SHAMROCK IRISH HERE FRIDAY

Just Between Us

(We thought this article by Paul M. Bruce of Alanreed appropriate for a guest appearance in JBU this week. Mr. Bruce became so fascinated by the Statue of Liberty during a recent visit there he wanted to describe his emotions—which equally fascinated us in these days of world crisis.)

By PAUL M. BRUCE
I fell in love with her—the Statue of Liberty.
We boarded a helicopter at Idlewild Airport near New York City. It was a beautiful evening.
A fine old gentleman sat beside me. He was born in New York City and he began to tell me about the different beautiful sights.
"I hope the pilot flies us by the Statue of Liberty," he said. "Wonderful." I answered.
We could see her at a distance. The pilot headed our plane directly toward her; we passed just above and to my side. I was next to the window as we faced her.

—jbu—
She is the most beautiful statue I have ever seen. Standing there in the harbor, facing the ocean, calm, beautiful, poised and serene.
That's when I fell in love with her. I waved my hand and blew a kiss to her. "Something was telling me she understood."
It all happened so quickly, she didn't have time to wave or smile back at me. Then I began to realize what she really means to me—Liberty, Freedom, Love and the Pursuit of Happiness.
In fact, everything, all the virtues of life.
Man has no greater gifts than these, except eternal life in Heaven with his Maker.
She stands there in the harbor, facing the ocean, to welcome the weary traveler on his long voyage home across the deep blue sea, or the one seeking a new home on her beautiful and peaceful shores.
We pray to our God in whom we trust that she will always remain there beautiful serene and unmatched, as she stands today, and that the peoples of the world will fall in love with her as I have.
Please do.

—jbu—
I am wondering if all who have gazed upon her lovely face fully realize what she means to them and what she stands for. Let's not forget. We are truly indebted to all who had a part in erecting the beautiful Statue of Liberty.
I pray that all who view her or learn of her wonderful ways will fall in love with her as I have.
Although I live many miles from her, I will always love her and cherish the memory of her. Won't you?
Everyone in the U. S. A. that's old enough has heard of her. She is cherished and loved by millions and not enough millions have looked into her beautiful face. Still not enough—you should see her. To see her is to appreciate her more.

—jbu—
Her name is Liberty, because she stands for every principle that we know as a free, liberty-loving people and nation. We should do our very best to live the principles of life she stands for.
Liberty has cost us much since the birth of our nation. Let's be brave and not cowards. Let's preserve it, love and keep it. God gave it to us because He loved us. Let's love and trust Him more. He is the giver of all our blessings. Won't you love Him more? Let Him be your first love.

190 Reservations Received Homecoming To Open on Friday

A total of 190 reservations had been received by Wednesday morning for the McLean Ex-Students Homecoming celebration, according to Bill Reeves, president of the organization.
Many more than this number are expected to be on hand for the event, which opens Friday afternoon and continues through Saturday night.
First on the program for the gathering will be a pep rally in the high school auditorium at 3 p. m. Friday. The Ex-Students will attend the McLean-Shamrock football game here Friday night, then at 10 p. m. will hold a general get-together in the grade school cafeteria.

Registration is set for 9 a. m. to 12 noon Saturday in the American Legion Hall, and a barbecue lunch will be held there at noon. The registration fee will be 50 cents and lunch tickets are $1.50 for adults and 50 cents for children.
Reeves said the public is invited to the barbecue and a dance in the Legion building starting at 8:30 p. m. Saturday. Admission to the dance will be $1 per person.
A general session of Ex-Students is scheduled in the gymnasium from 2:10 to 3 p. m. and class meetings will be from 3 to 4 p. m.

AGRI EXES TO MEET FRIDAY

A special meeting for ex-agricultural students at McLean High school will be held during the homecoming celebration beginning here Friday.
Jim Weatherford, MHS vocational teacher, said all ex-agri students are invited to a 5 p. m. meeting in the v-ag building.
Frank Kennedy, vocational agriculture teacher at Quail, will be guest speaker. He will discuss the state young farmers organization and adult work.

May Form Organization
Weatherford said the former students attending Friday's session will decide whether they are interested in forming a young farmers organization here.
The organization is for men 18 to 35 years of age who are in some phase of agriculture.
A state officer of the young farmers organization is expected to attend the meeting with Kennedy.
Watermelon will be served by McLean Future Farmers of America.

Teachers Night Set Tuesday by Lions

The Lions Club will honor McLean school faculty members at the annual Teacher Appreciation Night at 7 p. m. Tuesday in the Methodist Church.
All teachers, administrators, their husbands and wives and Lions Club members' wives are invited to the event held annually at the beginning of the school term.
Guest speaker will be Stuart Tisdal, a member of the Shamrock board of education.
This is the first of two special events planned by the Lions in September. At their noon luncheon on Sept. 19, also in the Methodist Church, the club members will hold Farmers and Ranchers Day.
Each Lion is being asked to bring a farmer or rancher as his guest for the luncheon.

Smith Enters Army

Carey Don Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Smith, has enlisted in the Army for three years and is now at Fort Ord, Calif., for basic training.
Smith left Amarillo Tuesday morning by airliner for California.

Levelland Family Is Grateful to McLean After Finding Dog

A happy Levelland family wrote an "open letter of thanks" this week to McLean and area residents who helped find a dachshund they lost when they stopped here last Thursday.
Mr. and Mrs. John R. Stogsdill, 1723 Wilson Street, Levelland, had come to The McLean News office with their children—Dellie and Donna—late last week to report they had lost "Tootles," their much-loved dachshund.
They offered a reward in a classified ad which was to have been published in this week's News.
Their letter arriving here Monday happily announced:

Found at Lark
"We found our dog at a service station in the community of Lark. Someone had found her on the highway and taken her to the station.
"We stopped and asked at every station or store from McLean to Lark, and we were very fortunate to have found her at all."
Their letter continued:
"We wish to take this means of thanking the justice of peace, the deputy sheriff and the constable, J. D. Fish, and all the nice people who were concerned and helpful."
"You can be sure we will never forget the people of McLean for being so nice to us."

Jimmy Moore New Legion Commander

Jimmy Moore was installed last week as commander of the McLean American Legion post, succeeding Tom Trostle.
Other new officers are:
Bill Kingston, first vice commander and finance officer; Jesse Smith, second vice commander; Harlon Pool, adjutant and historian; J. W. Meacham, chaplain; Jack Shelton, service officer; and Truitt Johnson, child welfare officer.
Officers attending a meeting of the Legion last week were certified by Doug Reeves, Shamrock post commander, assisted by Willis Gowen, first vice commander of the Shamrock Legion.
Other officers, who were unable to attend the session this month, will be certified by Moore at the September meeting.
All members of the local Legion post are being urged to sign up for 1962. Quota for the post is 26.

Small Decrease In Enrolment Expected

Enrolment in the McLean public schools was expected to show a small decrease, as the 1961-62 term opened this week.
Supt. Lee Welch said an estimated 480 students began classes Monday, but exact figures will not be known until late this week, since new pupils are enrolling daily.
The final totals are expected to reveal an increase in the number of students in high school, with a decline in grade school.

WORK OF ART: Mrs. C. M. Corcoran displays something new in art—a picture "painted" with beans, peas, corn and sunflower seeds. In preparing the picture of a strutting rooster, Mrs. Corcoran used two pounds of great northern beans, a pound of butter beans, sunflower seeds, pepper corn, pop corn, green peas, split yellow peas, pinto beans and red beans. She spread glue on the frame backing for the base, and after completing the half-day chore she put a coat of varnish on. The picture measures 18 by 24 inches. She thus far has finished one large picture and two small ones. (McLean News Photo)

Many Cattlemen Are Reported Interested In Beef Short Course

Much interest is being shown in the beef cattle short course to be offered here next month to adult farmers and ranchers, according to Jim Weatherford, McLean High School vocational agriculture teacher.
Weatherford said he had received several inquiries about the program since plans were announced in last week's McLean News.
Theme for the course will be "Beef Producers Can and Must Produce More Pounds of Beef with the Same Land, Labor and Capital in the Future."
One session will be held daily from Sept. 11 through Sept. 15 at the McLean High School vocational Agriculture building. The sessions will begin at 7 a. m. An entry fee of $2 will be charged each person attending.
Certificates to Be Awarded
Each cattleman attending all five of the training sessions will receive a certificate.
Instructor will be George Garretson, beef cattle specialist with the vocational agriculture division of the Texas Education Agency and department of animal husbandry at Texas A and M College.
Topics of discussion include "Why More Efficiency Is Important to Beef Producers," "Analyzing the Cattle Operation to Determine Areas of Weaknesses," "Making the Cattle Operation More Profitable," and "What Can Be Foreseen in the Future for Cattle Production."

Wide Experience
A graduate of Texas A and M, Garretson has had a wide and varied experience in training live stock and meats for state competition, as well as teaching vocational agriculture at Mason.
He has experience as a commercial beef cattle producer and served as a beef grader for two years while in the Army.

QUOTAS GET SLIM MARGIN

If Gray County farmers had their way, wheat marketing quotas would not be in effect on the 1962 crop.
Returns from last Thursday's quota referendum show 129 county farmers in favor and 121 against, considerably less than the two-thirds margin required for approval.
However, in nationwide balloting a continuation of the marketing quota program was approved.
A less than two-thirds "yes" across the U. S. would have eliminated the federal government's wheat stabilization program and reduced the price support on the crop to $1.19 per bushel.
Still, farmers would have been required to plant no more than their 1962 allotment in order to be eligible for the $1.19 support.

Increased Support
Approval of the program for next year means increased price support and payments to producers for diverting wheat acreage and devoting the diverted acreage to conservation uses, according to Miss Evelyn Mason, Gray County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office manager.
In his column appearing elsewhere in today's McLean News, Gray County Agent Foster Whaley says he believes "unanswered questions" about the reduced acreage resulted in the county's going against the program for the first time.

Bengals' List Of Injured Growing

Already weakened by injuries, Coach Derral Davis' McLean High School Tigers get the season underway Friday night when they entertain the tough Shamrock Irish in this year's homecoming engagement at Duncan Field.

Kickoff time in the much-improved stadium will be 8 p. m.

The Bengals and Irish will be playing under a brand new lighting system with more than twice the power of the old one—and before a spacious pressbox just now being completed as a Lions Club project.

The Duncan Field stands are expected to be filled by the large crowd of Ex-Students here for their every-other-year Homecoming celebration and by Irish followers from Shamrock.

Injuries suffered in training and in a scrimmage last Saturday at Panhandle will keep the Tigers from being at full strength.

On the ailing list Wednesday were Fullback George Patton, who pulled a leg muscle in practice and was re-injured at Panhandle; Lineman Bob Patton, not yet recuperated from a back ailment suffered in the Claude game last year; End Don Woods, neck and knee injury received at Panhandle, and Center John Evans, whose foot was hurt at Panhandle.

Respond to Treatment
Coach Davis said most of the injured players are responding to treatment, but they may not be at full strength by game time Friday.

The Tigers' tentative starting lineup:
Woods, left end; Philip Flowers, left tackle; Clyde Windsor, left guard; Evans, center; Richard Norman, right guard; Joel Meacham, right tackle; Keith Teeples, right end; Kenny Willingham, quarterback; Jim Watson, left halfback; Jim McCarty, right halfback, and George Patton or Dickie Crockett, fullback.
Robert Norman will take a starting role at tackle on the locals' defensive team.
Starting for the heaviest Irish will be:

Locals Hope for Revenge
Bill Billingsley and Tommy Scrivner, ends; Jerry Brown and Paul Clay, tackles; Bill Valentine and Gary Harvey, guards; Ronald Lummus, center; Larry Reeves, quarterback; Jerry Campbell and Bill McBryde, fullbacks.

Shamrock, who clipped McLean 36-8 in the season-opener a year ago, have been impressive in scrimmage sessions to date.

The Irish used highly ranked Stinnett and thrashed Memphis in scrimmage.
The Tigers showed "real good blocking" against Panhandle, whom they bested five touchdowns to two, but their timing was "ragged," Davis said.

Coaches this week have been "polishing" the squad's plays.
Wheeler will be McLean's next foe. The Tigers go there Friday of next week.

BULLETIN

A mysterious fire and explosion destroyed a Rock Island train baggage car late this morning west of Alanreed. One man, reported to be a member of the railroad's section gang, was burned in the explosion, but he apparently was not seriously hurt. A bomb was reported found in the baggage car, but this could not be confirmed late Thursday afternoon. Volunteer firemen from McLean and Wheeler County were called to fight the blaze.

LOCAL CATTLE WIN IN SHOW

Dr. Hereford Ranch entries from McLean scored big victories last week at the Colorado State Fair in Pueblo.

Dr. Lady Onward 88 was champion female of the show and the reserve champion bull was Doctor Supreme, both from the registered Hereford herd of Faris Hess and Bill Wright.

All told, the local Herefords returned with six first place and one second place ribbons. The runner-up animal was second only to another Hereford from the Wright and Hess Ranch.

139 Entered
In addition to Doctor Supreme and Dr. Lady Onward 88, the first-place ribbons were taken in the classes of yearling bull, three bulls, two bulls and get of sire.

A total of 139 Herefords were entered in the show.
The animals were entered this week in the Douglas, Wyo., State Fair, then they will be returned to McLean until the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo next month.
Hess said the Amarillo fair will be the last showing of the cattle this fall.

Everett Jones Buys Local Pontiac Firm

The sale of Andrews Pontiac and Equipment Co. to Everett Jones, formerly of Borger, was announced this week by Clyde Andrews, owner of the firm since 1949.

The name of the business has been changed to Jones Pontiac and Equipment Co.

Jones came to McLean from Borger last October, when he purchased an interest in the company. The final sale became effective on July 25.

For the present time, Andrews will continue to be associated with the firm and reside in McLean.

Jones' established residence in McLean several weeks ago. However, his wife will remain in Borger for the present. They have lived in Borger for 23 years.

First School Holiday Coming Up Monday

McLean students and teachers—and businessmen—will enjoy their first holiday of the just-opened school term next Monday.
Labor Day will be observed by the closing of the school buildings, most McLean businesses, the Post Office and the city offices for a long weekend.

School and business will return to normal Tuesday morning.

Pictures to Be Made

Pictures of McLean public school students will be made next Wednesday. Supt. Lee Welch announced this week.

First Class' Golden Anniversary

By RUBY COOK
Few citizens of our town are aware that the year 1961 marks the golden anniversary of the first graduating class of the city schools of McLean. Incredible as it may seem, only 50 years before the date of that first graduating class, June 2, 1911, the Civil War was going full force.

The town of McLean was organized in 1902. Immediately work was begun on a school house south of the tracks. Mr. Russell was the first teacher. That information came from the C. S. Rice family, and they should know, for Mr. (See FIRST, Page 6)

31 Sign Up in the Great Plains Program

By BILL BROOKS
WUC, SCS

As of this date 31 farmers and ranchers in the Gray County Soil Conservation District have developed Great Plains conservation plans for their lands.

Of this number, two have cancelled their plans and two have changed ownership but will keep the GP plans. All of them have modified or changed their plan to some extent after getting into the application of it.

Of the 31 plans, 16 have been on farms and 15 on ranches. The large part of the work the last year has been on cropland.

The following paragraphs give a running account to date of who has applied what under the Great Plains program:

Wayne Shaw, C. L. Weiberg, George Quible, W. E. (Bill) Robinson and Arno Mansera have built grassed waterways in which to empty diversions and regular terraces.

H. L. Henderson, Mrs. M. H. Patterson, Felton Webb, Drew Word, John Rapstine and Paul M. Bruce have built diversion terraces to break up the concentration of water and protect eroding fields.

G. W. Schaffer and Bill Bralley have done land leveling to provide more even distribution of water and increase the efficiency of their irrigation system. Bill Bralley and Gordie Schaffer have also seeded switch grass for irrigated pasture.

Schaffer's is up to a good stand and Bralley is just getting his in. You irrigation farmers (like J. D. Skaggs) that are interested in irrigated pastures might could take a look at this.

John T. Winters, Bill Bralley, Wayne Shaw, C. V. Fofstman, George Quible, Neil R. and M. T. Johnson, Felton Webb, Mrs. Mary Helen Boston and Leslie Darsey have built farm ponds for livestock water.

Bill Bralley, George Quible, Billy Davis, W. H. Taylor estate, A. R. Evans and Raymond Darsey have built fences to gain better distribution of grazing.

Billy Davis, Harvey H. Hudgins, N. W. Foster, Drew Word, Morris G. Mullanax and Paul M. Bruce have controlled brush on their grassland to improve their stand and vigor of grasses.

G. W. Schaffer, Bill Bralley, Wayne Shaw, N. W. Foster, George Quible, Neil R. and M. T. Johnson, Mrs. M. H. Patterson, Felton Webb, Drew Word, Paul M. Bruce and Thomas Bailey have seeded grass on marginal cropland or overseded existing grass in poor condition.

Quentin Williams, W. H. Taylor estate, Thomas Bailey and Raymond mond E. Darsey have constructed windmills and metal water tanks for livestock water.

G. W. Schaffer has installed irrigation pipelines.

In addition to these practices, cost-share may be received for planting trees for a field or farmstead windbreak, constructing spreader ditches, netwire diversions, constructing erosion control dams and putting in pipelines for livestock water. The rate of cost-share varies from 50 to 80 per cent of an average cost, or for some practices of an actual cost.

'Pioneer Spread' Is Study Club Theme At First Meeting

The Pioneer Study Club met for the first session of the year on Aug. 24 at 9 a. m. at the home of Mrs. Jim Back.

Hostesses were Mrs. Jim Boyd, Mrs. Jack Riley and Mrs. Back. The theme was "Pioneer Spread." A sign depicting an early day cowboy, and which said "Pioneer Spread, Light and Hitch," greeted the guests as they came up the walk.

Upon entering the house, each member was "branded" with the map of Texas on which her initials were placed.

After having a "shot" of cider, the guests were fed a sumptuous meal. The napkins were red handkerchiefs, place mats were branded with the Pioneer Spread initials and the menus were in the shape of cowboy boots.

The menu consisted of cactus juice shurp, sour dough wranglers and sorghum dip, throat ticklin' grub with hog side stuffing, cowboy hash browns and fireside coffee.

The table decorations were in keeping with the theme, with cans containing the silverware and an authentic campfire. A large life-like cowboy was the main center of attraction. Flowers used as decorations were old-fashioned cockscomb and sunflowers.

Following the meal, Mrs. Riley presented the program on "Pioneer Women of Texas." She was dressed as an early pioneer woman.

Attending were Mesdames Sinclair Armstrong, R. T. Ayres, Morris Brown, Jesse Coleman, Harold Fabian, Dale Glass, Jim Hathaway, Guy Hester, Forrest Hupp, Creed Lamb, Evan Sittler, Bob Stubblefield, Felton Webb, N. L. Welch, June Woods, Hickman Brown, Kenneth McCall, W. E. Bogan, H. W. Finley, Earl Stubblefield, the hostesses and one guest, Miss Shirley Boyd.

Veterans Eligible For Direct Loans

Veterans living in a majority of the 79 counties in the Lubbock regional Veterans Administration office area may negotiate direct home and farmhouse loans from the VA, according to Robert W. Sisson, office manager.

Veterans of World War II and Korea have been given additional time in which to apply for a GI loan by legislation signed recently by the President, Sisson pointed out.

The new law increases from the present $13,500 to $15,000 the maximum an eligible veteran may get from the government as a direct loan. A total of $1.2 billion over the next six years for use in direct loans by the VA was authorized.

The law provides a phase-out eligibility formula under which a veteran will be eligible for a GI loan for 10 years from the date of his discharge from his last period of wartime service, plus an additional year of eligibility for each three months of active wartime service.

Direct loans are limited to specially designated rural areas, towns and small cities where the administrator of veterans affairs has determined that private mortgage money is not available for GI loans.

Further information concerning the program may be obtained from the VA regional office, 1600 19th Street, Lubbock.

Russell whipped the son, Roy. The next teachers were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Biggers and Miss Bess Edwards. By the time Gus Gamble took over, work was going forward on the new two-story wooden structure lying west of town.

In a few years that building burned and while the brick school house was being constructed classes were held in churches or in business houses downtown. About 1909 school was resumed in the new brick building.

There were three students who should have graduated in 1910 but Mr. Horton decided that the first graduating class should have more than three members.

These three students were Ruby Rice, who took a review and remained in school; Bessie Sitter, who elected to stop school, and I taught a country school for five months and then came back for the graduating class—Mary Grundy, Andrew Floyd, Lucile Horton, Ruby Rice, Pearl Rice, Winnie Floyd, Bethel Christian and I.

Six of the eight graduates followed educational lines and entered college. Four of the six who attended college received degrees. All graduates made above 90 in the McLean school and all who entered college were in the upper tens.

Andrew H. Floyd, the valedictorian, led the class across the stage, followed by Lucile Horton and Mary Grundy, who tied for the highest honors of the class—a grade of 99 or better.

Lucile was the youngest member of the class. Ruby Rice was the salutatorian, Bethel Christian, Pearl Rice and I read themes.

The Andrew H. Floyd Post of the American Legion was named after the valedictorian of the class of 1911. The last lines of Andrew's parting message were:

"Be good, sweet maid, let those who will be clever. Do noble things, not dream them all day long, and so make life, death and that vast forever one grand sweet song."

Andrew H. Floyd gave his life for his country on the battle field in France in the year 1918. Two other members of the class have passed away—Pearl Rice, who prepared herself for a career as a teacher, died in 1919 before her dream was realized. Bethel Christian passed away about 1936.

Manager of Housing Units Here Resigns

Martha McPherson resigned Wednesday afternoon as manager of the McLean housing project.

Mrs. McPherson submitted her letter of resignation, effective Sept. 15, in a special meeting of the housing authority.

A replacement will be named by the authority in the near future. It was announced at Wednesday's meeting that two of the 12 units in the Ed Lander Place housing project are now vacant, but an application is on file for one.

Both of the units contain three bedrooms. Applications will be taken by Mrs. McPherson at the project office.

WOLF WHISTLE FATAL TO 2

LONDON—Wolf whistles cost two 17-year-old Londoners their lives, a coroner found after hearing evidence from two girl witnesses.

The young girls testified that the two boys turned to whistle as they drove past on a motor scooter, swerved, hit a bus and were killed.

RIDING FOR TITLE: Ray Boiles, a former Sweetwater boy and the junior all-around cowboy of the 1960 Boys Ranch Rodeo at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch, will be riding for the senior title when the rodeo is held over the Labor Day weekend, Sept. 3 and 4. Roy finished the 1960 rodeo with a perfect score, compiling 100 out of a possible 100 points by riding the smaller animals of the rodeo that has become nationally known as the only one of its kind in the country.

DREAM IS TOO REAL

ERIE, Pa.—Tommy Wisinski, 11, woke up in the middle of his dream that his house was on fire.

The boy jumped from his bed, raced up to the attic, crashed through a window, tumbled 14 feet to a porch roof, fell another 10 feet to the ground and then ran to a nearby cafe and summoned firemen.

Tommy was treated for bruises at a local hospital, then sent home with a case of influenza.

From the Library

By ERMA HESTER

Library traffic is on a more regular schedule now that school is under way, and because of school hours, my lunch hour has been changed from 1 to 2 p. m. Soon after 11 a. m. the little first and second graders come in, and the flow of borrowers continues and progresses in age until 1 when the high school students have to report back to class.

In order to make the library available to all those who ride buses, play football or for any reason can't come in after school, I am glad to postpone my lunch time for one hour.

Then at 2:30 the first graders start popping in, and business picks up again until closing time at 5. So the only change from regular summer hours is the 1 to 2 lunch period.

School always brings new experiences to the library. Last year a little third grader, with the seriousness of an adult, asked, "Mrs. Hester, do you have any LOVE stories for third graders?"

How do you keep a straight face at a time like that?

No need to check with the school, I've already asked Miss Forbes just what kind of reading she required of her third grade class. Needless to say, she was surprised.

We at the library have received several notes of appreciation for our efforts in the summer activities here, and may I say that it is very inspiring and encouraging to know that someone has taken the time to express such thoughts. Thank you.

Last week: books checked out—187; fines—$2.95.

WHEAT REFERENDUM

The vote was a close one, 129 for and 121 against. This was far short of the two-thirds majority necessary to place marketing quotas and penalties in effect. In the past similar referendums had carried by a wide margin in Gray County.

Had the result of the nation-wide election come out the same as Gray County, the referendum would not have carried. Price support on wheat would have dropped to $1.19 per bushel. There would not have been any penalties for exceeding allotment.

However, to qualify for the $1.19 a farmer would have to stay with his 1962 allotment.

It would be a guess as to why farmers departed from their usual voting pattern. The most common complaint I heard before the election was the additional one per cent acreage cut we got this year, as well as similar small cuts over the past years.

There was considerable complaint about the 10 per cent cut in allotment, even though a very lucrative payment is being made for the 10 per cent acreage cut.

Most of all, though, farmers did not know what they could do with the reduced acres.

When was the final date for grazing? Would they have to be inconvenienced by having to run a fence around a small acreage to prevent grazing?

These were the unanswered questions, in my opinion, that caused the farmers to vote NO. To date the answers to these questions have never been sent to the counties.

This is not to be critical of anyone, because the bill was passed by Congress only a few weeks ago.
 It is surprising at the speed counties have received what information they now have.

The rumored grazing restriction, in my opinion, was the prime factor in causing the NO vote. For some time on such programs as acreage reserve of the soil bank, conservation reserve on the soil bank, and the new feed grain program there has been a grazing restriction in all these programs.

The reason for this is obvious.
 Cattlemen, traditionally conservative about their views on government farm programs, felt that if thousands of acres were changed from cropland to grassland and no restriction were made on grazing this would cause a buildup of the cattle population and ultimately cause a break in cattle prices.

 And, too, it would be difficult to justify paying a farmer on one hand to idle his cropland and still permit him to graze it.

Although as a county agent I am supposed to be devoid of an opinion with reference to setting policy or writing government programs, I still have one. My suggestion is why restrict him in this new wheat program from grazing before March 1 to 15, even if he does get a payment?

I say this because had there been no new changes the farmer would have had 10 per cent more wheat and would have been grazing it. His expense of land preparation in anticipation of sowing wheat has already been done.

Therefore, the new program would not cause any more of a buildup in the cattle population or any changed pattern in grazing if the grazing restrictions were dropped out.

Certainly the farmer should at least have the option of grazing wheat in lieu of receiving a payment for the diverted acreage.

Soil Samples Are Sent to Laboratory

Gray County farmers submitted six soil samples to the Agricultural Extension Service soil testing laboratory in Lubbock during the months of May and June, according to County Agent Foster Whaley.

Whaley pointed out that the Extension Service maintains and operates the testing laboratory for Gray County farmers to use in determining their fertilizer needs.
 Even though soil tests have some limitations in determining these needs, Whaley said the $2 spent on a soil test "is the most important money spent in a fertilizer program."

Samples should be sent now for crops to be seeded this fall.

Whaley said the service is also available to home owners in Mc-Lean, Lefors and Pampa. He invited persons interested to call his office, MO 43441, Pampa, and forms and instructions will be sent.
