SHELTERBELT STOCK NOW BEING MOVED

Again the season has arrived when the Forest Service begins to move planting stock from the Plainview Nursery to the various locations in the area where farm shelterbelts are to be planted, according to James W. Kyle, acting district officer in charge of the Shamrock district office.

The locations where shelterbelt trees will be heeled-in for the Shamrock district are as follows: McLean, Shamrock, Wheeler, Hedley, Memphis and Wellington. Moving of the trees will start in the next few days, Kyle reports. The trees will be moved by government trucks and only about two weeks supply stored at any one time.

According to the acting district officer, the interest in the planting of shelterbelts is greater this year than in past years. It is reported that in past years the Forest Service has been in a position to plant shelterbelts for most all farmers desiring them, provided the soil was favorable for tree growth, but the indications are this will not be the case.

The Forest Service furnishes trees and labor for the planting of farm shelterbelts on cultivated land where the subsoil is favorable, and landowners desiring these plantings are requested to make application by January 1st, as the applications will be considered for this year's planting. For this reason Kyle suggests applications either be made through the county agent or direct to the Forest Service at Shamrock, or to one of the field men. Field headquarters are maintained at McLean, Wheeler, Memphis and Wellington, and Kyle says a post card or letter will be considered as an application.

The McLean chamber of commerce will cooperate with the Lions Club, churches and other organizations in spreading Christmas cheer this year, according to action taken at the regular meeting Monday night.

The body voted to set aside one hundred dollars to buy Christmas presents for needy families and include in the food baskets usually distributed here at Christmas time.

The Christmas baskets will be distributed wherever the need can be found, all over the trade territory. The Christmas baskets will take the place of the Santa Day celebration of former years, and W. W. Boyd was appointed chairman of a committee to distribute the baskets.

The action to change the usual celebration was taken after long discussion as to what would be best for the community. The fact was brought out that the usual Santa Day was of little use as a trade builder, and that few children who really need the candy, etc., received packages. The new plan will reach only those who actually need the Christmas cheer.

The Christmas street lights were reported up and ready to be turned on. The decoration committee was asked to request merchants to place small Christmas trees in the flat sockets in front of their places of business as a part of the street decorations.

It was suggested that a raise in dues for the month of December be made to take care of the Christmas expense.

Among other things discussed was the proposition of the city council to buy a gas well and lease north of town as a reserve supply for the city system. It was pointed out that there is no present need for the new well, but a dual system would prevent a shortage in the case of an emergency and that it is the custom of privately owned systems to carry reserve supply for such emergencies.

It was also stated that the buying of the well might stimulate some activity on leases and drilling near town and that the proposed purchase might eventually be worth many times what is asked for the property.

The need for a food stamp plan for Gray county was mentioned, and all present favored the plan for McLean if it can be secured.

It was voted to spend not to exceed $5.00 from the treasury at the Ramadell pie supper; this is addition to what is spent by those attending from McLean.

The matter of a site for a State highway barn was mentioned and some suitable ones discussed.

Those present were: D. A. Davis, W. E. Bogan, Geo. Colebank, C. O. Stokely, W. W. Boyd, C. M. Carpenter, C. O. Greene, Creed Bogan, E. J. Lander, R. E. Stubblefield, Boyd Meador, C. J. Magee, J. W. Cooper and T. A. Landers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Meier and daughter of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. John Stratton, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Decker and son of Skellytown, Mrs. Forrest Switzer and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Byerly ate Thanksgiving dinner last Thursday evening in the home of Miss Eunice Stratton.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McKinney of Lawton, Okla., visited Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Campbell over the week end.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

By Edward C. Wayne

Key Albanian Cities Fall as Greeks Continue to Drive Back Italy's Army; Turks Declare Martial Law in 'Crisis'; Murray Heads CIO as Lewis Resigns

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

BACK DOOR: War in Reverse

Events on the Albanian and nearby fronts gave military experts what they considered proof that the grand British plan of conducting the war from now on will be to knock out Italy first, then turn attention to Germany.

Hence Europe was treated to a war in reverse. Although England was continuing bombing raids against military objectives on German and occupied European bases including Norway, chief attention was focused on Italy, both on the continent and in Africa.

To full reports on the Taranto affair were added the fall of Koritza, accomplished with British air aid, and further Greek successes were accompanied by word that British territorialists were fighting side by side with Greeks in the snowy and mountainous terrain of the Albanian frontier.

Mussolini, after denying all British and Greek claims of victory, two days later was the first to announce to the world the fall of Koritza and that a major defeat had met Italian arms.

Gen. John Metaxas, handsome Greek leader, was hailed as the savior of the nation from the Italian menace, and the numbers of prisoners taken were succinctly summed up as "too many to handle."

MONKEY WRENCH: In Diplomacy?

Germany's diplomatic maneuvers, usually believed forerunner to huge military operations, continued to be watched closely in half a dozen capitals, and wonder was expressed again whether perhaps Soviet Russia might throw a monkey wrench into the proceedings again.

Balkan resistance to Axis domination showed signs of crumbling, with Hungary first to give in to Nazi demands, and Rumania showing final collapse, though it was pointed out that the latter was already in Nazi hands.

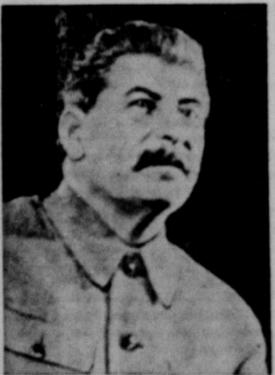

At this moment, Russia stepped in with two moves, the significant character of which was evident, but the meaning of which was not at once ascertainable.

Russia recalled Schwarzke, Moscow's ambassador to the Reich, and replaced him with another commissar.

Russia sent a warning to her little Slavic neighbor, Bulgaria, to be slow and careful about joining fully in the Axis plans.

Tass issued a flat denial, publicly, that Russia had had any hand in Hungary's joining the Axis.

These three moves were projected on the diplomatic screen for what they were worth, speculators wondering mostly about the "monkey wrench" angle. Dictator Josef Stalin has a record of throwing "monkey wrenches" into international affairs.

They can't forget the famous "treaty of Tilsit" in the Napoleonic war, and many are still betting that in the last analysis Russia will prove the turning point in the upset of the Axis hopes—if they are to be upset.

TURKEY: Again to Fore

Declaration of martial law by Turkey throughout all the European part of her nation brought her again to the fore as a major factor in developments on the southeastern front of the world war.

NAMES

... in the news

A report from New York indicated that Secretary of Labor, Frances Perkins, was resigning from President Roosevelt's cabinet.

Ralph W. Barnes, foreign correspondent of the New York Herald Tribune, was found dead in the wreckage of a British bomber which crashed and burned near Danilov Grad, Jugoslavia.

The Turks expressed their own attitude as follows:

"If the Germans are to aid Italy against Greece, Russia will not be willing to sit idle.

"However, even if Russia gives her consent, Turkey will defend herself.

"Bulgaria must be kept aloof from this newest move."

So Turkey, joining Russia in the warning to Bulgaria, evidenced that she was on the threshold of entrance into the war on the anti-Axis side.

The counter diplomatic move was coming from Von Papen, who was believed ready to offer Turkey a huge slice of France's Syrian territory if she would agree to remain aloof while the Germans go down through the Balkans and knock out Greece.

Observers felt there was little chance that Turkey would accept, fearing rather Axis domination of the Dardanelles than wishing a slice of territory she could take over herself any time she desired.

S. S. S.: Stress, Strikes, Sabotage

The defense front in the United States moved into the second of the phases that always have confronted this nation in times of industrial stress.

After a series of incidents that were widely interpreted as sabotage, strikes broke out in key industries in widely separated sections of the country.

Leading squabbles involved the Aluminum Company of America, a plant employing 7,500 workers, and the Vultee Aircraft corporation at work on government orders totaling $84,000,000.

Strike fever spread to Baltimore, where 2,000 city workers went out, demanding more money and pay for overtime, most serious public employees' strike in city's history.

The Aluminum strike was over company's refusal to discharge one employee who owed $12 back C. I. O. union dues.

The Vultee shutdown, also a C. I. O. matter, was blamed by U. S. Attorney General Jackson on "Reds." Workers were demanding raises of 50 to 75 cents an hour in pay.

Back of these scenes of labor stress stood the Dies committee, probing and publishing, charging the Nazis with responsibility for much and the Soviet agents with the rest of it all.

Jackson whipped back at Dies, stating he felt that the Dies group was accomplishing nothing, but breaking down the public confidence in the ability of the G-men to solve crime and keep order and safety in the nation.

The C. I. O. closed its convention by electing Philip Murray to John L. Lewis' post, Lewis thus carrying out his "step-down" promise of the presidential campaign. The C. I. O. then announced it would attempt to organize the Ford Motor plant, and in the same breath asked governmental investigation of any affiliations the company might have with Nazi interests.

OVERSEAS BITS

Mail—Lisbon air mail shipments were resumed, first flight carrying 3,000 pounds, a lot of letters.

Home—Stay home for Christmas is the German slogan this year, people being told that railroads will be needed for war purposes, and not for travel.

Surrender—Unconfirmed reports were that a first-line French battleship had surrendered to the British at Gibraltar.

Americanized—A veteran of the Argonne battle of American troops in France, seeing the Greco-Italian Pindus mountain fight, said the Greeks fought like the Yanks, from rock to rock and tree to tree.

Classes—W. L. White wrote from London that he couldn't understand Kennedy's statement that democracy was dead in England. He said all classes mix on equal footing when the bombs fall.

TWO MORE: Destroyers

CHARLES EDISON
An honor for his father.

Down at Kearney, N. J., they launched two more destroyers for Uncle Sam's navy. The two new ones were called the Edison and the Ericsson, names that dovetailed nicely. The pair were named after Thomas Alva Edison, the greatest of inventors, and John Ericsson, who invented the famous Monitor warship in the Civil war. The Monitor, it will be remembered, defeated the Merrimac in the first battle between ironclads in the history of the world.

Tom Edison's son, Charles, is governor-elect of New Jersey. His mother sponsored the Edison destroyer. A great-great-grand-niece of old Ericsson sponsored the sister ship, Mrs. Ruth Wallgren. The architect of the Monitor was born in Sweden, where they haven't yet forgotten him.

French

These were two of the new American destroyers. England had obtained some 50 of the old ones, and was asking for more, like Oliver Twist. Meanwhile, France still had 50-60 destroyers, and also 50-60 submarines, and big ones at that. But one French battleship was out of the picture.

It was reported from Madrid that a big 22,000 tonner of the Paris class was sitting at Gibraltar. Over this Frenchman flew the white naval ensign of the British fleet, and on board there was a crew of typical Limies. Just how it got there, under foreign control, nobody seemed quite to know, but everybody admitted this Paris class-mate was a valuable sea prize.

DIPLOMATS: In and Out

Two diplomatic travels caught public attention, one returning from Europe to the United States, Lord Lothian, and the other leaving the United States for France, new ambassador to Vichy, Retired Rear-Admiral Leahy.

Leahy, taking Bullitt's post after it was reportedly offered to and declined by General Pershing, was said to have been sent to France with friendly words from the White House, and offers of American aid to the destitute in occupied France during the winter.

It was not clear how this country planned to get the food to France in the face of Britain's final decision to continue a total food blockade, word of which was being brought back to this nation by Lothian.

The British ambassador, after a visit to his homeland to check up on war progress and Britain's war needs, was to ask this country for still stronger war aid.

Watchers figured that much of what Lothian wants for his country will be unobtainable until congress is in position to extend huge credits to London.

As the ambassador asked for wider aid to Britain, President Roosevelt announced army's newest and biggest bombers were earmarked for Britain in a trade for airplane motors, also in process of manufacture.

These bombers, with 3,000-mile range fully loaded with tons of bombs, will be used at once in sharpening the attack on German objectives, British war leaders said.

MISCELLANY:

Bombs—Two restaurant bombings, one in Philadelphia and the other in downtown Cleveland, were American repercussions of the Greco-Italian war, according to preliminary investigations.

T. B.—Medical men announced that Promin, new drug of the sulfanilamide group, was being tried out as an aid in combating tuberculosis.

Birds—The Bronx zoo traded a toucan for a kea, swapping with the Washington zoo. A toucan is an African cuckoo and a kea is a New Zealand bird with the slightly odd penchant for breaking sheep's backs with its beak.

Suicide—Dr. Mortimer J. Adler, U. of Chicago professor, suggested all the high school and college teachers of English commit suicide (academically), resign their jobs and allow some better method of education (like that at St. John's college, Annapolis) rush into "the vacuum."

Oil—A huge still at an Arkansas oil refinery was wrecked by a mystery explosion. G-men were called to investigate.

Roof—The roof of the Capitol at Washington being a bit weak, congress was moved out so that it could be repaired.

Fur Cape Comes Into Vogue With Hats and Muffs to Match

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

rocks and the ever-voguish black gown, the new fur capes make perfectly stunning wraps. See the cape shown to the right for evidence of its high-style appearance. This particular model is in gray. It can be interpreted to your own liking in such furs as krimmer, gray kidskin, squirrel to wear with your gray outfits. If you favor the very smart new cereal tones, order this cape made up in beaver, golden seal, mink, brown caracul or natural. All these pelts yield gracefully to the cape silhouette.

CAPE! Fur capes have come out in spectacular array this winter. Some are wrist length, while others go elbow deep. Among the "little furs" worn separately with a cloth coat, cunning shoulder capes are especially chic.

To add to the romance of this intriguing fur cape vogue come muffs to match, which together with hats of the same fur complete a very attractive ensemble.

Fur capes included in mid-winter collections are so versatile they interpret the casual and sporty or the regal and stately. They qualify for not only smart daytime wear but also for gala night occasions.

Your presence will add greatly to the grandstand scene this season if you flaunt a dashing spectator sports cape or leopard or ocelot fur. The tremendous demand for these spotted furs is so great that many dealers are finding it difficult to keep them in stock. The cape to the left in the picture is typical of what's "the latest" in fur fashions for casual daytime wear.

Speaking of the popular spotted furs, stores are showing perfectly charming accessory collar, belt and muff "sets" to wear with furless cloth coats or suits. Outdoor girls find special appeal in the stunning capes made of raccoon with hats and muffs to match.

With the smart wool daytime fracks and the ever-voguish black gown, the new fur capes make perfectly stunning wraps. See the cape shown to the right for evidence of its high-style appearance. This particular model is in gray. It can be interpreted to your own liking in such furs as krimmer, gray kidskin, squirrel to wear with your gray outfits. If you favor the very smart new cereal tones, order this cape made up in beaver, golden seal, mink, brown caracul or natural. All these pelts yield gracefully to the cape silhouette.

Brown furs are particularly good this season. Stress is placed on brown furs with black. Women of discriminating taste are topping their chic afternoon black dresses and suits with capes of marten, mink, dyed fox and sealskin hats, capes and muffs. These handsome brown pelts look good with any costume, whatever its color scheme.

Among the most attractive fashions of the season is the costume that tops a gay plaid wool dress (made very simply with a seal wrist-length cape and a jaunty seal turban to match—plus a muff of course.

Ermine evening fur capes are very young looking with their bright red linings. Another fur luxury is the sable cape, and mink rates ace high for evening capes and jackets with muffs and other accessories to match.

By way of a suggestion, if you are planning to have your last winter fur coat "done over," why not have it made into a fashionable cape? Many women are doing just that. Of course if your budget permits buying a spic and span new cape you couldn't make a better purchase.

Dinner Shirt

If you are abreast with the times in matter of modern fashion parlance, "dinner shirt" is exactly what you will call the new dressy blouse shown here which can be worn to informal dine and dance parties. This attractive dinner shirt with waistband and pleated front is fashioned of rose-colored silk triple sheer. It is a very much up-to-date affair. It takes on a glitter-embroidery accent across its yoke where a horizontal floral motif is done in sparkle-sparkle paillettes and tiny beads. The sprightly black velvet colar on the model's pretty head gives chic accent to this charming ensemble.

Dude Ranch Clothes Add

'Dash' to Sports Wear
Campus girls are thrilled with the idea of dude ranch clothes for sport wear. They especially like plaid flannel shirts, studded belts and fringed suits for roughing it and the latest is to wear riding boots to replace galoshes.

Long-Haired Fur-Felts

Stage New 'Comeback'
Often a fashion that has dropped out of the picture for many a season stages a revival that makes old fashion become new fashion. This is especially true in the case of the long-hair fur felt hat which is again becoming popular.

These big picturesque nonchalant furry shaggy felts feature high in the fashion "picture." They come in fascinating colors and all they need is a quill jauntily positioned and a deft turn here and there to the brim to give the dash required.

Amusing, and chic to the uttermost are the new little hats of raccoon.

South American Clothes

Influence New Fashions
South American costumes are inspiration for modern clothes. The vivid colors and startling combinations of color sound a gay note in contrast to the vogue for black that has prevailed so long and is still holding its own. The South American trends also make lavish use of braids, embroideries and fringe.

Old Chinese Costumes

Enter Fashion Picture
Fashion is in a mood for borrowing ideas from the rich costumes of Chinese origin. Mandarin tunics, dragons embroidered on yellow wool dresses, sleek straight silhouettes, pompadors lacquered smooth and high, chrysanthemums for coiffure adornment, all of which are entering the winter fashion picture.

Pastel Felts

A most charming fashion has been launched in a way of pastel felt hats trimmed in flowers. The possibilities are endless with promise of headgear that will flatter to the point of achieving a new high in glamour and allure.

LET'S STOP THE UNUSUAL OC-UPATION OF DESK CARVING

If you are one of the many pupils to have a desire to carve on something all of the time, suppose to bring a piece of wood instead of using the desks. Of course, we all know that you would like for everyone to know who your best boy or girl friend was during a certain time, but please have it announced if it is so important to you.
The younger pupils who will be in high school long after you have graduated will probably not be interested in anything you carve on the desk. So let us all remember, please, for the sake of your desk and your modesty, let's stop this unusual occupation.

FOOTBALL BANQUET

The McLean Tigers and their fans gathered for the last game of the season, Nov. 29. Under the direction of the referee, Rev.
W. Myrose, Margaret Combs, tiger queen, sent a long kickoff down field to start the game. Recovering a fumble, Co-capt. Monroe Combs took charge for a first down. With an accordion as a help, Glenda Joyce snagged a long forward pass that brought cheers from the crowd.
During the game, Bobby Campbell injured out of danger, and Kenneth Mullen took charge at time out.
Taking charge here, the brass quarter got off a flying start to score a touchdown. During the half, refreshments consisting of tiger steak, kato shoulder pads, pigskin lacings, tiger soothing salve and similar foods were served. After the half, Mr.
Myer introduced the fans, most of whom spoke in appreciation of the game. We scored again with the tiger quartet, followed by a conversation by Robert Gibson. Under the direction of Dr. Batson, we got off cheer for the Tigers. With a look at this year's stars, and a glimpse at next year's stars, we gave that "Old Old Tiger Line" a workout and retired until next year.

rest you can figure out for yourself.
Sunday Night, Dec. 1

They picked up Buddy Dunn, and miss the next thrilling episode of this exciting adventure.

BASKETBALL MEETING

Mr. Croyer and Mr. Cunningham called a meeting of the girls' basketball club to see if they wanted to play basketball or not. They decided they would not play because the girls did not make enough money to finance it. They decided to play soft ball.

PROPER MANNER OF DISPLAYING
THE FLAG

7. When the flag is displayed from a staff projecting horizontally or at an angle from a window sill, balcony or front of building, the union of the flag should go clear to the peak unless the flag is at half-mast. When the flag is suspended over a sidewalk from a rope extending from a house to a pole at the edge of a sidewalk, the flag should be hoisted out from the building toward the pole, union first.

8. When the flag is displayed in a manner other than by being flown from a mast it should be displayed flat, whether indoors or out. When displayed either horizontally or vertically against a wall, the union should be uppermost and to the flag's own right; i. e. to the observ-er's left. When displayed in a window, it should be displayed the same way. When festoons, rosettes or drapings are desired, bunting of blue, white and red should be used, but never the flag.

F. H. T. PARTY

A Thanksgiving party was given by the members of the McLean F. H. T. chapter last Thursday evening in the grade school gymnasium, which was decorated with the club colors, blue and white.
Games were played and refreshments were enjoyed by the following members of the F. H. T. Club: Hazel Smith, Elva Blankenship, Maxine
Goodman, Shirley Raye Glass, Billie
Wilhelm, Ora Beesinger, Dora Mae
Overton, Bobby Crisp, Zora Petty, Frances Hudzetz, Lois Wyatt, Mildred Henley, Iona Price, and the sponsor, Miss Helen Hanshu.

SNOOPER

Bonnie Bell, we hear that every other day is Tommy's. Who gets the most days, Oran or Tommy?
You know there are only seven days a week.
My, my, Frances S., did we see you at the banquet with Robert B.?
Miss Hanshu, what went with that big college ring with the red set?
The freshmen got off to a good start. We saw David and Alice Billie Friday night.
Madge, what are you trying to do,
rob the cradle?
These redheads are really swell, aren't they, J. M.?
Evonne, we hear you didn't have a date Friday night. What do you call that big blonde?
We heard a certain book really got around: how about the owner?

BAND CONCERT DEC. 19

This week the band has been practicing popular, classical and contest music for the concert that will be given Thursday, Dec. 19, in the high school auditorium. The concert will be free, and the public is invited.

F. H. T.

F. H. T. met in regular session Tuesday morning, Dec. 3. The house was called to order by Vice President Maudie Dale Woods. The roll was called and minutes of the last meeting were read.
Business was discussed and the members decided to have an initiation service Friday night, Dec. 6.
Billie Wilhelm was elected chairman of the scrapbook committee and Elva Blankenship was elected chairman of the bulletin board.
Miss Isla Wolfe of Pampa made a speech which was enjoyed by each member. The meeting was adjourned.

SENIOR MUSIC CLUB MEETS

The senior Music Club met Dec.
3, at the studio of Mrs. Willie Boyett.
The program was based on Beethoven's life, with three of the members playing some of his compositions.
The following members were present: Betty Floyd, Bobby Crisp, Alva
Raye McDonald, Shirley Glass, Ercy
Glen Fulbright, Duella Wood, Viola
Appling, Mary Evelyn Foster, Mary
Lee Abbott, Frances Hudzetz, Billy
Corts and Ruth Strandberg. Visitors

Household
Hints

By
Mrs. Arreva
D. French who conducted
The News'
Happy Kitchen
Cooking School

To prevent vegetables, macaroni or rice from boiling over, add a small piece of butter to the water.
It is a good idea to use newspaper and rub all grease from the kitchen range while still hot.
For a "dark" chocolate cake, use dark brown sugar and add half a teaspoon of powdered cloves.
Leftover rice or macaroni mixed with cooked meat, makes a good filling for green peppers or tomatoes.
The latter need to be cooked only 20 minutes in a moderate oven.
After peeling onions, rub celery salt over the hands before washing and the odor will disappear.
Fruit cookies are made more delicious by adding chopped walnuts to the fruit filling.
Place biscuit or onion on top of cabbage and the odor will not escape the boiler.

Wisdom a Coin

Wisdom is the true and unalloyed coin, for which we ought to exchange all things; for this, and with this, everything is in reality bought and sold—fortitude, temperance, and justice; and, in a word, true virtue subsists with wisdom.—Plato.

We Can All Be EXPERT BUYERS

● In bringing us buying information, as to prices that are being asked for what we intend to buy, and as to the quality we can expect, the advertising columns of this newspaper perform a worth while service which saves us many dollars a year.

● It is a good habit to form, the habit of consulting the advertisements every time we make a purchase, though we have already decided just what we want and where we are going to buy it. It gives us the most priceless feeling in the world; the feeling of being adequately prepared.

● When we go into a store, prepared beforehand with knowledge of what is offered and at what price, we go as an expert buyer, filled with self-confidence. It is a pleasant feeling to have, the feeling of adequacy. Most of the unhappiness in the world can be traced to a lack of this feeling. Thus advertising shows another of its manifold facets—shows itself as an aid toward making all our business relationships more secure and pleasant.

LOSS BY FIRES GREAT ON FARMS

Fires Are Preventable, Expert Asserts.

By PROF. J. B. RODGERS
(Agricultural Engineering Department, University of Idaho.)

Loss from rural fires averages $400 every minute of the day, a loss the village home owner or farmer might reduce by his own efforts.

The farmer in particular, he points out, must be his own building inspector, zoning officer and in an emergency his own fireman and fire chief. If he does a good job in each case, he can do much toward reducing an annual rural fire loss of about $225,000,000.

When possible, farm buildings should be in line at right angles to prevailing winds. With this arrangement there is less danger of soot being carried from one building to another. Roofs of major buildings should be of fire resistant material. Chimneys may be cleaned of soot using a few bricks or rocks in a sack at the end of a long rope. Furnaces, stoves, and stove pipes properly installed and inspected regularly reduce a common cause of fire.

A system of grounded conductors gives protection against lightning. Carelessness in handling lamps and lanterns, in disposing of ashes, in storing and handling gasoline and kerosene and in allowing rubbish to accumulate where it becomes a fire hazard accounts for many farm fires.

The U. S. Engineers report that many serious rural fires have been avoided because ladders were at hand and water or fire extinguishers were readily available. This is a safety measure that is always highly desirable.

Overcrowding Has Effect On Poultry Cannibalism

While feather picking, cannibalism, and egg eating are in part the result of dietary deficiencies, overcrowding is important among the causes, according to H. W. Titus of the federal bureau of poultry nutrition. It has been found that feather picking is less likely to occur if the diet contains about 20 per cent of barley or oats.

"Cannibalism" is a term used by some poultrymen in referring to the habit sometimes developed by chickens of picking one another's toes, combs, vents, feathers, and other parts of the body. Used in this sense, the term also includes feather picking; it is however, more common to restrict its use to those cases where blood is drawn.

Cannibalism is of most frequent occurrence in overcrowded flocks, but it may be due to some as yet unknown deficiency of the diet because the feeding of oats and barley appears to be of some value in prevention. The use of ruby-colored window panes and ruby-colored electric lamps in the poultry house is often a simpler means of preventing cannibalism.

Egg eating is also likely to develop as a result of overcrowding; however, the tendency to eat eggs is markedly stimulated by a deficiency of calcium in the diet.

Worm-Free Chicks Safer From Colds

Danger of colds in the poultry flock will be lessened by keeping the birds free from worms. Colds and worms often run hand in hand, since worms lower body resistance.

Watch the droppings and examine the intestinal tract of birds dressed for eating. If worms are found, treat the flock with individual worm capsules. A number of satisfactory worm expellers are now available on the market.

After treatment, thoroughly cleanse and disinfect the poultry house. Remove and burn all droppings or scatter them in a far-away field. Also keep the birds confined for 36 hours.

Birds with colds should be protected against drafts and overcrowding, and fed a balanced ration.

Sale of Fruit, Vegetables Doubles in Twenty Years

Average per capita consumption of fruits and vegetables in America is at least two to three times greater than 20 years ago, and maybe six to ten times that of 40 years ago, according to officials of the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea company. This greater domestic consumption is attributed to modern refrigeration and improved transportation.

Burn Out Stumps

Old stumps can be burned out with the use of saltpeter. First, put a hole two inches in diameter deep into the stump with a drill or hot iron. Drop two ounces of saltpeter into this hole and fill to the top with water. Plug up the hole entrance and leave until the liquid has been absorbed into the wood. Then fill the hole with paraffin or fuel oil and set on fire. If enough of the chemical has been used, the fire should burn until the stump is consumed.

Pattern No. Z9633.

SLEEPY, an oilcloth burro, is as lazy as he can be. He just nods and sleeps all day, and seems not to care what the children do with him. But he has three redeeming recommendations: a cute personality, ease of making, and his ability to part from fingerprints with the whisk of a damp cloth.

Z9633, 15c, brings outlines and directions for this 12-inch burro with the green yarn mane and red halter. Send your coin.

There's a Good Reason You're Constipated!

When there's something wrong with you, the first rule is: get off the cause. If you are constipated, don't endure it first and "cure" it afterward. Find out what's giving you the trouble.
Chances are it's simple if you eat the super-refined foods most people do: meat, white bread, potatoes. It's likely you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean a lot of food. It's a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a bowel movement.
If this is your trouble, you should eat a natural "bulk" producing food—such as one as the crunchy, toasted, ready-to-eat cereal, Kellogg's All-Bran. Eat it often, drink plenty of water, and "Join the Regulars." All-Bran is made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek. If your condition is chronic, it is wise to consult a physician.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strains on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pain, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.
Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your druggist!

Birthday Greetings!

Only a day separates the birthdays of two very prominent men, although widely separated by years and miles. Dr. Francis E. Townsend will celebrate his seventy-fourth birthday on December 13. King George VI of England will celebrate his forty-fifth birthday on December 14. This is the second birthday which King George will celebrate under wartime conditions.

This is the time of the year when one's favorite magazine is marred with a cardboard subscription blank. We would not be caught using one of these nuisance blanks and are led to wonder if anyone appreciates the things.

The recent storm shows the fallacy of municipal ownership of a light and power plant. Any small town would be bankrupted by such a calamity, but private companies keep an emergency reserve that is never kept by municipalities. There is little comparison of the benefits of private and public ownership in times like this.

The remark was made at the chamber of commerce meeting Monday night that should the city buy another gas well, it would take some $3,000 dollars of taxable values away from the school district. There is no good argument for public owned utilities being tax free in competition with private enterprise that pays taxes on everything it owns.

There are still some people who think that the public is entitled to know how its tax money is spent, but despite laws on the subject, most tax spending boards seem to take the attitude that it is none of the public's business what they do with the public's money. We have come a long way from the time that a public office was a public trust and the office holder was considered a servant of the public.

Hackberry and honey locust trees came through the ice storm better than other varieties. The hackberry is native to this section, and the thornless honey locust is one of the best, if not the best tree, for this section. The Chinese elm has won its popularity for quick growth, but it has many faults that the honey locust does not have. Many people confuse the honey locust with the black locust, but they are entirely different trees.
