Will we see you in Shamrock Friday night?

Our McLean Tigers kick the lid off a new season there at 8 p. m. tomorrow, and you should be on hand for the festivities.

If you recall—indeed, how could you forget?—the Bengals whom those Irishmen from down the road this time a year ago to open a tremendous District 2-A championship-winning season.

There were doubters before that game, too, just like now, but Our Boys showed 'em.

—jbu—

It's sad but true—David Crockett is gone from the ranks of the McLeanites. There could be others, though, capable of developing into more Davids.

While Clifford Bradshaw has described his charges as being "young" and somewhat on the inexperienced side, he's quick to brand them as "hustlers," too.

And although injuries have plagued the squad since practice began a couple of weeks ago, Cliff isn't banging his head against the wailing wall.

—jbu—

So when the Tigers take to the field Friday night for their battle with the Irishmen, we hope we'll see you in the stands. They need your support.

Incidentally, speaking of support, we'd like to call your attention to the first-of-the-season football page in this week's News.

It's sponsored by local business and professional people who urge you to support the Tigers, and it will be published weekly during the football season to spur enthusiasm for our gridsters.

The lost is found!

Some 20 years ago, C. S. Rice was playing a round of golf on the McLean course northwest of town when he wallowed a brand new ball into the rough near the No. 9 green.

He probably searched for a time before deciding all that work wasn't worth the effort and gave up. After all, golf balls are lost every day, and he wouldn't lose any sleep over it.

—jbu—

Well, in after years the course was abandoned, and Rice and others are away their clubs.

Now that the McLean golf course has been re-opened by the Lions Club, Rice's son, Pete, is making frequent rounds there—both as a golfer and worker.

The other day Pete happened on a ball near the No. 9 hole. He picked it up and tossed it into his bag, noticing that the white covering showed signs of weathering.

Examining the ball closer at home he discovered a name stamped on it. The name: C. S. Rice.

—jbu—

If you took a good whiff of this usually fine Texas air last Thursday night, you noticed it wasn't particularly appealing to the nose or eyes.

We noticed it first at home, then on the way to the office my eyes watered and nose burned until I got inside.

Next morning, B. J. McCartney and I decided to search for the source.

We found it. Glen Curry had been "bleeding" the ammonia lines at his Zoo Locker Plant.

Laird No Stranger To People of McLean

Preaching in McLean will not be a new experience for Joe Laird when he conducts a series of gospel meetings at the local Church of Christ, Sept. 5-14.

David V. Fultz, minister of the local church, pointed out this week that Laird preached at meetings here in 1958 and on one previous occasion.

He is currently working with the 24th Avenue congregation in Oklahoma City and has preached in meetings over most of Oklahoma and the Texas Panhandle.

George Saunders, local rancher, will direct the congregational singing during the meeting.

Services will be at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. daily through the meeting, except on Sundays, when regular worship services are to be held.

TIGERS FACE IRISH FRIDAY

Season-Opener Is Set in Shamrock

The McLean High School Tigers, defending District 2-A champions, invade Shamrock Friday night for a non-conference bout with the Irishmen to open the 1960 football season.

Game time in Shamrock is 8 p. m. The high school band and pep club, as well as a host of fans, will follow the team to Shamrock for the contest.

Victors by a score of 32-16 in last year's tussle here with the Irishmen, Coach Clifford Bradshaw's Bengals will be out to repeat that performance.

Both the locals and Shamrock were hard hit by graduation last spring, and injuries in pre-season scrimmages have hurt McLean. Coach Bradshaw said Wednesday the Bengals will be without the services of Quarterback Kenny Willingham in Friday's game.

Dislocated Elbow
Willingham, 170-pound returning letterman, suffered a dislocated elbow in a scrimmage with Estelline last week and isn't expected to return to the lineup for at least four more weeks.

Filling in for him will be Donnie Woods, 150-pounder who has been moved from his regular post at end.

Clyde Windom, a guard on the McLean starting eleven in 1959, will be at fullback, with Tommy Herron and Jim Watson, also returnees, as halfbacks. Windom weighs 160, and Herron and Watson tip the scales at 175 apiece.

Linemen Listed
At the forward positions will be: Ricky Banks, 143, and Joel Meacham, 180, ends; Bob Patton, 180, and Phillip Flowers, 160, tackles; John Pettit, 140, and John Evans, 150, guards; Jim McCarty, 143, center.

Coach Bradshaw has been pleased with the Tigers' showing in practice and two scrimmage games—with Estelline and Spearman—and he believes the players will improve as they gain experience and the injured gridsters return to the squad.

Switzer Out
Lost to the team along with Willingham for the present is John Switzer, who played at end and tackle last season.

Switzer suffered a knee injury early in practice, but he is expected to be back in uniform before district play begins.

Coach David Kelley's Irishmen will outweigh the Tigers in Friday's opener. Average weight of Shamrock's starting eleven is 166 pounds per man, compared with the Tigers' 158.

Even Weight
In the backfield the teams are even in weight—162 per—and Shamrock holds an average of 169 to 156 in the line.

Starting for the Irish will be: Jack Downer, 170, and Ronnie Cantrell, 150, ends; Billy Spraggins, 185, and Bill Grimes, 155, tackles; Mack Bentley, 160, and Bill Valentine, 175, guards James Brothers, 190, center; Larry Reeves, 150, quarterback; Jerry Jernigan, 170, and Jerry Campbell, 150, halfbacks, and Bill McBride, 180, fullback.

ACCIDENTS ON INCREASE IN McLEAN AREA

Property loss was heavy but injuries light in four separate traffic accidents the past week in this area.

Heaviest damage occurred in a dumptruck-car collision last Thursday just north of the McClellan Creek bridge on SH 273.

Texas Highway Patrolman Charles Henderson estimated damages at $9,000. Both the truck, valued at $8,500, and the car, valued at $500, were demolished.

Henderson said the 1960 Chevrolet truck, driven by Willie Tuttle of Vernon, slammed into the rear of the 1954 Chevrolet as the latter started to make a left turn onto a country road.

Plunge off Road
The car was driven by John Holden of Chillicothe.

Both vehicles plunged off the roadway and into a field. The truck, loaded with base material for the SH 273 construction project, overturned.

Tuttle, alone in the truck, suffered a cut hand and Holden and three others in the car escaped serious injury.

A Pampa man and his father sustained bruises and abrasions when the pickup truck in which they were riding ran off an embankment at the intersection of U. S. 70 and U. S. 66 north of Clarendon Sunday.

Asleep at Wheel
Henderson said Tony Wayne Kirby went to sleep at the wheel of his 1952 Chevrolet pickup. Kirby's father, Louis, was a passenger in the vehicle.

Both were treated in a Pampa doctor's office.

Damage to the pickup was set at $375.

In a McLean mishap investigated by Henderson, a 1955 GMC pickup and a 1960 Chevrolet car were damaged about $200 last Saturday.

The car, driven by Amos Ray Gann, Altheimer, Ark., was stopped at the blinker light on the south lane of U. S. 66 in McLean when it was rammed in the rear by the truck, driven by Billy Ray McGimp.

Drivers Unhurt
Neither driver was hurt.

The fourth accident occurred last Tuesday and involved a 45-foot trailer house, which overturned across U. S. 66 10.8 miles west of McLean.

The trailer house was being pulled by a 1952 Ford sedan driven by Norman Mitch, Hammonton, N. J.

Mitch told Henderson that he lost control as he changed gears. The trailer broke loose from the car before overturning.

Mitch and his wife and baby were unhurt.

Damage to the trailer was estimated at $2,500.

School Underway; 469 Pupils Report

Summer vacations came to an abrupt halt Monday, and McLean students and teachers were back in the classrooms today for another nine months of work.

Supt. Lee Welch reported Wednesday that the total enrollment thus far in the local school system is 469, down slightly from a year ago but with the possibility of additions before the term is too far along.

Welch, beginning his first year as superintendent here, said 311 students are attending elementary school and 158 are enrolled in high school.

No breakdown on the number of students in each class was available Wednesday. However, Welch said there are 39 beginning the first grade and 26 in the senior class.

Classes are in session from 8:35 a. m. to 3:51 p. m. The traditional first-day assembly for students and the public was cancelled this year because of termite extermination work at the gymnasium, where the event usually is held.

Ends May 19

Welch decided not to hold the assembly, for fear fumes from the termite-killing chemicals would affect persons attending.

The current term is scheduled to end on May 19.

Labor Day next Monday will not be a holiday for the youngsters. The first day off will come on Sept. 19, when school is dismissed for the Tri-State Fair.

Other holidays will be: Thanksgiving, Nov. 24 and 25; Christmas and New Year's, Dec. 22 through Jan. 2; conference for education, March 10; St. Patrick's Day, March 17; Easter, March 31 and April 3.

LOSS HEAVY IN COLLISION

Damages amounting to an estimated $500 occurred last Friday in a collision on McLean's Main Street.

A 1959 Chevrolet sedan driven by Sandra Baker of McLean, veering to the right to escape a collision with an approaching car, rammed the rear of a parked 1955 Chevrolet stationwagon owned by J. C. Meeks, Quanah.

Miss Baker told Constable J. D. Fish, who investigated the accident, that she had swerved her car, which was traveling north, to the right when she saw the approaching vehicle turn toward her.

Neither Miss Baker nor two other young women with her were injured. The stationwagon was unoccupied.

Fish said the stationwagon had been parked just west of the Lovett Memorial Library by James Ellison after it ran out of gas.

The vehicle had been left with Ellison by its owner.

WALTER ROGERS REPORTS

DANGER OF RED CHINA

Part 1: The Deadly Argument

The man Lenin called "the best file clerk in Russia" has bounced out of obscurity and into the headlines once again. After a three-year exile as Russian ambassador to Outer Mongolia, Vyacheslav Mikhailovich Molotov will soon re-enter the splendor of full-fledged diplomatic life as a delegate to the International Atomic Energy Agency.

Molotov, who was Soviet foreign minister and Josef Stalin's closest associate, was swept from the Kremlin in 1957 for opposition to Nikita S. Khrushchev.

His withdrawal from the remote Mongolian capital of Ulan Baator touched off a chain of western speculation. Outer Mongolia is a virtual subsidiary of Red China, and the prevailing thought seemed to be that the Russians felt Molotov has been a bit too sympathetic with the tough, unyielding policies of the Chinese.

The Kremlin has been working to move Molotov to a new assignment for more than a year, perhaps with the hope of finding this devoted Stalinist an atmosphere less agreeable to his own ideological tastes.

Molotov's transfer may thus be another symptom of a deep-seated dispute between Soviet Russia and Red China. Although it has received scant general attention here, the dispute is of foremost importance in relation to our struggle with the Communist world.

The grim argument between these two totalitarian giants may well be as vital to the freedom as our own opposition to communism as a whole. For the central theme of the Russian-Chinese battle concerns nothing less than the necessity of all-out war with Western capitalism.

Red China not only believes in the inevitability of war, but even suggests that a nuclear holocaust might be a good thing. The Chinese leadership has stated that should half its people die in such a war the country would still have a greater population than either Russia or America does today.

This chilling attitude directly conflicts with Soviet pronouncements that war is "unthinkable" and that peaceful co-existence was a guiding principle for Lenin. None of this means, of course, that the Chinese seek war tomorrow or that the Russians have given up war forever.

But the implications of the basic struggle are obvious.

Both the Soviet Union and Red China, since their very beginnings, have twisted the writings of Karl Marx to fit their own expedient purposes. Lenin's version of communism could not be used in China, Mao Tse-tung's interpretation would have failed in Russia and both leaders learned very quickly that the brittle dogmas of Marx were unworkable in any society.

Thus communism has developed into a highly nationalistic and authoritarian system which has radical differences in each country and which would be largely unrecognizable by Marx himself.

These traditional differences in interpretation led to open conflict between Moscow and Peking last spring, when the Red Chinese openly opposed a summit conference between the East and West. There has been ample evidence since that time to indicate the extreme aggressiveness of China within the Communist block.

But for the immediate future, the Soviets seem to hold the winning cards. The Peking regime is dependent upon Russian and technical advice, not to mention diplomatic support.

The Chinese, however, may hold a series of significant long-range trumps. Their rate of population growth has been at least five times that of the Soviet Union.

PLOWIN' Out the CORNERS

Someone has said that it does make a difference what we believe. I believe that the above is true. I believe in the future of our world because I believe in those that are better equipped to face life at its worst and at its best than those of my generation. We see evidence on every hand that helps offset the bad and makes us believe that our coming generations will do a good job with this old world. At least they won't do any worse than we have done.

Things like the following help us to have a stronger faith in our youth. It is the creed of a youth study center. It goes: "I believe in a God who believes in and loves a fellow like me. I believe in a God who loves me as a real father loves his own son. I believe in myself because I am somebody. I am somebody because I am God's child."

"I believe in life because life offers me a chance to grow, and because it teaches me that the real joy of life comes in giving and in living my very best."

When we find a lot wrong with our young people we can most every time trace the trouble back to the grown-ups. We need to give them a lot of love. We need to give them something to live for and insist that they accept the work and responsibility necessary to make that something live. If we have done these few simple things we will believe with more faith in the faithfulness of our young people.

"Seven Wells" was the last watering place for the buffalo and their tracks still are imprinted in the sandstone rock. This old watering hole is known for its scenic beauty and its seven natural un-failing water wells.

It used to be an Indian camp but now is a popular picnic ground. The "Seven Wells" are located seven miles southeast of Colorado in northwest Texas' Mitchell County.

Trainee Positions For Students Announced By the Civil Service

The U. S. Civil Service Commission has announced that applications are now being accepted for student trainee positions from students enrolled in the 1960-61 school year.

Student trainee positions, paying from $67 to $77 a week, offer high school seniors and college students an opportunity to combine their college study with training on the job in one of two types of programs.

In the vacation work-study program, students attend college during the entire scholastic year and work in a federal agency during the vacation periods.

In cooperative work-study programs, students alternate their college study and work periods during the entire year. Written tests for student trainee jobs are given each month. Further information is given in detail in Civil Service announcement No. 205 Revised. Information about student trainee positions with the National Park Service at various locations throughout the United States is given in announcement No. 239 B.

Closing date for acceptance of applications for the Park Service is March 13, 1961.

Civil Service announcements and application forms may be obtained from college placement offices, many Post Offices throughout the country and the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

REVIVAL—

Martinez said that in other revivals in large cities such as Detroit, Los Angeles and Dallas, his sermon "When God Spoke Spanish" has attracted the largest crowds.

The evangelist, who preached his first sermon at the age of 11, is 30 years old, married and has four children. His family came to McLean with him for the services.

A former amateur boxer, he won the state Golden Gloves boxing tournament in Kentucky while attending Georgetown College. He advanced as far as the bantam-weight title fight in the Golden Gloves boxing tournament in Chicago in 1949 and 1951.

After 47 bouts—40 of which he won—and two offers to fight professionally, Martinez quit the ring to devote full time to the ministry.

The revival here is the 361st he has conducted.

He came here from Tucson, Ariz., where he preached in a revival at the First Southern Baptist church, and Sunday night he is to open a series of services at the Fort Worth College Avenue Baptist Church.

W. C. Carpenter, formerly of McLean and now pastor of a church in Lewiston, Ida., is song leader for the First Baptist revival which opened Sunday.

Limestone Can Help Increase Fall Crops

COLLEGE STATION—(Special)—Many fall-seeded crops, such as vetch, crimson clover and small grains, need limestone in order to produce their best growth.

Dr. W. F. Bennett, extension soil chemist, says that fall-seeded crops will derive full benefit from limestone only if it is applied soon in the areas where soils are deficient in this vital plant food.

Limestone applied now will have time to react with the soil before the crops are planted. This is very important because, if the limestone is to benefit this year's crop, it must have time to correct the soil's acidity and supply the soil with needed calcium, Dr. Bennett explains.

Limestone has a better chance to react with the soil if it can be worked in. If it is impossible to work the limestone into the soil, however, it should be applied as a top dressing, Dr. Bennett says.

One of the best features of limestone is its deferred benefits. Dr. Bennett says that limestone applied now will be of value over a 2 to 3 year period. This makes it a good investment. In order to determine the proper amount of limestone to apply, the chemist suggests that the soil be tested.

Hunting and Fishing Licenses Will Go on Sale in State Soon

AUSTIN—(Special)—New hunting and fishing licenses for the 1960-61 season will be mailed to licensees deputies throughout the state this week, according to C. L. Friou, fiscal director of the Game and Fish Commission.

The licenses will reach these deputies in time for buying by Sept. 1, when a new license is required. They will be available at most sporting goods stores, from county clerks and game wardens.

Fishing licenses will sell for $2.15 for either resident or non-resident. A license is required of anyone between the ages of 16 and 65 who fishes outside his home county, or fishing anywhere with a rod and reel.

A new hunting license form has been prepared for the upcoming season. The resident license will sell for $3.15 and is required for all persons between 16 and 65 who hunt outside their own counties.

The new license is effective Sept. 1.

TEX AEOLOGICAL

Texas is one of the most fertile fields in all of North America for archaeological research.

Remnants have been discovered here of the Maya-Aztec area, the Pueblo area and the Mound-Builder area.

The caves of the Big Bend region for instance have produced evidence of the Basket-Maker and the Pueblo cultures.
