Two Showers Bring Year's Total to 9.95

A rain, which brought with it lightning and thunder, gave the McLean area another 7.9 of an inch in moisture Thursday night. Although the day had been hot, little or no hail came with the rainfall. No damage by hail had been reported in the area by Wednesday noon.

A second shower for the week came early this morning, with 1.1 of an inch falling in McLean. The storm warning was sounded at about 1:30 o'clock this morning, but fortunately no twisters developed.

The rainfall brought the total for the year to 9.95 inches, Pete Pulbright, local weather observer, said Sunday night another trace of rain fell, but Pulbright said that it was not sufficiently heavy to register on the rain gauge.

Fortunately, the Tuesday night rainfall was fairly slow, and did little damage to newly-planted crops in the McLean area. Most farmers have already planted two or three times this season, due to drenches which have fallen.

Harvesting of the light wheat crop in the area is also being delayed by the rainfalls. S. R. Jones will again buy grain for the Kimbell Milling company, and has a new grain pit and storage bins this season.

McLean Beats St. Francis By 14-2 Score

The McLean baseball team, led by the slugging of W. W. Edwards and the pitching of Aaron Stricker, defeated the St. Francis nine 14 to 2 in a game here Sunday afternoon.

Edwards hit four times in five trips to the plate, gaining a triple, two doubles, and a single. Johnny Hayes blasted out a homer in the 5th frame with two men on. Stricker gave up only eight scattered hits during the game, while the McLean batters were racking up a total of 25 hits.

In other Caprock League games Sunday, Hedley defeated Washburn 15-6; Claude outlasted Goldston 11-6; and Panhandle edged out Groom 10-9.

No regular league games are scheduled until July 7.

W. A. Cook Dies At San Antonio

W. A. Cook, 78 years of age, father of Mrs. Logan Cummings of McLean, died last Saturday morning at San Antonio.

He was a long-time resident of Wellington. The body was returned to Wellington for funeral services, which were held Monday at Wellington. Mr. and Mrs. Cummings went to Wellington Sunday and returned Monday night.

Mr. Cook was a member of the McLean Masonic lodge. He was a member of the McLean lodge. He was a member of the McLean lodge.

Golf Course Ready By Sunday—Maybe

The golf course of the McLean Country Club, now in the process of being prepared for playing, may be ready for the first rounds by local golfers by Sunday.

This announcement was made this week by Ruel Smith, member of the club who is spearheading the fixing up of the 9-hole course.

All fairways have been mowed, Smith stated Wednesday, and rolling of the fairways was expected to be completed late Wednesday afternoon. Sand was placed on five of the nine greens by Wednesday, and need only rolling, and it was believed that sand for the remaining four greens would be in by Thursday.

C. S. Rice has been preparing fairway stakes, showing yardages to the various holes, as well as the stakes for the numbers of the holes. He had his work almost completed by Tuesday afternoon, and only the setting of the stakes remained.

Associate memberships to about 35 people in the area have been sold for $10 each. This money, plus some money which the old country club organization had in its treasury, is being used to rejuvenate the course.

The course has been lying idle for a number of years. Members of the club have experienced difficulty in paying for the land, and it was necessary at one time to re-finance the land. However, by a system of payment of dues, the obligations against the land have now been retired.

Regular members of the club are not included in those who are paying the $10 membership fees. The associate membership entitles the holder and other members of his family to play on the course without further charge for the remainder of this calendar year.

New Officers of Lions Club To Be Installed Friday Night

Jimmy McCune of Pampa, one of the most active Lions in the area and who is now serving as zone chairman, will install new officers of the McLean Lions Club at an all-family basket lunch picnic in the City Park Friday night.

The affair is scheduled to start between 6:30 and 7 o'clock, Dr. J. H. Kritzer, who will be retiring as president of the club, has announced.

Cleaning Fluid Vapor Deadly

There's a lot of punch corked up in that little bottle of cleaning solvent out on the back porch. State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox called them "hazardous, when special precautions are not used."

No lengthy program for the picnic has been arranged, although one or two musical numbers may be presented. The installation of the new officers, and the making of the annual "Lion of the Year" award will comprise the major portion of the program.

All members of each Lion's family are to attend the affair. Each family will bring a basket lunch, and an old-fashioned picnic "spread" will be the feature of the evening.

It seems that solvent vapors are heavier than air, which means, according to Dr. Cox, that they will collect at floor levels. The danger of using solvent for such household chores as taking spots off the linoleum, or cleaning dirt or grease off the back steps, is that you have to get on your knees to do the job.

The new officers of the club were selected late in April, prior to the district convention in Childress, so that they might be able to attend the convention and pick up ideas on bettering the club. They will take office officially July 1.

And when you're on your knees, you're closer to the accumulation of solvent vapor.

To be installed are the following: R. B. (Bob) Shedrick, as president; J. Lester Dymart, first vice president; J. C. Claborn, second vice president; John R. Broadhurst, third vice president.

The state health officer proved his whole point with this story: A man attempted to remove the grease from the underside of his car by spraying it with a spray gun he had brought home from his construction job. He was found dead under the car, suffocated by the vapor of the cleaning agent.

Bill Reeves, secretary; John Plummer, treasurer; Roger Powers, tail twister; C. W. Bogan, Lion tamer; Clyde Andrews and Buddy Sutton, directors for two-year terms; and Amos Page, director for one-year term.

When doing a job of this sort, work for a short time—avoiding inhaling the vapors as much as possible—and then get into the fresh air for a minute or two.

Womack, charged with theft of oil field equipment, was arrested here in an apartment house by Sheriff G. H. Kyle, Chief Deputy Charlie Norvell Redwine, Deputy Charles Nicholson, and other members of the sheriff's force. Womack was indicted Monday of last week by the grand jury. He will be taken to Huntsville in the near future to serve his term.

Proper use of cleaning solvent, says the doctor, calls for opening all the doors and windows when all the doors and windows when cleaning floors, the underside of household furniture, or clothing. The idea is to get as much ventilation as possible. A fan blowing on the working area is helpful.

Filing Deadline Now Past for All Candidates

It's all over now but the voting.

Last Saturday was the deadline for filing for county and precinct officers, and also the final deadline for filing for any offices in the Democratic primary elections to be held in July and August.

There was a light flurry of filers during the week-end, when B. E. Ferrell of Pampa filed for the county chairman's post. Ferrell opposes Aaron Sturgeon, attorney, who had filed the previous week.

Here's the way the district, county, and local precinct races line up, awaiting the will of the voters:

For district judge: H. B. Hill, Lewis M. Goodrich, both of Shamrock.

For district attorney: Thomas C. Braly of Pampa, Guy Hardin of Shamrock.

For county clerk: Charlie Thut. For county sheriff: G. H. Kyle, R. H. Jordan, Horace S. Johnson.

For county superintendent: Huelyn Laycock.

For county tax assessor-collector: F. E. Leech.

For county attorney: John F. Studer, Bill W. Waters.

For county commissioner, precinct No. 1: Arlie Carpenter, Joe K. Clarke, H. A. Herring, A. C. Thurmond.

For commissioner, precinct No. 2: L. N. Atehon, Roy Sullivan, J. W. Graham, E. C. Shaffer.

For commissioner, precinct No. 3: Earnest Beck, Jesse Roberts, Clyde Brown, L. G. Waldrop.

For justice of the peace, precinct No. 1: M. V. Hix, E. A. Vance.

Voters Unanimous in Approving Consolidation of Back, McLean

Fish, Kiser to Auction Pies at Political Rally

Cletus (Bob) Fish and S. B. Kiser will serve as auctioneers when the pie and cake sale, coupled with a political rally, is sponsored in downtown McLean Saturday night, July 1, by the local Lions Club. The rally will begin at 8 o'clock.

The two men were present at the rally two years ago, and did an excellent job in auctioning the pies and cakes before the crowd of several hundred people.

Three of the four candidates for the 18th Congressional district office have announced their intentions of coming to the rally. They are Mrs. Altavene Clark, Walter Rogers, and LeRoy La-Master. No word was received from J. Blake Timmons, although he has also been invited to attend the get-together.

Most of the district and county candidates have already signified their intentions of making the meeting.

The affair will be held on the vacant lot between Roy's Food Market and Callahan's. Jack Ayers has agreed to let the Lions use one of his flat bed trucks as a platform. A public address system is being arranged for.

Huelyn Laycock, county superintendent who has no opponent for re-election this year, will serve as master of ceremonies at the rally.

The pies and cakes will be auctioned first, and then the candidates will be allowed five minutes each for their talks.

All women who desire to do so are invited to bring pies or cakes to be auctioned. It is requested that the name of the woman who brings the pie or cake be attached to it in some manner, so that the buyer will know from whom it came. Some confusion resulted two years ago when, due to the size of the crowd attending, the buyers were unable to find the owners of the cakes and pies.

Womack Given 2-Year Term

Gerald Womack, 24 years of age, who was arrested in McLean on the night of June 7, was sentenced to two years in the Texas penitentiary Friday in District Judge Lewis M. Goodrich's court in Pampa, following his plea of guilty. He had waived his right to trial by jury.

Womack, charged with theft of oil field equipment, was arrested here in an apartment house by Sheriff G. H. Kyle, Chief Deputy Charlie Norvell Redwine, Deputy Charles Nicholson, and other members of the sheriff's force. Womack was indicted Monday of last week by the grand jury. He will be taken to Huntsville in the near future to serve his term.

This Fellow Guill Does It Again—On Ag Committee

Ben Guill, the Panhandle's Republican congressman who has been making the headlines for the past two months, is in the headlines again.

For Wednesday he was appointed to the House of Representatives agriculture committee, an appointment important not only to him but to all the agricultural Panhandle which he represents.

"It is the assignment I hoped for when I first came to Washington because I believe that as a member of the powerful committee on agriculture I can best serve the interest of the people of the Panhandle." Guill wired The News Wednesday. "I was able to get the appointment within six weeks because a Republican member of the committee resigned especially to make room for me."

Tour of Seedings In McLean Area This Afternoon

The tour of grass seedings in the McLean area, being sponsored by the Gray County Soil Conservation District, will be held this afternoon, beginning at 1:30 o'clock.

All persons interested in making the tour are requested to be at the Veterans Vocational School building at 1:30. Arlie Carpenter, chairman of the district's board of supervisors, has announced.

The board will be assisted in the tour by Ralph Thomas, county agent, and Quentin Williams, district conservationist, as well as other members of the Soil Conservation Service staff.

Geo. Colebank Resigns School Manager Job

George Colebank, business manager and tax collector for the McLean Independent School district for a number of years, has resigned his position with the school system, members of the school board announced this week.

The board met Tuesday night to act on the employment of a successor to Colebank, but the meeting was broken up by the rainstorm and no action was taken. The board members plan to meet again as soon as possible to name a successor.

Colebank's resignation will become effective July 1, although he may remain on a few more weeks to acquaint his successor in the work on the tax rolls. At the present time, the tax rolls for the coming year's collections are being prepared.

Large Number Ballot Here, Give Welcome

By two unanimous O. K.'s, qualified voters of the Back and McLean school districts approved consolidation of Back with the McLean district in elections held last Saturday.

The citizens of the Back Common School District No. 9 voted 10 for and none against the consolidation with the McLean district. In the McLean box, where voters were balloting on the acceptance of Back into this district, the vote was 111 for acceptance and none against.

Local school supporters had hoped for a large vote in the McLean district, to let the Back citizens know that they would be highly welcomed, but the hopes were not even as high as the 111 votes cast. Members of the local school board stated that they were highly pleased with the vote of the McLean district patrons.

The results of the two elections were canvassed Monday morning by the county school board, a necessary step before the election became final. The Gray County board also certified this district under its new boundaries.

The next step will be to obtain the certification of the district from the county school boards in Donley, Collingsworth, and Wheeler Counties, since portions of the district lie within these adjoining counties. Such action should be completed within ten days, it was explained, provided meetings of the various county boards can be arranged.

Then it is planned to call an election to cover three issues; one will be the setting of the tax rate of $1.50 (the district with the exception of that area comprising the Back district already has this rate); second issue will be for assumption of the bonded indebtedness on the part of the Back district and the former McLean district; and third will be the voting on a bond issue for the construction of a new grade school building.

A period of 30 days must be allowed between the calling of these elections. Therefore, it is hoped that the district can be certified and the election held within 30 days, or perhaps a slightly longer time.

It has been estimated that a suitable grade school building will cost $147,000. This estimate was given by an Amarillo architect to members of the local school board recently, when Back school taxpayers desired to know what the cost would be before they petitioned for an election.

The plan now is to call all three elections—tax rate, bond assumption, and bond issue—at one time and utilize only one ballot, thereby eliminating considerable expense which would be entailed in three separate elections.

Now We Wonder What Happened to All of Those Boom Towns of Panhandle

If you live in McLean or around McLean, and had hoped and believed the town would show a population of 2,000 or 3,500, and then saw your hopes blasted with a 1,447 count—don't feel lonely.

There were not a resident of the only town to show a lower-than-expected census figure.

As a result of the list of disappointed cities, when its supposed 100,000 people dwindled overnight to less than 74,000. But the city of Amarillo had grown that figure from 81,000.

trict census supervisor, placed the count at 1,447. Shaller stated that McLean had 1,389 in 1940, but a search back through the files of The News shows that the 1940 population was 1,486. If Shaller is right, McLean gained 97 people, but if the figures in the 1940 News are right, McLean lost 39 residents. Local residents lost 39 can figure that about however.

300 more people live just outside the city limits, giving "metropolitan" McLean (a rather high-sounding name, isn't it?) an estimated 1,700 or 1,800.

One reason for the over-estimate of the population through-out the area was the inaccuracy of figuring 4.3 people per house, or per light meter, or per water meter, or per gas meter (some towns used one system, some another). In 1940, there were actually 3.45 people per dwelling unit in the Panhandle, and in 1950 this figure was 3,048 people. The 26 counties in the Panhandle did show an increase in population in the past decade. The grand total of the 26 counties is now 238,000, which, incidentally, is less than the population of Fort Worth alone, an increase of 48,284 people.

Here's a run-down on the population figures of the 26 counties, and the towns and cities in each:

WHO WILL FEEL THE BITE?

IF ALL PERSONAL incomes in excess of $10,000 a year were confiscated by Uncle Sam, it would barely give him the additional money needed to wipe out the $5½ billion deficit and finance the $1 billion first year's cost of the new federal spending programs proposed in the 1951 budget.

Since the nation faces a choice of submitting to higher taxes or reducing federal spending if Uncle Sam is to live within his income, the Council of State Chambers of Commerce has pointed up some of the difficulties in increasing federal revenue.

This study revealed that if, for instance, the federal government set $50,000 as the maximum income that could be retained by individuals and took outright all incomes above $50,000, it would get only about $843 million more than it gets now from present taxes on those incomes. This $843 million would be enough to run the federal government only one week.

Or suppose Uncle Sam called $25,000 the most anyone could have and took everything made above that figure. That would give the government a little over $2 billion in additional revenue. This is just a little less than the government intends to spend on agricultural activities and subsidies alone in 1951.

But, of course, Uncle Sam would never think of taking such a big tax bite because he knows he would destroy all personal incentives to earn that much again.

The survey further showed that in spite of the high taxes on incomes of $100,000 and over, Uncle Sam collected only $1.2 billion from 10,844 persons with such incomes in 1947, which is the latest year for which complete statistics are available. This total was only 6½ per cent of all income taxes paid that year. And tax rates on incomes over $100,000 that year ranged from 67 per cent to as high as 91 per cent.

On the other hand, 51 million taxpayers reporting incomes of less than $5,000 in 1947 paid $8½ billion which is 48 per cent or almost half of the income taxes collected that year.

The Council said, "There is no getting around the fact that any additional burden of taxes must fall on the lower income groups. They have only two choices: submitting to more taxes or demanding cuts in present spending with a halt to new spending."

LES TALK BY LESTER

You may have read the following article before, but it is worth reprinting. It is worth it not just from a newspaper's standpoint, but from the standpoint of freedom. It is truly good food for thought. The article, by the way, was written by John Sorrells, who is now dead but was at the time executive editor of Scripps-Howard newspapers. Sorrells wrote the letter in answer to a young man who was considering a newspaper career. The letter follows:

"It seems to me the newspaper business would prove inadequate and unsatisfactory to anyone who considers it merely the means of earning a living, because the newspaper is more than a business or a trade or a profession. It is a way of life.

"What a man will put into the newspaper business, if he is in earnest, will be hard work, a rigid mental discipline, a certain self-denial, an unglorified anonymity.

"The law is a noble profession. So is medicine and the profession of arms. The lawyer, the doctor, the soldier—the essence of their business is to serve the interests of others; they are engaged in a career of selflessness in which the greatest rewards are spiritual. That is no less true of the newspaper business.

"While journalism is a way of life, it also must be a business in the accepted definition of the term. It must prosper. It must have profits. It must prosper because it must remain free. It cannot remain spiritually free unless it is financially free. It cannot be free even when it is endowed, because it is dependent upon its endowment.

"Our whole concept of American society rests on the proposition that our press must be free to print all the news and to criticize the actions and designs of our public servants.

"A newspaper gives cohesion and direction and purpose to community life. It agitates; it creates demands; it articulates wants and needs; it establishes and preserves standards of public morals.

"I have felt that to be a newspaperman was a post of honor; I have felt that it requires that a man not merely be honest, but that he think with integrity; I have felt that mine is a noble profession, because I feel that primarily I am serving interests other than my own.

"The newspaperman would consider that whatever strength and power he has are endowments not to be used primarily for his gain but for which he is merely custodian, and must use for the general welfare."

With a philosophy like that, no wonder that Mr. Sorrells rose to the high rank of executive editor of a large chain of newspapers. Surely he must have practiced his philosophy, and in doing so he deserved to gain the fame and prestige he held before his death.

If you are a normal person—or anywhere normal—then you, too, probably hate to cast anything away which may be of some possible use to you in the future.

Perhaps I'm not normal, but I am that way. I'll stick some object in a drawer, or behind some-

You're an optimist if you don't care what happens so long as it happens to somebody else.

It's funny how a tree will stand in one place for years and then suddenly jump in front of a woman driver.

Nature gives everybody five senses—touch, taste, sight, smell, and hearing. Everybody needs two more—horse and common.

Some fellows are so lazy going to the dogs that they want the dogs to meet them half way.

To hear some roosters crow you'd think the sun was rising especially for them.

Speaking of common sense and horse sense, if you use Chevron products, then you are showing good usage of both common and horse sense. For Chevron products are tops, and we know you will like them once you have given them a trial.

thing, or under a bed, or in a closet, or in one type of place or another. Then I will forget all about it. Later I will be cleaning out that place, and wonder why in the world I ever saved that object.

Did just that in our garage the other day. As a matter of fact, we haven't lived in that house two years yet, but still I had accumulated a terrible amount of just plain junk. So I cleaned out the little room at the rear of the garage, and threw away more than two wheelbarrows of stuff. Stuff which I could find absolutely no use for at present, and could foresee no use.

The same thing happened here at The News office a couple of weeks ago when I tore down the partition in the rear of the building and moved a counter to the back. I found gobs and gobs of stuff that we had stuck away for future use. The peculiar thing about it is that, even if we had wanted to use it for something, we could never have found it. So I proceeded to throw a bunch of junk away. But some I didn't. I have now stuck it away again. Two, three, maybe four years from now I will run across this junk and bring myself to throwing it away. Or I may even put it in a different hiding place again and save it for another period of time.

Life seems to be like that. And it isn't just the junk or the unusable things in life that we put away. Sometimes we commit some act and attempt to put it away, when it should be repented of and cast aside when forgiven. Sometimes we say some harsh words which are unkind and most unthoughtful, and we attempt to hide them away without trying to make amends. Trouble often arises from such situations which could easily be remedied.

On one occasion which I remember well, I wrote some things in this column about a public matter, and was called down for it. The person who did the calling down did it by means of telephone. Some hard words were spoken on each end of the line before the receivers were clicked down. I thought about the matter a couple of days, and then went to see the caller. The caller was a good friend, and I told him we should stay friends. We had a little discussion, and in a friendly manner aired out our differences of opinion and interpretation.

We are still friends, and chances are we always will be. We didn't try to hide those things, as we would a lot of junk, and save them for future use. We cast them away immediately by settling our differences in a friendly manner.

No, I don't do that in every case. Too often, I try to hide these matters or try to throw them away and forget them. They can't be hidden, and they can't be forgotten—they are different from that junk we referred to previously.

No, I don't do that in every case. But I should, and we all should. It would be a happier, a much more peaceful world in which to live.

But few people appreciate those same qualities in a hot summer's day. Most of us would rather be comfortable. When the sun is really bearing down, and the thermometer is stuck on a hundred-and-then-some in the shade, your evaporative cooler is a real life saver! Turn it on and feel it... degrees and degrees of difference! Clean, fresh air... every breath sparkling-washed in cool, cool water. That's how much more pleasant summer living can be!

See your favorite electrical dealer... or ask your Public Service representative... you'll find the evaporative cooler to suit your needs, for home or business. It's economical, too... low-cost, dependable electric service makes it that way!

Mrs. J. T. 'Granny' Smith Given Surprise Birthday Dinner

Last Friday a number of her friends gathered at the home of Mrs. J. T. (Granny) Smith and gave her a surprise birthday dinner.

Those present were Rev. and Mrs. Euell Wells, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Burrows, Mr. and Mrs. S. Rice, Mrs. J. W. Story, Mrs. C. E. Hunt, Mrs. Lucy McCarty, Mrs. A. C. Bryant and Winnie, Mrs. R. T. Moore, Mrs. T. A. Langham, Earl Gossage, Mrs. George Colebank, Mrs. J. W. Kibler, Mrs. Tom Tedder, Mrs. Bunn Kunkel, Mrs. S. A. Cousins, two of Mrs. Smith's daughters, Mrs. Maggie McDonald of Comanche and Mrs. Lila Neely of Wichita, Kans., and her grandson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Brown and daughter of Pampa.

Seated at the table beside Mrs. Smith were Mrs. J. W. Story, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Burrows, and C. S. Rice, all of whom had or will celebrate their 82nd birthday this year.

Rice was asked to tell something of the life of Granny, but said that he did not know a great deal about her as he had only known her for 40 years.

In the state of Georgia on June 16, 1868, was born to Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Tapley a daughter, who was named Mollie. In June of 1885, Mollie united with the Baptist church and has been a consistent member every since (Granny has a picture of the church building where she joined). In December of the same year she was united in marriage to John T. Smith. In 1899 they moved to Texas and settled at Justin, and in 1910 they moved to McLean. For some time they operated a hotel and boarding house just north of the railroad section house, the dining room and kitchen of which was in a half dugout. Later they moved to the building now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Leon Waldrop, where they operated a boarding house for several years, and then located in the south part of town where Granny now lives.

Major B. E. Glass Jr. and family of Washington are visiting this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Glass, and grandmother, Mrs. J. T. Glass.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Glass spent the week-end in Oklahoma City visiting his sister, Mrs. J. B. Kibler, and Mrs. Glass' parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bradbury and children of Cleburne visited in the Glenn Wade home over the week-end.

Mrs. Loula Ladd is visiting her daughter and family in Springer, N. M.

Mrs. J. B. Pettit visited with relatives in Clarendon Sunday.

Naneen Campbell, David M. Warren Betrothal Revealed

The ballroom of the Pampa Country Club was the scene of an elaborate social affair Tuesday afternoon of last week, when Dr. and Mrs. William Leslie Campbell, formerly of McLean, announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Naneen to David M. Warren Jr. of Panhandle. Between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock, more than 300 guests from Amarillo, Panhandle, Borger, Perryton, Rusk, McLean, and Pampa attended.

The floral effects were carried out in a motif of orchid and lavender in graduated shades, which Miss Campbell has selected for her wedding colors. Urns and vases of gladioli were arranged throughout the long hall, while palms formed a background.

Phoebe Osborne of Pampa furnished a series of classical instrumental selections through the receiving hours at a piano mantled with orchid and white flowers.

The serving table was arranged at the far end of the hall and was the artistic work of the bride-elect's mother. Presiding at the refreshment table were Mrs. C. Fenoglio Jr. of Rankin, sister of the honoree; Mrs. Jolynn Campbell, her sister-in-law; Mrs. Marcella Dickerson, another sister; Donna Ruth Beagle, and Joanne Clay, all of Pampa.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Campbell, Naneen Campbell, Mrs. Warren of Panhandle, and Mrs. A. E. Meyer of Los Angeles, Calif., grandmother of the bridegroom-elect.

Serving as registrars during the afternoon were Mrs. Leslie Hart of Pampa, and Mrs. J. C. Phillips of Borger, aunt of the groom-elect.

Mrs. Jim Back of McLean, who was introduced by Mrs. Hart, had written an interesting ekit depicting the life of Miss Campbell. It began with her babyhood and carried her through her school days, graduation, and then her wedding. The latter portrayed the problems of a young bride when she assumes the routines of house-keeping. The entire playlet was given in song and those taking part were Jeanne Pharis, Norma Watson, Jane Williams, and La Wanda and Darlene Shaddid, all of McLean.

At the close of the playlet, little Ila Joan Pendleton, niece of the bride-to-be, carried a large basket filled with baby orchids, which she distributed to the guests. Tied to each orchid was a miniature "extra" newspaper. Printed inside in regular newspaper fashion was the announcement of the engagement and date of the wedding, which is set for August 11 at Pampa.

Mrs. J. W. Burks of Memphis was a visitor in McLean Monday. Mrs. Burks is a former McLean resident.

Mrs. Otha Carter of Shafter, Calif., came Saturday for a visit in the home of her sister, Mrs. Laura Stratton. She was accompanied by her niece, Wanda Douglas of Bakersfield, Calif., who will spend the summer in the Switzer and Stratton homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bentley of Clarendon, and son Bobby of Austin, visited in the M. D. and Fred Bentley homes Sunday.

Music Club Has Closing Session In Boyett Studio

The High School Music Club met in closing session Friday, June 9, at the studio of Mrs. Willie Boyett.

Barbara Barrett and Ann Cooper were presented in repertoire playing with one ensemble and six piano solos each. Others appearing on the program were Floella Cubine, Patricia Ferguson, Dicky Sligar, Donna Gail Stubblefield, and Barbara Nell Williams.

Pins and certificates were presented to those who played in the National Guild audition.

Floella Cubine received a reward pin for attendance and the required grades for the year. She, with Patricia Ferguson, Sue Glass, Dicky Sligar, and Barbara Nell Williams were honor roll students for the closing six weeks.

Refreshments consisting of home made ice cream and cake were served by Mrs. Harold Butrum and Mrs. John Cooper to 18 members and guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Herndon and children and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lankford and children of Tulsa visited in the K. S. Rigby home over the week-end.

Mrs. Kate Everett visited with relatives in Brownfield last week.

Wheat Growers of County Join Newly-Formed State Group

Gray County is one of the 16 producing counties that make up the newly organized Producers of Texas. Officers for the state organization are: Carl Kuper, president; R. C. Buckles, vice president; Stratford, and Kenneth Smith, secretary-treasurer.

Sixty per cent of all money collected will be sent to the state organization. The state will foster the programs to help get rid of our surplus wheat, and will send a portion of this money to the national organization which is already set up with temporary national headquarters at Dodge City, Kans. Herb Clutter of Holcomb, Kans., is president of the national organization.

The purposes of the Texas Wheat Producers Association are as follows:

1. To find new uses for our surplus wheat - a through chemical analysis; b. through new industrial uses.
2. To sponsor national advertising campaigns about the various uses which may be made of wheat. To acquaint the general public with facts concerning wheat.

3. To cooperate with the National Association of Wheat Growers.
4. To employ expert personnel and find new foreign markets for wheat.
5. To work toward the goal of getting all wheat growers in the United States to work out a program for wheat growers that is acceptable to all sections of the country, and to encourage legislation to embody such a program.

News About—SOCIAL SECURITY

"Check your Social Security number on your pay envelope or pay check stub. Make sure that the number agrees with the number on your Social Security card."

This advice was given workers by J. R. Sanderson, manager of the Amarillo office of the Social Security Administration. Sanderson pointed out that most employers conscientiously try to report each worker's social security number correctly, but it is only human to make mistakes occasionally.

"When a worker has Social Security taxes deducted from his pay he is paying premiums on an insurance policy. This insurance helps to provide financial security in the worker's old age after retirement. It also provides insurance payments to eligible survivors if a worker dies," Sanderson said.

"Eligibility for benefits hinges on the length of time a worker has been employed in jobs covered by Social Security. The amount of benefits payable depends on the total wages credited to his account. It is to the worker's advantage to have credit on his wage record for all wages earned. If his wages are reported under the wrong social security number," Sanderson concluded, "he may not be credited with those wages. Later on, he and his family may lose benefits which should be theirs."

Mr. and Mrs. Jim D. Sparks and children from Tipton, Calif., came last week for a visit with Mrs. Sparks' parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Langham.

Mrs. Laura Stratton returned Friday from a vacation trip to Red River, N. M., accompanied by daughter and family from Amarillo.

NEWS FROM LIBERTY

D. L. Miller, better known as "Runt," is very happy and thankful this week, as some of his neighbors in the Heald community came over bright and early Monday morning and planted his crops for him.

Runt has had the mumps and was unable to replant his acres. Those donating time and tractors were W. A. Davis, Clell Windom, U. G. Lane, Raymond Lane, Floyd Lee, Hendrick Pickett, Walter Litchfield, Gordon Billingslea, Wink Gideon, and Clifton Pugh.

The Liberty Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. A. A. Hardin. The county agent, Mrs. Hastings, gave a slide movie on outdoor grills. An attractive one can be built with much labor and little money involved. Those answering roll call with "What My Family Does for Recreation" were Mesdames A. H. Reneau, James Foster, Roy McCracken, W. R. Stokes, B. L. Stokes, Luther Petty, O. O. Tate, and Hastings. Delicious cake and coffee were served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Olen Davis.

Orphus Tate Jr. wants his little friends to know that he can see much better out of his right eye after his operation. In fact, his vision is 20-30.

The 4-H Club girls will have a meeting soon and a demonstration will be given on master mix. From this mixture muffins, biscuits, and shortcake are made. Watch for the date.

CLEAN-UP CAMP

The following from McLean assisted in cleaning up the Pan-Fork Baptist camp grounds near Wellington Monday: Rev. Roy Davidson, who is doing the preaching at the youth revival, Bob Hines, who conducts the song services, Rev. and Mrs. Buell Wells and son Morris, Mrs. Boyd Reeves, J. M. Stevens and daughter Jo Ann, Jeanne Pharis, and Norma Watson. The boys encampment will start June 26, and the girls will start July 3.

Mrs. Lady Bryant visited with friends in Austin last week.

A REVIVAL meeting will be held June 26 through July 9 at the Pentecostal Holiness Church in Alanreed, with Sybil Gresham and Cara Stark of Oklahoma City in charge of the services. The two are in McLean this week in a revival and Bible school. Services will be held each evening at 8 o'clock, it was announced.
