"The boss!" Jim said and laughed to see Jimmy dwarfed by his chair.

And I began to wonder. When our son is ready to occupy that chair, what kind of a man will he be? Will he have integrity and a sense of responsibility for his employees? Or will he cut corners, use the people he works for-who work

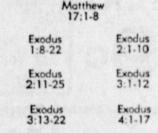

So much depends on us. Right now, he learns of love and kindness from our voices, our hands. As he matures, our values, respect for others and concern will help to shape his attitudes.

How glad I am that our Church offers a program of Christian education for Jim and me, as well as for Jimmy. As our son grows, so will we.

The strength you need to meet the responsibilities of your life can be found in your church.

CATTLE PRICES

A few weeks ago we pointed enter the pony express race out a few things that could cause A mutton barbeque was served starting from Los Angeles, and cattle prices to get a little wild. Most of these things have occurred. And cattle prices are now on prices of cattle that have been sold recently to my knowledge. We know of two sets of Juanita Hornsby, member of cattle that came in from Miscost $33.67, the other $34.57. These steers weighed a little less than than 300 pounds. This was three weeks ago. The same calves would cost $37.50 per cwt. Miss Darlene Shadid, junior today. Another set that came student and daughter of Mr. and from the Fort Worth area cost

One fellow called me from the ing to the results of the school's Grandview Community yesterbeauty contest announced this day and said, "I just set a record. I gave $40.25 a cwt. for Mrs. Ethel Smith of McLean some little steers that weighed and William Stanley Fairchild about 260 pounds." Another felof Austin were married Saturday low called from Fort Worth this afternoon February 19, with week and wanted to sell a doubof the First Baptist Church of weighed 359 pounds.
