Football Training Begins September 1

Football training will start September 1 for members of the McLean High School football team. Coach Larry Sanders announced this week, and 16 letters from last year's squad will be on hand for the initial practice sessions.

Season tickets for the five home games, the first of which will be with Wheeler here September 19, will go on sale August 18 at the office of George McLean, business manager of the school.

McLean schools, Superintendent Logan Cummings said this week. The season tickets, which are for reserved seats, will sell for $5, including tax, and all gridiron boosters are urged to buy their tickets early.

Sanders will have available for this year's team the following players: Dick Andrews, Barney Hill, Bob McConaghe, Alvis Gibson, Bill Edey, Arvin Smith, Wesley Vinyard, John Griffith, Wesley Langham, Johnny Haynes, Bill Boston, Jimmy Newton, Jack Brooks, Jimmy Morris, Leroy McCracken, and Bobby Kramer.

Squadmen: W. A. Bruner, Vernon Turner, Kenneth Carter, Donald Cunningham, Douglas Norton, Rodney Barker, John D. Shuman, Brian Allen, Charles McChesley, Charles Bailey, Marvin Anderson, Richard Hall, and Percy McDonald.

Two new boys, David Hamlin and Duane McPherson, are expected to add considerable weight and potency to the squad, Sanders stated.

Of the boys coming up from the grade school team, the three most promising looking prospects are L. M. Watson, Vic Shelton, and Bobby Sam Bruner. Watson, a 160-pounder, looked especially good in spring training, although it was explained that any of the three is likely to break into the line-up before many games are played.

The schedule for the season is as follows:

- Sept. 12, Panhandle here.
- Sept. 19, Wheeler, here.
- Sept. 26, White Deer here.

- Oct. 10, Groom here.

- Oct. 24, Wellington here.
- Oct. 31, open.

Scouts Find Camping Trip Educational One

Eleven Boy Scouts from Keller and McLean, accompanied by two Scout workers from Keller, returned Friday from a week's camping trip near Cash, Okla., and the trip turned out to be a most educational tour.

Making the trip were John I. Coleman, Dale Johnston, and Wesley Langham, of McLean, and Billy Wayne Harris, Carl W. Jr., Weldon Earles, Duane McPherson, Donald Lee, Billy Ellington, Charles Boyd, and Sonny Milam, of Keller.

Accompanying the boys were Walter Elliott, member of the Keller Scout executive committee and longtime Scout worker, and Dick Sargent, also of Keller. The trip was made in a McLean school bus.

Here is the schedule the boys followed during the week:

Monday: Visited wild life refuge, saw herd of buffalo and long-horn cattle, visited with Scout troop from Carnegie, Okla.

Tuesday: Visited at Medicine Park, rode to top of Mt. Scott from which the boys could see the wild life refuge, rode in an army amphibian truck, visited the state fish laboratory.

Wednesday: Went to Lawton and Fort Hill, went through the army museum where they saw all types of guns and other weapons used in wars, including the weapons of many other nations; saw the payroll of West Point on 1763, visited cell where Geronimo, Apache chief, was imprisoned and died, saw Geronimo's weapons saddle and clothes on exhibit in the cell, attended a softball game between Fort Hill and the Henderson army air field of Dallas, went back to Lawton for the old settlers parade (the parade was two and one-half miles long and required one hour and 35 minutes to pass).

Thursday: Spent in visiting around the camp. The group started home Friday.

Elliott stated the trip was a much educational value to the boys and expressed his thanks to all who assisted in making the trip possible.

Two Years Ago, Japanese Gave Up, Threw in Towel

Friday is the second anniversary of V-J Day, for just two years ago the Japanese decided to "throw in the towel" and give up their part of the war as a bad job.

Veterans, as well as those at home, will recall the celebrations which took place.

The first of the celebrations came when it was reported that the Japs were giving up the fight, but then some of them kept fighting.

It wasn't actually official until the unconditional surrender was agreed to a few days after the first report.

Stubblefield's Installs X-Ray Shoe Fitter

Stubblefield's Department Store has added a new, modern X-ray machine to its up-to-date shoe department, Earl Stubblefield, owner, said this week.

The new machine reveals any deformity of the bone structure of the foot, and it not only helps to select the proper shape shoe, but it also determines if the shoe fits properly as to width and length, Stubblefield explained.

The machine is adjusted to three degrees of penetration: low for children, medium for women, and high for men. In the new X-ray machine, the flesh as well as the bone is shown so that it is absolutely impossible to fit shoes too short.

This is especially important to children, Stubblefield emphasized, because short, improperly fitted shoes can greatly damage the soft, pliable bones of a child's foot. It eliminates guessing when fitting children's feet, for it is well known that youngsters may not know "how the shoes feel" nor be able to express their opinions. "The machine permits you to actually see the fit of the shoes before they are purchased and worn, thus eliminating the annoyance of returning mismatched shoes," the store owner said.

Adults will be interested to know that it will also aid greatly in fitting arch supports, which has been a feature of the local store for many years, Stubblefield explained.

Area Airports Receive Aid

Airports in various towns in Texas were better off by $3,747,201 Monday when the Civil Aeronautics Administration officially approved the federal aid to municipal airports.

The Pampa Municipal Airport was granted $81,500 for its program of purchasing additional land, construction of buildings, improvement of runways, public utilities, lights, and other general improvements on the field.

Other cities in the area to receive aid are Borger, $225,000 (construction of an entirely new airport there); Wellington, $14,000; Chamrock, $11,000; Amarillo $250,000; Lubbock, $50,000; and Memphis, $10,000.

Judge Explains Tax Re-Allocation Measure in Meeting in McLean

Two Forged Checks Passed Here; Pair Held in Amarillo

At least two successful attempts to cash stolen and forged checks in McLean were made here recently as a group made this city one of the stops in a series of places hit by the check artists.

Two checks were taken, one at the Gents Furnishings and the other at Graham Hardware. Several stores reported turning down the checks due to lack of identification on the part of the holders of the checks.

Arrested in Amarillo in connection with the forged checks were Fred Whorton, alias Fred L. Jones, 23-year-old Ohio man, who was charged with burglary at Vega and with forgery at Amarillo. His wife, Darlene Whorton, 21, is also charged with forgery. Whorton was placed under $1,500 bond by Justice of the Peace J. D. Cazzell in Amarillo.

Two checks for $62 each were given in Amarillo, and were similar to those given here. The checks were written on the Miles Implement company of Vega on forms allegedly stolen there in a burglary July 31. Also taken in the Vega burglary was a typewriter, two fog lights, a fountain pen, and a signed $3,000 check which apparently has not been cashed.

The couple was picked up in Amarillo. A three-year-old child brought in with them has been placed in a boarding home by the welfare society.

Merchants here stated that the woman involved cashed the checks in McLean. She was, in each instance, accompanied by the small child, and her stories varied in the stores. In one case, the woman said they were tourists and lived in California; another story related that they lived in Vega, were driving around, and stopped here to shop; and still another story was that they were visiting relatives here.

McLean High School Livestock Judging Team First in State

McLean High School's livestock judging team composed of three local boys walked off with first place honors in the third state judging contests for vocational agriculture students at Texas A and M. Thursday of last week.

The local team, composed of Arvin Smith, Chester Goughly, and Dick Andrews, compiled a score of 2,683 points to take the first place honors. In second was the team from Melvin and third Panhandle.

The first place winners in this contest and in the meat judging contest will compete in the Future Farmers of America contest at the Kansas City Royal Livestock Show, to be held October 15-22.

Richland Springs High School took two first places, the poultry and egg contest with a score of 1517.66, and the meat judging contest. This poultry and egg contest team will represent Texas in the FFA national judging contests in those events at the National Dairy and Poultry Show at Waterloo, Iowa, September 30 to October 6.

September 1 Date Of School Opening

Definite opening date for the McLean public schools has been set for September 1. It was announced following a meeting of the school board Monday night.

Tentative opening for September 1 was announced last week. Vacancies on the teaching staff have now been filled, Superintendent Logan Cummings said this week.

11,844,000 Bale Production Is Forecast for 1947 Cotton Crop

The U. S. Agriculture department last week forecast this year's cotton production at 11,844,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight, and predicted that Texas will furnish over two million of these bales.

The estimate, based on conditions of August 1, compares with last year's abnormally small crop of 8,940,000 bales, and with a ten-year (1936-45) average of 12,390,000.

The Radio Service Lab is located in the White Auto Store.

Voters to Ballot On New Rates On August 23

Pointing out that the cost of running the county's government is increasing just as the cost of running one's own affairs is on the upgrade, County Judge Sherman White told business men in a meeting here last Friday that something has to be done to allow more money for county roads or they cannot be maintained as they should in the future.

Judge White was here to explain the tax re-allocation measure, on which voters will cast their ballots August 23.

He explained that the state legislature has passed a bill which will allow the commissioners court to re-allocate taxes collected, but that the re-allocation must be approved by voters before such changes can be made. It is this approval which is sought by the commissioners in the August 23 election.

Here's the situation, as explained by Judge White: The present maximum tax rate, which can be assessed by the commissioners, is 80 cents on the one-hundred dollars valuation, and is divided into four funds as follows: general fund, 25 cents; road and bridge fund, 15 cents; jury fund, 15 cents; and permanent improvement fund, 25 cents.

The present tax rate—that which was collected from taxpayers last year—is as follows: general fund, 25 cents; road and bridge fund, 15 cents; jury fund, 3 cents; and permanent improvement fund, 25 cents.

The commissioners are still allowed to assess only an 80-cent maximum tax, under the new law, but are requesting the voters to allow them to fix the maximum rates for each fund as follows: general fund, 25 cents (increased 1 cent over the former rate); road and bridge fund, 21 cents (increased 6 cents over the former maximum); jury fund, 4 cents (decreased 11 cents from the former maximum); and permanent improvement fund, 29 cents (increased 4 cents over the former maximum).

At present during the past year, taxpayers are paying an actual tax of 68 cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, although the commissioners could raise this to 80 cents. However, to make such a raise would only increase the jury fund, and no more money is needed in this fund. Excess money from one fund cannot be transferred legally to another, the judge explained.

More money will be needed to finance the county's government, and especially will more money be needed in the road and bridge fund, it was explained. The only way to get more money for the fund is through a higher rate of taxation in the road and bridge fund, and this is one of the main reasons for seeking the approval of the voters, Judge White said.

Should the law pass, it would become effective immediately. The commissioners would set the tax rate early in September, and taxes paid this fall would be on the new rates.

MRS. PATRICK RYAN BAKER

Miss Betty Terry, Patrick R. Baker United in Marriage

Candlelight and soft music formed an impressive background for the wedding ceremony of Miss Betty Terry, daughter of Mrs. Paul A. Pierson of McLean and Vance Terry of Woodward, Okla., and Patrick Ryan Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Baker of Woodward, Okla., on Friday evening, August 8, at the First Baptist Church in McLean.

Rev. John Ray Stephens, pastor, read the double-ring service. Miss Lois Hunter, pianist, of Woodward played nuptial selections and the traditional wedding marches for the processional and recessional. Miss Norma Lois Adams of Woodward, accompanied by Miss Hunter, sang "I Love Thee" and "Because" as a prelude to the ceremony.

Nuptial vows were exchanged before an arch entwined with white gladioli and fern, flanked on either side with baskets of white gladioli and white tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of white satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice and a full skirt with train. She wore long fitted lace mitts and pearls, which were a gift from the groom. Her fingertip length veil of bridal illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white orchid-topped Bible with a satin shower knotted with stephanote, and a handkerchief which belonged to her grandmother and had been mailed to her from a friend in Belgium.

Attending her sister as maid-of-honor, Miss Jean Terry wore a blue sheer dress over blue taffeta and carried a bouquet of tallman roses tied with white satin streamers.

The bridesmaids were Miss Ro Jean Travis and Miss Barbara Baker, both of Woodward. Miss Travis wore a pink sheer gown over pink taffeta, and Miss Baker, who is a sister of the groom, was dressed in a green sheer over green taffeta. Each carried shasta daisy bouquets knotted with daisies on satin streamers.

G. Clark Lawrence Jr. of Woodward was best man. Serving as ushers were Norman Terry of Woodward, cousin of the bride and Johnnie Griffith of McLean. White candles marking the bridal path to the altar were lighted by little Misses Donna Gail Stubblefield and June Stubblefield. The candles at the altar were lighted by Miss Dorothy Kephart of Woodward.

Mrs. Pierson, mother of the bride, was attired in a black sheer crepe dress with black accessories and wore a white gardenia corsage. Mrs. Baker, mother of the groom, wore a navy blue suit with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Colorado Springs, Colo., and will be at home September 1 in Norman, Okla., where they will continue their studies at the university. Mrs. Baker chose a brown moire taffeta suit with matching accessories for traveling.

Mrs. Baker graduated from Woodrow Wilson High School in Long Beach, Calif., attended two years at Oklahoma University in Norman, and is a member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority. Mr. Baker was graduated from Woodward High School at Woodward served three years in the navy, and is a pre-med student at Oklahoma University.

The bridal party was feted with a lawn reception at the home of the bride's mother following the reception. Guests were registered by Mrs. C. R. Griffith. Mrs. Carl Jones served the three-tiered wedding cake which was topped with a miniature bride and groom, and Mrs. Roger Powers presided at the punch bowl. The decorative table was laid with a white hand made cloth which belonged to the bride's grandmother.

Do you hope he gets away with it?

Suppose it were an automobile he was taking; would you still want him to get away with it? What the boy is doing is very human, isn't it? But is it right or wrong?

All through our lives we have to think whether it is right or wrong to undersell a competitor, to use power politics, to hold back some of the truth, to . . . well, to do a thousand different things. Those who want to build a better world are constantly concerned with the problem of right and wrong.

The Church, too, is vitally concerned with that problem. Its leaders and its followers have spent long hours studying, praying, living, to find the best and truest answers. The Church has good, realistic answers to the questions of right and wrong, answers all men need, answers that, if followed, will build a better world.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend and support the church of his choice. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church on Sunday and read your Bible daily.

Worley States Mexico Giving Full Support in Fighting Disease

BY EUGENE WORLEY

Observations and Conclusions

By the time the committee set out on its inspection tour it had by reason of its conferences at Amarillo and Kingsville, and in Mexico City, a fairly accurate idea of what to look for in the field. Since the factual data observed were so extensive and varied, it seems to the committee that its observations can be reported in the form of conclusions or opinions arrived at by the individual members as they saw what was actually being done and tried to fit what they saw into the pattern of the job ahead.

For purpose of clarity in reporting, the conclusions or opinions reached by members of the committee have been arbitrarily divided into those that are affirmative or encouraging, and those that may be regarded as negative or indicative of difficulties to be overcome.

Affirmative Observations

1. Cooperation.—The committee was impressed with the high degree of cooperation between the Mexican and the American officials engaged in this fight against "aftosa," as the Mexicans call foot-and-mouth disease. Operations appeared to be conducted throughout on a most congenial and cooperative basis.

2. Morale.—The morale of those engaged in the field operations appeared to be very high—even in the face of what seemed to the committee to be some very formidable difficulties.

3. Support.—The Mexican government appears to be giving the campaign its complete support. The committee believes that the American people should recognize and understand the high degree of courage it takes for the Mexican government to support this program. For centuries the ox has been, and remains today, almost the universal draft animal in Mexico. A farmer's oxen are almost as dear to him as members of his family. They are, in addition, his only means of support. It takes political courage of a high degree to tell farmers most of them too little educated to understand the broad implications of the situation, that their oxen must be slaughtered and buried in this campaign, even though they may have no sign of disease. It must be remembered, too, that in Mexico, as in the United States, there is always an opposition political party, ready to make political capital out of any mistakes of the administration—and that as regards the aftosa campaign this party has not been silent.

In spite of these considerations, the committee believes that the Mexican government is sincerely and effectively behind the campaign to eradicate aftosa and that the commission will continue to have its fullest support.

4. Acceptance.—Since the first of the year, the Mexican government has been waging a strong campaign of education. At first the eradication program was opposed by the great majority of farmers. At the present time it was estimated by the minister of agriculture, at least 90 per cent of the rural population has been won over to support this program.

This trend is being accelerated as mules, harness, and plows are being made available to farmers as replacements for their oxen. There was considerable indication that Mexican farmers are already "sold" on the advantages of mules over oxen as draft animals and that there is a growing willingness on their part, if not an actual desire, to exchange their plodding oxen for the more agile mules.

5. Quarantine.—The committee did not see the major military quarantine line that has been thrown across the country from

Uncle Sam Says

How many things can you buy which guarantee you these services for 10 years—$4 for every $3 just for holding on to the property for 10 years; money back for emergencies; and if it is lost or stolen nobody else has the right to cash it. Every time you buy a United States Savings Bond you get these benefits. And that's not all. The Treasury Department registers the bond in your name, the co-owner or beneficiary you designate. Keep a personal record of the serial numbers of your bonds, because it will make much easier the replacement of any Bond you may lose. Every U. S. Savings Bond represents service not only with a smile, but with profit.

U. S. Treasury Department

Tampico, on the Gulf, westward and southward to the State of Colima on the Pacific coast. It was informed, however, by numerous observers, including ranchers from northern Mexico, that this quarantine line is "pretty effective." The committee was favorably impressed with the many quarantine lines which it found within the infected zone.

As soon as an outbreak is reported, a quarantine enforced by the Mexican army is placed around the infected herd or area. This quarantine is as small as possible to contain the actual exposed and infected cattle.

Where there are several outbreaks in an area, or where a whole area within the infected zone is regarded as infected, a quarantine is placed around such area in an effort to prevent the spread into uninfected areas within the large infected zone.

Whenever a road crosses a quarantine line there is a disinfection station, where any persons or vehicles passing from the infected area are disinfected. Vehicles are driven through tanks in which disinfecting liquid covers the tires. The occupants walk through troughs in which the liquid is held in saturated sawdust. Trucks passing through quarantine lines are sprayed inside and out.

On its 850-mile auto trip, the committee estimated that it passed through about 75 such road blocks and disinfection stations. The quarantine is entirely the responsibility of the Mexican army and it was reported that more than 15,000 soldiers are being used for this purpose. The committee was, on the whole, favorably impressed with the quarantine and disinfection precautions.

Hot Water for Automatic Living

AUTOMATIC living! That's what the world demands today and that is what it is getting. Strangely, however, most of our new gadgets and gimmicks depend upon a very simple little thing—something which we have had for many years. Take the automatic clothes washer, for instance. You must have exceptionally hot water. We would suggest that you plan to have a good automatic gas water heater to provide the best service on your washer. Water should be 130 to 135 degrees Fahrenheit to do the job well.

Regardless of where you might live now or where you might plan to live, you can have all the advantages of modern gas appliances. I.P. Gas, which many know as "shutled" or "stack" gas, will do the job. Several companies in your community will sell and install the appliances and make regular delivery of gas to your home. The gas is compressed into a liquid form, which makes economical transportation possible, and you can store many, many cubic feet of gas in a small container. Incidentally, look into the possibility of an automatic gas clothes dryer as a companion piece for your washer. They are about the same size and shape and they make a complete laundry when installed together.

An agricultural reporter saw on the police blotter that a farmer had lost 2,025 pigs. The size of the loss seemed very heavy for such a small farm so the reporter drove out to investigate.

"Is it true that you lost 2,025 pigs?" he asked. "Yeth," hisped the farmer. The wise reporter made a note on his copy paper: "Lost. 2 sows and 25 pigs."

Fifteen thousand mechanical cotton harvesters, mostly of the type shown in the picture, will help gather the 1947 crop this fall, the National Cotton Council reports. August Time For Pre-School Health Exam

School days will soon be here again. Thousands of Texas boys and girls and teachers will be returning to the schools. Each child entering school should be as free as possible of any physical defects which can be corrected. The earlier these are corrected the better chance the child has for academic progress and for good social and emotional development, says Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer.

August is the time for a complete medical and dental check-up. Eyes, ears, nose, throat and teeth should be carefully examined by the family doctor and dentist, and all remediable defects corrected. If such defects are neglected, they may result in serious damage to growth and development.

Dental corrections often take time, but a person is repaid many times over for good dental care. Healthy teeth lend attractiveness to the personal appearance, enable thorough chewing of food, and promote good health.

In schoolrooms, children expose each other to many communicable diseases, especially the common cold and diseases such as measles, scarlet fever, whooping cough, and diphtheria. Protect the child from diphtheria and whooping cough, as well as smallpox, by safe and dependable immunization.

Miss Mona Meier of Amarillo is visiting with her aunt, Miss Eunice Stratton.
