Nazi Foreign Minister Is Captured By British

By DANIEL DE LUCE
FIELD MARSHAL MONTGOMERY'S HEADQUARTERS, Germany, June 15 (AP)—Nazi Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop was captured yesterday as he slept in a Hamburg boarding house, bringing to a close the most intensive manhunt in Europe since V-E day.

Von Ribbentrop, understood to be wanted by the governments of at least 10 nations to stand trial for war crimes, was the last top-ranking Nazi known to be alive who had eluded capture. A metal can of poison was found strapped to his body, but he surrendered this voluntarily.

The dandified former champagne salesman who became the engineer of Hitler's arrogant foreign policy, had been hiding in Hamburg since April 30. The man who had imposed his diplomatic will on Europe had not a friend in all of Germany's second largest city who would assist him actively in obtaining a place of refuge.

VON RIBBENTROP ... caught with them off

him died down, and then attempt to save his life in a trial. He went to a wine merchant friend, he said—a man who had known him 25 years. The merchant shunned him. Von Ribbentrop, using the name of "Riese," got lodging with an unsuspecting landlady.

The same wine merchant was brought to British intelligence headquarters late yesterday and there pointed out his erstwhile friend. But identification was made even more certain.

By keeping the arrest secret over night, British sleuths who had tailed Von Ribbentrop across much of western Germany managed to arrest his sister. Today in a tearful and hysterical scene she identified the foreign minister.

Ribbentrop was taken under guard in an RAF transport plane from the Lueneburg airfield at 12:30 p. m. to be interrogated by supreme headquarters authorities. Ribbentrop was taken under

War Parliament Ends Ten-Year Session Today

By JAMES F. KING
LONDON, June 15 (AP)—Britain's unique wartime parliament ended its 10-year tenure today and Virginia-born Lady Astor closed her 25-year career in Commons.

The first woman member of parliament did not seek re-election but her son Lt. William Waldorf Astor will continue the family name in Commons.

Proroguing parliament, King George VI said his people's sacrifices "will not have been in vain if they lead to the establishment of a new world order based on justice and respect for human rights and equipped to crush any future attempt to disturb the peace of the world."

Britain will be without a parliament until the results of the election are announced some time after July 25. In the interim the country will be governed by Prime Minister Churchill's "caretaker" administration, in which the Labor party has refused to be represented.

Japanese Abandon Brunei

Enemy Retreats From Showdown, Withdraws South

By SPENCER DAVIS
MANILA, June 15 (AP)—Japanese troops abandoned Brunei City and Australians have taken it without a fight, virtually completing conquest of all major objectives in the northwest Borneo invasion, now five days old.

Enemy forces, still avoiding a showdown fight, streamed south in scattered groups toward the Seria and Miri oil fields, but a few hundred Nipponese dug in on Labuan Island at the northwest entrance to Brunei Bay sniped at dismounted cavalry commandos. The commandos were less than half a mile from Timalal airfield—LST initial objectives.

While Royal engineers hurried work of converting Labuan airfield into a bomber base within 800 miles of Batavia and Singapore, Philippine based heavy bombers struck at Saigow, Indochina, and Hong Kong. Fifty Liberators dropped more than 455 drums of jellied gasoline on Hong Kong's causeway and small boat basin in the heaviest fire strike Hong Kong has yet suffered. Forty others bombed Saigon's railway transport warehouse.

Tokyo said others hit Borneo's oil refinery city of Balikpapan.

The Japanese-controlled Batavia radio said natives have formed an organization "fashioned after the Japanese special attack suicide corps."

Allied bombs had wrecked the business district.

In the Philippines, the slow but vital drive of the U.S. 37th infantry division north of Manila has carried it within nine miles of the flat plain country in the Cagayan valley. Conquest of the valley is the last remaining big job on Luzon.

The Far Eastern airforce pounded Jesselton, northeast of the Borneo invasion scene. It exploded 403 tons of bombs on Luzon.

Yanks Strive For Knockout Okinawa Defense Weakens Under Flame Attack

By ROBBIN COONS
GUAM, June 15 (AP)—Tenth army forces strove for a quick knockout blow on the supreme command post of the tottering Japanese defense on Okinawa today as signs pointed with increasing certainty to the folding up of the doomed garrison.

Doughboys of the 96th division, supported by flame throwing tanks which seared Japanese cave fronts and hill positions, captured Yaeju peak, the highest promontory of the Yaeju-Dake last ditch defense escarpment, nick-named "Big Apple" by the Yanks.

The hill overlooks the plateau which was the enemy's principal defense ground on the southern line. The capture of the peak may breach as completely the last ditch defenses as the capture of Conical Hill opened up the defenses around Shuri.

Only the advance of the Seventh division, moving in from the east flank to high ground on the left of "Big Apple," remains to set the stage for sweeping the enemy from the plateau and onto the slopes which lead toward the sea.

Japanese surrenders increased to the hundreds and advancing Americans counted the bodies of scores of others who had committed suicide rather than surrender or retreat again.

Maj. Gen. Pedro del Valle, commander of the marine First division which holds Kunishi ridge on the right flank, pointed up the critical balance of the situation with the comment that the Japanese may be "crushed in two days—or two weeks. It all depends on how lucky we are."

"If we could hit their command, the whole defense might fall to pieces," Del Valle, commander of the First marine division, told Associated Press correspondent Al Dopking, on Okinawa.

Not long after the general talked with Dopking, 64 marine Corsair fighters, diving as low as 50 to 100 feet, speared a ravine believed to house Japanese headquarters with 19,220 gallons of jellied gasoline and poured 465 rockets into caves where the enemy's top officers were believed quartered.

A sheet of flame quickly covered two acres and smoke was so dense that it obscured some of the attacking planes. It was the greatest fire raid of the Okinawa campaign.

Destruction Of Japan By Bombing Is Forecast

By RICHARD O'MALLEY
GUAM, June 15 (AP)—The "complete and utter destruction" of Japan in air attacks that will reach the rate of 2,000,000 tons of bombs a day by July 1 was promised today by Gen. H. H. Arnold, commander of U. S. army air forces.

"If that is what Japan wants, by God, that is what she is going to get," Arnold solemnly vowed at an unusual press conference.

"It is going to be a terrible place to live in."

Giving immediate emphasis to his pledge, Arnold announced that while he was speaking, 520 Superfortresses were showering 3,000 tons of fire bombs on the great Osaka industrial region this morning. One year ago today, B-29s flew from China for their first raid on Japan.

Arnold's 2,000,000 tons a year forecasts 5,480 tons every day. The greatest single day's raid to date was a 4,500-ton onslaught on Tokyo May 24 by 550 Superfortresses.

"It is necessary to destroy five key cities—Tokyo, Nagoya, Yokohama, Kobe and Osaka," Arnold stated.

Maj. Gen. Curtis E. Le May, chief of the 21st bomber command, which Arnold is visiting here, said today's raid on Osaka—the fourth—may have ended the need for further incendiary treatment, of that greatest of the enemy's industrial cities.

Kobe, Yokohama and Kawasaki are "gone," and only a few targets remain in Nagoya. Le May declared, while previous raids have burned out 50 square miles of Tokyo, leaving only 10 square miles in which the American bombers are "interested."

Ghandi Prepares To Retire From India Congress

BOMBAY, June 15 (AP)—Mohandas K. Gandhi said today the freeing of eight imprisoned members of the congress working committee was the occasion for him to step aside as leader and let them "take up the thread" of independence plans.

Field Marshal Lord Wavell, the viceroy, announced the liberation last night. An Indian-British conference is to be held June 25 at Simla over Britain's new offer of two additional executive council posts to Indians as a step "towards Indian self-government."

Gandhi said he telegraphed Wavell to tell the viceroy that he was only an advisor and had no standing as a recognized representative of the congress party.

The aging leader said the name of Maulana Abdul Kalam Azad, congress president, had been omitted from the list of those to be invited to Simla, and that Kalam Azad was the only one who could speak with authority.

Kalam Azad was released from confinement early today. In Bombay it was believed the omission of his name from the conference invitation list was an oversight which would be corrected quickly.

The Bombay Chronicle, which expresses the congress party viewpoint, was cool toward the proposed continuance of the viceroy's veto power over executive council decisions. It said, "much depends upon how Lord Wavell will act up to his assurance he will not use the veto unreasonably."

Navy Tells Heroic Story Of Saratoga

By POPE HALEY
WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—The navy disclosed today that the famous old aircraft carrier Saratoga had sustained tremendous damage in the early stages of the battle of Iwo Jima.

But, it was stated triumphantly, she has now been fully repaired and is back in there, pitching again.

Seven direct bomb hits, including some by suicide-planes, struck the carrier, causing 315 casualties. The casualties included 123 killed, missing or dead of wounds, and 192 wounded.

The fleet's oldest surviving carrier, affectionately known to all hands as the "Sara," previously had twice suffered serious damage from torpedo attacks but the Iwo Jima action marked the first time she ever had received crippling damage from the air.

The attack came on Feb. 21, two days after Iwo Jima-day, as she was cruising with a fast carrier task group northeast of the island. Four days earlier her planes had joined in plastering Tokyo in the biggest task force attack up to that time.

The navy described the action against "Sara" as "one of the most concerted attacks in which a carrier has survived, which might have sunk any other ship. A record-breaking repair job at the Puget Sound navy yard, however, has already returned the huge flattop to the fighting line."

"The Saratoga," said the yard's hull superintendent, "was the most extensively damaged vessel the Puget Sound navy yard had received."

The carrier was launching her planes in the Iwo Jima action when an estimated nine or 10 Japanese bombers, all believed to be on suicide missions, closed in. Four were shot down by the ship's anti-aircraft guns and pilots in the air, but four others managed to crash and bomb the ship. A fifth, after it was knocked down alongside the vessel, careened off the water and exploded, tearing a large hole in the carrier's side. A bomb from another plane blew a hole in the ship's side below the waterline, rupturing many fuel oil lines. Water rushed in, and the ship took a six degree list.

Even then, the Sara's troubles were not over. About an hour and a half after the first attack, with darkness setting in, more enemy planes appeared and one dropped another bomb on the stricken carrier before crashing. Damage from the second attack, although severe, was soon brought under control, and the Sara was able to receive her airborne pilots who were circling the ship with their gas supplies running low.

Photographs of her damage were flown to the Puget Sound navy yard from the advance base where temporary repairs were made, and by the time she reached the yard all plans and equipment for her repair were ready. She was completely refitted and ready for sea in the record-breaking time of less than two months.

House Demands Investigation Concerning Debt

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—Rep. Knutson (R-Minn) said today he will propose that Brig. Gen. Elliott Roosevelt and John Hartford be summoned before the house ways and means committee.

Knutson said he wants a "complete explanation" of published reports that Hartford, president of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co., loaned the late president's second son $200,000, recovered only $4,000 and listed a $196,000 "bad debt" for tax deduction in his 1942 income tax return.

Ranking republican member of the committee, Knutson's assertion to a reporter came after Chairman Doughton (D-NC) announced plans to call the group, probably Tuesday, to decide whether to investigate the matter.

Doughton disclosed in a house speech yesterday that Hartford's 1942 income tax returns is under scrutiny of the Internal Revenue Bureau, and that the bureau this far has not approved any $228,500 "bad debt" item listed in it.

Knutson, following his colleague to the floor, said "we might be able to find a way to compel General Roosevelt to report that $196,000 as income."

Hartford's attorney earlier in the week said the loan was made in 1939 to finance a Texas radio network and that it was settled for a payment of $4,000. Roosevelt has not been available for comment.

At Fort Worth last night, Roosevelt's attorney, R. K. Hanger, said he remembered a movement being several years ago by the president's son and several associates to set up a new coast-to-coast radio network but that the proposal "washed up." He added he "would not know" whether the project had any relation with the loan and said he knew nothing about the transaction.

Hanger added that except for three Arabian horses, three colts and a bulldog, Roosevelt turned over all his Texas property to a 20-year trust for his three children, Chandler 11, Elliott, Jr., 9, and David Boynton, 3.

Chinese Forces Attack Wenchow

By SPENCER MOOSA
CHUNGKING, June 15 (AP)—The Chinese high command announced today that Chinese forces which have pursued the Japanese 175 miles from Fochow along the East China coast had attacked the Chekiang province port of Wenchow.

The Chinese said the enemy garrison at Wenchow, 220 miles south of Shanghai on the Wu river, already was beginning to retreat.

Observers here had expected the Japanese to evacuate Wenchow, a potential death trap, once the forces which had abandoned Fochow reached there.

Maj. Gen. Robert B. McClure's headquarters in Kunming, meanwhile, announced that Chinese forces had recaptured the Kwangsi railway town of Ishan, 43 miles west of the former U.S. air base site of Liuchow.

McClure's headquarters said the Japanese had withdrawn 2 1/2 miles along the highway leading to Tatans, road junction 21 miles southwest of Liuchow.

Industrial Sugar Allotment Slashed

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—Cuts in industrial sugar allotments to a level generally 37 1/2 per cent under a year ago were ordered today for the July-September quarter.

The slash, made by OPA to bring use in line with scarce supplies, trims the new commercial quotas by from 23 to 8 per cent below the current April-June ration.

Most industrial users, including ice cream and bottled beverage producers, take the maximum out and thus are reduced to 50 per cent of their 1941 base period use.

Such firms as bakers and cereal manufacturers are reduced to 60 per cent of base use, or a 20 per cent cut from the present quarter.

Commercial canners of fruit take an average of 20 per cent cut from the 1944 level. Those firms receive so much sugar per unit of canning, rather than a percentage of base use.

Superforts Bomb Industrial City In Heavy Weather

By LEIF ERICKSON
GUAM, June 15 (AP)—A force of 520 Superforts fought weather—so thick it broke up their formations—halfway to Japan and back again today to unload 3,000 tons of incendiaries in what they hoped would be a knockout blow to Osaka, Japan's greatest industrial city, and neighboring Amagasaki.

Bombardiers released their incendiaries by instruments. Clouds were so thick they blotted out any view of the targets and resulting fires, which Tokyo admitted were started at "a number of points."

The weather was typical of what can be expected for the next several weeks in raids on Nippon.

It was so thick the fliers "couldn't keep formations of more than two planes," said Capt. Charles B. Miller, Richmond, Va.

"The weather was so bad the Jap air force must have been grounded," added Lt. Ollie A. Thacker, Pear Valley, Tex. No airman reported seeing enemy interceptors and Lt. James B. McWophy, Aurora, Ill., was the only flier in the 314th wing who reported seeing flak. He counted only three bursts.

The raid, which Maj. Gen. Curtis E. Le May said may have finished off Osaka's warring potentialities, was acknowledged by Tokyo to have lasted at least an hour.

The Marianas-based sky dreadnaughts unloaded their jellied gasoline bombs on steel, iron and precision works of southeastern Osaka and, for the first time, hit the industrial city of Amagasaki to the northwest.

E-Bond Sales Are Behind Schedule

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—Ted B. Gamble, director of the treasury's war finance division, reported today that E-bond sales in the 7th war loan are about 10 per cent behind schedule.

Gamble appealed to all war finance committees to step up E-bond sales activity, and to report the prospect of wiping out what he described as the "small deficit."

Sales to individuals now total $5,510,000,000, or 78.7 per cent of the quota.

E-bond sales, however, are lagging with 62.4 per cent of the $4,000,000,000 quota reached. The E-bond sales total $2,496,000.

Mineral Resources Great New Field, C-C Managers Told

Development of Texas mineral resources offers its greatest promise in the field of industrial minerals, members of the Chamber of Commerce Managers Association of West Texas were told in the opening session of a two-day meeting here Friday morning.

While he did not make the statement directly, W. D. McMillan, Austin, engineer for the US bureau of mines, said this was the opinion of Dr. E. H. Sellards, head of the University of Texas bureau of economic geology. Previously, he had touched on limited mineral production in the state.

McMillan confined his remarks chiefly to an outline of services available to chambers of commerce and other public agencies in the exploration and analysis of mineral deposits in the state.

Chief production of minerals in Texas comes in limited operations for flourspar in Hudspeth county, and mercury, with some lead and zinc, in Presidio and Brewster counties, he said. Possibilities of lead and zinc production have been explored in the big bend area. Tests have been made of oil shales in certain areas.

Charles Green, Abilene, president, named Paul Ord, Childress, Don Purlington, Fort Stockton, Lloyd Bloodworth, Alpine, and Maude Alexander, Plainview, to the resolutions committee and put M. J. Benefield, Odessa, Pat Bullock, Colorado City, and Joe Cooley, Borger, on the nominations committee.

Service Families Will Go To Germany

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—The war department promised today to allow families and fiancées of servicemen in occupied Europe to join them "when conditions permit."

In a letter to Rep. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Me), John W. Martyn, administrative assistant to Secretary of War Stimson, said: "You may be confident that the war department is fully aware of the desirability of dependents and fiancées proceeding to Europe and will certainly relax the present restrictions when conditions permit."

Howard County Fails To Meet Quota In Mighty Seventh War Bond Drive

Despite the poor showing of Howard county in its Seventh War Loan drive, headquarters announced Friday that it would close up booths Saturday afternoon and bond buyers will have to purchase bonds through the regular channels.

Sales through Thursday amounted to $482,361 in E bonds and $1,093,734 in overall sales. This leaves $102,639 still to be raised in E bonds and $381,266 to be raised in the overall quota.

The only chance the county has of getting itself out of the red is to continue to buy bonds for the remainder of the month for sales through the 30th of June will apply on the quota although the official drive is ended.

Chairmen pointed out that unless Howard counties continue to buy bonds through the last of the month, their record of supporting the Pacific war will be as half-hearted as it looks. Texans who love to talk big, act big, and brag of their patriotism might do a little conscience searching and see if they have bought all the bonds they can buy.

The banks have never had such large deposits in their history and Howard counties as well as the rest of the country are working for higher wages than ever before. The government is not asking for gifts but for the investment of money in bonds with interest at a good rate.

That this county doesn't have enough money to meet its quota is obviously a fallacy. That this county is just not interested in supporting the war — well, draw your own conclusions. The county is short around $300,000 of its goal.

Eisenhower Reviews German Campaign And His Three-Year Stay In Europe

By WES GALLAGHER
SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, June 15 (AP)—Gen. Eisenhower told a press conference today that the Allied invasion of Europe last June succeeded only because the air, sea and ground arms fought as a single, unified force.

The German finally knew the "jig was up" in Europe on the third day of Field Marshal Von Rundstedt's December counter-offensive in the Ardennes, when the German commander "realized he couldn't go where he wanted to go," Eisenhower added.

These were the high points in the hour-long conference during which Eisenhower invited the correspondents to ask about anything which had been bothering them during his three-year stay in Europe.

1. The continued application of the non-fraternization rule in the reich depends upon the attitude of the German people themselves and upon how soon Nazi elements are wiped out.

2. The German nation as a whole has "no sense of war guilt" and, "while many Germans closed their eyes to atrocities, many others did not."

3. Field Marshal Von Rundstedt was the greatest general the Allies faced; the late Field Marshal Rommel was bold but unskilled; German military men did not respect Hitler's strategic planning but in 1943, particularly, Hitler ran his campaigns almost alone.

4. The Allied armies were the best-equipped in the world, but German Tiger and Panther tanks were superior in head-on slugging matches until the Pershings came into the field, and German rocket projectors, all-purpose 88-mm. guns and jet planes were outstanding weapons.

5. Exhaustive study showed the Germans had continued the fight after this time only because of the wild hope of splitting the four Allied powers, and because of Hitler's determination to continue the battle.

HITLER SUFFERING IF ALIVE
PARIS, June 15 (AP)—Gen. Eisenhower expressed belief today that even should Adolf Hitler be alive, his punishment is worse than death—that of "being hunted in disguise and underground."

The supreme commander told correspondents that the Russians informed him "we have grave doubts" that Hitler is dead.

DALLAS, June 15 (AP)—The regional War Labor Board believes a proposed house rider to the price control bill exempting agricultural workers from wage controls would be highly inflationary in the south.

Bill Voiselle's Ninth Inning Jitters Persist

By JACK HAND Associated Press Sports Writer Pittsburgh hitting and jittery New York pitching have produced the inevitable result—the Giants have slid from first to third in the National league and the Pirates are roosting on top.

Bill Voiselle's ninth inning phobia, developed since Manager Mel Ott plastered a $500 fine for not wasting a 2-0 pitch in St. Louis, continues to haunt the young man from Ninety Six, S. C.

It troubled him again yesterday when the talented righthander failed to hold a one-run lead as Brooklyn clubbed across two scores in the last frame to hand him his fifth successive defeat, 5-4.

Since Voiselle's fine the Giants have copied only two games and lost 10. From a cushion of 17 games over the .500 mark on May 27, the club has slipped to a 28-21 record in less than three weeks.

Rip Sewell had to have help from Xavier Rescigno before the Pirates swept the second, 6-5.

Frenchy Bordagaray's pinch double followed by Ed Stanky's fourth hit saved the day for the Dodgers.

The triumph, the sixth straight, moved the Brooks into second spot, only a half step behind Frisch's gang.

The Phillies who snapped a 16-game losing streak Wednesday shellacked Boston, 13-8. Vince DiMaggio with two homers and six RBIs and Jimmy Wasdell with five runs driven in were the big guns.

Diszy Trout made the mistake of throwing two home run balls to Vern Stephens, one with a man on, and it cost Detroit a 3-2 loss to St. Louis, clipping the Tigers' American league lead to a half game.

Clem Hausman handcuffed the Athletics with three singles but it took Leon Culberson's ninth-inning triple to give Boston a 1-0 shade.

Orval Grove doubled home the winning run for his seventh success and a 4-3 edge for Chicago over Cleveland.

The New York Yankees and Washington in the American and St. Louis and Cincinnati of the National had open dates.

Russell Expects Honor Grad Team

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

DALLAS, June 15 (AP)—Rusty Russell, brought to Southern Methodist University to get the football team out of the doldrums, is expecting "some salutatorians and valedictorians" in the flock of high school graduates he expects to register on the hilltop in time for fall grid training.

Rusty has done enough visiting to jam the campus with hopefuls. He estimates he has contacted 200 high school footballers now ready for college.

"I like good students, too," he said. "I never saw a good football team that didn't have smart boys on it. I think we'll have some salutatorians and valedictorians. I am mighty well pleased with the response."

Rusty also was more than mildred enthusiastic over the list of lettermen and squadmen due to report in the fall. In fact, there are so many Russell finds S.M.U. listed among the favorites for the Southwest conference championship. Twelve men with numerals will return along with five, who played last fall but not enough to letter.

Little Al Gionfriddo, overlooked in early spring, has turned into a .329 hitter since taking over an outfield job.

Handley is on the comeback road with a .366 mark and Elliott is pacing the league in runs batted in.

Pittsburgh took two from Chicago yesterday to take the league lead. Max Butcher out-lobbed the Cubs in the first game, 5-2, but Constitution giving the Legislature the power to set up a system of payments of old age assistance to those above sixty-five (65) years of age; provided that monthly payments from State funds to any one person may be in valid amounts based on need, that the maximum payment per month per person from State funds shall not be more than Twenty Dollars ($20) per month; giving the Legislature the power to set up a system of payments for the needy blind persons over twenty-one (21) years of age; provided that monthly payments from State funds to any one person may be in valid amounts based on need, that the maximum payment per month per person from State funds shall not be more than Twenty Dollars ($20) per month; giving the Legislature the power to set up a system of payments for the needy children under sixteen (16) years of age; providing for the expenditure of funds from the Federal Government; limiting the total amount which may be expended for such assistance out of State funds; and providing conditions as to residence within the State in order to become eligible to receive assistance.

Greenberg Discharged

DETROIT, June 15 (AP)—Hank Greenberg, the slugging Tiger outfielder of Detroit's pennant winning clubs of 1934, 1935 and 1940 was back in civilian clothes today, discharged after four years in the army, but Detroit club officials still had no direct word as to resumption of his baseball career.

Greenberg, a captain in the army's special services section, passed through the army separation center at Ft. Dix, N. J., yesterday. At Ft. Dix he revealed that he intends to rejoin the Tigers as soon as possible.

Sixteen Known Dead In Train Accident

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., June 15 (AP)—Two crewmen and at least 14 passengers were killed early today when an engine and six cars of a Pennsylvania Railroad westbound Washington-Buffalo passenger train were derailed at nearby Milton, Pa., a spokesman for the railroad here said.

An undetermined number of persons were injured. The accident occurred at 1:08 a. m., officials said, when the passenger train struck an eastbound freight train car which had buckled and fallen across the westbound tracks.

Two welding units from Milton were used to cut open cars to rescue passengers.

Jesse Owens Now Promotes Baseball

DALLAS, June 15 (AP)—Dusky Jesse Owens, who a decade ago turned in the greatest individual performance in the history of the olympic games, has a new goal.

Jesse is promoting baseball with the idea of getting members of his race into the major leagues.

Owens, still holder of two world's records in track and field and co-holder of another, was here last night to give a running exhibition at the end of a baseball game between Toledo and Chicago of the newly-formed negro United States league. The great negro runner is half-owner of the Toledo franchise.

"We tried to get into the other negro leagues—the National and American—but they wouldn't let us in, so we just organized a league of our own," said the lithe brown bullet of cinder path glory. "We are losing money getting started but we can all afford it. What we aim to do is to develop young ball players who in a few years will be capable of playing in the white major leagues."

"I believe the big leagues will accept negro players, maybe by 1947. I think it would be a whole lot better to let us play than to go to Cuba or some other foreign country for players."

Owens, who is in public relations in the Ford Motor Co. plant at Detroit where 20,000 negroes work, said he was still doing well financially and that after the war he planned to go into the sporting goods business. He is making appearances at ball games during his vacation from the plant.

Preakness Fever Hits Baltimore

BALTIMORE, June 15 (AP)—The annual Preakness fever, helped along by the hottest weather of the year, hit the racing faithful in earnest today.

Old Baltimore offered the best of its wartime hospitality and Pimlico race track officials prepared to welcome an estimated 90,000 persons tomorrow for the 55th renewal of the Preakness, one of the nation's oldest and richest stakes—this time the richest in history of the old hilltop course.

Hoop Jr., owned by F. W. Hooper of Jacksonville, Fla., held the favorite role in the biggest of five stake events. He was quoted at 8 to 5, compared to the 5 to 2 rating for Walter M. Jeffords' Pavot.

The Biennial Rehearsal

In the words of the immortal hymn, the fight is on.

Once more the poll tax issue has been dusted off in the halls of congress, rehearsed in the house and tossed to the senate where everyone anticipates that Southern Senators will talk it to death.

Some of these days the senate may muster enough courage to impose a cloture on debate and thus assure passage of the poll tax repeal. Whether democrat or republican is in the White House is immaterial. Signature is a foregone conclusion.

While constitutionality of such a law is open to serious doubt, recent reversals of long judicial traditions by the supreme court creates the possibility it would be upheld.

We have repeatedly advocated the repeal of the poll tax law in Texas—but by Texas. Similarly, we are unalterably opposed to intrusion of federal power in this field.

The poll tax issue is a political football. The perennial fight in congress is largely for political purposes. Abolition of the procedure within the remaining states that have a poll tax would not materially alter conditions within the states, and at the same time deprive those in the north and east of an issue and put an end to this biennial rehearsal.

State May Take Abandoned Camps

(First of a Series)

Acquisition of abandoned army camps may help Texas to avoid an acute housing situation among eleemosynary patients, according to Chairman Weaver H. Baker of the state board of control.

Baker disclosed today that the 49th legislature, in a rider to the eleemosynary appropriations bill has fully authorized the state to take over such camps and convert them into eleemosynary institutions.

He has, moreover, written every member of the congress from Texas asking for their assistance in the first acquisition project undertaken—of Fort Clark, near Brackettville and of Fort Ringgold near Rio Grande City. Both of these camps have been abandoned for actual military training. Both are of permanent type of construction, with some of the buildings of stone.

Baker says that he has gone over the premises with a committee of state institution superintendents, and they agreed that the premises could be admirably adapted to several types of eleemosynary treatment—either for mentally ill; for child wards of the state; or for tuberculosis sanatoria.

And, Baker wrote to the congressmen, "unless we do get title to these forts, or in the alternative, lease for ten years, we will witness the disgraceful spectacle of again seeing the mental patients of Texas incarcerated in Texas jails because of our inability to provide hospital service."

"You can readily understand," he went on, "what the reaction is going to be when it becomes generally known that returned members of the armed forces, both men and women, who have suffered mental illness because of their service, are being placed in jails, rather than in hospitals."

Baker's reference to ex-service men mental patients was no mere patriotic plea to the congressmen. He attached to his letter a list of 137 veterans of both world wars—with the Second War predominating—currently in state institutions and more coaches and that undoubtedly there will be a cut in civilian pullman service.

The War Today

By J. M. ROBERTS JR.

Premier Suzuki of Japan is rejoicing because his people "have come to concern themselves with the fate of the nation." He, says he, never agreed with those who considered the Okinawa fight climactic. He, says he, is going to win a great victory even if there are no Japanese left alive to enjoy it.

In this case he can be assured of the utmost in American co-operation.

All the Japanese have to do, says Suzuki, is to smash the American forces at sea, then when they come ashore (presumably after being smashed at sea) smash them again right there, and then after these (presumably smashed) forces have attained the land, smash them again. MacArthur and Nimitz combined could not display a clearer insight into what it will take to whip the Americans.

Suzuki proposes to achieve victory with forces "far interior to the enemy materially" through a true display of Japanese mettle. One of my associates, to whom I speak only on Tuesdays and Fridays because of his propensity for such remarks, would call that trading mettle for metal.

Do you suppose Suzuki can be hoping to win this war by making us die laughing?

Seriously, it is not a good thing to sneer at or make fun of an enemy when he talks this way. It leads to overconfidence, which already has cost us dearly at certain points in this war.

Actually, Japanese mettle has proved serious, and is likely to be more so in the homeland. One thing is certain. There is no laughing among the boys doing even the small-scale fighting which has occurred so far.

and marshal its forces into action.

It is in this spirit that they are met here today. Months hence some of the ideas they receive will be translated into new things, not for themselves, but for their communities.

With The AEF: Weird Peace Comes To Bad Gastein Tavern Mountain

By A. E. GOLDBERG
(Substituting for Hal Boyle)

AUGSBURG, Germany, June 15 (AP)—Lt. Gen. Wade H. Haislip, new commander of the U. S. 7th army which will handle a sizable portion of the occupation task in Germany, is a regular army man who fights by the book.

"Our strategy in this war was developed according to the manuals and fought along the lines for which we trained in our military schools," he said. "I don't think we learned anything new—anything that should have, changed the course of our strategy in the campaign during which we crushed the German army."

Haislip said "as commander of the 15th corps which under black-out spearheaded Gen. (George S.) Patton's drive across France, I have commanded 31 of the 62 divisions that took part in the conquest of Germany."

"It is a great tribute to our military training, to our general staff and to our schools that they always operated smoothly. They all spoke the same language. There never was any necessity for re-educating or changing commands. "It all adds up to a great tribute to the wisdom of our military thinkers."

Haislip, chubby white-haired and pleasant, was graduated from West Point in 1912 and helped staff the Eighth infantry occupation regiment at Coblenz after World War I.

Haislip takes over the 7th army under Gen. Jacob L. Devers of the 12th army group.

Several days ago, General Devers wrote Haislip "your country has every reason to name the 15th corps among its military greats."

Corps generals don't get much glory—it usually goes to divisions, armies or groups. But Haislip has done well. He says, however, that fighting is easy compared to the work entailed in building up an army on paper. Fighting is by the rule book.

Chinese-Philippine Air Force Juncture Separates Jap Empire

By RUSSEL BRINES

U. S. FIFTH AIR FORCE BASE, Philippines. (AP)—One important juncture in the Pacific air war—contact between the Philippines-based Fifth air force and the China-based 14th air force—came about without fanfare.

There is, in fact, no official date for the event which effectively closed the South China Sea and air lanes to Japanese craft.

Philippine-based planes first hit the China coast March 18. Soon the two air forces were paralleling their timed assaults on sea and coast targets from Saigon, French Indo-China, to Nanking.

This cooperation has severed the Japanese empire so completely, say officers, that homeland factories no longer can depend upon war materials from rich Southeast Asia and the Indies.

In the past two months more than 1,000 heavy and medium army bombers alone have roared from Clark Field's bustling network on Luzon for day and night attacks on shipping and land targets. During that period they have dropped 1,221 tons of bombs on the Chinese mainland and have hit shipping with 443 tons, and half a million rounds of strafing ammunition.

Their shipping bag since the first of the year: 358 vessels, totaling 266,000 tons, sunk; 69, of 40-650 tons, probably sunk, and 224—155,000 tons—damaged.

Philippine-based planes, attacking usually in daylight, have raided such key Chinese cities as Shanghai, Swatow, Amoy, Foochow, Hongkong and Canton. Their pre-occupation is communications facilities in the cities, railroads, highway and river traffic in the interior.

Deadline For New Car Stamps July 1

Local car owners are again reminded that the new automobile use stamps are now on sale at the Big Spring post office and stickers must be displayed on the windshield of all motor vehicles by July 1.

Shortly after July 1, deputy collectors of internal revenue will make a drive for delinquent stamp purchasers and all persons who do not have the stamp displayed will be required to appear and explain their delinquency.

According to officials, failure to purchase and display the stamp by the above date will subject the car owner to payment of a fine of as much as $25 and a jail sentence of as much as 30 days upon conviction. The penalty applies to car owners who may have purchased the stamp timely but who have neglected to attach it to the windshield.

Nat Shick, local postmaster, reported Thursday that only 182 stickers have been sold even though they have been on sale 15 days now.

All vehicles, including trucks, motorcycles and motorbikes, as well as passenger automobiles, must have stickers on sale at the post office.

US Caught Between Chinese Factions

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — There is a lot more than meets the eye behind the arrest of two state department officials and one naval officer on a charge of passing out secret documents to magazine writers.

Chief factor behind it is the intense, cut-throat rivalry between two Chinese factions—Chiang Kai-shek's war lords in the south of China and the so-called Chinese communists (actually an Agrarian party) in the north.

Mixed up in all this is the action of the Chinese secret service operating undercover in the USA against anyone opposed to Chiang Kai-shek. Also involved is the prima donna temperament of a very temperamental U.S. ambassador; and finally the issue of whether the United States will get itself caught between Chinese political factions the same way it has between Polish factions.

It so happens that all three of the young Far Eastern experts arrested in the navy and state department believe ardently that the USA is backing the wrong horse in China. They feel that the northern Chinese government is much more representative of the Chinese people, has done more fighting against Japan, and that Chiang Kai-shek is chiefly an impotent prisoner of his own southern war lords.

Moreover, these three are not alone in this belief. General Stilwell emphatically believed it and was ousted from China as a result. John R. Davies, secretary of the American embassy, also believed it and was ousted by Ambassador Patrick J. Hurley after a bitter verbal battle. Also, John Service, another secretary of embassy, believed it, was fired out of China by Hurley, and has now been arrested by the state department.

Finally, U.S. military men, solely concerned with winning the war quickly, feel that the northern Chinese can be a vitally important factor in defeating Japan on the vast mainland in China.

Cowboy vs. Farmer

It was this question which led to one of the most spectacular feuds in the recent annals of American diplomacy between an ex-Oklahoma oil man and cow-puncher, and hard-hitting Gen. Al Wedemeyer, former Nebraska farm boy, now U.S. commander in Chungking. Nothing much like it could happen any place but in China—unless it be in Washington.

When General Wedemeyer first arrived in Chungking, he and Hurley appeared to be excellent friends. They took adjoining rooms in a big Chinese mansion, with a connecting bathroom. Three times a day they ate together. Wedemeyer told Hurley he would show him all his dispatches to Washington if Hurley would do the same. Hurley promised, and complete cooperation seemed assured.

"I don't know anything about the fine points of diplomacy," General Wedemeyer said, "but I do know a square-shooter when I see one and I am sure we can work together."

Some time thereafter, Wedemeyer was inspecting the Chinese front at Kunming when he got an urgent message from his chief of staff asking him to return to Chungking. He advised Wedemeyer that a hot cable awaited him from Chief of Staff Marshall in Washington "for Wedemeyer's eyes only."

White House Heat

Wedemeyer raced back to Chungking, was flabbergasted to read a blistering cable from General Marshall bawling him out for letting members of his staff sabotage the ambassador's important diplomatic mission in China.

Marshall also enclosed a copy of a cable the ambassador had sent the White House, accusing Wedemeyer's officers of double-crossing him.

Wedemeyer immediately went to Hurley and demanded an explanation. He wanted to know what the ambassador meant and why he hadn't carried out his promise to show him all telegrams and cooperate completely. Hurley turned his back.

"I am the ambassador here," he replied and walked away.

General Wedemeyer then discovered that General William Donovan, head of strategic services, was due in China and his representatives had been anxious to determine the possibilities of working with the northern Chinese against Japan. Therefore, Wedemeyer's chief of staff, Gen. Robert B. McClure, had agreed to send two U.S. officers to North China to examine North Chinese cooperation.

While they were away, Foreign Minister T. V. Soong complained to Hurley about their trip. He said this was upsetting Chungking's relation with the North Chinese. Whereupon Hurley sent a stinging cable to President Roosevelt accusing Wedemeyer's officers of undercutting him. This was what caused Wedemeyer to get the rebuke from General Marshall.

However, Wedemeyer replied to Marshall explaining the whole situation and stating that Hurley knew in advance about the northern trip of the two U. S. officers. Marshall took the cable to the White House. Roosevelt read it, sighed wearily.

"Pat is Pat," he said, "and there's nothing you can do about him."

End of Housekeeping

Amusing aftermath in Chungking was that Ambassador Hurley and General Wedemeyer, the two top Americans in China, occupying the same house and an adjoining bathroom, refused to speak to each other. Day after day they dodged each other in their common dining room. Finally, on the fourth day, Hurley came down to breakfast, told Wedemeyer how sad he was, and begged him to let bygones be bygones. "President Roosevelt told me that my job was to kill Japs out here, not American diplomats," replied the general. "I will still play ball if you will."

Shortly thereafter, however, the two men broke up joint house-keeping and moved to separate homes. At about the same time,

US Caught Between Chinese Factions

General McClure, Wedemeyer's chief of staff, encountered Hurley at a cocktail party and chided him for sending his telegram of protest without prior consultation.

"You—" roared the ex-cow-puncher from Oklahoma, "I've shot men for less than that."

Fists went up. McClure is no small man. Neither is Hurley. But before anything further happened, friends intervened. However, Chinese were present and saw these two high-ranking Americans in a near fist-fight. It didn't help American prestige.

It was about this time also that embassy advisers John Davies and John Service, the latter now arrested, were ordered out of Chungking by Hurley. He said he did not want anyone around who sided with the northern Chinese. Since then, the rift between north and south China has become wider and wider; with the result that Russia probably will officially recognize the north Chinese, leaving the U. S. A. with another Lublin-London Polish dispute on its hands.

This has been one of the hottest debates among junior officers inside the state department. Top officials, however, are dead set against discussion.

Texas Today—

Dictionary Devoted To Cow Talk

By JACK RUTLEDGE
Associated Press Staff

One reason the book "Western Words" by Ramon F. Adams of Dallas is going into its second printing is because it is unique among dictionaries. It is interesting reading.

It is the most complete dictionary of terms used on the range, cow camp and trail, ever published, but one may pick it up and become absorbed in its lively definitions.

These will give you a rough idea:

Airin' the lungs—Cowboy cussing; he has a supply of words any mule skinner would "be happy to get a copy of."

Arkansas toothpick—A large sheath knife; a dagger.

Artillery—Pistols, personal weapons. I heard one man say of a heavily armed cowhand: "He's packin' so much artillery it makes his hoss swayback."

Bar-dog—A bartender. Many were former cowboys too stove-up for riding. Favorite occupation was "yawning on the glasses to give them a polish." When he reached for your bottle and hammered the cork home with the heel of his hand you knew your credit had run out.

Beast with a bellyful of bed-springs—A good bucking horse.

Bone-orchard—A cemetery.

Booze blind—Very drunk.

Brain tablet—A cigarette.

Chapparal fox—A sly, tricky person, "one you wouldn't trust as far as you could throw an elephant against the wind."

Dogie—A scrubby calf that has not wintered well and is anemic from scant food of cold months. The first food they get makes their stomachs swell, and a certain cowboy named Willie Robertson (grandfather of Charlotte Phelan, now an Associated Press editor in Dallas) called them "dough-guts," the name became popular, was shortened to dogie (not pronounced doggie).

Crash Survivor Dies At McKinney Thurs.

S-Sgt. Ray E. Youngblood, injured in a ground crash of a locally-based AT-11 trainer at Dallas on June 3, died Thursday at the Ashburn General hospital at McKinney.

Pneumonia was given as the primary cause, and second degree burns as the contributing cause of death. Sgt. Youngblood is the son of Oscar S. Youngblood, Ellington, Mo. His wife and seven-month-old daughter, Nancy, reside here. His body is to be sent to Ellington for burial. Sgt. Youngblood was the second fatality from the crash, which occurred when the plane spun from the runway at Hensley Field and into parked navy planes.

Thursday Highmark Nearly Tops Record

Big Spring roasted through its hottest day of 1945 Thursday and looked back on temperatures that were only one degree off the all time record.

Top reading by the US Weather Bureau was 107 degrees, the same as recorded at the US Experiment Farm. Previous high for the year was 105 on May 28.

Hazelwood Destroyer Berthed For Repairs

VALLEJO, Calif., June 15 (AP) — Scattered and battered, with her superstructure wrecked from a direct hit by a Japanese Kamikaze plane off Okinawa April 29, the doughty 2100-ton destroyer Hazelwood is berthed at the Mare Island navy repair yard today being refitted for action.

Ten of her 19 officers, including her skipper and 67 of her 299 enlisted men are dead or missing. She had seen action in the Wake, Tarawa, Gilbert, Marshall, Peleliu and Philippine Island strikes before joining the Third fleet.

PARENTS VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Lennan A. Townsend of Parkersburg, W. Va., arrived Thursday night to spend a two week vacation with their daughter, Mrs. L. A. Marshall. Mrs. Marshall will accompany her parents to West Virginia, where she will make her home for the duration. Her husband, who has been stationed here, has been transferred to California.

Machine Breakdown Halts Water Drilling

A mechanical break down early Thursday afternoon halted drilling temporarily on a test water well on the Sally Edmondson tract south of Big Spring.

Repair parts were obtained and it was believed that work would begin again Friday morning. With early resumption of work, drillers predicted that the first of three test wells would be completed Friday. The two other wells have been staked out and drilling on them will begin soon.

Hooser Comes Home But Not To Visit

Cpl. Harvey Hooser, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hooser, came home Wednesday, but he hardly had a chance to visit.

He was aboard a Biggs Field-based B-29 on a cross country trip. The huge plane circled this area a couple of times, but that was as near as Cpl. Hooser got to home. A brother, Hartman Hooser, SF 2/c, is now stationed in the Hawaiian Islands and writes that he sees Tommy Gage, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Gage, often.
