Around Muleshoe

A public meeting will be held at Lubbock December 8 to discuss the Secretary of Agriculture's preferred soil and water resources conservation program put together as a result of the Resources Conservation Act (RCA) of 1977.

The meeting will be held at the Plains Loop Oil Mill from 10 a.m. to 12 noon.

The W.M.A. of the Richland Hills Baptist Church chose as their project for the year, beginning in September, a sound system for the church.

The sound system is especially helpful with the youth choir, "The Joy-makers" and the Sunbeam choir "The Joy Tots".

Lana Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Washington of Muleshoe, had her ad selected to be sent to the National Datsun Competition for AMERICA MAGAZINE.

She was one of seven students from the Creative Strategy classes who had King Cab ads sent to the national competition to represent Texas Tech. Lana is a senior Advertising student at Texas Tech.

There will be a regular Board of Directors' meeting in the Bailey County Farm Bureau office on December 10, 1981, Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m.

Any members of Bailey County Farm Bureau are welcome to attend.

Commissioners Plan Inter Local Assistance Program

The Bailey County Commissioners Court met Wednesday, December 2 in special session.

The Commissioners Court passed a resolution to provide an inter-local assistance plan for all law enforcement offices to assist other law enforcement offices by forming a mutual aid law enforcement Task force to cooperate in the investigation of criminal acts and the enforcement of the laws in the State of Texas. This is a resolution whereby the city and county law enforcement agencies would cooperate with each other.

Helen Kerr and Mary Williams, both representatives of Visiting Nurse Service, Incorporated of Lubbock gave a slide presentation of the various services rendered in a 15 county area, Bailey County included. These services are available to the ill or disabled of all ages.

Frank Ellis III and Ed Paul met with the Court to discuss the purchase of walkie-talkie radios to be used in communication with ambulance services. The request for three five watt units was declined by the Commissioners Court.

Hey, Kids - Time For Santa Letters

Hey kids--Time to get your letters into the Journal for Old Saint Nick. Since we have a direct line to the North Pole we can promise you that Santa will have all your information before he makes his Christmas Eve Flight.

We're sure all of you have been good kids this year and there must be lots of things that your little hearts desire, so sit down and make a list -- check it twice -- promise not to be naughty (mind Mom and Dad) and always be nice.

Oh, yes, leave some warm milk and cookies out for Santa, cause it sure does make him feel good to have a snack waiting when

An order was passed authorizing the purchase of one small table to be used by the social security department and be paid for out of the general funds.

The next regular meeting of the Commissioners Court is December 14.

Mysteries Surround Death Of Sudan Man

An aura of mystery surrounds the mid-November death of an elderly Sudan man. "Still under investigation" is the word given by law enforcement agencies in charge of the investigation of the slaying of Joseph J. Stark.

The elderly Sudan resident, otherwise known as "Junky Joe" was found dead in his Sudan home on Wednesday, November 18. Multiple stab wounds were found in his back and neck; however, later reports revealed that the actual cause of Stark's death was apparently a blow to the head, behind the ear.

First reports indicated that Stark had been slain sometime late Tuesday or early Wednesday (November 17 or 18). Authorities also reported that Stark's white Ford pickup truck and wallet were missing and presumed stolen.

Further investigation revealed that Stark, in fact, had been dead since the Sunday prior to the discovery of this partially clad body Wednesday morning after neighbors reported seeing his body inside his home through an opened door.

On November 15, a Sunday before the discovery of Stark's body, the pickup belonging to the deceased was found outside of Mule-

Arts, Crafts Bazaar Deemed Big Success

Muleshoe was host to a great many talented people Friday as the Moonlight Home Extension Club's annual arts and crafts bazaar kicked off a two day display. Items for the holidays were displayed ranging from table cloths to Santa's mail bags.

Interviews with some of the originators of the handiwork exhibited revealed that some were dedicated artists, while some have their arts and crafts as hobbies. One lady from Amarillo stated that she didn't like to watch television and as a result, she makes anything from string art to carved back-scratcher.

Beverly Wall, a Plainview woman does ceramics in her spare time. She also works full time at a job and is lucky enough to have an employer who allows her to display her work. Her talents range from pumpkin cookie jars to copper-like ceramic western art sculpture.

A talented young man, Mark Lamb, also from Plainview, sometimes develops his own ideas in wood carving. Old fashioned stick horses and wooden trains for children are a specialty of his. He carves wood puzzles and boxes of all sizes for a variety of uses.

Two ladies from Portales exhibited many hand-made items such as quilts, rugs and childrens stuffed toys. Marcella Bailey and Ruth Cooper are both adept at sewing satin pillows, table

Intensive Search Reveals No Clues

A fifteen year-old Muleshoe girl has been missing six days, with parents and officials no closer to discovering where she might be than they were last Sunday.

Jamie LeFebre, a brown-haired, brown-eyed, freshman at Muleshoe High School has not been seen or heard from since about 10:30 last Saturday night, November 28, when the family retired for the night.

Jamie left a note saying, "The pig is Pat's - pick up my fruit and sausage, Love Jamie" She has been very active in the Muleshoe FFA and was selling fruit and sausage as an Ag project. The pig is also an Ag project; Pat is her brother.

She was, as far as can be told, clad in jeans, a red flannel shirt, denim jacket and brown tennis shoes. Jamie is 5'3" tall. She also had $15.00 in pennies that is gone from her room. She took no clothes except what she wore.

Jim and Lena LeFebre, Jamie's parents, have been completely devastated by the disappearance of their 15 year old daughter. Lena LeFebre described her daughter as "quiet, shy sort of girl" Jamie was not allowed to date and had no special boyfriend that is known of.

Jim LeFebre, Jamie's father, with a strong hold on his emotions, said Friday, that he could not imagine her being venturesome enough to hitch-hike. The past six nights and days of pure agony have begun to show on the couple. They are beginning to fear foul play.

School officials in Muleshoe have described the girl as studious, quiet--a good student. Classmates have been questioned for possible leads as to her

Farmers Reminded Of Timely Dates

The Bailey County ASCS Executive Director has stated that producers desiring their 1981 cotton crop to be put into the loan should submit all loan documents to the office no later than December 21, 1981 for baled cotton loans and no later than December 17, 1981 for seed cotton loans. These dates are of great importance to those wishing to have their loans disbursed by December 31, 1981. Williams stated: "The reason for this is due to the considerable amount of time that it takes to work up these loans.

Other important dates include November 15, 1981 which was the final day for planting wheat in the County. Farmers unable to plant wheat due to a natural disaster should come by the ASCS office and file for a prevented planting application. This application will be used for history credit only, no payments will be made.

Wool producers must submit sales invoices and file and application no later than January 29, 1982 in order to be eligible for incentive payments on wool and unshorn lambs.

A reminder is issued to farmers to vote for the committee men of your choice. Ballots should be signed and mailed by December 7, 1981.

A low yield application should be filed within 15 days of completing harvest of the crop in question, if it was affected by a natural disaster.

The ASCS office will be closed December 25, 1981 and January 1, 1982 in observance of national holidays.

Lions Club Selects New Sweetheart

Marleea Cox was named the new Muleshoe Lions Club Sweetheart during the regular Wednesday noon meeting this past week. She succeeds Jan Whitt, who served as Sweetheart this past year.

Marleea is the 16 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reagan Cox. She is a Junior at Muleshoe High School and is a member of FCA (Fellowship of Christian Athletes) and FTA (Future Teachers of America). She is also active in HECE, serving as Chaplain and is employed at Poy-nor's White's Auto store.

Marleea's hobbies include playing the piano, reading and sewing. The Lions are proud to have Marleea as their new Sweetheart and look forward to working with her this next year.

Lion members also voted to name Jan Whitt as Honorary Sweetheart. We are very proud and fortunate for Jan to have been our Sweetheart this past year and we wish her well in everything she does.

Soil Testing Important To Area Farm Producers

Getting your soil tested has always been important, but now this proven practice is more important than ever, emphasizes Spencer Tanksley, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Fertilizer is getting more and more expensive, so it's crucial for producers to get

Area Youth On Winning Team

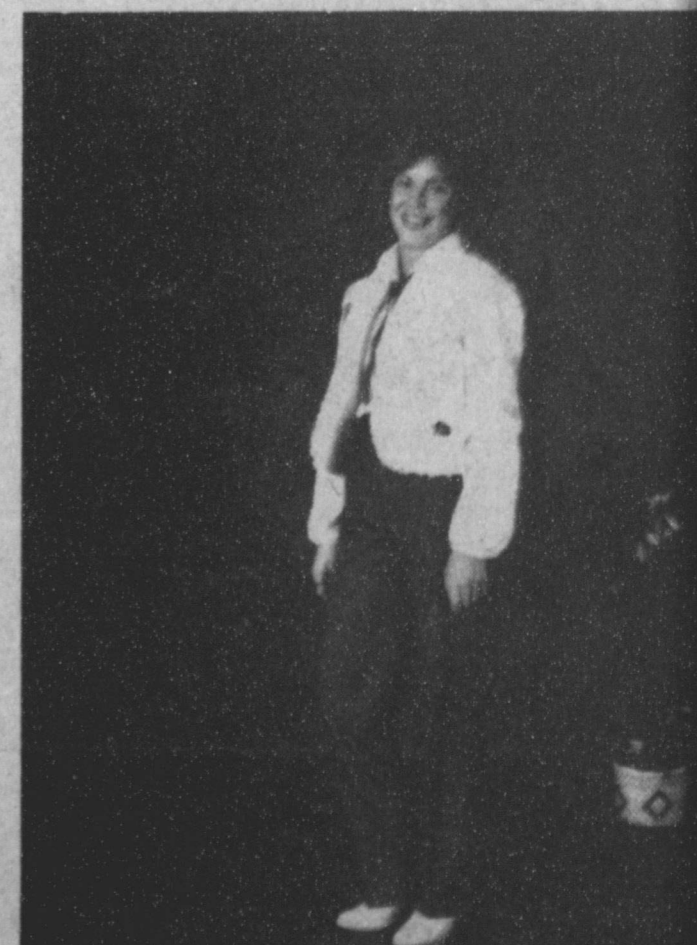

The Lubbock Christian College crops judging team has finished 12th in two National Intercollegiate Crops Judging Contests at Kansas City and Chicago within a four day span recently.

The LCC group, the only non land-grant university among the 14 competitors at each stopover, beat Texas A&M's team at Chicago despite the fact two of the most from their fertilizer dollar. Getting a profitable return from fertilizer depends on the supply of available nutrients already in the soil. A soil test can provide an estimate of the supply.

A soil test will determine which nutrients are deficient in the soil for a particular crop so that a producer can fertilize to supplement the soil supply, points out Tanksley. It's not profitable to supply nutrients already available in the soil in sufficient quantities for a particular crop or to supply added nutrients that the crop does not need or cannot use.

Tanksley emphasizes that now is an excellent time to take soil samples since soil test results can be obtained more quickly this time of year due to a smaller volume than in the

Editor's note: This is the first of a four-part series on volunteerism.

Volunteerism is rooted in the history of America; it was the cornerstone of the American Revolution. Today, it remains a strong force for social progress in this country.

While official reports show some 37 million volunteers each year in organized agencies in the United States, the figure probably comes closer to 68 million since many people volunteer on a spontaneous, ad hoc (certain situation) basis.

A major user of volunteers is the Cooperative Extension Service at the federal and state levels which is responsible for conducting informal educational programs in agriculture, home economics and community and youth development, points out C.R. Salmon, 4-H and youth specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. Volunteers work hand-in-hand with county Extension agents in conducting these educational programs.

In Texas this year, some 63,000 volunteers have been involved in Extension activities, including 22,000 in 4-H programs. These 4-H volunteers spend an average of 15 to 25 days a year supporting various educational programs and activities geared to youth aged 9 to 19, notes Salmon.

At the national level total contributions of 4-H volunteers approach $200 million a year, more than double the current annual investment of public and private sector funds.

Volunteers also are rapidly becoming an important part of this nation's schools, adds Salmon. It's not longer unusual to find parents and other adults in the classroom, assisting the teacher through a volunteer program.

So, volunteerism has become important in public education, social services and community development. And its growth is due to a large pool of healthy, retired persons; more emphasis on social welfare services; and federal legislation favoring the growth and development of volunteer service agencies.

TIPS FOR HOMEOWNERS

How To Install a Vinyl Floor

In a few hours, you can install a beautiful no-wax seamless vinyl floor with good-looking results and at great savings. Even if you have never installed a floor before, you can have a durable, attractive new floor in an afternoon. Plus the satisfaction of knowing you did it yourself.

Installing a seamless vinyl floor yourself can be easy and economical.

Advance Preparations:

Before buying your floor, make a simple diagram of your room to determine exactly how much flooring you need to complete the job. Twelve foot wide rolls such as those from Mannington, for example, will allow seamless installations in most rooms.

Step 1: Prepare the room:

Clear the room of all furniture and movable appliances.

Carefully remove and save moldings, cove base and other trim along the edge of the floor.

Make vertical cuts at the corners so flooring will lie flat.

Make sure your present flooring surface is clean, dry and smooth.

Step 2: Measure and cut the floor:

Unroll the flooring in a larger room or in a clean basement, driveway or garage, and cut to the dimensions of your floor plan. Add about three inches on all sides for easy trimming later on.

Using a straight edge, cut the flooring along the walls.

Now roll it up along the longest side, pattern side in, and transfer it to the room for installation.

Step 3: Positioning the floor:

Fit the flooring along the longest straight wall, allowing it to curve up the wall.

Make vertical cuts into the flooring so it will lie flat in the corners.

Use a two by four and press the flooring into the wall/floor juncture all along the walls.

Step 4: Trimming the floor

Now, using a metal straight edge or yardstick, cut the flooring along the walls, leaving about 1/4 inch between the edge of the flooring and the wall for normal expansion and contraction of the subfloor.

Replace molding and trim by nailing them to the wall.

Around door casings and thresholds trim a bit more carefully. Make a series of vertical cuts like those you made at the corners to fit the flooring into the wall/floor juncture. DON'T leave 1/4 inch space as you did along the walls, but fit the flooring snugly against the casing.

Step 5: Finishing Touches

Replace molding and trim by nailing them to the wall and not to the floor. Allow a bit of clearance above the flooring, about 1/8 inch for normal expansion and contraction. That's all there is to it.

Mannington Resilient floors are quite easy to care for. For more tips on how to install seamless vinyl floors, write to Mannington Mills, Inc. DIY DEPT. PO Box 30, Salem, NJ 08079.

Library News

By Anne Camp

Storyhour was held at the Muleshoe Area Public Library Wednesday morning with about 32 children attending. This was a "Christmas" special program and the members of Epsilon Delta Chapter of ESA helped with treats for the children, and Maggann Rennels brought the Christmas Story. We really appreciate their help. The Good-Morning song was sung, and Pledge of Allegiance given, then Anne Camp led the children in "Old Jack Frost" an action ryme, and showed two films...The Walt Disney version of "The Ant and the Grasshopper", and "Silver Spurs, Santa's Smallest Elf". Happy Birthday was sung for Kourtnee Magby, the only one having a birthday in December. At the close of the program, the children got to tell Maggan what they wanted for Christmas.

The Hobby Club will have gift ideas and many hand-made articles in the display case all the month of December. The public is invited to visit the Library and see their crafts. There are many Christmas books and magazines too that will help you with Holiday planning of meals, gifts or entertaining.

The Migrant Center brought 21 children to see Christmas films at the Library Thursday.

In the Fall meeting of the Friends of the Library the following officers were elected: Becky Miller, President; Sudie Foster, Vice President; Pam Zwickery, Secretary; and Sharon Grant, Treasurer. Discussion of projects for 1981-82 were held, and the Treasurer's report given. Although no formal campaign is planned, the public is asked to make donations for the movie projector, already purchased, and to join the Friends of the Library to help on future projects. The resignation of Mildred Davis as Memorial chairman was accepted, and Mrs. Louise Agee was elected to take her place. Mildred Davis' service of about three years has been truly appreciated. She has done an excellent job.

Diet facts & fallacies

These nutritional tips brought to you by DIET CENTER

The holiday season is that time of year when people seem to lose control as far as food is concerned. You may not even be aware of how much or what types of foods you are eating. Everything looks so tasty, and you see no harm in trying a little bit of everything. Unfortunately, those little bites soon add up to a large quantity of food, and the "stuffed feeling" that comes from overeating.

Recent medical studies show that overeating not only makes you fat, but also shortens your life span. Overeating increases the workload of the digestive system. Just as a truck carrying a heavy load must slow down, your body's metabolism will also slow down with overeating.

This holiday season, use a small salad plate to limit your sampling. Don't allow yourself second helpings. Your Diet Center Counselor has many other suggestions like these to make this your happiest and healthiest holidays

Sargeant Wayne Holmes of the Muleshoe Police Department told the Journal Friday, "Right now, we have no leads, nowhere to go. We are grasping at straws, hoping by the publicity to find someone, somewhere that has seen Jamie. A tip that she might have boarded a bus out of Muleshoe late Saturday, proved to be just another dead end street."

T.V. stations and radio as well as newspapers have been alerted to the circumstances surrounding Jamie's disappearance. Her parents want her to know that they love her very much and are concerned for her safety. The couple are up against a brick wall, with no help in sight.

These days, 30,000 pieces of farm equipment translates into a lot of money. Last year, according to National Safety Council figures, 30,000 pieces of farm equipment were involved in accidents related to transport of the equipment on and off the road. That's a lot of money and a lot of down time. The council stresses: Now is an especially good time to review a few basic safety practices for machinery transport. First, be aware of width and height of equipment when transporting. Lower and lock tall equipment into transport position. Watch low wires, overpasses and other overhead obstructions. Always carry loads as low as possible for stability, either on or off the road. Know and use safety warnings to alert other motorists, including use of slow moving vehicle signs. Be alert for holes and bumps in the road and never allow anyone to hitch a ride on towed equipment.

Another specialty item we noticed in passing was custom made children's furniture made by some Littlefield residents.

Horseshoe and turquoise art is a specialty for John Meadows of Santa Fe. Meadows explained his procedure: First, I take an ordinary horseshoe, soak it in acid to remove particles and then begins a long process of polishing until one can see themselves in the finished product. He then proceeds to enlay turquoise stones into the belt buckles or desk sets, coming up with a very attractive customized item.

A Lazbuddie man, Ronald Elliott, does metal sculpture of a sort. In that he takes copper sheets, cuts out the pattern he desires and then fashions it into a beautiful wall decoration for the home.

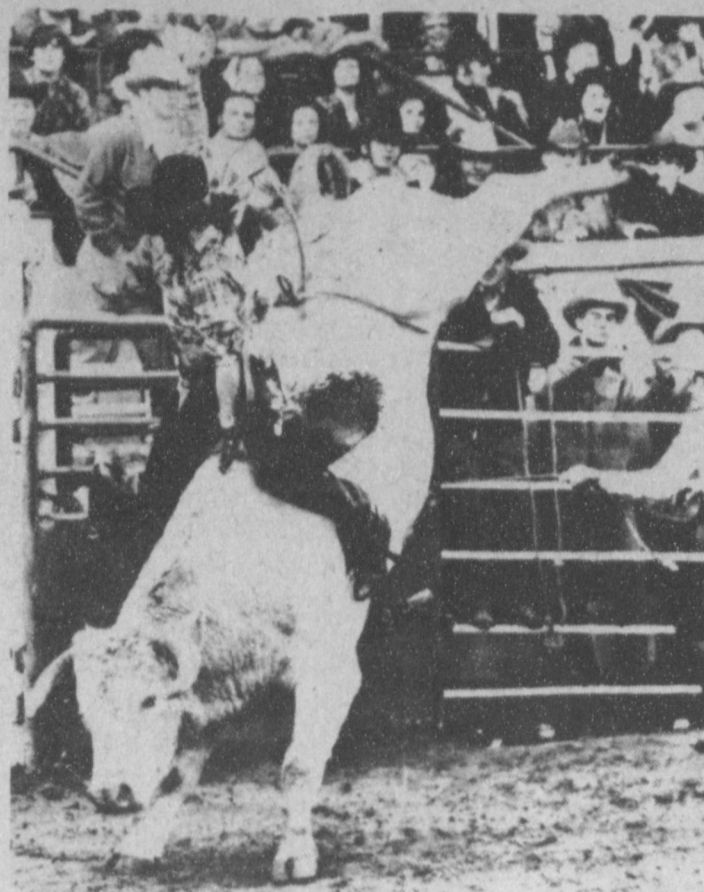

All in all, the trip to the coliseum was very much worth the time. Rows upon rows of hand-made articles could be seen in every direction. The Extension Club has every reason to be proud of this show, as it seemed to be a tremendous success.

Local Farm Dealer Sponsors National Finals Rodeo

Barry & Young Equipment Co., Muleshoe, will join Hesston Corporation and over 1,000 other participating Hesston Farm Equipment dealers across North America in sponsoring a special telecast of the 1981 National Finals Rodeo from Oklahoma City.

The program will appear locally on KFDD-TV (10), Amarillo, December 16 at 8 p.m.; and KCBD-TV, (11), Lubbock, December 17 at 7 p.m.

Billed as N.F.R. TELECAST VIII, this makes the eighth consecutive year that the Hesston Corporation has televised the National Finals Rodeo. The N.F.R. is recognized as the "World Series" or "Super Bowl" of professional rodeo and climaxes nearly 600 Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (P.R.C.A.) sanctioned rodeos held throughout the country during 1981.

To qualify for the National Finals, entrants must rank among the top 15 money winners in their respective event(s) for the year. The cowboys that come out on top during the National Finals then win the coveted World Championship title in their event. The telecast will carry the six standard pro rodeo events: bareback bronc riding, steer wrestling, team roping, saddle bronc riding, calf roping and bull riding. Girls' barrel racing will also be featured.

The telecast will feature SPAG Directors To Meet

The Board of Directors of the South Plains Association of Governments will meet at 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, December 8, 1981 at the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center.

The agenda for the Board of Director's meeting includes the consideration of acceptance of the November 10, 1981 meeting of the Board of Directors; acceptance of the SPAG financial report for the month of October, 1981 and consideration of acceptance of CETA program operations for the month of October, 1981. Authorizing nutrition contracts for the first three quarters of 1982 will be considered as will approval of bylaws to govern operation of the Regional Alcohol Abuse Advisory Committee. The Board will also consider approval of amendment to bylaws governing the Advisory Council on Aging; consider recommended priorities for the National Association of Regional Councils for 1982 and consider adoption of a resolution supporting rural development planning by SPAG as a continuing program. The Board will also recommend renomination of Henry Rieff to the Rural Development policy committee of the National Association of Regional Councils.

The question still remains: Who took Stark's wallet and pickup? Was the pickup set on fire or did it just catch on fire? What part did an empty gas can play that was found in the back of the burned pickup? Might Stark have been found before death overtook him if the license check on the pickup had been reported to Lamb County authorities?

Not until sometime Wednesday, after the report of Stark's death, did the Lamb County Sheriff's office receive word of the burned vehicle. Lamb County Sheriff McNeese was at a loss to explain the reason for the delay in reporting.

Sheriff Henderson stated that he "just figured it was somebody's vehicle that caught on fire and they had abandoned it." Nothing more was done until the report came out on Stark's murder, Wednesday. At that time, Bailey County sheriff's department notified authorities of the recovery of the deceased's vehicle.

District and state FFA awards, Lone Star Farmer, SPC scholarships to the outstanding senior FFA members in each district, and winners of sweetheart and talent competition will be announced during the banquets.

Kelli Overman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Berle Overman will represent the Muleshoe FFA Chapter in the Sweetheart competition. Several other Muleshoe FFA officers and members will be attending.

Plans on the SPC campus are being coordinated by James Carroll, chairman of SPC's department of agriculture, applied health and technology.

What's an average day worth?

On an average day you probably get out of bed, adjust the thermostat, make a pot of coffee, cook breakfast... perhaps use the dishwasher.

Later, maybe you do a load of laundry and listen to the radio. Then you cook dinner and put the leftovers in the refrigerator. You may turn on the television or settle down in your favorite chair next to a lamp to read.

For all of you, all of this and more adds up to one day... just 1/30th of your average monthly electric bill.

Knowing what electricity is worth is worth knowing.

Sons of The Pioneers Scheduled For S.W. Expo

The world famous Sons of the Pioneers have been signed to entertain at each of the 22 performances of the World's Original Indoor Rodeo during the Jan. 27 through Feb. 7 Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, reports W.R. Watt, Jr., show president-manager.

"We are pleased to bring this superb talent with their songs of the American West to the Fort Worth Rodeo audience," Watt said. "In song and on film, no group has been more representative of the spirit of the west."

The group's 1982 appearance will be the second time for the Sons of the Pioneers to sing during the Stock Show Rodeo.

They were part of the cast of the 1958 Roy Rogers Chevy Show which was televised nationally on NBC during the Feb. 2 closing night performance at that year's Stock Show Rodeo.

Blended harmony has become the group's trademark since its start as a trio in 1933 when Len Slye (Roy Rogers) and songwriters Bob Nolan and Tim Spencer pooled their talents. Throughout their career, the Sons of the Pioneers have endeared themselves to Western music lovers through a combination of harmony, instrumental effects and colorful tales in such favorites as "Cool Water", "Blue Shadows on the Trail", "Tumbling Tumbleweeds", "Red River Valley", and many more American classics.

Their long list of awards and honors, including designation as a "national treasure" by the Smithsonian Institution in 1979 for their substantive and continuing contributions to American culture indicates international recognition as the premiere Western band of time.

Specialty acts to be presented during each rodeo performance include the Loera Family, seven members of a professional charro family from Monterrey, Mexico, who will present unbelievable routines of expert and precision-oriented rope tricks; and a group of the most talented trick and fancy riders in the business who will exhibit a marvel of athletic ability, agility and balance while riding their fast horses around the arena.

The rodeo ticket office will open Monday, Dec. 7 in Will Rogers Coliseum lobby. Mail orders are being taken now at the Stock Show office, P.O. Box 150, Fort Worth, TX 76101. Tickets are $7 for all night and weekend rodeos, and $5 for Monday through Friday, Feb. 1-5 matinees. Mail orders must include $1 per order for return postage and handling.

NEWS NOTES

Animal Health Program Boom To Texas Feedlot

Like many feedlot operators, George Bagley has experienced some difficult times over the past few years. But hard times haven't kept him from continuing to make a profit.

"Careful management of animal health goes a long way toward improving that bottom line," Bagley asserts.

He is general manager of Dimmitt Feed Yard in Dimmitt, which has been operating at about 75 percent of its 40,000-head capacity lately. Since coming to Dimmitt 12 years ago, Bagley has introduced several innovative programs. Animal health receives a high priority among them.

The Operator's animal health program is basically a preventive medicine program. "Diseases such as shipping fever, for example, are costly not only in themselves, but in their adverse effect on feed-to-gain ration," he states.

Rates of gain are important at Dimmitt Feed Yard, which aims to get cattle to market weight as quickly as possible without sacrificing carcass quality. "We concentrate on high-volume finishing and set up systems geared toward this end," Bagley says.

Within 48 hours after arrival, incoming cattle are inoculated with a four-way bacterin for blackleg and clostridial infections and receive a shot for infectious bovine rhinotracheitis, bovine virus diarrhea and leptospirosis.

At the same time, the animals also get a vitamin A shot and are wormed and implanted with a growth stimulant. The cattle also are checked carefully for signs of shipping fever.

Dr. W.J. Hill, consulting veterinarian from Dimmitt, works closely with Bagley in administering the animal health program. He notes that any long-haul cattle or cattle purchased at auction that show obvious signs of respiratory sickness are injected with a long-acting oxytetracycline "Liquamycin LA-200, when administered intramuscularly at the rate of 9 mg/lb body weight, is an effective way to treat the bovine respiratory disease complex because one dose of the drug sustains antibiotic blood levels for three to four days," Dr. Hill explains.

"Respiratory disease is the no. 1 cause of death among feedlot cattle," he adds, "and is primary reason for the poor performance of the animals."

Death loss at Dimmitt Feed Yard runs 0.5 percent or less annually.

Final Sale Of Spirit Jackets

Earlier this year high school students were able to order "Muleshoe Mules" and "Angry Black" spirit jackets. After the jackets were received, thirty days were given to pick up and pay for the jackets which were ordered. Those thirty days have passed and now all unclaimed jackets are being sold to anyone on a first come, first serve basis.

As of this week approximately twelve jackets remain to be sold in various styles and sizes. Prices range from $24.95 to $31.95 plus tax.

If you missed out when orders were taken or need a special Christmas gift for that special fan, please come by the DECA Mercantile in room 24 for your purchase.

Employee awards dinner was scheduled for May 4 in the high school cafeteria. Outstanding students in each program will be recognized at that time. This activity is held each year to allow both students and employers to express their gratitude to each other for many hours of hard work. The council also proposed holding an Employer-Employee family picnic each September as a get-acquainted activity.

In other business Mrs. Pylant, MDE coordinator, explained the free enterprise and career seminar scheduled for MHS in January. She asked for help from the council in securing speakers and in promoting the seminar. Members also discussed the upcoming MISD bond election and the need for promoting it throughout the community.

'Texas-Style' Political Rally Held

Muleshoe High School Civics classes, under the sponsorship of their teachers, Mrs. Jean Allison gave a simulation of a political rally and mock election on Tuesday, November 24, at 9:30 a.m. in the High School auditorium. 1981 being an off-year politically resulted in the civics students projecting to the 1984 elections deciding who they thought might run and the campaign issues. Each of the five classes drew for either two or three candidates and then developed these candidates' campaign materials and strategies. All of these campaigns culminated with an assembly program with junior students and other interested guests in attendance.

Candidates and their campaign chairmen included:

Cindy Turner led the salute to the flag and brought the invocation. Tami Bratcher led the audience in singing the Star Spangled Banner. Master of Ceremonies was Kent Reynolds and the Mistress of Ceremonies was Delia Shaw. Kent Reynolds gave the welcome and Delia gave a presentation "Why Vote?" Mulesettes Fall To Farwell

The Muleshoe Mulesettes lost their fourth game of the year last Tuesday night at Farwell by a 70-49 score. The Mulesettes had a cold first half and trailed 34-20 at half and could never catch up.

The Mulettes are still looking for their first win. They traveled to Vega for the first tournament of the year. The results were not known at presstime. The next game will be Tuesday, December 8, against last years state class A champion, Nazareth.

Students acting as political dignitaries brought a change of pace and some comedy to the "Texas-Style" political rally and mock election. These included Jeff Meeks acting as Barry Goldwater Sr., introduced by Janet Shain as Barry Goldwater, Jr.; Brian Powell as Speaker of the House Thomas (Tip) O'Neill; Monty Hysinger as former President Gerald Ford; and Curtis Wheeler as former President Jimmy Carter accompanied by Amy played by Lori Hartline.

Rhonda Mills brought an explanation of the school bond election. Election judges were Manuel Garcia, Mark Denny, Joe Martinez, and Alan Harrison. After an explanation of to vote by the Master of Ceremonies, the audience voted on the candidates. Winners were for President and Vice-President Ronald Reagan and George Bush, Sr.; for U.S. Senate Bill Sarpalus; for U.S. Representative, 19th District-Representative Kent Hance; for Texas Representative, 74th District Representative Bill Clayton.

Bodyguards who protected the political dignitaries were John Davis, Eric Allison, Alan Fine, Joe Neel, and Jackie Alvarado.

Each candidate, speaker, press member and political dignitary did a great deal of research in order to give a realistic performance as well as to know the issues. Students learn how our political system works from this activity, and many noted that the best part was cooperating as a whole class and doing something successful on their own.

- 1/4 c mayonnaise
- 1/4 t salt
- dash pepper
- 1/4 t prepared mustard
- 1 t minced onion
- paprika

Cut eggs in half lengthwise. With teaspoon, carefully remove yolks to small bowl; set whites aside.

Mash yolks, then blend in mayonnaise, salt, pepper, mustard and onion. Use yolk mixture to refill whites. One teaspoon minced sweet pickle can be substituted for onion if desired.

The Sandhills Philosopher

editor's note: The Sandhill Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Sandy Creek has found a new story he can't believe.

Dear Editor:

Because it beats working, I like to read newspapers. And over the years a newspaper reader naturally develops certain skills, like how to read between the lines, when to believe or not believe, or how to tell when a politician is telling the truth or just going on.

Some news stories you know off-hand are made up, like the report of a prehistoric monster in some lake just as the tourist season arrives. An interview with a prehistoric Congressman on the steps of the Capitol is always good for a paragraph of two, but it doesn't attract many tourists.

I got to thinking about truth in news when I read an article in a newspaper last night. It read:

"A county clerk in Elizabeth, N.J. has asked for a 22 percent out in his $19,260 annual salary, saying his job is getting easier. The clerk said there is no reason why he should receive so much money. He recommended it be cut to $15,000. He said several techniques used to streamline operations in the clerk's staff have reduced the amount of time needed for the job."

Although the Associated Press reported this story with a straight face, it's bound to be spoofing.

You mean to say that a great news gathering organization like the Associated Press really expects the public to believe an office holder has asked that his salary be cut? It's un-heard-of. It's unbelievable. It's un-Congressional. It's un-state-ish. It's un-county-ish.

Moreover, AP wants us to believe that county clerk says automation and computerization have made his job easier, he's got less to do and therefore he ought to cost the tax payers less money. Makes every office holder across the land point his index finger toward the side of his head and twirl it in a circle.

When it runs out of regular news, the Associated Press ought to stick to lake monsters and giant footprints found in some creek bed. However, if that story is true, we ought to capture that one-of-a-kind clerk and exhibit him at state fairs around the country and televise him on the Capitol steps in Washington. The steps will be as far as he gets. You know Congress won't let him inside. Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Families of 100 Year Old Farms Honored

AUSTIN--Little Burke Ranch, founded in 1835 in Beeville has been recognized as the oldest property to qualify in the 1981 Family Land Heritage Program, Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown has announced.

Brown presented certificates to Mrs. Clara E. Wilson Ray, owner of the ranch, and to the 53 other families at ceremonies this month in the Capitol Rotunda. Sixty-one families qualified this year.

The Texas Department of Agriculture recognized families who have maintained continuous agricultural production on the same land for 100 years or more. So far 1,453 have qualified. The oldest property registered in the eight years of the program is the McAllen Ranch, established in Hidalgo County in 1797.

The Little Burke Ranch was started by Ann Burke, a widow from Tipperary, Ireland. She received one labor and one league of land (4,616 acres) from the McMullen-McGloin Empresario Grant. Her husband died aboard ship on the way to America. Their only child, Patrick was born one hour after the ship reached American shores in Copano Bay on the Texas coast. Later Ann married Pat O'Carroll whose spouse had also died aboard ship.

As a young boy, Patrick drove an ox wagon carrying provisions from Corpus Christi to Fort Merrill in Live Oak County for army troops, receiving $30 a month for his work. He fought in Civil War, rode in cattle drives to Kansas, and was elected a county commissioner in Bee County in 1878. He ran the ranch until his death in 1912.

Later generations continued ranching and serving as city and county officials. Mrs. Ray now operates the ranch with her sons Robert and Wilson.

Another ranch honored this year, the Thudusand Oaks Ranch near Devers, was established in 1836, also by a widow, Melina Whittington, Brown said. The present owners are Mr. and Mrs. Garth G. Andress.

"The people who have remained in farming and ranching through the years have been the ones who started the communities and gave land for schools and churches. Today they form the base of rural Texas," Brown said.

Your plans for the future should include paying your debts of the past.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor,

The two teachers, who wrote letters to you on the failure of the school bond election, know what they are talking about. The reason I know they are telling the truth is because I go through it every school day. I am a Junior at Muleshoe High School. Let me take you on one of my average days:

First day I have Band. The band hall is small. Almost too small for our band. Next year we will increase in size to about 90 or 100. The band hall will then be too small to house us. Our instrument room is crowded, too. Lack of space is not our only problem, though. It is usually cold in the band hall. The windows let cold air through like they open. Dust also comes through. There is also no insulation above our ceiling and the walls are concrete block covered on the outside by brick.

Next, I have Speech in Room 14. The room has carpet, paneling, and stays fairly warm. The only problem is there is a large water spot on the ceiling and part of the wall. The spot has been there ever since last spring when the roof leaked. The auditorium is also part of our classroom. This is where we perform when we are preparing for a tournament if we can bear the cold. The heaters are so loud we can't have them on when we are performing.

My two classes before lunch are in regular classrooms. No matter where I sit in either room, I am usually cold. The heater vents are so old that there is not much warm air that can flow through them.

During fifth period, I am in Room 14 again but instead of Mr. Moore teaching Speech he has an English III class.

Last period I have office help in the band hall. Mr. Chance has me work with the sixth grade percussionist since I am a High School dummer. Because we don't have practice rooms, I have to find a place somewhere else in the building that is not being used. Many times we use the auditorium but we either have to freeze of put up with the noise of the heaters.

The situation at M.H.S. is this bad. Every student, teacher, and administrator has to put up with it everyday. For a short time we had a hope that next year things would be different. My class would have been the first to graduate from our "new" high school. Our hopes were shattered when people failed to turn out to vote. Many of the people have children going to Muleshoe Public Schools. Whether they would have voted for it or not they showed us, the students, faculty, and administration of M.I.S.D. that they don't care about our school system.

The only good things about M.I.S.D. are the faculty, administration and most of all the quality of education. The faculty of M.H.S. sets a warm feeling for us, the students. This atmosphere, I think, helps us to forget for a short time about how shabby our school is and sets where we can concentrate on education.

Superintendent Horne and his assistants also care about the students. Many times I see Mr. Horne walk down the halls or step into one of my classrooms to observe. He always has a smile on his face and wants to be everyone's friend.

The standard of education here can't be matched, in my opinion, by any other school this size. After I graduate from here and I am on my own I will be proud to say I got my high school education here.

I only wish our building had the same high standards as our education does. When no one cares, though, wishes don't come true, no matter how bad we want them.

I think I speak not only for myself, but for my fellow students.

Sincerely,
Robert Nowlin
Student, Muleshoe High School

Dear Editor (& community)
I was really surprised at the way the school bond election turned out, and surprised and ashamed so many parents don't care enough to vote, even against the issue. And I'm ashamed that our kids are not going to have the best education affordable for our town. My children say that in the high school they have to wear their coats in some rooms and still aren't comfortable, and in other rooms their faces burn from the heat. In my opinion, this isn't a good learning, or teaching environment.

I overheard some older gents saying, "Boy, kids today are spoiled! When I went to school we just had an old wood stove in a building with walls you could throw a cat through." Times change, and education is one thing we can't afford to fall behind in. Our nation's leaders are being educated now.

I also heard a bit about "Why should we spend our money on the school? Rotten kids would just tear it up!" Man, that's pessimism! Most of our kids don't deserve that label. Our school is full of kids who deserve the best, and it's hard to have pride in your school when it's in the condition ours is in.

Mr. Horne and the board spend their valuable time researching this matter and I want to take this opportunity to thank them for trying to make a change that is needed, and that is more economically made now than later.

Dear Editor,

I, as a student at Muleshoe High School, am writing this letter to the people in my community who voted down the bond election and those who did not even care enough to vote. While the passing of the bond election would have raised taxpayers taxes it directly affects me also. I am the one who has to go to the school.

The passing of the bond election meant for me a decent place to go to school. It would have meant not freezing in the winter and boiling in the summer. How can I be expected to learn up to my highest potential when the conditions inside are the same as outside.

Do not think I am not thankful for the teachers who strive under the present conditions to prepare us for the future. I feel that I could learn more through better and improved conditions.

When we kids found out that the bond election had been voted down we were all disheartened. We felt sure that it would pass. We felt sure that the voters in this community had enough compassion to want to help us in any way they could. I guess we were wrong.

I am not old enough to vote, but when I am I will try to see both sides of the issue. I am asking you the grown-ups, the voters, to please try and see the kids side of it.

The students of the Muleshoe Schools are the grown-ups and future of tomorrow. Please help us to get the best education possible. With your help we can make a better tomorrow.

Sincerely,
Betsy Lunsford
a student at
Muleshoe High School

Dear Editor,

This letter is in regard to the recent bond election. To my total disbelief the public voted the bond down. If people could only realize how old our high school is. Here are just a few examples: 1) The school was built in the school year of 1949-50 and has not been changed or renovated yet. 2) The weather conditions on the inside are the same as those on the outside. 3) During the summer, when the teacher has the fan on, we can't hear her. She has to yell above the noise of the fan so that we can hear her. When she yells, she disturbs other classes since the walls are so thin. 4) Some of the lockers in the halls are falling apart and several of the doors won't close or lock. That problem just invites thieves to take whatever they can.

What people just don't realize is that their taxes may go up but those dollars spent may be deducted from their federal taxes. In the future the school will continue to deteriorate and the citizens will pay many times more for a new structure.

This bond election was the perfect chance to show the other school districts which have passed bond issues that people of Muleshoe are progressive and support education in their community. Muleshoe voters who voted against the proposal have led the school district in a giant step backwards. For those of you who voted for the issue, thank you.

Gary Watkins,
a student at Muleshoe High School

Dear Editor,

I would like to take this opportunity to publicly express my personal thanks and that of the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture to the many individuals and organizations who have done so much to assist us this Christmas season. I am sure that you have noticed the decorations which are now up on the streets of Muleshoe. Please be assured, they did not get there by themselves. The City of Muleshoe, Southwestern Public Service Company and Bailey County Electric Cooperative all donated a tremendous amount of time and the use of several pieces of large equipment in order to decorate Muleshoe for the holidays.

It is through the cooperation of these people that we are able to take a great deal of pride in the appearance of our town this year. But we are even more proud of the people who made this project such a successful one. I hope that when you see the employees of the City, Southwestern Public Service and Bailey County Electric, that you will take the time to thank them for their efforts.

We would also like to thank all of the individuals and organizations who volunteered (or were drafted!) to participate in some way to make the many Christmas activities in town so enjoyable. Christmas is a time of giving, and all those who participated and worked to make our holiday events successful have given of themselves, for which we are truly grateful.

Sincerely,
John Gully

Letter Of Appreciation

To The Family of
Dr. Bennie O. McDaniel

It is difficult to know how to respond appropriately to the death of a man such as Dr. McDaniel, who has contributed so much to good medical care in Muleshoe.

We wish, by means of this letter, to let the family know that everyone connected with the Medical Center, including the Governing Board and Medical Staff, is aware of Dr. McDaniel's good work in the community. Perhaps we can preserve his memory by following his example and continuing the work he began here in Muleshoe.

Wings

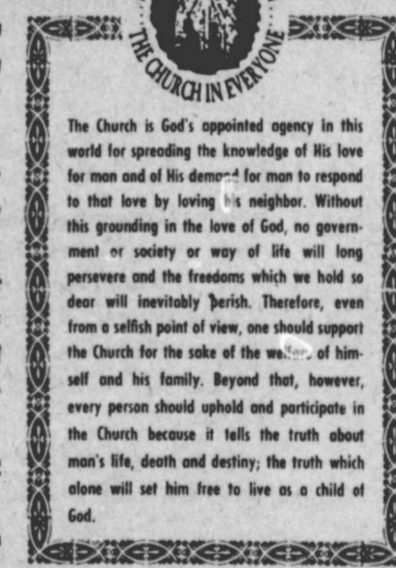

"If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea: even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me." Psalms 139:9, 10.

What a wonderful promise. No matter where we go or what we do, God is willing to lead us and is there to help us.

Another comforting scripture recalling God's love toward us is this: "How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! How great is the sum of them! If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand." Psalm 139:17, 18.

It is comforting and pleasant to let our thoughts wing upward to verses like these.

We invite you to read your Bible and attend church this week.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
