Tigers Play Borger B Team Here Tonight

The McLean Tigers, smarting from the 13-7 upset last Friday night at the hands of the Wellington Skyrokers, will meet the Borger Bulls, Borger High School B team, on Tiger Field tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 o'clock. The Tigers will probably play Borger eleven without the services of Johnny Haynes, quarterback, who was injured in the Wellington game last week. Haynes is recovering from a concussion but will in all likelihood rest this week. In place of Haynes, Coach Allison may use Charles Bailey, the man-under on the Tiger line. Bailey has been injured in that position, but suffered a slight injury in the Wellington game only a short while after he relieved Haynes. In the game, the injury suffered by Bailey was the only Tiger trouble in the Wellington game. But Haynes left the field and Bailey was also injured, the injury simply did not start until near the end of the game. Johnny Griffith, leading Tiger runner, was called the signals for most of the game, and it was his first experience in that detail. The Tiger line, however, did not pick up the Wellington. Apparently the line also missed some, who usually does an excellent job of blocking after turning loose of the ball on most of the formation runs. The line is unable to either make holes for the backs, or unable to hold long enough for the quick-play runs. The line backs also proved costly, just as the Rockets made. Bobby Borer, McLean end, played one of the best games this season at the position, however. Strong the Borger B team is not known here. The regular Borger eleven has had considerable success this fall, and it is expected that the B team will match a great deal of opposition in the Tiger eleven.

Draft Appeal Agent Named

William Jarrell Smith, Pampa attorney, has been named by Board 52, Selective Service Commission, as appeal agent for those registrants wanting their classification changed. C. H. Walker, chairman of the board, announced the week. Registrants wishing their classification changed are to report to Smith in the Combs-Worley building to have their appeals heard up. Their file and appeal will not be brought before the board until after the pre-induction examination.

Delay until after the pre-induction physical is being made because a man may be classified in 1-A if he does not pass the physical. In this case, there would be no need for a reclassification during the physical, then he will be granted an appeal hearing.

Mail Them Now—Christmas Packages

Date for mailing Christmas packages to servicemen overseas is from October 15 to November 15. Johnnie Beck, postmaster, reminded local citizens this week. There's a few points on what to include and how to send the packages: All senders are asked NOT to include food or clothing. No perishable matter should be included. No cigarettes or tobacco of any form is to be sent to Germany.

Politics Begin To Perk Up as Election Nears

Although there hasn't been much local conversation on the subject, political maneuvers in statewide and national circles have been capturing headlines during the past week. The two major parties, the Democrats and the Republicans, are faced with outside troubles for the first time in a number of Presidential campaigns, although no politicians believe either the States Rights Democrats or the Progressive party members will get very far. But there is a possibility that the States Rights candidates, J. Storm Thurmond and Fielding Wright, may accomplish what they have set out to do. They believe that their electoral votes will be the balance of power, since a Presidential candidate, to be elected, must receive a majority of the electoral votes. Should the States Rights supporters gain enough electoral votes, then neither Harry Truman nor Thomas E. Dewey could be inaugurated as President unless one received a majority of the electoral votes. In such case, the election would be thrown into the House of Representatives, and that group would select the next President and Vice President. That is what the States Righters are hoping for. Nobody believes Henry Wallace, the Progressive candidate, will get any electoral votes. In Texas, another angle to politics will probably bring out a large number of voters. Lyndon E. Johnson was finally certified as the Democratic nominee for the U. S. Senate over Coke Stevenson, and Johnson's name will appear on the ballot in the Democratic column. Now Stevenson has come out strongly in favor of Jack Porter of Houston, the Republican nominee for the Senate. It is believed that the turn of events will cause Texans to vote heavier than usual in the election November 2. The Panhandle voters will probably turn out heavily, due to the Senate race, and due also to the 18th Congressional district race. Eugene Worley, the incumbent, was faced two years ago with what was comparatively heavy Republican opposition, and this year he again has similar opposition. J. Everts Haley of Canyon, well known author and rancher, has been named as the Republican candidate for Congress. Haley is allowing his name to remain on the ballot.

Grade School Fire Poster Awards Made

Thirty McLean Grade School students, whose entries in the annual Fire Prevention Week poster contest were judged best, were given their awards Tuesday afternoon by representatives of the local Lions Club. The contests are sponsored each year by the Lions Club, and cash prizes are awarded to first, second, and third place winners in each room. This year winners in ten rooms were awarded prizes before an assembly of all grade school students in the gymnasium. Following the awarding of the prizes, all winners were taken on a ride down town in the two fire trucks belonging to the city. Driving the trucks were George Terry and Ernest Watson. Here are the winners in each of the six grades (some of the grades have two rooms, and are so designated): First grade, Mrs. C. M. Herington, teacher: first, Don Cash; second, Bobby Weaver; third, Leon Bennett. Second grade, Mrs. Lucille Parker, teacher: first, Jimmy Allison; second, Phyllis (Sissy) Hancock; third, Ronny Smith. Second grade, second room, Mrs. Margaret Guill, teacher: first, Billy Crockett; second, Barbara McConaghe; third, Joe Laurence Howard. Local Squad Is Treated to Steak Dinner

Members of the McLean Tiger grid squad were treated to a steak dinner Monday night in the Lions Hall by a few fans of the team. The feed was put on, it was explained to let the team members know that the fans are still behind them, win or lose. Only a few men were present, since space for a larger number did not permit and since the affair was arranged for quickly. But the boys did get plenty of steak, and beans and potatoes and cherry cobbler and hot chocolate. Following the meal, Coach A. Duncan made a short talk, pointing out that the services of Johnny Haynes, quarterback, were badly missed when he was removed from the Wellington game with a head injury. The coach also said that the fans could expect the local team to have no letdown in the games to come. Mayor Boyd Meador, in speaking for the city and its residents, declared that the town is still, and always will be, behind the team regardless of the outcome of the games. Superintendent Logan Cumming also addressed the group, and urged them to go ahead during the rest of the season and they would still be "in there" when the championship is decided. Motion pictures of the Texas-WTSC game of 1947 were shown to close the program. The meal was prepared by Mr. and Mrs. John R. Pulmer.

RAIN!

A total of 40 of an inch in moisture fell Wednesday afternoon and night to break a dry spell which had lasted about seven weeks. The needed shower, which fell slowly to allow maximum penetration, brought the total moisture for the year to 17.83 inches, according to a report from Pete Fulbright, local weather observer.

Possibility of Oil Field Causes Nearly as Much Talk as Football

Will McLean get an oil field all its own? That was the most discussed subject about town the past week or two—aside from the topic of football. The reason for all the talk was the good showing of the R. A. Brown No. 1, drilled by L. A. Helms and C. E. Hickman of Pampa. This test is approximately four miles north of McLean on land formerly known as the Thomas Estate, and now owned by R. A. Brown of Throckmorton. Cleaning out of the Helms-Hickman well was completed Sunday, and the tube running crew was at work Wednesday morning. The well pump and engine were on the site, and completion of installation of the pump may be done today. If this well turns out to be a commercial producer, and indications are that it will, then at least two offsets will in all likelihood be drilled. Helms plans to drill one to the south, and already has an approximate location picked out. The Warren Oil Corporation holds leases to the west and north, the lease to the west being only slightly more than 300 feet from the R. A. Brown No. 1. Whether Warren will drill an offset has not been announced, and it is not likely that such an announcement will be made until the Helms-Hickman well is further along. But that particular locality is not holding all the interest. To the north and slightly east, on the Wheeler Foster place, another test well, is about ready to go down. Roy Barker and E. H. Kramer will drill the well. The location to be only a few (Continued on back page)

22 Cars Grain Are Shipped From McLean

A total of 1,206 bales of cotton had been ginned at the two gins in McLean by Wednesday morning, and both ginners reported that their yards were loaded with cotton waiting to be ginned. The total so far this year is already above that ginned altogether two years ago, and only a few hundred bales short of last year's total crop. Both the grade and staple are holding up very well, the two ginners, L. H. Baartman of the Planters Gin and S. R. Jones of the McLean Gin, said. The good cotton is expected to continue to be brought in as long as no bad weather is experienced. One of the ginners reported that he weighed in 51 bales on Tuesday alone, indicating that the pulling season is about at its peak this week. Jones, who is buying grain sorghums for the Paul Allison company of Fort Worth, stated that he has loaded a total of 22 cars of grain thus far. He expects, judging from the amount bought so far, to ship between 30 and 35 cars of grain from the area. In some cases, a shortage of cars has forced Jones to pile the grain on the ground to await shipment. The weather this fall has been very favorable for the harvest of cotton and grain, since it has been fairly warm all fall with little moisture. Wheat growers, of course, need moisture for planting their winter cover crop, while cotton growers need more dry weather to gather their fall crop. Temperatures have ranged sufficiently high during the daytime hours to make outside work fairly pleasant. Monday morning found the coolest weather of the season coming, when the thermometer dropped to approximately 32 degrees in and around McLean. Some residents reported seeing a small amount of ice in low places, but the frost was not of the killing variety. Most old-timers believe the first general frost will come around the first of November.

Money to Buy Right-of-Way Expected Soon

Money to be used in the buying of right-of-way for widening U. S. Highway 66 through a portion of Gray County, derived from the sale of bonds, will probably arrive in the county this week, County Judge Sherman White said Saturday. The bonds, 125 of them, at denominations of $1,000 each, were signed and sent last week to the bonding company making the lowest bid, the judge explained. All 125 bonds were sold. A portion of the money is to be used in buying right-of-way from the Wheeler County line west 17 miles along Highway 66. At that point, the highway dips into Donley County and later returns to Gray County. Judge White explained that the highway department has not yet asked the county to buy that portion west of the dip into Donley. The other portion of the money derived from the sale of the bonds will be used in buying right-of-way for Highway 70 in the northern part of Gray County.

Draft Board Explains Status Of 1-A Students

In order to correct any misunderstanding and avoid unnecessary correspondence or trips to the main office in Pampa, C. H. Walker, chairman of the four-county Selective Service Board No. 52, has issued the following statement: 1. Full-time students in high school or college will be classified in 1-A and remain so unclassified until the end of the school year unless their status changes. They may be ordered for induction as others, but upon their written request they will be deferred until they finish their school year. If their status changes in any way, they are required to notify this board of that fact. 2. Any person may appear before the board any Tuesday at 2 o'clock if he is not satisfied with his classification. 3. After registrants are ordered for their pre-induction physical examination those who pass will not be ordered for induction for 21 days after their physical examination. 4. In any case any registrant is ordered for induction into the armed forces he will be given at least 10 days notice before the induction date. 5. Any registrant who thinks he has any obvious physical defects that would bar him from service in the army should appear (Continued on back page) last Friday night at Wellington. The score was Wellington 13, McLean 7. Despite the fact that the statistics give McLean the edge, the difference in the two teams was just about the same as the score indicates. Perhaps the score would have been different, and in favor of McLean, had not a head injury removed Johnny Haynes from the game early in the second quarter. The Tiger offense fell off after that, and stayed off until the latter part of the fourth period when the Tigers finally got to rolling. But without Haynes, who is also very good on defense, the team looked different. There was no one with enough experience to handle the ball under center on the T formation plays. Johnny Griffith was called upon to do most of the quarterbacking, and he hasn't been doing much of that in his grid career. But Griffith still played an excellent game, and probably what will be his best defensive playing of the year. The Rockets scored six points in the next-to-last play of the second quarter, and another seven in the third quarter. The Tigers scored their seven points in the final period when that offense got to moving. Griffith and L. M. Watson did most of the ball toting for McLean. Griffith carried 22 times for a net gain of 89 yards, and Watson carried 30 times for a net gain of 57 yards. Haynes carried twice before being removed from the game and picked up a total of three yards. Donald Cumming lost one yard on his only carry, and Charles Bailey picked up four on his only carry. Doing most of the damage for Wellington was 130-pound Bobby McCutchen. He ran with the ball only three times, but he was a passing threat as well. Gaston Williams carried 6 times for 54 yards, and Kenneth Strickland carried 10 times for 46 yards. Gene Moore, another lightweight back, carried 6 times for a net of 22 yards. Here's the way the scoring went: McLean took the opening kickoff and worked the ball from their own 45 to the 27, but a holding penalty put the ball back to the 35. Wellington managed several gains, but finally punted to the McLean 30, and Haynes returned to the 40. The Tigers got the ball to the Wellington 42, but were forced to punt. Watson punted to the Wellington 10, and Williams returned to the 38. From there, the Rocket offense got underway, but a fumble on the McLean 12 was recovered by the Tigers. After a series of plays, Watson got off a short punt to the McLean 20. The Rockets lost three yards on a run by Moore, and then Moore picked up four. McCutchen tried a pass which failed, and Moore passed to McCutchen to the 15, and he ran over. The ball was called back, and Wellington was penalized to the 42 for holding. Wellington then punted, but held the Tigers for no first down, and Watson punted to the McLean 46, and Williams returned to the 33. McCutchen's pass was no good. And then Moore circled left end to the 15, and Watson punted to the 35. Wellington managed several gains, but finally punted to the McLean 30, and Haynes returned to the 40. NEW DEMANDS

48 hours pay for 40 hours work
Penalty pay for weekends & holidays
25¢ an hour increase
Total 1 1/2 BILLION DOLLARS

1 1/2 Billion Dollar Road Block!

Railroads after decades around the clock every day and night of the year.

Although they know the losses of 15 railroad unions are demanding a 75-cent, Monday through Friday, wage for one million railroad employees.

They want 48 hours pay for 40 hours work—in still a 25¢ wage increase.

They also demand a minimum of 20 hours pay for 40 hours performed on Saturdays and holidays.

On top of all this they want an additional increase of 25¢ an hour for every employee.

You'd Pay the Bill!

Summing up these demands, they mean that these union leaders want to force the railroad to give one million employees an annual wage which would average $2500 per employee.

The total cost of this would be no less than 2 1/2 billion dollars per year, which is more than twice the reported net income of the railroad this year.

You'd pay the bill, because if these demands are granted, it's the railroad, the public, who will suffer the cost and the loss.

the public, too, will suffer the cost and the loss.

Demand's Unreasonable

These employees have had substantial wage increases during the war. Their average weekly earnings are higher than the average weekly earnings of workers in manufacturing industries. They have more job security than the average worker in American industry. They also enjoy paid vacations, a retirement system and other advantages not common to the average worker anywhere.

It contrasts with the demand of those 15 unions, which add up to the equivalent of 48 hours pay, the Government and Treasury recently notified that wage controls for an increase of 10% are here.

Railroads Run by Democracy—No Employee Alone

The railroad industry runs not only the many goods—passengers, businessmen, shippers, passengers and the general public—night and day, every day of the year. These unions are pressing for a strike designed to disrupt the important relations between railroad and other industries. Industrial plants can be shut down over weekends and holidays, but freight, mail, express and passengers must continue to move. Except for the other railroad employees, it's their job.

Strike Threat

On September 15, 1948, the leaders of these 15 unions began talking a strike vote. But the threat of a strike will not alter the opposition of the railroads to such unreasonable demands.

100 THINGS
NATURALLY the general election is attracting much attention along the line of Communism, particularly since Henry Wallace, one of the presidential candidates, is accused of being Communist. To acquaint our readers with Communism, The News is publishing this series of questions and answers of "100 Things You Should Know About Communism." Here are more of the questions and answers:

78. How does Communism expect to get power over the United States if it cannot win election?
The Communists only compete for votes to cover their fifth-column work behind a cloak of legality. They expect to get power by ANY means, just so they get it. The examples of Poland, Czechoslovakia, and other countries in Europe show just how many methods Communism applies. In each country different details—in all the same results.

79. Why don't Communists ever here go to Russia if they like the system so much?
They are on duty here to take over this country. They couldn't go to Russia even if they wanted to, except on orders from Moscow.

80. Which Communists get such orders?
High party officials and special agents who are to be trained in spying, sabotage, and detailed planning for capture of this country.

81. Where are they trained in Moscow?
The Lenin Institute, a college in revolution which teaches how to capture railroads, ships, radio stations, banks, telephone exchanges, newspapers, waterworks, power plants, and such things.

82. Does Stalin let American Communists in to see him?
Yes, Earl Browder and William Z. Foster, the two heads of the Party for the last 20 years, have both admitted under oath that they conferred with Stalin. The records show that Browder, for instance, made 15 known trips to Moscow, several with false passports.

83. Are American Communists used in the Soviet Secret Service?
Yes, here are the names of a few such agents proved on the public records: Nicholas Dozenberg, George Mink, Philip Aronberg, Charles Dirba, Pascal Cosgrove, J. Mindel, Alexander Trachtenberg, Julia Stuart Poyntz, Jack Johnstone, Charles Krumbain, and Albert Feirabend.

TALK BY LESTER

It's that time of year. No, I don't mean football season this time, but rather contest time. Mostly soap contests.

You can win and win and win, provided you do. Win, that is, in our neighborhood, we are going in for the contests pretty strong. I am getting to be quite adept (if that's the proper word) at completing jingles. I don't claim to be the Longfellow type of poet at all, but I really don't believe his type would win. However, neither has my type of jingle-fishings won either, so maybe Longfellow would have had a better chance.

Being given away each week are new Ford's, new Mercurys, new Bendix washing machines, etc. One company has a grand prize of a $5,000 paid-up charge account at your favorite department store or mail order house.

Anyway, if you are interested in entering contests, drop up in our neighborhood some night, and we'll give you some new contests to enter. Within a few weeks time you'll be rich—or else out of stamps and ideas too.

Speaking of contests, it has occurred to me time and time again since coming to McLean that there are innumerable contests and games of wit and sarcasm going on right here in this town all the time.

Everybody wants something done, something which would be good for the town and the area.

But no one wants to do anything about it. Once in a great while, someone does agree to do something about something, and then no one wants to help, or even cooperate.

McLean isn't on its last leg. But if things continue a few more years, things of a non-progressive nature, like they are now, that last leg will be gone.

I, not being a person with the needed leadership ability, don't know what to do about it. Do you?

If you do have some good ideas, and a willingness to at least help carry them out, why not write a letter to The News incorporating your idea, or ideas? You must sign the letter, but if you prefer that your name not be printed with the letter, then we'll leave it out. But you must sign it, or else it will go in the waste basket along with most of the ones we receive.

The columns of this newspaper are as open to you and your ideas as the air to mine. If you've got some pet gripe, then out with it. If you've got something good, or something constructive to say, then out with that, too.

Some people say that one head is better than two; others that two heads are better than one. But I believe that a good idea in one head, lying dormant, is worth absolutely nothing, when it might be good and workable if placed in the heads of many.

So let's broadcast some of those dormant ideas.

You members of the Tiger grid team—don't take the Wellington defeat too hard. Just go on and win the rest of the games, and we'll be sitting all right. It just so happened that Wellington had the better team Friday night, although we probably would have the better team any other night. Nevertheless, the Rockets did outplay you, although you do have a slight edge in the statistics.

It was a good game to watch even if we did lose. I sincerely believe that the team missed Johnny Haynes very, very much when he was injured and taken out for the rest of the game. I'll admit that the defense wasn't clicking too well even when Johnny was playing, but the offense was doing much better before he was hurt. That is one of the main troubles with our team—we have such a few reserves. Every man is a key man.

Anyway, we got beat Friday night. I hated that it had to be Wellington to give us that first defeat. I hated that part of it mainly because of Al Duncan. He coached there, you know, six years before coming here, and if there was any one game he really wanted to win, I imagine it was that Wellington game.

Actually, I believe we have a much better team than Wellington. But we didn't last Friday night. The score 13-7 just about indicates the difference there was last week-end.

Here it is, McLean! The 1949 FRAZER

Trailblazer—of cars to come!

Once in a blue moon the stylists and engineers outdo themselves. They create a car that goes beyond today and sets the pattern for cars of the future.

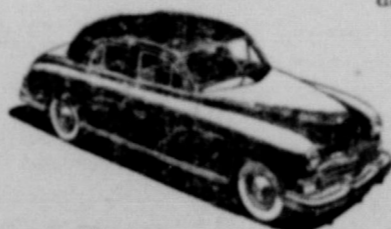

This is what they have done with the FRAZER for 1949!

Low, sleek and differently handsome it is the trailblazer in style of cars to come. Its exclusive colors and fabrics have made the world's leading fashion designers fall in love with it. They call it "the dream car".

The same car, the FRAZER for 1949, has even won the hard-to-win hearts of the test drivers who must relentlessly punish a car mile after mile for weeks on end. They say the Frazer makes such driving no punishment for them. Its driving ease and riding comfort "make 600 miles a day a breeze," they say.

There's a thrill waiting for you at your dealer's today. With 100 new features, improvements and refinements, the 1949 FRAZER is ahead of its time... out front—trailblazing the way for all the cars to come.

First to break clean and scrap tradition, the cars from Willow Run have done it again. Because unlike other "new" cars built since the war, they've road-proved their dependability—2 billion miles worth! Value-proved to a quarter-million justly proud owners. See and drive the new FRAZER now! It's at your dealer's. Kaiser-Frazer Corporation, Willow Run, Michigan.

Most of Fires Are Avoidable

"Carelessness is no really the cause of fires," states Marvin E. Hall, state fire insurance commissioner.

"It is not that a person doesn't care if he burns his house down or his wife burned or others, it is that he is ignorant or he is different to dangerous practices that cause fires."

Money for each of our fires are needed and could be prevented by continued. This is the only way to generally considered.

The $2 million fire loss in Texas last year proved that the danger of thousands of people 1947 losses were the highest in the history of the state and they are climbing higher this year, nearly reaching the $3 million mark through August.

Information on the prevention and control of fires is available in the county libraries, and local fire departments will supply books or plans of houses free. The commissioner suggested the marshals will talk with individuals or groups to tell them how to prevent fires.

"Well," came back the other, "maybe that's the reason you aren't the coach any more!"

Oil—

 feet from a test put down by the Lone Star Gas company a few years ago. The Lone Star company found oil, and had a producing well for a short while. The well was finally shut down, however. It was understood by The News that A. L. Hibler will be a partner in the well on the Foster place, and that the contract calls for two wells to be drilled. Barker and Kramer already have the rig set up, and work will get underway as soon as sufficient pipe is located.

Reports have also been made that other leasing is being done north of town, both to the east and to the west. The general run of the leasing seems to be between the Helms-Hickman test on the west and the new test on the Foster place.

Some royalty is reported as selling, too, but most of the royalty and land owners appear to be waiting to determine just how good the Helms-Hickman test will turn out.

Harvest Help Needed in Area

Cotton harvest help is needed near McLean, Shamrock, Wheeler, Mobette, Allison, and Briscoe, according to L. P. Fort, manager of Texas Employment Commission in Pampa.

An employee of the commission has set up a temporary stand at the outer edge of Shamrock on the Wellington road and will direct any incoming workers to shortage areas.

This particular area of Gray and Wheeler Counties is rather fortunate in that no enormous shortages of labor exist. It was noted that a total of 20,000 pullers are being asked for in several counties on the south plains.

The Pampa office is sending daily requests statewide asking that cotton harvest help be routed this way as fast as possible.

Close contacts are being made with all ginners in the area, and all possible means employed to get workers as quickly as possible. Cotton pullers may be routed to jobs from any cotton gin by the gin managers.

 3. Post Antelopes;
 4. Lockney Longhorns;

for the first touchdown. An attempt to run over the extra point was no good, and the score was 6-0. The half ended on that play.

McLean took the kick-off at the beginning of the second half, but were forced to punt, the ball going out on the Wellington 25. The Rockets took complete charge and worked the ball to the McLean 14. Moore was caught there for no gain on the first play, and then McCutchen passed to Williams who circled right end and went over for the Rocket's second marker. Jimmy Brook converted to make the score 13-0.

Then the Tiger offense began to click. Watson returned the kick-off to the McLean 41, and then picked up two yards. Griffith circled right end to the 49 and Watson went to the Wellington 47. Watson made another yard, and then shot a short pass to Griffith who ran around left end to the 29 on the next play, and the third quarter ended. With Griffith carrying four times, and Watson once, the Tigers got to the 12 yard line. Watson made no gain. Then Griffith carried for four, then two, and then one, and the ball went over on downs to the Rockets on the Rocket 5-yard line.

After three plays, the Rockets punted out on the McLean 22. With Watson and Griffith carrying, the Tigers got to the 15. Griffith picked up four yards through the right side, and on the next play went through the left side and over for the Tiger's lone touchdown. Watson converted to make the score 13-7.

Missionary to Speak Here

Miss Lena A. Boyd, missionary to India for the past 30 years, will be the guest speaker at the First Presbyterian Church in McLean at the morning and evening services next Sunday, it was announced this week.

Miss Boyd, whose home was in Santa Ana before beginning her missionary work, is a life-long friend of Mrs. J. M. Payne, and will be a guest in the Payne home this week-end. She will probably address the Presbyterian members on her work in India.

The missionary is now on a year's furlough from her work in India, and will be eligible for retirement at the end of the year. She plans, however, to return to India at that time, and live there for the remainder of her life, devoting her time, money, and energy to bettering the conditions of the Indian widows.

Her work has been in Punjab India. She is a graduate of Trinity University, finishing there when the school was located at Waxahatchie. While attending school there, she made her home with Mrs. Payne.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Dyer and Odell returned Tuesday from a week's visit in Pine, Colo., in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dyer.

A plateau is a high, table land.

Wellington took the kick-off, and worked down to the McLean 34, but lost the ball on downs. Watson tossed one incomplete pass. Then Griffith passed to Watson to the 44 as the game ended.
