First Polio Victim Here Is Reported

For the first time in several years, a case of polio has been reported in McLean—but fortunately, the victim has only a mild case of the non-paralytic type.

Joe Cooper, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Cooper, was taken to the polio clinic at Plainview Monday night. His case was diagnosed as a mild case of polio, of the non-paralytic type.

Young Cooper became ill Sunday, and began to run a temperature in excess of 100 degrees. The temperature rose Monday and a local physician was called. At first it was believed that he was suffering only from the flu. However, due to the higher temperature, it was decided to take young Cooper to Plainview for the necessary examination and his father left with him Monday night.

Word was received this morning that Joe is entirely out of danger, and is to be placed in a ward today.

It was pointed out that the case was only a mild one, and that little was to be feared. Actually, it was explained, such cases are hardly more serious than a bad cold, since they are of the non-paralytic type.

The boy is the first victim of the dreaded disease here in about three years, it was reported to The News. However, a number of cases have been reported in the county during the past two years, with the largest number at Pampa.

One Injured in Auto Collision

Mrs. Carrie Jewell of Huntington, Calif., suffered an injury to her knee when the car in which she was riding collided with a pick-up driven by Gene Kelly of McLean five miles east of McLean on Highway 66 last Thursday afternoon at about 1 o'clock.

Kelly, proceeding east in a 1948 Chevrolet pick-up owned by J. A. Smith of Pampa, was turning north when the pick-up was in collision with a 1940 Packard driven by Edgar D. McCurry of Wilmington, Calif. Mrs. Jewell was riding in the Packard with McCurry, and was taken to Shamrock for treatment.

Damage to the Packard was estimated at $500, and to the pick-up at $250.

66 Association Quota Reached

The quota of 60 memberships at $250 each (totaling $150) in the U. S. Highway 66 Association was reached this week, Lester Campbell, local director, stated.

The 60th member to join the association was J. M. Payne. The $150 quota assigned to McLean has been sent to the state secretary, C. K. Killough of Amarillo. Other memberships may still be bought, and may be obtained for $2.50 at The News office.

Shortage of Boll Pullers Hurts, But 609 Bales of Cotton Ginned

No Grid Game Here Friday —Tigers Rest

The McLean Tigers, victorious in five of seven games played this season, will rest this week-end before meeting on successive week-ends three of their toughest opponents—the Memphis Cyclone, the Shamrock Irish, and the Lefors Pirates.

At the present time, the Tigers are tied with the powerful Pirates of Lefors for District 2-A honors. Each team has won two district games, and lost none. Memphis has been downed once, losing to Lefors and winning from Shamrock, while Clarendon and Shamrock have lost two conference games. The Wellington Skyrockets have won one 2-A game and lost one.

Since the Tigers have the open date, fans will get an opportunity of visiting other towns for their evening of football. The 2-A teams offer three such games. Lefors will play host to Tulsa in a non-conference battle. The Wellington eleven will journey to Memphis to meet the Cyclone, and the Shamrock Irish will play the Clarendon Broncs at Shamrock.

Lefors remains the only unbeaten team in District 2-A, and is being heavily favored to repeat as district champion. Since Shamrock and Clarendon have already lost two games each, those two teams are out of the district running. Wellington and Memphis, with one loss each, still have a good mathematical chance at the crown. McLean has lost no conference games, but dropped two non-conference contests, one an 18-0 loss to Hereford, and the other a 47-0 walloping by Phillips.

Former Local Resident Gives Hawkins Tip

A former resident of McLean furnished the tip-off that led to the capture of Lenard "Lucky" Hawkins, who was being sought in connection with the shooting to death of Albert E. Clark of Boise City.

Furnishing that tip was Mrs. W. S. Smith of the community of Middle Water, near Dalhart. Mrs. Smith, sister of Forrest Switzer of McLean, formerly lived here and will be remembered by many as Mary Ellen Switzer. Hawkins, former baseball player, had been the center of a week-old manhunt. He was spotted in Dalhart Saturday, when he attempted to assault a waitress in a Dalhart cafe, and had been hunted since that time.

Monday afternoon, Hawkins approached the Smith house, where the 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, John William, was (Continued on back page)

Band to Perform At WTSC Game In Canyon Saturday

The McLean High School band, directed by Bill Miller, has been signally honored by being asked to participate in half-time exercises at the West Texas State College-Trinity University game at Canyon Saturday afternoon.

Between 50 and 75 bands from the Panhandle have been invited to the homecoming activities at Canyon Saturday, but only six bands were invited to participate in the half-time exercises at the football game.

All bands will take part in the homecoming parade in the morning, and bandmen will be treated to a barbecue dinner.

Graham Sells Hardware Firm To Broadhurst

Sale of the Graham Hardware, owned for the past several years by George W. Graham, to John R. Broadhurst of Amarillo was announced Wednesday.

The store was closed Wednesday for inventory of stock.

The business will be known in the future as the McLean Hardware company, the new owner stated.

Graham, in selling the store, announced that he has entered business in Amarillo. He will be associated with a firm there, selling store fixtures and commercial refrigeration equipment, he said. At the present time, the Graham family will remain in McLean.

Mr. and Mrs. Broadhurst have already moved to McLean, and plan to buy a home here in the near future.

In taking over management of the store Wednesday, Broadhurst said, "We will endeavor to give the best service possible in the future, and invite you to come in and get acquainted. We will continue to carry well-known brands of hardware and appliances, as Mr. Graham has in the past, and invite your patronage of our store."

'POW' Buildings May Be Used For Workers

Cotton harvest and cotton ginning finally got in full swing this week, as the two gins in McLean worked all day and most of the night to keep up with the cotton being brought to town.

By Wednesday morning, a total of 609 bales of cotton had been gathered, the two ginners, L. H. Earthman of the Paymaster Gin and S. R. Jones of the McLean Gin, reported. Earthman stated that his crew ginned 56 bales Tuesday, a number which he believes to be a record for the gin.

But there was a great shortage of boll pullers. One farmer stated that he has gathered only 24 bales, while he has another 50 ready to be pulled—but no pullers. Price of pulling varied somewhere between $1.75 and $2.00 per 100. Some of the farmers were forced to go up to $2 in order to get workers.

The grade on the cotton continued to be good this week, although some reports from government classifiers indicated the staple was a little shorter than the earlier cotton. However, the difference might be accounted to a different group of classifiers.

Meanwhile, in an effort to stop temporarily some of the transient boll pullers, Mayor Harris King announced that pullers will be allowed to use the empty buildings at the former P. O. W. camp for housing. Some farmers have housing for their pullers, but many do not. For that reason the empty buildings at the camp have been opened for temporary use by the pullers.

Fred is also coming in a little more rapidly. Jones, who is buying grain again this year, had shipped five carloads by Wednesday and had another car ready to go. The fields are ripening slowly, but the grain thus far has been good.

Cotton and feed harvesting was slowed down a short while Wednesday by a light shower which fell at about 5:30 o'clock in the morning. The total moisture, however, was only .06 of an inch, and fell within a period of a few minutes, Pete Fulbright, local weather observer, said.

By the Way...

BY HELEN BLACK

Last Sunday afternoon as Pfc. Kenneth Gibson, who is stationed at Sheppard Field, Wichita Falls, watched a big B-26 bomber take off he remarked that if he had known that plane was going to make a round trip to California he would have gone along—as he had a four-day pass and could have visited his brother in Long Beach. So, rather disappointed, he came on to McLean on his leave. However, Sunday night when he heard over the radio a report of a crash of that plane near Riverside, Calif., killing most of the passengers, he was more than glad that he hadn't known the plane was bound for California.

Mr. and Mrs. Travis C. Stokes and Caroline, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Barton attended the Horace Heldt youth opportunity program in Wichita Falls last Friday (Continued on back page)

Delivering the sermon will be Rev. Karl Ernst of Dumas, former pastor of the McLean church.

The charge to the congregation will be given by Dr. Douglass E. Nelson of Pampa, and the charge to the pastor will be given by Dr. A. B. Haynes of Canyon.

Rev. MacDonald came to McLean as pastor of the church in July, moving here from Ouseilton, N. D. He is a native of Butte, Mont., and attended Wheaton College of Wheaton, Ill., and the Gordon College of Theology at Boston, Mass.

Scoring: McLean 33 (Watson 15, Cooper 12, Bruner 6), Wellington 14 (Norman 6, McCutcheon 6, Brock 2).

The McLean Tigers, led by the power running of L. M. Watson and the able running of Bobby Bruner and Benny Cooper, ran roughshod over the Wellington Skyrockets to a 33-14 District 2-A victory on Tiger Field last Friday night. The Rockets were threatening throughout the game, but there was never any doubt as to the better team, as McLean scored in every quarter to overcome the favored visitors.

The Tigers were never behind, although the Rockets tied the score 7-7 in the first quarter when Lindell Norman recovered a punt over the goal line which Bruner had touched. Except for one brief spurt of power at the opening of the second half, the visitors were never able to show much of the publicized power after that.

Watson was the big gun again for McLean, carrying the ball a total of 26 times to net 236 yards. Watson personally accounted for three of the touchdowns, and all two of the touchdowns, and three extra points. Bruner showed some smart running ability, too, once finding a hole in the middle of the line and racing 79 yards for pay dirt. Bruner carried 10 times, netting a total of 121 yards. Cooper was the third backfield star. He carried from scrimmage only nine times, netted only 18 yards, but he intercepted one of Bobby McCutcheon's passes and ran 45 yards to score behind Carl Cox's excellent blocking. Cooper also plunged over from the 1 to score the Tiger's second touchdown.

On the line, the hottest players were Johnny Vineyard, guard, Tom Roby, big tackle, and Carl Cox. Vineyard consistently got through the line on the defense to slow down McCutcheon's passes. Roby was a stand-out on the defense, and Cox played good ball on both the offense and defense. Vic Shelton suffered a broken nose in the game, but stayed in and played his best game of the year. Thad Helms, guard, suffered a sprained ankle in the second quarter and saw no more action during the game. The scoring was as follows:

In the first quarter, McLean kicked off to Wellington. After three plays, Orville Copeland punted out on the McLean 22. Watson and Bruner alternated in running, getting the ball in four plays to the 47. Watson then tore through right tackle to the Wellington 31. Watson went to the 24, and Bruner lost a yard, and then Watson went through right tackle to the 21. Watson circled right end for six, and Bruner went through left guard for two to the 13. From there Watson went around left end and over. Watson carried the ball for the extra point, making the score 7-0.
The Tigers again kicked off to Wellington. After making one first down, the Rockets punted again. Bruner touched the ball on about the 10-yard line but failed to field it and the ball rolled over the goal line. Norman, coming down fast, covered the ball, giving the Rockets a touchdown. Jimmy Brock kicked the extra point, knotting the score at 7-7.

Later in the first period, the Tigers started from their own 23. Runs by Watson and Cooper moved the ball to the 48, but a penalty set the ball back to the 37. From there Watson got loose around left end, cut back and made it to the Wellington 11 before Copeland hauled him down. Cooper picked up two, and then Watson carried three times to get the ball to the one-yard line. From there Cooper plunged thru center and over. Watson went through right tackle for the ex-

Dear Mr. Campbell:
I was born and raised until I was 10 in McLean and I still have relatives and friends there. My father has always had the McLean News sent to our home out here and I read your column in every edition. So you see, I still like to think of McLean and to have ties with it.

In several of your columns, "Les Talk," I noticed how you were trying to get the city to buy an airport, out at the old POW place, to be exact. The P. W. camp is just across the road to the west of my grandmother's section, so I know the lay of the land.
Now the reason that I am writing is because I am a pilot and have thought many a time of flying down to McLean, but I see that Shamrock is the closest airport. Of course, some people would say land in a field somewhere, but that can be extremely hard on a plane. I wonder how many other flyers, when looking at their charts, overlook McLean? The name doesn't even register in their minds, but Shamrock does because it has an airport. I would suggest that you purchase a copy of "Flying," October 1949, issue, and read on page 16 and following pages the article, "The Lightplane Airlines." It is an article on the airlines that will soon be (some already are) Lubbock-Baylor football game.

If you care to print parts of this letter in your column you may do so.
In hopes that I will hear from you, I remain
Sincerely,
Bruce Rogers.

ANNUAL LEGISLATIVE SESSIONS?

ONE OF THE MOST controversial of the ten proposed constitutional amendments, on which voters will ballot November 8, is that which proposes annual legislative sessions and annual salaries for the Texas legislators.

There are arguments both for and against the proposed amendment, and here are some of the arguments:

Those who are FOR the amendment say that—
Only .0002 of each $1 expended for state government goes for legislative expense; adoption of this amendment would not increase that amount too much in proportion to the service rendered by the legislature. Higher pay will attract candidates of higher caliber. The Council of State Government believes salaries should be adjusted to economic changes as they occur. It recommends that all legislators be paid an annual salary in keeping with their responsibilities. This would enable them to spend time on state problems the year round, rather than only while the legislature is in session. There are many who favor the yearly session, feeling that the legislature cannot adequately foresee either the needs or the income of the state for a longer period. They point out that the second session called for in this amendment is necessarily limited as to its length by the fact that only appropriations and constitutional amendments can be considered unless other subject matter is approved by a four-fifths vote of the members of both houses.

Those who are AGAINST say that—
If this amendment had been in effect during the last biennium that close to $1 million additional would have been spent for salaries of legislators alone, not taking into account other expenses incidental to legislative sessions. They disagree that higher pay will attract candidates of higher caliber. They fear that higher pay might attract candidates who are solely interested in financial returns rather than the welfare of the state. They point out that since there is no specified length of time for the second session designated by this amendment, there might be a continuous session of the legislature. The governor is now empowered to call special sessions when needed. States that have annual sessions spend more money which means more taxes.

So there are the two sides to the question. It's up to you, as a voter, to pick out one side, go to the polls, and express your choice.

LES TALK BY LESTER

Last week's predictions and scores:

- Prediction: McLean 13, Wellington 7; score, McLean 33, Wellington 14.
- Prediction: Lefors 20, Shamrock 14; score, Lefors 20, Shamrock 0.
- Prediction: Canyon 13, Clarendon 0; score, Canyon 19, Clarendon 0.
- Prediction: Diamond Hill 7, Memphis 0; score, Diamond Hill 26, Memphis 26.

This week's predictions: Shamrock 14, Clarendon 13. The Broncs are on the downgrade, and the Irish are tired of getting beat.

Memphis 14, Wellington 7. Really believe the Cyclone will win this one.

Lefors 26, Tulla 7. Got lots of faith in those Pirates, although they may not try very hard to win this non-conference battle.

McLean has an open date, so no prediction to make at home this time.

The game last Friday night was, of course, very enjoyable to all local fans. Seems as though a lot of the local fans thought we would lose. I did not think so—I actually felt like we would win. However, I didn't expect to win by such a sizeable score. The Rockets have a pretty good team, but the Tigers were ready for them. And when I say ready, boy, I mean ready.

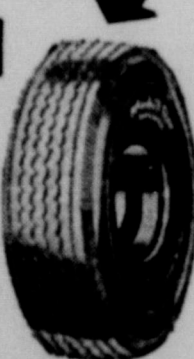

One man told me a Wellington fan remarked in the third quarter that he was ready to go home, that he had seen enough of the one-man show, meaning, of course, the brilliant and hard playing of our L. M. Watson.

I do not mean to belittle L. M.'s playing in any way, for he did play wonderfully. But he had lots of help, lots of help. Every player did better than in the past games this season, every player played to win. The only regrettable part of the game was the roughness which broke out in the latter part of the game. Let's hope this doesn't happen any more this season.

pressed his thanks to all those people who were so kind and helpful to him in illness, especially to those who gave of their blood that he might live. If you ever read our editorials, you probably noticed the one last week which we had copied from another paper. It told of how one man didn't like his little home town, and another did. The one who did expressed the thought that people were always so eager to help when a person was in distress. This applies to McLean. Mr. Shull will testify to that. He is a very grateful man.

Thanks to all of you who have responded so quickly to our bargain subscription rate. It is still in effect for a limited time. You are invited to take advantage of it if you wish.

Do our want ads bring results? Bryan McPherson thinks so. A few weeks ago he ran a cow for sale ad, and sold the cow before the paper came out. That's results for you, isn't it? To top it off, he matched me double or nothing for the ad—and he won.

You know in sending out the letters about our bargain subscription rate, we enclosed some postage-paid envelopes for the subscribers to enclose their checks. Well, one of these envelopes came back without check but with a card enclosed with these words: "See you at the ball game Friday night." Sounds like a Roger Powers or Lester Dysart trick. The letter cost me two cents for postage due fees. And in addition, I didn't know whether I saw whoever-that-was at the ball game or not. You see, the card wasn't signed.

Back to football. This is an open date week-end for the McLean Tigers. We usually have one each year. I try to go see another game on that week-end, mainly for one reason. That reason is that I can sit back and not have to write down every play and keep statistics. In other words, I can sit back and enjoy the game. Don't know for sure, but I think I will try to see the Wellington-Memphis game at Memphis. It should be a good game. We play Memphis next week-end, and it will give us something of an idea what to expect.

After the game with Wellington last Friday, enthusiastic fans are asking, "Will we win the district?" I think our chances are pretty good, but we have three big, big hurdles—Memphis, Shamrock, and Lefors. A defeat from any one of the three will almost eliminate us. But we can win them all if the Tigers keep improving as they have in the past six weeks.

Four Kinds of Weather—on the Same Hill!

Take a good look at this sketch of a hill in Ohio. It illustrates just one phase of the "Climate Control Project," currently being presented by House Beautiful magazine. The sketch shows clearly why a building plot's specific "angle to the sun" can give to a house any one of several different kinds of climate. In the illustration, the house on the level plot catches its full share of Ohio sunshine. The house on the left (south slope) catches tropical sunshine because it, like the tropics, faces the sun more squarely than the level (Ohio) plot does. And the house at right, (north slope) is at an angle to the sun like the region of Ontario where, on a March day, it is still winter. The eight prominent scientists who worked on the "Climate Control Project" point out that, since Spring comes sooner and Winter later to a south slope, you can move your climate 500 or 1,000 miles south by building your house in that position. "Climate Control Project," first presented in the October issue, will be continued from month to month, giving detailed analyses of climate and specific building recommendations for various regions throughout the United States.

Air, Sunshine Help Poultry

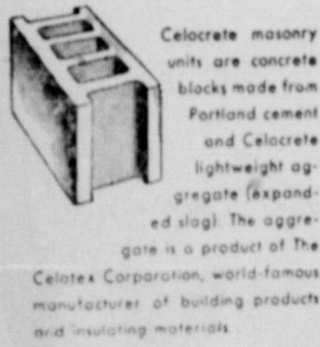

"Pure air and sunshine are a treat in the hen house," reminds B. B. Thompson, head of the Oklahoma A. & M. poultry department. Experiments show that chickens are approximately 10 cubic feet of air per pound live weight each hour. At night when the hens are on the perches, it is necessary for the air in the poultry house to change completely at least once each hour. He cautions that when pure fresh air is limited in a poultry house it results in loss of vigor and a lowering of the vitality of the chickens. Thompson points out that the house must be open to permit this exchange of air, but must not permit the air to come into the house in such a way as to create drafts that will be damaging in winter. However, these openings are beneficial in the summer time.

For winter use the openings of a poultry house should be only on one side. With three sides closed there are no currents of air other than those coming from one direction. During winter, cracks or openings in these three sides would create drafts which would be disastrous to the health of the birds.

Summer drafts or cross currents of air are essential in this area and for this purpose openings are used in the back of the house above as well as below the dropping board. A direct current of air over the hens on hot summer nights is refreshing, permits comfortable rest, and prevents loss of hens from heat.

Sunshine is as important in the poultry house as fresh air. This is particularly true where the hens are confined to the house. The house must be provided with openings or windows so that the sunlight can be used in keeping the house clean and dry. The moisture in a poultry house depends upon the temperature and rate of exchange of air.

IF A LAMP CARRIES THIS TAG

IT'S GOT TO BE GOOD

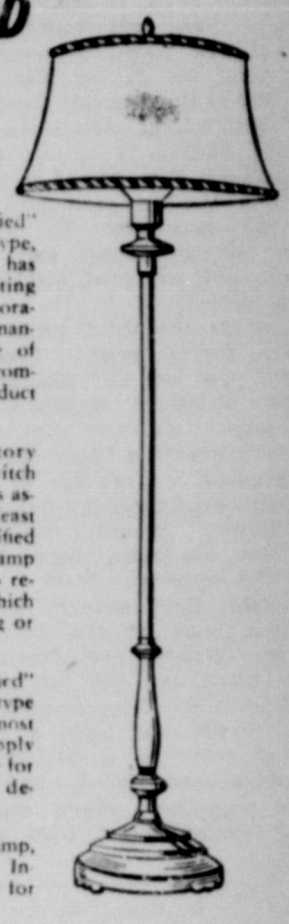

The appearance of the "Certified" tag on any lamp of any type, assures you that the lamp has been submitted to rigid testing by an impartial testing laboratory. It assures you that the manufacturer of that lamp, one of over 100 leading American companies, has submitted his product to a complete test.

For example, the laboratory has determined that the switch will operate efficiently. It has ascertained that the cord is at least seven feet long, has a certified plug, to assure safety. The lamp itself is properly weighted to resist tipping, and of a finish which will ordinarily resist scarring or marring.

And above all, the "Certified" lamp has an exclusive new type reflector which will gain the most light from the bulb, and apply the light correctly for the use for which the lamp has been designed.

The next time you buy a lamp, make sure it is "Certified" inquire at your favorite store for this new lamp.

tra point, putting McLean in front 14-7.

Following the kick-off to Wellington, the Rockets began passing, completing one beautiful toss for 41 yards only to have it called back due to an off-sides penalty. Five plays later, McCutcheon's attempted pass was intercepted on the Wellington 45 by Cooper, who followed his interference beautifully to run the distance and score. Watson again ran through left tackle to make the extra point. The score was 21-7.

Shortly before the half ended, McCutcheon pulled a quarterback sneak, running from the 50 to the McLean 14. A fumble and a penalty set the ball back to the 18 as the half ended.

Opening the second half, Wellington kicked off to McLean. The Rockets' line held solidly, and Watson was forced to punt, the ball going out on the Wellington 38. Runs by Norman, Copeland, and McCutcheon moved the ball to the McLean 7 in six plays. McCutcheon then passed to Copeland to the one-yard line, and on the next play, McCutcheon went through center and over Brock's kick was good, making the score 21-14.

Later in the third period, the Tigers scored again. Copeland punted out on the McLean 2. Watson picked up one yard around the 10. On the next play, Bruner found a hole through right guard, and ran the 79 yards to score, outdistancing three Rocket players. Watson's attempted run for the extra point failed and the score was 27-14.

In the final quarter, McLean took a punt on the Tiger 23. Bruner, Watson, and Cooper, in eight plays, ran the ball to the Wellington 40. Watson went over-right tackle, cut back, and ran the 40 yards to score. His attempted run failed, and the score was 33-14. There was no other scoring threat from either team.

Mrs. J. L. Hess returned Friday from Lubbock, where she had visited for several days in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Dwyer.

Joe Turner and Martin Greig of Dumas visited relatives here Saturday and Sunday.

Amarillo Writer—

EATS HIS OWN WORDS

(Editor's Note: Vincent Lockhart, Amarillo Times staff writer, was in McLean to cover the first game of the season, that between McLean and Canadian, and then came back last Friday night for the McLean-Wellington tilt. Here's his story of the game last weekend.)

BY VINCENT LOCKHART

McLean—Once upon a time there was a week-end sports writer who said McLean had a one-man ball team, and—chomp, chomp—ain't so tasty.

McLean 33, Wellington 14. Passing this undigestible meat to your correspondent are something like 10 or 12 McLean Tigers, headed by Bunny Cooper and Bob Bruner, a couple of backs who have learned to run despite my predictions, and a stalwart line made up of some morsels of granite like Vic Shelton at end, Tom Roby at tackle, and Ray Middaugh, who can and does play most anywhere that the opposition is running the ball.

This guy L. M. Watson is still a one-man gang by himself, but his teammates seem to want to get in the act too. All Watson did Friday night was score two touchdowns, plunge for three extra points, do all of McLean's passing, punting, and kicking off back up the line on defense and call the plays—and a mess of clever ones at that.

Just to prove that it takes men to make a team, Mr. Cooper made a couple of touchdowns himself, one of them a 53-yard gallop after as nifty a pass interception as Coach Al Duncan could ever expect of his boys, and then Mr. Bruner made like Watson had the ball and tore through Wellington, the officials, and probably would be running yet if the place hadn't been fenced in. Officially he was credited with a 79-yard gallop down the middle while everybody was watching Watson run off to one side.

And so's folks wouldn't think he was too hoggy about it all, brother Bruner had a brief lapse in the punt receiving department meandered over the goal line to nestle lovingly in the arms of a Skyrocket named Lindell Norman for half of the Collingsworth scoring for the evening.

Hugging the hind end of a 21 to 7 score at the half-time, the Skyrockets decided that sort of stuff wouldn't get it, and came back full of fire and roared McLean on its heels to make 'em punt, which Watson did, and then the aforesaid Norman and Orville Copeland proceeded to rip thru, around and over the Tigers to get the ball in range so's Bobby McCutcheon could flip a nifty 7-yard fourth down pass to Copeland on the one, and then quarterback sneak it over on the next play.

But the Tigers had this night figured as theirs and began to fight back some more. After Copeland had lifted his tootsie into one of his five nifty punts, this one out on the McLean 21, Watson made with the hog-hide around right end and only made a pace. They lined up like it was the same play, and Watson headed around right end like it was the same play, only he didn't have the ball. Next time I saw it, Bruner had it 79 yards away in the promised land.

About the middle of the fourth quarter, Watson musta said to himself something about he's been carrying the ball everywhere but down the middle and if Bruner could, why shucks, he could, too, and did—40 yards to score.

That's about it, boss, except to mention that a combination of fine pass defense by the Tiger-coupled with some grease on the usually sticky fingers of Skyrocket receivers, not to mention the fact that Blondie McCutcheon was rushing a powerful lot whilst attempting to pass, resulted in that worthy completing only three of 15 passes for a net of 25 yards. Since I'm still of the conviction that Bobby's the best passer in the league, I gotta say McLean's got the best pass defense.

Here's the statistics. Pass me the cutsup.

No Land Loans For Vets Ready 'Til December 1

Bascom Giles, commissioner of the General Land Office and chairman of the newly created Veterans Land Board, said this week that it was doubtful if any land purchases for Texas veterans would be completed before December 1.

"The first bonds will be offered for sale on October 26," stated the commissioner, "and there is no reason to anticipate that money will be available for our actual use for at least another 30 days."

"The thousands of inquiries we have received," Giles continued, "and other necessary delays are making us later than we had anticipated. We ask veterans and land owners to bear with us until we have secured the money to complete transactions."

Giles also requests veterans considering making applications to "take cognizance of our regulations and policies relative to mineral rights."

The statute creating the Veterans Land program prohibited purchase unless 50 per cent of the mineral rights were conveyed with the land. The board, which is composed of the governor, the attorney general, and Commissioner Giles, ruled at its first meeting that a six-month priority would be given applications which included all minerals or not more than a one-sixteenth outstanding royalty reservation made before June 6, 1949.

"We are not approving transactions in which the present owner is seeking to retain mineral interest at the present time," Giles added. "Applications which do not conform to this policy are delaying the program by requiring the attention which could be used toward completion of conforming applications."
