Junior Police Patrol Grade School Corner

These "junior policemen" at the McLean Grade School are doing a good job of keeping the children of the school from getting into the dangerous corner of the building.

The three boys, James Smith, Dan Darnell, and Arthur Viney, serve as traffic directors, directing cars and allowing the children to cross the street at the corner. Heretofore, no regulations on the drivers of cars have been imposed, and the corner was dangerous for the children.

Principal Hayden Bodenhamer said that practically all drivers heed the work of the junior policemen. However, he said, a few drivers, particularly those of the high school students, have not been paying attention to the traffic direction. Bodenhamer emphasized that he has not only the permission but also the cooperation of the local police authorities to have the junior policemen. In addition, the license number of any car violating the traffic rules at the corner will be taken, and disciplinary action will be taken by local authorities.

More Join 66 Association

More memberships in the Highway 66 Association were bought during the past week, bringing the total number to 39, Lester Campbell, local secretary, said.

The three new members, not previously listed, are Blue and Blue Laundry, Rev. W. B. Hines, and Glenn Cleaners.

Total amount collected in the sale of the memberships is now $134, Campbell stated. McLean's quota toward the state national goal is $150, leaving the town only $250 short of the goal. The memberships sell for $3 each, and may still be obtained from Campbell.

WATERS ATTACK

Jack Mercer suffered a heart attack Monday afternoon while playing with other city employees. Mercer complained of being ill earlier in the day, and finally became seriously ill in the afternoon. He was reported as recuperating rapidly Wednesday, although he had not started back to work.

WOUNDED AT GIN

Ray Wilson, who is employed as the Paymaster Gin in McLean, suffered a badly mangled hand when a gin saw Tuesday. He was taken to a Shamrock hospital for treatment.

The first steam-powered newspaper printing press in Texas was used by the Galveston Civilian in 1838.

The first newspaperman to serve Texas as Lieutenant Governor was John H. Mayer, elected in 1910.

In India, the King of England has given the title of emperor.

Texas' first daily newspaper was the Houston Morning Star, which began publication in 1838.

High Winds Hit Area; .42-Inch Rain Falls

Powerful winds ranging in velocity from 50 to 70 miles per hour, lashed at the McLean area—and the Panhandle in general—Saturday night, bringing moisture to most of the northwest Texas area.

No bad damage was reported in McLean, or adjacent to McLean, although there were several cases of minor damage. In Amarillo, however, the damage was greater, partly due to the wind and partly due to a heavy hail storm. Several downtown windows in Amarillo were blown out, and a number of signs damaged. In Pampa, some damage due to the wind was also reported, although the Gray County seat did not suffer as much loss as did Amarillo.

The rainfall in McLean totaled .42 of an inch, with .64 of an inch falling before midnight Saturday night, and the remaining .28 of an inch coming between 10 o'clock and midnight Sunday night. Total moisture for the year in McLean is now 24.56 inches, Pete Fulbright, local weather observer, said.

The rainfall slowed down the harvest of cotton and feed to some extent, but boll pulling had begun again Monday afternoon.

By Wednesday morning, the two gins in McLean had ginned 208 bales, L. H. Earhartman of the Paymaster Gin and S. R. Jones of the McLean Gin reported. Both gins reported cotton to be coming in rapidly now, and they are expecting a full run of gins.

An Editorial—

P.-T. A. MEETING

FOR A PERIOD of two or three months last spring, The News ran articles in an attempt to explain something about the meaning of a Parent-Teacher Association, and the general principles of organizing such an association.

Before the completion of the articles, however, a meeting was held and a "hurry-up" association was formed, mainly so that some of the prospective members might attend a district meeting of P.-T. A.'s which was held at Shamrock.

Apparently, however, the organization was formed too quickly, for it lapsed into inactivity—actually before it ever became active.

Now an attempt is being made to re-activate the P.-T. A., an attempt which should not be hard to make a reality if the parents are interested in such an organization.

A meeting has been called for Tuesday afternoon, October 18, at 4 o'clock in the McLean High School auditorium by Mrs. R. A. Young, who was named as vice president of the group last spring. Mrs. Young has had considerable experience in P.-T. A. work in the past, and knows what such an organization is supposed to do, and what it is not supposed to do.

It behooves every parent—not just mothers only—to attend the meeting if at all possible. The organization is for both men and women, and there will be no "for women only" sign on the door. Men will be very welcome. The News is in hopes that an active and useful P.-T. A. will be organized. The meeting next week is not only to perfect the organization but also to discuss the year's work. There is a great deal of work which can be done. However, it should be understood that a P.-T. A. has its purposes. It has its objects and it has its policies.

In order that everyone may again know what the policies of a P.-T. A. should be, we are repeating those policies as set forth by the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, the state P.-T. A. The policies are as follows:

"A Parent-Teacher association is non-commercial, non-partisan, and non-sectarian. It is non-administrative in school affairs. It does not seek to direct the technical activities of the school, nor to control its policies. It may enter also non-auxiliary to other organizations. It may enter into membership with Congress groups only, but may cooperate in an educational way with other conference groups working for child welfare. It is democratic in its membership. Anyone interested in child welfare, upon payment of the all-inclusive dues, is eligible for membership."

The objects of a P.-T. A. are as follows: "To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church, and community; to raise the standards of home life; to secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth; to bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate and intelligently in the training of the child; to develop effective educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest advantages in mental, social, and spiritual education."

Tigers Edge Rangers, 20-18 in Exciting Grid Game

McLean Perryton 20-18 in one of the most exciting games fans will see this season. Each team scored in the first quarter, and counting also in the third quarter, and in the fourth quarter. But the two extra points were the difference. On both of these tries, Watson chose to run the ball over, rather than attempt a kick. He had missed the first kick. The Tigers were behind not once, not twice, but three times in the game, the first time only a couple minutes after the game started. The Rangers ran over a touchdown in three plays after recovering a Watson fumble the first time he carried the ball. The Tigers evened the score in the same quarter with a downfield drive. In the third quarter Perryton scored, and then McLean scored. Ditto that in the fourth period.

New Lions Club At Alanreed To Be Formed

A new Lions Club is in the process of being organized at Alanreed, it was announced this week by W. L. (Scotty) Scott, special representative of Lions International, who is in this area working toward the organization of more clubs.

First meeting of prospective members of the club was held Monday night, Scott said, with several men of the Alanreed community present. Considerable interest was shown and it is highly probable that a club will be formed there soon. The Groom Lions Club will serve as the sponsoring club.

The organizational meeting for the club has been set for Monday night, October 17, Scott said. At that time, if it is decided to form the club, officers will be chosen and charter memberships accepted.

Scott also stated that the new Lions Club at Shamrock is becoming very active. At the present time, the Shamrock group is taking donations and will award a new automobile early in December. Net proceeds from the donations will go to the emergency polo fund. The Shamrock club held its charter night program only two weeks ago. It was sponsored by the McLean club.

Mrs. Lady Bryant, librarian, felt real proud of the library she represented at the Panhandle association in Amarillo last Saturday. She was called on to explain the ceiling book projecting machine—how it works, and everything. The McLean library seemed to be the only organization offering such facilities to the bedridden. The machine, you remember, was bought by the McLean chapter of the Red Cross.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Andrews and children attended the wedding last Sunday of Mrs. Andrews' sister, Joe Ann Kinkadee, to Melvin Young of Tucumcari, N. M. The wedding took place at the ranch home of Joe Ann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kinkadee. The bride is well known here, having visited in the Andrews home many times.

Do try to see Joe Hembree's dahlia garden before frost takes a toll. The huge blossoms run the gamut in colors—from rich bronze and deep red to the more delicate shades of yellows and pinks. Any size—any color, he has it! His dahlias not only grace tea tables at social functions in town, but the gold-colored ones are proudly worn by the high school girls to football games.

Rocket Passes To Be Danger To Local Team

The Wellington Skyrockets are expected to literally take to the air when they invade Tiger Field Friday night to match brain and brawn with the McLean Tigers in the second District 2-A game for each of the two teams.

The kick-off time has been set at 7:30 o'clock. Superintendent Logan Cummings said this week. Other home games have been starting at 8 o'clock, it was pointed out, but due to earlier darkness, this will be the first this season to start at 7:30.

The Rockets will go into the game as favorites, mainly due to their record this season in the passing department. Although the visitors have lost three of six games played thus far, they have one of the most dangerous passing attacks in the Panhandle, and have scored at least once on every opponent.

Doing practically all of the tooting for the Wellington eleven is Bobby McCutcheon. His favorite target is fast Lindell Norman, and his secondary target is Rogers Melton. Most all of the scoring done thus far by the Rockets has either been on passes or set up by passes.

McLean, on the other hand, has been depending mostly on power drives by L. M. Watson. Aiding him in this department are Bobby Bruner and Benny Cooper. Watson has also done some passing, but the Tigers have been able to gain only a few times by passing.

Comparative scores with common foes would indicate the Tigers and Rockets are about even. The Rockets whipped Perryton 19 to 7, and the Tigers downed the same team 20 to 18. On the other hand, the Tigers defeated Clarendon 13 to 0, while the Rockets were barely able to run over a last-minute touchdown to win 21 to 14. Wellington, however, played a much closer game with Phillips than did McLean. The Rockets lost to that power team by a score of 23-14, while the Tigers were walloped 47-0.

In Wellington's other games, the Rockets won from Dumas 26-6, but lost to Mangum, Okla., 22-14, and to Dalhart 33-6. In McLean's other games, the Tigers downed Canadian 18-0 and Panhandle 19-7, but lost to Hereford 18-0.

Lockjaw Germ Found Often

Lockjaw, or tetanus, is a very serious disease caused by a tiny germ that looks like a stick with a ball on one end—something like a microscopic lollipop, says Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer. This ball is called a spore and it is the seed of the germ. Lockjaw germs are found in the soil, especially in manured soil of the barnyard or garden; in blank cartridges, etc.—in fact, just about everywhere. These germs grow best in wounds where there is considerable tissue destruction and in which chips of glass, wood splinters, or grains of dust have been embedded.

Every accident seen by the physician must be considered from the lockjaw angle; and whenever there is any question, tetanus antitoxin should be given, for it is the antitoxin that has helped to keep the incidence of lockjaw at its low level. Your physician will advise you as to its use. Its disadvantages are that it gives only temporary protection; it does not get rid of the lockjaw germs in the wound, and it does sometimes cause hives and other disagreeable symptoms for a few days, particularly if the subject has had previous injections. Should lockjaw develop, it requires much antitoxin and entails great expense; and even then, not all cases can be saved.

Shirley Glass, Kenneth Hodstadt United in Marriage

In a candlelight service Saturday evening, October 9, at the First Presbyterian Church, Shirley Glass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Raymond Glass of McLean, and Kenneth M. Hodstadt, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Hodstadt of Pritchett, Colo., were united in marriage, with Rev. George MacDonald, pastor, officiating.

Tall baskets of white mums, and two branched candelabra holding white tapers, formed the setting for the single-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Travis Stokes, organist presented a program of music preceding the ceremony. Included were the selections "Because," "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," "Souvenir," and "Always." Mrs. Stokes also played the traditional marches and accompanied Mrs. Jess Kemp, who sang "I Love You Truly."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a taupe colored suit with blue accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses. For something old, she wore a gold clip belonging to her mother; for something borrowed, she carried a handkerchief belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. J. T. Glass.

Sue Glass, sister of the bride, lighted the candles. She was dressed in blue satin and wore a halo of pink roses.

Dale Glass, brother of the bride, served as usher.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the parlor of the church, where cousins of the bride assisted in receiving and serving the guests. Miss Mary Ann Back presided at the register; and Mrs. J. B. Guill, Mrs. Leonard Glass, Mrs. June Woods, Mrs. Henry Glass, and Mrs. Cecil Back served the punch and bride's cake.

The serving table was laid with a linen cloth and decorated with a centerpiece of roses and asters in the bride's chosen colors of pink and white.

Immediately following the reception the bride and groom left for Spearman, where they will make their home.

Mrs. Hodstadt graduated from the McLean school, attended T. S. C. W. at Denton, and finished a business course in Amarillo Secretarial College. She was a member of Beta Sigma Phi.

The groom is a graduate of Springfield, Colo., High School and served three years in the army. He is now employed by a construction company in Spearman.

Tigers Take Perryton Rangers--

 of punts, the second of which came in the second period, the Rangers got down to the McLean 21, but lost the ball on a penalty set them back to the 30. Watson tried to pass, all incomplete, and the Rangers punted. The Rangers completed two passes, and got to the McLean 35 as the half ended.
 During the second half, the Rangers returned the kick-off to the 24 but were forced to punt three plays later. Then Watson circled around left end, and apparently stole the ball from him, racing to the McLean 35 before being hauled down. A penalty set the Rangers back to the 50, and King fumbled but still made five. Olmstead then went around right end to the 20, and McLean got a penalty for off sides to the 16. Olmstead went to the five, and then King circled left end and went over. He failed to kick, and the Rangers were ahead 12-6.

 McLean took the kick-off, returning to the 40. Runs by Cooper and Watson netted only two, and then Cooper ripped off 16 around left end. Watson and Bruner alternated in carrying getting the ball to the 10 in five plays. Cooper made one, Watson five more, to put the ball on the 4. Cooper made another, and then Watson went around left end to score. Watson cut through right tackle for the extra point and the Tigers were out in front 13-12.

Late in the third period, King punted to Bailey on the 45, who fumbled, and Perryton recovered the ball. Runs by King and Olmstead put the ball on the McLean 33. King then passed to J. B. Langwell to the 6. Olmstead circled left end to the 2, and then King plunged through center and over. King missed the kick, and the score was Perryton 18, McLean 13.
 The Tigers took the kick-off, returning to the 33. Runs by Watson, Cooper, and Bruner moved the ball to the Perryton 41. A penalty on McLean for holding set the ball back to the McLean 42, from where Watson carried to the 49. Then Watson cut through left tackle, knocked a couple of would-be tacklers out of the way, and outran three more Rangers for the 51 yard distance and scored. Watson went through right guard for the extra point, and the Tigers were again out in front 20-18.

After taking the next kick-off, the Rangers were forced to punt after three plays. After picking up two first downs, Watson fumbled when circling right end, and Perryton recovered. The Rangers started downfield again, getting to the 29, but a penalty for illegal use of the hands set the ball back to the McLean 48. King punted out on the McLean 20, and two plays later the game ended.

Week-end visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Carpenter were their children and families, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Carpenter and daughters of Perryton, and Mr. and Mrs. James E. Cooke and sons of Plainview.

TWO DIFFERENT PEOPLE

Editor's Note: The following appeared in a neighboring paper recently, and we thought it well worth reprinting here. We believe most of you will agree.

SOME TIME ago we were talking to a local man. He was down in the 'dumps.' He said, "This is the sorriest town I have ever seen. There is nothing here for the young folks; the school is no good; the merchants charge too much for everything; they don't care for your business. You can't make any money here. I never buy anything here if I can get it some place else. I don't like the people," and on and on.

At another time we were talking to another person and he was feeling pretty good. He said this is the best little town he had ever seen. He stated, "I never really appreciated it until I was in the army, over seas, where I had plenty of time to think. Boy, there were times when I would have given $50 just to take one good, long look down the streets of my home town on a quiet Sunday."

He continued, "I can remember when we had a bad spell of sickness in our family. Our friends and neighbors came in and sat up with our loved ones and when we had a death in the family they did everything they could to ease the pain and loss. Nearly everybody in town came to the funeral out of respect to the family and deceased. There were more flowers than would have been at a funeral in any other town," he said.

"I like the merchants. They always contribute to everything that comes along: to the schools, a new church, the Red Cross, March of Dimes, Boy Scouts, school activities of all kinds. When a fire burns a home, or anything happens to a citizen they lend a helping hand. They pay more taxes than I do on a section of land. They make it possible for my church and school to do as well as they can and do. I sometimes wonder how they make enough money to give to everything and still have anything left from their business. I buy everything I can here to help the most wonderful people in the world. I like the churches, school, lodge, and clubs. They work hard to keep the young folks working together and getting along together than any place I know. The churches and school have something good and wholesome going on for the young folks all the time. Young folks like each other and get along better when they work and play and organize for a common good or cause.

"This is democracy in action. Good training and good living. Yes, sir, it's the best town in the world." We think about these two fellows a lot of times and wonder which one gets the most out of life. Little doubt, is there?

LES TALK BY LESTER

Again I was very lucky and called, in my football predictions, four winners out of four. Here are last week's predictions and last week's scores:

Prediction: McLean 20, Perryton, 6; score, McLean 20, Perryton 18. I sorta under-counted the Perryton lads.

Prediction: Memphis 13, Shamrock 6; score, Memphis 13, Shamrock 0. I sorta over-counted the Shamrock lads.

Prediction: Wellington 23, Clarendon 13; score, Wellington 21, Clarendon 14. That was the closest I've been.

Prediction: Lefors 25, Dumas 0; score, Lefors 40, Dumas 6. Those Pirates are running 'em over.

I certainly should quit after two weeks in a row with perfect records. But I'll try again. With more and more District 2-A games coming on, the difficulties are going to be more difficult, if you get what I mean. Anyway, here goes:

McLean 13, Wellington 7. I sincerely believe we can beat those Rockets, but we'll sure have to watch their passes, or my prediction won't be worth a hoot.

Lefors 20, Shamrock 14. The Irish will have their dander up, but it will likely take more than dander.

Canyon 13, Clarendon 0. I don't believe the Broncos have as much as Frank Godsoe thought they had.

I'm not sure, but I think the Memphis Cyclope plays the Diamond Hill team of Fort Worth. If they do, I'll say Diamond Hill 7, Memphis 0. However, they may not play, and Memphis may have another game scheduled—I just don't know about that.

Our Tigers looked fair against Perryton, in my opinion. Perryton hasn't won one game this year, but the Perryton people sitting near me there last Friday night said the game with McLean was the first the Rangers had really "played" this season.

Our boys looked a bit baffled by the spread formation of the Rangers. Couldn't seem to figure it all out. Another thing that hurt was the fact that the Tigers had trouble in holding on to big John King, the 190-pounder from Perryton.

The Rangers got the breaks, too, and got them at the right times. That hurt or the game might have been different. When Watson's fumble early in the game, they were handed a touchdown on a pigskin platter.

Many people thought the officials were a bit one-sided. They may have been—I wouldn't know and neither does anyone else for sure. I did disagree with them on a couple of things. One was the time our boys had King hog-tied and then he completed a long pass. I couldn't say that the referee hadn't blown his whistle, but he should have. The other time was once when L. M. Watson fumbled AFTER he was down. Once more I couldn't say the whistle hadn't been blown but it should have.

Anyway, we had the highest score when the game was over. And that was what we went over for, wasn't it?

Some people actually do not believe there is any work to the putting out of a little weekly newspaper. But there is. I've been working too hard and too long for the past several weeks. I feel like I am in a sort of a nervous strain. Perhaps I am going crazy. Some people say that couldn't be, since I am already am (those who say that are my friends). Then last week I was sick with the flu all week, but I didn't get to stay home and rest like the books say you are supposed to. All I am asking for is a little pity—got any to spare? Gimme a little now, and then when you need it I will return it. I'll be with the pity like I was with Oma Bell McPherson and my cold last week. I went to the bank and told her I'd be glad to let her have the cold, that I was tired of it. Then Saturday I was back in the bank and she did have a cold, and said I shouldn't have mine any more since she had taken it. However, guess she had taken some of someone else's for I still had mine.

All of which doesn't make any particular sense.

I'm still wondering about the seating facilities for the new auditorium-gym which is now being built. The city, you know, has already said that all the money realized from the bonds and then some on top of that will be required to build the building—less the seats. In other words, the seats will have to come from some other source. I have no idea how much the seats will cost, but I would imagine that suitable ones will be costing several thousand dollars. Would be a shame to have a fine, new building, and then have no seats in it.

Somebody is going to have to come up with some ideas. Ed Lander is usually the idea man in McLean. He has more ideas for bettering the town than nearly all the rest of us put together, although he seldom gets credit for them. Some of his ideas eventually become realities and naturally some of them never materialize. Hope he has some that idea materializes. Or something else materializes. Can't say that I have ever sat down on the floor of a gym to watch a basketball game—except the time I played last year in the donkey ball game when I spent most of my time either sitting down, getting thrown down, or getting up.

Lubbock Site Advance Meet Of Methodists

Methodists representing nearly every community in the Northwest Texas conference will attend an Advance mass meeting at the First Methodist Church in Lubbock October 20 and 21. Bishop William C. Martin, resident bishop of the Dallas area and national chairman of Methodism's four-year program, Advance for Christ and His Church, will direct the meeting.

"Our Faith" will be the central theme of the meeting which feature addresses by Bishop Ralph S. Cushman, resident bishop of the St. Paul area; Bishop Hazen O. Werner, Columbus, Ohio, resident bishop of the Ohio area, and Bishop Martin. Bishop Cushman will speak on "Our Faith in Christ" and Bishop Werner on "Our Christian Conception of the Worth of Man."

Other speakers include Dr. Evelyn M. Duvall, secretary of the National Conference on Family Relations, and Dr. Warren Johnston, pastor First Methodist Church, Fort Worth.

A series of eight "Faith booklets" to be studied simultaneously by the church's eight and a half million members, will be officially introduced at the meeting, which will also include opportunity for group discussions and a youth meeting in the evening.

The Advance program recreates Methodism's positive thrust as secularism and indifference and has the purpose of a deeper understanding of the basic elements of the Christian faith.

Richardson Gets Letter of Thanks From Grateful G. I.

T. G. Richardson recently found a billfold containing an address, and wrote the owner of the find. Before hearing from the owner, Richardson sent the billfold on to its owner, but here is the letter he received:

"Thank you for the letter concerning my billfold. I lost it en route from Idaho to Louisiana, where I attend school at Tulane University. Needless to say, the rest of the trip was rather difficult as I was traveling via tumb (hitchhiking). At present I am living on money borrowed from fellow students and expecting each tomorrow to bring in a check from the V. A. Great life this going to college!

"Concerning the money, I suggest we split it 50-50. In that way you have a modest reward for honesty so seldom encountered in the world today, and I have a boost to my present deficit budget. Please send the billfold and contents to the above address; and again, thank you.

Sincerely,
Lloyd S. Standlee

Sleep Important To Good Health

Sleep is a necessity of life and health, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer, and habitual loss of sleep will tend to retard the body's recovery from fatigue of the day's activities.

"We may be able to go without sleep for a night or two, but too little sleep for a prolonged period will undermine the health of a rugged person and turn a cheerful individual into a cross, irritable one," Dr. Cox said. "When good health can be protected to such a large extent merely by sleeping, and thus allow over-taxed bodies and minds to secure the proper rest, it is hard to understand why so many persons are heedless of this important health measure."

Some individuals require more sleep than others. How well we sleep is as important as how long we sleep. A good night's rest means a sufficient number of hours spent in sleep to enable each person to feel well, do efficient work, and to keep in a cheerful humor the next day.

"Some outdoor exercise each day, a comfortable bed, and fresh air in our sleeping quarters," Dr. Cox said, "will help us to sleep soundly at night. Do not mull over your problems and ideas after you have gone to bed. Make your plans early in the evening for a good night's rest by slowing down from the physical and mental work of your daily life. When you arise each morning, rested and with a feeling of gen-

GRIDDLE CAKES

Griddle Cakes are always a favorite with kiddies, 'specially when they make them themselves and top them with plenty of maple-blended syrup.

1 cup sifted flour
1 teaspoon double-acting baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon sugar
1 egg, well beaten
1/2 cup milk
3 tablespoons melted butter or other shortening

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt, and sugar, and sift again. Combine egg and milk; add gradually to flour, beating only until smooth. Add shortening. Bake on hot, greased griddle. Serve with butter or margarine and maple-blended syrup. Makes 12 to 15 griddle cakes.

X-Ray Service For Masses Is 3 Years Old

Free X-ray service reached 59,859 Texans in the third year of operation of the Texas Tuberculosis Association's X-ray service among apparently healthy people, according to the 40th annual report of the association just released by Pansy Nichols, executive secretary.

According to the report, 21 per cent of those X-rayed were classified as having definite or suspicious tuberculosis; 400 of these films showed other pathology such as heart ailments or cancer.

Miss Nichols pointed out that during the three years the total number of X-rays taken reached 178,521. The association is now operating a mobile X-ray bus donated by the Texas chapters of Beta Sigma Phi, business women's sorority. The association expects to reach 80,000 people with this unit during 1949, according to Miss Nichols.

The program of work outlined in the report is financed solely by funds raised in the annual Christmas seal sale. Highlights of the report include health education work with schools, colleges and professional groups; cooperation with state and welfare agencies interested in health and field service to the 87 local tuberculosis associations in Texas.

Jones has now snipped three carloads of grain, but the damp weather also slowed down the feed harvest. Much of the grain is still green, due to the damp weather. However, moisture content on that grain bought has been low. On the first car shipped, Jones received back the official report of 12.08 per cent moisture content, a figure better than he had expected. He also stated that the shortage of railway cars for shipping has been alleviated, and that he is now able to handle more grain.
