GOSSIP (More or Less)

Eddie Cunningham of Amarillo, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Cunningham of McLean, was seriously injured in a car wreck at Ennis about two weeks, it has been learned here. He is in a hospital at Houston suffering from four broken ribs and a bruised lung, and has a breast bone pulled apart. His condition is considered serious, his mother stated, and there is danger of pneumonia developing.

An extensive remodeling program is underway on the interior of the Cicero Smith Lumber company. The firm plans to expand the types of merchandise to be handled, and the interior is being readied to accommodate the expansion. More details concerning the improvements will be released when the work is complete, Carl Jones, local manager, said.

The second annual Lions Club queen's contest will be held in the McLean High School auditorium Tuesday night, April 30. Boyd Meador, chairman of the contest committee, has announced. Girls 16 through 21 years of age, and unmarried, are eligible to enter, and quite a few have already indicated their desire to compete. The girl winning the contest will represent the local Lions Club in the district contest in Amarillo in April. Each girl in the contest here will be sponsored by an individual or a business firm. Meador said that complete details on the affair will be announced next week.

Condition of H. D. Hale of the Denworth community, injured in an auto accident last week, was reported as still critical early this week. Hale was injured February 27 in a car wreck near Oklahoma City. He is in the Mercer Hospital in Oklahoma City undergoing treatment for fractured ribs and internal injuries.

You may have noticed it already, by this time, but the City of McLean is trying out a new type of trash truck. The truck is so equipped that trash is placed inside a closed bed upon being picked up, thereby preventing its being scattered. The enclosed bed also allows the operator of the truck to make fewer trips to the dump grounds. The truck being tried out is a used truck, and has not been purchased by the city as yet.

Members of the McLean Lions Club, as well as numerous others who aided in the show, sighed a sigh of relief Tuesday night when the second and final performance of the annual minstrel show came to an end. The show was held both Monday and Tuesday nights.

Directing this year's minstrel was Larry Fuller, and serving as interlocutor was Hickman Brown. The program included the jokes of the end men, quite a number of specialty acts, and songs by the high school chorus under the direction of Joe Coleman.

During intermission at each of the show, the end men sold boxes of candy to those in the audience.

Net proceeds of the show will go into the activity fund of the Lions Club.

The McLean 4-H Club will have a tacky party Friday night, March 12, at 7:30 o'clock at the school cafeteria. All 4-Hers are asked to come and bring their families.

First Track Meet Of Season Planned For Next Tuesday

McLean track fans will have the opportunity to see the first track meet of the season at the local track field next Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

McLean and Shamrock track teams will compete, and possibly other teams will enter. Coach Hap Rogers said Wednesday. Definite commitments on other entries had not been received by Wednesday noon. The track field is located south of the railroad tracks, adjacent to the farm-to-market highway.

Mrs. Etta Hudgins of Erick, Okla., visited relatives in McLean over the week-end.

MRS. G. W. BECK DIES; FUNERAL SERVICES HERE

Funeral services for Mrs. Malinda Caudate Beck, 79, were held at the McLean Methodist Church Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Beck died at her home in McLean Wednesday night, March 3.

Rites were conducted by Elder Howard Simpson of Los Lunas, N. M. Interment was in Hillcrest Cemetery in McLean under the direction of the Claborn Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were S. A. Cousins, Chas. Cousins, George Prestoa, Fred Patterson, Billy D. Rice, and Bill Pettit.

Mrs. Beck died at her home after a brief illness. She had been able to be up during the day, and death came at 10 o'clock Wednesday evening.

She was born May 1, 1874, in Poolville, Parker County. On August 18, 1897, she was united in marriage to G. W. Beck in Jackson. The couple moved to McLean in 1922, and had lived in this community since that time, with the exception of eight years spent in New Mexico.

Mrs. Beck was a member of the Primitive Baptist Church.

Survivors include her husband of McLean; one son, Earnest Beck of McLean; one daughter, Mrs. L. H. Babbitt of McLean; two sisters, Mrs. C. C. Miller of Los Lunas and Mrs. Nettie Sweeney of Pasadena, Calif.; eight grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

Out-of-town relatives and friends attending the funeral were: her grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Revis Strong and children of Albuquerque, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Shults of Cleburne, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wilson and daughter Donna of Dumas; Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Beck and Mrs. Larry Beck of Pampa; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Beck and Miss Ann Beck of Wellington; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brown and Verlon Brown of Phillips; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Miller and Mrs. Martha Jane Brock of Los Lunas, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cheney and Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Kinder of Burk Burnett; and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Gesler of Skellytown.

SHADID HURT IN CAR WRECK

W. W. Shadid of McLean was injured when the car he was driving overturned last Friday night near Abilene. He was en route to McLean after making a business trip to Abilene.

Shadid suffered several broken ribs in the accident, but his condition was not believed to be serious. Mrs. Shadid is with him at Hendrick Memorial Hospital in Abilene, and he is expected to be kept in the hospital for the remainder of the week.

The accident occurred when he approached a "Y" in the highway, and he apparently fell asleep, members of the family said. The car overturned several times, and he was knocked unconscious. Upon regaining consciousness, he found himself in the back seat of the auto. It was reported he was alone at the time of the accident.

Irrigation Authority To Be in McLean Friday, March 19

Ray Grace, one of the nation's foremost authorities on irrigation, will be in McLean to meet with interested persons Friday afternoon, March 19, at 2:30 o'clock.

The meeting will be held in the agriculture building adjacent to the elementary school, and will be open to the public.

Grace is an agricultural engineer of Lubbock and Plainview, and is recognized as an outstanding authority on irrigation. He will answer questions concerning irrigation development in this area.

The authority was asked to meet with interested persons here by Paul Kennedy, school superintendent. Kennedy has started a well on his place, and, of course, is highly interested in the possibilities of irrigation in this section. Another new well on the James Matsay place is nearing completion, and prospects are good that the well will be an excellent producer.

Further details of the meeting will be carried in next week's issue of The News.

DEATH CLAIMS MRS. MULLIN; SERVICE TODAY

Mrs. Maggie Mullin, who for the past several years has made her home with a son, Frank Mullin of near Alameda, died in Oklahoma City Tuesday.

The body was returned to McLean Tuesday night by the Claborn Funeral Home.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon, March 11, at 2 o'clock at the First Baptist Church, with Dr. Buell Wells officiating. Pallbearers will be J. L. Hess, Clifford Allison, Bill Pettit, T. C. D'Spain, R. T. Dickinson, and Bill Boyd.

Mrs. Mullin, 84 years of age, had been in Oklahoma City to visit with other children who live there. She suffered injuries in a fall the day before her death.

She was a long-time resident of this area, and was an early-day resident of Mabotee. Her son, Frank Mullin, with whom she had been living, lives north and west of Alameda.

Mrs. Mullin was born in Nashville, Tenn., March 3, 1870. She had been a member of a Baptist church since the age of 17, and her membership at the time of her death was in the Baptist church at Allen, N. M.

Survivors include three sons, Frank of McLean, Ben of Edmond, Okla., and Charlie of Hale Center; five daughters, Flossie Wilks, Mattie Mullin, and Rose Lee Mullin, of Oklahoma City, Mrs. O. C. Cummings and Mrs. B. A. West of Herford; two brothers, J. W. and Bill Still of Seligman, Mo.; two sisters, Mrs. Dan Kennett of Fairland, Okla., and Mattie Yont of Wichita, Kans.; 32 grandchildren, and 31 great-grandchildren.

Jake Sutton of Clinton, Okla., spent Monday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Laroy Sutton and family.

159 DONATE $449 IN DRIVE OF RED CROSS

A total of 159 people had contributed $449.14 in the annual funds campaign of the McLean chapter, American Red Cross, by Wednesday morning, E. J. Lander, drive chairman, reported.

"Our quota in money is $619, and we now believe we will be able to meet this quota if a sufficient number of you continue to contribute," Lander explained. "But our membership goal is 460 individual people, and we are far below that goal."

At the present time, about 70 per cent of the residential area in McLean has been worked by the solicitors, and about 75 per cent of the business houses, Lander said. No reports have been received from any of the outlying areas.

"It is the hope of the local chapter, as well as the national organization, that more individuals than ever before will contribute this year," the local chairman said. "We believe that if you are a member, you will feel that you are actually a part of this organization, and it will mean more to you."

The Red Cross is, in a way, a form of insurance for all of us, Lander stated. "Naturally, we hope we never need this insurance, but we did years ago when a tornado struck our little community. The Red Cross is mainly an organization to help people when they are in need, not when they do not need help; this, of course, brings some criticism to the organization, for some people want to get help when they actually do not need it."

"Hardly a day passes that the home service chairman, Lester Dysart, is not called upon to help some person. Many times, the person is a transient, but still he or she is in need of aid. We can, in other words, be a helpful neighbor by contributing each year to the Red Cross," the chairman concluded.

'Wet Snow' Yields .12-Inch In Moisture in Local Area

GOSPEL SERIES OPENS SUNDAY CHURCH CHRIST

Harold McColum, minister of the McLean Church of Christ, will conduct a series of gospel messages at the church beginning Sunday, March 14, it has been announced.

The meeting will continue through Sunday, March 21, with evening services each night at 7:30 o'clock, the minister stated. George Saunders will serve as song director at each service.

"Defense of the Gospel" will be the theme of the series, and the subjects to be discussed are as follows: March 14, "The Two Builders"; March 15, "The Impartial God"; March 16, "The Perfect Law of Liberty"; March 17, "God Hath Spoken"; March 18, "Divine Things"; March 19, "The New Birth"; March 20, "Relationship to God"; March 21, "Salvation by Grace Through Faith."

LOCAL LIONS SEE PICTURES ON 4-H WORK

A program pointing out the work of 4-H Clubs, in observance of National 4-H Week, was presented by adult leaders and two 4-H Club members at the regular meeting of the McLean Lions Club Tuesday noon.

Bringing the program were County Agent Ralph Thomas, Assistant County Agent Jerry Moberly and Home Demonstration Agent Fay Burns, as the adult leaders of 4-H work in Gray County, and two local club members, Nancy Tate and Jackie Don Bailey.

Slides showing the various types of work carried out by 4-H Clubs, the camping activities which are enjoyed, projects of club members (including pictures taken at the recent Top of Texas Junior Livestock Show), educational programs, etc., were shown. Narrators were Miss Burns, Nancy Tate, and Jackie Bailey.

Other visitors at the club were Rev. A. B. Morris of Memphis, who is conducting a revival meeting at the First Presbyterian Church; and Freeman Melton Jr. of McLean. W. W. Hughes of Kellerville was introduced as a new member of the club.

In a business session, the club members agreed to accept an offer by the women's organizations of the McLean Methodist Church to eat the regular luncheon meals in the Fellowship Hall of the church, beginning in April. The members also voted to meet only twice a month, either the first and third or the second and fourth Tuesdays. The exact times for the meeting were not determined; however, the club will continue to meet each of the remaining Tuesdays in the month of March in the Lions Hall.

Voting will be held next Tuesday on new officers for the club—the action on this matter was postponed from the meeting this week due to a lack of time. Also to be voted on next Tuesday will be the "Lion of the Year" award. The award will be presented when the new officers are installed in late June.

Classes in Schools To Be Dismissed Friday, Wednesday

Two holidays for students of the McLean schools are on slate during the coming week, Freeman Melton Jr., high school principal, said this week.

First of the holidays comes Friday, when teachers will attend the annual meeting of District 9 teachers in Amarillo.

Second of the holidays will be Wednesday, March 17, when classes will be dismissed in observance of St. Patrick's Day. In past years, this holiday has not been observed. However, many students have been attending the St. Patrick's Day celebration in Shamrock, and school administrators felt it would be better to dismiss classes and thereby prevent the lowering of the average daily attendance.

REV. J. ELLZEY TO LEAD MEET LOCAL CHURCH

Rev. Jack Ellzey, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Colorado City, will conduct a revival meeting at the McLean Methodist Church March 21-26, instead of Dr. Orion W. Carter, who was originally scheduled for the meeting. Rev. C. W. Parmenter, local pastor, said this week.

The revival will open with the Sunday evening services March 21 and continue through Friday night, March 26. Morning services will be held at 10 o'clock each of the week-day mornings, and evening services will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Rev. Ellzey is a graduate of Southern Methodist University in Dallas, and from the school of theology there. He has been in ministerial work for 12 years, and served the Army Air Force as a chaplain.

The visiting minister is serving at Colorado City as his first appointment to the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference. Prior to moving to Colorado City, he was in Commerce and a member of the North Texas Conference.

BIRTHDAYS

March 14—Wayne Woods, Jack Glass, Marcelline McCracken.

March 15—Mary Graham, Dick Andrews.

School Election—

TWO TO BE CHOSEN

Two members to the board of the McLean Independent School District will be chosen by eligible voters within the district in the annual school election, to be held Saturday, April 3.

The election was called last week-end by County Judge J. B. Maguire Jr.

The vacancies to be filled are due to the expiration of the terms of Spencer Sitter, board president, and Milton Carpenter, Carpenter resigned from the board a few months ago, and no one was appointed to fill out his term, since it expires next month.

'LITTLE WIND' HERE DURING PAST SIX DAYS

The moisture wasn't all that was needed and desired, but the snow of last Thursday and Friday was more than welcome to area farmers and ranchers.

In McLean, the snow amounted to about three inches, resulting in an official .12 of an inch of moisture at the gauge operated by Pete Fulbright. This brought the year's total to only .28 of an inch (.16 of an inch fell in January, none in February).

The snow started falling early last Thursday, and continued throughout most of the day and part of Friday. It was one of those "wet" snows, and was never able to cover the ground very deeply. However, it did provide a fair blanket of white for a short time, but by Saturday afternoon, practically all traces of the snow had vanished.

The past week brought little high wind, and only a small haze of dust. The haze was visible early Tuesday morning, but did not develop into a dust storm as had been predicted by the Amarillo Weather Bureau for Amarillo and vicinity.

Temperatures last Thursday and Friday and part of Saturday remained below freezing. Warmer weather came Sunday and continued through the remainder of the week, although nights were chilly.

The small amount of moisture gave hopes to area farmers and ranchers that more of the same may come later in March. The 30-day forecast indicated heavier than normal precipitation for March (the normal in Amarillo is 1.04 inches for March). Moisture must be forthcoming before much spring planting is done in this area. The wheat crops in the Panhandle are not expected to make much, although they sometimes come back into good crops when nothing is expected. In the local area, very little wheat was planted. Grasslands are beginning to "green up."

TATE INFANTS SERVICES HELD

Gravestone services for Olene and Colene Tate, infant daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Orphus Tate of near McLean, were held Sunday afternoon, February 28, at Hillcrest Cemetery in McLean. Rev. John Wolf of Leola officiated, and interment was under the direction of the Claborn Funeral Home.

The twin girls were dead at birth February 27 in the Shamrock hospital.

Survivors include the parents; three brothers, Gerald, Orphus Jr., and Harry; and one sister, Nancy.

Hundreds Visit City Schools

Observance of Texas Public Schools Week in the McLean school system turned out to be a big success this year, as hundreds of adults visited class sessions in both the high and elementary schools.

Largest attendance was recorded in the elementary school, where 237 different adults visited during the past week, James A. Prock, principal, reported. Most of these people visited more than one class. Prock explained, as he estimated that the visitations totaled more than 700.

Stimulating interest in the attendance at the elementary school was a contest among classes. Three classes tied for top honors—the 1st, 5th, and 6th grades—and all three will be treated this afternoon to a hot dog supper. Members of the McLean chapter of the Eastern Star will be hostesses to the 111 students and their teachers. Each grade had slightly better than a 300 per cent average (three times as many visitors as there are students).

No contest was held at the high school, but an estimated 150 people visited during the week, Principal Freeman Melton said. Visitors were not registered at the high school, the principal explained.

"We are extremely well pleased with the excellent turnout at both schools," Superintendent Paul Kennedy, Melton, and Prock stated. "This is the first year that our visitations have amounted to much, and we wish to thank the members of the steering committee, and all others, for the splendid work. The schools are always open for visitors, and we invite you back at any time. We were somewhat amazed that many adults who have lived here for a number of years had never been on the second floor of the high school building; but we were most pleased that they took advantage of Public Schools Week to look over our facilities and visit classes."

Three letters publicizing the week were sent out to all parents of school children. The letters were written by Rainbow girls under the supervision of Mrs. Waneta Reynolds. The plans for the week were made by the steering committee of Larry Fuller, Lester Dysart, J. C. Claborn, and Lester Campbell, with the cooperation of school administrators.

At Home— NEW BOSS

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pierce of Mountain View, Okla., are the parents of a boy born February 24. He weighed 9 pounds, and has been named Douglas Ray. Grandparents are Rev. and Mrs. C. D. Clift of Mountain View, and Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Pierce of McLean.

Man's first weapon in warfare was the slingshot.

"Spring Express" is the name designer Helen Whiting gives this cotton dress fashioned for spring afternoons. Made of Fisha novel; woven cotton, the frock is designed simply and smartly with a scoop neckline and full, easy skirt. Novelty weaves will be important cotton fashion news this spring and summer, the National Cotton Council reports.

Wesleyan Guild Meeting Is Held In Church Parlor

The Wesleyan Service Guild met Tuesday in the parlor of the McLean Methodist Church. "Within These Borders," a survey of the total population of Spanish-American people in the U. S. today from Mexico and Puerto Rico, was the timely program given by Lois Page and Ann Gibson. Displays of native clothing and miscellaneous articles of figurines, hats, dishes, and linens were of interest to those not familiar with these people.

Fannie Parmenter made a talk of appreciation for the recent work done on the parsonage. A motion was approved for the guild to serve lunch to members of the Lions Club once a month at their regular meeting.

Refreshments were served by Fern Boyd and Isabel Cousins to Dorothy Middleton, Ruth Magee, Lois Page, Helen Black, Fannie Parmenter, Dorothy Andrews, Ann Gibson, Maybelle Nash, Bessie Hamilton, and Lady Bryant; and one visitor, Louise Johnson.

The president read "Thank You" cards for the gift packages from the guild to the Teale family in Japan, and the home mission.

Mrs. Kate Stokes, and Mrs. B. L. Stokes and son Gene of Shamrock visited with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Myatt Sunday afternoon.

Baptist W. M. U. Circle Meetings Held in Groups

The Baptist W. M. U. met in circles Tuesday. The Blanche Groves circle met in the home of Jane Simpson. Joann Miller gave the devotional and Eva Jo Day led the opening prayer. Jane Simpson taught the lesson. Those present were Mesdames Miller, Day, Simpson, Lene Trew, and Bobbie Dwight. The Elizabeth Pool circle met in the home of Mrs. H. W. Finley. Mrs. Frank Howard called the meeting to order, and the opening prayer was by Mrs. Homer Abbott. A mission study was brought by Mrs. Finley. Refreshments were served to Mesdames E. L. Price, A. J. Goodwin, Leo Gibson, R. L. McDonald, Wib Fowler, George Celbank, Pearl Turner, E. L. Minix, Oba Kunkel, Howard, Abbott, and Finley. The closing prayer was given by Mrs. Price.

Home Missions Discussed at Meet Of Alanreed WMS

The Alanreed Baptist W. M. S. met Monday afternoon. "Week of Prayer for Home Missions" was the topic for discussion. The meeting was opened with the songs, "America the Beautiful" and "Rescue the Perishing." Prayer was led by Mrs. Albert Yake, and the devotional was given by Mrs. R. M. Cole on "Psalm 29." Mrs. Cole discussed the life of Annie W. Armstrong. Other subjects discussed were as follows: "Utah, a Mission Opportunity," Mrs. Lela Sherrod; "The Woman's Emergency Home," Mrs. J. W. Moreman; "Under Northern Lights," Mrs. Lena Carter; "The Lonely Green Island," Mrs. Yake; "Home Mission Board," Mrs. Opal Stapp; and "God Mend Thine Every Flow," Mrs. Marie McCracken. The Lord's Prayer in unison closed the meeting.

Magee Wins County Soil Conservation Award

(Editor's Note: Clyde Magee of McLean has been chosen the outstanding conservation farmer of Gray County, and the following story appeared in a recent issue of the Pampa Daily Spokesman.)

Clyde Magee, the former agricultural teacher of the McLean schools who decided to put to practice what he'd been teaching, has been nominated for an award in the "Save the Soil and Save Texas" program.

His nomination was announced recently by Jim Strawn, unit soil conservationist, on behalf of the Gray County Soil Conservation District.

Magee is a McLean rancher who until 1951, was vocational as teacher at the McLean High School. He first came to McLean in 1935, upon graduation from Louisiana State University with a bachelor of science degree in vocational agriculture.

He was associated with the McLean schools for 16 years, then, as Strawn explained, "like all professional agriculture men, he had a deep-seated desire to have a ranch of his own so that he could put into actual practice some of the things he had been teaching."

In their nomination of Magee as the "Outstanding Conservation Rancher" of this area, members of the soil conservation district traced a brief history of the ranch and explained how the McLean teacher managed to turn its scrubby pastureland and eroded soil into one of the county's model ranches.

The district members called his work "the translation of his faith in conserving soil and water into tangible evidence on the land."

Magee's ranch is situated at the headwaters of the small watercourse known as "Skillet Creek" in southeastern Gray County. The ranch house itself is located near the lower south central part of the property and Magee's first problem was that of preventing the intermittent floods which drained down thru a series of gullies and draws from the higher areas of his lands to the north.

The ranch headquarters, and the meadowland below it, was the focal point of the gullies fanning upward and outward to the north.

First step in rebuilding the ranch was that of clearing away an old orchard and the major part of a locust grove in the south end of the property, said Strawn. Magee set it in 1947 and by 1949 the orchard was clear. He left several acres of locust trees to provide a post lot from which every since he has secured posts for himself and neighbors. With these he has managed to construct six miles of fencing on the property.

Protection of the lower meadow from the floodwater was the next step in making the ranch productive. Already he had seeded some 68 of the lower acres in good grades of grass.

It was in 1948 that Magee contacted the soil conservation district (he has been a cooperator every since) and formed a plan for conservation. A system of sand and debris dams was devised, and the de-silted water, which previously had carried sand down into the fertile valley land, covering and ruining it, was turned in a series of diversion terraces. The terraces were designed to carry any surplus water, that did not soak into the ground, into a large tank. The tank itself was provided with a spillway over which water was diverted into a gently sloping field.

In support of the various diversion and dam structures, the former vocational agriculture instructor planned to seed and cultivate the lands on the upper reaches of his ranch. Seeding and construction operations got underway in 1949. Included in the project was a large storage dam, a small debris dam, and a combination debris and diversion dam, all connected with a large diversion terrace.

"He literally strains the water and weers it out on his grass and meadows," said the unit conservationist.

Since the work was completed, Magee's hay production from the meadows and alfalfa fields has reached a peak of 6,700 bales from 128 acres, or approximately two tons to the acre. "It's not what you'd call a phenomenal yield, but considering the almost continuous drouth since the acreage was established, it is deserving of attention," said Strawn in the nomination of Magee as an outstanding rancher.

Magee believes that with continued conservation practices, including fertilization, he can reach and maintain a 10,000-bale crop with anything like normal weather conditions. He made 3,400 bales in 1953, one of the driest years on record.

Strawn said Magee's overall improvement project is now about 85 per cent complete. He has yet to construct one more dam to capture sand and silt, and one more short diversion terrace to spread water that runs into his property from an adjoining place. One of his problems is that fact that neighbors to the north are absentee farmers and cannot easily be contacted for cooperation in water and soil conservation.

Magee began his herd with 12 head, purchased before he was able to begin any extensive improvements. These he grazed on land that was sparse of grass, but which was covered with sand sage growing so high "you could easily lose sight of a cow in it." He since has beaten down and removed some 200 acres of sand sage, and hopes to have it all cleared within two years. The sage reduction, along with a practice of lighter stocking and a system of deferred and rotation grazing is beginning to show results, according to Strawn. Grasses, despite two and a half years of drouth, are increasing and becoming more vigorous.

Magee now runs between 40 and 50 head of registered Hereford cows, along with 25 yearling heifers. He produces his own hay, buying only grain and protein feeds.

From his stock, in 1953, several 4-H and FFA youths purchased steers. One of the boys, Bill Breeding of Miami, later entered one of the steers in Roberts County Fat Stock Show and won a grand championship ribbon with it. Breeding entered the calf in the Pampa Top o' Texas Show, and won a championship in the junior division.

Breeding lost out in the Top o' Texas grand championship honors, however, because another of Magee's steers, purchased some months before by Joe Van Zandt of Wheeler, took that honor!

Breeding entered his steer in the Panhandle Fat Stock Show at Amarillo and garnered the grand championship of the junior division in competition with cattle from all over the West Texas area.

"Clyde is personally acquainted with nearly all the ranchers and farmers in his area and has done an excellent job of furthering the soil conservation program in his personal contacts with the people," his nomination says. The Gray County selection will compete in the state-wide contest with hundreds of Texas farmers and ranchers.

PROBLEMS OF OLD AGE
By Science Features

The song which laments that "the old rockin' chair's got me" expresses a feeling all too often characteristic of elderly people. In many cases these people suffer from no organic disturbance. They simply feel "old."

But the proverb that you are only as old as you feel has received considerable scientific support in recent years. Advances in medical science, which have added years to our life expectancy, have made old age healthier than ever before.

As a matter of fact, the complex problems involved in helping the ever-increasing elderly population lead healthy and useful lives has given rise to a whole new branch of medical science. This is called gerontology, the study of old age.

Many cases of elderly people who lack a sense of general well-being—who feel "old" and spiritless—can be traced to a deficiency in certain hormones, the life-regulating chemicals produced by the body's glands.

To help people suffering from this deficiency, a hormone drug, called Combandrin, has been developed. This drug, containing two important hormones, acts to help rebuild tissue and promote a sense of fitness. It can be given by injection or by tablet.

But this is only one aspect of gerontology. Others include psychiatry and preventive medicine—in fact, all scientific knowledge that can help old people live happier, healthier lives.

40 Years Ago— IT HAPPENED HERE

Taken from the Files of The McLean News, 1914

The Fasts Entertain

One of the most elaborate and probably the most enjoyable social affair of the season was the reception tendered by Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Fast, assisted by their niece, Miss McCurdy, at their pretty home north of town on Monday evening of this week. Augmenting the realization that a visit to the Fast home is ever a pleasure, the beautiful moonlight night was sufficient inspiration to tempt the most timid and about two couples accommodated themselves with buggies, hacks, automobiles, etc., and responded to the invitation.

Gathering in relays from eight until nine o'clock, the big happy crowd was soon reveling in the merriment of progressive forty-two, which served to make the hours fly all too quickly by, until the stroke of 11 warned them that it was time to depart. In the meantime the hostess interrupted the hostile engagement of opposing players long enough to serve one of the most delicious and palatable luncheons it has ever been our pleasure to enjoy. Various kinds of sandwiches, fruit salad, cake, chocolate and coffee constituted the menu.

The Fasts are noted for their splendid hospitality, but this was their crowning event and those who were present can but thank them for an evening most delightfully spent. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Veatch, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Holt, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Earl S. Hurst, Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Veale, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Boyett, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Richardson, Mrs. J. H. Herston, Mrs. Arthur Erwin, and Mr. Slaughter of Amarillo.

Business Change

C. P. and A. L. Overton last week completed negotiations whereby they take over the stock and general hardware business of S. O. Cook. The store was closed the latter part of the week for the purpose of invoicing, but opened up Tuesday morning with the new proprietors in charge.

Both young men are capable, and Carl, the senior member of the firm, has had considerable experience in the hardware business. We wish them success, which we have no doubt they will enjoy.

Mr. Cook has not indicated his plans as to the future, but it is hoped he will continue to make his home here.

To Plant Trees

At the regular meeting of the town council on Friday afternoon of last week, the members voted to purchase, at the expense of the town treasury, $20 worth of shade and ornamental trees to be set out in the city park. A committee composed of D. E. Veatch and T. A. Cooke was appointed to buy the trees.

Thus it is that little by little this civic beauty spot is being developed and before many years it will be a public attraction of which we will all be proud.

Johnson-Perry

Rev. Hamilton last Sunday morning at 7 o'clock performed the ceremony uniting in marriage Mr. Tom Perry of this city and Mrs. Johnson of Ottawa, Kans. The bride arrived on the early morning train and the couple repaired to Rev. Hamilton's residence where the ceremony was performed in the presence of the family. The news joins with their many friends in wishing them happiness and prosperity.

THE PEOPLE AND FOREIGN TRADE

TO MANY AMERICANS, foreign trade and the factors involved in it—tariffs, quotas, the need for a merchant marine, currency controls, and all the rest—seem far removed from their own spheres of interest. This, of course, is especially true of people living in the landlocked interior states.

Yet there is plenty of evidence to show that foreign trade, in one fashion or another, is of direct importance to almost all of us. A particularly interesting and convincing example of this is provided by an article in the February issue of Harper's Magazine, written by Carroll Kilpatrick. It is based upon a unique investigation, made by experts from the Library of Congress' Legislative Reference Service at the request of Representative Merrill of Indiana—a state which is far from any sea. Congressman Merrill wanted to know exactly what foreign trade meant to his constituency, which is the eighth district of Indiana, with Evansville the principal city.

The study, according to Mr. Kilpatrick, shows clearly that if a high tariff wall were erected around the United States . . . there would be immediate unemployment on the farms and in the factories of the eighth district . . . in fact, a severe depression could easily follow. Here, in part, is why.

First, agriculture accounts for close to a fifth of the district's population, and most of the farm commodities produced there are important export commodities—corn, soybeans, tobacco, dairy products, etc. For instance, about a third of our wheat goes abroad, and a quarter of our soybean and tobacco crops. So do substantial proportions of our dairy products, in the form of cheese, and dried and condensed milk. Thus, all or virtually all of the district's farmers, farm labor, and their families, have some stake in foreign trade.

Second, manufacturing is the district's biggest activity money-wise. The value of its factory products was $250,000,000 in 1947, when the last Census of Manufacturers was taken, and it must have been much bigger in more recent years. In 1950, just under 40,000 people were employed in the factories. The biggest employer is the refrigerator industry, of which Evansville is the world center. Thirteen per cent of all the refrigerators produced in the country in 1952 were exported. And so was a part of every type of refrigeration equipment made.

Evansville also has a sizable concern making specialized food products—and 10 per cent of these go abroad. Farm machinery is made there—12 per cent is exported. Several thousand workers are employed in auto assembly plants—and five per cent of our cars are sold in foreign countries. A chemical company reported that, while it did little export business, it depended on imports for various oils and other raw materials.

The experts also found that, "Such establishments as railway companies, motor transport concerns, warehouses, banks, and insurance companies all profit from foreign trade." It stated that expansion of this trade would result in "increased development and economic growth for the eighth district." It looks as if people who live far inland have as much interest in a sound foreign trade program as do those who live on the actual sea frontiers.

A riddle: I went to the store with some dollar bills and some pennies in my pocket. I spent half the money. The number of bills I had at first and the number of pennies I had at first was twice the number of bills I had after I went to the store. How much did I spend? Answer later in column.

A government income tax inspector visited the clergyman of the local city and expressed a desire to see his church. The clergyman, beaming with unconcealed pleasure at hearing this request from a government representative, readily agreed. After the inspection, the proud reverend turned to the inspector and asked what he thought of it.

"Frankly, I'm a bit disappointed," said the inspector. The clergyman, quite taken aback at this remark, naturally asked the reason.

"Well," said the government man, "after looking at the reports on the income tax papers of your parishioners and the huge gifts they claim to your church, I had come to the conclusion that the aisles must be paved with gold."

In most cars, each front wheel has a kingpin pivot for turning right and left and two hinge-like joints for moving up and down over rough spots in the road.

In the 1954 Ford you won't find either the kingpin or the hinge-like joints which most cars have. In their place are two sealed ball joints about which each front wheel moves both up and down and right and left. This completely new suspension not only makes the car easier to steer but permits greater total up-and-down front wheel travel for a smoother ride.

These new ball joints pivot in specially shaped seats so that wheels will turn more easily and are far less likely to get "out-of-line." This new ball joint system eliminates 12 points of wear.

Here's how Ford's new Ball-Joint Suspension works

It's just one of the "dividends" you get in a '54 Ford which make it worth more when you buy it, worth more when you sell it!

In addition to this completely new advance in chassis design, Ford brings you the most modern high-compression, low-friction engines in the industry: the new 115-h.p. I-block Six and the new 130-h.p. Y-block V-8. These two new deep-block engines bring you dividends of greater horsepower, smooth, quiet performance and more GO per gallon.

POLITICS STILL QUIET AS FEW START DRIVES

State, county, and precinct politics, generally speaking, are still fairly quiet on all fronts, and little active campaigning is expected before another month or two passes.

On the state level, Governor Allan Shivers has not publicly stated he will be a candidate for re-election, but it is now believed he will be. His opposition, if he does run, will be Peuben Senterfitt, speaker of the house; C. T. Johnson, Austin businessman; and possibly John C. White, agriculture commissioner, and Ralph Yarborough, who ran two years ago.

Little has been said on the remainder of the state races, although John Ben Shepperd will seek re-election as attorney-general of the state.

On the local level, here's the way things are shaping up. Congressman, 18th district—Mike Kemp of Cactus, and no doubt Walter Rogers of Pampa, on the Democratic ticket; and LeRoy LaMaster of Perryton on the Republican ticket.

District judge, Lewis M. Goodrich; district attorney, Bill W. Waters of Pampa; state representative, Grainger McIlhany.

Tax assessor-collector, Jack Back; county clerk, Charlie Thut; county superintendent, B. R. Nuckols; county judge, J. B. Maguire Jr.; district clerk, Helen Meers Sprinkle; sheriff, Rufus Jordan; county surveyor, A. H. Doucette; county attorney, Don Cain.

Commissioner, precinct 1, Arlie Carpenter and H. C. Little; commissioner, precinct 2, W. E. (Bill) Jarvis, J. W. Graham; and E. C. Schaffer; commissioner, precinct 3, Paul Bowers; and commissioner, precinct 4, O. L. Tibbets.

Pampa justice of peace, John Andrews and A. G. Seitz; McLean justice of peace, J. C. Claborn; McLean constable, Luke Henley and J. D. Fish; Pampa constable, H. A. Doggett; Lefors constable, Charlie Clendennen; Lefors J. P., E. A. Vance; Pampa J. P., second post, D. R. Henry and Mrs. Crystal Hank-henry; and county treasurer, Miss Ola Gregory and Mrs. Frankie Mae White.

SCIENCE and your Health
MOTION SICKNESS
 By Science Features

To millions of sensitive travelers, life on the bounding main means just one thing: seasickness. And these same unlucky travelers will often be subject to other forms of motion sickness such as air and road sickness.

The symptoms of motion sickness—and it is actually quite a serious condition—are well-known to most of us. The stomach begins to churn like the sea itself, the face becomes pale and breaks out in a cold sweat, there is dizziness and often nausea and vomiting.

These unpleasant sensations result from the stimulation, by constantly repeated motion, of certain of the body's sense organs.

In the past few years science has developed several drugs in the hope of counteracting this stimulation in queasy travelers.

The most recent, and apparently the most effective, of these drugs is one called Bonamine. Tested by the Army, Navy and Air Force, Bonamine proved to give 24-hour protection against air and seasickness with just one tablet, in contrast to the repeated dosages necessary in other such drugs.

Army doctors gave Bonamine to 115 soldiers on a troopship crossing the Atlantic and found that it protected against motion sickness in 109 of the cases. When 302 paratroopers were given the drug 97.4 per cent suffered no symptoms of air sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wiggins of Lefors visited with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wiggins Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Ernest Godfrey and son were in Shamrock on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stafford and Janice Stafford of Pampa spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Stafford of McLean, and Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Tinkler of Keller-ville.

Colgate clock in New York harbor, with an illuminated dial 38 feet in diameter, is the largest clock in the world.

New York and Pennsylvania have a greater number of representatives than any other of the states.

SHIRLEY DRAPER is the mother of the hour in Shamrock these days as he serves as general chairman of the 1954 St. Patrick's Day celebration. Dressed in his finest, with a green, high-top hat on his head and his face framed with a Donegal beard, Draper recently returned from a trip on which he publicized the March 17 Irish party in New Mexico, Colorado, and Arizona. Scores of committee men are busy helping the chairman line up a full day of entertainment for the annual festival.
