County to Get Share in Road Building Funds

Gray County will receive next month $26,564 as its share of the state gasoline tax surplus, according to a dispatch from Austin last week-end.

The dividend will be in cash—$15,361, for county road building; and in payments on bond issues—$11,203, of the 1930's, which included roads built by the county and taken into the state highway system.

The money comes from $7,300,000 allotted to counties from one cent of the four-cent state gasoline sales tax.

Gray County's share, and that of other counties, is the same total as last year, although the division between bond payments and cash may vary.

Some counties get all cash as their share, when their bonds are paid off or when they had no roads taken over by the state.

High Winds Knock Over Barns, Cause Power Failure in McLean

High winds Friday evening, shortly after 6 o'clock, ushered in considerable damage in the local area, including a downed barn, a crushed windmill, and electric power failure.

Along with the wind came some moisture—only .07 of an inch was registered on the official gauge of Pete Fulbright. Some areas to the north and east reported up to an inch in moisture, with small hail accompanying the rain.

The Friday evening moisture, added to the .80 of an inch received last Thursday morning, brought the year's total to 8.60, officially accounted for by Fulbright's gauge.

Another .18 of an inch of rain fell in McLean Tuesday night and on Wednesday morning. Of the moisture, .03 came prior to midnight, beginning at 10:30 o'clock, and the remainder shortly after midnight. The rainfall, which hiked the year's total to 8.78, was accompanied by lightning and loud thunder.

The power failure, although bringing on no disastrous results, lasted for approximately one hour in most of McLean. Some isolated spots, where transformer fuses were blown, were without electric power for a longer period of time.

Cause of the power failure was the burning down, as a result of the wind and lightning, of lines

High School Band To Be Organized At Meeting Monday

All high school band students are urged to be at the band hall next Monday morning at 10 o'clock, when the band for the coming year will be organized by Joe Coleman, new director.

Coleman also invited all former band members, including those who are already college students, as well as those planning to attend college for the first time this fall, to be present to aid in getting the band work underway.

"We plan to appear during the junior softball tournament next week," Coleman said, "and, in that way, we will be more ready when football season starts. We realize we have a lot of work to do to perfect the band, and we are hoping that all band members will cooperate by being present next Monday."

Several Offices In Courthouse To Be Shifted

The next time you go to the courthouse in Pampa, you may experience difficulty in locating the office for which you are looking.

A number of offices are to be shifted. It all came about when the commissioners court authorized a secretary for County Judge J. B. Maguire Jr. To make room for the secretary to work in a space adjacent to the judge meant that several offices, would have to be moved.

The commissioners were to meet with the officials concerned Monday to determine the definite office changes.

The tentative changes are as follows: County Treasurer, Ola Gregory will move from the county attorney's waiting room to the office used by County Agent Ralph Thomas. The waiting room will be used by County Attorney Bill Waters' secretary, and the office his secretary has been using will be the judge's secretary's room. Then Thomas will be moved into the office of County Superintendent B. R. Nuckols, and Nuckols, in turn, will move to the office now used by the highway patrol and drivers' license examiner. The highway people will be moved to the office of Justice of the Peace D. R. Henry, and Henry will move across the corridor to the space once used by the county welfare worker.

Anyway, if you can't find the office you're looking for the next time you're in Pampa, just ask someone there—maybe they can help you.

Funeral Rites Held Here for Mrs. Farren

Funeral services for Mrs. Viola B. Farren, long-time resident of Kellerville, were held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the First Baptist Church in McLean.

Conducting the rites was Rev. D. L. Hunt, pastor of the Kellerville Baptist Church, assisted by Dr. Buell T. Wells, pastor of the local church. Interment was in Hillcrest Cemetery under the direction of the Claborn Funeral Home.

Mrs. Farren, who lived alone in her home at Kellerville, was found dead early Friday morning of last week. She was 74 years of age, and had been in ill health for some time.

She was born January 11, 1879, in Dublin, Ind., and was united in marriage in October, 1901, to William Farren in Nevada, Iowa. He preceded her in death October 28, 1937.

Mrs. Farren had been a resident of Kellerville for the past 45 years.

Survivors include a son, Archie L. Farren of Kellerville; two sisters, Mrs. Ed Shalley of Nevada, Iowa, and Mrs. Abbey Reed of Philo, Ill.; and three grandchildren.

Pallbearers at the service were Arthur Dwyer, D. L. Miller, Joe Harris, Leland Newberry, Mr. Todd, and Bob Roach.

Health Officer Resigns Post

Dr. R. M. Hampton of Pampa, county health officer, has tendered his resignation from that position to County Judge J. B. Maguire Jr.

Dr. Hampton has served as county health officer since January, when he succeeded Dr. Julian Key.

The county commissioners were to discuss the possibility of a successor to Dr. Hampton at their regular meeting Monday.

Relative of Local Resident Dies

Area Cattlemen Get Two Carloads Of Surplus Feed

Two carloads of surplus feed, under the emergency program of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, have been unloaded in McLean to date.

The first carload was oats, and the second cake, J. E. Kirby, who with L. H. Earthman, is administering the distribution of the feed in McLean, reported.

Kirby said that another carload is expected soon, but when and what it will be were not known Monday.

Application for the feed must be made. It is then distributed in the order in which the applications were received. Those eligible for the feed are not allowed more than a 30-day supply of the surplus goods.

William Lange is in Highland General Hospital in Pampa for medical treatment this week.

Bobby Jo Herrin of Berger visited in the home of Mrs. Frank Golightly Sunday.

Wheat Farmers to Vote Friday On Marketing Quotas for '54 Crop

Car Inspections Under New Law Begin Sept. 15

The new period, during which Texas motorists will be required to have their auto inspected under the modified motor vehicle inspection law which was enacted by the recent 53rd Legislature, has been unofficially set for September 15, 1953, through April 15, 1954, it was announced this week by Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Garrison said that the state public safety commission has advised him that they will confirm the designation of the new period on August 26, the effective date of the new act.

The old law which aroused much controversial argument during the last session of the legislature will expire at midnight August 25 and no inspections will be made under its provisions after that date.

Garrison explained that this means that no inspections of any sort will be made between that time and the beginning of the new period on September 15.

The modified law calls for inspection only of brakes, lighting equipment, horns, rear view mirrors, and windshield wipers.

"In view of the fact that the inspection stations throughout the state are already set up and equipped to perform this work," Garrison said, "we feel that the full seven months of the new period will afford motorists ample time to have their vehicles inspected."

He urged, however, that car owners not wait too long, lest they get caught in a last minute rush to meet the inspection deadline.

Phone Workers Wages Hiked

An annual wage increase amounting to $185,000 was granted to employees represented by the communication workers of America, C. I. O., for the coming year, by the Southwestern States Telephone company, D. T. Strickland, vice president and general manager, announced at the signing of the annual contract in Brownwood.

The employees were represented by R. W. Staley of Dallas, regional representative of the C. W. A.; Jack Long, exchange repairman of Grand Saline; Travis Godfrey, general office, Brownwood; Joe Blalock, Purcell, Okla.; and Genevieve Lynch, telephone operator, Brownwood.

Strickland stated that he was most pleased with the cooperative attitude of the employees and no issues were involved except the wage increase which was justified by cost-of-living rises.

Strickland further commented: "Because of the high standards of professional skills which are now vital for the operation of telephone systems, the Southwestern States Telephone company recognizes the progress of its employees."

Alanreed Schools Open August 31 For Fall Semester

The Alanreed schools will open for the fall semester Monday, August 31, with both grade and high school students registering from 9 to 12 o'clock in the morning, Superintendent John L. Wilmoth said this week.

The staff of teachers is completed, with the exception of a commercial teacher, the superintendent said.

A number of improvements have been made during the summer to make the school more pleasant, Wilmoth explained. The gym is being refinished on the interior, and new chairs have been provided for the classrooms. More than 200 new library books have been added.

Bids Are Asked On New Bridge South of Lefors

Up for bidding on August 18 will be the construction of a new bridge over the North Fork of Red River, south of Lefors, the State Highway Commission has announced.

The bridge will be among projects totaling 383 miles of highways and farm roads on which bids will be received up to 9 o'clock on the morning of August 18, according to State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer. Estimated low bids on the various projects will total ten million dollars.

Plans call for construction of the bridge and its approaches, and grading revision, flexible base, and one course surface treatment. The successful bidder will have 180 days to complete the project.

Kennedy Releases School Dates, Including Holidays, for 1953-54

The calendar for the 1953-54 school year, listing the closing dates of the various six-week periods and the holidays to be observed, has been worked out by Superintendent Paul Kennedy.

Dates on the calendar are tentative, and are subject to change, Kennedy explained. The teachers in the local school system will meet prior to the opening of school to discuss the program, and some changes may be made.

School will officially open Monday, August 31, although pre-school help in registration will be given to all high school students. Kennedy explained that Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, prior to the opening of class sessions, will be utilized to aid students in working out their curriculum for the year.

The first 6-weeks period will end October 9; second November 20; and third January 15 (mid-term). The fourth 6-weeks will close February 26; fifth April 9; and sixth May 28 (end of school).

Kennedy emphasized the importance of attendance during all

Observers Feel Approval Again Near Certainty

Wheat farmers throughout the United States will go to the polls Friday to decide whether marketing quotas will be continued, or be thrown "out the window."

In McLean, the polling place will be at the City Hall.

A two-thirds majority will be necessary to maintain wheat marketing quotas for next year. Most official observers believe that the farmers will approve the quotas; but a rejection would be regarded as a proclamation that the farmers are fed up with government "interference" and want to return to a system of "free enterprise" as far as wheat is concerned.

Since the total supply of wheat now exceeds the "normal supply" in the U. S. by more than 20 per cent, marketing quotas have been proclaimed by the secretary of agriculture. The "normal supply" has been determined as 1,156,000,000 bushels, but the supply actually available is estimated at 1,760,000,000 bushels.

Should the wheat farmers approve the quotas as expected, marketing quotas will be in effect for all farms planting more than 15 acres of wheat; marketing penalties will apply on any wheat produced on acres in excess of the farm allotments; prices will be supported at 90 per cent of parity for those who stay with their acreage allotments; and quotas can be expected to hold down production and help bring wheat supplies more nearly in line with the effective market demand.

A disapproval by the farmers will mean no marketing quotas with their penalty controls; acreage allotment will continue in effect; price supports will drop to 50 per cent of parity for all

Over 200 at Father-Son Dinner

More than 200 fathers and sons, and other sports enthusiasts, gathered at the American Legion Hall Tuesday night to hear some of the "football greats" talk, and enjoy a barbecue dinner.

The father-son dinner, sponsored by the McLean Lions Club, was moved to the Legion Hall when clouds threatened to rain out the event at Duncan Field. Although the rain did not fall during the dinner, some moisture did come less than an hour after the event was over.

Sammy Baugh, who is now associate coach at Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene, was the principal speaker. He pointed out that all people "like to win," whether they are engaged in sports or business, but the important thing is the way in which the goal is reached.

The former professional football player chided another honored guest, Dick Todd, by explaining that Todd was a sophomore at Texas A. and M. when he (Baugh) was a senior at T. C. U. Baugh said Todd came to the Washington Redskins, professional team, played for a while with them, then entered service. Following his release, Todd came back to the Washington team, and after playing for a year or so, took over the coaching job of the Redskins. Baugh laughingly said that "Todd got too old to play." (Baugh played professional football for 16 years.)

Other speakers included Abe Martin, now head coach at T. C. U., and Larry Cunningham, an associate coach at Hardin-Simmons. Other featured guests included Blaine Rideout, former track star; Elmer Brown, another former track star; Wade Walker, Texas Tech assistant coach; and George Stewart, director of the Greenbelt Bowl at Childress.

Master of ceremonies was W. T. (Dub) Nelson, president of the Childress Lions Club and promoter of the Greenbelt Bowl. Nelson was introduced by Odell Mantooth, local Lions president, who also welcomed the visitors. At the conclusion of the program, Rev. D. L. Hunt of Kellerville gave the benediction.

Amos Page was general chairman of the father-son dinner, which brought guests from Pampa, Lefors, Clarendon, Kellerville, and Alanreed.

Summer Tuna Bake

Summer Tuna Bake is a wonder of a casserole. Noodles and tuna in a rich mushroom sauce make for smooth eating. Juicy, red tomato slices make an appetizing crown.

Ninety degree temperatures needn't stop you from serving balanced meals. Just keep a list of tested recipes that are simple, quick, and easy to prepare. Then rely on them when the temperature soars. Leave the fancy, complicated dishes for cooler days.

Add Summer Tuna Bake to your warm weather cooking list. It's a casserole designed for summer living. This mainstay cooking cuts meal preparation time and gives you more veranda or backyard time.

Broad noodles are the foundation of the casserole. Delicately flavored tuna plays the meat part. A flavorful mushroom sauce holds the ingredients together.

Summer Tuna Bake is easy enough for your teen-age daughter to prepare on the days that she takes a hand in the kitchen. She'll appreciate the easy mushroom sauce made from condensed soup.

Round out the meal with crispy relishes, a cooling gelatin salad, and bakery rolls which you've warmed in the oven. Serve ice cream and cookies at dessert-time.

SUMMER TUNA BAKE

- 4 ounces broad noodles
- 1 1/4 cups condensed cream of mushroom soup (10 1/2-ounce can)
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1 cup flaked tuna (7-ounce can)
- 1 cup cooked peas
- 1 tomato, sliced
- Battered bread crumbs

Cook noodles in boiling salted water until tender (about 5 minutes). Drain and rinse. While noodles are cooking, combine mushroom soup, milk, tuna and peas. Fold in noodles. Pour into 1 1/2-quart casserole. Arrange tomato slices on top and sprinkle with bread crumbs. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) about 30 minutes.

Makes 4 servings.

the money, Mr. Newman had scale tickets for hay sold to the amount of about $17 and these were torn into fragments and scattered on the floor. Numerous papers of value, including deeds, notes, etc., had been brought out of hiding and scattered about the house. None of the latter were destroyed.

Having satisfied himself that there was nothing more of value to be stolen the burglar proceeded to the kitchen where Mrs. Newman had prepared a number of custard pies and a big chocolate layer cake. Custard pies not being his forte, he only ate a little over four of them, but the chocolate cake was almost completely demolished, as was also a pound of butter in which he evidently swabbed the cake before eating it.

Mr. Newman phoned for officers and Deputy Sheriff Massay and Constable Harbert responded as quickly as possible, but were unable to get a sufficient clue upon which to make an arrest. A man had been seen in the neighborhood on horseback, but no one was prepared to identify him.

Mr. Newman says he has been bothered on several occasions with petty thievery during the year and estimates his total loss at more than a hundred dollars.

THE SCOURGE OF ARMIES
by Science Features

Dysentery has been the scourge of fighting men in every war in history. The disease can strike in epidemic proportions, especially where many men share the same living facilities—as in an army, aboard a ship, or in a prison camp. It is particularly prevalent in Korea.

Even in countries where rigid public health standards are enforced, this disease can be a problem. Some health authorities estimate that 5 to 10 per cent of all Americans are infected with the dysentery germs, although all may not show the symptoms.

Dysentery is a term given to disorders in which there is inflammation of the bowels with diarrhea. Bacillary dysentery, as the name implies, is caused by bacteria, while a parasite called an ameba causes amebic dysentery.

United Nations doctors in Korea have had a unique opportunity to study thousands of cases of both types of dysentery in prisoner of war camps, and to report their evaluation of the latest treatments. Two of their studies covered 1,408 cases of acute bacillary and 535 cases of acute amebic dysentery.

In the first series four antibiotics were used, with best results reported with terramycin. All of the patients treated with it were pronounced cured seven days after treatment began. Against amebic dysentery both antibiotics and other drugs were used. Again, terramycin "proved to be the most effective of the antibiotics."

Summer Time For Reducing

Summer with its abundance of low-calorie fruits and vegetables is a good time to shed those few extra pounds put on during the winter months. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer, states.

People do not need as many starchy foods which produce energy in warm weather as they do in the winter, he said, because in the summer the warmth which starchy foods give to the body is not needed.

"Green leafy and yellow vegetables and all types of fruit which are plentiful during the summer months provide an excellent, low-cost diet for the person who is overweight," Dr. Cox said. "Many of these foods can be eaten raw and are very nutritious this way, provided the food is carefully washed to remove all dirt and insecticides which may be present."

Dr. Cox stressed the importance of properly storing food during the summer. He explained that certain foods such as cold cuts, cream desserts, potato salad, and sandwich spreads have a tendency to spoil quickly during hot weather. Foods of this type should be kept in the refrigerator until just before they are served.

"By using good common sense in choosing and serving the proper kinds of food, you'll feel better and have a much more enjoyable summer," Dr. Cox concluded.

Perryton Fair August 20-22

Perryton is extending an invitation to residents of the North Plains area to attend the second annual North Plains Fair, to be held August 20-22.

For the three-day program, the Perryton Jaycees have lined up a parade, square dance, modern dance, baseball games, horse show, old timers reunion, midget auto races, kiddie races and contest, the famous Grand Ole Opry from Nashville, Tenn., and the crowning of the "Wheatheart of the Nation."

The North Plains Association has made arrangements for a record breaking number of exhibits in the second annual fair. Judging opens Thursday, August 20, and continues through Friday, August 21.

All exhibits will be shown at the mammoth Veterans Memorial Building, the livestock building, and rodeo arena at the county fairgrounds.

The fair opens at 9 o'clock Thursday, August 20, and ends with the dance on Saturday night, August 22.

SIGNS OF LIFE

AMERICA, GENERALLY speaking, is a sign-conscious nation. We depend on the convenience of signs in thousands of phases of our daily lives. Signs tell us prices in stores, advertise merchandise in shop windows, speed up all our methods of conducting business.

And signs help us maintain order in countless little ways. For instance, if there were no signs it might be difficult—almost impossible—to keep people from walking on the grass, disposing of trash where they shouldn't, smoking in forbidden places, loitering in busy buildings, posting bills on telegraph poles, talking and shouting in libraries and hospitals.

Then, probably most important of all, we have traffic signs to guide and protect motorists and pedestrians on the nation's streets and highways. These signs are so important that often they are called "Signs of Life."

It's an appropriate name. Traffic signs can, and often do, save lives. Without "Signs of Life"—such as the "stop" sign at intersections, the diamond-shaped warning sign, the round and crossbuck railroad signs—it could be almost suicidal to ride in an automobile.

But "Signs of Life" can do the vital job for which they are intended only if people read and heed them. For this reason "Signs of Life" are being featured in the traffic safety program being conducted this month in Texas by the Texas Safety Association and the Department of Public Safety.

It's a program that deserves the support of every citizen, for these signs, if observed, may help you save a life—perhaps your own. The slogan for the August program is one to remember—one to live by: "Signs of Life—Know Them, Obey Them."

TALK

By LESTER

Don't run poetry much, but here's a little ditty entitled "Home Town," which applies pretty well to our little town:

A home town is a noted place,
 But you must bear in mind,
 No architect has builded it,
 Nor genius it designed.
 Such towns are made of bowling teams,

Of first names and hello's;
 Of service clubs and village belles
 And basketball heroes.
 They're long on meetings at the lodge,

In barbershop and store;
 Or in somebody's kitchen nook
 When toils of day are o'er.
 Home towns are warmest spots on earth,

They're pleasure, family style;
 Where Scout Troop 3 meets every week,
 And friends and neighbors smile.
 With children playing in the street,

And birds which sing at dawn;
 Where sweethearts croon beneath the moon,
 Or chatter on the lawn.
 Where people live and dream as one,

In church, in school, and mart;
 But home towns are not built or made—
 You find them in the heart.

It seems that the gate broke down between heaven and hell, and St. Peter appeared at the broken part of the gate and called to the Devil, "Hey, Satan, it's your turn to fix it this time." "Sorry," replied the boss of the land beyond the Styx. "My men are too busy to worry about fixing a mere gate." "Well, then," growled St. Peter, "I'll sue you for breaking our agreement."

Doctor: Now, madam, place this thermometer between your teeth and keep your lips closed for five minutes.
 Husband (aside to doctor): What will you take for that gadget, Doc?

An old judge known for the speed with which he disposed of cases was asked to explain it.

"I always listen to the plaintiff, and then I make my decision."

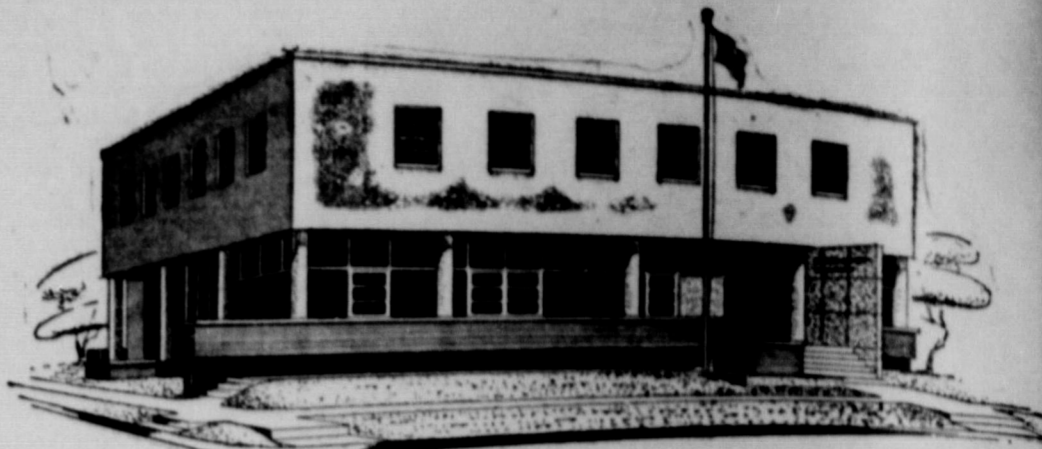

"Never the defendant?"

"Well, I did at first, but I found that it confused me."

Your car won't be confused if you always use the best in gas and oil—and that, of course, is Chevron. Come in today for a tank full of Chevron.

AMERICAN LEGION'S NEW STATE HEADQUARTERS BUILDING

Above is the new $205,000 state headquarters building of the American Legion, Department of Texas. Located two blocks north of the State Capitol building at 15th and Congress Avenue, the structure is of polished native Texas granite and cream colored bricks. It was dedicated July 7.

1. Constantly look for opportunities to lead, lift, help, and serve.
2. Generate enthusiasm—act, speak, and be cheerful. You can't share enthusiasm unless you have it.
3. Make definite plans—as the old saying goes—plan your work then work your plans.
4. If you must be critical, let your criticism be of yourself more than of others. Point out your own faults and weaknesses to yourself with the idea of trying to correct them.
5. Under all conditions keep your poise and mental equilibrium.
6. When you have decided on a plan of action, pursue it promptly and unswervingly.
7. Have faith in yourself—never be afraid—the world judges every man by his own evaluation.
8. Plan your conversations as you do your work. Plan your words to build encouragement and inspiration in others.
9. Always make allowances for emergencies.
10. Remember that tact is essential in successful leadership. Tact is a lubricant that reduces friction.
11. Never be satisfied with inferior results.
12. Never let the put-it-off-until-tomorrow habit get you. Perform today's tasks today and do them systematically.
13. Seek the counsel and advice of others, yet remember that in the final analysis you have to stand on your own feet.
14. Keep in mind that every day is filled with new opportunities to do better, for the largest room in the world is the room for improvement.

No, the above is not original with me. But it certainly is excellent food for thought. If only we would digest it properly.

Here are some good ideas suitable for all of us to take into consideration in our every day life:

North America is the third largest continent, with Asia and Africa ranking first and second.

During the past three months, according to J. R. Sanderson, manager of the Amarillo Social Security office, that office has issued each week about 150 original security cards, 60 duplicate cards to replace lost cards, and 35 duplicate cards on account of marriage or divorce resulting in a change of employee's name.

Each person receiving a card, original or duplicate, is advised to "use it, don't lose it." Since his social security number is the key to each individual's wage account, he should show the card to each new employer so the name and number can be copied directly onto the employer's payroll records. It is to the interest of both employer and employee that this be done, because it is the best possible way to insure correct reporting.

Unless needed when looking for work, employees are advised to leave their cards at home in a safe place. The card has only one purpose and that is the maintenance of the employee's wage account. It is one of the poorest types of identification and should not be used or accepted for that purpose. Since lost cards are relatively expensive for the government to replace, and require several days of waiting time for the employee, social security cards should receive the same

Donley Canceled Fair This Year

The Donley County show met in the office of County H. M. Breedlove Tuesday morning and voted not to have Donley County Fair this year due to the drought and shortage of crops.

C. L. Lewis presided at meeting and the county was discussed in full. The decision was to not have the fair this year only, and all committees were asked to make plans for fair in 1954. There will be a swine show for club boys, the rest of the fair will be for this year only.

People in the communities have worked on the fair and it will be hard to get people in the communities to exhibit at the Amarillo fair this year, and anyone who has products that they would like to display in the county should contact him.

School—
 Holidays to be observed are:
 1. Labor Day, September 7.
 2. The day designated as McLean Day at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo. Absolutely no excuses will be accepted if some student wishes to attend the fair on another day.
 3. Thanksgiving, November 26 and 27.
 4. Christmas (two weeks)—school will be dismissed December 18 and resumed Monday, January 4. For the past two years, Kennedy explained, school has been dismissed for cotton picking during the fall. If this is necessary this year, then the Christmas holidays will be cut short by the number of days so dismissed. This is being done to prevent having Saturday classes again—an occurrence last year which proved most unpopular.
 5. One Friday in the spring will be a holiday—the date of the annual teachers' meeting in Amarillo. The date is yet to be set by the Texas State Teachers Association.
 6. March 17, St. Patrick's Day, to allow students to attend the festivities at the Shamrock celebration.

Barbecue Planned At Lelia Lake
 The annual Donley County Farm Bureau chicken barbecue will be held August 20 at the Lelia Lake school house at 7 o'clock.
 Everyone in Donley County is eligible to come to the barbecue, the only requirement being that you leave one-half chicken per person at one of the following places: The Donley County frozen food lockers in Clarendon, or the Moreman Grocery lockers at Hedley.
 Holly Wood, president of the organization, says that H. M. Breedlove, county agent, will do the barbecuing. All chickens must be at one of the above mentioned places by 6 o'clock on the afternoon of August 19 so that plans can be made for the cooking for the number who will attend this big event of the Farm Bureau. The program will consist of a speaker from the state Farm Bureau and the Donley County queen contest for the Farm Bureau.

Wheat—
 wheat farmers who stay within their acreage allotments, while non-cooperators and those who exceed their acreage allotments will not be entitled to price support even at the 50 per cent level. Also, in the absence of controls, production can be expected to continue at higher levels, adding to the present wheat surplus.
 If the quotas are approved, those farmers who exceed their acreage allotments are subject to a marketing penalty of 45 per cent of the parity price on all wheat grown in excess of the allotment. In some cases, according to law, this excess wheat can be held off the market, thereby avoiding, or postponing the penalty payment.
 When a producer who exceeds his allotment has met these conditions with regard to his excess wheat, he is then free to market the wheat from his allotted acreage as he wishes, but he is still not eligible for the 90 per cent of parity price support which is available to the cooperator.
 Marketing quotas cannot be in effect without acreage allotment, but acreage allotments can be in effect without marketing quotas, and present controlling legislation provides that wheat acreage allotments are to be established every year unless suspended because of emergency situations. Acreage allotments will be in effect for the 1954 wheat crop even if marketing quotas should be voted down.
 Eligible to vote in the election Friday are producers with more than 15 acres, or those with an acreage production of more than 200 bushels. County Agent Ralph Thomas has explained that both husbands and wives are eligible to vote; this applies to landlords as well as to tenants.
 Mrs. E. H. Kramer and Mrs. W. G. Gideon visited with Mrs. O. N. Elliott in Fort Worth last week. Mrs. Elliott has been seriously ill.
