

President Opposed To Debt Suspension

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS: The National Whirligig

WASHINGTON By Paul Mallon
Bonus
The President has privately indicated to some men on the Hill that he will come out shortly with his proposal for a $300,000,000 veterans cut.

What Congress will do with such a proposal is doubtful. It is very probable the veterans would drop their cash bonus demand if Congress keeps veterans' appropriations anywhere near what they are now.

Things are already being arranged along that line in the dark corners of the capital.

Budget
The beer and sales tax may be bundled up in the same bill. The idea is that beer would take the curse off the sales tax in public opinion and vice versa.

There is only one thing wrong with the plan and it may botch the deal. The demand for all these things is immediate. Business wants a budget balanced now.

Pharaoh
Men live hard in Washington. Even at that there is no modern parallel for the reconditions of a certain official of the highest prominence.

Cuts
Economy is going to come harder at this session of Congress. First confidential figures from the Budget Bureau showed that these figures were sent in secret last week to members of the House Appropriations Committee.

Energy
It seems to be a safe bet now that the Government open market policy will continue until after two billion and a half of Government refinancing is done.

Bankers have become disgruntled about being loaded up with governments. They think they may be left holding the sack for too much ble address can be made, things which can't be whipped off the books by any belated atonement. Even the best of men has certain dark chambers in his mind that he fears to open.

But the worst of all of it, in this case, was a twin demon in aid in the tormenting—the demon of fear. The man could never be quite sure that the past was really dead. The yellowed files of the federal government still carried his name. He could not be laid on that a hand would not be laid on his shoulders, sooner or later. Any day might be his last day of freedom.

And a fear, an uncertainty, of this kind can be life's greatest torment. Most of us never exactly settled in our minds about the things we really want from life, but we do know, always that we want a sense of security. However humbly we build we want to know that no sudden blast can knock everything down. And this feeling was one this fugitive never could have.

It is, after all, any great wonder that he finally gave himself up.

"Nature in the Raw" is seldom MILD

THE WAR WHOOP

"Nature in the Raw"—as portrayed by N. C. Wyeth... inspired by the blood-curdling yells of war-mad savages, whose barbaric cruelty held America's early settlers in a constant state of terror. "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—and raw tobaccos have no place in cigarettes.

No raw tobaccos in Luckies —that's why they're so mild

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

THANKSGIVING

"Blessings we enjoy daily and for most of them, because they be so common, most men forget to pay their praises but let not us, because it is a sacrifice so pleasing to Him that made the sun and us, and still protects us, and gives us flowers and showers and meat and comfort." So said Isaac Walton.

"Too often do we go our way day after day and forget God's wisdom and guidance. The talks and the thought of Him from our hearts.

Therefore Thanksgiving is given to us. It is as a gentle voice bidding us turn for a moment from our daily toil, that we may offer thanks unto Him who gives so much and asks so little. We rejoice in this hour of worship, the heart's own holly gladness. We bring our prayer and our praise, our burdens of care and our offerings of homage unto the altar of our God, and each heart find an answer to its cry, a response for its own need."

X Marks The Spot

By The Stool Pigeon
 Good afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Big Spring High School and any other member of the school family that is fortunate enough to have me for his columnist. I am just starting on another pilgrimage into someone else's business, one of the most amusing occupations that I know of. For the unfortunate ones whose private business comes in for its share of attention in this column we have only apologies, and more publicity.

One of the best things that happened in the last week was Johnny Baber's remark after taking Elmer Dyer, Gene Merrick, and Alta Taylor to the squawks Wednesday afternoon. Alta told Johnny, so it seems, not to mention the fact that they had been to the cinema because she didn't want it generally known that she had gone to the theatre with him. Moral: Be sure your sins will find you out.

Now that the long-awaited meeting between the Colorado Wolves and the Big Spring Steers is finally due to take place, I wonder what will be the attitude of Claudine Miller in regard to the contest. Claudine has for a boy friend none other than Bud Hall, the black-haired, dashing fullback for the Wolves, or at least such is her contention and I must admit that the appearances bear her out. Sunday afternoon is their regular "tyranny" time. The place I refrain from mentioning.

Although there is nothing scandalous about this, a trio of girls were fortunate enough to escape the wintry blasts at the Slaton-Big Spring contest and to secure a comfortable seat in the press box. The trio were Hazel Smith, Caroline McCleskey, and Hattie Mae Pickle. Personally, I had always thought that the first school-girl to rush past the barrier would be Virginia Cushing, but maybe love doesn't have much to do with it.

Fashion item: Caroline McCleskey has been wearing Fred Townsend's boots. She took his "soles" right away from him. Alta Taylor is wearing Lillian Harris' ring. It was given to him at the auction sale recently.

Ruth Williams had a date with Fred Haller Sunday night. Oh, well!

I've heard it from several sources that Leo Hare isn't so popular with the proprietor of the hotel at which he is rooming. But, anyhow, his mother loves him.

Red Sanders took Eva Todd to the show Tuesday night. He excused himself from a certain place by saying he was going home and studying. Well, everything can't be learned from books.

Dorothy Gene Feast is expected to return to our big happy family early in December. At least Cecil French is anticipating her presence in our midst, and who am I to ruin his joy?

To the Phantom or in plain words, Thomas Joe Williamson, of someone of his caliber: Not that I resent Dorothy's Dublin being given credit for the authorship of "X Marks The Spot," but just to let you know that compositions of this type are entirely above your class. If I remember correctly the poem you supposed imitated was published in a widely-read periodical some few months ago—Even if that

Steer Flag Flies

The Steer flag is now flying below the "Stars and Stripes." The small black and gold flag with its Steer head emblem shows up royally. It was made by Mrs. Lige Davis, mother of a former high school English teacher, Miss Georgia Kirk Davis, now Mrs. Hutchinson. The Steer flag should be respected by every high school student. It represents the school spirit and the might gridiron force of Big Spring high school.

Dr. Gray Lists Advantages Of Girl's School

Educator In Interview With Student Reporter While Here

By JANE TINSLEY
 Dr. Hob Gray, professor in education and philosophy at C. L. A., was graduated from the Rising Star high school. He then attended Daniel Baker College at Brownwood and received his M. A. degree in 1918. In the spring of 1925 from the Columbia University he received his M. A. degree and his Ph. D. degree from the State University of Texas in 1930. He taught in the public schools of Eastland and for the last seven years has been teaching in C. L. A. at Denton, where Mr. L. H. Hubbard is president.

Dr. Gray gave some very good reasons why he thinks C. L. A. is the right school for girls: Talking to this reporter said (1) That C. L. A. has a splendid faculty which he trained with the view of teaching girls. (2) That girls should be given more recognition than in Co-ed schools. Most all the leaders in the activities in Co-ed schools are boys, and this school gives the girls a better chance for leadership. (3) That C. L. A. gives special training and attention that can not be had in a Co-ed school. (4) Girls can have great fun. He says that it is much better because they don't have so many outside attractions and have other worthwhile things to take the place of men. Also, the girls that came there usually come with a definite purpose and of course have fewer distractions. (5) If very cheap and the democratic idea is carried out in the way of uniforms. Many of the parents think that girls are better cared for, and possibly they are.

Dr. Gray also said that perhaps the girls do miss the classroom and social contact that the co-ed school offers, but to make up for this they have many social activities. "But," he says, "certain types that are socially inclined and nothing else would not be happy here."

The largest enrollment in C. L. A. was in 1929 when there was 1800. This number is about the limit that can be taken care of comfortably. This year there are 1400 students, a somewhat decrease of last year which is due to the economic conditions of the country and as Dr. Gray said he imagines there would be a steady decrease if conditions didn't change.

C. L. A. doesn't offer only majors in Home Economics but has special departments in Music, Art, Business Administration, Journalism, and many others. There are about 120 teachers and Dr. Gray says that it is the finest school for young women to attend.

Campus Chatter

By DOROTHY DUBLIN
 Hot date! Here's some brand new chatter right out of the ark!

Personal: A thousand thanks to the "Information Bureau." Look here for another famous pair pair of what? Captain Army as Army Captain, and Billie Frances Grant are certainly heading for the list this week. Well, I don't know what could be done about it except we might learn to hum the wedding march—that is, for future use. You know, there's nothing like preparation.

And another thing: What's this magnet that draws Fred McCleskey over to Alta Stalcup's locker? I heard a little girl say that

Lofty Flag Pole Presented School On Behalf Of American Legion Men

Leland L. Martin, Foran school superintendent, presented a lofty flag pole to the schools of Howard county last Friday morning. Martin presented the pole, donated by the American Legion, to the schools of Howard county last Friday morning. Martin presented the pole, donated by the American Legion, to the schools of Howard county last Friday morning.

A long parade marched from the business district to the high school, where ex-service men stood at attention facing westward honoring fallen comrades. Fred Drew bugled "To the Colors" as the Legion color guard hoisted the huge flag from hall to tall mast. Cold weather forced the citizens to adjourn to the municipal auditorium for the addresses.

Rev. R. E. Day offered the invocation preceding the Armistice program. As a tribute to the unselfish principles for which the American flag stands, Martin told how the unfurling of the "Stars and Stripes" proclaimed to the world the birth of a great democracy whose ideal is equal rights and privileges to each individual whether high or low. He said "an intelligent and unselfish devotion to this ideal should be kept even to the point of self sacrifice if necessary."

He bitterly scored all who are disrespectful to the flag, and those who use it for selfish purposes, asking students to pay respect to our national emblem, as it is the one flag that is loved and respected throughout the world. He showed the principles for which the American flag stands by recalling events in history: Not America for American, but America for humanity.

Responding, Blankenship denounced the selfish ways in which the flag had sometimes been used. He stated that our chief aim was to make democracy safe for the world through education and training, rather than the world safe for democracy. When we as a nation, shall have attained the intellectual and moral development essential to the right functioning of government, then we shall have made the world safe for democracy by giving it something worth imitating.

He expressed his thanks and appreciation to all who took part in the erection of the flag pole, and to the students for purchasing the flag. C. L. Bryant gave a very vivid description of the end of the worst war in history, fourteen years ago, giving the virtues coming out of war, as learning, to live and laugh in face of hardships, obedience, and discipline. Yet how much more easily these virtues could be obtained through peaceful methods, without paying such a great price through the sacrifice of so many lives.

she was gonna use a different kind of magnet, usually made of steel, on Alta May for this. Run, Sheepie, Run!
 Have you noticed the "some thing" look in Clemmie Crane's eyes? Well, he is gone—way off to California. Yet how much more easily these virtues could be obtained through peaceful methods, without paying such a great price through the sacrifice of so many lives.

Richbourg not only takes the pigskin places but he actually rookied and took the little sis corners by running from a date—and the villain still pursued her.
 Taken from a recent volume of "Freshmen Fishes" I read where Minnie Bell Williamson was telling another Freshman girl how the "Fish" girls rated according to popularity and it seems as though from all I could gather, the little girl didn't like to be told of Minnie Bell's popularity and there it goes! Hey you! What you wanted this put in! That O. K.?

And you should have seen Fred Townsend's face when he found out that V. C. was in town and he was at the show with another dame—Silence prevailed.
 Ding! Dong! Yep, you're right; this is time out—I've got to find some gossip somewhere, so I'll be back pronto.

Everyone was wondering what that sudden flash of light was that came over the grandstand field Friday—Well, it wasn't the brightness of the setting sun but only Caroline's "see lighting up"—Why? Public Wublie went in the game.
 Wonder where Coach Bristow got the swell idea of sending No. 10 in the game without his shoes? I guess that's just another method of knocking the opposing players out and winning the game—However, this is not wholly confined to the opposing players—I noticed Jake Morgan got something wrong with his nose immediately after the arrival of the "Feet."

They tell me Fannie Mason manages to keep her T. I. date and her soldier boy apart with no trouble at all—I'd hate to try to keep something from the army and T. I. too. Har! Har! Dude's out of luck!

Esdaile, The Star Gazer

Q—Why did all the football boys go to see Charles Vines when he was sick? S. T.
 A—They wanted to entertain him while he was sick. They played games with him. Get me?
 Q—Why does Sam Flowers allow Dude Shaw and Bill Thomas to come see Minnie Bell? Has he lost his appeal? D. S.
 A—Now! Dude and Bill are chislers.
 Q—Do you love me, Esdaile? Z. L. P.
 A—No, I don't. Zarah Lea.
 Q—An Ng. I don't love sick in bed on account of Dub taking Maurine away from him? J. B.
 A—Yeah, he surely is. It's those memories that burn and burn.
 Q—I wonder what was in the long letter from Lulu Bethel to Eddie Morgan? It starts off "My only love." R. S.
 A—It went on that way. Then it ended the same way.
 Q—Has Red Sanders got it bad with Lulu Ashley or does he just sit by her to pass the time? S. S. S.
 A—He hasn't got it bad. Mack's still around.
 Q—Why did Lulu Ashley not want someone to take her time away Saturday night? F. M.
 A—Mac made a wish, and you know how they are.
 Q—Why did Polly Thomas turn Roy Ely down for a date Monday night? H. B.
 A—Because she already had another one.
 Q—What makes M. B. W. so popular with the males in the sixth period study hall? R. S.
 A—That's not the only time she's popular, so put it down to the same reason.
 Q—Why does everyone take for granted that Jack D. means Jack Dean? It might be Jack Darwin. E. P.
 A—It might be, but it isn't.
 Q—Why won't Gladys G. introduce us to her Angelo boy friend? I. R. and M. S.
 A—She knows you gals. I don't blame her.
 Q—Why do Sam and Bob Flowers stay down at Gladys Glover's so much? I. D.
 A—Because they like it down there.
 Q—Why does Merle Moore carry that cute grin around with her every where she goes? M. H.
 A—It is a cute grin. Bet you'd grin too if you looked like that.
 Q—Why do some people always get mixed up in writing names boys have Sunday night dates with? G. G.
 A—I'm sorry Gladys. Folks, it was Jean Bell instead of Gladys Glover with Bob Flowers and Fred Townsend last Sunday.
 Q—Where's good looking ring is Irene Rudd sporting around? M. S.
 A—Her brother Neil's.
 Q—Does R. G. McCullough like me or not? C. F.
 A—Yeah, Charlene, I think he does.
 Q—Why is Walter Deane absent so much from school? T. B.
 A—He has to catch up on his sleep.
 Q—In this school's history, has Howard Whitehead ever had a crush on any girl? E. O. N.
 A—He has not; but there's still hope.
 Q—Has Mr. Houston turned nursemaid? Did you note the infant boy he was carrying Thursday after school? O. M.
 A—Yes, he decided it was more profitable than teaching school.

 Q—Does Judith Pickle threaten my chance with a certain somebody? W. W.
 A—Fill 'er up, does. You may as well shut down your sign.
 Q—What makes Cleo Lang so popular with the boys? H. S.
 A—Oh, several things. She's attractive, not too dumb, etc.
 Q—Is Lulu still crazy about me? Mack.
 A—Still, was she ever?
 Q—What makes Juanita Cook fall for all of the football stars, Tack Denny and Walter Bunker? W. W.
 A—Tack because he was such a good player. She fell for Walter, though, because of the same reason everyone else does.
 Q—Why did Dorothy Dublin, who is usually so ready to say something, be so quiet in biology the day they studied "feet"? A. S.
 A—Maybe she was sorry for the rest of the class. Considerate, Dorothy.
 Q—Why does Monk Harbee like sign painters so well? B. H.
 A—Well, Cecil is a nice guy, and he doesn't live very far, only four blocks.
 Q—Why does Jake Pickle pose as the Phantom? D. C.
 A—It's just another one of his bright ideas.
 Q—Here's at some more questions from the Phantom!
 Q—Where did Alta Faye Sanders get that mushy, mushy line she feeds her male correspondents?
 A—From years of practice plus an inherent bit of genius. Doesn't Teddy like them?
 Q—Why do all girls feed their absent boys the same line?
 A—Because that old sucker makes the heart grow fonder! Line of idiosyncrasy.
 A—It's all they know and it works. Hazel's still holding her own, isn't she?
 Q—Who is that little maid from the City of Mexico that Jarrell (Jake) Pickle is giving the grand rush to?
 A—Rosie Maria Annetta Junnita Oletta Garcia y Smith.
 Q—What happens when an irresistible force meets an immovable object?
 A—It is too bad for what is between them.
 Q—Where did Cain, the son of Adam, get his wife?
 A—He found her hanging on an apple tree. Up to Eve's old tricks.

District Race Ends Thursday

The District Three grid contests will end Thanksgiving when the teams in this district pair-off for their last battle of the season. Sweetwater defeated Colorado week before last, 41-0, knocking the Wolver from a triple tie for class A championship, while San Angelo was turning back McCamey for the second time, 31-0, and Big Spring was overwhelming Midland 51-0.

There was only one conference game the past week, San Angelo running over Colorado 39-7, leaving settlement of the district title to the Sweetwater-San Angelo tilt at Sweetwater November 24. Virgil Jones, S. Woods and Red Sheridan, smothered Mustang charges, will have no easy time trying to stop the heavy fleet Bobcat team. Delker, Reid and McGlothlin have dealt misery to their opponents by long, sweeping end runs, carried off by splendid interference. Sweetwater and San Angelo have had a very successful season. The Mustangs having played six games, winning all of them and the Bobcats winning seven out of eight.

Colorado Wolves, Arch Foes Of Old, Return To Steer Field

The Colorado Wolves threatened when they ran up 11 straight victories, but lost out to the Mustangs. Midland and McCamey have a very poor record this year. Neither team has won a conference game, and both have lost the majority of all games played. The Mustangs have a slight advantage over the Bulldogs when they clash at McCamey on Turkey Day.

Two Former B.S.H.S. Students Honored

Word has been received that honors have been conferred upon two of the former B. S. H. S. students by the schools in which they are employed.
 Beverly Rockhold, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Rockhold of this city and a former student of B. S. H. S. won the singles golf championship for the club division of State University where he is a pending school. Shooting close of par Beverly defeated Simmons of the A. C. E. Club by a 4-3 win. He shot 38 on the first nine and came back in the second nine for 41.
 Drawings for the University Championship have not been made yet, but it will take an extra good golfer to keep Beverly from going on to the championship. This gives him an excellent opportunity to make the Hall of Fame.

Selection Of Typing Teams To Be Made

Mrs. Low interview by a "heel" reported about the typing teams for this year and plans for the future contests said that it was too early in the season to re-type classes, have not had sufficient practice to determine the permanent team yet and the announcement will be made later.

Woodcraft Club Meets

The Woodcraft Club had its regular meeting last Wednesday in Mr. Etter's room. Halbers Woodward, president of the club, presided and ability.

Tennis Players Get Under Way

With a few good days for practicing tennis, the Big Spring high school team has been showing its ability.

All Senior Team To Start Thursday

One of the most unusual incidents in the history of District 3 will occur Thursday when Coach Bristow starts an All-Senior team against the Colorado Wolves. All of the seniors are expected to see action, since this will be their last chance to play for Big Spring high.

Steers Whip Slaton Tigers

The Big Spring Steers defeated the Slaton Tigers Friday afternoon 31 to 6 in a game exciting and thrilling from beginning to end. Long gains by Richbourg behind beautiful interference combined with the Bovines' aerial attack resulted in a 5 to 1 touchdown win for Bristow's Gold and Black team. Although the Tiger backs tore the Steer forward to pieces time after time, they advanced the ball, his scoring distance several times, only to lose the pigskin by costly fumbles.

Both teams presented a versatile offense to make 18 first downs each. The Purple and White backs were constant scoring threats. After getting possession of the ball the Steers advanced it to the Steer 10 yard stripe making four consecutive first downs only to lose it on a fumble. Vines and Kobers covered.

Richbourg made 20 yards and then 9 yards in two plays. After an incomplete pass, Morgan kicked. Slaton punted back and Swatzy made a nice return for 27 yards. On the second play Richbourg scampered around left end for a touchdown. Morgan's try for point failed. Slaton elected to kick-off to the Steers who began a passing attack, which was mixed alternately with penalties, for another touchdown. Swatzy took a pass from Morgan for this score. Morgan missed again.

The Tigers received and began a powerful offensive thrust down the field for a touchdown. Anderson, fast purple back, hit right tackle for a 14 yard run to a counter. Johnson missed the try for the extra point.
 Big Spring retaliated with a 56 yard drive across the goal line. Harris, on the kickoff, took a lateral from Morgan to place the ball on the 44 yard line. Richbourg carried the pigskin to the 5 yard stripe where the Slaton line held. Morgan passed to Richbourg for a touchdown. Morgan's pass to Swatzy was good for the extra point.
 The Tigers staged a drive to the 6 yard line only to fumble for a 10 yard loss. Richbourg made 30 yards in 4 plays. Kobers circled right end behind a perfect wall of interference for another score. Morgan's try for extra point failed.
 Fred Townsend, substituting for Richbourg, made 37 yards in three plays and was driven out of bounds for no gain. After a pass to Coots which would have been a touchdown had it not been called back, the Tigers intercepted the next toss.
 Armstrong blocked a Slaton punt. Townsend and Kobers advanced the ball to the Tiger 30 yard stripe. Cordill caught a pass from Morgan for 11 yards. Morgan pased to Swatzy for a touchdown. Swatzy missed the try.
 The game ended with Slaton in possession of the ball on the Bovine 6 yard line to end their final scoring threat.

Thanksgiving

By B. V. JONES
 Here it is. The end of a year. And we all have a lot to be thankful for. Not the least of these are the books, and we may a back and start being thankful for the invention of the printer if it wasn't for that of us would ever have so much to read. I have read the "Greeks for Pleasure" by Voltaire, Dumas, and Spain for Cervantes and for Chaucer, Dickens, Eliot, Hardy, Shakespeare, Coward, Willa, and America for such writers as Hawthorne, Longfellow, Bryant and many others.

Now I'm going to tell a book that I have just read called "Thirty Years in North America" by the author, Jan. Jan was a Czech by a polar settler by choice in the north is interesting story of this book is the lives of the land of the north and their customs. He is 80 degrees below zero. Here is a view of the salt marshes south of Post Arthur and Beaumont, where three hunters have died of cold and exposure and two others have been found unconscious while the duck hunting season was barely three days old. The thick marsh grass is almost impassable in places, and a cold wave caught the hunters in the middle of the swamp, unprepared.

out now. Nothing mattered—Eddie was dead.

As the ambulance clanged through magically clearing streets, the siren sounding its hideous wail, Mary wondered if they had caught the car yet, and what would be done with the driver. Surely it had been caught by this time. Surely God wouldn't let it get away. She prayed, grinding her teeth together. "Catch him! Catch him!"

She slipped her hands out of Bowen's grasp as the boy on the stretcher moved restlessly and mumbled. Dropping to her knees, she put her ear close to his lips. "No use, lady," the attendant warned her. "He's out! Whatever he says won't make any sense."

"He mustn't die, without telling me," she insisted.

Again the lips moved, the boy's body arched on the stretcher. "Make him give me my coat!" His voice died away weakly.

Mary looked at Bowen, but there was only pity in his eyes.

"He doesn't know what he's saying," he said gently. "Mary's eyes filled and she clutched him frantically. "Oh, Eddie-boy, dear, don't die!"

The attendant picked her up and Bowen drew her to the seat beside him. The two men looked at each other over her bent head. Eddie's fate was only pity in his eyes.

"The boy's lips continued their mumble and the interne, with a half-grin at Bowen, flapped his hand back and forth as if brushing a fly.

"All right, son," he told the boy indignantly. "There's no fly here. Funny how it takes them sometimes."

"Where's he got it?" Bowen asked softly.

"Head," said the other. The boy moved restlessly and again he waved his hand. "He thinks there's a fly bothering around."

"Queer. Nerve reaction, probably," Bowen answered thoughtfully. "Queer he should think of a fly."

government paper when the refinancing is over. Of course the refinancing will be done at lower interest rates. The treasury will make a profit out of the deal. That might influence the market for government bonds.

However there is nothing the bankers can do about it. They will be good boys and take what is offered. The Board could make it hot for anyone who murmurs too loudly.

Philippines
 A deal has been made to pass the Philippine Independence Bill through the Senate without delay.

Opponents of the measure are going to let it slide. They know Mr. Hoover will veto it.

That means final action on it will probably come at the next Democratic session of Congress. It will start all over again then. Chances, then, it will really pass something within a year are very bright.

Notes
 That fellow who shouted "Raspberries" to Mr. Hoover in a small Nevada town was a young boy 13 years old. His name was recorded by secret services.

The worst reception Mr. Hoover received on his last western trip was in the home town of his political secretary Walter Newton.

The boozing there was wholehearted. Newton however carried his home division for the President.

The only outstanding Republican politician who was fooled by the car shot was Publicity Director Henry Allen. He swore to the last victory was in the bag for the President and he really thought so.

NEW YORK
 By James McMullin

Tammany
 Tammany made one of its biggest mistakes to date in picking an open fight with Delaney of the Board of Transportation. Delaney has been a valued member of the inner circle but he is genuinely sore at what he considers a public insult and it is by no means impossible for him to join a fusion movement if the five cent fare were made an issue. The nickel ride is his pet baby—and W. R. Hearst's.

Delaney was a Walker appointee. There has been a coolie between him and other organization leaders since Walker was made to walk the plank. If he chooses to make a fight of it he could take his personal following and a considerable portion of Walker's with him. He has been sensitive ever since it was suggested that he take a pay cut. He considers that his present salary represent a personal sacrifice as against outside employment. The whole situation has the makings of a first-class ruckus.

Commissioner of Sanitation Schroeder, another personal friend of Walker's is on his way out. If he doesn't resign by January 1, charges will be preferred against him. This is one point on which McKee and Tammany are agreed. Schroeder draws a salary of $22,000 a year and a high Tammany official can be quoted as saying that if it were dollars instead of thousands he would still be overpaid.

The organization realizes that it has a stiff battle on its hands and will try to make a noise like economy. The Board of Aldermen may snipe a few items out of the budget. But the big play will come when O'Brien is Mayor with salary reductions in the higher brackets—the same program that was vetoed by the Board of Estimate when McKee suggested it.

City
 The heterogeneous forces opposed to Tammany are planning vigorous efforts to keep the protest feeling alive until next election. The banks are likely to cooperate. The schedule calls for at least a minor financial crisis every month and possibly a major one in the spring.

Despite reports to the contrary McKee's firebrand speech at the chamber of commerce was not premeditated. His job from January 1 will be to play up the City mismanagement issue at every opportunity.

Coaching
 There is only one fully annotated copy of the New York City Charter in existence. It is at present in possession of John P. O'Brien and the best minds of Tammany are working many hours a day with the mayor-elect to coach him for his job. His public utterances after January 1 will be carefully edited in advance.

The organization will take a few chances of faux pas as possible. One official says that a champagne will be kept under O'Brien's chair if necessary.

Consortium
 The Anglo-Franco-German Consortium to lend money to other nations for constructive purposes is getting a lot of attention in the financial district. It is noted that most of the active English underwriters are of German origin and that English participation will be nominal. One of the English sponsors is a Hamburger who came to England virtually penniless about twenty years ago. He now has a very onerous fortune.

There is a growing feeling here that England is gradually slipping and that she will tend to work more closely with Germany as her power fades than with France, or the United States. In twenty years—maybe ten—who'll know who won the war?

An important local banking official criticizes the French sharply for authorizing the Consortium statement at the present time. "If they had waited all history they could not have chosen a more inopportune moment. The average American does not understand the relation of exchange problems and debts and will say that if France can afford to lend money to Roumania she can afford to pay her debt to us." The point overlooked is that the Roumanian loan will be made in France—not dollars.

Stock Market
 Debt worried in holding up plans for boosting the stock market. Bull powers will only work if the public enters in the spirit of the occasion and there is no assurance that the public will do so while the debt ghost still walks.

Scout Teams Play Third Tie

Season End Leaves No. 3 And No. 5 Rivalry Pending

Bitter football rivalry between Troops No. 3 and No. 5 came to an end Tuesday afternoon with nothing settled. Troop No. 3 concluded its season by playing the No. 3 Scouts to their third tie in as many weeks. It was the fourth meeting of the two squads.

With neither side seriously threatening, the game ended near mid-field in a scoreless tie as Troop No. 5 made a desperate rally for score in the final minute. Marvin House took a twenty yard pass from John Compton as the game ended.

Troop No. 3 was successful primarily in one thing, and that was in marking Compton. Only a few times did he succeed in breaking loose for his usual long gains.

Troop No. 5 met with a degree of success through the air and on foot plays, but their spins and end runs were smothered.

It was through the center that Troop No. 3 gained until late in the game when they were consistently downed at the line of scrimmage. On the defense Woodward was the star, never being taken out of the play.

Troop No. 5 won the first game 20-0, the second 12-12 in a scoreless tie, the third in a 13-13 deadlock, and the final in a scoreless tie.

Hitler Proposes Cabinet Directly Responsible To Presidential Authority

BERLIN (AP)—Adolf Hitler advised President von Hindenburg Wednesday formation of a government on a parliamentary basis was impossible and undesirable, and that the cabinet crisis could be solved only with a cabinet directly responsible to "presidential authority."

He said he was ready to head such a government and place his movement at the disposal of the president to govern without parliament if necessary.

Here's about the hottest thing we have seen in print since the stars of R. C. (Lord) Chesterfield Hankins of the Midland-Reporter-Telegram, who adds the following explanation immediately: "A headline in the Colorado Record that reads: 'FIVE WOLVES ELECTED TO ALL-DISTRICT CLUB BY BIG SPRING SPORTS WRITER.' The 'Writer' referred to is Curtis Bishop and the men referred to are Stagner, end, Barrows, quarterback, Church, tackle and fullback. We must agree our friend Mr. Hankins is that it is news. It is very unexpected news since we have to our knowledge, made no strict selection for the 1932 season. Moreover we have no intentions of placing at least three of the quartet referred to on the Herald's mythical eleven. Hall we regard as probably the most overestimated back in District 3; Burris is a fair quarterback but by no means in the same class with Delker, Sheridan, Richbourg, Jones and one or two others; Church is just a candidate trying to get along and making a pretty good job of it; a kick on Jim Cantrell's fourth year eleven; Stagner is a formidable candidate for an all-district team; the Colorado star has been out of every contest in the last month with injuries.

George "Jughead" Zaronofotis presents the following all-star lineup for what altering his roster of the week: Dodson and Stagner, ends; H. Barnett and Grimsley, tackles; Martin and Holbert, guards; Sheridan, quarterback; Richbourg and Jones, halfbacks; and Delker, full back; Dyer, center.

D. H. "Tiny" Reid, who has lifted in quite a few games over the district, refuses to announce a forward way but insists upon Sheridan, Hall, Reid and Delker in his backfield.

Thursday's contest will spell curtains for the majority of the Big Spring players, and all-district lineup will feature the Steer roster for the day. Vines who has been ill with influenza may be in shape to start along with Dud Coats at ends; Reid and Armstrong Sanders are slated for tackle duty; Martin and Smith are placed at guards; Dyer, center; and Koberg or Harris, Morgan, Schwarzenbach and Richbourg in the backfield. The retiring gridsters, all regulars in this year's machine, promise a "blaze of glory" exit Turkey Day.

Admission for the holiday clash against the winners of Big Spring school officials will be 75c and 25c. Principal George Gentry avows himself perfectly willing to stay on more.

the 50c rate, but that refusal to meet the prices set by the District 3 committee for holiday games might mean the Steers would be an outcast from interscholastic athletics. At that, the last game of the season against a rival rival that is ranked on even terms, the price isn't so steep.

Jim Cantrell, Colorado coach declares that his squad is in perfect shape and that he doesn't expect to beat the Bristowmen over thirty points. That margin, if accumulated should be sufficient.

Heard over the District—Sweetwater school officials have made arrangements to run a special train to El Paso for the district game next week-end, according to information furnished by Blundy Cross through Gene Lowrie and Walter Duff.

The Colorado gridsters, by the way, told the Sweetwater players that San Angelo would not score on Thanksgiving Day. "They'll never score against you."

On the other hand it is the general consensus of the Big Spring players that San Angelo has the better team and will win the district.

Blundy Cross declares that the trio of Big Spring linemen who were placed on the Obie Brown all-district team, Martin, with and Dyer, were roundly outplayed, that at least three of the Bobcats' touchdowns were scored through the hands of the Big Spring line.

Several Colorado players declared after the San Angelo-Wolves game that the Bobcats were a "dirty" team, but that they were not near so dirty as that McCamey bunch. McCamey, on the other hand brands the Steers as the "dirtiest" team that ever trod a grid. So if everything is true the conflict is in for a tough session. The truth of the Big Spring-McCamey disagreement is that the Parkmen made a few ragging comments, with a little bit of profanity sprinkled here and there, and came out the worst.

Army Entrance Regulations Are More Stringent

Lifting the restrictions on recruiting to fill vacancies in the army, existing at Fort Bliss, does not mean that any man applying for enlistment will be accepted, according to Sergeant Chapman of the Big Spring army recruiting office.

The standard is very high regarding physical requirements, moral and education. A recruit must be nearly perfect physically. The army wants huskies. Morally, a man must be above suspicion. In order to determine the latter, the recruiting officer of this district, which includes Arizona, New Mexico and West Texas, must be in possession of two or more recommendations from responsible parties who have known the applicant a year or more.

This must be done before the applicant is given transportation to Fort Bliss from outside stations. On acceptance at Ft. Bliss and when applying directly at Fort Bliss, while awaiting receipt of recommendations, pending final enlistment, applicants will be housed and fed at Fort Bliss.

After satisfactory recommendations are received by a recruiting officer, the final examination as to physical and educational requirements will be given at Fort Bliss.

Teachers To Spend Vacations At Ft. Worth

Most of the teachers of the Big Spring high school will attend the meeting of the Texas State Teachers' Association at Fort Worth this coming week-end. In connection with Thanksgiving as many as possible plan to spend the day with their home folks.

Superintendent and Mrs. W. C. Blankenship expect to go to Fort Worth and on to Denton. So will Miss Helen Beavers, Mr. Blankenship's secretary, whose home is also in Denton. Principal and Mrs. George Gentry will attend the convention.

The following teachers will attend the convention and go to their homes for the remainder of the holidays: Mrs. W. O. Low, to Fort Worth and Denton; Wayne Matthews, Fort Worth and Alba; Ralph Houston, Lewisville; Mrs. Mary Eumpass, Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Coffey; Misses Nell Brown, Marie Johnson, Clara Se-

Follow The Crowds To Hear
JOE JEFFERS
The Brilliant, Militant Pastor and Evangelist
"Greatest Evangelist in America Today," so says Pastor of America's largest church. Conducted greatest revival any city has ever seen since the days of Moody and Sankey. Preached to a grand total of half million with 3500 professions and reclamations. Received 1400 additions at Jonesboro, Ark. as pastor in three months revival. Baptized over 1500 in last year. Only preacher in America to be honored with having Arkansas National Guard called to guard tent during this Revival which received national publicity.

Rev. Jeffers has been pastor of some of Texas' best churches. His last Texas pastorate was at Mexia during the oil boom. Numbers of Big Spring church people have heard him preach there and other Texas cities. Out of over 3,000 Baptist preachers he was selected as the first of five to act as State Evangelist. Preaching in nearly all the large and smaller cities of the state, as well as smaller towns and country places he soon was called to nearly every state to hold Revivals. He has preached in 40 states and 25 foreign countries. He has had over 40,000 professions in the last 14 years.

Several years ago the First Baptist Church here invited Rev. Jeffers for a Revival. He couldn't come then. For the past year many Christians have asked him to come to Big Spring for a city and county Revival. He now accepts all these calls and comes to help every true Christian, every Church, every sinner. Don't miss a service and you'll be deeper in the Word of God than ever before.

Subject Wednesday Night: "How to Have Plenty of Food In Every Home"
Thursday Night: "Have the Days of Miracles Passed?"
Friday Night: "Big Spring's Greatest Need"
Rev. Jeffers is assisted by Mrs. Jeffers, Rev. Romeo Hebert and Miss Willie Jeffers. Services beginning at seven each evening.
