Pep Rally Friday

To stir added interest in the McLean Tiger-Memphis Cyclone District 2-A football game, a big pep rally is scheduled for 3:15 p. m. Friday in downtown McLean.

The Tiger Band will lead the procession—including the pep club and the entire student body—downtown for the festivities on Main Street.

Joining in the event will be the three candidates for football queen—Mary Ann Carter, Nona Ruth Beck and Alta June Watson—one of which will be crowned in pre-game ceremonies Friday.

The high school student body has invited all residents of McLean to join in the pep rally.

FESTIVITIES SCHEDULED BEFORE GAME

The McLean Tigers will crown their football queen Friday evening before taking the field against the rough and ready Memphis Cyclone.

Pre-game ceremonies are scheduled for 7:15 p. m., 15 minutes before kickoff.

Queen candidates are Mary Ann Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Carter; Nona Ruth Beck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Beck, and Alta June Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Watson.

All are seniors in McLean High School. Identity of the queen, to be selected by members of the Tiger squad, will be kept secret until time for the crowning.

One Defeat Each
Memphis will bring a respectable record to McLean Friday. The Cyclone has been defeated only one time this season, and this will be its first meeting with a District 2-A team.

The Memphis squad has five victories and one defeat against non-conference foes during the season, compared to McLean's six and one record.

The Tigers opened district play last week by soundly trouncing the game but outclassed Canadian Wildcats 35-6.

Lefors whipped Clarendon 22-0 in the only other district action.

Just Between Us

Remember the picture of the lad we ran in the News last week with our identification? Well, he's nameless no more.

Mrs. Earnest Beck informed us Wednesday that he's her grandson—Jay William Perryman, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Perryman, former teachers in our school system.

The Perrymans now are teaching in Houston.

We knew that face was familiar, as did virtually every other person we asked to help in identifying Jay William. But we hadn't seen him in awhile and just couldn't call his name.

M. D. McCabe is so disgusted with one of his cherry trees, he's about ready to chop it down.

The tree—one of two in his yard—suddenly decided it would bloom again the other day, after already producing one crop this year.

McCabe looked out in his yard and saw what he thought was a morning glory vine blooming on the tree. Checking closer later, however, he discovered it wasn't a vine at all. Some of the blossoms have already fallen away, leaving small (See JBU, Page 5)

My Trip Around the World

(Mrs. Alice Short Smith has graciously consented to share some of her around-the-world travels with readers of The McLean News in a series of articles. The first, telling of her travels in England and France, follows.)

By ALICE SHORT SMITH

On July 1, we left New York flying east at 6 p. m. (Texas time) and at 12:30 (Texas time) the sun came out to meet us.

By 1 p. m., I could begin to see the green hills and rugged coastline of southern Ireland, followed by the English countryside and London.

We stayed at "The Claridge" a wonderful old hotel with all the dignity of an English lord and service that was out of this world.

The Duke of Windsor and Prince Philip had lunch there one day, but we did not see them as we went to Canterbury that day.

We followed the trail of the "Canterbury Tales" to the old Canterbury Cathedral where St. Augustine came to bring Christianity to our English ancestors. The cathedral does not compare with Westminster Abbey in beauty, but offer so much in church history.

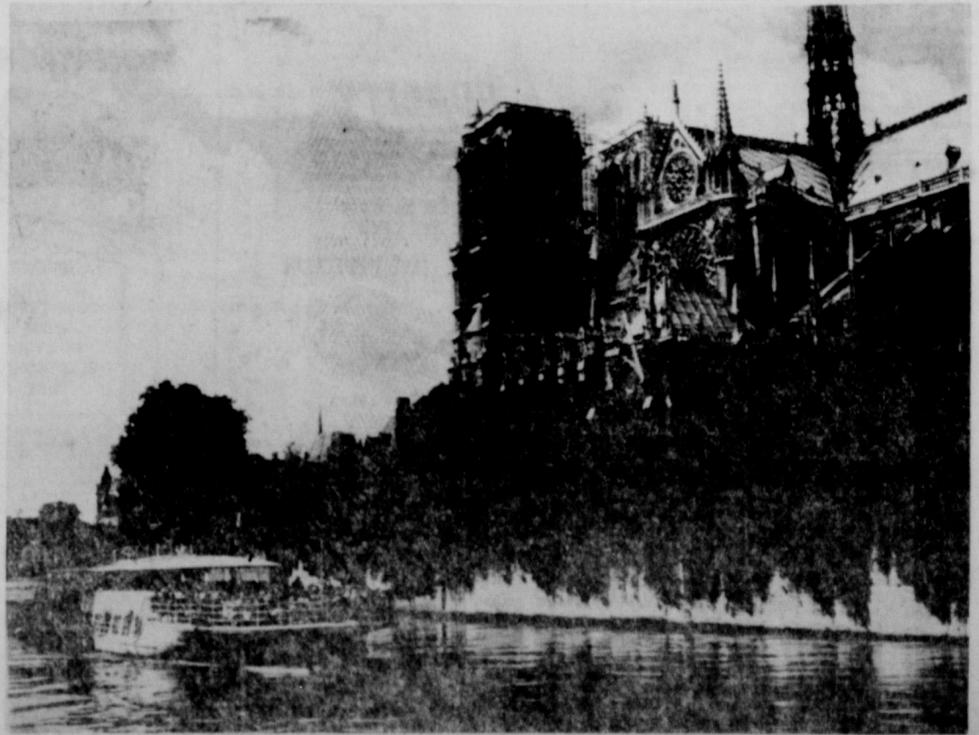

It is not a museum, but has been used all of this time as a church. The Puritans stripped it of a lot of beauty in gems and trimmings. Some of the original pillars are there, and some of the old Roman Wall. We saw where Thomas Beckett was killed and the steps worn by pilgrims on their knees in ancient times.

It has many church altars, and some church services three every day. In one room the Huguenots hold services.

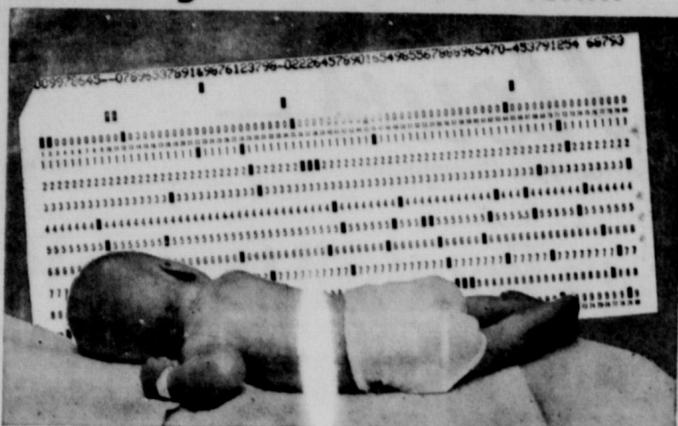

We visited Westminster Abbey, which is being cleaned up and was so much prettier than when we saw it in 1956. We heard the great choir of West Minister Abbey give a program, and later visited the House of Commons in session. Then we went to see the House of Lords.

It was all a wonderful experience. The economy of England has improved. (See TRIP Page 5)

NOTRE DAME CATHEDRAL: Notre Dame Cathedral, overlooking the Seine River, was among the places visited by Mrs. Alice Short Smith when she stopped in France on her trip around the world.

Turn of Card May Reveal Fate Of Young Birth Defects Victim

At March of Dimes Birth Defects Study Center, Johnny X shown against background of electronic computer card which records his life so far—and his chances of survival.

Johnny X from Tennessee is nine months old. His head is extremely large for the small body. He has water on the brain.

When his mother recently took Johnny to the Birth Defects Study Center at Vanderbilt University School of Medicine, Nashville, Tenn., for specialized treatment of this disease, known medically as hydrocephalus, their first appointment was with a doctor who had a most unusual assistant—an inanimate electronic sorter.

Dr. Robert E. Merrill, assistant director of the Birth Defects Study Center, a research unit financed by The National Foundation-March of Dimes, explained:

"This apparatus is something unique when applied to birth defects. It can be a lifesaver. It's an IBM machine, and its memory is many thousands of times more retentive than the proverbial elephant's. In effect, our mechanical robot here is going to interview Johnny and, although I'm Johnny's doctor, I'm really acting only as a sort of glorified office boy to the machine."

Using a device somewhat resembling a typewriter keyboard, Dr. Merrill began punching a rectangular oblong green card, measuring about 7" x 3". Each perforation represented the mother's answer to one of a long list of questions. Her answers covered such data as Johnny's age and birthdate, mother's age at delivery, illnesses of mother during pregnancy, any stillbirths, any physical defects in husband or wife, Johnny's weight, his age when his head started to enlarge and head circumference.

Scores of other vital facts are fed into the machine that never forgets.

When the sorter finishes "interviewing" Johnny, the green card has recorded for all time and in capsule form the infant's past and present life, and his family background.

More significantly, the electronic device also faithfully remembers the case histories of hundreds of other Johnny's whose brain fluid is blocked as it is with this boy.

Dr. Merrill has only to run these cards through the high-speed sorter to compare these life histories with Johnny's.

Most important of all, for this youngster and his apprehensive parents, is that the sorter can help the doctor form a reasonably accurate idea of Johnny's immediate future; help him decide on the advisability of surgical insertion of a "shunt" or plastic tube to draw off the excess fluid into the blood stream; and indeed, assist the physician in predicting the future course of the disease.

This is done by a study of past performances of other hydrocephalic infants whose medical circumstances closely resemble those of this baby. That data is available almost instantly—"in a minute fraction of the time," as Dr. Merrill says, "required to go through the records by hand."

This comparative diagnosis "can save a child's life," he adds. "At least one thing we now can have up-to-date to guide us, and guide us instantaneously, is our experience. In five minutes, usually, the sorter can give us information that helps us decide precisely what to do in Johnny's case—and what not to do."

Aside from the Birth Defects Study Center at Vanderbilt, The National Foundation-March of Dimes has financed similar centers at Children's Hospital, Columbus, Ohio, and at the University of Oklahoma Medical Center at Oklahoma City.

Eventually, when the experiment Dr. Merrill is conducting is completed, the study centers are expected to pool their records of hundreds of victims of significant birth defects for the benefit of all. Tragically, there are about 250,000 such infants born yearly in the United States.

THE TEXAS HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT GETS READY FOR SCHOOL—As school days begin throughout the state, the Texas Highway Department is taking special precautions to insure the safety of school children on the way to and from school. Numerous signs of warning and caution are appearing near school sites (such as this typical sign being replaced in place by a Highway Department maintenance man) and school bus stops. Motorists are urged to carefully observe these signs to guarantee the safety of school children.

Happiness for most people is very often beckoning from just over the next horizon. It may seem to hinge on the hope of a raise in salary or the harvest of a newly grown crop. The key might appear to be the results of some large sale. These and many other things may hold part of the answer but real and lasting joy can fill our hearts from only the seemingly little happenings of our everyday life.

Joy can fill our hearts to overflowing with experiences that cannot be tallied on an adding machine. Sometimes it might take an illness or tragedy in our life to make us slow down long enough to open up our hearts. When we are in a receptive mood just to have someone seem interested in our problem strikes a responsive chord. A prayer of hope for our recovery. Perhaps a cheerful card or a friendly letter. A flower to the living from a good friend. Something baked with their own hands special for us. A friendly visit when we are in the hospital or a cheerful call on the phone.

The true colors were there all the time. We had friends but they were too busy to let us know. We were too busy to care one way or another. Something happens to make each of us remember our true feeling one toward the other.

True these things cannot be totaled into a cash register. They cannot be tallied on an adding machine nor entered into our business ledger. But, each little kindness presses the keys to our heart-strings and the total adds up quickly to the blessing of joy in our heart.

Johnny Crutcher In Rifle Firing Exercise

FULDA, Germany—(Special)—Specialist Four Johnny D. Crutcher, son of Edgar D. Crutcher, Lefors, recently participated with other personnel from the First Reconnaissance Squadron, 14th Armored Cavalry Regiment in familiarization firing with the Army's new M-14 rifle in Fulda, Germany.

Our room is taking on a Halloween look. Black cats, jack-o-lanterns, witches, bats and owls are appearing on the windows and on the walls.

Marshall Richards has a cut on his eye lid. I think he got a little too close to a calf and the calf kicked him.

Janet Bible was absent Thursday. She went to the dentist.

James Bryant and son visited the second grade English class Tuesday afternoon. We were glad to have Mr. Bryant and son visit our room. They should come again.

Mrs. Pansy Bryant visited the second grade arithmetic class Wednesday. We were glad to have Mrs. Bryant visit our room. We welcome visitors to visit us any time in our room.

We elected a princess and prince for the first and second grades. In the first grade Janet Bible is princess, and Dean Anderson, who is a second grade boy, is prince. Since we do not have any girls in the second grade, the second grade boys elected Leann McCracken of the third grade as their princess. Mike Long is prince of the second grade.

Third and Fourth Grade News

First, may I apologize for not having my news for last week. It seems the flu virus had a different plan.

The six weeks has ended and we have begun a new six weeks. Everyone seemed happy with their report cards but promised they would try to make them better next six weeks.

Stephanie Smith, of the third grade, was the only one who made a perfect score on her six weeks spelling test.

Several have been absent this week. Those who have been absent are Leann McCracken, Carol Sue Anderson, Mona and Floyd Woodrome Jr.

Stephanie Smith and Ray Cox have been elected to represent the third grade as princess and prince at the annual Halloween Carnival to be held on the night of Oct. 28. Carol Sue Anderson and Floyd Woodrome Jr. will be the representatives for the fourth grade.

Those making perfect scores in spelling this week are Ricky Evans, Leann McCracken, Stephanie Smith, Carol Sue Anderson and Mona Woodrome.

Alanreed Sports

By MR. SMITH

Thursday, Oct. 12, Alanreed split with Lela as the girls won their game by the score of 16-9, the boys losing again to Lela 22-12.

First half scoring for Alanreed: Frances Cawfield 4 points, Linda Hill 6 points. Second half: Frances Cawfield 2 points, Linda Hill 2 and Mona Finley 2. Other forwards participating in the game were Nila Richards, Brenda Hill, Mona Woodrome, Jane Bible and Stephanie Smith.

First string guards were Jean Bible, Linda Anderson and Jeanie Harrison. Substitute guards were Norma Sue Hill, Sue Anderson, Shirley Wilson and June Bible.

Gloria Allen, a first string forward, missed the game because of pneumonia. It may be quite some time before she will be able to re-enter the lineup.

The girls standing is 5 wins, 0 losses.

On Thursday, Oct. 19, Alanreed will return the games to be played at Lela.

Boys Show Improvement

The Alanreed boys have shown a remarkable improvement. At the end of the first half the score was Alanreed 3, Lela 9; at the close of the third quarter Alanreed had trimmed Lela's lead to 2 points as the score ending the third quarter was 11-13. At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Jimmy Bible scored one point with a free shot, bringing us to within one point of Lela's experienced team.

The boys standing is 2 wins, 3 losses.

Both boys and girls teams have new basketball suits to play in for the next game.

I certainly welcome Mr. Sumrall as assistant coach. He has been helping since school started but not until our monthly school board meeting on Oct. 2 was he officially named as assistant coach. His knowledge of basketball has certainly been a great help. Mr. Sumrall coached two years at Monte Vista, Colo., before coming to Alanreed.

Rep. McIlhany Is Named to Special Study Committee

State Rep. Grainger McIlhany of Wheeler has been named to a five-member Texas House of Representatives committee to study encroachments on state lands and to review all laws governing the lands.

The study committee, authorized by House Simple Resolution No. 726, will examine the public needs and interests relating to all state-owned lands or islands, including encroachments and especially laws governing their sale or acquisition of interests by individuals, companies or corporations.

McIlhany was named to the committee by James A. Turman, speaker of the House.

The Wheeler lawmaker is presently serving as chairman of the House committee on agriculture, as vice chairman of the committee on constitutional amendments and on the conservation and reclamation, oil, gas and mining, and state affairs committee.

McIlhany is serving his seventh term in the Legislature, and Turman said he has been an "extremely effective member of the Texas House of Representatives."

The speaker said this study which the committee will undertake "is particularly timely because of the passage of the new general law in the regular session relating to submerged lands and islands."

He added that "our state laws have needed a general review for sometime." The special committee is charged with reviewing such laws and all problems of leasing or sale of state lands and to recommend repeals, revisions or new legislation to the 58th Legislature.

1962 PROGRAMS

We had a small turnout at our meeting last Tuesday.

Here are a few high points for you to remember about the wheat program:

If you are a wheat farmer, the allotment you received already has the 10 per cent reduction made. You have received a notice giving you two payment rates. The payment rate on the left side of the notice is the amount per acre you will receive for leaving out the 10 per cent reduced acreage.

If you want to you can retire an additional 30 per cent and draw the payment as specified on the right side of your payment notice.

The reduced acreage must be devoted to a soil-conserving use. Summer fallow qualifies.

The 1962 milo and corn program is very much like the 1961 program. Barley is under a separate program, but is the same in many respects as the 1961 feed grain program.

The grain sorghum, corn and barley program is voluntary. With the three programs in effect for 1962, you might have some trouble in figuring out your 1962 program. I'd be glad to answer any questions you might have if I am able to do so.

CIVIL DEFENSE
I'm still getting requests for the information I have on fallout shelters. I'd be glad to pass this along to you.

Incidentally, we have a plan for an all-concrete fallout shelter. This has all the items listed that one would need for a two-week period.

In visiting with Bryan McPherson, I learned he was installing this very type of shelter in Amarillo at a very nominal price, too.

From the Library

By MRS. ERMA HESTER

Two more memorial books arrived this week: The Will Rogers Book by Paula McSpadden Love, given by the Clyde Holloway daughters in memory of Felton Webb, and the Pioneer Study Club gave the book, Steps of the Master by H. V. Morton, in memory of the late Mrs. Buice of Shamrock, who was a sister to Mrs. Alice Short Smith, a member of the study club. The latter is a travel book, giving an account of the Holy Land today. It is illustrated with several wonderful photographs and contains some maps.

The Will Rogers Book is one that everyone will enjoy. It is a collection of "531 of Will's deathless remarks—many from personal letters, some from speeches and radio broadcasts, a few from his books, the majority from the daily columns he wrote for newspapers." It is rich with pictures, and the author is Will Rogers' niece, who is the present curator of the Will Rogers Memorial in Claremore, Okla.

One would only have to spend one day in the library to realize that many city-wide activities are being planned for the near future: There has been great demand for game books, recipe books, books on decorating and material on fashion—this being used by those planning to enter the Style Show (?) at the Vaudeville Revue Oct. 27 at the high school auditorium, which is being sponsored by the P-TA. Books checked out last week: 224.

LIBRARY HOURS:

Closed all day Sunday and Monday.
Open Tuesday through Friday at 8:30 a. m.; closed from 1 p. m. to 2 p. m. for lunch; close 5 p. m.
Saturday—Open 1 p. m. and close at 5 p. m.

TRIP

proved in the last few years. There is noticeably less evidence of war damage than there was five years ago.

Few are out of work who are willing to work. The worst problem in that respect is that a man with five or six children can make more money by not working. Actually, cases are being taken to the courts where men are not working when they could.

In Paris we stayed at the Meurice Hotel. It is another charming old hotel with such cute little lifts (elevators) and wonderful service. We had dinner at the Armandville, where we ate outside in the park and later went to a strip tease at "The Crazy Horse."

This was one of the best of its kind in Paris. We had a number of friends visiting in Paris at this time, so were in for a gay time. We had dinner one evening at Tour d'Argent, which is the best restaurant in Paris and overlooks the Seine River—also Notre Dame Cathedral.

We had lunch on the Eiffel Tower and later visited the flea market. We found everything there expensive and trashy.

France was showing a great deal of improvement in the past six years, but the Algerian situation was getting progressively worse.

We shopped for beaded bags, suede jackets, gloves and perfume. Most everything there is more expensive than in the States. In all of the European countries the tourist numbers were down about 40 per cent. This was showing on their economy, as they all depend a great deal on tourist trade.

Teresa Is Winner

Teresa Mertel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie F. Mertel, was named a winner in the KGNC TV Captain Kidd coloring contest. She received a TV tray as a prize.

Melvin Butrum, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Butrum, has enlisted in the Army and left Tuesday for Fort Carson, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. Newt Barker visited friends at Nevada, Mo., over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Barker of Shamrock visited in the Jack Boyd home Monday night.

James Massay of Amarillo visited with his mother, Mrs. T. A. Massay, Saturday.

GAME

of McLean's five touchdowns in the contest at Canadian—two of them on passes from Quarterback Kenny Willingham—and claimed the title of "Back of the Week" among Class A teams in the Panhandle area.

The Wildcats showed their willingness to battle early in the game, cashing in a Tiger fumble for a touchdown before McLean could start rolling.

The hosts pounced on the Bengal fumble on the Canadian 34, and it took just three plays from that point to score.

H. L. Thomas turned in a dazzling run from the Canadian 44 to McLean's 10, before Watson was able to pull him down with a shoe-string tackle.

Snyder Gets Score

Quarterback Rush Snyder slipped wide to the left for the score, but the conversion try failed, with 5:50 left in the first quarter.

The Tigers were on their own 41 after the ensuing kickoff. Halfback Tommy Herron, playing his last game in a Tiger uniform, crossed the center field stripe to Canadian's 49, and Watson got to the 47.

Herron then scampered to the 27 and Watson to the 24.

From that point Willingham threw to his favorite target, Watson, for the score, then kicked the extra point. Fifty-five seconds remained in the opening period.

Fumble and Punt

Following a McLean fumble and two Canadian punts, the Tigers began moving again from their own 29. A clipping penalty against McLean pushed the line of scrimmage back to the 13.

Herron got to the 22, and Watson to the 41. Moments later, with fine blocking assistance, Herron raced to Canadian's 26. A couple of runs and a penalty later, Willingham heaved to Watson for 22 yards and another score.

With 47 seconds left in the half, Willingham again kicked the point after, giving the Tigers a 14-6 lead.

Watson took the second half kickoff and raced to the Canadian 23 before being stopped. Herron picked up three, and a pass to Don Woods took the locals to the five.

Crockett Goes Over

Dickie Crockett completed the march for McLean's third TD, and Willingham booted the point. McLean 21, Canadian 6; 10:30 left in the third quarter.

The next drive started on the Wildcats' 35-yard stripe and moved quickly to paydirt, Herron going over from the 10.

Again Willingham's kick was good, as the clock showed 2:58 of the third period remaining.

Canadian fumbled on the McLean 37 to start the goalward march again. Herron, Watson and Crockett took turns moving downhill, with Watson angling left from 18 yards out for the score.

Willingham made it five straight conversions, 35-6, with 9:06 left in the game.

Crockett added another touchdown before the end, but it was called back after the officials ruled the ball had been dead before he started his run from McLean's 33.

—but rapidly growing—cherries. "There's no need having trees like that around," he said. "If the other one blooms, I'm going to sharpen my hatchet."

You just can't help noticing the unusually large crowds of McLean Tiger fans at football games away from home this year.

No matter what the distance, McLeanites have outnumbered the hometown fans at just about every road game the Tigers have played all season.

Therein could lie some of credit for the local gridder's success. It must be demoralizing to their opponents.

100 YEARS AGO
 CIVIL WAR FRONTS QUIET AS COLD SEASON BEGINS

By LON K. SAVAGE

The first chill winds of winter began to whip across the battle fronts of the Civil War 100 years ago this week, and soldiers and generals alike began thinking of winter quarters rather than of fighting.

In Tennessee, Kentucky, Missouri, Virginia—both armies stretched across the border states—soldiers began adding to the comforts of their quarters, and the first log cabins began to appear in the camps. Generals plotted and studied maps, making plans for the winter, and at home, the women folk worked on heavier clothing, both blue and gray, to send to the men who had gone to war.

It was not that fighting had stopped; the fighting never stopped. In that same week, Northern and Southern ships tangled in an inconclusive fight on the Mississippi passes below New Orleans; Misssissippi's Gen. Sterling Price reached the Osage in his push against Union troops; Pikeston, Ky., was occupied for the Union by Ohio and Kentucky boys; and Brig. Gen.
 Jubal A. Early's Confederates skirmished with Yankees in northern Virginia within sight of the new dome of the nation's capitol.

SS Representative Sets Pampa Visits

The Social Security Administration representative has scheduled weekly visits to Pampa each Tuesday through the remainder of the year, according to information received here.

The representative will be at 123
 Foster Street in Pampa from 9:15 to 10:30 a. m. each Tuesday.

However, because of the crowds expected to be waiting to see him on Tuesdays, it was suggested by the Social Security Administration that persons desiring to file a claim go to the Amarillo office, located at 1006 Adams Street.

Office hours in Amarillo are 8:15
 a. m. to 4:30 p. m.

Social Security officials said persons desiring to file claims will receive faster service at the Amarillo office. General information about benefits or the status of claims may be obtained by letter or telephone from the Amarillo office.

Mrs. Orphus Tate and son, Harry,
