Harriman May Become Head of ECA Plan

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16. (AP)—Speculation mounted today that W. Averell Harriman, the Marshall plan ambassador-at-large, may be dealt a more potent hand in President Truman's new term.

Lower echelons of the Economic Co-operation Administration buzzed with reports that Harriman, a multi-millionaire and staunch Democratic Party supporter, might:

1. Replace Republican Paul G. Hoffman as ECA administrator.

2. Or as rumored previously, become secretary of state if and when George C. Marshall steps down as he has indicated he wishes to do.

3. Or as rumored previously, become secretary of state if and when George C. Marshall steps down as he has indicated he wishes to do.

Working against that theory, however, is an apparently widespread feeling in Capitol Hill that the European recovery effort has been operating satisfactorily under Hoffman's leadership.

WILLIAM MANUEL... Auto Man Testifies

Declares Auto Makers Must Police Industry

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16. (AP)—Rep. Macy (R-NY) said today it's up to the automobile makers, rather than Congress, to police their industry and prevent unscrupulous dealers from fleecing the public.

He offered that comment on his special House committee on unfair trade practices delved deeper into new and used car deals in the Washington area.

The House group spent seven hours yesterday examining the transactions of the Kearney Oldsmobile Co. of Washington. It turned up this testimony by Raymond J. Kearney, co-partner in the agency:

(1) His firm takes in used cars as trade-ins on new ones "for as little as we can" and sells them "for as much as we can."

(2) He sells new car buyers "all the accessories I can." Generally, he said, he will not remove any accessories that come on a new car.

(3) Some trade-ins had been resold immediately to used-car buyers for up to $600 more than the amount allowed the customer for his old car.

At the other extreme was 81-year-old Queen Mother Mary, who spent two hours at the palace. A great-grandmother for the first time, she was the first visitor after Sunday night's momentous announcement.

Another close relative who called was the Duchess of Kent. She said she was greatly thrilled.

Princess Margaret, on an official mission in Sheffield, was reported eager to get back to see her nephew and personally congratulate her sister and brother-in-law, Philip.

Appearing on the stage at Sheffield's Pageant of Production last night, Margaret said: "I shall never forget the good news of my sister's baby. I shall never forget the way you have shared by happiness today."

Ship Strike Causes Rail Worker Layoff

Longshoremen's Grip Tightened On East Coast

NEW YORK, Nov. 16. (AP)—Approximately 1,000 railroad workers were laid off today as the longshoremen's strike tightened its grip on East Coast shipping.

The queens of the American and British passenger fleets were dock-bound.

Joseph Curran, president of the powerful CIO National Maritime Union, offered his help to the striking AFL dock workers.

He asked for a meeting to discuss problems in connection with the walkout, and said NMU seamen had been instructed not to perform duties ordinarily handled by longshoremen.

The New York Central laid off 720 employees and the Central Railroad of New Jersey 250 workers. Those affected are engaged in handling import and export freight.

Other railroads said they would have to take similar action if the strike lasts very long.

Longshoremen sealed off Canadian ports from use as havens for ships which normally would dock at New York or other harbors in the strike area.

The United States Lines' S. S. America, pride of the U. S. Merchant Marine, was held in port here instead of sailing today for Europe.

Hundreds of prospective passengers were stranded in hotels.

Tomorrow's scheduled sailing of the Cunard White Star Liner Queen Elizabeth from Southampton was cancelled. The world's biggest passenger ship, booked with 2,000 persons bound for New York, was to have docked at Halifax, Nova Scotia.

Postponement of the Queen Elizabeth's sailing was announced last night, shortly after longshoremen in Halifax decided not to handle any more ships diverted to their port because of the longshoremen's strike along the seaboard between Portland, Me., and Hampton Roads, Va.

Canadian affiliates of the striking AFL International Longshoremen's Assn. said the same decision would affect the ports of Montreal and St. John, New Brunswick.

Chest Drive Heads Down Home Stretch

The Community Chest today headed down the home stretch with less than $5,000 needed for success.

Total contributions Tuesday morning stood at $32,007, Capt. Olvy Sheppard, office manager, reported.

Every effort will be made to clean up the campaign this week, he added, with plans being developed for a Red Feather day Saturday to give those who have not yet contributed an opportunity to have a part.

Meanwhile, Dr. R. B. G. Cowper, clean-up chairman, checked over records with Capt. Sheppard and Lee Milling Monday evening.

Chances for success are good, he said, if only those who have not yet given will share in the program of support for the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Salvation Army, the YMCA and a small amount for the Chest.

The Alcoholics Anonymous have been assured, by designation, their $1,950 share of the joint effort.

About 70 cards on prospects have yet to be worked and reported. In addition, there will be check backs on about two score who failed to contribute.

This was to be done to make sure that there was no misunderstanding about presenting the Chest appeal.

In addition, the hotels were working their employees. The canvass of T&P railway employees, carrying an appeal for a day's pay, was getting underway also.

McKee Construction company indicated it would present the chest appeal to workers on the hospital project.

In other areas the final request for support of the character building and welfare agencies were being pressed. R. L. Tollett, Chest president and chairman, was due back in town today for a conference with officials.

Memory Had Failed After Mishap

PROSPECTOR SUDDENLY REMEMBERS HE HAS WIFE, CHILD; FINDS THEM

TAMPA, Fla., Nov. 16. (AP)—After forgetting all about it for 40 years, a gold and silver miner remembered all at once that he had a wife and son.

So 71-year-old Otto Buehring, who prospected in the West, but never struck it rich, came to this Florida west coast city to be reunited with his wife Henrietta, who is 73.

The reunion of Buehring and the wife he hadn't seen since 1908 took place yesterday. Letters had softened the impact of confronting each other after four decades of separation.

Each had a lot of things to talk about. Buehring about searching for gold and silver in Nevada, Mon-

PARIS, Nov. 16. (AP)—Russia, replying to the peace appeal of top United Nations officials, held firm to her previous position today—and the Western Powers also were reported standing pat.

Russia replied she still insists on taking up the question of all Germany, in an negotiations on Berlin.

Representatives of the United States, Britain and France met as the Russian reply was made public. A statement later said "their discussions showed a complete identity of views," which could mean only that the Western Powers were standing by their insistence that the Berlin blockade be lifted before any negotiations begin.

The Russian reply to the peace appeal by Trygve Lie, UN Secretary General, and H. V. Evatt, assembly president, was signed by Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister A. Y. Vishinsky. The Moscow radio announced its terms.

The Russians said the Soviet government shares the opinion of Lie and Evatt "about the significance and importance of personal contact and mutual trust between the leaders of the powers in the matter of improvement of relations."

His letter pointed out that Russia already had proposed to call the council of foreign ministers into session "to consider the question of the situation in Berlin, as well as the question of Germany as a whole."

"The Soviet government adheres now also to the same position," it said.

The foreign ministers of the United States, Britain and France met at the French foreign office to frame their reply and adjourned after 40 minutes.

The nature of this reply was kept secret but authoritative sources said it coincided with a French view that the west will not negotiate under the duress of the Berlin blockade but hopes that the Berlin issue can be solved by conciliation.

A French government spokesman announced this stand earlier. The spokesman, Francois Mitterand, issued the statement following a cabinet meeting. Mitterand is the French secretary of state for information.

The cabinet approved the text of a note Foreign Minister Robert Schuman intends to send to Sec. Gen. Trygve Lie and President H. V. Evatt of the United Nations in reply to their appeal last week for direct four power talks on Berlin.

The government also circulated a statement denying recent suggestions in the French press that the foreign ministry, the premier's office and the president's office were not in agreement on the appeal for Berlin talks.

CELEBRATIONS TAPER OFF

Royal Relatives Visit New Prince

LONDON, Nov. 16. (AP)—All was reported well today with Princess Elizabeth and her new son as relatives gathered to peek at the two-day-old prince who may be Britain's next king.

Royal physicians have issued no bulletins since yesterday morning, but the very absence of further announcement was accepted as a sign that the condition of Elizabeth and her baby continues to be satisfactory.

Sir John Weir and Sir William Gilliat, who assisted at the birth, called at Buckingham Palace last night to see the princess. Earlier it was declared both the mother and child were in satisfactory condition.

Palace sources said no additional bulletins will be issued until some time today.

The princess was permitted to have her baby with her for a short while yesterday.

There was no indication how soon she would be up. Elizabeth always has enjoyed exceptionally good health, and some sources believe her stay in bed will not be prolonged.

As for the yet unnamed new prince, doctors' opinions were not needed to persuade those who saw him that he was a "model" prince.

The youngest caller at the palace yesterday was six-year-old Prince William of Gloucester who trooped in with his mother, the Duchess of Gloucester. He bore a gift of red roses and a letter he had written to his 22-year-old cousin, Elizabeth. William was a page at the royal wedding last year.

At the other extreme was 81-year-old Queen Mother Mary, who spent two hours at the palace. A great-grandmother for the first time, she was the first visitor after Sunday night's momentous announcement.

Another close relative who called was the Duchess of Kent. She said she was greatly thrilled.

Princess Margaret, on an official mission in Sheffield, was reported eager to get back to see her nephew and personally congratulate her sister and brother-in-law, Philip.

Appearing on the stage at Sheffield's Pageant of Production last night, Margaret said: "I shall never forget the good news of my sister's baby. I shall never forget the way you have shared by happiness today."

Truman Says Berlin Peace Key To Talks

KEY WEST, Fla., Nov. 16. (AP)—President Truman said flatly today the United States will not resume four-power negotiations on Germany until Soviet Russia lifts its Berlin blockade.

At the same time, he told a news conference that he will review the entire international situation with Secretary of State Marshall and roving ECA Administrator Harriman at the White House Nov. 22.

Mr. Truman made it clear that: 1. He has no plans for a meeting with Premier Stalin.

He said he will not leave Washington for such a conference but that his invitation to Stalin to visit Washington still stands.

2. He has no plans to send an emissary to Moscow to talk with Stalin. He considered sending Chief Justice Vinson on such a mission during the closing days of the election campaign but Marshall talked him out of it.

3. He is asking the bi-partisan commission or organization of the executive branch of the government to continue its work. The commission is headed by former President Herbert Hoover.

In announcing he was asking Mr. Hoover to continue the work, he said he hoped it could facilitate "effective and economical administration."

The President left no doubt that he wants Secretary of State Marshall to continue in his post by saying he and the cabinet officials are in perfect agreement on everything and they always have been.

Thomas To Be Tried Jan. 10

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16. (AP)—Barring delays of a shift to another city, Rep. Farnell Thomas will go on trial here Jan. 10 on charges that he conspired to pad his office payroll.

The New Jersey lawmakers entered a formal plea of innocent to the indictment at a surprise arraignment late yesterday. He had been scheduled to appear today.

Thomas was fingerprinted and then released on $1,000 bond. Judge Richmond B. Keesh, who received Thomas' plea, fixed the trial date and set Nov. 29 as the deadline for preliminary motions—such as a possible one to transfer the trial away from Washington.

Thomas has been the subject of hot controversy as chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee, a post he will lose when the Democrats return to control of Congress Jan. 3. The New Jersey Republican was re-elected to his seventh term in the Nov. 2 election.

Thomas' former secretary, Helen Campbell, who was indicted with him, was scheduled to be arraigned today.

Progress Reported On Vealmoor Wells

Progress was reported Tuesday on three wells drilling in the Vealmoor pool.

The Seaboard No. 1 Torra Campbell, seeking the Ellenburger, was at 9,920 feet in shale. W. C. Campbell, one location to the north, was at 6,295 feet, and the No. 1 Mamie Clanton was heading down the home stretch at 7,000 feet. Other tests in the field have yielded Pennsylvanian pay from 7,800 to 7,900 feet. The No. 1 Clanton is a mile and three quarters north and west of production and is the only test in the field which has extended into Borden county.

SPECIAL SESSION TALKED

GOP Leaders Say President Must Indicate China Policy

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16. (AP)—Republican leaders indicated today that President Truman must take the lead in any move to step up American aid to Communist-plagued China.

Sen. Wiley (R-Wis.) put forward a proposal for a joint session of Senate and House foreign affairs committee to consider Nationalist China's plight.

This won a slightly warmer welcome from Republicans generally than a suggestion last week by Sen. Bridges (R-NH) for a special session of the 80th Congress to act on immediate aid.

But a Republican senator who declined use of his name predicted that if anything effective is done toward increasing help for China, Mr. Truman will have to take the initiative.

This would involve, the senator said, the fixing of a firm administration policy on China. He said Congress still doesn't know what administration policy is there.

Help for China has been stepped up recently, but Mr. Truman has given no public indication whether he thinks the crisis is grave enough to warrant further action.

The President committed himself indirectly during the political campaign to continued help to China.

He said in a speech in Brooklyn Oct. 30 that the Communists want this country to stop its assistance for European nations and China. He added that the Communists "know they can never get what they want" so long as the Democratic Party controls the government.

The President apparently had no sympathy, however, for Bridges' suggestion that the Republic-controlled 80th Congress be called into special session to look into the problem.

Leniency Granted Two Youths Refusing Draft Registration

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 16. (AP)—Two youths who refused to register for the peacetime draft were granted leniency by U. S. District Judge J. Cullen Ganey after a government attorney contended the two were attempting to be martyrs.

Judge Ganey yesterday granted J. Newton Garver, 20, Buffalo, N. Y., a week to decide whether to "do something substantial toward the country's draft effort" or go to jail.

At the same time, the jurist released S. Lovett, 23, Falsington, Pa., in custody of the American Friends Service Committee (Quakers) for work in China.

U. S. Atty. Edward A. Kallick protested the decisions on the grounds that "we can't be too lenient when thousands—perhaps millions—of prospective draft registrants are watching the disposition of this case closely."

CLEVELAND, Nov. 16. (AP)—Dr. William H. Bradford, 47-year-old ex-chief medical officer and later manager of Brecksville Veterans Hospital, is dead.

His death yesterday came just three days after that of his brother, Roark Bradford, author of the book used as a basis for the stage hit "Green Pastures," in New Orleans.

Seek Two Who Threw Acid In Face Of Widow

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 16. (AP)—Police today were seeking two men they said threw acid in the face of a 42-year-old widow who is one of the claimants for a $92,800 cache found in a South Philadelphia cellar.

Mrs. Anna Theresa Hillop told police yesterday two men accosted her in the basement of a north Philadelphia apartment house. She could give no reason for the attack, police said.

The $92,800 was found on March 15, 1947, by Benjamin Leiberman, a milk company bookkeeper, in the basement of his home.

Mrs. Hillop based her claim on the assertion that the money was hidden in the cellar by her husband, Anthony J. Hillop, three days before he was found shot to death on June 8, 1932.

The courts have ruled the money should revert to the commonwealth through escheat. An appeal on that ruling is pending before the Pennsylvania Supreme Court.

How Many Towns In One State Can Have One Name?

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 16. (AP)—How many towns of the same name can a state handle?

That question will be put before the Pennsylvania Superior Court by a group of taxpayers of Jefferson Township, Allegheny County, who want to incorporate under the name of Jefferson.

During a hearing before Judge Russell H. Adams in quarter sessions court, it was pointed out that there already is a Jefferson in Greens County, Pa., as well as a Jefferson Borough.

On the other hand, Atty. Leo Kostman, representing the group seeking incorporation, said there already are 12 municipalities named Jefferson in the state and that one more won't make much difference.

The Rev. Oberst had returned to this country last May at government orders and had been living at the Holy Cross monastery since that time.

Sterlings Condition Said 'Little Worse'

FORT WORTH, Nov. 16. (AP)—The condition of former Gov. Ross Sterling last night was described as a "little worse."

Sterling has been in a critical condition in a hospital here for some time. He was admitted Sept. 21, and has been in oxygen tent periodically since then.

Neither was he expected to react favorably to Wiley's proposal, although the Wisconsin senator found some support for his idea among members of the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

Rep. Lawrence H. Smith (R-Wis.) told a reporter he doesn't think it would "do any harm and might do some good" for the two committees to canvass the situation.

Rep. Jarman (D-Ala.) called it a "worthwhile idea."

Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich.) of the Senate Committee declined comment.

Wiley said in a statement that the two committees, acting jointly, ought to decide whether an expanded program of American aid to China would, in effect, by-pass the United Nations.

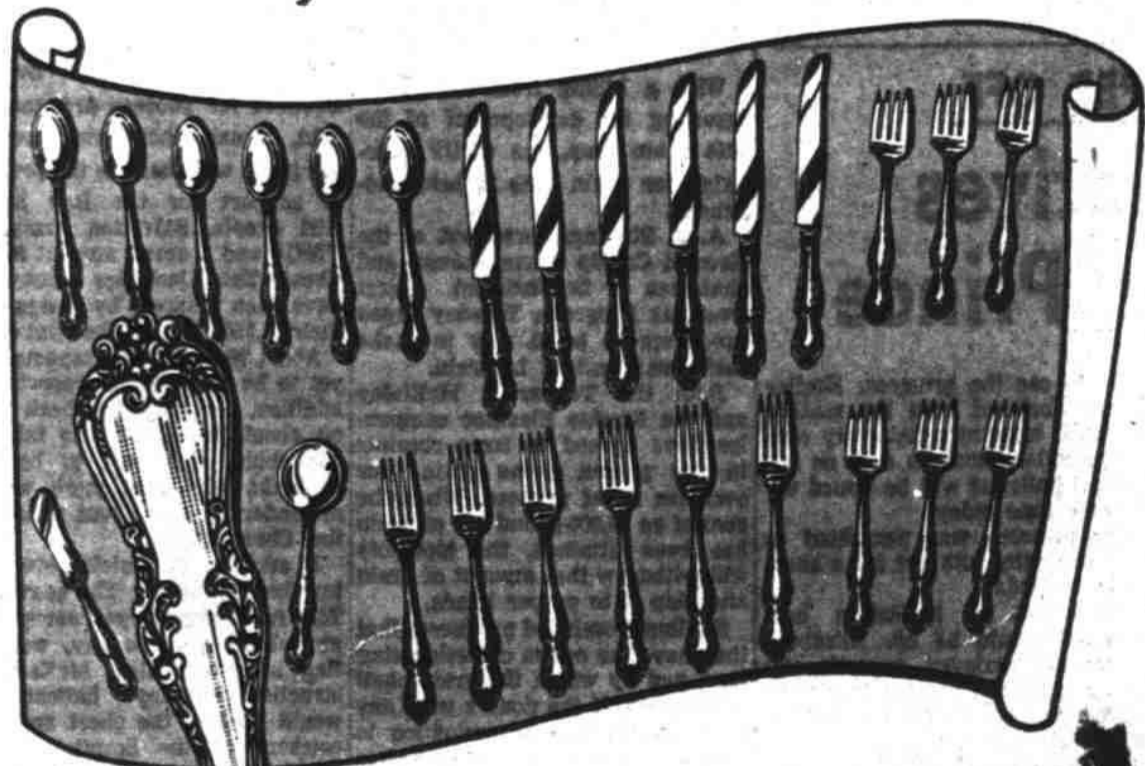

"It is my personal feeling," the Wisconsin senator said, "that the United Nations should immediately proceed to a consideration of the China crisis and that America should abide by the decision of the UN on this subject."

OFFICIAL MYSTIFIED

Flow Of Red Desertions To West Suddenly Ceases

BERLIN, Nov. 16 (AP)—U. S. army sources said Sunday they were mystified by the fact that desertions of Russian soldiers coming over to the west zone of Germany had stopped suddenly.

There had been a steady stream of deserting Russians until the end of October. British officials estimated there were about 12,000 desertions since 1945.

An allied intelligence officer offered this possible reason for the abrupt termination:

"The Russians probably have moved in new troops. When they have been around for awhile, living in compounds, and are due to go back to Russia the desertions no doubt will start up again."

Another officer said the Russians had clamped down tighter restrictions on their men. "At night, they practically lock 'em up," he said.

Since two Russian airmen flew out in a Soviet plane to desert in Vienna last month, pilots are now rationed on gasoline so they can't go far away, this allied officer said. "And the NKVD (Soviet secret police) go up in another plane and follow certain planes," he added.

Allied and Soviet commands have an agreement to return each other's deserters. But when a Russian pictures himself as a refugee it presents a problem. If it is a bona fide case, it dictates the traditional American attitude of giving haven to anyone who is oppressed.

Most of the Russians who desert provide little information to intelligence officers. The majority, ordinary privates, don't even know their regimental number. "For one to know his division is unheard of," an officer commented. "It isn't that they play cagey. They just don't know."

The highest rank picked up here in recent months was a major. The officers have a greater fund of knowledge, but have offered little of value to allied intelligence.

When a deserter is considered worth "saving" the allied authorities have a new headache. One official put it this way:

"What can we do with them? The Germans in the western zones don't want anything to do with them. If enough gather in the same community, they naturally band together and right there you have the start of at least a local problem."

Germans in the Russian zone wishing to come over to the west are even a bigger problem. There are thousands over a year's time. The allied authorities can do little about them. Obviously, they say, they can't take out of Berlin

Double Killing Clues Meager

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Nov. 16 (AP)—Law enforcement authorities today sifted meager clues in the studio slaying of Leno Lazzari, 48-year-old nationally famous decorative sculptor, and his wife, Louise, 42.

The sculptor and his second wife were found shot to death in their home at Boca Raton Sunday. Both had been shot twice.

"It looks more and more like a cold, calculated, premeditated murder," said Police Chief W. H. Brown of Boca Raton.

Powder burns indicated the couple had been shot from a distance of not more than 12 inches, according to Sheriff's Deputy Jack Simmons.

He said a shotgun belonging to Lazzari had been fired and the charge struck the refrigerator. Then the weapon was replaced in its usual spot.

Franco Lazzari, 24, was questioned for 12 hours yesterday and then released. County solicitor, W. E. Roebuck said Franco, son of the slain man by a former wife, was "above suspicion."

Communist Paper Pities New Prince

LONDON, Nov. 16 (AP)—The Communist Daily Worker said today that Princess Elizabeth's new son may have to "shed his title" and may even become a trade union member.

The Daily Worker, which carried no news stories concerning the birth of the two-day-old prince, published a Page 1 editorial headlined "That Baby."

The editorial expressed pity for one who in his future life would be "denied access to the ordinary people except as a special favor."

"Great Woman Of The Bible" Study Is Completed By Woman's Society

"Mary Magdalene" was chosen as the last in a series of lesson studies on "Great Women of the Bible" by the Rev. J. R. Maceo, rector, at the meeting of Woman's Society of St. Mary's Episcopal church Monday afternoon.

The Rev. Maceo said that "Mary Magdalene was a woman who loved much because back of this love was a soul reborn and a life who owned everything to Jesus, as Jesus had previously cast out the seven devils from her, which are to be compared with mental depravity or dementia praecox in our present day."

He further stated that "Mary Magdalene watched at the cross for six hours, was present when they sealed the tomb and was the first to go to the tomb on the Sabbath to put spices on the sacred body, therefore she was the first to recognize Christ after he had arisen, the first to learn that death does not sever and the first to receive the commission of telling a 'gospel.' 'Go tell my disciples and Peter.'"

Maceo said that "For a woman who loved much, her name is perpetuated in innumerable colleges of great institutions, hospitals and houses of refuge scattered throughout the old world."

Announcement was made that beginning the first of the year, the Rev. Maceo will conduct a series of lectures on "The Beginning of the church from the day of Pentecost to the churches in Big Spring today."

Mrs. M. H. Bennett served as hostess for the afternoon. Mrs. Frits Wehner will be the hostess at the next meeting.

Do You Really Want to Take Off That Ugly Fat?

Recently there has been a number of new reducing preparations on the market, some of them based on the diet and vitamin "plan." It is obvious that vitamins will not reduce the body weight, so one must depend on diet to reduce. But it is also obvious that one cannot go on a strenuous diet over a protracted period, and any weight lost will be restored if the former eating habits are gone back to.

So what to do? Well, here is a tip to you "overweight gals" who want to fight "the Battle of the Bulges" in a different way. Ask any well stocked drug store for four ounces of grapefruit juice and take two tablespoonful twice a day. This preparation contains nothing harmful and the makers agree to refund your money on the very first bottle if it does not show you the way to lose ugly fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves. Barcentrate is low in cost and is not based on the diet and vitamin "plan." You need never know a hungry moment while reducing with Barcentrate!

Elizabeth Bentley Reported Taking Catholic Instruction

NEW YORK, Nov. 16. (AP)—Elizabeth T. Bentley, self-styled former Communist spy reported missing for a month, is in a retreat here taking instruction in the Roman Catholic faith, the New York Daily News says. The News, in a copyrighted story, said today Miss Bentley has been in a Roman Catholic retreat in this city for about a week, and has been taking religious instruction from Msgr. Fulton J. Sheen. She formerly had been in a Catholic retreat in Hawthorne, N. Y., the News added. Miss Bentley was reported missing last Saturday by attorneys who filed a $100,000 slander suit against her. They said a month's search failed to find her. The attorneys represent William W. Remington, former Department of Commerce employe. He charges in his suit that Miss Bentley slandered him by repeating on a television program charges before a congressional committee that he had been a Communist and furnished her with vital information while he was employed by the government. Catholic spokesmen, the news said, declined to say whether Miss Bentley will be taken into the church, or whether the event already has taken place. Louis F. Budenz, one-time Communist and former managing editor of the Daily Worker, Communist Party newspaper, will be godfather at Miss Bentley's projected Catholic baptism, according to reliable sources, the News said. Budenz, now on the faculty of Fordham University, returned to the Catholic faith under Msgr. Sheen's guidance several years ago.

Collegians Will Draw Well Over Million Fans

DALLAS, Nov. 16. (AP)—Unless some of the worst weather in history sets in, the Southwest Conference should go over the million mark in football attendance for the first time. To date 26 home games have drawn better than 800,000 spectators. There are seven games to go. By maintaining the average of 29,000 per game, these seven would push the total close to 1,050,000. But three of the contests coming up will do much better than the average. Southern Methodist plays Baylor at Dallas next Saturday. Already 43,000 tickets have been sold and there are better than 20,000 more available. Probably 55,000 will be in the Cotton Bowl for this game. Nov. 25 Texas and Texas A&M meet at Austin. This game already is a sell-out of 68,000. Nov. 27 Southern Methodist plays Texas Christian at Dallas. This should attract 60,000 or more. When all returns are in prospects are that the conference will have drawn better than 1,130,000. Now the point is this: If seven schools draw that many paid admissions at more than $3.00 per head, what's the use of having night football? Obviously so many night games were scheduled the past season in order to get more fans out. The folks don't like to see games in the September day heat. The schools that had the night games drew few more fans as a result. In fact, Texas Christian, which had three night games, had a smaller average than in 1947 when the games were played in the day time. Baylor was up some but not much and would have been anyway since the team remained undefeated so long.

Athletes Know the Benefits of Heat Lamps

Electric HEAT LAMPS ARE KEYS TO BETTER LIVING

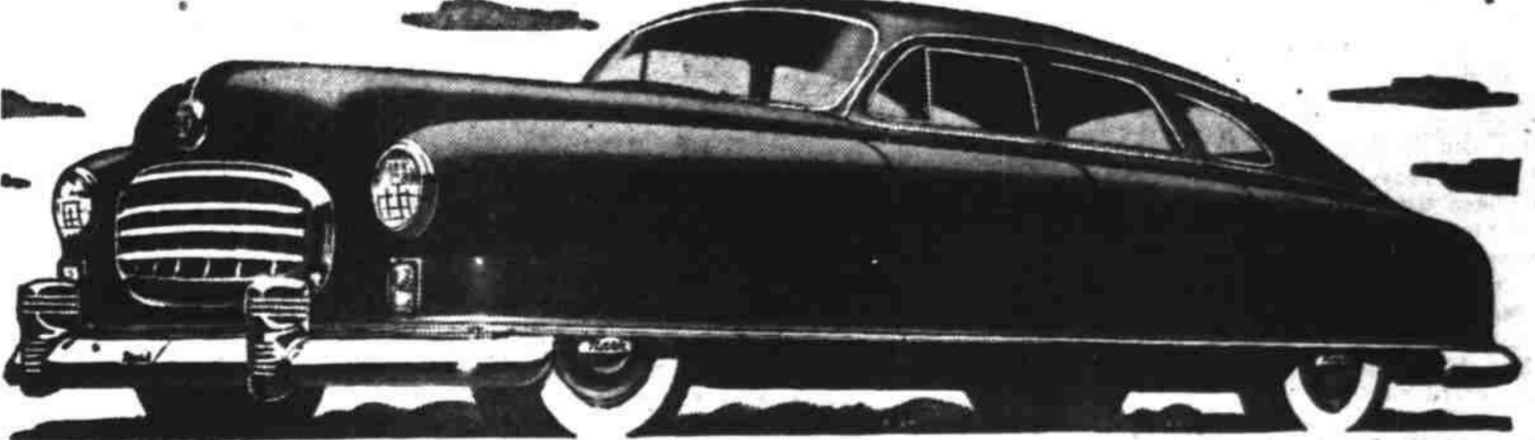

Take a tip from athletes and their coaches and trainers—they all know that one of the best ways to get quick relief from muscular aches and pains is by applying the relaxing, soothing heat of an electric heat lamp. Sore and stiff muscles, strained ligaments or more severe sprains all react to the penetrating heat of heat lamps.

Electric heat lamps have many other uses around the home, too. For example, they dry fingernail polish, paints and lacquers rapidly. And best of all, they fit any standard lamp socket. No special stands or holders are needed, unless you prefer them.

Appliance stores, department stores and furniture stores have electric heat lamps available now.

1107 EAST THIRD

We Are Divorced From Our Old Friends Without Consultation

After all these years in district 3 (and 3-AA) of the interscholastic league, we now are informed that the four eastern members (Big Spring, Sweetwater, San Angelo, and Abilene) are to be joined by Brownwood in comprising district 5AA. This automatically divorces us from our old friends of past years in Midland, Odessa, and Lamesa, and it is to be hoped that we may maintain a degree of relationship on schedules with them.

Whether the new arrangement will work out as satisfactorily for us as in the past, we do not know. From a gate standpoint, it may not be helpful since the degree of fan support at Odessa has helped maintain equilibrium in points with less successful teams. From a competitive point it ought to make little difference, for over a long stretch of time,

Status Of Our Road Program Needs Some Active Inquiry

The status of our highway program appears to be quiet.

While a lateral road program under the 75-25 arrangement with the state highway department is in the planning stage and may be expected to emerge in definite and active form before long, no such encouragement appears on the horizon in relation to the farm or ranch highways stemming out from here.

The so-called Snyder road extends a dozen miles in a northwesterly direction to give convenient and effective passage to those in proximity to it. But then it suddenly ends, although Howard county has for more than two years had the right-of-way ready to the county line. Inquiries of the state highway department have not thus far received reassuring answers. Usually they elicit the informa-

San Angelo, Sweetwater and Brownwood ought to provide about as trying a test as Odessa, Midland, Lubbock, Lamesa and Brownfield, the membership of 3-AA.

Heretofore we have been in the center of the district and naturally enjoyed travel advantages. Now we are on the western extremity and this will have trips up to 150 or 175 miles in getting to Brownwood.

However, it is really too early to sing praises or heap condemnation upon the move. The most serious question might be directed against the wisdom of setting up the big-city loop, which, in turn, necessitates a partitioning of the AA districts. As a matter of pride, nobody seems to have been consulted, but perhaps consultation would have produced only great debate and abundant confusion.

Somewhat the same condition prevails on the routing toward Lenora in Martin county, where junction might be made with roads leading back to Stanton, west to Andrews, and north to Lamesa. The right-of-way is ready and waiting for something to be done. It would not at all be amiss for the highway department to be informed of our anxiety about these projects.

tion that the routing in Scurry county is indefinite. Moreover, we are told, the department desires to follow a policy of building from both ends more or less simultaneously. While due allowance may be made for policies, it seems to us that Howard county is due consideration on its investment in the right-of-way. Moreover, this road is daily assuming more importance to both county seats and the intermediate territory.

Somewhat the same condition prevails on the routing toward Lenora in Martin county, where junction might be made with roads leading back to Stanton, west to Andrews, and north to Lamesa. The right-of-way is ready and waiting for something to be done. It would not at all be amiss for the highway department to be informed of our anxiety about these projects.

Help Given For Those Who Want To Know U. S. History

WASHINGTON, D. C. — DO YOU EVER wish you knew more about American history?

A man I know—he's about 35 and had been through a university—recently told me he knows practically nothing about American history.

He told me: "I had some in school but I forgot it. Now I've reached that point where I want to know how we got where we are and why."

He's laying out a reading program for himself. He works and has a family. And he said:

"Come January, I'll start. It may take me years to get all I want. That is all right. There's no rush."

"I'll read whenever I can, at night at home after work, or on weekends. And I'll take time out for other reading. But I'll plug away at history."

HE WROTE TO SIX OR SEVEN UNIVERSITIES, asking the professors for guidance. They sent him big lists of books.

(He could have found those same lists, the bibliographies, by himself in the back of a few outstanding books—but he didn't know those books.)

The lists covered the whole field of American history and living. Some dealt in a broad and general way, some in only one phase or period.

After juggling over the lists, this man decided:

"I'll start with a general history covering everything: Politics, economics, wars, thinking, foreign affairs, social development."

"That will give me a broad view. I need that to begin with. It will fit all the little pieces together."

"After that I can go off in any direction. I can read the books that expand the little pieces like the civil war period, or the new deal, or the Puritan influence, or the rise of the trusts. Or I can read the biographies. I can dip into anything after I get the board view."

MAYBE YOU WOULD LIKE TO DO what this man is going to do. And maybe you're puzzled to know where or how to start.

So the following books are given here

Battle Of Tunisia Taught Nazis Must Be Outnumbered

NEW YORK, N. Y. — THE BATTLE OF Tunisia, combat forge of the modern American army, is six years and a world away.

Now in November it seems far off and long ago indeed.

The issues fought out in the six-month campaign in that patch of North African wasteland and desert now are almost forgotten in the sweep of new world events.

But the men who fought and survived in Tunisia can never forget it. They remember it as the land where they lost their youth—and learned the bitter duty of men in war.

On this date in 1942—only a week after they landed—the troops were still full of the wonderment of Africa.

Hope was high in everyone. Algiers and Casablanca had fallen in a three-day skirmish with the French. Tunisia looked like it might be almost as easy.

AT THIS TIME THE TROOPS WERE so confident of quick victory in Europe they would have laughed if you had told them it was three invasions and almost three years away. But the old professional soldiers knew better.

"We'll be lucky if it's all over by 1947," said a colonel who had fought in the first world war.

And then the Army ran into its first real foreign mud—and its first real Germans. The Germans came by ship and plane and heavier tanks than the allies had, and they threw the allies back from Tunisia.

The war settled into a wintry stalemate. And both British and Americans learned with a shock that courage and a democratic tradition weren't enough to defeat a Nazi in a heavily-armed tank.

Truman Will Try To Build Up Man To Succeed Him In The Presidency

(Copyright 1948 by Bell Syndicate)

WASHINGTON—President Truman is doing some real soul-searching about the man who is to be his new Secretary of State. White House intimates say he has two things in mind:

1. The most important issue facing the entire country is peace, and Truman has got to find the No. 1 man in the country to solve it.
2. He doesn't want to make the mistake Franklin Roosevelt did of not building up new blood for the presidency. Therefore, if the man he picks as Secretary of State is able to iron out the tangled state of the world, he would be Truman's logical successor in 1952.

The man tops on Truman's list—if he were not chief justice of the United States—is his old friend Fred Vinson. Once before, Vinson was asked to step down from an important judicial post—the court of appeals—to take over the thankless job of economic stabilizer. And unquestionably, if Truman asked him to be would step down again.

However, rather than ask Vinson to make this sacrifice, the President is considering Justice William O. Douglas, 48 years old, with a great record on the Securities and Exchange Commission, and a man whom FDR himself recommended side-by-side with Truman as presidential timber.

So keep an eye on Bill Douglas as the next secretary of State.

T-H LAW COMES SECOND

The Fair Labor Standards Act—not the Taft-Hartley law—will get first attention from the new Democratic congress, according to Sen. Elbert Thomas of Utah who will succeed Sen. Robert Taft as chairman of the Senate Labor Committee.

The scholarly Mormon ex-missionary points out that the 80th Congress not only passed the Taft-Hartley law but crippled the Fair Labor Standards Act, which affects 20,000,000 unorganized workers. He believes these 20 million need legislative help ahead of the 15 million organized workers who oppose the Taft-Hartley law. Thomas is determined, however, that there will be no undue delay in tackling the Taft-Hartley law. But noting reports that Labor Secretary Maurice Tobin is preparing to rewrite the labor laws, Thomas emphasized that his committee, not the Labor Department, will do the rewriting.

NOTE—Sen. Thomas has a consistent, pro-labor voting record in the Senate.

JENNER COOLS OFF

Humbled by Democratic victory, GOP senators, once hell-bent on probing senatorial elections from Tennessee to Texas pulled in their horns last week and spoke loftily of "nonpartisan investigations."

A few days earlier, fire-breathing GOP Chairman Bill Jenner of Indiana was screaming fraud against certain democratic candidates, and his investigators, one of them the law partner of Ku Klux Klanman Bob Lyons, has gone on a rampage in Oklahoma and Texas.

It was a much subdued Sen. Jenner, however, who reviewed these same cases at a closed-door session of the elections subcommittee. It wouldn't be necessary to hold hearings after all, said the gentleman from Indiana, but would turn complete reports over to the Democrats who inherit the committee.

against Johnson's opponents. Elsewhere, the committee had not even received formal affidavits to back up the complaints against Senators-elect Clinton Anderson in New Mexico and Estes Kefauver in Tennessee.

The file was also opened on Sen. Harley Kilgore of West Virginia, whose election has been under investigation for two long years. It showed irregularities on both sides in the backwoods districts of West Virginia.

NOTE—What Republicans are worried about is that the Democrats will really dig into the Michigan election returns of their colleague Sen. Homer Ferguson.

TRUMAN TROUBLES

Although the democratic election sweep may stop the GOP-led Senate Expenditures Committee from skeleton hunting in the administration's closets, President Truman won't be able to breathe easily long.

For the Senate Expenditures Committee will be inherited by democratic senators never friendly to Truman. In the order of seniority, they are:

Senators John McClellan of Arkansas, James Eastland of Mississippi, and out-and-out Dixiecrat, Clyde Hoey of North Carolina, who has voted against most key Truman policies, Glen Taylor of Idaho, Henry Wallace's vice-presidential running-mate, A. Willis Robertson of Virginia, a member of the anti-Truman Byrd machine, and Herbert O'Connor of Maryland, a Republican.

These are the Democrats who will now be charged with keeping an eye on the executive departments.

Bing Crosby To Resume His Singing For Wax

HOLLYWOOD, N. Y.—The nation's top record star, Bing Crosby, expects to resume singing for wax this week.

The groaner tells me he'll probably be recording again in a few days, although the deal awaits the go-ahead signal from the East. It would be the first disc he had made since the Petrillo ban went into effect Jan. 1.

Big plans to be through with with "Top O' the morning" before Christmas and he'll spend the holidays at his new Pebble Beach home. Three of his sons are attending high school up there at nearby Santa Clara.

Bob Hope says he is looking for a place in his picture for Bing's usual guest appearance. It's a shipboard film and Bob says "maybe we can find a small trunk somewhere." Bob is mulling "My Favorite Redhead" or "A Date with the Duchess" to replace the "Easy Does It" title. He wants to inject some romance in the film's handle.

Sterling Hayden is happy about going right from "El Paso" to "Betrayed." "I've done some pretty foolish things—shot off my mouth and been pretty stupid in a splashy way," he says, referring to his initial attitude toward his film career. "Now I'm getting satisfaction out of acting."

Nearly Everyone Has Desire To Write For Publication

Everyone seems to have, at least, one common ambition—that of being a writer. Whether it's the person that thinks he has written the great American novel or one who has never written a line as far as anyone else knows, nearly everyone will admit that at one time or another he has wanted to put something on paper that others would want to read. The terrible truth is that few people gain as much as being a good letter writer. But, come to think about it, maybe that takes more skill than writing a novel.

Fortunately for the newsprint shortage and the poor publishers, most of our promising authors never attempt to get into print. Most people forget the whole idle dream and go into a business that provides the ware-with to have something to eat and a place to sleep. A few of those who are left over go into the newspaper business and wonder why anyone who can pull so many boners would ever think they could make writing a successful career or they take a look at the boners the experts pull and wonder why they are not in a class with the famous.

Incidentally, we're not trying to lower the prestige of newspaper people, far from that, but someone told us that this was National Book Week and we were thinking of authors in the book class. We happen to be writing a book, too. Started it sometime last year and we recently arrived at page five. Just thought we would drop that bit of information because we expect to finish about 10 pages a year. The final page count is expected to be around 350 and they will really compose the great American novel to end all novels. So stick around till about 1950 and if old age or the Atom bomb haven't gotten you by then, we might let you look over this famous masterpiece and help select a title. But, we don't advise you to stop reading until then. — MILDRED YOUNG

Bolshevism Aims At Limit To Rights Of Individuals

AP NEWSFEATURE

THOSE WHO ESPOUSE THE BELIEF that Communism will blow up in due course because of its undemocratic structure (and they are many) have received plenty of encouragement for this view in the efforts of the 58-nation social committee of the United Nations Assembly in Paris to draw up a charter of human rights.

Progress in writing this document has been marked by a fierce battle between Russia and the anti-Communist nations. The efforts of the Muscovites have been aimed at limiting the rights of the individual and making him a puppet of the state.

In order to understand the significance of this, it is essential that we recognize the structure of present day Communism. A lot of people have the mistaken idea that the current Communism is the same mild and beneficent ideology of long ago which laid down a humanitarian code of one for all and all for one. There is small relationship between today's Communism and the original brand.

THE CURRENT SO-CALLED COMMUNISM is Bolshevism. It is a cold-blooded philosophy of totalitarian dictatorship in which the individual is wholly subservient to the state—a cog in a machine. It is an ism which expands by strong-arm aggression.

Soviet Delegate Alexei Pavlov is on the social committee—and he has fought doggedly for the totalitarian code. For example, he sought to delete freedom of religion from the declaration of human rights.

The Russian position in this argument about religion is easy to understand. One of the cardinal tenets of Bolshevism is that religion is the opiate of the masses and must be destroyed. The reason is obvious: A religious person can't subscribe to the evils of aggression and totalitarianism. Hitler followed a similar line with his totalitarian Nazism. He tried his best to destroy religion in Germany.

Another hot fight has been waged in the social committee over freedom of speech and of the press. An article upholding these freedoms was adopted with the Soviet bloc voting solidly against it.

Matter Of Fact — Joseph And Stewart Alsop

Raise In Taxes Seem To Be Inevitable In Near Future

(Copyright 1948 by N. Y. Herald-Tribune Syndicate)

WASHINGTON—One of the penalties of President Truman's stirring victory is that he must go on doing the dirty jobs of government. And it now seems all too likely that raising taxes is going to be the first and foremost among these unpleasant tasks. In fact, if the President pays his customary attention to his expert advisers, he will ask the Congress to raise something like the huge total of five billion dollars of additional government revenue.

Treasury and Budget officials are not making any public statements on higher taxes. Yet, as they point out privately, the facts speak for themselves. It is worth noting that they would have spoken just as loudly to Governor Thomas E. Dewey as to President Truman. For the facts are both simple and inescapable.

In this fiscal year the Truman-vetoed tax cut will cost the government, according to the estimates of the Council of Economic Advisers, upwards of five billion dollars. As a consequence, the Treasury will run into the red by an estimated billion and a half dollars. Every economist, from left to right, agrees that such deficit financing in boom times is economic insanity. And the hard fact is that next year, unless the most important commitments of the United States are to be brisley tossed into the ashcan, government expenditures are sure to be sharply increased.

The chief areas of increase can be briefly listed. The greatest increases derive, of course, from fear of Soviet aggression. Defense spending, which now accounts for about thirty percent of the load on the taxpayers, will have to be boosted by an absolute minimum of a billion dollars—and the budget experts agree that if the boost can be held to a billion a miracle will have been achieved.

Now that the goods are in the pipelines and the checks are actually being written, the European Recovery Program is likely to cost the Treasury about a half billion dollars more next year. Rearmament of Western Europe is clearly in prospect. The lowest guess for the first year's cost is a billion dollars, and the final figure is almost certain to be more than this.

To this, add China. It is becoming daily more clear that the United States can either apathetically accept the appalling catastrophe of a China totally dominated by the Kremlin, or can make a great effort to avert the catastrophe. Some such effort is almost certain to be made, and there is no doubt that it will be costly.

At home, there are two lesser areas of probable increase. The farm support program may well run into the hundreds of millions, depending on the size of crops and the world agricultural market. Moreover, the President is committed to a program in the social security, housing, health and education fields which, according to a preliminary estimate by the Council of Economic Advisers, should cost about an extra half billion dollars. Against all these increases, only comparatively small savings, especially in tax refunds and veterans' expenditures, are possible.

Thus it is obvious that unless the country is to invite disaster by operating deeply in the red, a tab of several billion dollars in increased taxes is going to have to be picked up by somebody. Who is it to be?

To that question there is among the experts a pretty unanimous answer—the corporations. The community property provision of the new tax law will not be repealed. The high-income brackets may have to carry an extra load. But the fact is that as regards the rich, the cow may not be exactly dry, but there is not enough milk left to fill the huge pail. That leaves the corporations, currently enjoying the highest profits in history.

There is as yet no agreement on what form increased corporation taxes are to take. There are in the government two schools of thought. One school favors an excess profits tax. The chief objection is that a peace-time excess profits tax will tend to freeze the economy, to the disadvantage of the small business man. The second school favors a simple increase in the graduated tax on profits. The objection here is that such an increase will add fuel to inflationary fire, since producers will tend to hand on the tax in increased prices to the bedeviled consumer.

Inherent in both forms if increased taxation is the danger that business men will angrily respond by cutting expansion and other commitments to the bone, bringing the specter of depression out of the wings, to front and center stage. Yet the fact remains that the vast bulk of government spending is now essentially a response to Soviet pressure. No one likes high taxes. Yet it is difficult to see how very high taxes can be avoided, unless this country is simply to fold its hands in these menacing times and hope for the best while falling to prepare for the worst. If Governor Dewey knew any other alternative to high taxes, he never revealed it.

Argentina Considers A 29 Mile Bridge

BUENOS AIRES, N. Y.—If congress agrees, Argentina may make history with a bridge 29 miles long.

Deputy Teodoro Saravia, a government supporter from the inland province of Jujuy, proposed a bridge across the River Plate estuary. It would connect Argentina and Uruguay and eliminate a four-hour ferry trip. The proposed bridge would be supported on piles 12 or 15 feet above the waters of the shallow estuary. Where it crosses the main ship channels, there would be lift bridges.

Saravia's bill did not estimate the cost or say how heavy piers for the lift sections could rest on the mud bottom.

Boogie-Woogie Pianist Won't Play To Segregated Audience

AUSTIN, Nov. 16. (AP)—Famed boogie-woogie pianist Hazel Scott refused to appear here last night before a segregated audience. "What justification can anyone have who comes to hear me and then objects to sitting next to another Negro," the pianist told a reporter for the Austin American. Miss Scott was billed to appear at Gregory Gymnasium on the campus of the University of Texas. The show, sponsored by the university's cultural entertainment committee, was a sell-out with 7,000 seats sold. The Negro artist's appearance was cancelled and money was being refunded. Dr. Archie Jones, faculty advisor of the committee, told the Associated Press that "nothing was mentioned in the contract with Miss Scott's management regarding race segregation." "We feel that this is very unfortunate, not only from the point of view of the cancelled concert, but because it is a stumbling block in the way of inter-race relations which had seemed to be progressing favorably," Dr. Jones said. "We do not blame Miss Scott for her attitude but feel that she could have done her race more good by playing the concert." The first official announcement of the cancellation from the university's cultural entertainment committee said the show was called off because Miss Scott was ill and unable to appear. Miss Scott told reporters she was ill with a sinus headache, but that was not all. She said she arrived here yesterday morning expecting to appear before a non-segregated audience and upon finding that members of her race would be segregated, she declined to appear. The pianist said she had understood she would stay at the Halstead House, a co-op dormitory on the university campus, but that on arrival she was told there were no vacancies. She was entertained in the home of a Negro dentist.

Grange Urges U. N. World Police Force

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 11 (AP)—The National Grange convention was asked by one of its committees today to urge creation of an international police force to preserve world order.

Such a government, the committee said, should be under control of a greatly-strengthened United Nations.

The Grange Committee on National Welfare declared in a report that it "appears now that some kind of limited world government" may be necessary to maintain peace.

The convention will act on the report later in the week. Such a government, the welfare committee said, should have a legislative body to enact laws related to world peace, a world court to interpret the laws and a police force to enforce them.

The committee expressed the view that the United Nations, as now set up, cannot assure peace. It also said that this country's preparedness program does not offer a solution of world problems.

The committee said the United States should take the lead in securing a revision of the UN Charter that would greatly limit use of the veto. Only those UN actions clearly relate to the internal affairs and sovereignty of nations should be subject to the veto, it said.

Endorsement of the Marshall aid plan for Europe also was recommended.

On domestic issues, the committee proposed that the Grange favor only such modifications in the Taft-Hartley labor law "as may be necessary to correct abuses for weaknesses that are shown to exist." It did not say what those weaknesses might be.

It opposed congressional proposals to place state militias under federal control.

It urged state ratification of a proposed constitutional amendment limiting Presidents and vice presidents to two four-year terms. The convention also was asked to favor statehood for Alaska, and to work for continued civilian control of atomic energy.

Abilene Eagles To Field Heavy Club Here Friday

Flock Boasts Win Over 'Dogs'

Still trying for that first victory in 3AA play, the Big Spring Steers are hard at work these days, preparing for the invasion of the Abilene Eagles.

The War Birds, buffeted about on conference seas this season but able to navigate much better than the Steers to date, come to town Friday night for their engagement with the Longhorns.

Pete Shotwell, the Abilene mentor, will be able to field a team quite a bit heavier than the Longhorns. One of Shotwell's tackles weighs in at 210, the other at 190. One guard tips the beams at a very respectable 180. The other linemen are smaller but by very little.

Lyndon Grant, Don Turner, Scottie Holland and Bill Galusha give the Abilene team a lot of balance in the secondary. Too, the Flock is supposed to be deep in reserves. Abilene knocked over Midland, 20-6, several weeks ago, the same Midland club that pounded Big Spring last weekend, 37-0. So the weather looks grey for Big Spring.

The game will be the last home engagement for the Longhorns. They finish out in Sweetwater on Thanksgiving Day.

PORT ARTHUR FIRST IN POLL

DALLAS, Nov. 16. (U. S. — Lamar and Milby, two unbeaten, one-sided powers in the Houston district of the City Conference, climbed into the top ten teams of Texas school-boy football.

Sportswriters participating in the Dallas News' pool voted Lamar ninth and Milby tenth.

Port Arthur stayed in first place, followed by Amarillo, Waco, Baytown and Odessa.

Texarkana jumped from seventh to sixth and Austin from eighth to seventh. Arlington Heights (Fort Worth) moved from tenth position to eighth.

The top eleven and the points received in the balloting:

1. Port Arthur (173).
2. Amarillo (153).
3. Waco (138).
4. Baytown (119).
5. Odessa (90).
6. Texarkana (87).
7. Austin (50).
8. Arlington Heights of Fort Worth (44).
9. Lamar of Houston (28).
10. Milby of Houston (21).

The second ten: 11 - Breckenridge, 12 - Henderson, 13 - Sweetwater, 14 - Wichita Falls, 15 - tie between Thomas Jefferson of San Antonio and Kerrville, 17 - tie between Palestine, Highland Park, Denison and Childress.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

When Big Spring high school opens its 1949 football schedule, it becomes a part of District 5AA, the third different conference with which it has been associated in its 21 years in Class AA ball.

When the Steers made the switch from what was then Class B to Class A competition back in 1928, it was admitted to the old Oil Belt league, which had such elevens as Breckenridge, Brownwood and Mineral Wells as members. (The A classification was shortly changed to AA).

Later, District 3AA was organized with three schools—Sweetwater, San Angelo and Big Spring—as members. Each played the other twice during the campaigning. Colorado City and McCamey made the jump for a couple of years but then dropped back a notch. The league was destined to take on Lamesa, Odessa, Midland and Abilene as members in the middle '30's.

FORSAN BUFFS THIRSTING FOR COMPETITION

The Forsan six-man football team has evigently become so potent, no other team in this section wants to challenge its position as the top club in the abbreviated sport in this area.

Coch Frank Honeycutt has been trying to book a practice game for something like ten days now but hasn't been successful. It appears the Buffaloes will have to sit it out until the bi-district game with Union Nov. 26.

LOCAL SHINE BOY PLAYED WITH SATCH PAIGE

Henry Daniels, a local shine-boy, played baseball for something like 17 years and might have been playing yet had he not developed shapley horses in his legs.

Three of those seasons he was a team mate to Satch Paige, the great Negro hurler, on the Kansas City Monarchs. Daniels also played against John Gibson, the late, great Negro catcher.

MELILLO DISCOVERED RAMSDELL, WE WERE TOLD

We see where Jack Knott, the erstwhile Dallas baseball scout who resigned recently to take a job as a big league scout, is taking credit for having discovered Henry Ramsdell, the one-time Midland outfielder who had a great 1948 season with Ogden in the Pioneer league.

We always thought Eddie Melillo brought Hank to Midland with him from Illinois and talked Harold Webb into signing him on.

LOOP TO GET LATE START DUE TO WEATHER

The Longhorn baseball league will open its season a week later next season than last, close a week later, all because of the elements. The weather is rather tricky around here up into May but once it does settle down, it's good as late as November.

The late start means that the playoffs won't be out of the way until World Series' time, or thereabouts.

Longhorn league hitting will probably pick up again next year because of the adoption of the Rawlings ball. The new pellet isn't as lively as the Goldsmith model employed two years ago but has more leedty, Coleman NOT DUE TO RETURN AS MANAGERS

The story is going about that Al Leedy may not be back as manager of the San Angelo baseball Colts next year, that Merle Coleman is probably through as the Odessa pilot. Six of the clubs are uncertain as to their managers.

In short, the only skippers who are sure of their positions for 1949 are Pat Stacey of Our Town and Harold Webb of Midland. Each owns part or all of his team.

Joe Cambria, the Washington ivory hunter, is due to visit here in a week or so. He's sure to be check full of baseball news.

Members of the Longhorn league's All-Star teams (East and West) are being forwarded their jackets. Pepper Martin, who made the Eastern squad, picked his up in San Angelo over the weekend.

When the San Francisco '49ers of the All-America Conference dump the New York football Yankees 41-0 this season, it was the first shutout the Yankees had suffered since early 1946.

Most Southwest Grid 11's Free Of Injuries

By The Associated Press

Gloomy weather yesterday didn't match moods at Southwest Conference football camps. Most reported injury-free squads.

Biggest exception was at Arkansas, where it was reported Clyde Scott will miss this week's tilt with Tulsa and possibly next week's game with William and Mary.

Scott tore a ligament early in the Southern Methodist game last week.

Wet, dismal weather kept Southern Methodist gridgers out of uniform yesterday, but there was no gloom on the Hilltop campus. Doak Walker and Gilbert Johnson are okeh.

Walker, injured slightly in the Arkansas tilt, and Johnson, bothered with bad knee ailments, were expected to be in good shape by game time against Baylor this week.

Back Frank Payne, who received a hip injury last week, may miss the Baylor tilt, however.

Down at Austin, Coach Blair Cherry gave his University of Texas Longhorns a holiday and promised only a review of game pictures today. The Longhorns came out of the rough Texas Christian tilt last week in top shape. They have more than a week to get ready for their annual Thanksgiving Day game with Texas A&M.

Bumps and bruises were the only injuries at Texas Christian. Coach Duleh Meyer gave his gridgers a blackboard talk as the Horned Frogs started preparing for the Rice tilt this week.

By The Associated Press

Gil Johnson, Southern Methodist's mighty pitcher, is the man of the hour in Southwest Conference football.

Gimlet Gil, whose passes have carried SMU to victory after victory, was the fellow who paid off Saturday when the Methodists advanced within one step of the Cotton Bowl by beating Arkansas 14-13 in the last second of play. His pass to Paul Page from the Arkansas 16-yard line furnished the winning margin.

The passing he did against the Razorbacks kept him well in the lead among the pitchers of the Southwest Conference for the season. Gil now has completed 60 out of 93 throws for an average of .645. Those passes also have eaten up 834 yards.

Johnson, who has a trick knee which "locks" on him at times, has hobbled out there and thrown for eight touchdowns.

Johnson also has the distinction of being second in yards lost among backfield men in the conference. The reason is that he never runs with the ball and losses on pass attempts are charged against him. So Johnson to date has a minus 59 yards as a "ball-carrier."

The No. 1 back along this line is Paul Campbell of Texas who has a minus 113.

Campbell is the second top passer in the conference. He has connected on 50 out of 119 for 786 yards and four touchdowns.

The total offense leader still is Lindy Berry of Texas Christian, who has gained 1,253 yards on 245 plays. He has rolled up 579 on 148 carries and gained 674 yards on 117 passes. Second in total offense is Clyde Scott of Arkansas with 868 yards on 115 plays.

Scott also is the leading ground-gainer with 670 yards on 95 carries. Ray Borneman of Texas is second with 612 on 84 runs.

Doak Walker of Southern Methodist tops the punters with an average of 43.4 yards on 23 kicks. Second is Gordon Long of Arkansas with 38.6 on 20 boots.

George Sims of Baylor leads the punt-returners with 303 yards on 12 runs. Long is second with 184 on eight.

In pass-receiving Morris Bailey, Texas Christian wingman, leads with 28 catches for 518 yards. Walker is second with 11 for 355 yards.

In team offense Texas leads with 2,802 yards in nine games compared to 2,588 for Southern Methodist in eight. Texas leads in rushing with 1,831 yards and Southern Methodist in passing with 1,203.

T&P Leader Says Courtesy Pays Individual Dividends

Courtesy pays dividends, even to the individual employee, W. T. Alexander, division superintendent, told Texas & Pacific Railway company operations men here today.

"This is your railroad as well as mine," declared Alexander at the opening meeting of a two-day "courtesy clinic" conducted for conductors, brakemen, baggage men, engineers, firemen and porters at the Settles hotel Tuesday morning. Seventy-six participated in the first session. The second is scheduled for 10 a. m. Wednesday at the Settles.

Alexander pointed out that railroads are "no different from any other concern engaged in the business of selling its product. We have only one thing to sell and that is transportation—freight and passenger."

Nothing, he said, sells itself, and nothing is as effective in selling as courtesy. Accordingly, everyone on a passenger train is an "ambassador for good will," he said. From the individual employe the patrons of the railroad form their opinions of the railroad, even to the engineers and firemen who can give good impressions through smooth handling of trains.

The superintendent, J. O. Frakes, Dallas, electrical engineer, and W. G. Harris, Dallas, assistant general passenger agent, gave practical tips to the men on how to improve the comfort of passengers and to give them a feeling of hospitality. Contacts made with passengers often mean satisfactory relations in freight movements, speakers pointed out.

Practice of courtesy is a great HSU May Play In Odessa Game

ODESSA, Nov. 16. (AP) — Odessa's shrine club has approached Hardin-Simmons and Texas Mines of El Paso to appear in the benefit Permian Bowl game here 'New Year's Day.

W. A. Miller said he had conferred with officials of the two Border Conference schools and had been quoted guarantee figures not out of line with what the local group could offer.

The two football teams battled to a 27-27 tie in El Paso Oct. 30. The bowl game is a charity benefit for Permian Basin children.

Three Traffic Mishaps Recorded

Three minor traffic mishaps late Monday and early today caused some damage to motor vehicles but resulted in no personal injuries to passengers, the police department reported this morning.

J. L. Milnes and Wesley A. Prescott, Jr. were drivers of vehicles figuring in a mishap in the 800 block of Main street, while cars driven by Mrs. Adrian Vaughan and John M. Hamilton were involved in another in the 900 block of Main. Both occurred at about 5:45 p. m. Monday.

A car driven by C. W. Miles of Colorado City collided with a horse early this morning at Sixth and Gregg streets, officers reported.

schooling in self control, T&P employes were told, for "the courteous man must think of others as well as himself." Cleanliness of equipment, efficient operation of comfort facilities; personal appearance were stressed.

Dealing with customers come back to the individual employe indirectly but surely, Alexander declared. "Your prosperity and mine and our job security are dependent entirely upon the prosperity of our company," he said, adding that this in no small measure resulted in the friendships that were created through pleasant service.

A film "By Jupiter," was projected by Bill Lynde, Dallas, public relations staff, to demonstrate the value of courtesy. Among guests were Doug Orme, vice-president and traffic manager for Coder Petroleum Corp., and W. T. Orme, assistant traffic manager of Coderen.

AFTER SMITH CHARGES

Nimitz Defends Tarawa Capture

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15. (AP) — The capture of Tarawa at a cost of nearly 1,000 American lives, was "very necessary" to defeat Japan, says Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, adding:

"I owe it to the parents of the men who died there to protest strongly against any statement that the capture of Tarawa was an 'unnecessary operation.'"

That was what Marine Gen. Holland M. (Howling Mad) Smith had called it in a recent Saturday Evening Post article: "Unnecessary." He said the island should have been bypassed. Gen. Smith's article was an excerpt from a forthcoming book.

Adm. Nimitz said at a news conference yesterday he wasn't trying to sell any books; he just wanted to refute such statements. To drive toward Japan, he told the newsmen, the United States forces had to take the Marshall, Caroline and Mariana chains of islands. And to get these islands, they had to have control of the air. To this, he said, Tarawa was "the key."

Tarawa, he emphasized, "began our offensive move across the Pacific; it enabled us to do some bypassing once we got a toe hold there."

NEW YORK, Nov. 16. — With only one more game to play, Michigan has taken a commanding lead in the race to be named the best football team of the year.

The Wolverines moved more than 200 points ahead of runner up Notre Dame by grabbing 130 first place votes in the weekly Associated Press poll of football writers and broadcasters.

They had a total of 1,932 points compared with 1,721 for the Irish, who led at the end of the regular season vote last year.

Army is in third place with 1,426 and California in fourth with 1,288. North Carolina, with 1,034, climbed from sixth to fifth on the strength of its smashing victory over Maryland.

Completing the first ten, in order, are Penn State, Northwestern, Oklahoma, Clemson and Southern Methodist.

The mighty men of Michigan grew in prestige by swamping Indiana, 54-0, Saturday while their main challengers, Notre Dame and Army, were abdicating through in the hardest way.

The Irish had to rally late to beat out Northwestern, 12-7, while the Cadets won in the last 30 seconds over Pennsylvania, 26-20.

The extent that the Wolverines rose in favor is reflected in the distribution of first place votes. Notre Dame, which had the largest batch of these, last week, received only 27 compared with Michigan's 130.

The point standings on a 10-8-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis (first place votes in parentheses):

- 1. Michigan (130) 1,932
- 2. Notre Dame (27) 1,721
- 3. Army (3) 1,426
- 4. California (16) 1,288
- 5. North Carolina (11) 1,034
- 6. Penn State (3) 883
- 7. Northwestern (2) 652
- 8. Oklahoma (5) 471
- 9. Clemson (9) 466
- 10. Southern Methodist 440
- 11. Georgia (2) 292; 12. Michigan State (2) 189; 13. Oregon 187; 14. Tulane 172; 15. Minnesota 69; 16. Pennsylvania 60; 17. Mississippi 50; 18. Ohio State 25; 19. Cornell 20; 20. Georgia Tech 16.

Truman Tells AFL Labor Department Will Be Enlarged

Mr. Truman made no mention of the recent election or the part played by organized labor in it. However, he sent his congratulations to President William Green and expressed regret that he could not attend in person to discuss "the tremendous challenge that faces us both at home and abroad today."

NEW YORK, Nov. 16. (AP) — May be it's the inflation, maybe not—but college football is headed for its greatest offensive year in history.

When the curtain rings down in the next few weeks, the campaign will have produced the highest scores, most touchdowns, most passes and most total yards of any season since the sport was introduced the middle of the last century.

At the rate they're going, the major college teams are going to rack up 2,000 points more than last year, which was the best scoring season on record.

The National Collegiate Athletic Bureau, which keeps track of such things, says the 121 colleges listed in the major class have scored 17,432 points in 954 games so far. Last year's total—which is a dead goaling—was 18,653. Teams are averaging 18.27 points a game compared with last year's 16.7.

There are 191 games to go. A new record is bound to be set in touchdown production. In 1947 there were 2,775. So you can count on at least 300 more TD's than ever before.

Field goals already have topped last year's all-time high of 38. There have been 41 of the three-pointers.

The greater number of touchdowns naturally has brought an equivalent greater number of extra points. But point-kicking proficiency also has improved. Whereas, the average conversion last year was 65.6 per cent, the up-right-splitters are moving along at a 70.7 clip this time.

The trend is toward more and better passes. It looks like at least 1,000 more passes will be thrown with 600 more completions for 12,000 more yards and 130 more touchdowns than in 1947.

Last year 17,025 passes were thrown, a total of 7,130 completed for 102,348 yards and 821 touchdowns. Already aerial artists have flung 15,128 this season with 6,523 completions for 95,278 yards and 797 touchdowns.

The total yardage probably will exceed the 1947 gains by 30,000. The major teams covered 285,299 compared with 261,676 already traveled this year.

The average gain per game is 274.3 yards compared with 255.4 in 1947.

Sectionally, the Southwest has captured the scoring leadership it held during the "aerial circus" era but later lost. The boys in the wide open spaces are averaging 19.35 points per game for the best in the land, with the East second at 19.32.

The traditionally defensive minded Southeast trails in the scoring department with an average of 16.31 points per game.

WALL STREET
NEW YORK, Nov. 16. (AP) — The stock market continued a post-election recovery today for the third day running.

Gains of fractions to more than a point were well distributed. Some losses cropped out but they were mostly in minor transactions.

Turnover was lively although most transactions were in small lots. Favorable corporate news, rather than concern over administration policies, received more emphasis but there was no rush to get into the market.

Financial Consolidation Coal Co. advanced more than a point at one time in the wake of a 15-cent dividend which will raise 1948 distributions to $2.25 from $1.50 in 1947.

Others ahead included Bethlehem Steel, Chrysler, Sears Roebuck, Caterpillar Tractor, United Aircraft, American Telephone, Consolidated Natural Gas, International Nickel, Dow Chemical, J. C. Penney, Superior Oil of California, Santa Fe, Union Pacific, Standard Oil (OK), and Westvaco Century-Fox.

Bucking down a trifling were U. S. Steel, Goodrich, National Builders, General Electric, Westinghouse Electric, and Pacific Western Oil.

Railway lines improved in the bond market. U. S. government issues held steady in over-the-counter dealings.

U. S. Is Building Desert Airfields

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 16. (AP) — The United States is building airfields behind the Sahara Desert for use if the European continent is lost, Sen. James O. Eastland of Mississippi says.

In a speech to a civic group yesterday, he warned that Russia is preparing offensive war machinery.

He said the United States, "for the first time in my knowledge, is in danger of invasion from another country."

The Mississippian advocated strong aid to the hard-pressed Chinese Nationalists. He warned "if China and Germany vanish behind the iron curtain, the United States immediately will 'become a second rate power.'"

French Solons To Debate Cause Of Recent Strikes

PARIS, Nov. 16. (AP) — Did Russia give the order for the costly strikes in France this autumn?

The French parliament reconvenes today and that is one of the first questions it wants answered. Before the national assembly, parliament's lower house, is a motion for a debate on the government's charges that Russia did push the button for the strikes.

Premier Henri Queuille and Interior Minister Jules Moch have said that the Soviet Union, acting through the Communist International Information Bureau, ordered the strikes in an attempt to wreck the European Recovery Program (ERP).

Rightist Deputy Louis Rollin, who requested the debate, said the government was willing to comply with a wide-spread French demand that proof be furnished for such serious charges.

The parliament's upper house, the council of the republic, will take a back seat to the national assembly for a few days at least. Its members have just been elected and its initial session will be devoted to organization.

Failures Reduced

NEW YORK, Nov. 16. (AP) — Dun & Bradstreet reported today commercial and business failures were down to 96 in the week ended Nov. 11 from 104 in the previous week. A year ago failures were 84, and in the comparable week of 1946 they were only 28.

Confined To Jail

John H. Williams, a Negro, was confined to the county jail this morning on a charge of receiving and concealing stolen goods. Williams was picked up by county officers Monday evening.

Teachers Study Gilmer-Aiken School Report

Approximately 150 teachers from Big Spring, Coahoma, and Foran, along with administrators and supervisors, devoted three and a half hours to a discussion of the Gilmer-Aiken report here Monday evening.

The half dozen major divisions, embodying 33 proposals, were sketched by different speakers and a referendum was held on the proposals. All were favored, although some—particularly those referring to district revision—drew dissenting votes. Among the questions raised at intervals were those how various provisions would affect small schools.

Among those explaining the various proposals were W. L. Reed, Joe Pickle, E. C. Dodd, W. C. Blankenship, Dean Bennett and Ray Worley.

At 7:30 p. m. today a similar meeting has been called by Walker Bailey for the purpose of analyzing the report for proposed educational system revision, and to get reactions on them. Teachers of the common school districts have been urged to attend and all persons interested in schools are welcome to participate.

Widening Of Gregg Street Awaiting Plans Revision

Work on installation of curbs and gutters on Gregg street and the Lamesa highway north of the T&P tracks will begin as soon as revised plans for paving there are approved by the state highway department, city officials reported this morning.

Earlier plans were withdrawn when the highway department decided to extend the width of paving from 55-feet to 64-feet. Under the agreement the city is to install the curb and gutter, while the highway department will construct the paving. The project will extend from the Gregg street viaduct to the north city limits.

The revised plans already have been forwarded to the district engineer's office in Abilene, and the city will begin its share of the work as soon as approval is received.

Wreck Kills 14

CALCUTTA, India, Nov. 16. (AP) — Fourteen persons were killed and 28 injured by a narrow gauge railway wreck today in the Landing-Thankia section of Assam. The engine and five coaches were derailed. The route, well known to allied soldiers in wartime, connected the Stilwell and Manipur roads into Burma.

Rivals For Judgeship Going Before State Supreme Court

AUSTIN, Nov. 16. (AP) — Claims of two rivals for judgeship of the 37th District Court at San Antonio were before the state supreme court today.

P. C. Sanders, judge-elect, contended the appointment of Judge William C. Davis was good only until after the results of the Nov. 2 general election were announced by the county commissioners.

Davis, appointed to the bench after the death of Judge Robert B. Terrell, contended the appointment was good until Dec. 31.

Sanders attempted on Nov. 9 to take over the bench while the court was preparing to hear a divorce suit. Davis charged him with contempt of court.

Sanders then asked the supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus to set aside the contempt order. It was granted, and the court yesterday heard oral arguments.

Joe Burkett of San Antonio, attorney for Sanders, argued that contempt proceedings were not the proper legal method of testing the rival claims. He said this should have been done through quo warranto (right to hold office) or injunction proceedings.

Walter Groce of San Antonio, counsel for Davis, contended contempt was involved when Sanders attempted to oust Davis from the bench while court in session. He said the action was instituted to uphold the dignity of the court.

Sanders and Davis each ran for the office in the general election. Sanders as a Democrat and Davis as an independent. Sanders won. One question the high court may settle is whether the election was actually over Nov. 2, or Nov. 5, when the commissioner's court declared the results, or will be over Nov. 17, when the secretary of state formally issues a certification of election.

Eight of the 16 members initiated into the Elks club at Sweetwater Monday evening were from Big Spring men.

They were J. T. McCombs, J. J. Cormas, Fred Coleman, John R. Yager, W. D. Berry, Ross W. Darrow, Sr., Ross W. Darrow, Jr., Alvin Vieregg.

Other Big Spring members attending the meeting, which attracted 100 Elks, were Dee Bailey, W. O. Wasson, J. F. George, Carl Gross and Jones Lamar.

Two 14-Year-Old Boys Are Charged With Slaying Worker

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 16. — Two 14-year-old boys were summoned into municipal court today for a preliminary hearing on charges of murder in the slaying on Nov. 3 of James Kelley Brooks, 27-year-old paving plant worker.

Lt. Fae Davis said Wiley (Junior) Senteny and Mitchell Bryant in a statement related details of the shooting that had baffled police.

Senteny, who stated he "wants to be a preacher," first unfolded the story after walking into police headquarters and saying, "I shot Brooks." He implicated Bryant, who was hurriedly brought from his grade school class by police officers.

The stories of both were identical. Lt. Davis said this was the story they told: The boys had been out breaking into parked cars. Bryant found a pearl handled revolver and some cartridges in the glove compartment of one. They walked a few blocks and then spotted Brooks as he was walking to work.

They accosted him and demanded his wallet. He lunged at them and Senteny said he fired. The two boys ran without robbing Brooks. They hid the gun in a sewer and went to Senteny's home. Later Bryant returned to the scene of the shooting and mingled with the crowd that had gathered. He said he talked with newspaper reporters.

After murder charges were placed against the two last night they were held in the Marion County jail without bond. Conviction carries sentences of life imprisonment or death in the electric chair.
