Monthly Report on Red Cross Production

By Mrs. O. G. Stokely, WPC
SEWING. This report is not accurate. Some cards had hours and no names, some had the same hours marked on both the small time cards and the larger production cards, and some workers failed to have any cards.

The larger cards are used only when taking garments out, or when the entire garment is made in the room. The smaller cards are for the time spent when no garment is made, such as tying, packing, finishing or partially made garments.

Please mark cards 1943, and put date on the card when garments are taken out, and again when they are checked in, with the number of hours credited for each garment. This will take only a short while for each one of us, but will save hours of time if one person has to check and re-check.

Please cooperate with us on this, since these reports are requested from headquarters from every chapter. We want every worker to have all the credit due her, and it will help our chapter for the area office to know how many volunteers we have.

This report is for two months, January and February. In the future they will be given each month in The News, and sent in to headquarters quarterly.

The operating gowns are finished and ready for shipment. They look very nice, indeed, and we are sure that everyone who had a part in making them must feel amply repaid. The quota called for 95, but 106 were made, which shows they were carefully cut. A report was sent in to the area office January 23, showing 50 gowns completed. The remaining 56 have been made since that time. This material was received September 9.

Individual workers report the following: Mesdames T. E. Crisp, cutting (no hours given); Byrd Gull, 7 gowns; J. I. Gladney, 3 hours; Mattie Graham, 12½ hours; Leo Gibson, 6 hours; C. O. Goodman, 6 hours; Joe Hindman, 4 gowns, 24 hours; Callie Haynes, 13 hours; J. L. Hess, 1 hour; J. E. Kirby, 20 hours; T. A. Massay, 4 gowns, sewing labels, 4 hours; R. L. McDonald, 2 gowns, 12 hours; A. S. Parker, 11 hours; J. R. Phillips, 1 hour; J. W. Story, 28 hours; O. G. Stokely, 3 gowns, 7½ hours sewing; Amos Thacker, cutting, 35 hours; R. S. Watkins, 75 hours; W. B. Upham, 6 gowns, 36 hours; K. E. Windom, 6 hours; J. B. Hembree, 2 afghans, 50 hours; S. B. Fast, 2 afghans, 50 hours; Miss Kate Morgan, 5½ hours.

KNITTING. This quota of yarn was received January 23. We have a fine record on this, since most of it will be finished and ready to be shipped in a short while. The following has turned in finished work. This is all nicely done. The quota is 40 mufflers, 28 pairs of wristlets, 2 sweaters. Mesdames R. N. Ashby, 12 pairs of wristlets, 5 hours each; 1 muffler, 20 hours; Alexander, 3 wristlets, 15 hours; 1 muffler, 20 hours; Wilson Boyd, 1 muffler, 20 hours; C. E. Cooke, 1 muffler, 20 hours; Carl Jones, 1 muffler, 20 hours; J. W. Myrose, 1 muffler, 20 hours; Moreman (Alaand), 2 mufflers, 40 hours; C. G. Nicholson, 5 pairs wristlets, 25 hours; Swartz, 2 pairs wristlets, 10 hours; O. G. Stokely, 2 mufflers, 40 hours; J. W. Story, 2 mufflers, 40 hours; Joe Hindman, 1 sweater, 20 hours; E. J. Lander, 1 sweater, 20 hours; Mr. C. E. Cooke, 1 muffler, 20 hours.

SURGICAL DRESSINGS. (Jan. and Feb.) Mesdames R. L. Appling, 11½ hours; Willie Boyett, 40; Dorothy Beck, 2½; Wilson Boyd, 3; Fred Bentley, 2½; W. E. Bogan, 11; Bryan Burrows, 24; C. E. Cooke, 78½; T. J. Coffey, 11; D. C. Carpenter, 45; C. M. Carpenter, 8; Keith Caldwell, 3; George Colebank, 2½; Ladd M. Clark, 2; Orville Cunningham, 10; (Continued on back page)

A Womack ambulance took John Lantz to Amarillo Sunday.

Miss Jo Ann Campbell of Amarillo visited in McLean last week end.

Red Cross Services to the Armed Forces

As casualties of war increase claims work will develop into one of the most active phases of Red Cross services to the armed forces, according to H. C. Rippey, chairman of the McLean Red Cross chapter.

He was taking cognizance of Secretary of War Stimson's recent warning that Americans must expect heavy casualties soon, and of the heavy fighting in which United States forces are now engaged in North Africa.

The War Department, in sending notifications of death to persons in this county, will advise the next of kin to seek the assistance of the McLean Red Cross chapter in presenting their claims. The War Department also refers to the Red Cross those families who wish to apply for pay allotments when men are reported missing, interned, captured or besieged.

The new chapter budget was fixed with these growing obligations in view, and the March Red Cross war fund appeal for $125,000,000 nationally is based on the estimated needs for Red Cross services that will come with action on new American fronts, Chairman Rippey explained.

Baptist Women Hear Book Review

A review of the home mission book "They Need not Go Away" was given by Mrs. C. O. Huber Monday evening at the home of Mrs. R. L. Appling.

2181 Register at McLean School

Some 2181 persons were registered for war ration book No. 2 at the McLean high school last week. The teachers handled the job in record time with no mutilations and no mistakes, other than that six books were taken from the table without the validation stamps being affixed. These books are valueless and the holders will have to bring them in to the McLean food panel at the city hall to have the stamps affixed before grocers will be allowed to accept the ration stamps.

It is expected that files for obtaining both ration books Nos. 1 and 2 where needed will be announced shortly.

Myrose Speaker at Lions Luncheon

Rev. J. W. Myrose, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, was guest speaker at the Lions luncheon Tuesday, outlining the army and navy campaign set-up.

Red Cross Roll Call Chairman Cooper reported progress on the war fund drive, and Tall Twister McLaughlin fined all members who were not wearing Red Cross tags, as well as collecting fines for various infractions of his arbitrary rules.

THE LEGISLATIVE GRAPEVINE

By Senator Grady Hazelwood
Your Texas Legislature, now in its seventh week, is ready to square off and fight it out on pending bills. You might wonder how legislation would be controversial during war times, but this is usually true in the Texas legislature. And it is not surprising when you consider how very large Texas is, which naturally gives us a great contrast of interests.

Some members of the legislature from the large cities were elected on dripping wet platforms and advocate the open saloon and sale of liquor by the drink. There are those from industrial areas who are out-fight against old age pensions, while others from the heavily populated negro and Mexican areas believe strongly in pensions but oppose the payment of an average of more than $12 to $15 per month because if paid more the recipients would feed all their children, also. In the Panhandle and West Texas the standards and costs of living are much higher and thus the demand for higher payments. And then there are those who are spendthrifts with the State's money because their particular districts are paying very little tax money to the support of the state government. You will remember that natural resources are bearing the greater portion of the tax burden for Texas' general revenue fund together with the cigarette and liquor taxes.

Strangely enough bills curbing the liquor traffic may find easy going this session. What a paradox to have the wets and drys joining hands in complete accord in these matters. Reason—the wets fear almost statewide prohibition through the local option route and are willing to make many concessions. They remember the last war.

The redistricting bill would give the Panhandle and West Texas four or five new representatives and one new senator, but the senate redistricting bill, of which the writer is co-author, is in a sub-committee with the "palbearers." The public does not know it, but this bill is already dead. Just another case of East Texas vs. West Texas, and everyone knows where the votes are. The heretofore thickly populated sections of Texas have the votes in the senate and only with these same votes can they ever be deprived of this disproportionate representation. The writer is author of Senate Bill 81 which he passed through the senate the past week exempting all members of the U. S. armed forces of world war 2, with honorable discharges, and the children of all members who were killed or died in service, from the future payment of all tuition, fees and charges in all of the state supported colleges and universities in Texas. The bill also included all members of the WAVES and WAAOS.

Baptist Speaker

DR. ROBERT G. LEE, Pastor Bellevue Baptist Church of Memphis, Tennessee, who will speak on the Baptist Hour network Sunday morning, March 7, at 7:30.

Red Cross War Fund Drive on

The drive for the Red Cross war fund and annual roll call began Monday and is now on in earnest in the McLean community.

According to Roll Call Chairman John W. Cooper, the results thus far have been gratifying, citizens showing an interest in the drive that is making the work of the solicitors easier than usual.

Chairman Cooper says that everyone will be given a chance to contribute, and while we have a month in which to reach our quota, it is hoped that the money may be raised within a few more days.

The advertising messages in The News this week are directed toward finishing the drive in a good way.

Winton-Moore Rites Said at Pampa

Nuptial rites were said at the Central Church of Christ in Pampa Sunday morning for Miss Lorene Winton and Mr. Alton Moore.

The bride is a teacher in the Pampa schools and a former teacher here. The groom is a former McLean resident, a son of Former Justice of the Peace and Mrs. T. O. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore will make their home in Pampa for the present.

Miss Nellie Anderson of Shamrock has accepted a position at Meador Cafe.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Williamson and daughter of Wheeler visited in the C. P. Callahan home Sunday.

R. W. Osborn was taken to Pampa Saturday for an appendectomy. He was taken by a Womack ambulance.

Field Representative Durkee of the American Red Cross was in McLean this week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Wood were in Pampa on business Friday.

Mrs. Siler Hopkins and children of Pampa visited here Friday.

C. M. Carpenter was in Pampa Monday.

A Womack ambulance brought D. R. Rice home from Pampa Friday.

C. P. Callahan made a business trip to Childress Friday.

Cong. Worley Speaks in Congress Monday

Mr. Speaker:

Before the Japs attacked us at Pearl Harbor I introduced in this House a bill to eliminate strikes in war industries. Shortly thereafter the President by executive order adopted one provision of the bill, namely the creation of a board to settle disputes between management and labor, and provided that the findings of this board should be final.

Today while labor disputes shamefully threaten to stop the West Coast production of the bombing planes we must have, I re-introduce that bill and provide that if the findings of the National War Labor Board are not adhered to by either management or labor, and that if such lack of adherence might cause a stoppage or interruption in production then the government of the United States shall be empowered to take over the operation of such plant. My bill would guarantee the continuous production of any war weapons regardless of how long labor and management might be involved in dangerous and delaying disputes.

All of the people of this country have fervently hoped that both management and labor had quit scrapping and had turned their fighting energies to answering the challenge of production. We had all hoped that everything would be forgotten except the struggle of bringing this war to a quick and victorious end.

For eight months I had the high honor and privilege of being on active duty with the United States Navy. In many of the widely scattered areas of the Southwest Pacific I saw with my own eyes how badly planes were needed. I know that planes or the lack of them will mean the difference between life and death for multiplied thousands of our men.

It makes my blood boil to see a petty, trivial dispute stop or even slow down the production of these planes and it makes no difference whether such a dispute is the fault of management or labor.

One day's production of bombing planes could have saved Java. A week's production at our present rate might well have saved our raw rubber resources. Lack of air power contributed largely to our first set back in Africa. This very day we need more planes to smash Germany's submarine bases and to blast Hitler's arms factories. We need more planes to push Rommel and his hordes into the Mediterranean. We need more planes all over the world and it's impossible to hope for victory without superiority in the air.

It is clear that the fault in these disputes lies somewhere between management and labor. Now it seems strange to me that if a buck private or an officer fell down on the job he would be court martialed; how then can the guilty parties who knowingly contrive to slow down or stop production be permitted to go scot free? Do they not realize that the boys on the battle fronts are fighting for our lives and for the very lives of those who by their actions retard or deny badly needed weapons of war?

Is this justice? Is this part of our victory drive? Is this the way we answer the pleas of our boys all over the world? Is this the way we hope to win the war?

It seems that there are still many who spend more time thinking of fat profits than they do about Hitler and Hirohito. There are still some in this country who believe that we have a God-given right to cash in on the tragedy of war. There are still others who believe, even when we know the true strength of our enemies, (Continued on back page)

LIBRARY NEWS

By Mrs. Lady Bryant
You hear talk of the might of armies in khaki, armies in blue, armies in gray. There is also a mighty army clothed in buckram. Its divisions stand row on row in the library shelves; its weapons never rust; its truth goes marching on. Eight hundred books and over one hundred magazines, two hundred forty-nine library readers for January; seven hundred fifty-four books, seventy-two magazines, two hundred ten library readers for the month of February, 1943.

West of the River, Song of Bernadette, Storm Over the Land, Wilderness Wife—all best sellers for this month.

Many Deductions Allowed by Treasury On Income Tax; Every Worker Can Claim Credits Under the New Levy

By ALFRED SINGLER
Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Although wartime necessity demands that Uncle Sam collect the highest income taxes in history, there is nothing unpatriotic in taking advantage of legitimate ways to lower your payments, as provided by law.

Tax laws are carefully written instruments. In writing them, congress included a list of deductions which taxpayers may claim. These deductions were included for excellent reasons and with the expectation that all taxpayers who could honestly claim them would do so.

The big taxpayer usually finds it advantageous to hire an expert who is familiar with each permissible deduction. The smaller taxpayer is not so likely to secure outside assistance. The latter would do well to determine for himself the deductions he can make legitimately.

For the person who makes not more than $2,000 of taxable income—which means a single man earning not more than $2,500, or a married man or head of a family earning not more than $3,200—every $100 of deductions claimed will mean an $18.40 reduction in income taxes paid. Where larger incomes are involved, savings are proportionately greater.

The following are important deductions which will aid the average taxpayer.

You Can Deduct

License Fees, Business Expenses, Contributions, Interest, Taxes.

All contributions, for public purposes, made to the United States, any state, city or town, are deductible, as are contributions to a domestic nonprofit organization operated exclusively for religious, charitable, literary, educational or scientific purposes or for prevention of cruelty to children and animals. Church contributions include pew rent, assessments, etc. Organizations such as USO, Army and Navy Relief, Red Cross, community chests, etc., come under the charitable heading. Literary and educational organizations include such institutions as nonprofit colleges and schools, the Boy Scouts, voters leagues, and study groups. The scientific heading includes all nonpartisan scientific societies.

It is not permissible to deduct contributions made to a bar association, a medical association, a prohibition association, political campaign committees, volunteer fire companies, social fraternities, athletic clubs or gifts to needy friends or relatives.

Generally speaking the taxpayer may deduct any interest paid on borrowings, including business, personal and family debts. Because interest paid on behalf of a relative or friend is not a legal obligation on the taxpayer, such interest is not deductible.

As a broad general rule, the individual can deduct all taxes he personally pays to the tax collector, except federal income, estate and gift taxes and state and local benefit, inheritance, estate, legacy or gift taxes.

Federal taxes which are deductible include those on admissions, dues, telephone, telegraph, transportation, auto use, safety deposit boxes, etc.

Admission taxes collected at theaters and other places of amusement during 1942 amounted to 10 per cent. A 50 cent theater ticket, which cost the customer 55 cents, represents a 5 cent deduction.

Automobile owners are entitled to deduct state and local license fees, the federal use stamps (which cost $7.09 in 1942), driver's license fee and state gasoline tax. Automobile owners may not deduct the federal gasoline tax because it is constituted as a tax on the manufacturer and not on the consumer, even though it was passed along to him.

It is the general rule that the taxpayer gets credit only for those taxes levied directly upon him. For that reason state and federal taxes on cigarettes and liquor are not deductible. They are stamp taxes levied on the manufacturer or dealer.

The transportation taxes paid on railroad, airline and other personal transportation last year is deductible. The rate was 5 per cent of the fare for the first 10 months; 10 per cent for the last two months. The tax on transportation of goods, amounting to 3 per cent on all freight and express bills, is deductible.

Taxes imposed by the federal government on jewelry, furs and toilet goods are not deductible. They are excise taxes levied on the maker or dealer and are not collection taxes levied on the taxpayer.

Also deductible are traveling expenses required by one's employer when such expenses are not reimbursed by anything over salary, wages or commissions.

When your car is used partly for business and partly for private purposes, deduction is allowed only for the portion used for business, and then only when the driver is not reimbursed. The loss on the sale of a car, used partly for business and partly for private purposes, is divided similarly, but only when actually sold and not when used as a trade-in.

In addition to deducting the three-cent state tax on all gasoline used in your car, you can also deduct the cost of the gasoline and other supplies for business use of the machine.

Due to labor unions, assessments by unions for out of work benefits, but not for sick, accident or death benefits, cost of indemnity of fidelity bonds required by your employment, and cost of tools and patterns necessitated by the type of work, are deductible, but only if their life is less than one year. If their life is longer than one year the owner can discontinue depreciation only.

No deduction is permitted for medical and dental expenses, including accident and health insurance premiums, unless they exceed 5 per cent of your income. Any expense over 5 per cent of income, and up to a maximum of $1,250 for a single person or $2,500 for a family, may be deducted. This includes hospital bills, treatment, diagnosis and everything connected with medical and dental care.

Farmer Deductions

Wages, Seed, Repairs, Tools, Fertilizers, Depreciation.

In general, a farmer who operates a farm for profit is entitled to deduct from gross income as necessary expenses all amounts actually expended in carrying on the business of farming. The wages paid for hired labor are deductible. The value of products furnished by the farm and used in the board of hired labor is not a deductible expense, but food purchased and furnished to hired hands is deductible.

Farmers may deduct the cost of grain and hay, amounts paid for grinding and processing feed, amount paid for hire of machinery, cost of farm supplies, gasoline for farming, repairs and upkeep of cars.

Amounts expended for repairs and maintenance of farm buildings, (except the dwelling), fences, drains and other farm improvements, and for repairs and maintenance of farm machinery and equipment are deductible. Amounts expended for replacement of, or additions to, farm machinery, farm buildings, or other farm equipment of a permanent nature are not deductible as such expenditures are regarded as investment of capital which is returned to the owner through depreciation allowances during the useful life of the property.

The cost of small tools of short life may be deducted. The cost of commercial fertilizers and lime, the benefit of which is of short duration, is deductible as an expense. The amount expended in the restoration of soil fertility preparatory to actual production of crops and the cost of liming soil to increase productivity over a period of years are capital expenditures, and thus are not deductible.

Fees paid for advertising farm products; expenditures for stamps, stationery, account books and other office supplies purchased for farm use; expenditures for travel in connection with the farm business and other similar miscellaneous expenditures are deductible.

An allowance for depreciation of buildings, improvements, machinery, or other farm equipment of a permanent nature is deductible. The amount claimed on account of depreciation should not exceed the original cost of the property.

Repairs on depreciation on the dwelling occupied by the farmer or on his personal or household equipment are not deductible. It is not permissible to claim as a separate item depreciation on livestock or any other property included in the farmer's inventory, as such depreciation is taken care of in the reduced amount of the inventory at the close of the year. However, depreciation may be claimed on livestock acquired for work, breeding or dairy purposes which are not included in the inventory of livestock purchased or raised for sale.

Mrs. T. R. Jr. Serves Coffee and Sinkers

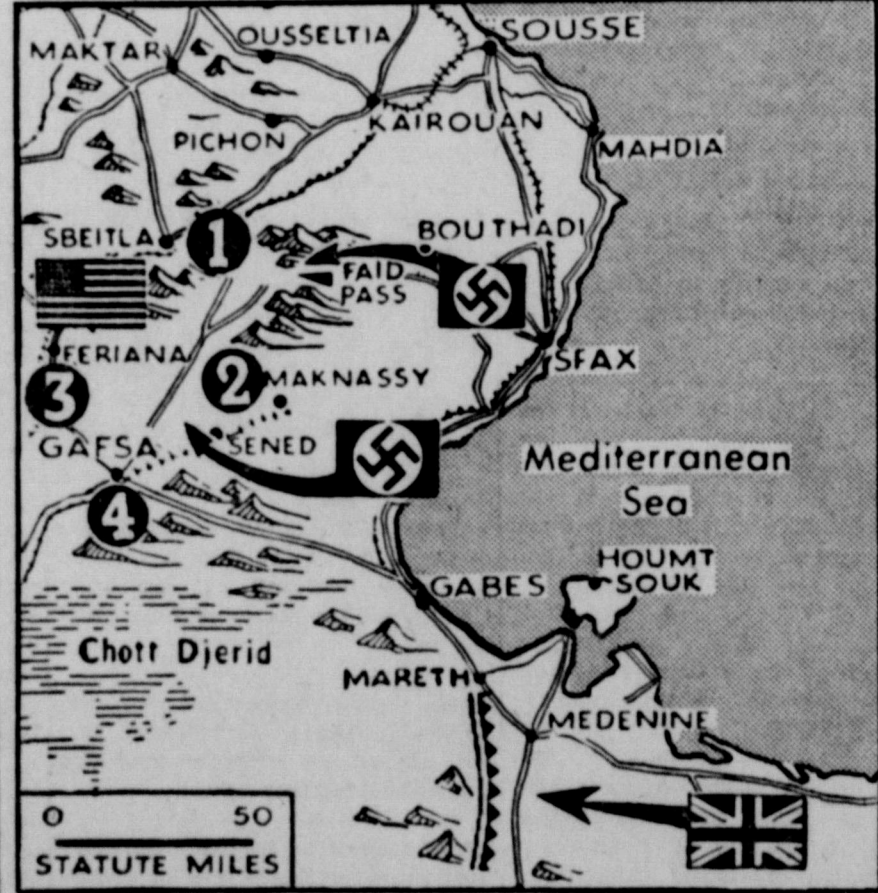

Three Yankee doughboys, just returned from field duty, are served coffee and doughnuts by Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, wife of Brig. Gen. Theodore Roosevelt, in the American Red Cross club in London. She is a daughter-in-law of Former President Theodore Roosevelt. Needless to say the boys relished the handout.

Where Yanks Faced Setback in Africa

The first big armament battle of North Africa gave a foretaste of the severe nature of the fighting which lies ahead of the Allies before the Axis can be cleared out of that front. With General Rommel's hardened tank fighters pressing westward to Sbeitla (1) and Feriana (3) from the Maknassy region (2), American troops were forced to re-form in the Tunisian hills to the north. The Allied forward base at Gafsa (4) had been abandoned earlier. The retirement from Gafsa was not completely unexpected.

Here's One Gang That Can Come Along!

As burdensome as the income tax may first appear, it allows for many deductions. Mr. Taxpayer pictured above is seen with a host of exemptions, including state gasoline tax, state sales tax, license fees, amusement tax, communications tax, charitable and religious contributions, etc. For every $100 the taxpayer can legitimately deduct, he saves $18.40 in taxes.

Record Income Reported for Nation in '42

How much money did everybody make in the United States in 1942? With the factories of the nation being thrown into high gear and the farmers producing record crops, national income jumped to almost $14 billion, the department of commerce reports. This was approximately a 20 per cent increase over 1941.

The department of agriculture figures that farm income reached $1 billion in 1942. That would represent an intake of $2,800 for every one of the 6 million farmers. A total of 79 billion dollars was paid out in wages and salaries. At the end of 1942, it was estimated that 58 million people were gainfully employed.

300 Kin Serve

Auxiliary Olivia Eubanks of the Second WAAC training center has 300 relatives in service but she is the only WAAC. There are enough members of her family, counting in-laws and third cousins, to make two companies.

Chief among those in service from Auxiliary Eubanks' viewpoint is her husband, Technical Sergt. Sidney J. Eubanks, who is overseas in the signal corps.

Editorial

By Jack Jones
This, the first week of March, marks the anniversary of Texas independence. This is not an outstanding birthday to our mad world of war, but it represents a people who fought to preserve a government by the people and for the people. This is ours, and as Texans we should be proud of our heritage which our fathers fought so unselfishly to establish. Years ago they faced the same cruel and selfish hatred as we today face, and they fought heroically to defend the right and just way of life.

FROM OUR DEFENDERS

Wilburn Lynch, M. H. S. '35, is now a torpedo man third class in the Navy. Writes Wilburn: "This navy is quite an organization; nevertheless, when the last Jap has joined his illustrious ancestors—Lugwood's leaving for the office is going to seem slow in comparison to my leaving Texas."

Tasso Pugh and Eugene Smart, M. H. S. '42, advise the boys back home to get dates while they may. Writes Gene (but this was before his first leave): "I've seen only one girl and she was in a show. She came out on the stage one time." These two brave sailor lads also complain that they have to scrub their uniforms with brushes run by hand. Just think what good housewives they are learning to be, girls.

Marvin Jones, former Tiger star for M. H. S., now a bombardier, writes, after being kept especially busy for several days, that his greatest ambition is to sleep late just once more. He adds in a more serious vein, "Make friends while you are in high school and don't let anything keep you from getting that diploma."

Cpl. Joe Hefner, M. H. S. '37, is an instructor in the air force. Do you have interesting bits of news from our boys now in service? We'll be glad to send it to our school columns if you will let us know about it.

NEW STUDENTS

Troy Bass, a new comer from Quail, has enrolled as a junior in our school. He is 17 years old, has brown hair and blue eyes. Troy's favorite sports are basketball and boxing. He plans to join the air corps when he finishes school.

Another new comer is Leona Yearwood, a freshman from Pampa. Leona is 15 years old, has black hair and brown eyes. She has no favorite movie stars or movies. Her favorite sport is volley ball.

FREDDIE THE FRESH ONE

This is yo' junior professor again saying "Education is yo' greatest need—come, chillun, let's read."

Since Don Steadman is back in school it just isn't the same ole place. Florene Matthews sighs around that there is still man power in the M. H. S. curriculum (two-bit word).

Joe Cooke came home from college for the week end and Ruth S. has the gleam back in her dark eyes (if you get what I mean).

Is there any way you can make a pair of dull blue eyes a nice brown? Pat Ballard is wacky over a pair that are dark brown and mine are just plain blue. I thought—oh, never mind what I thought.

Boy, that new red head, Jackie Kinard, really gets around. Now she is going with Eddie Owen. I say she gets around because I've decided to go with her myself.

Lemuel Ford says he doesn't like to court. But what about the little blonde from Lefors—Alice Billie Courts?

Betty Jo A. is a home girl—no doubt about it. It just makes her sick to leave McLean. Especially when she has to go to Shamrock and drop off at the Corner Drug. How about that, Viola? Colleen has been worrying about a certain cleaning bill, too.

Maurine Goodman and Mary Sue Drum weren't doing a bad job of cuddling a couple of boys Sunday afternoon in the show.

Ken Chilton came down from Amarillo Saturday night to visit Doris Cecil. I can't even get enough gasoline to go see her and I live right here in McLean. Speaking of Cecil, who was Dorothy waiting on Sunday afternoon?

I guess I just don't rate with Grace Smith any more. Bill Carpenter is really knocking my time around.

Ralph Ayres is gone—but not forgotten by Mildred Henley. She got a "sugar report."

Wonder if we have a case of "I don't want to walk without you, baby" between Johnnie Cubine and Shirley Glass?

Did anyone see the pretty little white flowers Mrs. Chaudoin had in her hair Monday? Cute. She states, "I feel very giddy."

The point in the rationing of canned stuff is don't run out of points. Jack Jones is already hunting a place to eat.

WHO'S WHO

In this great city of McLean not so many years ago—namely, April 3, 1926, was born John Kirby, the first clarinet player in the McLean band in the year of 1943. John plans to attend the University of Oklahoma and study petroleum engineering. If he is called into service he plans to join the navy.

He likes food in general, even shrimp, but especially likes apple pie and Spanish rice. Come one, come all kinds of girls—redheads, brunettes, blondes and mixtures—he likes them all, if they aren't "sillies."

Of all the movie actors and actresses, Betty Grable and John Carroll are "tops" in his opinion. John Kirby's hobby is collecting stamps and he has seven hundred stamps! He has a collection of match holders, also.

He belongs to the commercial club and also to the National Honor Society, for which we commend him highly.

John has become one of the outstanding students in the high school.

GRADE SCHOOL ENTERTAINS

The grade school band favored the high school student body Wednesday morning, Feb. 24, with a concert. The band played "America." This was followed by the pledge to the flag, led by Jimmy Batson. Two special numbers were given: an accordion duet by Glenda Joyce Smith and Billy Ferguson; and a vocal solo by Joan Howard.

Other numbers played by the band were: Star Spangled Banner, School

Parade March, Speed Our Republic, The Three Bears, novelty, with Glenda Joyce Smith as narrator; The Band Played On. The band was directed by Mrs. Carl Chaudoin.

Snooper Snooping

Wonder why Paul Miller is hanging around school these days. Oh, well, everybody knows it's because of Virginia Hale.

J. D. McClellan doesn't look like a bashful boy, but he just couldn't get up the nerve to ask Wanda Davis for a date.

Johnnie Mae Boyd grabbed up her dignity Thursday and ran after Joe Turner. She caught him, too.

A new dating couple are John Dwyer and Billie Marie Stewart. Betty Davis and Joe Pegrum were on a friendly basis Saturday night.

The feud may be on again by now. I guess Mary Hess doesn't know that this isn't leap year, 'cause she proposed to Gayle the other night.

I watched Flea Simpson and Frances Davis through the keyhole Saturday night. Wow! But woe is me, I had to sneeze! I also grabbed my dignity and ran.

Ruth Franks sure is a lucky girl. Just look at the soldiers she has hooked.

I HEARD that Bill Earles came back from Lubbock to see Elsie Holloway Saturday.

What's this we hear about Lou Ann Wall going with Jay Hanner? It seems Freddie Johnson was a little bit worried about Pat Ballard's match holders, also.

ON THE HOME FRONT

HERE the lid of a reclaimed phonograph cabinet is turned upside down and screwed to a wooden box to make a portable container for your mending. Half the time required for mending is usually taken up in getting everything together at a convenient time. This portable stand equipped and ready can be placed beside your easy chair in a jiffy with everything handy to make mending for victory a pleasant task.

If you can't find a pair of old metal drawer handles there are many designs at the dime stores made of composition and wood. The lid may be painted or stained as desired and the box will be masked by the full skirt tacked to the under part of the lid edge. If you wish to line the upper part, cut pieces of cardboard to fit the sides and bottom. Cover these with chintz; add a strip of belting ribbon to the side sections, catching it down to make holders for equipment; then glue the sections in place.

NOTE: If you missed the article which illustrated how the body of the phonograph cabinet was used, it is contained in BOOK 9, together with thirty-one other conservation plans. Copy of BOOK 9 will be sent for 10 cents plus 2 cents to cover postage and mailing. Address:

Who's News This Week

By Delos Wheeler Lovelace

NEW YORK.—First there were Art Nehf's own three World Series victories over the Yankees of the Ruthian years; no other pitcher can claim as many. Then came another three, obviously unmatched, two sons and a daughter. Now, in a drift of pungent smoke over the Solomons, Art Junior rakes up three Zeros.

The friends who walked and talked with Old Art—he is barely 50—when he was about the best left-handed pitcher of the twenties, read of young Art's three-timer and began to think back. Arthur Newcomb Nehf, Terre Haute-born and a graduate electrical engineer when John McGraw side-tracked him into the Polo Grounds, has lived so long in Phoenix, Ariz., that he is a legendary shadow across the big league trails, but the friends made him a man alive there once more. They made him a man to be remembered for more than baseball, too. They spoke of him as D'Artagnan, Porthos and Aramis spoke of Athos, the thoughtful, the just.

Art Junior did only what they expected of Art Senior's son when the Japs bore in from five compass points. He was scared but, "I knocked off three of those monkeys," and damaged the other two. Then, "They hit me and I couldn't do much so I ran like h—l," and crashed. Now, however, he is as fresh as new paint again.

In some such whirl of action Art Senior took his first game from the Yanks. For eight innings the bats of Ruth and the cocky others bore in from all the compass points. Nehf had a 1-0 score, one out and one on in the ninth when Home-Run Baker hit a ball like a bullet. A good judge who saw Johnny Rawlings race for it off second base still calls the stop the greatest play of baseball. High-pockets Kelly and the marvelous Frank Frisch, that day at third, finished the double play. That was in 1921. Nehf won his other two in '22 and '23.

IF Maj. Gen. Eugene Reybold hadn't decided 16 years ago that he was on the wrong track the army corps of engineers would jump for a different chief today. He was a big gun man then, ten years out of the coast artillery school at Fort Monroe; and come to think of it, pretty old to be making a fresh start, 42. But young enough.

Eleven years later, when the Mississippi went on a rampage and an army engineer was needed, he got the nod. The block and tackle he threw then has kept Old Man River quiet ever since.

Now a thick-set, firm-mouthed commander of 58, he directs all engineers through an encyclopedia of special jobs that this global war has added to the traditional bridge-building, map-making, camouflage and construction. Reports from Africa and Britain, where he has just been, are that nothing of any great shakes is lagging. Here and there the material may be a little short, but in such a pinch the army engineers work wonders with baling wire, shovels and the sergeant's motherly coaxing.

The general got his corps prepared for war a year ago when he streamlined it into nine divisional units, each overlapping those of the army's own nine service commands. The honor lists already give General Reybold a Distinguished Service Medal.

EVERY month fresh signs arise that after peace there will always be a better England. Now the word is out that this will be with some help from Ireland. King George taps Herbert Morrison, Londonderry born, Galway schooled in part, to be minister of town and country planning. He is to see that dream cities become visible where Nazi bombs have now heaped rubble.

The new minister already is home secretary, head of England's police. Morrison's father was a London bobby.

In a dozen other posts over the years the home secretary and minister of planning has become known as one of the government's most able executives.

A pleasanter boss than he is seldom to be found, but, despite this, he gets the work out in jig time. And without a trace of nonsense! He fires backtalking aids on the spot without batting an eyelid, and makes all his hands dig in. Yet never any harder than he digs in himself. He often can be found on the job long after the time clock has run down. As a younger man, his chunky figure, towled hair made a fine target for conservative students at debates in Cambridge university.

Simplicity of Spring Styles Encourages Home Sewing Idea

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

MORE and more the home sewing idea is taking on new interest among patriotic women who are eager to do their part in the cause of wartime thrift and fabric conservation.

To meet with government priority rulings even the smartest fashions are being designed with deliberate simplicity, so much so that whether one is expert at sewing or not it becomes an easy matter to stitch up a "basic" suit or dress that can be made to look as important as occasion demands with an artful use of accessories to give quick change personality.

For instance, the two-piece "torso" dress to the left in the above illustration can easily be made in a day or two. As to having "style" that will be outstanding in any group, there's no question about it. It is one of those enduring fashion-right types that you will be able to wear with perfect confidence right through the spring into the summer. Make it of jersey, rayon crepe or of a spun rayon weave. The addition of sparkling white lingerie touches or a boutonniere, or perhaps a big bow at the throat with a corresponding bow at the hipline, will make it equal to any daytime occasion. Other costume strategy would be to wear with it a hat, glove and bag ensemble in striking contrast color.

Another sound sewing investment for a smart spring turnout is a suit made of one of the crisp fabrics now so fashionable, such as faille or bengaline. These fabrics are amiable to weather changes and can be worn right through the summer. It is a suit of this type we are showing centered in the group. This model conforms in silhouette and detail to the WPB fabric-saving rule. Notice this "new" brief jacket (shorter length smartest for spring) with its cut-away lines and the stem-slim skirt, the hemline of which follows

Glazed Percalé

No matter how cold the winter, spring always arrives in time with its flowers. That reminder is carried in the floral design so colorfully patterned on these glazed percale pajamas and the brunch coat worn over them. The coat is quilted and flared, while the pajama trousers have tapered legs, as most of the newer types have. The oriental suggestion carried in this picturesque house costume is very evident.

Eggs by the Pound Instead of by Dozen

Trend Favors Both Buyer and Seller

A trend toward selling eggs by the pound instead of by the dozen is becoming evident in some sections of the country, and this is profitable both to the producer and the consumer, in the opinion of Myrtle Murray, home industries specialist of the Texas A. and M. college extension service.

Under present marketing practices, the consumer pays as much per dozen for extremely small eggs as for standard eggs which weigh two ounces each, or a pound and a half per dozen. Likewise, Miss Murray explains, the producer who markets standard size eggs or larger receives no price advantages for a better product.

Until the public and the trade accept the change from the dozen to pound basis, producers will have to obtain their premiums by offering high quality clean, infertile eggs correctly prepared for marketing.

An Indiana farmer hitching up his team of mules. There's plenty of use for a team these days.

This means that eggs should be gathered at least twice a day and kept in a clean wire basket until they are cool and ready for packing. They should then be graded as to size, putting the uniformly small eggs, the medium (24 ounces to the dozen) and large ones in separate containers. They should also be candled, and sort out the defective eggs.

Eggs should always be packed with the pointed end down. If packing materials have been used previously, care should be taken to see that they are clean. Avoid wrapping eggs in newspapers.

Miss Murray recommends that eggs be marketed at least twice a week so that consumers can be assured of fresh produce.

Rabbits

California is the leader in rabbit production although no complete figures for the nation are available. It is known that in the Los Angeles trade area, 1,600,000 pounds of rabbit meat have been sold in one year. The U. S. Rabbit Experiment station is located at Fontana, Calif., where studies are being made in breeding, fur and wool production and marketing. Rabbit raising has thrived in the West because the mild climate permits open air hutches.

Most of the income is made by selling rabbits for meat. This compares favorably with other meats in protein. It has less fat and costs less per pound than expensive cuts of beef and lamb.

This country has imported an average of nearly 91,000,000 pounds of dressed rabbit pelts and it would seem that there might be a bright outlook for selling furs and pelts. Efficiency studies show, however, that meat is the more dependable outlet. Because of the cost of stock, it requires more money to raise rabbits than poultry.

California raises more Angora rabbits than any other state. Much rabbit wool is imported and some California people have obtained a better price per pound for wool when it was spun into yarn at home and then sold to department stores.

Minerals for Hogs

Feed proper minerals to hogs at all times. Market hogs make cheaper gains, brood sows raise more thrifty pigs, and healthier hogs are produced when minerals are used. By using a protein supplement, such as a mixture of equal parts of cottonseed, peanut, or soybean oil meal with tankage, or shrimp meal, farmers can grow out their pigs and fatten their hogs with about half as much corn or sweet potatoes as when these feeds are used alone.

Filling stations are to be congratulated on their efforts to give pre-war service to motorists despite the rationing and other things that cut into their income. Station attendants are just as courteous as when things were booming for the stations, a fine commentary on the American spirit.

Many motorists have found that they did not need the amount of gasoline requested under the first assignment of ration books and have made application for reduced amounts. No motorist in this section has had to do without necessary gasoline and not too many cases of misuse of cards have been noticed.

Governor Stevenson is to be congratulated upon vetoing a purely local bill raising the salaries of the commissioners in a Texas county. Local bills are against the state constitution, but every legislature has had such bills railroaded through it. Even our community has not been guiltless in lobbying a local bill through. Governor

Stevenson is becoming more and more our kind of governor and Texas is fortunate to have a sane, thinking man at the helm during troublous times.

GIVE MORE THIS YEAR

The Red Cross has always been on hand whenever it is needed. War, flood, famine, disaster . . . it is the Greatest Mother of them all. Now, that we are at war, the Red Cross is working overtime trying to help our fighting men by giving them comfort and competent aid. The Red Cross is to be found in every fighting sector, unmindful of the hardships or the risks. When you are called on to donate to the Red Cross War Fund, give freely, because you are helping our boys in action by enabling the Red Cross to reach them and give them aid. Your contribution may help your own boy "over there."

ELECTION NOTICE

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
 COUNTY OF GRAY,
 CITY OF McLEAN.

To the qualified voters of the City of McLean, Gray County, Texas, please take notice that an election will be held on Tuesday, April 6th 1943, in the City of McLean, Gray County, Texas, at the City Hall in said city, for the purpose of:

Electing a City Mayor,
 Electing two City Aldermen,
 Electing a City Secretary,
 Electing a City Marshal.

Every person who has attained the age of twenty-one years, who has resided in the State of Texas twelve months and within the corporate limits of the City of McLean, Gray County, Texas, six months prior to the date of said election, and is a qualified voter under the laws of the State of Texas, shall be entitled to vote at said election.

No person shall be eligible to any of said offices unless he possesses the requisites for voters at such election.

E. L. Cubine has been appointed to serve as presiding officer of said election, and he shall select two judges to assist him in holding the same.

Said election shall be held in the manner prescribed by law for holding elections.

Witness my hand and seal of office this 2nd day of March, 1943.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

The ordinary machine gun is too cumbersome for our Marines, especially for parachute troops. So the Marines have adopted new models of the Reising sub-machine gun, a .45-caliber weapon.

The new gun used by the paratroops is a compact model with a pistol grip and a steel-frame stock which folds out of the way when not in use. You can help buy these for our Boys in the Solomons and elsewhere with your purchase of War Bonds. Join the Payroll Savings Plan and let's "Top that ten percent."

Mrs. Burl Willis of Borger and Miss Dean Pillion of Lamesa were week end guests of Miss Nora Isabel Pett.

WITH THE CHURCHES

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

John W. Myrose, Pastor
 Sunday School, 10, F. H. Bourland, superintendent. We welcome you to our study and worship. There is a class for you. Come this Sunday.
 Morning worship, 11. Sermon by the pastor; special music by the choir. If you are a new comer and have no church home we invite you to worship with us. Come to the House of the Lord.
 There will be no evening service, as the pastor will preach at Denworth at night.
 March 8-10 the pastor will attend a Seminar on Faith and Life, at Dallas, where several of the leaders of our church will lead the ministers of the state in study and devotional periods.
 Tuesday—the ladies meet at the church parlor at 2:00 p. m. for Bible study.
 Wednesday—the choir practices at 8 p. m. Come, help with the Easter music. The junior choir will not meet this week, but will on the following Wednesday after school.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

C. O. Huber, Pastor
 10:00 a. m. Sunday School, J. S. McLaughlin superintendent.
 11:00 a. m. Morning Worship, "Courage for Conquest."
 7:00 p. m. Training Union, Miss Georgia Colebank, director.
 8:00 p. m. Evening Worship, "Choosing God or Gropping in Condemnation."
 This is our last Sunday before our revival meeting. Through March 14 to 24 we shall give ten days to definite evangelism under the leadership of Rev. Douglas Carver. Let's not let the chilly mornings and the late evenings detract from our hour of worship.
 Next week will be given to a study of our task through meetings each night at 8:00 o'clock for definite prayer for the revival services:
 Monday: "Faith in God."
 Tuesday: "The Vision of Faith."
 Wednesday: "Repentance."
 Thursday: "What Is Prayer?"
 Friday: "Praying in the Name of Jesus."
 The meetings will be based upon "Personal Christianity" by W. T. Conner, and serve as preparation for our responsibility through the coming weeks, and will serve as a barometer for interest in the revival.

BAPTIST W. M. S.

Circle No. 1 of the Baptist W. M. S. met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. C. E. Hunt.
 Mrs. S. A. Cobb taught the Bible lesson from Job 41:42; Psalms 1-36. Present were Mesdames Wm. Stolle, E. L. Minix, Leo Gibson, I. W. Huber, Luther Petty, Cobb and Hunt.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY

The Presbyterian Ladies' Auxiliary had an all day meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. J. B. Hembree.
 After lunch, Mrs. F. H. Bourland led the devotional.
 A business meeting was held with Mrs. E. L. Sitter, president, in charge. Reports were given of the last year's work and plans for the following year were discussed.
 The officers for the new year will be:
 President—Mrs. E. L. Sitter.
 First vice president—Mrs. H. E. Franks.
 Second vice president—Mrs. T. A. Massey.
 Secretary-treasurer—Mrs. J. B. Hembree.
 Bible study leader—Mrs. S. R. Jones.
 Pianist—Mrs. Travis Stokes.
 Those present were: Mesdames A. Erwin, C. O. Goodman, T. J. Coffey, M. Graham, Carl Jones, C. E. Cooke, E. L. Sitter, F. H. Bourland, H. E. Franks, J. B. Hembree, J. W. Myrose.
 Tuesday the ladies worked all day at the Red Cross rooms with the following present: Mesdames Sitter, Erwin, Jones, Hembree, Graham, Cooke, Franks, Trimble, Coffey.

IN THE STILLNESS

Stillness is not characteristic of our war-troubled times. The din of the world's turmoil and unrest of the soul drown out the sound of the "still, small voice." Failure to hear God is playing spiritual havoc with us. It is imperative for us to hear Him! Jesus Himself sought quiet when He "departed into a solitary place and there prayed." Surely, if Jesus needed stillness, so do we. How greatly do we need to commune with God in stillness if we would master and achieve!

Everybody reads newspapers.

 that we can still cling to the peace time belief that this war can be won on a part-time, spare-time basis.
 The philosophy of "what we can get" out of this war will prove fatal. It must be supplanted by the patriotic theme of "what can we give" and "what can we do" to bring this war to a speedy and successful end.

"How'd you get along with your wife in that fight the other night?"
 "Aw, she came crawling to me on her knees."
 "Yeah? What did she say?"
 "Come out from under that bed, you coward."

But start saving now for that heating plant by your purchase of War Bonds every payday through a Payroll Savings plan. War spending goes on month after month. So War Savings must keep pace, month after month. Put at least ten percent of your income in War Savings through War Bonds. U. S. Treasury Department

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our gratitude to our friends who proved themselves true in the passing of our mother dear. We appreciate every kind thought, word and deed—the calls, cards, food, car service, sitting up at night and work at the cemetery. The floral offering was perfect. Thanks for everything.
 THE R. S. THOMPSON FAMILY.

Born Feb. 27, 1943, to Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bozeman of Fort Worth, an 8 pound, 12 ounce boy, named James Marcus. Mrs. Bozeman will be remembered as Miss Glenda Landers.

Miss Nellie Anderson was in Shamrock Monday at the bedside of her mother.

Wrap the sharp corners on bed springs with adhesive tape and sheets will not catch and tear.

THE ART OF GETTING ALONG

Sooner or later a man, if he is wise, discovers that life is a mixture of good days and bad, victory and defeat, give and take. He learns that it doesn't pay to be a too sensitive soul; that he should let some things go over his head like water off a duck's back. He learns that he who loses his temper usually loses out. He learns that all men have burnt toast for breakfast now and then, and that he shouldn't take the other fellow's grouch too seriously. He learns that carrying a chip on his shoulder is the easiest way to get into a fight. He learns that the quickest way to become unpopular is to carry tales and gossip about others. He learns that buck passing always turns out to be a boomerang, and that it never pays. He comes to realize that the business could run perfectly well without him. He learns that it doesn't matter so much who gets the credit so long as the business benefits. He learns that even the janitor is human and that it does no harm to smile and say "Good morning," even if it's raining. He learns that most of the other fellows are as ambitious as he is, that they have brains as good or better, and that hard work, not cleverness, is the secret of success. He learns to sympathize with the youngsters coming into the business because he remembers how bewildered he was when he first started out. He learns not to worry when he loses an order, because experience has shown that if he always gives his best, his average will break pretty well. He learns that no man ever got to first base alone, and that it is only through cooperative effort that we move on to better things. He learns that bosses are no monsters, trying to get the last ounce of work out of him for the least amount of pay, but they are usually pretty good fellows who have succeeded through hard work and who want to do the right thing. He learns that folks are not any harder to get along with in one place than another, and that the "getting along" depends about 98% on his own behavior.—Wilfred Peterson.
