W. M. S. ENTERTAINS

The Baptist W. M. S. met last Thursday at the church for Bible study and social, with the Mc-Lean W. M. S. as guests.

A short business session was held with the president, Mrs. Free Browning, in charge.

Mrs. Frank Wiggins led the de votional, with prayer by Mrs Leroy Williams of McLean

Mrs. Joe Bidwell led the Bible study on the Life of Paul. She passed out questions on the subject to each one present, and a round table discussion was held as the questions were answered

Program numbers were given by Mesdames George Rath. Free Browning and Louie Durham, with closing prayer by Mrs. Vester Dowell.

Refreshments of sandwiches, potato chips, olives, white cake decorated in pink, and iced tea were served from flesta plates with napkins to match. Plate favors were candy mints with folded cards with W. M. S. printed on the front and 2 Tim. 2:15 on the inside. Mrs. Dowell served, assisted by Mrs. Bidwell and Mrs Wiggins.

MoLean women persent were Mesdames Ruel Smith, C. J. Montgomery, Boyd Reeves, R. L. Appling, Kunkel, Murray Boston and Leroy Williams

Denworth women present, other than those above named, were Mesdames Ray Rath, Charles Ivey H. D. Hale, Eloy Burdine.

The Denworth women were very glad to have their guests, and hope to have them again.

The W. M. S. met through the month of March with Mrs. Dowell with the last meeting at the church. They will meet during April with Mrs. Durham, near the Webb school. All ladies have special invitation to attend these meetings.

Rev. W. E. Brown preached his last sermon at Denworth Sunday. He has accepted the pastorate of two churches at Wellington, where he and Mrs. Brown are They were dinner guests in the Rath home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Smith and two sons of Phillips spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wiggins.

Sgt. Kenneth Browning was discharged from the service March 29 and is home. Kenneth spent the time overseas.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Johnson of Pampa visited the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brown- For County Clerk: ing, Sunday.
