Johnson Is Certified As Senator Nominee

Lyndon Johnson, 10th district congressman from Austin, was certified as winner in the run-off race with Coke Stevenson, former governor, for the office of junior U. S. senator from Texas when the State Democratic committee met in Fort Worth Monday and Tuesday.

The committee certified Johnson's name as the one to be placed on the Democratic line-up in the general election in November. He was declared winner by a margin of 87 votes out of the near-million which were cast. The committee's vote to certify Johnson was close, too, 29-28.

The fight on the floor of the convention did not develop into the free-for-all which had been expected, although attorneys for Stevenson made an attempt to

Report Shows Sixty Countians Have 'Definite' Tuberculosis

Of the 4,827 Gray County residents who were X-rayed by the portable unit of the State Department of Health August 24-28 in McLean and Pampa, 60 persons are reported to have "definite tuberculosis."

The report was received last week by Dr. Julian M. Key of Pampa, county health officer.

Persons of the McLean area who failed to have their chests X-rayed when the mobile unit was here are invited to participate in the program at Shamrock next week.

The X-ray equipment will be set up in the Community Building where the free State-Line Fair will be held September 23-25.

Persons may have their chests X-rayed Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, September 22-25, from 8 o'clock in the morning until 5 o'clock in the afternoon. On Thursday the service will be rendered until 7 o'clock for the benefit of those persons who cannot participate during office hours.

A total of 52 other persons were reported as having "suspect tuberculosis," and 24 others showed a "non-tuberculosis pathology," but other unfavorable chest conditions.

The total X-rayed to have definite tuberculosis was 1.24 per cent in the county, and those suspected of having the disease figured 1.06 per cent of the total.

The report showed that the non-tuberculosis pathology results included tumors, cardiacs, rib fractures, enlarged hearts, and scoliosis. Seven of the pictures did not turn out satisfactorily.

Most local residents received their reports last week. Those whose tests showed positive were notified to that effect, as were their family physicians.

San Antonio Firm to Buy Road Bonds

The Columbian Securities Corporation of San Antonio has been awarded the bid on the $125,000 in road bonds, it was announced Friday following a meeting of the commissioners court in Pampa.

The bond money will be used in buying right-of-way for Highways 66 and 70.

Sealed bids on interest rates were opened at the special meeting of the court. The bonds are a part of an authorization of $800,000 in a special election held in 1931.

The San Antonio firm entered a bid of 2.3964 per cent interest. High bid was 2.6 per cent entered by the City Bank and Trust company of Kansas City.

Other bids submitted were from R. J. Edwards and company, Fort Worth, 2.5; Dallas Trust company, 2.5; Central Investment company, Dallas, 2.414; and First South-west company, Dallas, 2.494.

The bonds are to be retired in amounts of $15,000, plus interest, each year until 1957, except the first year, 1949, when the principal and semi-annual interest are to be paid on July 10 and December 10 of each year.

Funds from the sale of the bonds will be used to obtain right-of-way of 200 feet, 100 feet on each side, for 17 miles along Highway 66, beginning at the east county line and running west to Donley County. Another strip of right-of-way will be purchased along Highway 70 from an undisclosed point north to the Roberts County line. The issues of the bonds will be in $1,000 denominations, according to the contract.

Griffith Is Named Outstanding Player of Week

Griffith is a tricky runner who turns on speed only when it's necessary. He scored on the second play from scrimmage against Hereford. It was a 63-yard gallop through line.

Griffith then worked his way through the Hereford secondary with an effective stiff arm, side-stepped two more defensive backs and outran a fourth for the tally.

The game who do the dirty work, the linemen, were just as sensational as the backs. Probably more so, for they made those long runs possible. One of the top centers was 190-pound Jack Brooks, another member of McLean's stout Class A outfit out of Panhandle way. He was a terror on defense in the battle with Hereford.

BY FRANK A. GODSOE JR.
Amarillo News Sports Writer

There were a half-dozen weeks during the 1947 football season when Johnny Griffith, cunning climax runner of the McLean Tigers, was a hot candidate for the Amarillo News-Globe "Player of the Week" award.

He raced to 14 touchdowns for 84 points, finishing fourth among the Class A scoring leaders of Region 1. It is known throughout the Panhandle that Griffith is quite a football player.

McLean Tigers to Meet Panthers Here on Tiger Field Friday Night

Ginners Expect Cotton Harvest To Get Underway This Week

The two McLean ginners, L. H. Earthman of the Planters Gin and S. R. Jones of the McLean Gin, expect boll pulling to get underway throughout the McLean area on a somewhat large scale the latter part of this week.

The two gins have handled only a few bales of early-opening cotton thus far, but both announce they are now ready to do ginning work.

How much cotton will be ginned here is not known, of course, but most observers feel that the area will produce more than 3,000 bales. Last year, about 1,700 bales were ginned here, and before the recent hot spell of weather it was thought the area might produce 3,500 bales.

The hot weather of a couple of weeks ago cut production some, since the roots of the cotton were not far in the ground.

The inch of moisture which fell last week, however, will aid the cotton considerably.

Feed crops are looking good, and many farmers plan to start gathering feed very shortly.

George Preston brought in the first bale of cotton September 1 from the Skillet community. The bale was ginned at the Planters Gin, and premiums totaling $109 were collected from local merchants and individuals.

Those contributing to the premium money were Ernest Watson, J. A. Meador, E. D. Reed, Ruel Smith, Roger Powers, Stubblefield's, Greyhound Drug, Emory Crockett, Cooke Chevrolet Co., M and M Appliance, C. J. Cash, E. C. Bragg, Graham Hardware, F. L. Jones, M. G. Seek Revenge For '47 Defeat At Panhandle

The McLean Tigers, twice this season victorious on the gridiron, will attempt to keep that record clean when they meet the Panhandle Panthers in the second home game of the year Friday night.

The game will be played on Tiger Field, beginning at 8 o'clock. The Panthers last year downed the Tigers at Panhandle by a score of 26 to 0. It was the opening game for the Tigers, and they will be out for revenge this year.

The Panhandle eleven is reportedly weaker than usual this year, having lost a number of players through graduation at the end of the school term last year. In their opener last week the Panthers dropped their game to the always-powerful Phillips Blackhaws by a score of 33 to 6. Panhandle has not won from Phillips, however, for the past nine years.

McLean's eleven started off their season September 3 with a 24-0 victory over a comparatively weak Groom eleven, and last Friday night dusted off Hereford 19-6.

Most improvement in the local team is being shown in the line. Bob McConaghie, who had been unable to practice until last week due to a finger injury, enforced the Tiger line against Hereford. Jack Brooks, regular center, also showed much improvement in the tilt with the Whitefaces.

Ends Bobby Bruner and Vic Shelton have done well in both games thus far. Vernon Turner, a newcomer to the squad this season, is playing very well in one of the guard positions, while wily Johnny Vineyard is ably holding down the other slot. Lee Roy McCracken is also doing well in his tackle position.

The backfield of Johnny Haynes, Johnny Griffith, L. M. Watson, and Jimmie Newton, with Charles Bailey as a substitute, is gaining an enviable reputation throughout the district. So far this season, Watson has scored 12 points, Griffith 12, and Haynes 7. Newton, mainly used as a blocking back, seldom carries the ball, and is sometimes switched to the line as guard, a position he played last year very capably, when Bailey is substituted in the backfield.

Coach Al Duncan and his assistants, A. D. Shaver and Don Leach, have been working the squad this week in preparation for the meeting with the Panthers.

Quarterback Club To Meet Monday

The McLean Quarterback Club will meet at the City Hall Monday night at 7:30 o'clock for its initial session of the year. President Roger Powers announced Wednesday.

New officers for the coming year will be elected. Powers said, and other business of the club will be discussed.

McLean Tigers Defeat Whitefaces 19-6 at Hereford

The McLean Tigers took a stranglehold on the Whiteface bulls at Hereford last Friday night, scored twice in the first quarter and once in the final period to down the potato-wheat country team 19-6 in a non-conference Class A football tilt.

The Tigers were outwaged on the line about 22 pounds to the man on the average, although the local backfield had a 17-pound advantage over the Whitefaces.

The game was not one-sided by any means, and when Hereford took the ball on the opening kick-off and marched for two first downs before punting, there was doubt on the faces of the many McLean fans who followed the team to the distant town.

But on the second play from scrimmage when the Tigers did get the ball, Johnny Griffith circled right end, raced 62 yards and went over the line standing up to give the Tigers a 6-0 advantage. L. M. Watson's kick was no good.

Later in the first period, the Tigers worked the ball down from the Hereford 39 to their one-yard stripe, from where Watson plunged it over. Johnny Haynes' kick was no good.

In the fourth quarter, the Whitefaces, after threatening several times to score, set up for a touchdown when Jack Stanton passed to Bob Hamilton to the McLean 19. Several plays later, Bill Engman, speedy Whiteface back, carried to the one, and Stanton went over from there to make the score 12-6.

The Tigers took the kick-off, Watson returned one kick for 5 yards.

On the line, Jack Brooks played a heads-up game, never letting the opposing 215-pound center bother him. He not only did a good job in getting the ball to the tacklers, but played a jam-up good game as line-backer.

Bobby Bruner also showed up well on the line, playing in his end position. Johnny Vineyard, playing left guard, showed that weight is not all important. Vineyard, one of the lighter linemen, is as tough on the gridiron as is the boxing ring.

Bob McConaghie, playing for the first time this season in the Hereford game, didn't let his sore finger interfere with his playing. McConaghie played right tackle, and when he was relieved at times during the game, the strength of the line was weakened, indicating that he will live up to expectations all during the season.

Vernon Turner again played a good game on the line, and indications are that he will continue to do that same thing all during the season. Charles Bailey again found himself substituting in the backfield, and many expect him to see much service this fall.

The scoring plays were as follows:
Hereford received the opening kick-off, picked up two first downs, but finally punted to the McLean 30. Haynes returned to the 36, and Watson plunged to the 38. From there Griffith circled (Continued on page 8)

T. E. C. Office Aids in Placing Harvest Hands

With cotton harvest drawing nearer, the Texas Employment Commission office in Pampa is trying to route cotton harvest hands to farmers who never needed. L. P. Fort, office manager, said this week.

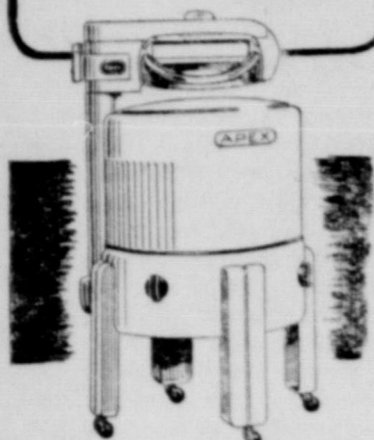

Ginning has already started in McLean, the first bale having been ginned September 1, although cotton is still coming in very slow. It is believed that it will be two or three weeks before much activity is shown.

With good crop prospects, it is evident that there will be an urgent demand for hands. Fort pointed out. The TEC will engage in active recruitment on a state-wide basis.

Representatives of the Pampa office will work in Wheeler, Shamrock, and McLean, and will be in close touch with cotton ginners over the entire producing area of Gray, Wheeler, and Hemphill counties.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Crocker of San Antonio left Monday for their home after visiting with Mrs. Crocker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cortis, and friends here. They will continue their schooling at Trinity University.

Fire Can Cause Hot Grid Games

Opening football games over Texas will be hot ones, Marvin Hall predicted after looking at the latest weather reports, but he expressed the hope that none would be made warmer by stadium fires.

Calling on school officials to see that stadiums are as fire resistant as possible the state fire insurance commissioner said the greatest hazard to life in case of such a fire would probably be panic.

There is a possibility that combustible material in a stadium might be sprayed with flame-proof material in order to lessen the chances of spread of a fire. Hall suggested that as the playing field is put into shape for the season, that ground under grandstands also receive attention after standing idle. All weeds should be cut down and disposed of along with any rubbish and trash under and around bleachers.

Carelessness in tossing away lighted cigarettes and matches is the main cause of stadium fires, Hall stated.

"When fire occurs where a large crowd is assembled, and exits or means of escape are limited there is usually a stampede in which many are trampled to death or injured," he stated.

"Football stadiums have more than the usual amount of hazards due to narrow steps and lofty seats."

Should a fire break out in the grandstands, Hall recommends to spectators that they remain calm and move to the nearest exit as orderly and quietly as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Appling and Mrs. S. A. Cobb, accompanied by Mrs. Vada Kisner and daughter of Amarillo, visited Sunday with relatives in Dallas. Darla Thames who had been visiting with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Appling, was met in Dallas by her mother, who lives in Galveston.

Labor Demands In Area Hike

In the Pampa area labor demands are up and supply is down, according to L. P. Fort, manager of the Texas Employment Commission in Pampa. Industrial demand is keeping pace with agricultural demands, said Fort.

At the present time there is a demand for laborers to plant wheat, harvest feed, and a few farm jobs are open for year around families. Housing is furnished on permanent farm jobs.

The demand for laborers in industry is growing more acute. Today there are jobs open for about 60 men. These are construction laborers, pipe liners, street building, janitors, ware-housemen, receiving clerk, railway yard clerk, office credit man, engineering aide, insurance salesman, porter, auto service station attendants, and many farm jobs.

Cotton harvest is yet some weeks off. Industrial activity is climbing. It is believed that cotton harvest will be taken care of by itinerant labor, but industry in this area is "scraping the bottom of the barrel."

There are some migrant laborers from all over the nation, but few of these stop and take jobs.

100 THINGS

EVERY DAY finds more and more Communistic ideas cropping up throughout the world, usually through mis-informed people. For that reason The News is publishing questions and answers—100 of them—from a booklet entitled, "100 Things About Communism in the United States," prepared by the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Here are more of those questions and answers.

49. What kind of people become Communists?
The real center of power in Communism is within the professional classes. Of course, a few people respond to the Communist claim that it is a "working class government." But taken as a whole the party depends for its strength on the support it gets from teachers, preachers, actors, writers, union officials, doctors, lawyers, editors, businessmen, and even millionaires.

50. Can you quit being a Communist when you want to?
The Communists regard themselves as being in a state of actual war against life as the majority of Americans want it. Therefore, Party members who quit or fail to obey orders are looked on as traitors to the "class war" and they may expect to suffer accordingly when and as the Party gets around to them.

51. How does the Communist Party of the United States work, day by day?
The Communist Party of the United States works inside the law and the Constitution, and outside the law and the Constitution with intent to get control any way it can.

52. What are some types of Communist activities within the law?
Working their way into key positions in the schools, the churches, the labor unions, and farm organizations. Inserting Communist propaganda into art, literature, and entertainment. Nominating or seeking control of candidates for public office. The immediate objective of the Communist Party is to confuse and divide the majority so that in a time of chaos they can seize control.

53. What are some types of Communist activities outside the law?
Spying, sabotage, passport fraud, perjury, counterfeiting, rioting, disloyalty in the Army, Navy, and Air Force.

54. What are some official newspapers or magazines of the Communist Party?
Daily and Sunday Worker, 50 East Thirteenth Street, New York City; Morning Freiheit, 50 East Thirteenth Street, New York City; Daily Peoples World, 590 Folsom Street, San Francisco, Calif.; Masses and Mainstream, 832 Broadway, New York City; Political Affairs, 832 Broadway, New York City. There are also numerous foreign language publications.

First Wax Polishing In 500 Years

ST. AUGUSTINE, FLA.—Look at the shine on the shell of this 500-year-old Galapagos Island tortoise. It's the first cleaning and polishing the old boy has received in his lifetime. Note the dull shells in the foreground as contrasted to the one which has been polished with liquid wax. These tortoises are believed to be the oldest in the world. The Galapagos tortoises are desert dwellers in their native islands and do not care for water.

LES TALK BY LESTER

Two down, eight to go.

That's the score for the McLean Tigers now, following their defeat of a heavy and capable Hereford team last Friday night at Hereford.

The Tigers, all of them, played a good game. The addition of Bob McConaghie to the line helped a lot, and Jack Brooks played an excellent game at center. He did much, much better than in the Groom game. Bobby Bruner also played an excellent game on the line in his end position.

The backs were very good, of course. Johnny Griffith was the workhorse this time, carrying the ball 18 times from scrimmage. I. M. Watson made 11 runs, two of the three touchdowns. Johnny Haynes handled the ball much smoother than in the Groom game, and made several excellent runs, including one pass interception run-back of 40 yards. Jimmie Newton and Charles Bailey showed up well, too.

It appears that the Tigers have a good chance to win more this fall. The line improved immensely from the Groom game, and the backs look even more polished. Other District 2-A teams played, and there's competition ahead for us. Shamrock barely beat the powerful Wheeler Mustangs, but the Irish won and 14 to 7 is as good in the books of history as 100 to 7 would have been. Memphis dropped another, this time to Class AA Quannah 31 to 7. Lefors showed power in downing White Deer 19 to 7. The White Deer team led at the half 7-6. Clarendon, apparently weak this year, got by Class B Claude 18 to 6. And Wellington lost to Perryton by 13 to 6. Perryton was supposed to win by a larger score.

This week we meet Panhandle here. The Panthers lost to the always-strong Phillips eleven last week by a 33-6 score, but Assistant Coach Don Leach who scouted the game for the Tigers, says the Panthers have a fair team. Let's all go see Friday night.

I've often heard that the way to a man's heart is through his stomach.

I really don't believe Mrs. S. J. Dyer is after my heart, but she really did my stomach a big favor last week. She brought me some beautiful fresh strawberries Wednesday of last week. I managed to stretch them out for three meals—for supper Wednesday night, with my cereal Thursday morning, and then again for dinner Thursday noon. They were delicious berries. Thanks a million, Mrs. Dyer.

Back to football again. The chartered bus trip to Hereford last Friday night was a treat. The Caprock bus line took us over in a brand new bus—this was its first trip except for the trip down from the factory. The driver, and the bus line manager who also along, were extremely nice to everybody, and all on the bus seemed to enjoy the trip.

We stopped at Canyon on the way over to eat, and there was a scramble for the better seats on the bus after the meal. Mrs. Jim Back, the English teacher at the high school, was a little late in getting back to the bus, and some of her students on the bus tried to make a deal with her—a choice seat for an "A" in English. She didn't deal, however, but she finally did get a seat.

When the bus got to Hereford, we circled down through the business section. Everyone was letting out blood-curdling yells to let the Hereford people know we were there. But there wasn't anyone on the streets to hear. We all yelled anyhow, however.

Despite the fact that we won the game, the bus passengers were very quiet on the way back. There was sleeping to be done. And it was.

Schools Must Prepare for More Children

Texas must adequately prepare for 150,000 more children in its schools in the next decade or lower its educational standards. Charles H. Tennyson, director of public relations for the Texas State Teachers Association, sounded that warning in Austin this week.

The huge increase in the birth rate during the last few years will add to the enrollment in Texas schools by nearly 82,000 pupils four years from now, and by 152,000 in 1957, Tennyson said. "The vastly accelerated birth rate throughout the United States since 1941 has cheered business men, but it is causing great concern among educators," the TSTA official declared.

"Texas is no exception. From figures on the annual birth rate provided by the United States Bureau of Vital Statistics, we know that births increased 1,549,601 in 1940 to 3,010,000 in 1947.

"That is just the beginning. Enrollment will snowball from then on. The situation will become acute in 1953. An accurate estimate places the hike in enrollment in Texas that year at 81,568 pupils. Nine years from now we will have 152,004 additional students in our schools, or a total of 1,660,004."

Federal and state bureau and insurance company statistics show that nearly 80 per cent of the children born each year reach school age. These experience figures make accurate estimates of future enrollment possible, Tennyson explained.

Protect Their Sight Too!

Better Light means Better Sight

Protection from traffic hazards is important, but just as important today is protection from eyestrain due to improper lighting.

Growing children need more care than older folks when it comes to making sure that the light is right. Their eyes, still developing, need every bit of care and attention they can receive.

Make sure, wherever children work or play, that the light is right. Low cost electricity makes it easy—and economical too—to provide GOOD lighting—always.

Prehistoric Pooch Got the Bird And Feathers and Vitamins, Too

500 Centuries Ago Fido Foraged For Himself

By TOM FARLEY

WHEN prehistoric man first bounced a club off his wife's jaw because she hadn't prepared the Broctonaurus steak to his liking, he probably tossed the indigestible dish to his prehistoric dog.

But Fido may or may not have eaten it. Because back in the days when a dinner guest was liable to wind up as the feature attraction of the independent creature. Although he may have been willing to make a meal of whatever bits of six-tailed fish and ten-legged cat his master offered, he was completely capable of foraging for himself. His manner of choosing his food was simple. If he could catch it, kill it and chew it, he would eat it. And, he did so, consuming his entire prey, fur, feathers, and all that is if his master didn't happen upon the scene—in which case master got the bird and Fido, the feathers.

It wasn't until man's own eating habits changed that the dog had to subsist on his victuals. After man learned to cook and grow and use vegetables and fruits, he passed these refinements on to his dog. But what was good for man wasn't necessarily good for the dog and the dog's diet soon began to lack many of the most essential items. In his wild state meat had been a basic part of the canine's fare. When he caught a small animal or bird he consumed it entirely. And since small animals and birds lived mostly on grains and berries and usually had a stomach full he got his cereal and fruit vitamins regularly.

But under the new system he didn't. As civilization progressed along the road to jet airplanes and atom bombs, the dog's opportunities to forage for natural foods were more and more restricted. The remnants of human meals just were't enough. Mere table scraps failed to assure the balanced nutrition necessary to a dog's health. And the old idea of "my dog eats what I do" probably killed more dogs than distemper.

The history of dogs and men is long. For at least 500 centuries the two have lived together. As far back as the stone age there were already two breeds. A house variety descended from the jackal and a shepherd type stired by the wolf.

And in this long history the period during which man, through lack of knowledge, failed his pet was short—not over a few hundred years. For in the early days of the twentieth century he began to give attention to the diet of his "best friend."

At first, of course, this attention was largely on the part of kennel owners and breeders, for the mixing and blending of foods was a long and tedious job and was based on all too little knowledge.

Then big business became interested in dog feeding. Fido's food requirements became a whole field of research, supported primarily in the beginning by several large meat packing companies. Hundreds of thousands of dollars were spent on study, experimentation and the accumulation of data, in veterinarians colleges and universities and in the research laboratories of the meat packing companies themselves. Different breeds of dogs were fed on specially prepared diets and their state of health carefully observed through generation after generation.

Man profited, too, for scientists delving into the feeding of dogs discovered a lot of things that were of great value to humans. For instance, in 1937 Dr. C. A. Elvehjem and his co-workers at the University of Wisconsin found that nicotinic acid was the specific vitamin concerned in pellagra, the human equivalent of the canine black-tongue disease.

As the cumulative effects of these research programs became felt prepared dog foods advanced rapidly toward providing the modern pup with every vitamin of which civilization had deprived him. The instinct tells him nothing about living in our modern world. He is dependent on man for his food, his health and, ultimately his happiness.

prevent accidents. Courtesy saves lives. You never heard of anyone apologizing for being courteous, but you can be sure that many a driver has been sorry for his recklessness.

He listed these courtesy tips for drivers:

1. Use hand signals to inform other motorists of your intention to turn or stop.
2. Know the lane you should be in, then stay in that lane. Don't take your half of the road out of the center.
3. Recognize a situation where others have the right-of-way, and yield to them.
4. Don't insist on the right-of-way, even when it's rightfully yours.
5. Give pedestrians a break. They can't walk or run as fast as you can drive.
6. Use your horn to warn, not latest, and perhaps the greatest single step in this direction came in 1946 when the Department of Agriculture, feeling that it had sufficient information on which to base its specifications, announced it would certify dog foods meeting certain minimum requirements.

Under the regulations for certification, any manufacturer of canned dog foods who meets the department's rigid requirements for quality and variety of ingredients, and submits to federal inspection is entitled to carry on his label a small keystone-shaped seal certifying that the product has been inspected and certified by the Department of Agriculture as a normal maintenance dog food.

Of course, Rover hasn't gone back to the stone age. The new foods and new knowledge have done much more than put back the vitamins of which the dressing and cooking of foods had deprived him. They have made him a finer animal and have given him longer life. Breeders estimate that, like man, the life span of the dog is increasing every year.

The dog's natural instincts are becoming of less and less use to him. What with dodging cars, being kept on leash and prohibited from barking, hunting and fighting, he is having to learn a whole new set of rules. By nature he'll still guard the home just as he maintained his night-long vigil in the caves of Asia Minor. And he still turns round and round before he lays down to trample the grasses and check for enemies as he did in the forests of primeval Europe. But his

Don't Try Driving in Courtesy, Says Safety Director

You wouldn't rely on another to tip your hat when you see a lady. Neither can you let your reputation as a courteous driver on someone else's courtesy.

That was the statement made by George Clarke, managing director of the Texas Safety Association, in commenting on the "drive through courtesy" campaign being sponsored by the National Safety Council and cooperating organizations.

"Make courtesy characterize your driving—then watch your driving improve," declared Clarke. "Every driver and every pedestrian should keep constantly in mind that thought that courtesy does

—PROCLAMATION—

WHEREAS, the President of the United States has proclaimed September 18, 1948, as Air Force Day to honor the air arm of the National Military Establishment; and

Whereas, the United States Air Force on September 18, 1947, in the 40th year of its history as the world's oldest military air organization, became an autonomous Air Force, and is this year observing its first anniversary as an independent organization in the defense structure of our nation; and

Whereas, a grateful citizenry, recalling the years of experience, of development, and of service that have produced its present capabilities and efficiency, recognizes the United States Air Force as one of the nation's most far-reaching weapons of defense;

Now, therefore, I, mayor of the city of McLean, in order that we may honor the men and women of our Air Force for their contributions to the development of American aviation and to the growth of American air power, and in the sacrifice of their lives, and likewise recognize the service of those who in the armed forces or in the civilian centers of science, research, and production have aided in the building of our air might, do hereby proclaim Saturday, September 18, 1948, as Air Force Day in McLean, Texas.

I urge all citizens to join in the observance of this, the first anniversary of the United States Air Force, in the 41st year of American military aviation, with ceremonies appropriately expressing their appreciation of the contribution of American military air power to our present peace and freedom and their faith in American air power as a guarantee of continuing peace and lasting security.

In witness thereof, I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the city of McLean to be affixed.

Done this 13th day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-eight, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventy-third.

Boyd Meador, Mayor.

New England is responsible for a lot of things. Not the least blameworthy of which is the historical bunk their be-whiskered poets have fostered. Paul Revere was the most over-rated man the world has ever seen.

And Whittier, the Quaker poet, just plain lied about the Barbara Fretch incident. When pinned down, he said in effect, "Suppose it didn't happen?"

Yet in my school days we read Longfellow's "Midnight Ride of Paul Revere" and "Who harms a hair of you gray head dies like a dog; march on, he said"—and quite likely the present generation of Texas school boys and girls continue to read this stuff while Southern poets like Lanier fade into forgetfulness and O. Henry, the Texas genius of the short story, is almost ignored.

How brief is fame!

Winston Churchill, one of the great statesmen of all time, wrote these words in 1906:

"I regard him as the biggest and most original mind I have ever met. When I was a young man, he instantly gained my confidence and I feel that I owe the best things in my career to him."

He was speaking of an American, Bourke Cochran, whose name perhaps not on in a hundred readers of this column ever heard.

But in his day, Bourke Cochran was chosen as the champion of the gold standard to reply to William Jennings Bryan's free silver speech in New York City in 1891. As a member of Congress, Cochran was the foremost orator. He was an advocate of Irish freedom—and swayed throngs in Ireland. He advocated free trade—and audiences cheered him in England. In fact, so greatly did the English admire him that they urged him to move to England and become a member of Parliament.

How swiftly fades a name!

Mr. & Mrs. Browning Complimented With Bridal Shower

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Orville Browning were complimented with a bridal shower Tuesday, September 7, in the basement of the First Baptist Church in Leno, Texas. Hostesses were Mesdames W. E. James, A. Swafford, L. E. Berryman, Strassner, Vera Ferguson, Cleve Johnson, all of Leno, and C. E. Cook and Vester Dowell of McLean.

The church parlor was decorated with a lovely arrangement of pink and white dahlia. Punch and cake were served from a hand-made lace covered table with a centerpiece of a bride and groom made of white crepe paper and with three arches decorated with pink and blue satin ribbons and delicate flowers in pastel colors. White satin bows with a large white wedding bell completed the arches. The base of the stand was decorated with fused white crepe paper flowers on either side by large double candles.

Other table decorations included small umbrellas of pink, blue and white, trimmed in white lace and pink and blue satin ribbons. Pink and blue hats, and attractive mini cups of pink and blue crepe paper with blue and green streamers, and the tablecloth also featured the umbrella motif.

Miss Betty Lou Pulliam presided at the guest register. Miss Jo Alice Tubbs received the guests, and Miss Rachel McNeal had charge of the gifts. Mrs. Don Crocker of San Antonio the former Miss Billie Cook, placed plans selections while the guests arrived. Miss Joyce Browning poured the punch, Marjorie Swafford served the cake, and Mrs. Berryman presided at the table service.

The bride was presented with a corsage of pink centered small white dahlia with a white veil.

OFF TO SCHOOL!

School bells are ringing for the first time this month for these two young gentlemen. The youngest of the lot seems a bit dubious about the job that awaits him in a kindergartens classroom, but his beaming happy grin is going to be a wonderful asset. They're well-dressed school boys in outfit by Johnnie in cotton Zephyr overalls, cotton knit socks, and knit cap trimmed with matching corduroy top.

Miss Jo Alice Tubbs and Miss McNeal sang "Del Me Why" accompanied by Miss Marjorie Swafford. Mrs. Crocker played a number of piano selections, and Miss Swafford gave a reading, "A Good Home Maker," and presented the gifts to the honoree.

Mr. and Mrs. Browning are attending Baylor-Seminole University at Abilene and are teaching their home at 2608 Hickory.

Be Sure Child Okay Physically

Dr. C. W. Cook, state health officer, urges the parents of all children who will return to the school for the first time in September to be sure the child is physically strong for school duties.

"First and foremost is the need for vaccination against measles, diphtheria and polio. Parents and physicians should see that children are vaccinated before they are six years of age, however, if not done previously, at school age vaccination becomes absolutely necessary," Dr. Cook said. "If your child has not been vaccinated, have it done immediately so that the sore will be completely healed before school opens."

Immunization against diphtheria is also highly desirable, Dr. Cook believes. This disease, which causes serious illness and death among young children can be prevented with toxoid. The child who has never been protected should be given this substance against a dreaded disease. Even though he may have been immunized as a baby, doctors and health officers usually recommend an additional dose of toxoid to

Uncle Sam Says

Keep the wagon washed. It may be found to be soiled and bugabooed if you are not washing over a part of your wagon every two days. Bugabooes can get up unexpectedly and now is the time to prepare for them. They can get you in many ways—money, mud, and the worst of all, a child's attention. If the wagon is soiled, or suppose your wife or your children should become sick? The best attack on these bugabooes is to use U.S. Sanitary Wash, wash after work, wash after meals, wash after meals. Wash up before the Personal Sanitation Plan when you work, or if well equipped, for the Road-to-Health Plan at your bank.

strengthen immunity before entrance into school

"In addition, before you send your child to school you are urged to take him to your family physician and dentist for a thorough examination," Dr. Cook added. "You will want to know that he is in good physical condition and can compete with the other children on equal terms. If the check-up reveals any weakness or defect there will be time to build up his general health and correct dental defects before school opens. Don't let your child start his school life with any avoidable handicap."

Mrs. Carl Cortney of Beaumont, Mrs. Bonnie Swanson of Amarillo, and Mrs. Jack Davis of Kansas, Okla. were guests in the home of Mrs. Nida Green recently. Duane Davis returned to his home in Kansas after a week's visit.

Clayton Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Moore, left Sunday for Austin, where he will enter his freshman year at the State University.

Proof that Johnny is up to his old tricks are the statistics of the McLean-Herford game at Herford last Friday night. He chewed off 190 yards from scrimmage, scored on a 63-yard dash on the second play for McLean, had an average of better than 10 yards per lug. McLean won 19-6.

Griffith was a hot operator in McLean's opening game of the season as the Tigers beat Groom 24-0 on September 3. Here's a tabulation of his heroics that night: Ran to touchdowns on jaunts of 19 and 41 yards. Returned three kicks an aggregate of 70 yards, setting up two other touchdowns. Aggregated 101 yards from scrimmage for 8 rushes, an average of 12.5 yards per trip.

Among the artifices at which he's adept are an effective stiff arm, an occasional limp leg, and a deceptive change of pace. He can spin out of the grip of a tackler and keep churning. He's never so dangerous as when it appears that the defenders have him cornered.

The Tiger fullback, incidentally, accomplished that race-ho running last Friday night while handicapped with several severe blisters on each foot. This talented young man weighs 170 pounds and plays fullback in Al Duncan's T-formation and assortment of other offenses.

The News-Globe is proud to salute Johnny Griffith as the first Class A player of the week, announcing the selection each Tuesday morning. . . . Week's Best Kicking: L. M. Watson, McLean sophomore, toed three beauties against Herford, averaging 42.5 yards per boot.

Department of Bouquets for the Linemen: Jack Brooks, scrappy McLean pivot man, played a fine game against Herford. Bob McConaghie, McLean tackle, won the praise of his coach for a good job against Herford.

the right end, and went on 62 yards for the first score. Watson's kick was wide and the score was McLean 6, Herford 0.

Watson kicked off to Herford, and the Whitefaces worked the ball to their 28. Engman got off a bad punt to the Herford 44. Watson picked up 5, and Griffith circled the left end to the 21. Haynes picked up 10 more around right end. Griffith made 2, Watson 3, and Griffith 1. From there Watson went through the center and over. Haynes' kick was no good, and the score was 12-0.

There was no scoring in the second period. Herford threatened, getting to the 19 before losing the ball on downs. With Watson, Griffith, and Haynes carrying, the Tigers in six plays worked the ball from their own 30 to the Herford 16 before losing the ball on downs.

A few plays later, Haynes intercepted Stanton's pass on his own 40, and returned to the Whiteface 40. From there the Tigers worked the ball to the 6, where the half ended.

There was no scoring in the third period. Herford made it to the 9, but lost on downs there. Watson got off a beautiful punt to the Herford 29. From there Engman found a hole in the Tiger line and went to the McLean 46. Stanton passed to Hamilton to the 19. Short line plunges put the ball to the 1, from where Stanton went over. There was an argument on the play before, since Jack Brooks covered Engman's fumble on the 1, but the officials ruled the whistle had blown before Brooks covered the ball. Stanton's pass for the extra point was no good.

The Tigers took the kick-off on the 30, and Haynes returned to the 40. From there they worked to the 5, where Watson plunged over. Haynes made the kick, and the score was 19-6.
