Merchants Offer Bargains Galore

Saturday, July 14—and that's this very next Saturday—should prove McLean to be the most satisfying place in the U. S. for price-conscious shoppers, for Saturday is the first of the big Dollar-Stretcher Days.

The event is being sponsored by the McLean Junior Chamber of Commerce, and a total of 35 business houses in McLean are cooperating in the first of the series of Dollar-Stretcher Days.

There are bargains galore. As a matter of fact shoppers may buy—at big discounts (with many, many prices below the actual cost prices)—just about anything from bug screens to pick-ups.

McLean Nine Takes Wheeler To Tune of 13-10

The McLean baseball team took advantage of its home field Sunday afternoon, and got sweet revenge over the Wheeler team, the team which had downed the local nine at Wheeler. When the high-scoring match finally settled, the McLean team was on the long end of a 13-10 score.

Watson and Edwards tossed for the local nine, Watson four innings and Edwards five.

Wheeler started off in a determined manner, racking up six runs in the top of the first. McLean came back to score four runs in the bottom half. In the third frame, the visitors got one more tally, and then three more in the fourth to end their scoring for the game.

The McLean nine picked up one run in the fourth, one in the fifth, and then tied the game at 10-all in the sixth. Three more runs in the seventh gave the local team the winning margin.

Next Sunday, the Shamrock team will play the locals here. McLean downed Shamrock in the first game there several weeks ago. Other Panhandle League games will find Allison playing at Wheeler; Miami at Kelton; and Briscoe at Mobeetie.

Child Photos To Be Entered In Contest Here

A photographer from Hallmark Studios of Dallas and Irving will be in McLean Tuesday, July 17, from 11 o'clock in the morning until 7 o'clock in the evening at the Hindman Hotel.

The photographer is Winston Lucas, who was in McLean last September on a similar visit, and who will again sponsor a child photo contest.

All photographs of children will be made free of charge, it was explained, and from these, three pictures will be chosen to receive the first, second, and third prize awards.

In addition, all pictures made will be published in later editions of the McLean News at no charge.

Proofs will be shown by the photographer after his visit here next Tuesday, and the parent may select any picture of his or her child which is wanted in the paper. Also at that time extra photographs may be purchased if desired, although there is no obligation to do so. Even if extra pictures are not ordered, the child's photo will be published in the paper, it was explained.

The three awards to be made are valued at $15.45, it was explained. It was emphasized that there will be no charge made by the Hallmark photographer when he takes the photos. Neither will there be a charge for running the pictures in the paper, or for entering in the contest. The only charge is for extra pictures which may be desired.

T. A. ROBERTSON to California

Eight Teams Invited to Enter Ball Tourney

Plans were being made this week for an invitational softball tournament to be held on the local softball diamond next week under the sponsorship of the McLean Lions Club.

Eight teams are expected to enter the tournament, J. C. Claborn, member of the softball committee in charge of obtaining entrants, said. However, some of those contacted had not been heard from by late Wednesday afternoon. Definitely entered were the Holloway team and a combination of the Cooke Chevrolet and Post Office teams, from the local league, and Lefors and Skellytown. Others being contacted include Wheeler, White Deer, and two Amarillo teams.

If eight teams are entered, four nights of softball will be held, with play on Monday; Tuesday and Thursday nights. An admission charge of 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for students will be made during each night of the tournament. Each team entering will pay an entrance fee of $25. If eight teams are entered, the prizes will be $100 for first place, $50 for second, and $25 for third.

In the meantime, the Post Office team took the lead in the play-offs to determine the winner of the first half of the local league. The Post Office team holds two victories and no losses as the leading team.

No admission is being charged to the play-off games, as was previously announced. The play-offs continue through Saturday night as follows:

Tonight (Thursday): Cooke vs. Methodist; Post Office vs. Holloway.

Friday night: Cooke vs. Holloway; Methodist vs. Warren Oil.

Saturday night: Post Office vs. Methodist; Cooke vs. Warren Oil.

The results of the first two nights of play are as follows:

Monday night: Post Office vs. Warren Oil 5; Holloway 14, Methodist 13.

Tuesday night: Post Office 15, Cooke 13; Warren Oil 12, Holloway 7.

Play-off standings are as follows:

T.A. Robertson Takes Church In California

Thomas Allen Robertson, minister of the McLean Church of Christ since September, 1949, has resigned from his position here to accept a similar place with the Laurel and East Street Church of Christ in Ontario, Calif.

Minister Robertson will conduct his final services here Sunday, August 5. He will conduct a meeting at Sweetwater, Okla., from August 10 to 19, and then deliver his first message to the congregation in California on Sunday, August 26.

No minister to succeed Robertson has as yet been named by the church.

Robertson came to McLean in September, 1949, from Woodward, Okla., where he had served as minister for three years.

He was reared in Oklahoma City and attended the public schools there. Later he attended Freed-Hardeman College at Henderson, Tenn., Southwestern at Weatherford, Okla., and Central Teachers College at Edmund. Prior to coming to McLean, he had been in ministerial work for nine years.

Lions Install New Officers; Dysart Named 'Lion of Year'

More than 80 people were in attendance as members of the Lions Club and their families gathered at the City Park Tuesday night for the annual outdoor picnic and installation of officers.

Named as the "Lion of the Year" was J. Lester Dysart, who also was installed as the president of the club for the coming year. Dysart was named as the recipient of the honor in secret balloting by club members several weeks ago, and the presentation was made by Ham Luna, outgoing president of the Pampa Lions Club.

Esherman White, newly-elected Pampa president, served as the installing officer. Other officers installed included J. C. Claborn, first vice president; Amos Page, second vice president; Odell Mantooth, third vice president; Howard Horne, secretary; Clifford Allison, treasurer; Hickman Brown, tallwister; Logan Cummings, Lion tamer; and directors, Horace Brooks, John Cooper, Guy Hibler, and Larry Sutton.

A barbecued chicken dinner, featuring chicken barbecued by Dysart and Horne, was served buffet style following the opening of the program.

Bill Day sang two numbers, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Day. Then C. E. Cooke showed the colored motion pictures made by him and Mrs. Cooke when they attended the annual Tulip Festival in Holland, Mich., in May. The pictures were highly-colored, beautiful films, and showed scenes from the city of Holland, as well as scenes of the program presented during the festival.

Boyd Meador, district governor who recently returned from the Lions International convention in Atlantic City, N. J., gave a few of the highlights of the convention preceding the showing of the motion pictures.

Out-of-town guests, other than White and Luna, included Jack Dekie, R. A. Ziegler, Arthur Wells, and Tommy O'Gorman of Shamrock. They extended an invitation to local Lions to attend their installation ceremonies Thursday night at Shamrock.

Church Christ Gospel Meet Begins July 15

A two-weeks gospel meeting will begin at the Church of Christ in McLean Sunday, July 15, Minister T. A. Robertson has announced.

Conducting the meeting will be Hoyt H. Houchen, minister of the Central Church of Christ in Amarillo. Congregational singing will be directed by George P. Saunders of McLean.

Services will be held twice daily, the local minister said. Morning services will be at 9:45 and evening services at 8 o'clock. The revival will end July 29.

In addition to the meeting, a Vacation Bible School will be held at the church for all children. The school will begin Monday morning, and classes will be held at 9:45 o'clock.

"Mothers are urged to attend the morning services and allow their children to attend the Bible school," Minister Robertson said. "The school will be in progress each morning during the regular morning services."

Kemp Is Named As Councilman In Light Voting

Jess Kemp was named as the newest member of the McLean city council in light voting at the special city election Tuesday.

Kemp, who had no opposition for the office, received all 36 of the votes which were cast.

He will fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Paris J. Hess, and will serve until after the regular city election next April.

Other council members are Mayor Ed Lander, J. C. Claborn, C. P. Callahan, Ruel Smith, and Guy Hibler.

Fire Damages Blaylock Home In East McLean

Between $500 and $1,000 in damage was done to the Pate Blaylock home Saturday when a fire on the outside of the house spread to the house walls.

The house is located one block east of McLean High School.

Apparently, an old couch on the outside of the house became ignited through some undetermined source, and the flames spread from the burning couch to one corner of the house.

Most damage was done to the outside of the house, although an open kitchen door provided an inlet for some of the leaping flames. Quick work on the part of the McLean Volunteer Fire Department members prevented the house from undergoing a much greater damage.

No members of the family were at home when the fire started, Fire Chief Boyd Meador said.

The house was not covered by insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis, Married 50 Years, Celebrate July 17

Fifty years is a mighty long time.

But come next Tuesday, July 17, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Davis will have been married for that period of time.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis are observing their Golden Wedding anniversary on that date with an open house from 2 o'clock to 6 in the afternoon.

All neighbors and friends of the couple are invited to visit them during their open house observance.

Airport, Tax Elections Called

Two more elections, one for airport bonds and the other on the proposal for the county to assume 16 cents of the 30-cent ad valorem tax dropped by the state, were called for July 26 at a meeting of the Gray County commissioners court Monday.

The other election already called for that date is for the issuance of $200,000 in bonds for improvement and repair of the county roads which were badly damaged by the flooding waters in May.

The airport bond issue totals $100,000, of which $15,000 is to go for the improvement of an air strip in McLean. The local airport site, yet undeveloped, is at the former Prisoner of War camp, and the Civil Aeronautics Authority has already designated McLean as eligible to receive aid from this branch of the federal government.

Should the bond issue pass, the C. A. A. would probably meet all expenditures made on the strip by the county bond issue money.

The tax assumption election concerns the 30-cent ad valorem tax which was relinquished by the state of Texas recently. The county purposes to assume only 16 cents of the 30 cents available, since that amount is all that would be needed to meet the payment incurred by the possible passage of the airport bonds and the road bonds. In this manner, the two issues could be paid off without any raise in taxes. Actually, the combination of the state and county taxes would be 14 cents less per $100 than in the past, it has been explained.

The commissioners called the airport bond election following their receipt of petitions bearing 510 signatures of property-owning taxpayers of the county.

The three issues will be voted upon the same day to save the expenses of having separate elections.

Count on Traffic On Highway 66 To Be Made Friday

An actual count of all automobiles which pass through McLean on Highway 66 will be made next Friday by the McLean Junior of Commerce publicity committee, George Terry, chairman of the committee, said this week.

At the same time, all business houses along the highway are being asked to keep an accurate count of the number of autos which make stops in McLean. These figures are to be turned in to Terry after Friday.

With this information, the Jaycee committee hopes to be able to determine fairly well the percentage of tourist cars which stop here to make some kind of purchase. Following the compilation of this information, further work on the means of getting more tourists to stop here will be done, Terry explained.

Employees of the Warren Oil Corporation met Friday evening, June 29, at the home of K. S. Rippey for a lawn supper. Games were enjoyed after supper.

A belated July 4th get-together of relatives was held last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. S. Rippey. A picnic supper was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Rippey and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bosch of Shamrock. Mrs. Nida Green, and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Rippey. After-supper callers were Mr. and Mrs. Kohls and son Roger of Shamrock.

S. R. Jones of the McLean Clin estimates that 40 per cent of the intended cotton crop was destroyed by heavy rains. I think he is pretty close to right. Many farmers, after planting over for the third time and then getting flooded out again, went to milo. This was probably a good idea since milo will mature in a much shorter period of time.

Some reports have come in that web-worms are doing some damage to the cotton south of McLean. Actually on the few patches of cotton I have checked in and around McLean, no damage has been done. With the last few days of good weather farmers are getting their cotton in good shape. "What we need," said Leamon Andrews, "is some more warm dry weather just as we have been having the last few days."

Fred Vanderberg, high plains farmer of the Grandview community, sprayed 250 acres of cotton the first of last week. Fred had an airplane out of Boise City, Okla., do his spraying at a cost of $1.70 per acre. They used one pound of toxaphene per acre. I checked the plot two days after and very good kills were obtained on both the tomato horn worm and the web worm.

Saturday night, July 14, is 4-H Club party night at the American Legion Hall. All 4-H boys and girls come out for the fun.

Here are two or three remedies for pests that are getting rather prevalent these days:

Chiggers: 4-8 tablespoonsful of wettable sulphur per gallon of water to use as a spray.

Grasshoppers: Toxaphene or chlordane—double the dose on the bottle. Caution: Don't use this spray on leafy vegetables, since it is just as poisonous to man as to insects. Spray in weedy and grassy areas around your garden.

Squash bugs: Sabadilla dust (20%). Just dust it on plants.

LIBRARY NEWS

By Lady Bryant, Librarian
Our friends made it possible for the library sale to be a success. The Pioneer Study Club donated $10, plus items given by individual members. The Liberty Demonstration Club brought baked cakes, cookies, and pies to the sale. The library wishes to thank these two organizations for their liberal aid and also the individuals who contributed to the sale. Some 50 books for all ages were offered as gifts from Mesdames Betty Back, McMahan, Hibler, Coleman, Day, Atwell, and Bizzell. The new children's books ordered this week will be paid for from the money derived from this sale. Again we thank

Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Carter and children, Barbara, Mary Ann, and Butch, Mrs. J. B. Pettit, and Mrs. Hazel Pettit and Mrs. Don of Pampa spent the week in the mountains near Captain, N. M. They visited one day at Carlsbad Caverns, and another at Alamogordo.

TOO MUCH STOCKPILING

WE WERE wondering just what we would use for an editorial subject this week, when along came a news release from the West Texas chamber of commerce with some astounding figures which might be of interest to you.

You know, we like our form of government; we like our democratic way of life; we like to think we are governing ourselves. For that reason, we do wish to halt extravagant government spending which is daily leading us farther along the road to socialism.

That's why these figures are worth repeating. An informed public can do much to keep down spending if they will insist that their representatives in Washington run the government as our forefathers intended it to be run.

And wasteful extravagance—even veiled under the cloak of defense needs—is another way to lead us to a socialistic form of government.

Here are examples of what waste can be found: Since the start of the Korean campaign a year ago, the government has purchased 68 million can openers—even if the army had four million men in service (which it doesn't) that would be 17 can openers per man.

Army ordnance recently purchased six million gallons of paint in quart and gallon cans—this was a full year's requirement, but the army sought delivery in 60 days. The army set up a requirement of 4,636,000 web belts for 1951—for a present army of one and one-half million men, although only one web belt is issued per man per year. The 1951 requirement for combat boots was set up at 11,753,000 pairs, although the total consumption was estimated at 4,800,000 pairs.

Last January the quartermaster service bought five million pounds of oleo at 25½ cents per pound. At the very same time the department of agriculture was selling five and one-half million pounds of surplus butter to Italy at 15 cents per pound.

From December 31 of 1950 to April 30, 1951, civilian employees on the federal payroll had increased by 224,440—this means the government has been filling new positions at the rate of 1,870 per day, every day in the month. And recently an official of the new Defense Transportation Administration reported that that agency is "stockpiling stenographers against the needs of the future."

These figures are astounding, aren't they? And they must be accurate, for the West Texas chamber of commerce would not release them if they had not been checked.

Wasteful spending can get us into a terrible fix, unless we citizens do something about it. Private business cannot operate on such spending, and neither can the federal government.

The trouble is: It's so much easier to spend other people's money than it is our own.

LES

By LESTER

Long years ago, perhaps a large number of centuries, someone decided that man would look better if he removed his whiskers. Women didn't have any whiskers, and they looked pretty good to the men—even in those days when many of them wore veils over their faces—so the men figured they might look better to the women if they (the men) didn't have beards.

Thus shaving was born. Throughout these many years, the shaving of men's beards has grown more and more common. One hundred years ago, most men, when they reached the age of about 40, grew some type of beard—perhaps a moustache, or a Van Dyke, or something of the sort—but anyway most of them grew some type of beard.

Nowadays, however, very few men leave anything resembling hairs on their faces—at least not for a very long period of time. Of course, some shave only every other day, some perhaps only once a week. But, generally speaking, most men shave almost every day.

The other day I timed myself to determine just how much time I am wasting with my shaving daily. The time, and I did not hurry through the shave, was 10 minutes from the time I started running the water to wash my face until after the application of shaving lotion. Men who use powder following a shave might perhaps require another minute.

This requirement of 10 minutes per day to make myself more attractive—and I need more than that to make me attractive—costs me 3,650 minutes, or 60 hours, or two and one-half days per year. Should I live to be 70—thus having shaved every day for 50 years, I would have wasted 125 days, more than one-third of a year, in front of a mirror.

I figure that the older a man gets, the more often he shaves—up to a certain age. For the older a man gets the more handsome he thinks he is, and the more women he believes are looking at him as he walks down the street. So he will continue to shave daily—or even more than once daily—until he reaches that age when it doesn't matter to him whether women look at him or not.

As a result of all this shaving, much, much time is wasted. Just think, if 50 million of the people in the U. S.'s population of 150 million are men who shave, then we have lost each year a total of 125 million working days of 24 hours each. Why, at that time, we could build enough atomic bombs to blow all the razor companies in the world off the face of the earth.

But if men would stop shaving, think of the people who would be thrown out of work. Not many barbers, perhaps, for not too many get their shaves in a barber shop any more—the razor companies have simply advertised the barbers out of the shaving business. Barbers, you know, have never known the value of advertising, and thus have just about lost their shaving trade—just as they are losing their shampoo trade through the advertising of companies who make shampoos.

But the razor companies, and the shaving cream companies, and all the various industries which are related would have to shut down if all men stopped shaving.

Every morning the car used to stop outside the gates of the state asylum. Inside the fence one of the inmates who imagined himself a pitcher would be going through elaborate wind-up and pitching motions, using an imaginary ball. After studying him for a while the driver of the car, a well dressed businessman, would leave. After a few days of this the gatekeeper asked him, "Pardon me, sir, but why do you come here each day and study that poor fellow?"

"Well," answered the man in the car, "if things continue the way they are in my business, I'll be in there some day catching for that fellow and I want to get on to his curves."

Lots of folks have a good aim in life . . . but most of them don't know when to pull the trigger.

You've a good aim if you use Chevron products in your car at all times, because for superior auto performance, Chevron can't be outdone.

There would be, as a result, a great financial and moral depression. The bottom would literally drop out of everything.

So I am not planning to stop shaving. I do not want any part of being responsible for the coming of a great depression; I do not want to put thousands and thousands of people out of jobs, just to satisfy my desire to stop shaving.

Besides, my wife does not want me to go unshaven.

You won't be wasting your time if you come to McLean to do your shopping this Saturday.

So you men, go ahead and get up early Saturday and shave. Then come on to McLean and spend the day saving money.

Why? Well, it's Dollar-Stretcher Day in McLean.

I've never seen such a variety of merchandise and service as is being offered by the merchants in McLean. You can buy at a bargain everything from bug screens to pick-ups—and that leaves lots of room in between for all types of merchandise and service.

So come to McLean Saturday—and save, save. As a matter of fact, you men can save enough on some items on sale here Saturday to make up the loss you will sustain in a life-time of shaving.

Sure, it's Dollar-Stretcher Day in McLean Saturday. Next to Boyd Meador, we believe Neal Shull gets more publicity than just about anybody in McLean. As a matter of fact, last week he made Wes Izard's column in the Amarillo News for the second time. And that is something, isn't it? Here's what Mr. Izard had to say about Neal:

"Neal Shull, who delivers the Daily News in McLean, was in a couple of days ago. This 14-year-old youngster took over his route last September with 60 subscribers. Now he has 92. Moreover, he has bought a $50 defense bond every month since he started, and is trying to make it $100 this month. Here's a young man who is going places."

Years Ago—
IT HAPPENED HERE

from the Files of The McLean News, July, 1911

A fire in the stockyards at Worth Sunday afternoon caused a property loss of over thirty-five acres of land, two big feed barns, a head of cattle, and a head of hogs were destroyed by the flames.

The News will commence the series of printing the catalogue of the many advantages offered by the McLean school for its term this week.

Mr. Stockton, who is farming a demonstration tract south of the city, has just finished harvesting his oats, and off of seven bushels has put up over three hundred bundles, which are selling readily at five cents per bushel. $150 from seven acres is a very good yield.

John Buchanan of Erick, Okla., was here this week for a visit with his daughter, Miss Ruby, but the latter was out of the city.
Mr. Buchanan says the crop conditions here are better than any place he has visited.

Alonso Green of Plainview was here the latter part of last week looking after business matters.

Mr. Green is a brother of Dr.
J. A. Green, who formerly lived here, and has a number of friends in and around the city who were glad to see him.

Circle A of the Methodist Home Mission Society entertained Circle B of the same organization, together with their families, at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
J. A. Grundy Tuesday evening of this week. Delightful music of various kinds added to the pleasure of the occasion, and a dainty luncheon was served.

This entertainment was the result of a friendly rivalry between the two circles, the one securing the largest membership for the society in a given time was to be the guest of the other, and this distinction fell to Circle B. It is announced that in the neighborhood of 30 names were added to the membership.

The most intense heat ever recorded in this section prevailed in the Panhandle Saturday and Sunday last, the thermometer at this place registering as high as 107 degrees. Accompanying this phenomenal rise in temperature was a severely hot wind that sapped the vitality of the growing crops to a remarkable degree.

It is said that the Indian corn crop has been damaged 50 per cent by the unfavorable conditions.

Kaffir, maize, peanuts, cotton, and other crops, not so susceptible to the ravages of hot dry winds, only curled up and waited for the cooler winds to bring them back to life and vigor.

While the corn crop will undoubtedly be cut short by reason of this unusual condition, yet there is little cause for worry on this point as the farmers of this section are coming more and more to a realization of the fact that Indian corn is not a success in this locality, and the acreage is therefore considerably curtailed as compared with former years.

There is at the present time a good season in the ground and all crops that can withstand a hot wind are growing right on as if nothing unusual had happened. Cotton is looking especially well and the oat crop which is now being harvested, is said to be the heaviest for years, the yield averaging from 40 to 75 bushels.

Mr. and Mr. Johnny Haynes took W. M. Smith to Fort Worth last week. Mr. Smith remained for medical treatment.

GOOD HEALTH

Answer to Question No. 1:
 1. One way to increase the supply of nurses is to improve nursing education. Recently in Louisiana, Minnesota, and Michigan better schools were developed through combining the facilities of several. Student recruitment was greatly stimulated.

Answer to Question No. 2:
 2. Malaria has been reduced almost to the vanishing point, but cannot be considered wiped out in the United States. To keep it under control is the object of the National Malaria Eradication Program, in which 13 states have participated. Most cases now are brought in from other countries as, for example, by demobilized service men.

Answer to Question No. 3:
 3. Despite the current saying, "I need that like I need a hole in the head," there are actual cases where people have been given holes in the head by a medical technique known as "trephining," in order to remove tumors or to loosen adhesions. In ancient days the cave-men drilled holes in the heads of epileptics and sufferers from headaches in order to "let the devils out." From skeletons, it has been determined that these patients did not all die as a result of the operations, but from other causes.

DALLAS (Special), June 20-For 13 years, Earl Harvey, Sr., of Dallas has contributed blood to the Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Crippled Children. Mr. Harvey estimates that he has donated more than twelve gallons in surgery cases where blood transfusions are needed. In the picture with Mr. Harvey is one of the SRH Nurse's Aids with one of her grateful little patients. Parkland Hospital, blood bank for Scottish Rite Hospital, is currently appealing for more blood to replace an acute shortage of the fluid.

Rodgers Hurt In Auto Crash

Frank Rodgers, oil driller of McLean, suffered a fractured bone in his left leg early last Saturday morning when the pick-up he was driving overturned near the Charlie Carpenter farm north of town.

Rodgers was returning to McLean, and was near the McClellan Creek bridge when he apparently dropped off to sleep. He awoke when the pick-up struck posts at the edge of the road, and dropped to the floor of the pick-up before it overturned.

The injury was to one bone in his left leg, about four inches above the ankle. He was taken to a hospital in Oklahoma City for treatment early Saturday.

How to Remain Healthy During Hot Summer

"Good health in hot weather may be largely a matter of personal choice," according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer, as he called for Texans to take life as it comes in summer and live with it as comfortably as possible.

"These modern scientists can drop ice from airplanes to make rain, and they can forecast weather several days in advance, but nobody has figured out a way to keep the thermometer from rising sky high in a hot summer afternoon," Dr. Cox said.

"Therefore," Dr. Cox continued, "a few common sense practices will help us to live with summer and like it. Texas summers are hot and the hottest part is still ahead, so one needs to remember certain things that are good hot weather practices.

"For example: Drink plenty of cool (not ice water); eat moderately of simple, but a wide variety of foods; exercise daily in the fresh air and have plenty of air in sleeping rooms; take a fair amount of salt to replace large losses through perspiration; avoid alcoholic drinks; get plenty of sleep; keep clean; don't worry; don't overeat.

"One of the essentials of summer comfort is the daily bath to wash away perspiration and with it body wastes eliminated by the pores, and to relax tired muscles and strained nerves. There is nothing better than a leisurely bath followed by a short rest."
