First Bale Ginned in McLean

Harvesting of this area's cotton crop is officially underway, but operations aren't expected to be in full swing for several more days.

D. D. Pennington in a repeat performance from last year, produced the first bale of cotton brought to the McLean Gin for processing.

The 475-pound bale was ginned last Thursday from approximately 2,000 pounds of pulled cotton. Actually, the trailer load of cotton had been ready for ginning since Sept. 15, but it had to wait until the gin was prepared for operation.

B. F. Holland, gin manager, said the equipment is ready for full-time duty now, and more cotton is expected here later this week.

Southwest of McLean

Pennington raised the cotton on the Norman Johnston farm, which he rents, one-half mile southwest of McLean.

He pulled open bolls over about 20 acres to produce enough for the first bale. His first bale was ginned in 1959 on Oct. 5.

It took the upland field of Lankhart 6-11 four months to the day to mature sufficiently to produce the bale.

Pennington said he has a total of 110 acres in cotton.

MERCHANTS TO GET HELP IN COLLECTIONS

The McLean Retail Merchants Association will begin serving as a collection agency for member firms, it was announced at a board of directors meeting the past week.

Mrs. Wilma Banks, manager, told board members that the local association is now affiliated with both the Texas and National Retail Merchants Associations and is prepared to function as a collection agency for past-due accounts.

Mrs. Banks disclosed that reports received from similar associations in other cities had more than doubled in the past 30 days, indicating further recognition of the local merchants organization.

Cards Ordered
Membership cards for 1961 have been ordered and will be delivered in December, the manager said. Suggestions for business promotions were discussed, and directors voted to send Mrs. Banks to the Southwestern Management Institute in Austin next Feb. 20-24.

Directors attending the meeting were Bill Stubbs, Dick Dickinson and Hickman Brown.

Jack Marquis New Rock Island Agent

Jack Marquis arrived this week to take over the duties as depot agent for the Rock Island Railroad in McLean.

Marquis, who came here from El Reno, Okla., replaces A. D. Craig. Craig has been transferred to Sayre, Okla., as telegraph operator.

The new agent said Tuesday his assignment here probably would be only temporary. His wife, Carolyn, and four-month-old son, Jackie D. Jr., will join Marquis in McLean late this week.

Marquis, a native of Wilburton, Okla., has been an employee of Rock Island for two years and eight months.

Trio Sought in Rape Of Young Girl Here

The search for a trio of abusive armed bandits who raped a 15-year-old girl and robbed her mother of $60 east of McLean last Thursday had extended into Mexico this morning.

Officers reported early today that they believe the three—two whites and a Negro—are in Juarez, Mexico.

An intensive hunt for the trio was touched off here last week after a California woman and her daughter were stopped on Highway 66 east of McLean by men posing as officers.

Constable J. D. Fish said the thugs told the woman she was speeding when she passed through McLean.

One, armed with a pistol and wearing a Highway Patrol-type hat and a badge, entered the woman's car after telling the victims to keep their heads against the dash, apparently to prevent identification later. He drove the car some two miles south on a country road, while his accomplices followed in their car.

There one of the men criminally assaulted the girl, after first whipping her with a rope and tying her up.

Fish said the three left the woman, who was pregnant, and her daughter and drove the car

WINNERS OF TOURNEY TOLD

Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Haynes took first-place honors Sunday in the first McLean Lions Golf Association Scotch foursome tournament at the local course.

Pete Rice and his sister, Mrs. Verna Burris, were runnersup in the event, in which 14 men and 14 women participated.

Joe Burroughs, association tournament chairman, announced that another Scotch tournament is scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 16.

In the tournament, men and women are paired. Each twosome uses only one golf ball.

Good Turnout
Burroughs described last Sunday's turnout as "very good," and invited all interested couples to enter the Oct. 6 competition.

Persons need not be members of the association to enter.

Thirty-three members have joined the newly formed Lions Golf Association, according to latest figures.

Memberships are $25, and may be paid either in a lump sum or over a period of a year at $2.25 per month. Dues are $2.50 a month.

Juniors Win, Go to Memphis Tonight

McLean Junior High gridickers racked up their 15th straight victory last Thursday by downing Clarendon, 38-8.

The youths, coached by R. L. Cline, are scheduled to meet Memphis at 7 p. m. today in Memphis. Canadian visits here on Oct. 13 and Lefors on Oct. 20, with both games set for 7 p. m.

Dickie Crockett scored four touchdowns and converted four times in the Clarendon tussle, while Eddie Windom counted the fifth TD.

The junior Tigers' winning streak now stretches over three seasons.

Meeting Friday

The Old Timers Club will meet at 2 p. m. Friday in the Lovett Library at Pampa, according to Mrs. Cliff Vincent, chairman.

All persons who have lived in the Panhandle area 50 or more years are invited to attend.

FEW REQUEST HOUSE RENTAL

Only four applications had been received up to Tuesday from families desiring to move into the new low-rent housing units in McLean.

Applications are being taken at the city hall.

Persons knowing of families eligible to occupy the units, constructed here by the federal government, were urged to encourage them to make application.

The 12 brick units are almost ready for occupancy by low-income families.

6 Duplexes

The six duplex structures contain one, two and three-bedroom units and were erected at a cost of $116,800 by Barker Construction Co. of Quanah.

A stove and refrigerator are furnished, as is a "reasonable" amount of utilities—water, gas and electricity.

The rent is to be determined by each family's income.

The McLean Housing Authority is in charge of the units and will receive applications to determine eligible tenants.

EDWINA GETS FOURTH TITLE

George F. Saunders' Edwina 12 continued to roll up the grand championships last week, and more competition is ahead.

Latest top-place banner added by the Angus female came at the Panhandle-South Plains Fair Sept. 29 in Lubbock.

Thus she kept her record of having no defeats in her class on the show circuit this season.

This week Saunders was showing Edwina 12 in the Tulsa State Fair in Oklahoma, and from there she will go to the Texas State Fair in Dallas.

Head at Tulsa

Saunders took eight head of Angus to the Tulsa Fair. How the animals fared hadn't been learned here Wednesday morning.

The South Plains title was the fourth grand championship captured by Edwina 12 this fall. She earlier won at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo, at Topeka, Kan., and Douglas, Wyo.

In addition, Edwina 12 was named reserve champion at the Pueblo, Colo., Fair.

Poster Contest Is Planned in McLean

The McLean Lions Club and volunteer fire department will co-sponsor a Fire Prevention Week poster contest in the elementary school, according to Fire Chief Boyd Meador.

Meador said Fire Prevention Week is scheduled for Oct. 9-15.

Awards are being offered to students having the poster judged first, second and third in the competition.

Further details are to be announced next week.

Undergoes Surgery

Charles Weaver, McLean service station operator, was reported making satisfactory progress Wednesday after undergoing serious back surgery last Friday in the Amarillo Northwest Texas Hospital.

Queen's Crowning Set Friday Night

Now at full strength, the McLean Tigers finish off their non-district schedule Friday by hosting the Wellington Skyrockets at 8 p. m.

Fresh from last week's 34-20 victory over the Claude Mustangs, Coach Clifford Bradshaw's Bengals will be attempting Friday to move back into the 500-batting column as they perform for McLean High School's football queen.

The queen will be crowned at halftime of Friday's game, and her identity is to be kept secret until that time.

Competing for the title are Nancy Meacham, Dixie Burroughs and Nona Beck. They were chosen by vote of the Tiger squad, and another ballot will decide which will reign over Friday's festivities.

Miss Meacham, a senior, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jewel Meacham. Miss Burroughs and Miss Beck are juniors, and their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Burroughs and Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Beck.

Miss Burroughs and Miss Meacham are representing their respective classes as cheerleaders, while Miss Beck is active in the pep club.

Crowning the queen will be Tiger Co-Captains Clyde Windom and Kenny Willingham.

McLean's backfield will be shuffled for Friday's engagement, Coach Bradshaw said.

George Patton, who became eligible to play with the Tigers on Oct. 1, will replace Clyde Windom at fullback. Windom, a regular guard, had been shifted to the backfield position earlier after injuries cut into McLean's ranks.

Now, the hard-playing youth will return to the line.

Kenny Willingham who, because of pre-season injuries had been forced to stay out of uniform in previous games, returned to his regular quarterback assignment last Friday, and he'll start there again this week.

At left halfback will be Jim Watson, while Tommy Herron will run from the other halfback position.

At ends will be Donnie Woods and Joel Meacham; tackles, Phillip Flowers and Gary Gordin; guards, Windom and John Pettit; center, John Evans.

The Tigers came out on top in a see-saw tussle at Claude last week, while Wellington fell to Clarendon, 22-6.

Windom opened the scoring for McLean with a 70-yard jaunt on the Tigers' third play from scrimmage, but the conversion attempt failed, leaving the locals with a 6-0 lead.

Razzle-dazzle ball handling by Claude Quarterback Harry Wood and his backfield buddies temporarily stumped McLean, and End Tommy McGowan tripped across from two yards out in the second period to tie the count.

Lion Broom Sale Will Be Staged In City Oct. 18

McLean Lions Club members will stage their annual broom sale following their next meeting on Oct. 18.

Club President Sammy Haynes reminded McLean residents that brooms and other similar household articles will be offered for sale, with the profit to be used in Lions projects.

Immediately after the Oct. 18 club luncheon, members of the organization will begin the sales campaign throughout the city.

Crockett Is 'Cub'

Haynes reminded club members of the sale during the regular luncheon Tuesday in the First Methodist Church.

Doug Crockett, McLean High School senior, was introduced as the Lions' "cub for October."

A senior boy is chosen by the club each month for the honor. The "cub" is a guest at all Lions functions during the month.

Derral Davis, high school basketball coach and assistant football coach, was introduced as a new member of the club.

MAIL VOLUME ON INCREASE

Mail volume in McLean and across the nation reached a new all-time high during fiscal year 1960 which ended June 30, according to Bill R. Reeves, local postmaster.

Reeves said the steady upward trend of the past seven years continued at a rate which even exceeded the population growth.

Here in McLean receipts of the Post Office climbed from $14,121.28 in 1953 to $30,461.63 last year.

Most of the increase in receipts on the local level is directly attributable to Fourth Class mailings by the Marie Foundations industrial plant, according to Reeves.

Although subject to last-minute revisions, the year's total in the United States has been estimated at 63.6 billion pieces of mail, including about 1 billion pieces of parcel post.

Up 25 Per Cent
This means an increase of nearly 25 per cent over the corresponding figures for 1953, when the annual volume was 50.9 billion pieces.

Revenue of the Post Office Department also has shown an impressive gain, from $2,091,714,000 in fiscal year 1953 to $3,276,800,000 in the past fiscal year.

The number of Post Office Department employees went up only 11 per cent in the period.

The steady increase in business here, creating the need for additional space, apparently was the main factor in the Post Office Department's decision to construct a new Post Office.

Work on the building is rapidly nearing completion, but a delay in the shipping of furniture and equipment may hold up occupancy until late this year or early in 1961.

COMPLETION NEAR: McLean's new Post invited. However, a delay in the arrival Office building is nearing completion, asof equipment and furniture may hold up shown in this recent picture. LOOSE SMUT OF WHEAT IS ON INCREASE

COLLEGE STATION—(Special)—In recent years, the growing of wheat varieties highly susceptible to loose smut has caused the disease to become increasingly important throughout Texas. Harlan E. Smith, extension plant pathologist, says the disease was observed in many central Texas wheat fields during 1960, and damage in some went as high as 25 per cent. The disease, Smith adds, is generally more damaging in areas of higher rainfall or high humidity.

While Ponca, Pawnee, Triumph and Austin wheats are resistant to the disease, Smith points out that control can be achieved on varieties such as Quanah, Concho, Kiowa and Bison, which are susceptible, through the use of a special seed water-soak method. Seed, thus treated, can be used for planting increase blocks. They should be planted in an isolated field as far as possible from fields sown with infected seed.

Here are Smith's suggestions for the water-soak method of wheat seed treatment for controlling loose smut: Fill burlap bags about half full of wheat seed. Place the sack or sacks in a container of water at room temperature for six hours. Then place them in an empty oil drum or barrel which has a tight-fitting lid for 72 hours.

When the sacks are removed from the barrel, the seed should be removed from the sack and placed in the shade to dry. After they have dried, Smith says they can then be treated with ceresin or parogen. He cautions that these materials should be used in accordance with the manufacturer's recommendations.

The pathologist adds that local county agents can supply additional information not only on loose smut disease but others which may cause economic losses in the county.

Approximately 100 head of Hereford, Angus and Shorthorn will be featured at the first performance test bull and female beef cattle sale. The sale will be held at the Car Lot Bull Barns, Fort Worth, on Oct. 25, according to Mrs. C. H. Bertram, sales chairman.

Will you harvest crops or accidents this year? Machine harvesting can be extremely dangerous if it is done in a hurry, or if the equipment is not in the best possible condition. Be sure the seats, controls and steps are in good repair. Keep the shields and safety guards in place. Wear the right clothes for the job. Also, the Texas farm and ranch safety council points out, children are definitely out of place around harvesting machinery.

SLEEK IMPALA: Designers have applied smooth, graceful lines to the 1961 Chevrolet Impala, Bel Air and Biscayne passenger car lines. Wings on the rear deck have been smoothed into the body. Roof lines, as noted in the Impala sport sedan above, are freshly contoured and are separately styled for each model. Over all body design features gently sloping lines. Rear truck deck lid now opens flush with top of bumper, affording easier loading and unloading. The new Chevrolets go on display Friday at Ellison Motor Co. in McLean.

Pardons, Paroles Budget Okayed

The State Board of Pardons and Paroles has approved its budget request for the years 1962-63 which is to be submitted to the governor and to the next Legislature. This budget request is aimed toward fully implementing the program previously proposed by the board in 1957.

That program called for the gradual employment of 40 parole officers during 1958 and the addition of 30 parole officers in 1959. The board was granted sufficient funds to employ only the 40 parole officers during 1958. Subsequently, the 1960 Legislature provided for the continuance of a force of 40 parole officers for the period thru 1961.

While the parole staff has remained constant, the parole rate has grown sharply and steadily. In 1957, the last year before professional parole supervision, the number of inmates paroled was 750.

Following the establishment of a professional parole system, the parole rate climbed to 1,500 in 1958; 1,800 in 1959, and will surpass 2,220 in 1960.

This increasing rate has made an important contribution to public safety because a parole system is basically directed toward the prevention of crime.

For without clemency of any kind 95 per cent of the 11,000 inmates now in prison will eventually serve their sentence and be released in the community; 80 per cent will be in society in less than five years, while more than 50 per cent will fully serve their sentence and walk the streets of our cities and towns in less than two years.

These inmates can either serve their terms completely and be turned loose at the prison gates with no restrictions or assistance, or they can be released under the supervision and guidance of a trained parole officer.

Prior to January, 1958, the board was unable to give any assistance to inmates in developing release plans. Consequently, an ever-growing number of inmates had to stay in the penitentiary because of the lack of any program to which they could be released. Most of these inmates were subsequently released by discharge.

Secondly, supervision was provided entirely by volunteers. Many individuals gave generously of their time, but inevitably there could neither be standard procedure nor frequent regular contacts with parolees in the field or with community agencies.

As the number on parole began to rise, this system was taxed beyond its capacity. As a result of these two factors, the public was being afforded the protection of a parole system in an increasingly smaller percentage of cases and a growing number of inmates was being released by discharge.

This situation, coupled with the swelling prison population, brought about the establishment of the first professional parole supervision program in the history of the state in January of 1958.

Since the beginning of that system, there has been a sharp improvement in guidance and supervision for the thousands of persons on parole in its wider use as a method of release.

For example, from 1955 through 1957, 29 per cent of those released from prison were under parole supervision, while 71 per cent completed their sentence and were simply turned loose by discharge. By the end of this year, the percentage released under parole supervision, as opposed to discharge, will have climbed to nearly 50 per cent.

Despite the sharp shift in the use of parole, the violation rate has not increased. Especially significant has been the record with respect to new felony convictions among those on parole.

During the last 12 months, the board has had over 5,800 individual parolees under its jurisdiction. During the same period, only 117 individual parolees were convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for new felonies; and of this number, only 13 were convicted for crimes against persons.

On the other hand, over 90 per cent of the parolees under supervision at the present time are gainfully employed and are earning more than $10,000,000 a year in salary and wages. At the same time, they are supporting over 1,600 minor dependents.

While an increased parole rate has made a contribution to public safety and rehabilitation for offenders, it has also resulted in a substantial tax savings to the state.

Present estimates show that it costs about $1.24 a day to keep an inmate in prison. At the same time, the State Welfare Department pays an average of 13 cents per prisoner per day for relief to inmates' families.

Also, prison facilities are filled to capacity, and additional inmates mean more construction at an average cost of approximately $3,000 per inmate.

After all parole costs have been deducted, the state will have made a tax saving of over $4,000,000 between 1958 and 1961 because of the increased parole rate.

The board feels that it is imperative that the second phase of its original program be adopted, so that parole supervision can be used to its full effectiveness.

NEW '61 CHEVY CORVAIR

More space . . .
more spunk
and wagons, too!

The newest car in America: the CORVAIR 700 LAKEWOOD 4-DOOR STATION WAGON.

CORVAIR 700 CLUB COUPE. Like all coupes and sedans, it has a longer range fuel tank.

CORVAIR 700 4-DOOR SEDAN. Provisions for heating ducts are built right into its Body by Fisher.

Here's the new Chevy Corvair for '61 with a complete line of complete thrift cars.

To start with, every Corvair has a budget-pleasing price tag. And Corvair goes on from there to save you even more. With extra miles per gallon . . . quicker-than-ever cold-start warmup so you start saving sooner . . . a new extra-cost optional heater that warms everyone evenly. Riding along with this extra economy: more room inside for you, more room up front for your luggage (sedans and coupes have almost 12% more usable trunk space).

And our new wagons? You'll love them—think they're the greatest thing for families since houses. The Lakewood Station Wagon does a man-sized job with cargo, up to 68 cubic feet of it. The Greenbrier Sports Wagon you're going to have to see—it gives you up to 175.5 cubic feet of space for you and your things.

Corvair's whole thrifty lineup gets its pep from a spunkier 145-cu.-in. air-cooled rear engine. Same rear-engine traction, same smooth 4-wheel independent-suspension ride. See the polished and refined 1961 Corvair first chance you get at your Chevrolet dealer's.

Spare tire is in the rear in coupes and sedans—leaving more luggage space up front.

Even middle-seat passengers sit pretty, thanks to Corvair's practically flat floor.

Now in production—the GREENBRIER SPORTS WAGON with up to twice as much room as ordinary wagons (third seat optional at extra cost).

MISS CAROLYN PARKER

Miss Parker to Be Married on Oct. 22

LAW GROWS

You want the law to grow to meet new challenges, but you do not want it to change completely. The law is like a boy; it must grow up to meet the changing world, but you do not want it to change overnight.

When you buy or sell a house, you want the law to stand firm. You do not want your deed upset by some new law overnight. When you make a will you would like its terms carried out long after you are gone. In short, you do not want your law to upset your plans. So you want a stable law.

Yet the law cannot foresee all the changes that are to come, and it must be able to grow and meet new circumstances. Sometimes old rules, in terms of modern life, are too harsh and should be changed. It is a good thing that our laws can change—by court decisions, legislation or by constitutional amendment.

Take an interesting case: Until recently a farmer believed he owned his property rights straight up as high as he wanted to claim them—to the sky even. But, meantime, the airplane flew these skies.

If your ownership went to the sky you could stop anybody's flying over your property. Or you could charge him a toll. But if landowners got a toll on airplane fare, travel would soon become too costly.

How do you change a system of laws to keep the essential use of our property and yet make people enjoy airplane trade and travel?

You could not tell briefly how this was done. But, within the past few years, we have carved out a whole new body of law by court decision and by law making. We have met the new problem without impairing unduly the older rights of holders.

(This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

Few of us can stand prosperity. Another man's I mean.—Mark Twain

C. S. Rice Marks 92nd Birthday

C. S. Rice celebrated his 92nd birthday last Thursday, Sept. 29.

Relatives attending the affair were a nephew, W. L. Bowlius of Baird; nieces, Mrs. Errol Haley of Big Spring, Mrs. Cecil West of Crane, Mrs. Vina Meier of Amarillo, Miss Eunice Stratton and Mrs. Forrest Switzer and John, McLean; Mrs. Rice and their son and daughter, Pete Rice and Mrs. Legon Burris, and her husband, McLean.

QUEEN

(Continued from Page 1) the three a short time later, giving McLean a 12-6 lead after the conversion try failed again.

Shortly before the first half ended, Wood intercepted a McLean pass on the Tigers' 30 and went untouched to the score. Wood then passed to Gerald Cagle for two extra points, and the hosts were ahead, 14-12, at the half.

Watson put McLean ahead again, however, early in the third quarter on an 11-yard run, then raced across for the extra two points—McLean 20, Claude 14.

In the same period, Watson ripped across the middle for three yards and another Tiger touch-down, but the locals failed to count the extra points—McLean 26, Claude 20.

After Tiger backs had taken turns to push deep into enemy territory, Donnie Woods crossed over from four yards out for the final TD of the evening.

Windom ran across the extra points one time, but a penalty erased the action. He then ripped around the left side, and the conversion was good.

Tackle Bob Patton was hurt near the end of the contest, but he is expected to return to the lineup after resting this week. Patton was treated in a Pampa hospital for back injuries.

TRIO

The victims walked to the highway and were given a ride back to McLean by a passing motorist.

Fish, Deputy Sheriff Jimmy Shelton and highway patrolmen searched the area but failed to find the bandits.

Texas Ranger Bill Henslee of Pampa and the Wheeler County sheriff's department later joined in the hunt.

Four carloads of motorists were stopped Wednesday on Highway 82 east of El Paso, apparently by the same trio, and robbed of some $1,000.

One of the women stopped Wednesday was raped and all victims were abused.

Constable Fish said officers believe two of the bandits are from California and the other from Arkansas. California authorities furnished identification of the men, reporting that they had been carrying on similar operations across the Southwest.

C. P. Callahan was in Shamrock Monday.

Mrs. Nida Rippey Green attended the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference at Lubbock Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kid McCoy's daughter, Mrs. Joe Romer, recently spent a week visiting with them.

McLEANITE IS PICTURED IN CHINA PAPER

A former McLean resident and her husband were pictured recently in the China Post, published on Formosa, for taking part in "Operation Kindness."

S/Sgt. and Mrs. Roger G. Klucas were shown with a Chinese boy, 3-year-old Chi Pao-yi, whom they took to their home on Formosa for several weeks' stay.

The boy's parents were killed in a flood in August, 1959.

Mrs. Klucas is the former Annie Jones, daughter of Mrs. Z. T. Jones, east of McLean.

Sgt. Klucas is stationed with American forces on Formosa, and Mrs. Klucas and their three children reside there.

"Operation Kindness" is being sponsored jointly by the American women's club and the China Post to provide care for abandoned children.

Sgt. and Mrs. Klucas found Chi Pao-yi during a visit to the Yi Kwang Orphanage and decided to take him to their home for a few weeks.

Good habits have to be cultivated, but bad habits will grow volunteer. It seems that we can so easily drift into a bad habit. Our very nature seems to lure us into the trap before we realize it.

If we want to grow wheat or corn we have to prepare the ground, plant good seed, and then fight back the weeds and grass which seem to come up naturally. To have a good disposition, or to be a kind and friendly person, we have to cultivate the traits and develop them into a natural habit. To be grouchy, or to be a selfish person, all we have to do is to quit trying and nature will do the rest.

Habits of a physical nature follow the same pattern. When we were a small boy it seemed so natural that we slip around behind the barn and smoke a few puffs. It seemed almost impossible to us then that we could ever grow up without first learning to smoke. In a few years we had developed a habit that was to become hurtful to our health not to mention being a bad habit to break.

Drinking is often the same story. Many of the folks at the party drink, and for fear of being unpopular there are those who are influenced to begin drinking socially. In a short time it has become a bad habit, and later perhaps a sickness that will ruin their life.

Good habits, such as going to church, have to be cultivated, while on the other hand, excuses for staying at home seem to come made to order. God will help us to cultivate good habits. The Devil will try to keep us from winning in our efforts to break bad habits.

Comment from the Capital —

WHO WOULD YOU HAVE AS FIRST LADY?

by Vant Nelf

Among the strongest impressions left by the TV presentation of the recent Conventions of the country's two political parties, were the quick but penetrating close-ups of the distaff members of the leading political families.

A kaleidoscope of memorable pictures flick by the mental eye — Mrs. Barry Goldwater, frankly crying; Mrs. Lyndon Johnson — Ladybird of Texas, her sad eyes perhaps belying her quick support of her husband's acceptance of second place; Mrs. Eisenhower, never appearing to do either, in smoothing the daily life of the President, his wife must bear on her shoulders the feminine counterpart of that heaviest job in the world!

In the two women who now pass under this highly critical scrutiny, we find certainly the widest contrasts that could be imagined; and yet, just as certainly, there must be close similarities.

Both Pat Nixon and Jacqueline Kennedy are highly intelligent, attractive, vital women, tremendously anxious to create the stable and fulfilling atmosphere within which their husbands can function most efficiently for the country.

And yet, beneath the surface, these two women are as far apart as the sands of Cape Cod are from the sands of Santa Monica.

Pat Nixon, present on the TV screen almost constantly; and many a thought was turned towards Cape Cod where Jackie Kennedy endured the almost unendurable waiting, held there by doctor's orders.

Certainly, American women are willing to admit this real interest. In it is a natural interest, in our country, where it is largely the women who uphold the community and civic duties of the family. It is the women who more frequently have the time for participation and for thoughtful study of special issues, and consequently it is they who very often are responsible for "getting out the vote" — i.e., in making sure that the men in their family make time to vote.

Moreover, in the job of the Presidency, perhaps the most difficult, exacting job for which any man was ever chosen, one cannot underestimate the importance of a stable and fulfilling domestic life, of a rich home life free of petty worries and nagging anxieties. Finally, in the role of hostess to the world, where she must be able to welcome dignitaries as far apart as a Queen of England and a Shah of Persia, to plan as efficiently dinner for 200 as breakfasts for 2 or 3 close advisers, the President's wife must be a poised, gracious and mature chatelaine, whose sure hand guides a smooth household.

Thus, both in her own right, in her role as a gracious hostess, in practicing the art of inspiring and influencing without appearing to do either, in smoothing the daily life of the President, his wife must bear on her shoulders the feminine counterpart of that heaviest job in the world!

And yet, beneath the surface, these two women are as far apart as the sands of Cape Cod are from the sands of Santa Monica.

Pat Nixon, present on the TV screen almost constantly; and many a thought was turned towards Cape Cod where Jackie Kennedy endured the almost unendurable waiting, held there by doctor's orders.

Certainly, American women are willing to admit this real interest. In it is a natural interest, in our country, where it is largely the women who uphold the community and civic duties of the family. It is the women who more frequently have the time for participation and for thoughtful study of special issues, and consequently it is they who very often are responsible for "getting out the vote" — i.e., in making sure that the men in their family make time to vote.

Moreover, in the job of the Presidency, perhaps the most difficult, exacting job for which any man was ever chosen, one hostess. While possibly not an intellectual, her fine intelligence and tremendous appetite for study will be put to good use — as in her world travels with the Vice-President — to enable her to talk knowingly with her international guests.

Again, Pat Nixon, has of course, faced all the problems that confront the average young American. She has worked since her teens; she has stretched funds to fit budgets, she has skipped a "made do"; she has sewn and taken in seams and let out seams. She knows these things at first hand — and it is hoped that she feels them still, "inside!"

Jackie Kennedy is living through a disturbing time in her own life. As a very young woman (even in relation to the young political personalities all around her), she is just building her family. Despite her wealth and the service and assistance she will be able to have, she may still not be able to participate in all the activities the President's wife is called upon to engage in.

As an older mother, Pat Nixon, whose children are in their teens, of course, is freed to take full part in the Washington, the National, and indeed, the world-wide scene.

Pat and Jackie — so neatly are the checks and balances arranged on each side that the choice is difficult. Perhaps the problem for American women, at least, may be boiled down to this consideration: If the women of America must "relate" (as the psychologists put it) to the President's wife, will they be able to relate to Jackie Kennedy, very young, very sheltered, yet paradoxically flexible, sensitive, with a good sense of humor? Or, will they feel more at home with Pat Nixon who has learned to live through lean years and prosperous ones, dead-end serious in her role as Dick's wife, with maturity and poise acquired the "hard way"?

You make the choice, you may well need the help of a woman.

VOTE FOR TEXAS

RICHARD M. NIXON, candidate for President, is a Californian, but he thinks the Texas way.

- A strong national economy and defense so that America will not have to apologize to Khrushchev for anything;
- A sensible farm program that will attack and solve the present problems.
- Texas retaining its tidelands, and a tax policy favorable to Texas.
- Local control of our schools.

If you will read and compare Nixon's platform to that of his opponent, you will agree that a vote for Nixon is a vote for the best interests of Texas.

Cotton Farmers in Area Are Offered Marketing Reports

Four cotton market news reports of interest to farmers and the cotton trade are available from the Agricultural Marketing Service, according to John L. McCollum, manager, Southwest Area, cotton division, Dallas.

These reports are designed to keep all interests abreast of cotton and cottonseed developments during the market season. They include The Cottonseed Review, The Cotton Quality Report, The Cotton Classing Report and the Weekly Cotton Market Review.

The Cottonseed Review, released weekly during the active ginning season, covers the movement of cottonseed, changes in price and quality, and harvesting conditions. Information in this report is limited to areas where cottonseed is officially graded.

The Cotton Quality Report, a monthly release, shows the percentage distribution by districts of the grades and staples of cotton ginned during the month, cumulative for the season and year ago comparisons.

The Cotton Classing Report, released each Monday during the harvesting season, shows the grade, grade index, staple length and the number of samples classed under the Smith-Doxey Act by various classing offices.

The Weekly Cotton Market Review, the only report issued throughout the year, reports market conditions with respect to demand, prices, inquiries, offerings, domestic and export sales, crop developments, harvesting conditions and other pertinent or seasonal market information.

These reports are mailed free upon request. Farmers and others in Texas and Oklahoma should address inquiries to: Cotton Division, AMS, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Room 404, 708 Jackson St., Dallas, Tex.

GRID QUEEN DUE CROWN

By RITA BROWN
One of the following three young ladies—Nancy Meacham, Dixie Burroughs or Nona Beck—will be crowned football queen Friday night during the halftime ceremonies at the football game.
The young ladies were chosen by popular vote of the 1960 Tiger team. The reigning queen will also be chosen by popular vote from these three girls.
The McLean vs. Wellington game will be the scene of the crowning of the queen. The team captains, Kenny Willingham and Clyde Windom, will have the pleasure of crowning the queen, with the senior members, Gary Gordin and John Pettit, as escorts.
Miss Burroughs is a junior and represents her class as a cheerleader. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Burroughs. Miss Meacham is a senior and also represents her class as a cheerleader. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jewel Meacham. Miss Beck is a popular junior girl and an outstanding member of the pep club. Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Beck are her parents.

Peg's Tales

By PEGGY SHARP
I'd like to start my column off this week with a bit of helpful information. When you lock your car, be sure your keys are OUT! Just ask Johnny if you don't think this is important.
If you've heard members of the sixth period speech class discussing Clem and Lucy Mae, they're not speaking of backwoods relations. Clem and Lucy are factitious hillbilly characters they have been attempting to pantomime.
We who write for the Tiger Post realize that now it is printed in The McLean News, many of the town's people and businessmen read it. This item is for the business people.
The annual staff has now begun their yearly ad selling for the school yearbook. They would appreciate very much any cooperation you would give them.
These ads are good advertisement for your business and they provide for a large part of the yearbook's financing. It would be good business for you to purchase one of these ads.
As everyone knows, the seniors finally finished their magazine sale. We didn't reach our goal of $2,000, but we did pretty good. The boys' team lost to the girls, so they are giving us a party.
I have one last thing to say, then I'll hush. COME ON, TIGERS! LET'S GO GO GO!

Blizzard Time in The Texas Panhandle

By SUE WRIGHT
For in the north
One day fair,
The clouds gathered,
Sand in the air,
All is quiet—
As quiet as can be,
But in the north,
Sand we see,
Onward it comes,
Larger it grows:
Sweeping across the plains,
Chilling life through,
Across the prairies,
The wind blows,
Tumbleweeds, tumbling
They roll;
Jumping and flying southward
—They go.
A breeze's breeze!
Straight blows
A blizzard! A blizzard!
We know;
The mercury falls
In a downward flow,
Lower, lower, until zero
Now eight below.

Amarillo Workshop Attended by Two

Mrs. Mary Tom Riley, vice president of the Gray-Roberts Unit, TSTA, and Mr. Lee Welch, superintendent of schools, attended the TSTA workshop in Amarillo Sept. 22.
This workshop provided officers of local units with better understanding of their duties for the incoming year.
A general assembly opened the meeting with the different groups breaking into their individual workshops. A luncheon brought some 150 teachers and administrators together to complete the planning for this year's activities.

Hayride for Seniors

All aboard! Away went the senior class almost full strength on their way to a good time. The seniors had a hayride and picnic on last Thursday night. The boys, having lost in the magazine contest, provided the group with their cats. Everyone enjoyed the hayride and had a good time, but who forgot to bring the drinks?

REBEL... WITHOUT A CAUSE??

Don't drive too fast! Don't stay out late! Don't get into any trouble! Don't go pick up every kid in town! Don't do this, don't do that!
These "don'ts" are related by parents to their teenage children every time the teenagers step out of the house. Maybe in some instances these instructions are called for but in most cases they are unnecessary.
Parents seem to think in order to prevent their teenagers from becoming juvenile delinquents, they must constantly nag at them to be good. By the time a child reaches his teens the seed of his character has already been sown.
If parents "blow" too hard about something, they may cause the teenagers to sway the wrong way, producing a teenage rebel.
In turn the rebel upsets his whole household. Most teenagers are reasonable enough to understand their parents' attitudes against most things. They know what's right and wrong to do.
This run of "don'ts" every time a teenager goes somewhere has got to go! If this constant nagging isn't reduced to a minimum, all normal teenagers will eventually become rebels—and not without a cause!—Judy Wyatt.

Seniors on Review

By SUE WRIGHT
Danny Brown was born Nov. 20, 1942. He now lives at Kellerville. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Brown.
Some of his likes are: Movies and dancing are just about the biggest thing he likes. He also likes swimming, and just a little of everything.
Some of his dislikes are: The teachers give too many lessons. He does not like the idea of riding

JUST WHAT'S A TEENAGER?

By RITA BROWN
As a teenager, we are neither adult nor child. We cannot as yet recognize ourselves as an adult, and yet childhood has long passed from existence within us. We feel nothing and in the same sense everything. We are undecided.
The questions which we asked when we were 3 or 4 years of age have reappeared, only with a more urgent need of an answer. Life and our future frightens us and yet we accept it and in the same sense defy it. We are undecided.
We crave understanding, love and affection from everyone, and yet we try to hide this fact in every way possible, thinking that in this way we can prove adulthood and achieve our great goal of independence.
We are not satisfied with the routine of life in general and think it monotonous, and at the same time we cannot wait to explore its wonders. We are still undecided.
The protected life which we have led up to now suddenly vanishes and a hateful world appears before us, and at the same time the world becomes more beautiful than ever before. We then become unsure, mixed up and confused, and once more we are undecided.
This pattern repeats itself over and over again in our growing lives as teenagers, until we will no longer be a teenager but an adult. BUT THEN WILL WE BE DECIDED?

Records Broken in Sale of Magazines

Seniors zoomed past all previous records on magazine sales. For the past two weeks senior students have been out soliciting orders from citizens of our community.
The Curtis Magazine Co. is the sponsor of the annual magazine sale program.
Senior girls competed against senior boys for an all-out top sale battle. It was a grave battle to the end; the girls outsold the boys by a small margin of 19.
Seniors added another $609 toward a better senior trip. Over $1,600 in subscriptions was turned over to the publishing company.
Mrs. Riley and Mr. Boyd, co-sponsors of the group, said they were extremely pleased with the sales as each senior contributed to the magazine sales.

Juniors on Hayride

Hang on! The junior class rolled off on their hayride Sept. 24. The wild, screaming group rode out to McClellan Creek on a wagon loaded with hay. After eating around their bonfire, the juniors wandered up and down the creek bed then they made a slow journey back to McLean.

school buses. He does not like cold days, either.
His favorite song is "My Heart Has a Mind of Its Own."
He said, "I like all of my teachers."
His favorite foods are: Steak and fried chicken.
His favorite movie stars are: Sandra Dee and Paul Newman.
He was not glad school started at first. Now he is getting used to it again. Does not mind it very much now.

Meet the Faculty

By DOUG CROCKETT
Ladies and Gentlemen. Tonight we have a very interesting program set up. We are going to interview a very special person that is associated with MHS. May I present to you Coach Derral Davis.
Coach Davis became a part of our growing world on June 3, 1931, at Lakeview, Tex. He graduated from Pampa High School in 1949, and attended Baylor University, South Dakota State Teachers College and West Texas State College.
In 1952 he decided to go visit his rich uncle (Uncle Sam) for three years. While serving his duty in the Marine Corps, he met Miss Barbara Bucholtz in Hawaii. He could not resist Barbara's South Dakota accent, so they became married.
Today Coach Davis has three fine children. They are Elizabeth, 3; Kelly J., and Carrie, nine months.
Coach Davis played one year pro basketball in NIL. He was all-state in football at Pampa, and all-conference in basketball at South Dakota.
Some of Coach Davis' pastimes are golf, hunting, bridge, chess and reading.

The Students Speak

By RUTH PAKAN
Our topic this week is... the students voicing their opinions on what they think of pep rallies.
Some yell... loud, strong and clear... a few consistent and not so clear. Yes, there are always a few who just sit and stare, awaiting the final bell of the day... what do you think about our pep rallies?
Chris Carroll—I think some pep rallies are real good. Those that are good give me the feeling of being fired up inside.
Sue Wright—I like them. I also think that they give our football boys spirit.
Dennis Roach—I think they are of no account. I do not like them because no one participates.
Joyce Beasley—I like them if they had a little more spirit.
Jack Back—I think they could be noisier. They are not as good as they were last year.
Susan Blackwell—I like them but there is room for improvement.
Bob Patton—I think they are very good. I know they really help the boys.
Here is what I think about the pep rallies. I think they play a very important and outstanding part during football season.
Hard work goes into these pep rallies; for instance, our cheerleaders work extra hard, they must all have school spirit in order for the entire student body to keep interested.
Of course, I must not leave out our pep squad; they help out the cheerleaders. Our pep squad must chime in with the cheerleaders in order that loud cheers be made and let our football players know that we are behind them—all the way—I do not want to skip our band; they are all playing as loud and hard as they can.
They play very peppy and spirited marches.
