Two Booster Trips For Rodeo Planned

Work is progressing rapidly on the new combination rodeo arena, baseball and softball field, first of which will be made April 22 and 23, when the annual American Legion rodeo is held. The arena is located immediately west of the football stadium, and will be used this summer for the Legion-sponsored baseball team and the Lions Club-sponsored softball league.

From Saturday, April 15, through the three days of the rodeo will be "Cowboy Week" in McLean, members of the Legion said. All residents are asked to cooperate by wearing some type of cowboy clothing. The "request" will be enforced, and those who do not wear the cowboy regalia will be fined $1 and the money placed in the Legion permanent arena fund.

Two booster trips to publicize the rodeo are planned, George Terry, commander of the Legion post, said. First will be Saturday, April 15, and the second Monday, April 17.

Saturday's itinerary will include Sayre and Mangum, Okla., Wellington, Childress, Memphis, Hedley, Clarendon, Claude, Amarillo, and Groom. On Monday's trip the visitors will go to LeFors, Pampa, Borger, Perryton, Canadian, Wheeler, and Shamrock.

The boosters will leave McLean at 8 o'clock both of the two days, Terry said, and urged all people who possibly can to make one or both trips. If any person can make either or both trips, he is requested to contact Terry as soon as possible.

Stock chutes have already been erected, and a fence around the arena is nearing completion. The light poles from the former softball field near the Grade School have been moved and set up on the new location. Bleachers to accommodate the rodeo customers are in the process of being constructed.

Three performances of the rodeo are planned, one Friday night, April 21; one Saturday afternoon, April 22; and the third Sunday afternoon, April 23. The night performance will begin at 7:30 o'clock and the afternoon shows at 2 o'clock.

To be featured in the rodeo will be Clown Buddy Heaton and his educated horse, "El Rocho." Stock will be furnished by Tom Harlan.

A total of $1,300 in prize money will be awarded. Events will include the following: saddle bronc riding, purse, $200, entry fee, $10; bareback bronc riding, purse, $200, entry fee, $10; bull riding, purse, $300, entry fee, $10; bulldogging, purse, $200, entry fee, $10; calf roping, purse, $200, entry fee, $10; ribbon roping, purse, $200, entry fee, $10; girls sponsor, purse, $100, entry fee, $7.50. Two go-rounds will be held, and entries close at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon, April 21.

In addition to the rodeo, the Legion plans two dances, one Friday night, and the second Saturday night, both to be held at the American Legion Hall.

Bids Are Asked For Building New Warehouse

Sealed bids for the construction of a metal warehouse at McLean will be accepted by the Texas Highway Department at the office of the district engineer in Amarillo until 10 o'clock Friday morning, April 21, it was announced this week.

Bids on the construction of the building will be opened and read at that time, James G. Lott, district engineer, has announced.

The warehouse will be that which the highway department announced its intention to build late in November. At that time, an easement was needed for the building, and donations to obtain that easement were taken at a meeting of the McLean Lions Club in November.

C. W. Smith, assistant division engineer in Amarillo, stated then that the building would serve as a sub-district for the district, which now has its offices in Pampa under Jack McDowell. There is also the possibility that more men will be connected with the sub-district here when the warehouse is completed than are now employed by the highway department for maintenance of the highways.

Smith explained then that the building will be of sheet metal. As a general rule, he said, such buildings cost about $9,000, plus the cost of a fence surrounding the building and the beautification of the property. He said that the grounds would be beautified to such an extent as to make it an attractive addition to the highway approach to McLean.

Plans and specifications for the structure are available at Lott's office in Amarillo.

John C. Haynes Resigns From School Board

John C. Haynes, president of the board of the McLean Independent School District for that past year, resigned from that position and as a member of the board at the regular meeting Monday night.

Haynes stated that he was resigning from the board since he now has no children in school, and also because of the fact that his ranching activities keep him out of town so much of the time.

Boyd Reeves, veteran member of the board, was elevated to the presidency of the board following Haynes' resignation.

Clyde Andrews and Roy Kiser were installed as new members of the board. The two men were elected to the board in the April 1 election, and fill the vacancies created by the expiration of the terms of Clifford Allison and Perry Everett.

Three members of the McLean city council were installed at the regular meeting of that group Tuesday night. Installed were Ed Lander, who was re-elected at the April 4 city election, and two new members, Paris J. Hess and J. C. Claborn.

OLA GREGORY

Ola Gregory Seeks Office Of Treasurer

Ola Gregory, county treasurer, this week authorized The McLean News to announce her candidacy for re-election to the office of county treasurer, subject to the Democratic primaries.

Miss Gregory pledges the same efficient and courteous service to the people of Gray County that she has given in the past and feels that the ever increasing duties of the treasurer call for a person of experience, and that she is well qualified by virtue of her past record of service both as county treasurer and as deputy county clerk previous to her election as treasurer.

Miss Gregory said she intends to meet as many voters as possible during her campaign and solicits the vote and influence of all the voters in the county.

News Office Closed Friday, Saturday

The office of The McLean News will be closed all day Friday and Saturday to allow members of the staff to attend the 41st annual convention of the Panhandle Press Association in Amarillo.

The office will again be open Monday morning, April 17, it was explained.

Continued Dry Weather Brings Grass Fires, Hurts Wheat Crops

1950 Acreage Applications Due April 28

New cotton legislation recently passed by Congress provides for minimum 1950 acreage allotments based on one of three provisions, Evelyn J. Mason, county P. M. A. secretary, said this week.

The revised allotments are based on the larger of (1) 61 per cent of the average acreage planted to cotton (or devoted to war crops in place of cotton) in 1946, 1947, and 1948; (2) 45 per cent of the highest acreage planted to cotton on the farm during any one of the three years; but (3) not more than 40 per cent of the 1949 acreage which was tilled on the farm or in regular rotation.

Any owner or operator of a cotton farm in Gray County who believes he is entitled to an acreage increase and wants to be considered by the county committee for possible allotment adjustment under the legislation must file an application not later than April 28, 1950.

"We urge owners or operators who want their farms considered for revised allotments to file applications by this date. Farmers who are satisfied with their present allotments need not file applications. However, those desiring increases will be considered by the county committee after applications for such increases are filed in the county office," the secretary said.

Each operator of a farm for which an application is filed will receive a notice from the county committee of the revised 1950 cotton allotment. When the new allotment notice is mailed it will replace any previous 1950 allotment notice already received by the farm operator.

Application forms may be obtained from the county PMA office.

COLLINS HOWARD

Collins Howard In Race for Congressman

Collins Howard, former Childress County Attorney and judge, has authorized The News to announce his candidacy for U. S. representative from the 18th Congressional District of Texas in the May 6 special election.

Howard is a native of Texas, former machinist at the Fort Worth and Denver shops in Childress, and a veteran of World War II. He has been a resident of the Panhandle since his childhood days.

"In these critical times," Howard said, "I feel the nation needs men of mature judgment and with experience in public affairs in places of leadership."

"I believe my experience as a laborer, as an attorney and public official, and as an overseas veteran in the recent war, qualifies me to represent the people of this district in the U. S. Congress."

"I have no promises to make, but I will use my training, experience, and ability to the best advantage possible in representing all the people of the Panhandle district. I think preservation of the peace is the most vital question facing the world today; and, of course, I will do anything within my power to prevent another war. Equally important, I think, is maintenance of our democratic way of life. I shall

'Almost Total Loss Reported In Area North

Continued dry weather continues to harass farmers throughout the entire Panhandle area, and those in the big wheat-producing areas are suffering the greatest.

Local residents who have viewed the wheat areas north and west of McLean report that the crops in those areas already range from a 10 to 100 per cent loss. In the local area, where only a small amount of wheat is raised each year, the crops are also badly hurt by the drought, but some could still be produced should a rain come within a short time.

Cotton farmers, although worried to some extent, feel that they still have sufficient time to receive the rainfall needed before planting time.

Biggest danger at the present time to be caused by the dry weather is to the grass lands. Not only is the grass unable to grow and become green during the spring days, but the danger of fire is ever present. Local firemen answered five grass and weed fire calls within the past week, one Saturday, one Sunday, one early Wednesday morning and two more later in the day Wednesday. The Sunday fire was within the city limits. Gene Herron, who lives just west of town, also suffered damage to one of his pastures last week-end, when a fire of unknown cause started, but he was able to extinguish the blaze before it gained a great deal of headway.

Although some people believe cigarettes thrown from cars will not start grass fires, others disagree with this theory and believe that a portion of the fires are being started in this manner. Motorists also sometimes toss lighted matches from cars and start the fires. The blaze early Wednesday morning just west of town was apparently started by sparks from a train, since it was along the Rock Island right-of-way.

Two heavy dust storms hit the McLean area during the past week, one coming Sunday and one Monday. The Monday storm was much worse than the other. Both Tuesday and Wednesday were clear days with only a slight wind.

In the meantime, the U. S. Department of Agriculture predicted the smallest wheat crop for Texas in 14 years, estimating this year's crop will yield only 24,940,000 bushels of the grain. If this prediction comes true, this will be the smallest crop since 1936, when Texas produced only 18,927,000 bushels. In 1947, Texas produced an all-time bumper crop of 124,270,000 bushels.

Apparently the wild fowl in this area are either getting more brave, or figure we are getting more tender-hearted.

Last Wednesday evening, W. W. (Slick) Boyd went home and saw a wild turkey roosting on a limb of a tree in his yard. He didn't bother the bird.

Next morning, the bird was sitting atop the Boyd house, just as released as could be. But a short time later, he took to the air and disappeared in the distance.

Boyd stated that the only reason he could give for the bird's appearance in McLean was the presence of grass fires in the area which may have driven the bird to town.

George Washington's cabinet was composed of secretaries of State, Treasury, and War.

Eleven Seek Congressional Post

As this is being written, there are eleven candidates for the office of U. S. Representative from the 18th Congressional District, and there may be more before the paper is off the press.

Date of the election is May 6, as set by Governor Allan Shivers. The 11th candidate for the office is W. T. Pickel of Borger, an announcement. His announcement for the office was made last Saturday.

Pickel makes the 10th person to seek the office on the Democratic ticket. Ben Guill of Pampa is offering for the position on the Republican ticket, and his name will be listed along with the other candidates on the ballot in the May 6 special election. When the smoke clears away after April 17—the deadline for filing for the office—there can be no more candidates. The April 17 deadline was set at a meeting of county judges of the 28 counties involved last Saturday in Amarillo.

The judges agreed to have the county judge, sheriff, and county clerk of each county draw for candidates' positions on the ballot, and permit absentee voting as soon as the ballots are in the hands of the county clerks. Absentee balloting may continue until three days prior to the election.

The ten Democratic candidates are as follows: LeRoy LaMaster of Perryton, Talma Smith of Clarendon, Collins Howard and Ronald Davis of Childress, W. T. Pickel of Borger, Walter Rogers of Pampa, J. Blake Timmons, Mrs. Alkavene Clark, H. J. Bice, and E. T. Burk, all of Amarillo; and the lone Republican is Ben Guill of Pampa.

In such a special election, no party lines are observed. The candidate receiving the highest number of votes, regardless of whether the office for the remainder of Gene Worsley's term, or until January 1.

Democrats will then choose their candidate for a full two-year term at the primaries in July and August, and that Democrat will be placed on the general election ballot in November. Should any Republican wish to make the race in the general election, he may file his name for a place on that ballot for the two-year term.

Public Needs V. D. Education

The more than 2,000 cases of syphilis and 3,000 cases of gonorrhea reported throughout the state since the first of the year signifies the pressing need for continuing public health education in the matter of venereal disease, State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox believes.

Cox appealed for state participation in making "Better Health for Texans" a year long program. A "Better Health for Texans Week" was officially designated by Governor Allan Shivers last December.

Cox said the response of the public, the press, radio, motion picture theaters, television, and other agencies and individuals during the campaign was excellent.

"But," he said, "the continued success in reducing the incidence of VD requires the full support of all the public."

The veteran of more than 13 years as state health officer said his department was continuing an "intensified" campaign against venereal infections through "all media of mass education—newspapers, radio, feature releases, and talks to luncheon clubs and civic organizations.

"We've even gone into television to carry our VD warning to the people," Cox asserted. He said his division of public health education had recently produced a color film and a motion picture trailer which were available for loan to television stations through local health agencies.

He said any organization desiring informational pamphlets, posters, and prepared speeches on the subject of venereal diseases could get them by writing to the State Department of Health in Austin.

Ben Guill, of Pampa, Announces For Congress

Ben Guill, 40 year old Navy Purple Heart veteran and Pampa businessman, has announced his candidacy for Congress in the special election on May 6. Guill is the only Republican in a field containing ten Democrats. The high man at the polls will be elected Congressman without a run-off.

Guill, who has lived in the Texas Panhandle for 31 years, is married to the former Marjorie Buckler, of Pampa. They have a nineteen month old son.

Why a Republican
Guill, a graduate of West Texas State College and a former teacher in the public school system in the Panhandle, said he was running as a Republican because "I am opposed to the Socialistic policies of the present administration and the only honest way I know of fighting the Socialistic theories of the Santa Claus boys is to join the other team."

"I have no intention of telling the people of the Panhandle that the Republican Party is perfect or all virtuous. It is nothing of the sort. I merely think there is more Americanism to the square inch in the Republican party today than among the Socialistic leaders who have cold-bloodedly stolen the party of Jackson, Jefferson, Calhoun and Wilson away from the people."

Was a Democrat
Guill, who was an independent Democrat until now, is strongly in favor of reducing income taxes. He is bitterly opposed to socialized medicine. He wants the government to stop dictating to the farmer about what, and how much, he can raise, and he believes the Panhandle cotton farmer was given a "raw and heartless deal" in the recent setting of quotas.

"I am the son of a farmer," Guill said. "I believe the farmer is the backbone of the national economy. I'm sick and tired of hearing pink little bureaucrats tell the farmer what he should do. It's high time the farmer tells Washington what ought to be done. The farm problem should be settled by the farmer himself and if I am sent to Washington as Congressman from the Panhandle I shall bring with me a farm program which embodies the wishes and the ideas of the Panhandle farmers themselves."

Chances Good
Guill, who has thousands of friends and former students in the Panhandle, is given an excellent chance of winning the special election. With the votes split among ten Democrats, it is estimated that he will be elected if he receives as many votes as Frank T. O'Brien, the Republican candidate for Congress in 1948 received in his race against Gene Worley. If he gets half as many votes as Jack Porter, the Republican candidate for the Senate in 1948, received in the Panhandle he will be an easy winner.

Guill won the Purple Heart in combat in the Pacific. He went through seven amphibious landings and earned four battle stars. He is a member of St. Matthew's Protestant Episcopal Church in Pampa, is a director of the Pampa Rotary Club, the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He is waging one of the most vigorous campaigns in the history of Panhandle elections.

Health Brings Typhoid Germ

W. Cox, state health officer, says that the season of typhoid fever is upon us. He urges everyone to clean up their premises to eliminate flies and other insects. A town is as clean as the individual citizens, and public health should be everyone's concern.

The typhoid germ travels from an infected person to the well person; this is generally accomplished by water, milk, flies, fingers, food. Every case is contracted by the mouth or digestive system.

A carrier is a person who has typhoid fever at some time who even after recovery carries the germs of the disease in urine and discharge of the bowels. Carriers who are careless in their personal habits are likely to infect any food they handle with unwashed hands. One of the most serious and far-reaching outbreaks of the disease has been caused by drinking or eating foods that have been handled by carriers. Persons may be carriers without knowing it.

Typhoid fever is unnecessary and preventable. Every case is due either to community negligence or to the carelessness of some individual. Persons planning a vacation or trip where sanitation may not be rigidly enforced should protect themselves against this disease by being immunized. Its prevention is accomplished by the enforcement of public health measures to protect food, milk, and water supplies, and by immunization. The purity of water, milk, or food cannot be judged by looking at it, so the best thing to do is to play safe and have your physician protect you.

YOUR TIME NOW

DURING THE past few months, The News has received considerable favorable comment on the articles and editorials we have been running concerning the disturbing trend of our federal government toward socialism.

Either by far the majority of people are greatly worried about the trend, or those favoring such a trend had rather not speak out. No criticism of the general idea expressed in the various articles has been advanced to this paper.

It isn't that we mind criticism, for we welcome good, constructive criticism of our editorial policies, or any other portion of this paper. But we are happy that everyone who has mentioned the articles to us agrees with them in substance. It is indeed heartening to know that people everywhere in this great country of ours are beginning to realize how our government will end up if a halt isn't called somewhere along the line.

However, you voters can do more than just mention to us that you liked the articles, that you agree with them. You voters will have that first opportunity on May 6.

Candidates—we won't say how many or who they are here, for the number may be doubled by the time this gets into print—are plentiful for the congressional office. Undoubtedly most all of them are well-educated and at least fairly intelligent, or they would not have offered for the office.

Some of the candidates will have more pleasing personalities than others, some will be better campaigners, some will be better handshakers.

Those things are not of particular importance. We urge every voter to study the platform of each candidate, to study the background of each candidate, before voting. It's true that the platforms in detail will not be carried out, but we can use our votes to elect the person who has chosen the most sensible platform.

Naturally, every one of us will not have the same ideas as to what the platform should be. But, if we are interested in our future, we should elect that person whose platform will halt this socialistic trend, who will be against socialized medicine, who will be against the taxpayers footing the bill for one-third of everything that is sold.

Yes, May 6 will be your first opportunity to have a say in stopping socialism—and eventually communism—from taking over our land. Study now, vote May 6.

Pineapple and Cheese Sandwiches

Pineapple and cheese slice sandwiches served open face style are a family luncheon treat that you'll repeat for guests. The flavors are proven favorites, and the sandwiches have an easy to achieve attractiveness that rates applause for you as an artist with food.

For perfect cheese slices buy half-pound packages of pasteurized process American in slices, wrapped and sealed right after pasteurization in the food plant where they are made. Each half-pound package contains eight perfect one-ounce slices that separate easily. Cut slices from the center first. Close package, like a book, for easy protection of any unused slices. Choose these marvelously convenient packages of perfect cheese slices in a variety of flavors from your grocer's refrigerated case.

Place a slice of cheese on the other bun half. Arrange on a chop plate alternating the pineapple topped bun halves and the bun halves with cheese. Garnish the center of the plate with maraschino cherries in a nest of lettuce.

LES TALK BY LESLEE

Got a short letter the other day from Eddie Stewart, who now lives in Norton, Kans., giving us the slight raspberries for the horse meat situation. Says Eddie:

"To all you poor Texans: 'Didn't know Texas was in such a bad way until I read it in the home paper (Norton paper, that is).

"If there is anything a poor Kansas boy can do to help just let me know (horses are cheaper up here).

"Just Plain Old Country Booy: Eddie Stewart.
"P. S.—I had BEEF STEAK for lunch."

Enclosed with the letter he had the following editorial taken from the Norton Daily Telegram:

SUCH GASTRONOMIC BLISS

"From the fact that their state uniform begins with cowboy hats and ends with cowboy boots, outsiders long have assumed Texas knew, understood, appreciated, and loved horses as dearly as they did their own bank accounts. For that reason, one could no more imagine them eating cayuses than eating their maiden aunts, and they could no more be fooled on a steak than they could on an oil lease.

"It comes as a shock, consequently, to learn that Texans recently have been eating horse-meat by the thousands of pounds, paying for it handsomely, and liking it. The meat was provided by some sharpshooting Kansas Citizens by outbidding the soap makers and labeling their buy 'Filet Mignon.' Under such title it has been served and consumed with satisfaction in some of the better hotels of Houston and Dallas.

"But now that it has been discovered the filet was filly, much more of a to-do is being made over it than the circumstances justify. The crime involved is essentially no more than that of serving oleo and letting the customers think it is butter.

"So far as the other 47 states are concerned, if Texans don't know the difference between a gelding and a steer, except on the hoof, why should the federal government step in with the folly of wisdom when gastronomic ignorance has been bliss?"

Pretty cutting, that Kansas editorial, undoubtedly written by one of the carpet-baggers who can't understand why Kansas U. and Kansas State never have any luck winning a football game from a Texas or Oklahoma team any more.

But as I see it, Eddie, it isn't the Texans who are eating the horse-meat—it's that group of people who have moved in from other states. You ought to know that should a real, dyed-in-the-wool Texan start chomping down on a piece of horse meat, that horse—even a Kansas specimen—would rare up from its defunct spirit and bellow so loudly that the cafe would have to close shop. No, it isn't the real Texans who are eating the horse meat, it's that bunch of people who have moved in. Texas is growing by leaps and bounds, you know, Eddie, and it may be that some of the cafe owners figured a good way to feed these newcomers would be with horse meat imported from Kansas. After all, the U. S. feeds the world, and Texas has to keep up the U. S.

But those stories you read about horse meat being served come mainly from Houston and Dallas. The real west, as you already know, doesn't begin until you hit Fort Worth, and even that cow town is beginning to lose some of its western atmosphere. Up here in the Panhandle, we wouldn't think of chomping down on a steak from old Dobbin we would not have the heart to do it.

And you might tell that editorial writer that we true West Texans can be fooled a lot quicker on an oil lease than on a steak. It's true that many a fortune has been made in oil, but it's also true that more fortunes have been lost in oil.

Hope you folks didn't mind reading about the horse meat letter. But, shucks, I gotta write about something.

By the way, I forgot to mention in the cutlines under the picture of the Tiger head last week that Mrs. Helen McWilliams, our art teacher, had the help of one of her students, Donna Ruth Magee, in the work. No slight intended, Donna Ruth, I just forgot it. Anyway, both of you are to be highly complimented for the painting.

Our office will be closed Friday and Saturday, Eunice, Martha, and I will be taking in the 41st annual convention of the Panhandle Press Association. We expect to enjoy the convention, for

Let's Go To Church Sunday

EVERY SUNDAY... Easter is more to every grateful heart than the thrill of wearing smart new clothes... more than gladness that the long Winter is over and Spring has come again... more than looking forward to the full blooming of a happy Summer!

It is the renewal of hope in every heart that life can be good, a renewal of faith in the future, an acknowledgment of the joyous reassurance in those immortal words, "Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." The glorious words that have rolled down the centuries bringing solace and relief to the burdened, are needed in today's confused and anxious world. To Him who said them, let us pay the tribute of our presence in His House. He is Risen!

40 Years Ago— IT HAPPENED HERE

Taken from the Files of The McLean News, April, 1910.

LADIES WILL ORGANIZE CIVIC CLUB

Several ladies of the city are interesting themselves in the matter of organizing a civic club for McLean and we wish to offer our hearty endorsement of the plan as there are many things that such an organization can accomplish for the good of the community that can hardly be reached in any other manner.

In the first place the sanitary condition of the streets, alleys, and private domain of the city is in need of attention, a condition that seems entirely beyond the pale of the city government's ability, and yet one easily remedied if the good ladies of the town take it up in earnest and put their moral support behind it. It is a patent fact there is almost an epidemic of sickness in the community at present and there can be but one cause to this effect—the accumulated filth and trash all over town that is decaying and sending forth myriads of germ life that attack every vital spot available. This the ladies will surely undertake to remedy as their initial effort in behalf of a cleaner, prettier, and more healthy city.

Another matter that should have the immediate attention of the ladies is the preparation of a rest room for ladies who are shopping in the city and which could be provided with a small outlay of cash. Very often ladies living at a distance are loath to come to town on a shopping expedition for the expressed reason that the trip is so tire some. After a long cramped ride in a more or less adequate vehicle they make the rounds of the stores, carrying babies and bundles, standing on their feet most of the time, and the consequence is they are hardly in a physical or mental condition to commence the return journey. If a place could be provided where they could leave the babies, take an hour's rest themselves, or spend their little minutes in comfort, they would go home feeling more kindly toward the town and more disposed to pay us frequent visits.

Still another means by which the ladies could greatly serve the town would be in the matter of beautifying the streets and public places and preparing play grounds and places of amusement for the little folks. While there is an abundance of room for children to play, there are no places that are in the least attractive, and the consequence is the tendency on the part of all the little ones to pine for a trip to the creek and other places where it is dangerous for them to be alone. We have a public park that is adequate in size for a pretty pleasure resort and with the beautifying of this a long step would be taken toward the desired end. There have been a few trees planted on this plot but they have never had proper care and show very little growth. If the ladies should get behind this matter, the result of their efforts would be the setting of the entire block in trees and the cultivation of them that they might grow and flourish, making a park that the citizenship could well feel proud of.

Every lady in the city is eligible to become a member of this organization and we suggest to you all that you give the matter some attention. Talk it over with your neighbors and friends and let's not let a good resolution go by default. In our next issue we will make a call for a general meeting looking to this organization and every lady who can leave her household for that length of time should attend and make a unit in this excellent move. It is a certain fact that the male population of the town is not going to bother themselves with this matter and it's up to you ladies to show them that your ideas are capable of reaching after things beyond the mere scramble for the almighty dollar.

Watch for the announcement of this important meeting.

To prolong the life of linens, rotate their use. As towels, sheets, tablecloths come back from the laundry, place them underneath those still left on your closet shelf. If you do your own, don't iron creases and folds in the same place each time and be careful not to make razor-knife folds.

When next you serve sliced cheese, tomatoes or egg sandwiches, spread the bread with a mixture of 1/4 cup vitaminized margarine blended with 2 teaspoons minced onion. For hamburgers, bologna and frankfurters, try 1/4 cup vitaminized margarine blended with 1 teaspoon mustard with horseradish. Are enough for 12 slices of bread.

Eggs are cheaper than they've been in a long time. And an ingenious menu-maker will keep in mind the many delicious main dishes the mighty egg can make - souffles, omelets (in all their variations), fondues, deviled eggs, baked eggs, creamed eggs, egg cutlets, eggs Florentine, eggs a la Benedict - to mention a few.

Does every wash day leave you with several odd socks... a blue, a green and a yellow? No amount of sleuthing seems to unearth their mates! So the next best thing is to remove all the color, and dye them to match with an all-purpose dye.

To clean copper pot bottoms—or any copper, for that matter—dip a lemon wedge in salt and rub the copper surface until it shines like new.

Balloons! Balloons! Balloons galore! You can have them for parties without all that blowing and blowing until your cheeks just about burst. All you have to do is let the blower attachment on your vacuum cleaner puff them up.

For a rich sauce to accompany the many fish dishes you'll be serving during Lent, just combine 1/4 cup real mayonnaise, 2 tablespoons chopped parsley and 2 tablespoons chili sauce. No penance at all.

If you are lucky enough to own a grand piano, arrange it in your living room with the flat side parallel to one wall. Don't nose it into a corner with its keyboard swung out into the room at an awkward angle.

Did you know that egg water is good for plants? Well, it is. Why? Cause it contains lime. So, whenever hard or soft-boiled eggs are on your menu, save the water and pour it on your plants. You may be dubbed "The Lady with the Green Thumb."

You'll find it much easier and neater to insert a slide fastener in a velvet dress by hand. Machine work rarely proves satisfactory even in the hands of a skilled operator.

Rainy, snowy days are very hard on good leather handbags. Shoes, too. But if the weatherman warns in time, you can be ready with the trusty, old galoshes. Handbags can also be protected if rubbed with liquid wax shoe polish.

Child Needs Dental Care

Solution of the nation's dental problems lies in making dental health education and dental care available to every child, said Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer.

He said it is possible to prevent loss of teeth from decay if a person starts early in life to follow these simple rules:

1. Early and frequent examination of the mouth by a dentist.
2. Early treatment of small cavities and other dental defects.
3. Proper diet with refined sugars held at a minimum.
4. Proper brushing of teeth after eating.

A child should be taken to the dentist shortly after the last of his first teeth appear at about the age of two, he declared. Frequent examinations and treatment should follow, he added.

Experiments are under way in research laboratories to find the answer to dental decay and other dental diseases, he said, adding:

"It has been learned that the very active element, flourine, can be used to curb dental decay to a large degree. Dentists are now applying a solution of sodium flouride to the teeth of their child patients as a routine dental treatment."

"To improve the dental health of the children of this country, each community through coordinated group activity, should assume its responsibility in putting an adequate dental health program into operation to meet adequately the needs of our children."

IMPORTANT PEOPLE!

WHO IS IMPORTANT?

E. T. BURK
For Congress

E. T. Burk, leading candidate for Congress, says: "Nearly all of us have children. Some of us have grandchildren."

"And how we love them! How we pray for peace, freedom, well-being for them. We are ready to fight for them and their welfare!"

"And we have senior citizens who are important and who have hard-earned rights. Just because a man or woman has a few grey hairs is no reason why he or she should be put on a shelf and marked off the list."

"Nothing else has hurt me more than the knowledge that many of our senior citizens have been kicked around as political footballs. I oppose this. I abhor it. I am the only candidate who has promised to fight the battles of senior citizens, and I will keep that promise. All senior citizens can count on E. T. Burk, candidate for Congress, Amarillo, Texas."

THERE IS NO DOUBT . . .
That E. T. Burk is the leading candidate. Burk CAN win! Never before have the senior citizens had such a wonderful opportunity to have a true friend in Congress. Pass the word on!

2 thin slices onion
2 tablespoons margarine
1 quart chicken stock
1 egg yolk
1/4 cup cream or rich milk
salt and pepper
1 tablespoon minced parsley

Beat egg yolk and add a little of the hot soup, stirring until smooth. Then add cream and combine with hot potato and chicken mixture. The soup must not boil after egg yolk is added.
