Big crops and good prices left a wheat farmer not long ago with $30,000 cash in the bank. Said he, "If I don't invest this in inflated "If I don't invest this in inflated land values, what can I do with it to earn anything?" I said to him, "Did you ever think of using part of it to insure yourself a steadier farm income after the war? For $150 a month, or $1,500 a year in War Bonds, you can begin to collect ten years after the war $200 a month. As you will be getting older by that As you will be getting older by that time, wouldn't that be a better sup-plement to what income the farm en produces than having to turn ain to the cream can and what ur wife can make out of chickens? ildn't it be a nice retrament fund or a fellow that is now 55 years old? Wouldn't you like to have had $200 month cash coming in last time?"

In addition, if you can put in War onds a lump-sum as reserve for opations in bad years, for deferred chases of equipment, for repairs, up-keep, for new household nt; and then whatever the stwar adjustment, you would have easier time of it than you had

You wouldn't have to wait on mebody's extra special plan; you ould have already completed one

CORN

When farmers were appealed to when farmers were appealed to for greater efforts during the first year of World War II, Iowa produced the greatest tonnege of foods and feed in its history. Its hay, grain and forage in 1942 totaled 29,527,000 tons, 23 per cent above 1941. Led by the record yield of 61.5 bushels of corn per agent the cight. 1941. Led by the record yield of 61.5 bushels of corn per acre, its eight main grain crops totaled 20,627,000 tons, 21 per cent above the nearest high point up to then. Millions of dollars from War Bonds went into processing those crops for our fighting men. The crops and land of America represent but a fraction of the real wealth of this richest of lands backing up your War Bonds.

SUGAR AND BOOZE hortage. It is likely that much tirect control on food commodties. If President Truman will it he is sick o one group who may get the acts before they give away the resent time we have half a tozen bureaus handling the food problem. In the past when we rot in a jam, another bureau was appointed on top of the other conflicting bureaus. It is a good hing that President Truman had look at this maze of entangled /ashington before he assumed flice. The nation hopes that he years Investigate our low rates nay be able to handle the sitsation.-Canyon News.
