may contain in a natural, painless and harmless manner.
2. It cleans out the many pockets of the bowel not evacuated by ordinary bowel movements.
3. It exercises the colon mechanically, restoring normal "tone" by increasing peristaltic movements.
4. It builds up the efficiency of the colon, restores rhythm and increases the number of evacuations. There should be three normal bowel movements daily without the use of cathartics.
5. It corrects and prevents constipation and its many resulting disorders.
6. It lifts a tremendous burden from the body's resistive forces and releases these for constructive purposes.

Fully 95% of the physical ailments are caused by sluggishness in the digestive tract, and nerve interference. You may have one of the hundreds of diseases all over the body, but they owe their start to poisons secreted from a defective colon. Our treatment restores the colon to its normal position and condition in the body, correcting the CAUSE, thereby giving permanent relief.

By FL McC

"W"

children & you look

"It was 'Step int en up a bit your tan-ci 'It's my 'It maki somehow.' Janet ob collar bef

"All of a didn't supi to notice m is old enoi as Paul sai She wen sniffed the 'White l wonder if case now. sentimenta

She lau turned the pretty rust eagerly u came out c to claim h 'And so Millicent.' That wat Janet rem She had ! ernoon whi to go to S

Then she the white ing for I thinking t much like her own r

It had m Still, Jan in her quie angular pr

The next had begun and Dwigl with her tv her father left and h mother ha atica. After th: been kille Belle had c dren.

Belle wa very depe stood patie Burrow ha tions to M

If she e hour when lilac, listen on and dr with a smil and trim f dom gave ance. Now Jan She had stint until late thirties

Now Am widower, Gladys and stood in h like manifi

"They're sin, "and Janet sta fly. Mrs. pan of bis down the s

"I'd knov walk. All gait, and li Gladys is a kid, but she more docile dreamlike though. Y dren."

Janet loo vie, I have yet!"

"But of better settl I've starte ting-room i damp chill those pict Western to out, poppi and I'll sh store. But ed, Janet. er, and h steady as a nice disp tience itse long illness Janet sig vie."

"I know Ransom. that old b cent's Rom It came to chap who 'A vich Half hi

"Well, r you, Janet. You count E still in the from now good home That's righ in, folks. The child Janet. Gl praisingly Oscar held fully when

There w about the Harley B genial com "You fol "Not I," haven't ha

WHITE LILACS By FLORENCE MELLISH

WELL, Janet Ransom, I was afraid you wouldn't come. I expect Amos and the children every minute. My, but you look tired!

"It was close on the train." "Step into the bedroom and freshen up a bit, you thought you'd wear your tan-colored dress."

"White lilacs! My goodness! I wonder if that old book is in the case now. Yes, of course. Pretty sentimental, but I was just a girl."

"That was the last line. How well Janet remembered! She had finished the book that afternoon when they had left her alone to go to Seth Kimball's funeral."

The next fall after her visit she had begun to go to singing school, and Dwight Burrows had been home with her two or three times. Then her father had fallen from the barn left and broken his leg, and her mother had been laid up from sciatica.

After that, Belle's husband had been killed in the saw mill, and Belle had come home with the children. Belle was never very strong or very dependable, and Janet had stood patiently in the gap. Dwight Burrow had transferred his attentions to May Logee.

If she ever thought of that half hour when she had stood under the lilac, listening for her uncle's wagon and dreaming dreams, it was with a smile for her girlishness. Now and trim from long habit, she seldom gave a thought to her appearance.

Now Janet was left alone. She had given herself without stint until it seemed to her in her late thirties that there was little left. Now Amos Barlow, two years a widower, with his eight-year-old Gladys and his five-year-old Oscar, stood in her path confronting her like manifest destiny.

"They're coming!" called her cousin, "and dinner's just ready." Janet started and came out hastily. Mrs. Harley Ball had left a pan of biscuits in order to gaze down the street.

WHO'S NEWS THIS WEEK

By LEMUEL F. PARTON

NEW YORK.—When Sir Walter Runciman was here in 1937, it was reported that he was trying to persuade Washington to lend money to Germany, to soothe Hitler and make him stop frightening England. That may or may not have been his mission, but, as a master of the old credit-and-raw-materials squeeze play, he works that way, and, now, as Viscount Runciman, he is deep in the Downing Street strategy which swings these two cudgels of empire.

Viscount Runciman has been a silent ally of Viscount Halifax in the quiet, glacial-pressure advance of the four-power bloc scheme for a European coalition and the final and complete isolation of Russia.

It was reported from London, unverified so far as this writer knows, that it was he who put over a fast credit double-play with France and Italy, the moment the Daladier government came in, and he has been tagged as the man who deploys the empire's financial resources in the diplomatic chess game.

His father was a ruddy old sea dog who sang chanteys, a cabin boy who became a shipping czar and a baronet. Viscount Runciman is a pallid, tight-lipped little man, a total abstainer, a former Sunday School teacher, and a faithful chapelgoer.

As president of the British board of trade, he made concessions in empire free trade, but he is a protectionist of the Chamberlain tradition. Like many men of small stature, he has the Napoleonic psychosis, writing books about Napoleon and hoarding memorabilia.

THIS writer has heard from several assured but not necessarily authoritative sources that Tullio Serafin would succeed Edward Johnson as manager of the Metropolitan Opera. Signor Serafin has been highly esteemed here for his musicianship, but was not well between him and the Metropolitan management when he returned to Rome in 1935, after a number of years as Italian conductor here.

"The Metropolitan has not kept pace with the artistic progress of the modern stage," he said, on his arrival in Rome. "The way opera is put on at the Metropolitan is ridiculous. . . . The great fault with the Metropolitan is the little encouragement it is giving to its latent talent."

The Metropolitan reply hinted that Signor Serafin was really thinking about money rather than art. In the season '32-'33, he had a fair subsistence wage of $58,200 for the season. This had been worked down to $34,000 the year he left.

He did indicate that he thought that was pretty shabby pay for an ace conductor, but insisted his criticism was directed solely at artistic shortcomings.

WELL-KNOWN FOOD AUTHORITY NAMES THE FOODS THAT CAUSE TROUBLE

By C. HOUSTON GOUDISS

A NEW phrase has crept into daily usage in recent years, and has in fact become so common that comedians use it in jest and draw laughs from their audiences when they mimic, "I'm allergic!" But the words have deep significance for perhaps 30 to 60 per cent of the population who have cause to agree with the old saying that "one man's meat is another man's poison."

They are victims of the curious phenomenon known as food allergy and have an abnormal reaction to the proteins in certain foods and other substances. As a result, foods which are beneficial in themselves and which usually have an important place in a normal balanced diet, cause a variety of unpleasant effects.

Other offending substances. Foods are not always responsible for allergy, and the symptoms may be produced by contact with wool, feathers, dust, pollen, dander from horses or other animals; or even the sting of a bee.

Discovering the Offenders. The ideal procedure for the allergic victim is to find out the offending foods or substances and avoid them. For early recognition of a tendency to allergy may prevent discomfort and trouble.

Peasant Motifs Add Smartness to Linens. The peasant note spells smartness in linens today. These figures in simple stitches will add color to accessories and offer pleasant hours in their embroidery.

Heredity a Factor. A tendency to allergy seems to be inherited. But the substances which caused a disturbance differ with each individual, and the type of reaction also differs. For example, a mother may be allergic to milk; her child inheriting the tendency may be allergic to fish.

Trouble-Making Foods. It is difficult to generalize regarding the foods that cause trouble, because they vary so widely among individuals who are sensitized to a number of foods. It has been found that the foods most frequently causing allergic symptoms include wheat, milk, eggs, chocolate, pork, fish and shellfish, tomatoes, cauliflower, cabbage, strawberries and oranges.

Other Foods Must Be Used. Once the offending food or foods are determined, they should be eliminated either for all time or until the individual becomes desensitized. If the trouble maker is an uncommon food, such as lobster or clams, the allergy presents no great problem, but when children react to necessary foods such as milk, eggs and wheat, the homemaker faces a difficult task.

Don't Jump to Conclusions. It must be borne in mind that many of the symptoms produced by food sensitivity may also result from other causes. For this reason, it is unwise to decide that one is allergic without due investigation.

WHAT TO EAT and WHY

C. Houston Goudiss Explains the Causes of Food Allergy

SEND FOR THIS FREE CHART OF FOODS THAT OFTEN CAUSE TROUBLE. C. Houston Goudiss will gladly send you, FREE, a chart showing which foods have been found most frequently to cause allergic reactions, and also those which are the least likely to cause trouble.

garding the foods that cause trouble, because they vary so widely among individuals who are sensitized to a number of foods. It has been found that the foods most frequently causing allergic symptoms include wheat, milk, eggs, chocolate, pork, fish and shellfish, tomatoes, cauliflower, cabbage, strawberries and oranges.

Discovering the Offenders. The ideal procedure for the allergic victim is to find out the offending foods or substances and avoid them. For early recognition of a tendency to allergy may prevent discomfort and trouble.

Peasant Motifs Add Smartness to Linens. The peasant note spells smartness in linens today. These figures in simple stitches will add color to accessories and offer pleasant hours in their embroidery.

Heredity a Factor. A tendency to allergy seems to be inherited. But the substances which caused a disturbance differ with each individual, and the type of reaction also differs. For example, a mother may be allergic to milk; her child inheriting the tendency may be allergic to fish.

Trouble-Making Foods. It is difficult to generalize regarding the foods that cause trouble, because they vary so widely among individuals who are sensitized to a number of foods. It has been found that the foods most frequently causing allergic symptoms include wheat, milk, eggs, chocolate, pork, fish and shellfish, tomatoes, cauliflower, cabbage, strawberries and oranges.

Other Foods Must Be Used. Once the offending food or foods are determined, they should be eliminated either for all time or until the individual becomes desensitized. If the trouble maker is an uncommon food, such as lobster or clams, the allergy presents no great problem, but when children react to necessary foods such as milk, eggs and wheat, the homemaker faces a difficult task.

WHO'S NEWS THIS WEEK

By LEMUEL F. PARTON

NEW YORK.—When Sir Walter Runciman was here in 1937, it was reported that he was trying to persuade Washington to lend money to Germany, to soothe Hitler and make him stop frightening England. That may or may not have been his mission, but, as a master of the old credit-and-raw-materials squeeze play, he works that way, and, now, as Viscount Runciman, he is deep in the Downing Street strategy which swings these two cudgels of empire.

Viscount Runciman has been a silent ally of Viscount Halifax in the quiet, glacial-pressure advance of the four-power bloc scheme for a European coalition and the final and complete isolation of Russia.

It was reported from London, unverified so far as this writer knows, that it was he who put over a fast credit double-play with France and Italy, the moment the Daladier government came in, and he has been tagged as the man who deploys the empire's financial resources in the diplomatic chess game.

His father was a ruddy old sea dog who sang chanteys, a cabin boy who became a shipping czar and a baronet. Viscount Runciman is a pallid, tight-lipped little man, a total abstainer, a former Sunday School teacher, and a faithful chapelgoer.

As president of the British board of trade, he made concessions in empire free trade, but he is a protectionist of the Chamberlain tradition. Like many men of small stature, he has the Napoleonic psychosis, writing books about Napoleon and hoarding memorabilia.

THIS writer has heard from several assured but not necessarily authoritative sources that Tullio Serafin would succeed Edward Johnson as manager of the Metropolitan Opera. Signor Serafin has been highly esteemed here for his musicianship, but was not well between him and the Metropolitan management when he returned to Rome in 1935, after a number of years as Italian conductor here.

"The Metropolitan has not kept pace with the artistic progress of the modern stage," he said, on his arrival in Rome. "The way opera is put on at the Metropolitan is ridiculous. . . . The great fault with the Metropolitan is the little encouragement it is giving to its latent talent."

The Metropolitan reply hinted that Signor Serafin was really thinking about money rather than art. In the season '32-'33, he had a fair subsistence wage of $58,200 for the season. This had been worked down to $34,000 the year he left.

He did indicate that he thought that was pretty shabby pay for an ace conductor, but insisted his criticism was directed solely at artistic shortcomings.

UNA and INA and the Twins' Birthday Party... LISTEN TO THE TWINS NEXT DOOR! HEY JIMMIE AND JANIE! WHAT'S ALL THE FIGHT ABOUT?

Send for This FREE VITAMIN PRIMER Offered by C. Houston Goudiss. DO YOU want to know where to find the different vitamins? Just write to C. Houston Goudiss at 6 East 39th St., New York City, for his new "Vitamin Primer."

WELL, IF THE COST OF THE ICE CREAM IS ALL THAT'S WORRYING YOUR MOTHER—THAT'S EASY! SURE—UNA 'N I CAN MAKE ENOUGH WITH JELL-O ICE CREAM POWDER SO YOU CAN ASK EVERYONE!

WELL, IF THE COST OF THE ICE CREAM IS ALL THAT'S WORRYING YOUR MOTHER—THAT'S EASY! SURE—UNA 'N I CAN MAKE ENOUGH WITH JELL-O ICE CREAM POWDER SO YOU CAN ASK EVERYONE!

News from Denworth

Come to Sunday school Sunday at 9:45. Election of officers for the coming year will be held this Sunday, and everyone is urged to be present.

There were 29 present at the mid-week prayer service. The study is taking us through 1st Peter. Everyone is urged to attend these mid-week services.

MISS DOWELL HONORED

Miss Eva Dowell was honored at a surprise go-to-college party recently at the home of Mrs. R. L. Marshall, young people's B. T. U. leader.

A pot luck dinner was served at 7 o'clock, followed by the party, during which an autograph book was passed around for each to write in.

There were 81 attending the dinner and party. Games and contests were enjoyed until a late hour.

Those present were: Misses Dorcas Williamson, Norma Lee and Mary Louise Lantz, Mildred, Ruth and Dorothy Kratzer, Iona Hale, Georgia Nelle Browning, Rhetta Pearl Hale, Joyce Browning, Virginia Hale, Ermindel Floyd and Mabel Back of McLean, Maxine Williamson of Shawnee, Okla.

Messrs. Coleman Brown, J. L. Jones, W. R. Brown, Jr., Stayton Jones, Morse Ivey, Lawrence Jones, Jr., Ed Denton, Kenneth Browning, Maynard Johnson, Windy Finley and Jack Young of McLean, Burns and Wilbur Gettle.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Jones and children, Billie Ruth, Wanda, Freddie and Bobby; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Meyers and daughter, Ray Jean; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Copeland and sons, Adrian and Jim Bill; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lowe and granddaughter, Delores Madero of Pampa; B. A. Dowell, Mrs. Lula Gettle, Mrs. Forrest Hupp and children, Jack and Waneta Ann; Rev. H. T. Sullivan and children, Reta Joyce and Terry, of Magic City; Mrs. J. M. Hale and sons, Bob and Joe, of Beaumont; Mrs. Fred Woelk of El Dorado, Kan.; Rev. and Mrs. W. O. Cooley of Kellerville, W. H. Floyd of McLean.

Messrs. and Mesdames Fred Browning, E. L. Robinson, Ray Lowe, J. H. Fisher, H. D. Hale, Dick Brown, Bob James, Ernest Dowell, Rary Morse, A. G. Norton of McLean, R. L. Marshall, Vester Dowell, and the honoree.

Ten of the girls stayed all night with Miss Eva for a slumber party, and the boys had a slumber party at the home of Mrs. Denton.

At 5 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Robertson and Mrs. Vester Dowell met the boys and girls at a nearby creek for a sunrise breakfast. Later, games of tennis were played.

Miss Dowell is entering a business college in Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dawson and

Cleota Harrison of Pampa visited Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wells Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Wells have just moved into our community from Pampa, and we extend them a hearty welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Livingston of Tulsa, Okla., visited in the home of their brother-in-law, M. R. Travis, last week. Cella Livingston, the lady's sister, accompanied them.

Mrs. J. M. Hale and sons, Bob and Joe, who have been visiting the lady's brother-in-law, H. D. Hale, and family the past week, have returned to their home at Beaumont.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Moon of Pampa visited the week end in the Ernest Dowell home.

News from Ramsdell

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Johnston and children of Plainview visited in the homes of Lewis and Claude Powell from Sunday until Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Davidson made a business trip to Wellington Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bones of Campo, Colo., visited from Tuesday night until Wednesday morning with the former's father, J. I. Bones. They were accompanied home by their daughter, Bernice, who had been visiting here.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Powell and Dock Grogan returned Thursday from Maryville, Calif., where they had been visiting their children for the past three weeks. Emmett accompanied them home.

Those attending the Embroidery Club meeting at the home of Mrs. Lewis Powell Thursday were: Mesdames J. G. Davidson, Claude Powell, Clyde Brown, Ferd Bones, Miss Iva Davidson and the hostess. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Clyde Powell, Sept. 15.

Miss Iva Davidson spent Friday night with her sister, Mrs. Ferd Bones.

J. V. Younger spent the week end with his wife at Canyon.

Don Powell spent last week with his uncle, Claude Powell.

Mrs. Gertrude Van Bibber, who is working at McLean, spent last week with her mother, Mrs. J. I. Bones.

Miss Iva Davidson spent Saturday night with Miss Pauline Van Huss at Lone Mound.

Dinner guests in the Ferd Bones home Sunday were: Bill Young of Ringgold, Mr. and Mrs. Smith Tucker and sons, Earl and Billie, of Grimes, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Davidson.

Mr. and Geo. Gale and family are moving to Row, where Mr. Gale will be section foreman.

J. E. Major and son, Robert, of Albuquerque, N. M., visited their sister and aunt, Mrs. J. W. Story, over the week end.

Mrs. Witt Springer, Miss Frances Springer and Paul Dowell were in Amarillo Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Enloe Crisp and children of Alanreed visited the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Davenport, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Allison and children and mother have returned from a trip to Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Morgan and son of Canadian visited in the Bryan Roby home over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Andrews made a business trip to Childress Thursday.

Judge C. E. Cary of Pampa was in McLean Saturday.

D. R. Henry, county treasurer, was in McLean Saturday.

D. C. Carpenter made a business trip to Oklahoma Friday.

Mrs. N. A. Greer was in Oklahoma Friday for medical treatment.

Tom Clark and family have moved to McLean from Amarillo.

YOUR CAR

WILL RUN BETTER

If you let us service it with Phillips gasoline and oil. Quality products at fair prices.

66 Service Station
Boyd Meador, Owner

September Specials

- $5.00 Machineless Wave $4.00
- $5.00 Machine Wave $3.50
- $3.50 Machine Wave $2.50
- $2.00 Machine Wave $1.50
- Oil Bleach $1.00
including Oil Shampoo

Hot Oil Shampoo and Set 50c
Plain Shampoo and Set 35c

Eyebrow and Lash Dye 35c
Down to work for the school girl means a permanent that's plain and needs little attention. Top of the head softly waved with deep curls just at the back.

Phone 149 for Appointment NOW!

Landers Beauty Shoppe

Miss Myrie Andrews has returned from a visit with her brother, Clyde, and family at Tucumcari, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wood of Pampa visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Wood, Saturday.

Dr. C. B. Batson made a business trip to Pampa Thursday.

Mrs. Inez McLarty of Vaughn, N. M., is visiting relatives here.

George Thut of Lefors was a business visitor in McLean Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pettit visited relatives at Clarendon Thursday.

Mesdames R. T. Dickinson, Bryan Burrows and Olen Shamlin were in Amarillo Thursday.

Judge and Mrs. Sherman White and son of Pampa visited in McLean Thursday.

Mrs. C. S. Rice visited in Pampa one day last week.

Constable Dempse Bulls of Shamrock was in McLean Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McLaughlin visited at Mineral Wells last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Upham were in Pampa Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins Shawson are visiting the lady's relatives at Anderson.

Miss Nina Scifres has returned her home at Lubbock after a visit with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Lindsey daughter of Pampa visited in McLean Friday.

HERE'S THE SHAVING VALUE THAT WON MEN EVERYWHERE

4 PROBAK JUNIOR BLADES 10¢

You, too, will agree that you never got so much shaving satisfaction at so little cost! Try Probak Jr. Blades and you'll never again gamble on unknown blades. Get a package of these world-famous blades today—4 for only 10¢.

PROBAK JUNIOR BLADES

New School Supplies

Much progress has been made in the manufacture of school supplies and we have one of the largest stocks yet shown in McLean.

Take the new theme paper for instance—printed in a light shade of green to save eyestrain. Soon we may expect all bookkeeping supplies in this modern shade.

See our displays before buying.

CITY DRUG STORE
"More Than a Merchant"
Witt Springer, Prop.

VOTE

For C. V. TERRELL

of Wise County

Candidate for RAILROAD COMMISSIONER

Mr. Terrell has served faithfully the best interests of this State. He has demonstrated his ability and fairness. This section of Texas has received prompt and courteous attention from him at all times. He deserves your vote on his record.

RE-ELECT C. V. TERRELL!

An Announcement of Importance to Every Person in This Section

THE LANFORD DRUGLESS CLINIC, SHAMROCK, TEXAS

WILL CONDUCT A Two Weeks' Clinic Starting August 29

Dr. Knapp of Minneapolis, Minn., will be associated with Dr. Lanford in conducting the clinic. Dr. Knapp is a trained technician who has successfully conducted similar clinics all over the United States. You are invited to take advantage of this opportunity, AUGUST 29 to SEPTEMBER 10. Come in and meet Dr. Knapp and talk over your health problems with her and Dr. Lanford.

During Clinic Weeks, X-Ray pictures of colon will be made for you at cost, enabling you to see for yourself the exact condition of the colon.

For your convenience, the Lanford Drugless Clinic will open evenings and Sundays during the clinic.

FREE CONSULTATION AND EXAMINATION

Lanford Drugless Clinic, Shamrock, Texas

THE PURPOSE OF THE CLINIC
... will be to introduce to the people of this territory, the new Gordon Detoxifier

which is being installed this week at the Lanford Drugless Clinic. This new equipment will enable us to better care for your health.

WHAT OUR TREATMENT DOES

1. Washes out the contents of the colon (large bowel) and the poisons it may contain in a natural, painless and harmless manner.
2. It cleans out the many pockets of the bowel not evacuated by ordinary bowel movements.
3. It exercises the colon mechanically, restoring normal "tone" by increasing peristaltic movements.
4. It builds up the efficiency of the colon, restores rhythm and increases the number of evacuations. There should be three normal bowel movements daily without the use of cathartics.
5. It corrects and prevents constipation and its many resulting disorders.
6. It lifts a tremendous burden from the body's resistive forces and releases these for constructive purposes.

Fully 95% of the physical ailments are caused by sluggishness in the digestive tract, and nerve interference. You may have one of the hundreds of diseases all over the body, but they owe their start to poisons secreted from a defective colon. Our treatment restores the colon to its normal position and condition in the body, correcting the CAUSE, thereby giving permanent relief.

WHITE LILACS

By FLORENCE MELLISH

WELL, Janet Ransom, I was afraid you wouldn't come. I expect Amos and the children every minute. My, but you look tired!

"It was close on the train." "Step into the bedroom and freshen up a bit, you thought you'd wear your tan-colored dress."

"I had never come." "Still, Janet had been pretty once—in her quiet way. She had a faded, angular prettiness even now."

"The next fall after her visit she had begun to go to singing school, and Dwight Burrows had been home with her two or three times. Then her father had fallen from the barn and broken his leg, and her mother had been laid up from sciatica."

"After that, Belle's husband had been killed in the saw mill, and Belle had come home with the children. Belle was never very strong or very dependable, and Janet had stood patiently in the gap. Dwight Burrow had transferred his attentions to May Logee."

"If she ever thought of that half hour when she had stood under the lilac, listening for her uncle's wagon and dreaming dreams, it was with a smile for her girlishness. Neat and trim from long habit, she seldom gave a thought to her appearance."

"Now Janet was left alone. She had given herself without stint until it seemed to her in her late thirties that there was little left. Now Amos Barlow, two years a widower, with his eight-year-old Gladys and his five-year-old Oscar, stood in her path confronting her like manifest destiny."

"I've never been fishing," said Janet. "That so? Then you've missed half the romance of life."

"And the other half, too, perhaps," she answered briefly. Mrs. Ball began to talk volubly about the last bean supper. Mrs. Ball opened the sitting-room door with a little hesitation, struggling with the knob.

"I can't keep the children back much longer. Gladys is a sharp kid, and she suspects there's something going on. But, gracious! are you people looking at those pictures all this time?"

"Amos looked surprised and slightly injured. "I thought you wanted me to see them. There are three more packages." Mrs. Ball put on her most despairing expression.

"If that isn't just like a man! I suppose Harley would have been just the same. And I thought you would have everything settled!" Janet's face was hard and quiet. "I don't think there will be anything to settle, Sylvie."

"Mrs. Ball faced Amos squarely. "Now, Amos Barlow," she demanded, "I recommended two other women for you, nice women, too, besides my cousin, Janet. I want to know why you have set your mind on her."

He turned to look at the children in the doorway—Gladys, eager and excited; Oscar, earnest and puzzled—and the smile that transformed his rugged face made it almost beautiful as he answered, "Because I know she will be a good mother to my children."

"There, Janet Ransom! Haven't you sense enough to know that to hear a man like Amos Barlow say that and to know that he means it is worth more than all the flowers in Gray's Botany?" Janet's face had softened. A cascade of photographs had fallen to the floor.

WHO'S NEWS THIS WEEK

By LEMUEL F. PARTON

NEW YORK.—When Sir Walter Runciman was here in 1937, it was reported that he was trying to persuade Washington to lend money to Germany.

Runciman soothes Hitler and makes him stop frightening England. That may or may not have been his mission, but as a master of the old credit-and-raw-materials squeeze play, he works that way, and now, as Viscount Runciman, he is deep in the Downing Street strategy which swings these two cudgels of empire.

It was reported from London, unverified so far as this writer knows, that it was he who put over a fast credit double-play with France and Italy, the moment the Daladier government came in, and he has been tagged as the man who deploys the empire's financial resources in the diplomatic chess game.

His father was a ruddy old sea dog who sang chanteys, a cabin boy who became a shipping czar and a baronet, Viscount Runciman is a pallid, tight-lipped little man, a total abstainer, a former Sunday School teacher, and a faithful chapel-goer.

As president of the British board of trade, he made concessions in empire free trade, but he is a protectionist of the Chamberlain tradition. Like many men of small stature, he has the Napoleonic psychosis, writing books about Napoleon and hoarding memorabilia.

THIS writer has heard from several assured but not necessarily authoritative sources that Tullio Serafin would succeed Edward Johnson as manager of the Metropolitan Opera.

Home Talent For Opera No Bargain That hasn't quite come off, and there have been the usual number of importations. It will be interesting if it brings in not only a European manager, but one who is its sharpest critic.

WHAT to EAT and WHY

C. Houston Goudiss Explains the Causes of Food Allergy

SEND FOR THIS FREE CHART OF FOODS THAT OFTEN CAUSE TROUBLE

Well-Known Food Authority Names the Foods That Cause Trouble

A NEW phrase has crept into daily usage in recent years, and has in fact become so common that comedians use it in jest and draw laughs from their audiences when they mimic, "I'm allergic!"

They are victims of the curious phenomenon known as food allergy and have an abnormal reaction to the proteins in certain foods and other substances. As a result, foods which are beneficial in themselves and which usually have an important place in a normal balanced diet, cause a variety of unpleasant effects.

These may range from hives or a skin rash to a gastric disturbance with spells of nausea. The individual may suffer from migraine headache or an attack of hay fever or asthma; or he may have a tendency to what appears to be bronchial or head colds.

It has been determined that these symptoms in an individual who is allergic are due to intolerance of certain proteins. Even when the offending foods are fruits and vegetables, it is the protein that is responsible. It has been suggested that the sensitization results because at some previous time, an unsplit or undigested protein in some way passed through the membranes lining the digestive tract and entered the blood stream.

Peasant Motifs Add Smartness to Linens

Send for This FREE VITAMIN PRIMER Offered by C. Houston Goudiss

Complex block containing text about Vitamin Primer and a small illustration of a woman.

C. Houston Goudiss will gladly send you, FREE, a chart showing which foods have been found most frequently to cause allergic reactions, and also those which are the least likely to cause trouble. Just state your request on a postcard, and address it to C. HOUSTON GOUDISS, 6 East 39th Street, New York City.

the trouble makers. One is to learn by experience, either by keeping a record of the foods eaten and noting the appearance of symptoms, or by eliminating from the diet, first one and then another of the foods that are suspected of causing difficulty. The other is to let your doctor conduct simple skin tests. Small scratches are made on the arms and legs, and each scratch touched with a solution made of the protein of a food or substance known to cause trouble. If a person is allergic to that substance, the skin around the scratch swells and becomes inflamed. The inflammation disappears after a few hours and causes no pain or inconvenience.

Other Foods Must Be Used Once the offending food or foods are determined, they should be eliminated either for all time or until the individual becomes desensitized. If the trouble maker is an uncommon food, such as lobster or clams, the allergy presents no great problem, but when children react to necessary foods such as milk, eggs and wheat, the homemaker faces a difficult task.

When milk is the offending food, it must be avoided, not only as a beverage, but in bread, cakes and puddings. Sometimes dried or evaporated milk, goat's milk or soy bean milk may be used instead. When wheat is the trouble maker, the alternatives include cornstarch, rice flour, potato or rye flour; rice and corn cereals; tapioca or barley. When hen's eggs are injurious, duck's eggs can sometimes be used with success, or meat or fish may be substituted.

Don't Jump to Conclusions It must be borne in mind that many of the symptoms produced by food sensitivity may also result from other causes. For this reason, it is unwise to decide that one is allergic without due investigation. Nor must the imagination or the current widespread discussion of the subject be allowed to cause adults or children to mask their unwillingness to eat certain foods with the false notion that they are unduly sensitive.

On the other hand, homemakers should be sympathetic with both children and adults who say with good cause, "I can't eat that!" And it would appear that there may even be some compensation in this unpleasant situation. For a group of scientists who have studied the subject announced a few years ago that those who belong to the allergy group appear to have a definite capacity for becoming intellectually superior. Thus, the child who suffers from a skin rash or stuffy nose today, due to food sensitivity, is apt to be full of energy when he reaches manhood and exhibit unusual ability for cultural leadership.

UNA and INA and the Twins' Birthday Party...

Comic strip panels featuring characters UNA and INA, and a Jell-O advertisement.

Vertical text on the far left edge of the page, including names like 'Jenkins Shaw' and 'C. V. RELL'.

Economics Teacher

MISS RUBY LEE SEAL former home economics instructor in McLean high school, who has been appointed head of the department of home economics at Mary Hardin-Baylor College at Belton.

HARRIS TO PREACH AT BAPTIST CHURCH SUNDAY

Tentative arrangements have been made for Rev. Clifford Harris of Kirkland to preach at the First Baptist Church at both hours Sunday.

Once more we face the liquor traffic, everywhere anti-social, not to say criminal in its consequences.

We are not in the status quo ante. We are in worse status by far, and this loose, tipsy, cocktail party generation cannot be the last word in the story of alcoholism.

As surely as history repeats itself, a revolt is due.—Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Pesonen and son, David, of Santa Fe, N. M., visited in the Stratton home Saturday night. They were enroute to Michigan for a two weeks' visit.

Mrs. J. W. Story is visiting at Falfurias. She was accompanied by Robert Story and family of Plainview.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell and daughter were in Pampa Thursday, the latter undergoing a tonsil operation.

Mr. and Mrs. James Baker of Moody visited Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Rice the first of the week.

A. W. Haynes of Pampa visited his brother, Fred, this week.

Mrs. Willie Boyett returned Monday from a visit to Denver, Colo.

C. G. Nicholson made a business trip to Pampa Tuesday.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

RATES.—One insertion, 2c per word. Two insertions, 3c per word, or 1c per word each week after first insertion.

Lines of white space will be charged for at same rate as reading matter. Black-faced type at double rate. Initials and numerals count as words.

No advertisement accepted for less than 25c per week. All ads cash with order, unless you have a running account with The News.

FOR RENT

FOR RENT.—Furnished modern apartment. Mrs. Anna Glass. 1p

WANTED

WANTED.—Laundry work, prefer men's, bundle or piece work. Will also do ironing. Mrs. L. K. Hornsby, 3 blocks south, 1 west, Church of Christ. 1p

FOR SALE

BABY CHIX.—We will start operating our hatchery Sept. 1st. Place your order now for fall chix. Wheeler County Hatchery, Shamrock, Texas. 34-2p

GET MY PRICE on oats delivered by truck any time to your granary. Harry Hill, Seymour, Texas. 31-4p

BUY Texaco products for better motor performance. Harris King. tfo

MERCHANTS SALES PADS — 5c each, at News office.

TYPEWRITER ribbons, 80c; portable, 40c, at News office.

ADDING MACHINE paper and ribbons at News office.

MISCELLANEOUS

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENTS at News office.

Grazing Control Aids Grass

Grass kept eaten down and constantly trampled by livestock has little chance of attaining a healthy growth and the bared soil soon becomes subject to wind erosion. Grazing has been permitted on the pasture at the left at intervals and the grass is healthy. Continued grazing of the pasture at the right of the fence has created an erosion hazard. Soil Conservation Service range examiners point out.

EDWARD W. PICKARD Famous Commentator Who Writes "Weekly News Review."

"The physician should have blazoned before him, 'If you can do no good, do no harm.' If this rule is adhered to, in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred the physician will give no alcohol."—Dr. J. H. Musser, ex-president of the American Medical Journal.

The bachelor motorist, having no wife to tell him how to drive, has to shift for himself.—Denison Herald.

Homer Wilson orders his subscription figures extended another year.

Help keep McLean money in McLean.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Morgan of Alpine are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Morgan.

Scott Johnston, J. M. Carpenter and K. E. Windom made a trip to Oklahoma this week.

F. E. McCracken of Alanreed was in McLean Tuesday.

Travel TEXAS

Heroes of The Alamo such a tiny band to block the invading thousands! Have your youngsters seen the spot where Bowie lay, where Travis drew the gallant line, the spot that marked the funeral pyre? The Alamo is only one of hundreds of fascinating historic monuments to Texas' thrill-packed past. Travel Texas highways to the shrines every Texan should know.

presented by TEXAS GOOD ROADS ASSOCIATION

Do You Know ---

- That in placing an order for printing, you are not making a purchase of materials, but hiring a service?
-That you are employing the printer and his equipment to the extent required for doing a certain piece of work?

WHAT DO YOU GET?

- That depends upon whom you hire. Printing cannot be good without equipment, experience, intelligence, judgment, and a desire to render prompt service.
-For the past thirty-four years, many of those who know have been buying their printing service from ---

The McLean News

Gray County's Oldest Newspaper

May we give you six dollars?

NOT in cash, of course. We're speaking of its equivalent. But here is something for you to consider:

Every year this newspaper brings you at least three outstanding novels in serial form. Purchased as books each would cost not less than $2, making a total expenditure of at least $6 per year.

Like yourself, we could find plenty of uses for that $6. Some member of the family is always in need of a new pair of shoes or some other necessity. But at the same time your requirements for good reading material must be met. By accepting these three novels each year we feel you are treating yourself to real enjoyment, at the same time giving your purse a substantial boost.

These novels are a source of constant pride to us. Every year we select them from the season's most outstanding best sellers, offered in serial form by a large newspaper syndicate organization. We'd like to feel that you—as a subscriber—always look forward to reading the coming installment in the next issue. It gives us a great satisfaction to know that here is another reason why our paper is popular in the home.

You are invited to begin reading our novels now. These regular brief visits to fictionland will prove a delightful interlude from your work-a-day activities. And it will make us happy to know that you are getting enjoyment from them.

THE McLEAN NEWS

... of McLean... Ed R. McLean... railroad... Mel... this section... and the... that time... McLaughlin... McLean... by the Hind... and Rowe... yard that... Brothers, wh... Alfred Rowe... who had exte... here. He wa... Titanic... lumber yar... Jones, no rela... who is now li... smith yard he... own was ori... C. S. Rice as... Wilson first... school board. M... first teacher... which was l... tracks, b... Mrs. Gracey is... at Clarend... the first ne... was establis... came with... and thro... market. April 1921, T... mayor on a... at the end of... owned a... electric light... and a sewer sy... were planned. the electric and... the Southwes... Company for en... says indebtedne... can at ti... of all moder... three parks, ti... state, and mu... organization... Smith, pre... Refinery C... mayor, and... Jones FA... HOLDS REUN... five members... and Mrs. H... reunion at... Sunday. Lunch... and watermel... evening. ... of the 12... were present. ... and two gre... daughter, Mrs. P... was unabl... present wer... Jones, Mr. and... family, Mr. a... and daughter... Jones and act... Mrs. L. D... and Mrs. Dee J... and Mrs. J. S... and Mrs. Faye Ha... Mr. and Mr... family of Am... Riddispurger... Leon, Marshall... Jones of Sib... Lemie R. Da... Lucy Mitchell a... Oks., Walter... Hill, Okla.

... five members... and Mrs. H... reunion at... Sunday. Lunch... and watermel... evening. ... of the 12... were present. ... and two gre... daughter, Mrs. P... was unabl... present wer... Jones, Mr. and... family, Mr. a... and daughter... Jones and act... Mrs. L. D... and Mrs. Dee J... and Mrs. J. S... and Mrs. Faye Ha... Mr. and Mr... family of Am... Riddispurger... Leon, Marshall... Jones of Sib... Lemie R. Da... Lucy Mitchell a... Oks., Walter... Hill, Okla.

... five members... and Mrs. H... reunion at... Sunday. Lunch... and watermel... evening. ... of the 12... were present. ... and two gre... daughter, Mrs. P... was unabl... present wer... Jones, Mr. and... family, Mr. a... and daughter... Jones and act... Mrs. L. D... and Mrs. Dee J... and Mrs. J. S... and Mrs. Faye Ha... Mr. and Mr... family of Am... Riddispurger... Leon, Marshall... Jones of Sib... Lemie R. Da... Lucy Mitchell a... Oks., Walter... Hill, Okla.