

PLAIN TALK

By BILL PERKINS

We left town for 36 hours last weekend and when we returned we found that we must have missed the most eventful weekend of the year from a news standpoint.

While catching up on what happened when we got back it went something like this.

The football game with Clarendon was called off because of flu.

C. P. Hamilton's house out at Alanreed had caught fire but not much damage was done.

A car had burned on the McLean-Lefors highway.

A woman had been killed in a one-car accident near the Derby drive-in theatre.

And about the time we were finding out about all this the garage of George Terry's house caught on fire right behind where we live. When we first saw it it looked as though the entire house would be lost but the fire department managed to control things in record time.

Those five farmers in South Dakota who threw eggs at Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson got 30 days in jail and $100 fines each, but the judge suspended all but $50 of the fines. The secretary was egged at Sioux Falls, S. D. on Oct. 10. The farmers, after their conviction for disorderly conduct, said they weren't sorry about the whole thing. We just couldn't pass up this bit of information since we knew Sammy and Johnny Haynes want to keep posted on the case.

WOMAN DIES IN ACCIDENT NEAR McLEAN

Mrs. Bessie June Fair, 51, was pronounced dead on arrival at McLean Hospital and Clinic Saturday night after suffering injuries in a one-car accident on Highway 66 one mile east of town.

Her husband, Frank W. Fair, who was also in the car, walked into the hospital several minutes after his wife was brought in at 8:20 p. m. He was in a dazed condition and could not explain what had happened.

The car, which was demolished, turned over after hitting a guide post and stopped in a bar ditch on the four-lane highway.

It was not known whether the car had a flat tire or whether Mr. Fair, who was driving, had taken his eyes off the road immediately before the accident.

The couple was en route to Amarillo to visit a son at the time of the accident.

The body was taken to Oklahoma City in a Richerson-Lamb ambulance.

ABSENTEEISM IN SCHOOLS HIGH HERE DUE TO ILLNESS

McLean schools were plagued with a high number of absentees this week but the situation seemed to be getting better Wednesday when many of the students who had been absent the first two days of the week reported for classes.

Last Friday 64 pupils from the grade school were absent and the high school football game with Clarendon was called off due to illness of squad members.

On Monday 31 students in high school and 57 in elementary school were absent, and Tuesday showed the largest number of absentees when 32 were absent in high school and 77 in grade school.

Wednesday the number of absentees began to drop and 23 were absent from high school and 66 from elementary school.

In the grade school it was reported that the old fashioned sore throat seemed to be responsible for most of the absences Monday and Tuesday.

SLIGHT PRICE INCREASE IS SET FOR SCHOOL CAFETERIA

Because of a decrease in the commodities allocated to the public schools by the State Department of Public Welfare in connection with the United States Department of Agriculture, a slight increase in the price per meal is necessary. Supt. Freeman Melton announced this week.

In the past the cafeteria has received free such commodities as hamburger meat, ham, turkeys, lunch meat and canned pork. These commodities are no longer available. This decrease in commodities, combined with an increased cost of living, necessitates this price increase.

Effective Friday, Nov. 1, these prices will be charged in the McLean school cafeteria:

First through fifth grades, 30¢ per meal.
Sixth through 12th grades, 35¢ per meal.

Extra milk: 8¢ per bottle.

The majority of Panhandle schools have been charging these prices for several years. This year, many have been forced to increase the price another nickel. "We feel," Supt. Melton said, "this price increase will enable Further proof of McLean's continued growth was evidenced last week when deposits at the American National Bank in McLean soared to an all-time high.

The bank's official statement for October 11, 1957, showed that total assets were $2,108,473.91, making this call the first one in the 47-year history of the bank where total assets passed the two million dollar mark, Clifford Allison, executive vice president, said.

Elmo Whaley, the bank cashier, said that on October 14 and 15, the deposits alone were over $2,000,000.00.

Compared to this same time a year ago deposits are almost a half million dollars above those of last year. Last year at this time deposits were $1,465,965 as compared to $1,914,438 this year, making a gain of $448,473.

A confidence woman left a McLean business short of $85 in merchandise and with little confidence in strangers Monday afternoon.

The woman, described as in her 40's, went into the Children's Shop on the pretext of selecting a complete layette which she, and some friends, were to give as a gift.

The woman, apparently familiar with local happenings of recent months, mentioned several names of local people.

After she had selected what she wanted she told the clerk that she wanted to take the merchandise to show her friends and get their approval before she definitely made the purchase. She said that if they approved she would be back in Tuesday morning and pay for the merchandise or would return it if they weren't satisfied. She walked out with the merchandise.

She signed for the merchandise, using the name, "P. McDonald," which is believed to be fictitious. She claimed to be a nurse and formerly associated with a local doctor. It was after the doctor was contacted that it was realized that the woman was a fraud and the doctor had no knowledge of her or her story.

Her description was turned over to police officers who are investigating.

Sen. Yarborough Says Farmers Not Being Told About Aid Due

Giddings, Oct. 23—Twenty million dollars was appropriated last August to help drought and flood plagued farmers and ranchers rebuild their land but Texans haven't received any of the money, Senator Ralph Yarborough stated. The senator declared that Agriculture Secretary Ezra Benson has "fought the program all the way," and that thousands of eligible farmers and ranchers have not been told of their rights under the plan.

Speaking at the annual bar-becue meeting of the Lee County Farm Bureau, Senator Yarborough who took the lead in getting the $20 million appropriated, said the land damage funds are "critically needed."

"Some farmers are still being forced from their land and many others are unable to practice farming methods necessary to remedy erosion. This money is needed to help get the topsoil back on the land but Benson hasn't even seen fit to let Texas farm folk know about the program," Senator Yarborough declared.

Tax-Man Sam Sez:

Planning on the amount of self employment tax you owe can reap big dividends for a lot of farmers and small business men. Congress has provided very liberal benefits to a lot of old timers in the last few years. In many cases a farmer or a business man in his 60's can substantially increase the amount of social security he will receive by making additional sales on which self-employment tax is due. The Social Security Administration carefully checks the eligibility of applicants for social security payments. It pays to be careful in determining exactly how much employment tax you owe. The Farmers Tax Guide (free), Your Federal Income Tax (35c), and the Small Business Tax Guide (35c) all give a clear explanation of how much self-employment tax you owe. These publications can be obtained from the Internal Revenue Service after about December 1. Many county agents now have or will have a copy of the Farmers Tax Guide for local farmers.

UNMERRY-GO-ROUND

Houston.—Susy Power, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Power, promises to be a fine housekeeper one day. She doesn't like dirt of any kind.

The other day Susy remarked proudly to her mother that "those dirty kitties are going round and round."

Mrs. Power let the remark soak in, then gasped and headed for the washing machine. Peering forlornly through the glass port were four wet and frightened kittens, who had indeed been "going round and round"—thru the full soap cycle!

Mrs. Power hauled the animals out. "Fortunately, the machine was set for lukewarm," she said. "The kitties weren't hurt, but they were certainly clean!"

"Well, I should hope I do," the lady snapped. "I've been teaching school for 25 years."

REAL REALISM

Midland.—A Midland Community Theatre play rehearsal became a little too realistic.

The cast was rehearsing the forthcoming production of "Detective Story." Hugh Broyles, a Midland school teacher, was playing the part of a prisoner handcuffed to a chair.

Time came to free him. The key was missing. The wrong handcuffs had been used.

Broyles was taken, chair and all, to Midland police headquarters where Officer Vernon Conn succeeded in picking the lock.

Billy Davis Receives Recognition for Conservation Work

A Gray County rancher has been selected as one of the top 25 Texas farmers and ranchers to receive an unusual award in recognition of the excellent soil and water conservation on his land.

Billy Davis, who ranches east of Lefors, has been notified by W. C. Howard, president of the Association of Texas Soil Conservation Districts, that he is one of 25 farmers and ranchers in Texas selected to receive the award.

This is the first year of the award program and the unusual award will be a beautiful 18x24 inch oil colored and framed aerial photograph of Davis' ranch.

The picture will be presented to Davis after it has been exhibited at different fairs and shows in the state, and after being displayed at the January 15-17 convention of Texas Soil Conservation District Supervisors at Corpus Christi.

The first public showing of the 25 pictures was at the State Fair of Texas at Dallas where they can be seen in the agriculture building.

Davis was named as the rancher doing the most outstanding soil and water conservation work in the Gray County Soil Conservation District during 1956 by the supervisors of the district. He was selected as the most outstanding rancher doing this work in the region comprising the Panhandle and South Plains.

The group will meet at the Methodist church at 6:30 on Halloween night to receive the containers and be grouped. They will canvass the town for an hour, then meet back at the church for a party sponsored by the MYF. The party will be over in time for the football boys to be home by 9:30.

Contributions to the young people who come to your door will be appreciated.

All senior high youth are urged to come and participate.

HIGH WINDS and waves herald the approach of Hurricane Audrey last June 27 along the Louisiana coastline near Cameron. By Hugh Williamson Literally, the weather is great for ducks.

A lot of Texans, you may be sure, have been thinking it over, inasmuch as the duck season opens November 1 and extends to December 30.

Big rains this year have broken the drouth along the Gulf Coast, providing plenty of surface water for the birds. Conditions in the marsh areas of the upper coast are the best in 10 years.

There will be an excellent crop of such native waterfowl food as wild duck millet, smartweeds.

Along the lower coast, the duck prospects are also very good. October rain caused habitat conditions to improve rapidly.

Add to all this the fact that the duck breeding season in the north was a successful one, and you have every indication of good duck hunting in Texas during the coming season.

Many varieties of ducks come to Texas with the cool winds of fall.

Of the various kinds, the mallard predominates. A grain-eater, the mallard's flesh has a mild flavor. Fish-eating ducks have a stronger taste.

Biggest of the ducks available to Texans is the American merganser, which may go to four pounds. Smallest is the green-winged teal, averaging three-quarters of a pound.

A duck hunter must know his birds—bag limits vary with the species.

How to Do It

What's the secret of duck hunting—or any wing shooting? Well, it takes a steady hand, a clear eye, and good coordination, of course, but it also takes a gun that fits the shooter.

With time and money, you can do business with gun specialists who will fit the gun to your particular needs.

You'll get all kinds of tests, including some in the field. At the end of a year or so you'll have your gun, which will fit you like an old shoe. It will cost you about $2,000.

Most of us don't have that kind of moola. But we can take our time in selecting a weapon, try it out, borrow a gun from a friend, talk about it, and be sure, before we purchase, that the gun fits.

Then we can go duck hunting, and if all the factors are right we can get birds.

Practice Helps

It goes without saying that practice is one of the elements of accurate wing shooting. Some rounds of skeet, before the season opens, should serve to sharpen the eye.

Another item is distance. A beginner is likely to blast away at ducks from afar, but a more experienced shooter will wait until they come closer.

At 12 yards, a duck looks bigger than a turkey. At 20 yards he shrinks down to chicken size. At 30 yards, he's more like a pigeon, and at 40 yards, he's down to dove dimensions. Off there at 50 yards, he's an English sparrow, and at 60 yards, he's a hummingbird.

Too Many Deer

Game management officials are in some disagreement about reducing the deer population in some areas.

In Kerr County, for example, game commission biologists found that the land is overstocked and overgrazed. They recommended that hunters be permitted to kill doe as well as buck deer this season.

Kerr County commissioners rejected this proposal, and the state commission held with the Kerr County group, so there will be no legal doe shooting in the county this year.

There is a strong likelihood, say the biologists, that many Kerr County deer will die of starvation this winter.

There is a different situation in the Engelling area of Anderson County where, on a block of land owned by the state commission, permits will be issued to kill 100 deer of either sex.

An excess of does was discovered in the area.

Gal Wardens?

Maybe Texas is going to have female game wardens. The notion has been put forward by Sportsmen's Clubs of Texas.

Pickerei in Texas

Did you know you can catch chain pickerel in Texas? You can.

That would be at Caddo Lake, where this relative of the northern pike and the majestic muskellunge abounds.

The pickerel lives in quiet, weedy waters and grows to 26 inches or so, and four pounds. A hungry citizen of Caddo's cypress swamps, the pickerel will strike practically anything that moves. He especially likes flashy underwater lures and noisy topwater baits.

A mystery is where the pickerel goes in midsummer, but a good guess is that he seeks a deep, cool place and remains practically dormant. But in the fall he perks up, and by November he is ready for something to eat. The pickerel, by the way, is a good eating fish. Skin him, remove bones, cut into narrow strips, dip in batter, and fry until well done.

Skier-Fishermen

After trouble between fishermen and water skiers on a California lake, the U. S. Forest Service has set up some restrictions.

Anglers and skiers have agreed to these regulations: Fishermen have the lake all to themselves on Saturdays, with no skiers allowed. Skiing is permitted from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. other days within boundaries marked by buoys.

Well, nobody wants to be regulated, but regulation will come to Texas lakes if the fishermen and skiers can't get along with each other. They can because all it takes is courtesy, thoughtfulness and consideration of the other fellow.

California is 770 miles long.

out, a minister who filed a waiver after April 15, 1957, and before August 31, which was valid for 1957, but too late to get coverage for 1956, may still get coverage by filing a supplemental waiver.

The law now provides that ministers will include as net earnings for social security purposes, (1) the rental value of a parsonage or rental allowance furnished them as part of their compensation and (2) the value of meals and lodging furnished them for the convenience of their employer. This change in the law applies only to the amount of a minister's earnings which are covered by social security it does not affect his liability for income tax. This provision is effective for taxable year ending on after December 31, 1957.

Amendment Gives Clergymen Coverage Under Social Security

Clergymen who have failed to elect social security coverage as self-employed persons now have another chance to secure old-age, survivors, and disability insurance protection for themselves and their families, John R. Sanderson, manager of the Amarillo social security office, declared.

An amendment to the Internal Revenue Code gives them, in general from August 31, 1957, through April 15, 1959, to elect social security coverage, he said. Ministers who file waiver certificates during this extended period will be mandatorily covered for 1956 and for all subsequent years in which they have net earnings from self-employment of $400 or more, including earnings from the practice of their ministry.

GRASSROOTS OPINION

Beaver Falls, Pa., News-Tribune: "Taxpayers are consistent in one respect. None ever complains about the amount being too low."

Chico, Calif., Enterprise-Record: "Anti-trust laws at the present time do not cover labor unions. But if matters take their possible course in the labor field, it may be necessary for Congress to give serious consideration to putting union under the anti-trust statutes. From the nation's standpoint, the prospect of a union transportation monopoly is fearsome enough in its basic features. But it is made far more unwholesome by the character of the unions and the leadership involved."

Somerset, Ky., Journal: "The possibility of using disguised patrol cars is currently being considered in many areas. Such an idea has often been discussed, always with a wave of public indignation that the use of unmarked cars is unfair. Their use, certainly, is drastic action, but we believe that it would be entirely justified in light of the terrible slaughter taking place on the nation's highways."

Masontown, Pa., Bulletin: "Smoky, the Bear, has been seen on television many times during the past few months, warning us to avoid forest and brush fires. The trouble with Smoky on TV is that while his message may be appropriate to California or New England viewers at a given time, he is also warning people who are in the midst of a rainy season. Like the school zone signs which lose their effect when they remain on the street during the summer vacation, the regular appearance of Smoky robs his message of effectiveness."

Waco, Texas, Farm and Labor Journal: "As organized labor we will continue to work within the system of free enterprise. That system is as dear to us as to anyone. There could be no free labor without free capital. Collective bargaining would be meaningless in a government-dominated economy. . . . The right of business to a fair return is basic to the American system. Equally basic is the right of labor to a fair wage."

McLean vs. Pampa
The McLean High School basketball team went to Pampa last Friday afternoon and played the high school team of that place a fast game, in which the score resulting was 18 to 10 in favor of McLean. The line-up was as follows:

Hughes Quattlebaum and Buck Glass, left guards; Roy Terry, center; Millard Newton and Floyd Walsler, forwards, first half; Millard Newton and Victor Back, forwards, second half.

This was the first game of the season, and considering this, the boys did exceptionally well.

Here's hoping that the McLean basketball team will continue to be victorious, and that they will come out the champion high school team of the Panhandle at the end of the season.

Luther Derriek was in from his farm 10 miles north of town Wednesday.

Mr. Bailey has sold his ranch south of town to H. E. Franks. Mr. Bailey will build a modern home on his section of land three miles from town and move to it some time in the near future.

Miss Alma Evans went to Fort Worth the last of last week, where she will attend business college.

Sam Pakan has returned from a trip to Chicago, where he was looking after property interests.

W. T. Wilson, manager of the Cicero Smith Lbr. Co., has sold his 160-acre farm east of town to George Graham of Crowell, who will move here about Jan. 1.

Mr. Graham is recommended to us as a good man and a valuable acquisition to our citizenship, and we are glad he will locate among us.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Quattlebaum went to Amarillo Tuesday, returning that night. They went there to meet Mr. Quattlebaum's mother, Mrs. Z. A. Steadman of Collinsville, who is visiting them.

Asa Morgan has bought the Callahan-Foster quarter section of land near Heald.

Mrs. A. L. Almond of Hooker is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. B. Upham.

The News is in receipt of a copy of a letter to Mrs. S. R. Kennedy of Alanreed from her son, S. H. Kennedy, who is in the naval training station at San Francisco.

German Prisoners Pass Through
A train load of Germans—real live ones—passed through McLean last Friday night. They were prisoners taken from interned ships on the Pacific Coast, and were on their way to detention camps in the east. They came through at a late hour in the night and the people of our city, many of them, did not learn of it until several days later.

Increase in Postal Rates
On Nov. 2 there goes into effect the new war increase in postal rates. The rate on letters will be three cents, on postal cards two cents, and on drop letters two cents. Circular letters and printed matter that has heretofore gone at the one-cent rate will after that date require two cents. The rate has not been changed on parcel post and other mail matter.

MY FEET GET ITCHY

Abilene—Abilene police can usually depend on Mike Garity to stop in for a visit when things get slow.

Recently he came by, with the assistance of eight Negro boys who found him loose about 9:30 p. m. near Lincoln Junior High. They dropped him at the police station. He was armed with a toy double-barrel shotgun.

Mike is 7, and a regular visitor with city officers. Every few weeks, police say, his bare feet itch and he goes for an unauthorized stroll. A while back he got on a tricycle and rode across Abilene to a feed mill building, which he promptly climbed.

Another time Police Radio Operator Allen Hatchett encountered Mike. On a borrowed tricycle he had left home and pedaled the vehicle three miles to Municipal Airport. Hatchett saved him the

From a PASTOR'S STUDY

By Gerald L. Hill

The story comes from the pen of Abraham Lincoln of a village blacksmith whom he had intently watched as the smith's hammer rang on the anvil and caused sparks to fly from metal. It was a blacksmith shop like any other, with nothing unusual about it, except the smith's inability to forge the red-hot iron into the desired shape. He would hammer and then repeat, and hammer again. When one form appeared as the result of his labor, it was not what he wanted, so into the flame it went again to be re-heated.

This process was repeated over and over, and seemingly no progress was made. Finally, the smith in disgust, exclaimed, "At least I can make a fizzle out of it," and thrust it into a barrel of water. When he withdrew it, it had become just another lump of cold, hard metal, without any form or fashion. The morning's work had come to nothing except a "fizzle."

In connection with this, we are reminded of other activity that has ended in a "fizzle." Peter and the disciples had fished all night and had caught nothing. The nets were empty, and there was no heart left to throw them into the water again. But when Peter heard the voice of the Master saying to cast his nets, once more, he reluctantly heaved them into the sea. It was that last cast that made all his fishing a successful endeavor, for he caught more fish than he could handle.

Many of us find ourselves on the edge of success, that distant goal which sometimes vanishes like a mirage. There may be many times when you hammer away, or fish away and still come out with nothing to show for labor. The difference between success and fizzle may lie in that one last cast of the net, that final test of a man's faith—for success in life depends upon that struggle through faith to the attainment of one goal.

A prayer: Almighty God, Thou who hast ordained that men shall live by faith, strengthen our hearts and increase our courage. Help us to maintain noble aspirations and worthy purposes, and trip back.

After his last trip an officer jokingly told Mike he might have to spank him if he caught him gallivanting around again. The boy studied the policeman a few moments, then replied, "My mother will do that when I get home."

hours later drove the farm tractor to the home of a relative, who took her to the hospital.

Opinions Vary
 No member of the Legislature is saying there shouldn't be laws on lobby control, water conservation, or other items listed in Gov. Price Daniel's special session call. But there are about as many ideas on how-to-do-it as there are members in both houses. Hence, for each law the road to passage probably will be littered with scores of amendments.

Contributing most to the discomfort and difficulties of the lawmakers is shortage of money. Robert Calvert, state comptroller, bluntly predicts a $6,000,000 deficit by the end of this biennium. To meet costs of this session the legislature re-allocated funds appropriated for the regular session. Money to launch the new water planning program is to be gotten, a little here, a little there.

Who Gets the Water?
 This session's state-wide water planning measure is already caught in the same swift currents that have capsized many previous water measures.

Mostly, it boils down to a fear by each individual lawmaker that the overall plan might benefit one area by taking water from his area. Governor Daniel asked the lawmakers to set up machinery under the State Water Board to draw up a state-wide master plan for water. Measures to this effect were introduced in the House by Rep. W. N. Woolsey of Corpus Christi and in the Senate by Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas.

Sponsors have repeatedly reassured that the bill would not take away "any vested right of any water user in Texas." But Rep. W. A. Stroman of San Antonio objected to giving the Water Board planners "law-making powers."
 Rep. Leroy Saul of Kress withdrew as House sponsor of the bill

Rep. Leroy Saul of Kress withdrew as House sponsor of the bill because he said he believed its passage would "lead to deficit financing."

State Practice Act
 A closer watch and possible limitation of practice before state agencies is proposed in a House bill.

Sponsoring a bill to regulate representation before state agencies are Reps. L. DeWitt Hale, B. G. Forsyth of Corpus Christi and J. C. Day of Brookshire. Their bill would require each agency to register those who appear before it. This bill also would bar lawmakers from such practice entirely if the constitutional amendment raising their salaries to $7,500 annually is passed.

This was one of the bills requested by the governor.

Law Enforcement Study
 Creation of a law enforcement commission, which failed in the regular session, is back in the legislative mills. This time the proposal is for a commission to study means of crime prevention and improvement of the penal code—but not to investigate specific violations.

Sponsors are Rep. Dick Cory of Victoria and Sen. George Moffett of Chillicothe.

Oil Imports Hit
 Companies which import foreign crude oil could have their Texas production cut back under a proposed House bill.

Reps. John Lee of Kermit and Charles Ballman of Borger introduced the bill. It is "waiting in line" with others that cannot be considered until the governor opens up the session to additional topics.

It would give the Railroad Commission power to reduce the allowable production on wells owned by those who import oil. It is designed to help Texas producers who have been unable to find markets for their oil.

Short Snorts
 Asst. Atty. Gen. J. L. Smith has resigned to return to law practice in San Augustine. Linwood Shivers of Carthage has joined the attorney general's staff. State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert will be honored Nov. 15, 16 as man of the year at Howard Payne College homecoming. Clark Diebel has resigned as executive secretary of the Veterans Land Board to become statement analyst in the examination division of the State Board of Insurance.

PATTERSON-RICHARDSON WEDDING REVEALED
 Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Richardson announce the recent marriage of their son, Virgil O., to Miss Jonelle Patterson of Odessa. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lock Patterson.

The vows were read by Minister C. B. Burns of the Southside Church of Christ in Abilene. After a short honeymoon, they are at home at 1309 East 36th, Odessa.

"SOS" has no literal meaning, but was chosen as a distress signal because of its ease in transmitting.

Electric Power Out Here After Oil Field Accident Injures Two

McLean was without electric power for approximately 30 minutes Saturday morning following an accident in which two men received electrical burns.

The two men, both from Pampa, were injured when a pole on their truck came in contact with a high voltage electrical line.

The accident occurred on the P. A. Worley lease about 10 miles southeast of Pampa when the men were raising a pole in preparation to servicing a well. The men were employed by the Triangle Well Servicing company.

McLean School Hosts Area School Nurses

The McLean Elementary School was the host Wednesday to the Panhandle School Nurses Association which held a one-day meeting here.

A majority of the school nurses from all over the Panhandle and some school administrators were present for the meeting.

Following registration the day's program got under way about 10:00 a. m. with general school health problems being discussed. Lunch for the visitors was in the school cafeteria and during the afternoon the function of the telebinocular was discussed.
