Soldiers Better Educated Now

American soldiers in this war are better educated than those who fought in the last war, studies by the United States Office of Education, Federal Security Agency and the War Department indicate. Medium level of education of soldiers in this war is the second year of high school, where that level was only the sixth grade of grammar school in the last war. In this war 23.3% of our fighters had completed four years of high school in contrast with only 3.5% of the soldiers in the previous war. The two largest groups in both wars included those who had completed no more than five to eight years of grade school, with a percentage of 27.4 in this war as against 55.5% in the last war.

Farmers Aiding Veterans

Some 11,000 practical farmers in two-thirds of the nation's counties, in cooperation with the United States Department of Agriculture Extension Service, are checking land values and other agricultural facts in preparation for service as personal advisers to returning veterans interested in farming. Veterans Agricultural Advisory Committees have been organized in 2,162 counties of 43 states. There are a total of 3,070 counties in the nation.

IN THE SERVICE

Cpl. Reece Enjoys News

Somewhere in France, October 12, 1944.

Dear Mr. Landers: Just a line to let you know how much I appreciate the News which now comes regularly. It is indeed a great contribution to my morale. Seeing the names of people and places I spent ten years with and near is worth a lot. Being several thousand miles from home also tends to increase that value.

There is little I can say in regard to what it's like over here outside of what some of the other boys have already written. It is a paragraph in my life I pray that God will erase from my memory.

Once again I say the home town news is swell. Keep it coming.

A friend,
CPL. ARTHUR REECE.

Cpl. Wilkerson Writes

Dear Sir:

I am enjoying the home town paper very much. It makes you feel good to read about people you have known all your life after being with so many you only know a short time in army life.

I have a change of address now and I thought I better send it to you.

Thank you,
CLYPTON WILKERSON.

A Serious Matter

Commissioner Tops Potato Stories

County Commissioner C. M. Carpenter says not to print it, but he raised a hill of sweet potatoes with 93 potatoes weighing 28 pounds.

The potatoes were grown on sub-irrigated land and were of the improved Nancy Hall variety furnished by the Southern Great Plains Field Station at Woodward, Okla. There were eight hills, making two bushels of potatoes. The 28-pound vine had bunches of potatoes growing from leaf joints, and the potatoes were so thickly grouped that they were flattened. Of the 93 potatoes, 61 were of baking size.

This tops all yields reported so far this season and will stand as the record, until challenged.

Hallow'e'n Pranks Do No Damage

Local officers report no damage done in the business district by Hallow'e'n pranksters. Show windows were soaped, most of them lightly, and with a better grade of soap than formerly as it washed off without trouble.

Injunction suits were filed in Pecos against Hammer Grocery and Wink Food Store, both of Wink charging violations of price regulations.

It remains to be seen if Texas Democrats will "clear everything through Sidney" next Tuesday.

Haven't you often wondered why your friends pick their friends among people who don't appeal to you at all?

The old darkey's comment on the new preacher's first sermon, "He certainly do recommend himself highly," reminds us of a certain candidate for high office.

Some 60 million campaign buttons were manufactured this year, using 302 tons of metal. Politics must be served regardless of war needs. This should make interesting reading to the men at the front.

Texas voters have a chance to "save the nation" this year. It is too bad that the Republicans and regular Democrats must have a divided vote, but this is pleasing to Mr. Hillman at least.

Philadelphia reports 1,000,000 pounds of meat thrown into fertilizer vats because the War Food Administration needed the storage space for highly perishable meats ordered out of cold storage. Maybe this makes sense in war time, but we can't see it.

The best way to celebrate the fall of Germany is to buy an extra war bond. The war will not be over by any means—our boys in the Pacific cannot tell the difference until the Japs are licked. There should be no reckless celebration like there was on Armistice Day.

There are no vacant buildings for rent in McLean, business or otherwise, despite a continued demand for both business locations and residences. There is something in the air that looks like an old time boom. Well, time will tell and we are willing to wait, for it should not be long in coming.

November 24 is the date set for the annual meeting of local chapters of the American Red Cross, at which time reports are read, officers elected and plans made for the annual roll call. The McLean chapter has not met on time every year in recent times, but there is no reason why it should not this year.

Wheeler county commissioners published a quarterly financial statement last week as the law directs. The publication law has no penalty attached for failure to comply with the law, so some commissioners courts refuse to publish statements. It is gratifying to find men who believe in obeying the law as it is written, and not as they like to interpret it.

SOMEODY'S STENOC—Just a Dream

Probably the most important of the three state constitutional amendments to be voted upon, Nov 7, is HJR No. 18. This amendment should be blacked by the voters in the interest of conserving tax funds. The state constitution very wisely places safeguards against the general fund and it would be foolish in this time of increasing federal taxes to turn the counties loose on a spending spree. HJR No. 8 is another that needs swatting. It would allow cities and towns to provide retirement pensions. This is just one more step in putting local government into business. We have too much government in business now.

JEEPS THUMBED DOWN

First scientific answer to the much mooted riddle, "Can the jeep make the grade on the farm?" came last week from Canada's midwestern wheat belt. At the University of Saskatchewan, Drs. E. A. Hardy and R. P. Fry announced completed experiments.

Their answer: "No." Main reason: "The jeep's speed is too fast for farm work."

Also thumbed down were tanks as bulldozers, and universal carriers as tractors. But military trucks of standard two-wheel design, all types of trailers, component parts and good spare wheels, will be "of great value to farmers."

Driving his jeep through a small town, a soldier ran thru an open air market and accidentally knocked over a barrel of potatoes, a case of apples, some oranges and several melons. He finally bounced to a stop in the middle of the block and looked at the wreckage.

The owner, who had run out into the middle of the street, shouted at him: "Don't bother to back up. I'll kick over the eggs myself."

GARZA STAYS DRY

Some "wet" who doubtless wished to put in a beer joint and some other "wets" who doubtless like to guzzle beer, decided recently that they would like to test out sentiment in Garza county and mayhap make the county wet. So they signed a petition and had an election called. Well, they got their answer. With one small box still out, the returns showed 784 dry votes and only 165 wet. The total results evidently were not much different, giving the "drys" a majority of nearly 5 to 1. Garza county has a splendid citizenship and few of the people want their county messed up with beer joints or liquor stores.—Lynn County News.

WHEN THE WELL RUNS DRY

The Miami Chief was cut down to only five columns, four pages last week. Probably caused by the business men of Miami not supporting their home town paper as they should. If Bob Haynes, the editor, would stop his paper 30 to 60 days, the business men of Miami would get their heads together and go around and persuade others to take an ad every week until the Chief was started up again. They seem to think the editor can subsist on wind and rabbit tracks, therefore, they give Bob Haynes one-fifth the advertising he deserves. The Groom News suspended publication for several weeks until the business men of Groom give that paper more advertising than most other small town papers in Texas. They do not know what they miss until their home town paper stops publication.—Claude News.

She—Are you sure it is me you are in love with, and not my clothes?
He—Test me, darling!

JUST A DIFFERENCE

"Oh, what a strange looking cow!" exclaimed the sweet young thing from Chicago. "But why hasn't she any horns?" "Well, you see," explained the farmer, "some cows is born without horns and never had any, and others shed theirs, and some we dehorn, and some breeds ain't supposed to have horns at all. There's a lot of reasons why some cows ain't got horns, but the reason why that cow ain't got horns is because she ain't a cow—she's a horse."

EARNING HIS BIT

The plumber was working and his new assistant was looking on. The latter was learning the trade and this was his first day. "Say," he inquired, "do you charge for my time?" "Certainly," was the reply. "But I haven't done anything." The plumber had been inspecting the finished job with a lighted candle, which he handed to his helper. "Here," he said, "if you've got to be so conscientious, blow that out!"

THE WAR in the Pacific is the most costly war America has ever engaged in. It's simple arithmetic. A mountain of special, costly equipment is needed. "LEI MING," complained the dowager from the depths of her silken bed, "you aren't going to work in that hospital again today?" Her daughter continued fastening her quilted black jacket. "Yes, Mother. They need me."
"But must you degrade yourself? Isn't there something more genteel you can do?"
Lei Ming shook her smooth dark head. "They need every helping hand they can get. The city is full of refugees in need of medical attention."

"But how can you expect me to arrange a suitable marriage if you persist in such associations? No man of character will want you."

"There are too many children who need attention now," sighed Lei Ming, turning away. "Many of them are homeless." She turned back suddenly. "If you would only come with me!"

The dowager settled her plump, perfumed self deeper among her pillows and sighed. There had been a time when the many splendid rooms of her house were filled with overflowing with prominent, notable, important people. But with the war's coming lavish social affairs were frowned upon, and life was exceedingly dull. And Lei Ming was becoming harder to understand.

Tears ran down her cheeks, and with her plump hands curled helplessly on the coverlet, her small mouth drawn into a pout, she fell asleep. When her frightened handmaid shook her she awoke with a start. "Madam! Lei Ming needs you. The ricksha boy who brought the message waits without. Make haste!"

For the first time in all her sheltered life the dowager hurried. Toting on her tiny bound feet she arrived at the rambling old mission hospital, her hair awry. The curious eyes of weary, hungry refugees followed her progress across the crowded courtyard. Greedy hands twitched at her silken trouser leg, and shrill voices pleaded for alms. Angry maledictions followed in her wake as she swept past, unheeding.

"I told my brother."

Rushing from the bright sunlight into the gloom of the building she collided with a very dirty-faced little girl who had been standing directly in her path watching her approach with awe.

"Must you stand in the way, child?" the woman scolded. "Goodness, don't shriek so. Here."

She dabbed at the child's tears. Immediately the howling ceased, and a radiant smile lighted up the youngster's face. "Mmmmm," she cried. "You smell good."

An odd, half-forgotten warmth swept over the dowager. "Thank you, child," she said abruptly, and hurried on. She stumbled through three crowded rooms before she found Lei Ming efficiently bandaging a man's shoulder. "What does this mean?" demanded the dowager indignantly. "I thought you needed me."

"We do, Mother," Lei Ming said without ceasing her work. "Hand me the scissors, please."

Trembling with anger the older woman obeyed. "I never dreamed you could stoop to such trickery."
"I merely sent word you were needed, and you are. I'm sorry if you were frightened."

"Frightened! Of course I was —" A tug at her clothes caused her to look down. The little girl she had run into was holding a dirty little boy by the hand.

"I told my brother if he would let you wash his face he could smell you," cried the child eagerly.

The small boy grasped the dowager, pushed his face against one leg and inhaled deeply. He smiled and clung, staggering a little.

She stooped and picked him up. His head dropped against her soft shoulder and almost instantly he was asleep. For a moment the dowager looked uncertain. But when the child stirred and sighed, her clasp tightened. Decision brought pink spots to the plump cheeks she hadn't taken time to rouge. "I'll take these two home with me."
"Oh, thank you, Mother," Lei Ming cried. "But are you sure you can manage?"

"With a houseful of empty rooms and servants? Of course I can," was the retort. Then, with vigor, "And tell Dr. Wu if he wants to retain his fees he'll get the rest of the children up to my house—at once!"

A SACRED TASK

Sixty years ago I heard a brilliant young Methodist preacher say, "God approves an honestly kept ledger as much as He does a well thumbed prayer book." At first the statement dazed me. But after I had carefully analyzed it I swallowed the doctrine—hook, line and sinker.

A 60-year rather varied experience with all sorts of tasks and all kinds of people has confirmed my faith in it. The true doctrine is that whether he is a carpenter or a lawyer, a street sweeper or a preacher, a circus clown or a gospel singer, his task is sacred if, in discharging it, he puts God first. If a man does his work, whatever it is, as unto God and not unto men, he gives a sacred flavor to his task. Paul was looking down that road—a road that leads directly to the house where you and I live—when he said, "Whether therefore ye eat or drink or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God." If any man will prosecute his work in that spirit would not you classify his job as a sacred task?—Jeff D. Ray.

Last year the largest group of New York state prisoners committed to jail were drunkards, according to figures just released. That state's record shows 5,946 out of 8,889 prisoners booked, or 67%, were arrested for intoxication. The cost to New York state taxpayers for boarding and lodging these drunks during their incarceration was $645,000.—Dr. D. L. Colvin.

The tender-hearted young lady, on her first fishing expedition, watched her escort pull a luscious trout out of the brook.
"But isn't it cruel?" she asked.
"Now," replied the angler, scornfully. He likes it. Look at him wagging his tail."

Men must have what it takes in full measure when ordered into a machinegun nest as first sergeants. Pvt. Burtchall, Linwood of Weld, Me., can tell you all about it for he didn't come through unscathed. The other side fractured his humerus bone but he will get back to near normal as a result of funds available for hospitalization from War Bond sales.

Pfc. Tom Burrade, 20-year-old Noxapater, Miss., boy, hit while on an ammunition truck in France, regained consciousness in England, his jaw fractured and lips cut to the chin, but thankful for War Bond sales.

Lt. Leo Klein, 27, Scranton, Pa., hospitalized in burns and compound fracture of both legs, was B 17 bombardier-navigator with 14 missions accomplished when ordered to a rest home. The train which he was riding figured in a wreck near Lond and he suffered wounds that had passed him by dangerous missions. War Bonds funds are mending his hurts.

FASHIONS

Some of the outstanding fashions of McLean high for this week are: Dora Bailey was all dressed up Friday at school in a brown circular skirt and a tan blouse trimmed in brown matching her skirt. Tan anklets and brown moccasins completed the outfit.

A very popular color that you see every day is purple. Irma Ruth Fulbright is one of its many admirers. To prove it she wears a purple sweater and black skirt to school.

One of our very popular sophomores, Patsy Jo Alexander, is all dressed up in a green sweater and gold pleated skirt. Again we find the ever popular moccasins and gold anklets.

TIGER ROARS

Dean Grigsby and LaVoy Farris are getting along OK. Dean, we didn't know you liked freshman girls so well.

The latest reports on the Sargent-Alexander affair are not so favorable.

Gene Stafford and Rosa Lee Jones seem to be getting pretty friendly.

Mary Hess and C. A. Myatt seem to get along pretty well together.

The senior boys showed exquisite talent in their renditions and melodious interpretation of the group singing led by the faculty last Friday morning.

In Texas history class the coming national election was discussed and discussed. Platform Leader Dean (Mud-slinging) Grigsby opposed the forces of Mrs. (New Deal) Rice. The ballots as yet have not been counted.

In English class Thursday Mrs. Mazzotti held an interesting discussion about operas and told of her visits to the Metropolitan Opera. The McLean boys being raised by the pool hall with the juke box blaring, still have their own opinions of the opera. They expressed the opinion that the horse opera still has its place in the McLean spotlight. (This is the personal opinion of two "worthy" members of the senior class—Zeke Gibson and Dean Grigsby).

"Tuffy" Sargent is getting to be a regular "Romeo."

The wolves on the howl Tuesday night were Dean Grigsby, Zeke Gibson, Elton Johnston, C. A. Myatt, Berwyn Starling, led by Pack Leader Jack Sanders.

Old couples in M. H. S. are Bill Reeves and Imogene Peabody, Harold Meador and Kathryn Brooks.

Betty Bruner from Pampa entered McLean junior class Monday.

That cute couple, Don Montgomery and Earlene Eustace, seem to be getting along pretty well lately.

What's this we hear about Wanda Pugh writing excuses for the boys to go into the pool hall?

You remember that the President was going to have the people drink themselves back to prosperity when prohibition was repealed. You know just how well he succeeded.—Canyon News.

TEACHER PERSONALITIES

Our band director and choral instructor, Mr. Child, was born Oct. 18, 1894, in Chicago, Ill. He attended public school in Chicago and also University of Chicago. He kept his music in the background and majored in mathematics, receiving a bachelor of science degree.

Mr. Child was an instructor in the army during the last war, and in 1938 he took a trip to Europe to visit and study historical scenes and places. After teaching school in various states, Mr. Child is now teaching in our school.

Mr. Child is married and has two sons. He is very fond of bridge, baseball and boxing. He likes all good food, especially cherries. Of his political views, "he always likes the man and seldom the party." He studies music by attending operas, concerts and other musical performances. His favorite joke concerns music. Many years ago he was playing the piano after school.

As he finished a piece he noticed over his shoulder a big, brawny boy. The boy said, "Say, I like that piece. What is it?" "Why, that's Bourree by Bach," Mr. Child answered. To the boy's uncomprehending gaze, Mr. Child explained that Bourree was a dance and Bach was a great German composer. The boy nodded. Mr. Child added, "Incidentally, Germans have written much good music." Again he nodded, then added, "Say, I sure like that hawaiian music, don't you?"

TEXANS! MARK IT LIKE THIS! OFFICIAL BALLOT

BOYS' CHORUS

A boys' chorus is now being organized for the boys in high school that are interested in singing. Mr. Child will teach this group. Those interested in singing in this chorus met for the first time Monday night. The chorus will take part in an all-talent program to be held later.

ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

The student body was entertained Friday morning by the freshman assembly program. The faculty led the whole group in some songs. Maurine Harlan and Dorothy Sue Davis sang "Kitty Pretty Blue Eyes" and then Maurine tap danced with Dorothy Sue at the piano. This was followed with the ghost's dance.

Then the program was turned over to the band and cheer leaders for the best pep rally held this year.

SENIOR PERSONALITIES

The seniors are presenting Jimmie Bradley, who entered our school at the beginning of the year, from Lefors. She has also attended school at Mobeetie. She has brown hair and eyes and was born Sept. 17, 1926, at Mobeetie. Jimmie's hobby is horseback riding, but she also enjoys bowling. Her ambition is to be a ferry pilot, but before entering this career she plans to attend business college.

We also present Jim Carpenter, who has been a member of this class since first entering school. Jim was born Oct. 2, 1926, in McLean. He takes part in all school activities, especially sports, and has held various class offices throughout his school career. Jim has been a member of the Tiger squad for the past three years and plays right halfback on this year's line. After graduation Jim plans to attend college to prepare for the dentist profession.

REAL DEMOCRATS...GOOD REPUBLICANS... LET'S FIGHT THE NEW DEAL TOGETHER!

Here's the way to do it! Cross out the New Deal electors on the Democratic ticket. Cross out the other parties. But leave the Texas Regulars!

Loyal Democrats—here's the way to stay Democrats—and vote the New Deal OUT! Good Southern Republicans, and all you loyal Texans who have no party flag—we invite you to rally under the banner of the Texas Regulars—rally to the ticket that will win!

It's time for a change! Time to forget you're a Republican or a Democrat. Time only to remember that you are a Texan. An American. That you love your country and want it to stay just like it is.

Can it be free Texans believe one man is indispensable to the future of our country? Can it be free Texans believe one man should stay in power for 16 years? Can Texans, Democrats, believe our great Party should be run by alien-born Sidney Hillman, by Communist ex-convict Browder, by the big city political bosses who would sell out the South for the Harlem negro vote?

But we must stick together! Remember, we vote by states—unless we WIN in Texas—every last vote we cast is LOST!

Join with us, you good Republicans! Join with us, you Independents—join a great crusade! We'll march to the polls together. We'll strike down the New Deal Communism that raises its terrible shadow over America. Vote with us—we'll lick the New Deal in Texas—and we'll keep America FREE!

TEXAS REGULARS Let's Beat Roosevelt!

BUSINESS AIN'T A PINK TEA

Do your work vigorously! If you are going to be more than a name on the payroll, put a certain amount of vigor in the way you do your work!

Tom Shelvin said that in playing football the main thing is to go crazy. Two good men can handle any sane man, but it takes five men to handle a crazy one.

The idea is worth fooling with! If you are finding places in this world as you planned, if you've stood still for a decade or more, if you long for hollyhocks of your own . . . it might be a good idea to treat that job of yours as though it were your own business . . . love the d-n thing, lick it, master it, make it say uncle . . . slightly over on the crazy side—and make up your mind about the hollyhocks. Will you have them on each side of your front door . . . or only in the corners of your acre?

It's got to be decided by you! —Ochiltree County Herald.

CONSISTENCY PAYS

The late William Wrigley was once riding with a friend on a crack express train from New York to Chicago. His companion was curious to know why the chewing gum magnate continued to spend so much money on advertising his product.

"Your gum is known all over the world," he said. "Why don't you save the millions of dollars you are now spending on advertising?"

Wrigley pondered a second and asked, "How fast is this train going?"

"About 60 miles an hour," replied the other.

"Then," asked Wrigley, "why doesn't the railway company remove the engine and let the train travel on its own momentum?" —Wisconsin Press.

FULLY QUALIFIED

The applicant for a selling job was being interviewed.

"You say you've never had any experience selling in our line of goods?"

"That's right."

"What selling experience have you had?"

"None."

"Have you ever studied salesmanship?"

"No, sir."

"Then why did you come here and ask for a salesman's job?"

"I've got a brand-new set of tires."

"Why didn't you say so in the first place? When do you want to start? How would you like to cover all of Texas?"

Mrs. R. A. Caldwell returned Friday from a visit with her husband at Fort Benning, Ga. She also visited at Columbus, Ga.

Mrs. Bryan Burrows visited relatives at Canadian one day last week.

SECRET OF SUCCESS

A Circulation Management subscriber contributes this as an idea to pass on to carrier-corkmen:

"Pull," said the carrier-corkmen.

"Push," said the button.

"Take pains," said the window.

"Always keep cool," said the ice.

"Have a smile," said the bartender.

"Keep your temper," said the drill.

"Be up to date," said the calendar.

Never lose your head," said the barrel.

"Make light of everything," said the fire.

"Aspire to greater things," said the nutmeg.

"Find a good thing and stick to it," said the glue.

"If Sidney who left his wife and baby twenty years ago will come home his baby will kick hell out of him."

What does this day hold for him?

EACH DAY this war goes on, more Americans are killed. Each day this war goes on, the chances increase that one of them may be the man you love most. You can help shorten this war. If we put every ounce of energy and will into our job at home, victory can and will come sooner. No part of our job is more urgent, more vitally important, than buying War Bonds. Buy—buy more than ever before! Buy today and every day till this war is won!
