We'll always do that, try our best to give everybody an even break ir. itorial columns we'll speak the mind of the editor-and nobody else. Which, of course, means the paper's opinion.

Mr. Sterling is not going to carry Howard county, not by quite a bit. But he's gaining right here just like he is everywhere else. Re's a fine man, honest, able, fearless. That's enough. He's dry enough for the drys. He's progresenough for the progressive. conservative enough for the conservatives. And, besides, he's been the chairman of the highway mission three years and has performed a service to this state has ever performed in time of

There are other good men in the race, to be sure.Some of them are kinda worn out, swaybacked from so many years in the political saddle. There's Jim Ferguson and Earle Mayfield and Tom Love. They're smart politicians alright. They're all formidable candidates. But, about the only reason they run is to be runnin' because runnin' their second nature.
