Cooperation Lions Keynote

Cooperation and community service was the major subject discussed at a Socratic League program given at the Lions Club Monday, using as a subject, "What Lions Need."

The program was in charge of Mayor Boyd Meador and every member and visitor present took part in the discussion.

Intelligent leadership plus cooperation from the business and professional interests will bring McLean anything needed, was the message Meador asked L. A. Landers, Milton Carpenter and Price Miller, Jr. to act as judges of the program and furnished a prize to give to Secretary D. A. Bogan as a winner in the discussion. The prize turned out to be a bag that occasioned much laughter at Lion Davis' expense.

Keith Caldwell, chairman of the fund drive reported the community quota a little over one-third raised. Chairman Caldwell stressed the point that any amount raised to the fund may be deducted just how it is to go.

Floyd Grady presented the need for a committee to pass on outstanding collectors, which was endorsed by those present. This matter was thought to be a matter for the chamber of commerce or city council.

W. E. Bogan, Boyd Meador, D. A. Davis, T. A. Landers and H. A. Longino were presented with permanent attendance pins for last year's term.

Mayor Meador announced the Boy Scout Court of Honor has been held for Nov. 29.

Mayor Meador was asked when the parallel parking ordinance is to be enforced and he stated that the city has been unable to secure paint of the proper type for street marking. Signs have been painted but not installed until the parking area has been outlined.

Visitors were T. W. Gilstrap of Amarillo, guest of Lion Little; H. A. Longino, guest of D. A. Davis; Milton Carpenter, guest of Lion Gordon; L. A. Landers, guest of Lion Landers; and County Agent Smith of Pampa.

At a meeting of the directors following the luncheon, it was ordered that the property be in charge of Lion Tamer Grady.

Charges for the use of the hall are to be $1.00 per session, except when kitchen privileges are used, when it will be $2.50.

It was pointed out that the chairs had been borrowed some time after the previous meeting and were not returned. The chairs were not found until about meeting time when Lions arriving early had to go after the chairs and carry them back to the hall.

The condition of the hall required the services of a janitor, and taking these things into consideration, it was thought that the small charge indicated was little enough for the trouble caused.

Marion county remained dry with a 1 to 1 vote, in September. Precinct 3 of Hutchinson county voted nearly 2 to 1 to prohibit the sale of all alcoholic beverages.

To the People of this Community

It would be pleasant to report that the Victory Loan is simply a victory to a great home front war program, a sort of final salute to the millions of volunteers who have worked hard and unselfishly to sell you defense and war bonds, a platform from which to pat ourselves on the back for a magnificent bond buying job. Victory bonds, however, are not on sale for the purpose of self-praise. The government is asking you in this last drive to buy extra bonds because billions of dollars in war bills are unpaid, billions of extra dollars must be spent to bring your uniformed men and women home, billions of extra dollars will be needed for care of the wounded, liquidation of war contracts and maintenance of occupation forces.

Besides serving as guardians of the peace in enemy lands, Victory Bonds hold off the threat of inflation at home. For your own good, the Victory Loan should be your best performance of all the war loans.

Missionary to Address Women

Dr. Dora Burgess, L. D., returned missionary to Guatemala, will address the meeting of the Fifth Tuesday Council of Church Women next Tuesday at the First Baptist Church. The meeting will begin at 2:30 p. m.

Dr. Burgess, mother of Mrs. F. E. Grady of McLean, went with her husband, the Rev. Dr. Paul Burgess, Ph. D., to Guatemala, C. A., in 1913 to begin their work as missionaries under the Board of Foreign Missions for the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A. They established their work in Quezaltenango, the second largest city in Guatemala. Both of them worked as evangelists, translators and directors of various phases of mission work with the Spanish speaking people. They were instrumental in the establishment of a strong church in Quezaltenango and several mission churches over the country. They established a printing press for the production of Protestant Christian literature.

About eleven years ago they saw the neglect of the Guatemala Indians, as compared with the missionary work among the Spanish speaking population. They severed most of their ties with the Spanish work and turned to the Queche Indian field. Since that time they have learned a difficult language, have created a written language for the Queches, and have translated the New Testament into Queche. They have established a school in which to train the boys and girls in the reading of their mother tongue. Mrs. Burgess is a skilled linguist, translator, teacher and evangelist. She has traveled widely not only in Guatemala but in Europe and the East. She is well informed concerning the lives and culture of both Indian and Spanish speaking peoples in her adopted land.

War Fund Drive On in Earnest

Sparked by Keith Caldwell, chairman of the Lions Club committee to raise money for the war fund, the work is under way in earnest, and over one-fourth of the quota set for this community was raised Monday afternoon.

With $1250 set as McLean's share of the county quota, $200 was added for the Boy Scouts and $150 for the Girl Scouts, making a total quota of $1600 to be raised.

Following precedent, the committee worked out a tentative list of donors with suggested amounts, and while some gave less, most are giving the amount suggested with some giving more. One business man who was listed for $25 gave $50, and others increased their allotments.

As in all other community drives a few are not interested and some are a little too emphatic in expressing their opinions, but they represent a very small minority. Most people take the attitude that it cost money to win the war and it will cost some money to maintain the peace, and national drives are just as much one man's responsibility as another's. If John Jones gives to the fund, Sam Smith cannot with fairness escape his responsibility also.

It is hoped to raise the $1600 asked for by the end of this week, and anyone missed by the solicitors should get in touch with them and offer his gift. The committee members are donating their time along with their money and will appreciate any and all cooperation given them.

Everyone in the community is asked to give at least two days' pay, as this is the basis for the amount asked for all over the nation.

VEGETABLES IN WAR

Vegetables, like grains and meat, do double duty to help bring the war to quick victory. They provide vital food for fighting men and are potential wealth that help make War Bonds the best investment in the world. Ohio produces some 70 million dollars worth of truck garden products, potatoes, tomatoes and the like. Over 5,000 acres in Wood county are devoted to tomatoes. San dusky county has 1,800 acres in cabbage. The tomatoes sketched above are going into a cannery to add to next winter's food reserve.

Many a man who lives a dog's life began it with puppy love.

The man whose mind is closed can make no further progress.

Grafters are abroad in the land and "sucker lists" are being worked overtime. Even returning servicemen are impounded by various "veterans" organizations that have sprung up over night to get the sucker money. Those who have never learned to say no to the grafter's siren song, had better learn—and soon.

Cooperation and unity may be overworked words, but every member of the Lions Club seemed to be thinking along that line Tuesday. That this is true bids fair for the future of our community. Even the best kind of leadership is helpless without cooperation and unity of purpose. May we all learn to work together in unity for the betterment of life in McLean.

Organizations are needful, but in small communities it is easy to have too many organizations. No man has any need to fill his life with work in numerous organizations, when one would answer the purpose. Just because a friend belongs to another organization is no reason to join it when the needs are being met with the one you have. Even the smaller churches are many times over-organized in trying to ape the big town church that has to have many organizations in order to give everyone work to do. Let's have fewer new organizations and give better cooperation to the ones we have.

Some objection is voiced against the new parking rules on the two blocks on the highway, but if thought was given, it would be apparent that even if all parking was forbidden on these blocks it would still be better than losing the highway through town. It is strange that we do not mind hunting for a parking place four or five blocks from the business district for half an hour in the big town, but we want to park right in front of the store we trade with at home. McLean has many fine parking places, none of them over a block from Main Street, that can be used and leave the highway clear for traffic.

The News is anxious to print everything of interest in the community, but we must insist that items be handed in as soon as possible. If your party occurred on Thursday, it should be reported on Friday. We have to set type as early in the week as possible. We do not want anything on Wednesday unless it happened Wednesday, as all forms close on that day and there is no time to get anything in type. The only exception is classified ads. We take them right up to press time Wednesday noon, as they are small and do not take up much time. A little cooperation from our readers will help us give you a better paper each week.

WANT TO READ BUT NOT PLANT

The trouble with a lot of people is that they wish they had what the other man has in the way of earthly possessions, but are not willing to be put out at the job of earning it. There are so many reapers in the world who do not want to take the time to plant, and then wonder why they never have anything to reap. It is a mighty good philosophy for a man to take that it will be his fixed policy to "earn today's bread today." It is a weakness of the fellow who never seems quite to get ahead to lay off and have a "good time" after he has had a streak of good income. Soon he has spent his pile and is in need again. By making today's bread today, one will always have something ahead.—Denison Press.

THE RIGHT TRACTOR FOR THE PARTICULAR JOB

THE proverbial Jack-of-all-trades was master of none. The modern world of science and technology passed him by. The same principle applies to farm tractors. The tractor that does a wide variety of jobs unsatisfactorily can't possibly produce the greatest results at the least cost in any job.

But that's what the farmer—particularly the small operator—has got to do to meet postwar competition: he's got to produce the most food possible with the least effort and, consequently, at the lowest cost.

The farmer with 10 acres in truck crops needs one kind of tractor. The farmer with 100 acres in wheat alone needs another kind—or, as is usually the case, two or more different tractors. The tractor which does a good job on the Great Plains may be useless in the rice territory. And so it goes.

Conditions of climate, the lay of the land, and the character of soils in the different parts of this vast country, together with wide variations in the nature of crops and the size of operations, combine to produce wide differences in the requirements for tractors. Harvester's policy is to meet all these requirements.

That is why Harvester's postwar line includes a great variety of Farmalls and other specialized tractors and attachments rather than a single tractor with a single system of tools. Every tractor in the line was developed after scientific research and testing under actual operating conditions showed the specifications needed for efficiency and economy.

Every Harvester-built tractor is the right machine for its particular job.

ADVERTISING DOCTORS
If we were not alarmed, we would be amused at the change of face in the medical trust. Up until the "fixers" took charge of the government, the medical profession turned up its collective noses at the newspapers. They would have nothing to do with advertising, and tried to punish those few who did advertise, calling them quacks. The situation has changed. The medical profession is sending out warnings of the coming disaster, if the medical bill passes Congress. It is socialized medicine in its worst form. All newspaper men are opposed to it because of its regimentation. The profession might have saved itself some of the present embarrassment had it not been so hide bound in the past. To the profession it is termed "ethics;" to the layman it was pure shortsightedness and a determination to build up an exclusive trust.—Canyon News.

Let us so live that when we come to die even the undertaker will be sorry.—Mark Twain.

YES... We ALL know what they are

Taxes are as necessary as the things they buy. We all know that. Taxes educate our children, provide police and fire protection; pay for the upkeep of municipal, county and state institutions and many other services we take for granted.

Yes, we all know what taxes are and what they do. Privileges such as we enjoy in the United States must be paid for. Your Public Service Company is one of the largest taxpayers. The taxes which American citizens pay are what keep America, American.

WORD STUDY, OUGH

This combination of letters furnishes a splendid illustration of the difficulty in pronouncing many English words, because of the various sounds given it. Some writer has amusingly hit off this fact in the following:

Wife, make me some dumplings of dough,
They're better than meat for my cough;
Please let them be boiled till hot through,
But not till they're heavy and tough.

Now I must be off to my plough,
And the boys (when they've had enough)

Must keep the flies off with a bough,

While the old mare drinks at the trough
Of water drawn from the lough.

Another poet pokes fun at this combination as follows:

Though from rough cough, or hiccough free,
That man has pain enough,
Whose wound through plough,
Sunk in a slough (sluf)

Or lough (lok-lake) begins to slough
(slou-engulf).

'Tis not an easy task to show
How o, u, g, h sound; though (tho)

An Irish lough (lok) and English slough (slu)

And cough and hiccough (hickup) all allow,

Differ as much as tough and through.
There seems no reason why they do.

THE BRASS COLLAR

We got a number of kicks from customers regarding last week's comments on the State Democratic setup, and in reply can only state that this column represents one man's opinion at the time it was written.

The writer's ancestors were Southerners almost as long before the signing of the Declaration of Independence as has elapsed since that time. He was raised on Jeffersonian principles, and when the party went north to adopt the views of the reds, pinks and questionable city machines, he remained true to the old beliefs as an Independent. And he is still an Independent.

What the present bunch in charge of the State organization want is men who can raise their hands to heaven and swear that they never scratched a ticket—that no candidate was ever too rotten for them to support. That may be a sign of good citizenship, but we doubt it. What this State needs is a two party system with enough independents available to see that a little higher class of officials are elected. Too often the ratble-routers are the ones that get the nomination, even when better men are available.—DeForrest Kline's column in The Oak Cliff Tribune, Dallas.

"Now look what you've done. You've lost the place where I was getting my recipe, and now I haven't the least idea what I'm cooking."

LIQUOR AND ROWDYISM

Rowdyism at football games is being experienced in many towns. Police officers are frank in admitting that liquor is at the bottom of most of these disturbances. The ugly fact is that we are reaping just what we have been sowing. When Roosevelt became President, he advocated that if liquor was voted back that he would balance the budget and pay the national debt. We were going to drink ourselves back into national prosperity. Of course everyone knows just how badly we have failed. Sugar has been used to make liquor when it was needed on the tables of the nation. Prohibition is an unpopular question with the politicians. It would take a superman to really interest the people in attempting to curb this menace.—Canyon News.
