DEDICATION SATURDAY: At left is the new McLean Post Office which will be formally dedicated in a program starting at 2 p. m. Saturday. The new structure, which has been in use for several weeks, is not actually owned by the Post Office Department. Instead, it was constructed with private funds and is under lease to the department. The general public has been invited to attend the dedication and open house. In the picture at right, McLean Postmaster Bill Reeves looks over a large shipment from the Marie Foundations factory. The factory, which manufactures brassieres and girdles for Sears, is the local Post Office's biggest customer and accounts for much of the steady increase in postal receipts recorded in recent years.

Effective on Sept. 15

McCartney Resigns As City Manager

B. J. McCartney, city manager of McLean since April 1, 1960, submitted his resignation Tuesday night to the city commission, effective on Sept. 15.

It was accepted "with regret." In his letter of resignation, read to the commission by Mayor John C. Haynes, McCartney explained that he had decided to take the action "due to the extensive operations my son will have to undergo the next six or seven years."

Seven-year-old James McCartney was attacked by dogs early this year. His ear was torn off and he suffered other severe injuries.

Some 25 operations will be required to re-build the ear, and the surgery will be performed in a Galveston hospital.

"My period of service with the City of McLean has been a most enjoyable one," McCartney said in his letter.

"The loyalty of the employees has certainly made my job easier, and we have the finest employees to be found anywhere. It is a hard place to leave, but due to the extensive operations my son will have to undergo the next six or seven years, and my obligation to be with him in this trying time, I feel that it would be best to the City of McLean and my family to re-locate somewhere in the vicinity where he will be hospitalized."

Formerly at Edinburg "I hope that we are leaving the City of McLean with the fine feeling of being able to return, because we feel it is one of the finest towns in which we have ever lived."

He expressed his "appreciation to the city commission, a commission which I can say without reservation is the best commission I have ever had the privilege to work with."

The city manager said he does not now have a new position.

McCartney came to McLean last year from Edinburg, where he was assistant city manager for four years. Prior to that he was employed by the City of Corpus Christi.

He has been in municipal work 12 years.

In addition to James, Mr. and Mrs. McCartney have another son, Mike, 17 months old.

McCartney is a member of the Lions Club and Masonic Lodge and the family are members of the First Baptist Church.

Top o' Texas Event Scheduled Aug. 26

The Top o' Texas Hereford Breeders Association has set Aug. 26 as the date for its annual summer activity, according to Paul Dauer, president. The program has not yet been completed.

Several members of the association have made good sales within the past few days—including seven head heifers sold to A. G. Nicholson of Dallas by Clyde Magee of McLean.

Country Club Plans Made; Memberships Being Sold for $200

A membership drive to raise funds for the formation of a Country Club and construction of a clubhouse was started here last Friday.

Members of the McLean Lions Golf Association in a meeting at the Marie Foundations factory decided to limit the Country Club to 50 members.

Each membership will cost $200 with $100 payable at the time of joining and the remaining $100 to be paid within the next year.

If a sufficient amount is not raised to build a clubhouse, the money will be refunded.

Sketches Shown Preliminary sketches of the proposed clubhouse were shown during Friday's meeting, and it was announced that a low construction bid of $8,300 had been received from Hershel Smith.

This does not include fixtures. The structure, which is planned for erection at the golf course, would contain 1,600 square feet.

It was voted to have separate memberships for the Country Club and McLean Lions Golf Association.

YOUTH DIES OF WOUNDS

Funeral services for Raymond Frank Stockton, 19-year-old victim of a shooting incident here, were held Monday in Quinton, Okla.

Stockton met almost instant death early last Friday morning when he apparently playfully picked up a .22 caliber revolver, placed it to his head and pulled the trigger.

Justice of the Peace Cliff Day ruled death by accidental self-inflicted gunshot wounds.

Lives in Amarillo Young Stockton, who worked in Amarillo and made his home with a sister there, had a number of friends in McLean and spent much of his time here.

Constable J. D. Fish, who investigated the incident, said Stockton had stopped at the Deep Rock Service Station here shortly after 3 a. m. Friday when he saw several other youths working on a car there.

FIRE FIGHTING EQUIPMENT TO BE IMPROVED

Fire equipment improvements aimed at reducing the recent insurance key rate hike were approved Tuesday night by the city commission.

The governing board took the action after hearing a delegation of McLean volunteer firemen explain the departments needs, estimated to cost $700.

Spokesmen for the group—Leo Gibson, W. W. (Slick) Bayl and Chief Baya Meador—informed the commission that the insurance key rate had been boosted by six cents following an inspection of local equipment by the State Insurance Board.

Reduction Due All explained that the improvements—mostly to the firetrucks—would result in a reduction in the rate.

The aldermen discussed but took no action on City Manager B. J. McCartney's recommendation that a police car be purchased.

McCartney told the board that he believed the city could save a considerable amount of money by buying a police car, instead of paying expenses to the two city officers for operating their cars.

However, the feasibility of purchasing the vehicle was questioned by some members of the board.

House Sale Talked The commission discussed but delayed action on the possibility of selling the house located on land recently purchased for the expansion of Hillcrest Cemetery.

Alderman Ruel Smith said he had been asked if the city would sell the house.

The tax levy ordinance, No. 109, was read for the second time and approved during Tuesday's meeting.

Cecil Kelley, local Church of Christ minister, said the invocation to open Tuesday's meeting.

Funeral Rites Held For Mrs. Sligar

Last rites for Mrs. Cordella Francis Sligar were held Saturday in the Pampa First Methodist Church. Interment was in Fairview Cemetery.

Mrs. Sligar, mother of Fred Sligar of McLean, died last Thursday in St. Joseph's Hospital in Wellington.

A resident of Pampa since 1929, Mrs. Sligar was a member of the First Methodist Church. Her husband, T. N. Sligar, preceded her in death in 1911.

Survivors, in addition to her son here, include three daughters, Mrs. B. M. Wood and Mrs. Ethel Dell, both of Pampa, and Mrs. Ruth Lang, Abilene; three brothers, Jim Mobley, Encinita, Calif., Luther Mobley, San Bernardo, Calif., and John Mobley, Fort Worth; 11 grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren.

McLean's new Post Office will be dedicated at 2 p. m. Saturday, and every person living in this area is invited to attend the ceremony and open house.

Also on the program will be a representative of the Post Office Department's inspection service in Amarillo.

The program is sponsored by the McLean Lions Club.

McLean Postmaster Bill Reeves said the Amarillo Shriner Band has been invited to perform at the dedication, but it was not known this morning whether the band would be able to attend.

The color guard will be members of the Shamrock National Guard unit.

Delegation from Pampa Reeves said he had been advised that a delegation will be on hand to represent the Pampa Chamber of Commerce, and guests are expected from many areas of the Panhandle.

The Pioneer Study Club will serve at the open house following the program.

Rainfall Total Hits 12.82 for the Year

McLean received 1.27 inches of rainfall during the past week to bring the year's total to 12.82 inches, according to Weather Observer Pete Fulbright.

To this same date in 1960 a total of 15.39 inches had fallen on the city.

Rainfall records in the past week—Saturday, .85; Sunday, .34; Wednesday, .08.

Private 1st Grade Recognized

The board of education Monday night voted to permit first graders privately taught in the 1961-62 term to enter the McLean Elementary School second grade the following year, providing they meet the age requirement and pass a qualifying test.

In a compromise action, the board adopted a motion recognizing the privately taught first grade, giving parents of children who will be 6 years old on or before next Dec. 1 the option of entering them in the grade school—if they pass an entrance examination—or in a private school.

30 Maximum The age limit was changed from Sept. 1 to Dec. 1 by the board earlier this year, and some school trustees have indicated a desire to rescind that action, pointing out that it could require the hiring of another first grade teacher this fall.

A motion was introduced Monday night to cancel the ruling, but it was defeated and then stricken from the minutes when the compromise was reached.

Under the adopted motion, the maximum number of students in the McLean Elementary School first grade was set at 30 per class, with youngsters 6 years of age on or before the state-set Sept. 1 deadline being accepted before those who would be eligible to enrol because of the change to the Dec. 1 date. Youngsters enrolled in the private school—providing one is established—would be permitted to ride the school bus, if they meet the requirement of being 6 on or before Dec. 1.

Twenty-six children who will be 6 on or before Sept. 1 were enumerated in the school census this year.

2 Teachers Resign Supt. Lee Welch announced at Monday's board session that Mrs. Betty Jo Skipper, fourth grade teacher, and Miss Billie Brown, high school junior and senior English instructor, have resigned.

The resignations were accepted "with regret."

Welch reported that he was in the process of employing teachers to fill vacancies created by these and prior resignations before school opens on Aug. 28.

Replaces Gas Stove In a long, busy session, the school board also approved the installation of 64 new incandescent lights at Duncan Football Stadium, and voted to purchase a Hotpoint electric range.

An out-of-town educator has been employed to administer the test. Charge per pupil will be $3.

NEWS from

YOUR

COUNTY AGRICULTURAL AGENT
VERNAS A. & M. COLLEGE EXTENSION SERVICE

By FOSTER WHALEY
NEW FIELD REPORTER

Clyde Brown is the new field reporter for the Gray County ASC office in the McLean area. A replacement for Clyde on the Gray County ASC committee has not been named at this time.

Recently Clyde resigned, since it was necessary for him to do so before he could accept the job as field reporter. Clyde has been undergoing intensive training at the ASC office in Pampa in preparation for his new job.

First on docket is measuring of the grain sorghum crop and the diverted acres.

Clyde has done an excellent job on the county committee. Many people don't realize how very much work was involved on the feed grain program.

We think our county committee did an excellent job of setting one farm in relation to another. They were working under an extreme handicap with the extremely low allotment of bushels and acres handed down to us from College Station.

Clyde was very instrumental in having an early cut-off date set on spraying shinnery and sagebrush. This was done in an effort to protect cotton farmers from damage from the 2-4-D chemicals.

When the community committee has named a successor for Clyde we will publish his name in this column.

SNAKE REPELLENT

Word really gets around. Recently I have had requests from Dumas, Lubbock and Turkey regarding the address where the snake repellent could be bought. Recently I sent the address to a local McLean merchant.

I'm sure the general public of McLean would like to know where they can get the material locally. I'm sure Jack Shelton would be glad to run an ad from that firm telling them it was available. This way everyone will be happy.

Uncle Zeb picked up my brief remarks about the snake repellent and put it in Southwestern Crop and Stock Magazine. This is the reason for much of the mail.

However, Mrs. H. F. Coker, Turkey, Texas, learned about the material by reading a good weekly paper—The McLean News. And the L. W. Shorts in Marks, Miss., learned about it the same way, as did many others.

JOHNSON GRASS CONTROL

The best way to control large areas in cultivated fields is by placing in wheat for about three years in a row. This seems to curl the hair of Johnson grass.

For small patches there are oil base sprays such as naphtha, kerosene and diesel fuel. When supplemented with a new chemical called C-56 this seems to be even more effective.

Sodium chlorate, a soil sterilant, is most effective if a person has no objections to killing his land in spots. It is very expensive, however.

Clyde Magee is concerned with Johnson grass in his orchard. He plans to use the oil and C-56. We will be watching this to see how it does.

GOLF COURSE

Have you noticed how nice the McLean golf course looks lately? I have gone by several times to inspect the old prairie dog towns for dogs. I believe we got 'em all.

This might be a good place to experiment with the snake repellent and see if the material will run them out.

Another nice asset to neighboring Lefors is the beautiful park that such a short time ago was nothing more than a sagebrush knob. The local citizens have taken the bull by the horns and added so much to their little town by having as pretty a park as I have seen for its size.

I hear there is considerable talk of paving many of the streets. With a new and improved highway in the making, this will be very encouraging to people that like the many advantages of a smaller town. No doubt many people could be encouraged to live there even though they work elsewhere in the county.

SAVINGS BONDS

More and more people, it seems, are taking advantage of the Treasury regulation permitting exchange of Series E bonds for H bonds, while deferring federal income tax liability on the accumulated E bond interest.

The new privilege is especially helpful to farmers who are getting along toward retirement years, probably cutting down on their operations and thus needing more income from other sources.

If you've been saving E bonds for future needs, letting your interest accumulate, but now would like to receive your interest checks regularly, here's what you do:

Take your E bonds to the bank and ask to EXCHANGE them for H bonds. (You must have at least $500 worth, cash value.) Remember, you don't want to redeem them and buy H bonds with the money. It must be a straight swap to get the tax deferral privilege.

With the new H bonds, you'll start getting an interest check from the Treasury each six months. This, of course, must be reported as income each year. BUT—the interest you earned on the E bonds over the years need not be reported for tax purposes until the H bonds are cashed or mature.

HEART TROUBLE

Had you thought of this one? Two things that are bad on heart trouble—one is running up stairs, the other is running down people.

DEDICATION

program and open house on the occasion of the dedication of your new Post Office in McLean," Reeves said.

"Invitations will be sent to each family, and it is hoped that the patrons of this office will avail themselves of a once in a lifetime opportunity to inspect their new Post Office.

"The program will be informative, and of interest to every person attending."

Leasing Plan

The new Post Office building here is part of the Post Office Department's unique commercial leasing plan. Under this program, investment financing is used to obtain needed facilities which remain under private ownership, pay local taxes to this community and are leased to the federal government.

At the same time, the need for large outlays from the federal Treasury for construction purposes is eliminated.

Reeves said patrons "will derive more enjoyment from doing business here, their mail will be handled more efficiently and this building and its up-to-date equipment will enable the best of conditions."

Mail business in this area has gone up, the postmaster noted. For example, 10 years ago revenue was $11,888, compared with $34,000 today.

When the local Post Office was first established its receipts ran only about $300 per year.

Communications System Introduced In Area for Farms

A new farm communications system that combines regular telephone service with an inter-com system for the farm, chicken ranch or dairy farm is being introduced here, George Newberry, Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. manager, announced today.

Known as the Farm Interphone, the system includes a master phone in the house, an extension phone in the barn, milk shed or other farm building and a two-way long-range loudspeaker outdoors.

Additional extension phones and outdoor speakers can be added to fit the farm's individual needs.

"The Farm Interphone was specially designed to meet the needs of farms, cattle ranches, chicken ranches and dairy farms," Newberry said. "By making it possible to talk between various farm locations, it will save valuable time and steps for the users."

Each phone on the system has a control button to change from regular telephone service to inter-com calling between farm locations. Phones are equipped with loud-speaker-microphone units so the user can talk on the inter-com without removing the receiver from the hook.

This feature enables the farmer, for example, to continue working in the barn while carrying on an inter-com conversation with his wife in the house.

Regular phone calls can be held on the line while the inter-com is used to talk with someone at another location on the farm.

The outdoor loudspeaker-microphone feature makes it possible to talk with persons working outdoors in the farm yard. For example, the farmer's wife can talk to him while he is working outdoors, and he can reply, even though he may be a considerable distance from the sensitive microphone.

"Many adaptations of the Farm Interphone can be made to meet the individual needs of the farmer," the manager said.

tric range for the school cafeteria.

The range, which was described by a representative of Southwestern Public Service Co., will replace a gas stove now in use. It will be purchased out of cafeteria funds.

The bid of Time Chemical Co. of Amarillo on janitorial supplies was accepted by the board. Supt. Welch said Time's bid was the best submitted.

A two-line telephone system was ordered by the board following an explanation by Red Ballard, Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. representative. The system will include a telephone in every school building and the football stadium.

Also approved were the installation of individual room heat controls in the grade school and the installation of a new Guardian mercury vapor light on the school grounds.

Phyllis Describes Washington Trip

Phyllis Flowers discussed her recent trip to Washington, D. C., for the Future Business Leaders of America convention Tuesday noon as guest speaker at the McLean Lions Club luncheon.

Miss Flowers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Waymon Flowers, competed at the convention in the national FBLA spelling contest. She had earlier won first place in the Texas state FBLA spelling competition.

In Washington, Miss Flowers and the Texas contestants took fifth place.

The new Lions Club sweetheart, Dixie Jo Burroughs, was introduced at the luncheon by Boss Lion Jimmie Don Morris.

Other guests were Bill Curtis of Oklahoma and Charles Weaver, McLean.

The club will hold its second regular luncheon of July at 12:05 p. m. next Tuesday at the First Methodist Church.

YOUTH

The pistol lay in the seat of a car parked nearby, and Stockton picked it up, asking the other boys if it was loaded.

'Pull the Trigger'

One jokingly replied that he didn't know, "but you can find out by putting it to your head and pulling the trigger."

Seemingly going along with the joke, Stockton placed the muzzle just in front of his right ear and pulled the trigger. He was rushed to a local doctor's office but died a few minutes later.

Actually, the gun had a defective firing pin and often would not fire. Youths reported that there had been a number of occasions when the trigger was pulled as many as six times before the gun would fire.

A good look at the family budget reduces the vacation fever.

HATTYE MAY THOMPSON

(Impressions)

By RUBY COOK

For forty years I walked beside Hattye Thompson and marveled at her courage, her vision and her determination to leave something of herself of value to the world. "We have talent," she said. "We owe it to the world to develop it. That's what we're here for."

She said that at CIA she learned what she wanted to do with her life. She wanted to be an artist. Once committed to that intention, she never stopped working toward the goal she had set. Hattye made little, if any money from her painting. She ran or supplied art shops, and sold a few paintings to friends. She moved to New Mexico, which she loved. She taught the Indians on the reservation there for two years. Later she moved into Taos where she spent many happy years in art work and in church work in the Presbyterian Church.

She wanted to paint up and down the west coast, but the depression was on and she had no money. Lack of funds was no barrier to Hattye Thompson, she had a task to do. Without questioning and without fear, she began the journey. Along the way she took whatever work was offered her, but only for half a day. The other half she studied nature, painted the sea, the mountains, the forests, the desert. Carrying the paraphernalia of an artist—a stool, an easel, canvas, paints, brushes—she must have walked many, many miles looking for the exact scene she wanted.

When she came back, when asked how she managed to live, she said that she kept house for a sick woman. She waited tables in a restaurant, made lamp shades. The worst time she had was in Portland, Ore. She arrived there at four-thirty in the afternoon with only fifty cents in her purse. She had no time to waste. She took up her suit case and walked up the street. After several blocks she came to a small sign that said: GIRL WANTED. The place was stood behind a narrow counter, with scales and a stock of fresh fish before him. Hattye got the job and sold fish on a street in Portland for ten days.

So it was that Hattye May Thompson painted up and down the west coast. Hattye was nearing fifty now when she came to McLean to visit her sister, Mrs. Willie Boyett. As soon as I learned she was in town I went at once to call. In the living room the first thing I saw was a new picture, a large forest scene. Beautiful. "Oh, Hattye," I cried, "it has the fourth dimension."

"It's the first time I've been able to get the depth dimension. That's what I've been working for all these years. I'm real proud," she said.

For many hundreds of years only the old masters of the 15th and 16th centuries were able to show depth in pictures, relatively few painters in the United States, even now, are masters of the fourth dimension. Hattye Thompson in that one picture and in that one brief moment stood with the masters.

Hattye Thompson passed away March 3, 1961. In her home at Valverde, N. M., were found more than three hundred pictures in oil or in water colors in various sizes. She had left something of herself of value to the world.

WAY OF LIFE

The really good resolutions lead to reform—and reform soon becomes a habit.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Simpson and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Reyrclids and family left last weekend to spend a week fishing at Lake Supply, Okla.

From the Library

By MRS. GUY HESTER
Librarian

Story hour at the Lovett Memorial Library was a great success last Thursday, when 21 children between the ages of 3 and 7 came to hear stories told by Mrs. Willie Harris.

"Fied Piper" and "What's at the End of the Rainbow" were the stories told during the session. Miss Leona Forbes was in charge of the story hour today, featuring an illustrated version of "Peter Rabbit," and Mrs. Lavern Back will present "Hansel and Gretel" and "The Fairy Princess" next Thursday.

At last Thursday's story hour children drew a large rainbow on a bulletin board, while Mrs. Harris explained the reason for the rainbow. The youngsters guessed at what was at the end of it. When the picture was completed Mrs. Harris opened the bag at the end of the rainbow and the children found a generous supply of candy and gum, which was passed around.

An Indian theme is being used this year. Den No. 3 of the Cub Scouts furnished an excellent display of an Indian village for the library. In this village are 10 leather teepees, hides stretched on frames, campfires, corra and a very realistic corn field. Everyone should see this.

Also the readers are building an Indian village on the large bulletin board in the library. When they have read three books from their age level each one gets to place a teepee on the board. The next three books entitle the reader to an Indian maiden's or warrior's costume body.

Three more books earn a head-dress. Next the maidens get a campfire and the warriors get a tom-tom. Then the last three books, which make a total of 15, entitle the reader to a totem pole which shows that he or she has completed the reading requirements.

Last week several older readers registered to participate in the reading program also. A list of books that each person reads will be kept until the end of the six weeks period when a party will be held (given by the library board) in the park, at which time certificates will be given to the persons completing the 15 books and the reading record will be given to those attending. Those attending the first story hour were: Keith Gipson, Regina Caviness, Christal Fourier, Mike Ramsey, Susan Shelton, Shelley Ramsey, Jeffrey McCall, Brenda Brown, Toni and Becky Bohlar, Susan Brown, Halcyon Back, Elizabeth and Kelly Davis, Spence Sitter, Patricia Greenwood, Joe Bob Burroughs, Stephanie Riley, Perry Everett, Kurt and Kamilla Johnson.

At 1c and Mrs. Bobby Boyd and son, Ricky, of Holloman Air Force Base, N. M., visited over the weekend with their parents, the Jack Boyds of Kellerville and the Rush Turners of McLean.

A service man was admiring the vegetables at a market in a little town in the Philippines, especially some large green beans. In his best dialect, he said, "These are really good bechuelas."

Looking up from her seat on the ground, the native seller replied in excellent English, "Here we call them Kentucky Wonders."
