"You can't beat experience"-a reasonably accurate statement - accurate to the degree of what practical knowledge is gained from the experience and how that knowledge is applied. In providing reliable life insurance protection to the families of America since 1883, Modern Woodmen draws upon the know-how developed during those years, to apply intelligently presentday uses of its family protection features to meet the changing needs of those it serves. This experience and know-how enables Modern Woodmen representatives to offer sound, contemporary life insurance programs to fit individual situations. This sensible approach to the growing need for family protection and personal savings, plus the continued confidence placed in it by those it serves, has made possible the Society's growth and progress through the years. To those who have benefited from its realistic counselling in life insurance programming, Modern Woodmen is the Hallmark of Stability, Experience, Dependability and Service. LUXURIOUS STYLING of Pontiac's 1962 sports coupe models is graphically illustrated by these views of the sparkling new Bonneville. A smaller rear window and a tower roof design give this two-door hardtop the rakish look of a softtop convertible. A divided V-shaped grille of horizontal bars exemplifies the smooth flowing lines and the Bonne-oile's generous full-length side moulding accentuates the car's long, low and sleek appearance. This same new look in hardtops is found in the Catalina sports coupe.

TEMPEST HAS A FRONT ENGINE/REAR TRANSMISSION! (The only American car with this feature.) It gives Tempest equal weight at every wheel. It has biting traction on the bricks or in the mud. Tires last longer. Brakes take hold like they mean it. The front floor is practically flat (no big hump in the middle). Tempest seats six-easily!

TEMPEST HAS INDEPENDENT SUSPENSION-FRONT AND REAR! Each wheel (and it's a big 15" one) moves up and down inde dently of the opposite wheel. There's no solid axle in the rear. Result: Firm ride on pavement, soft ride in the boondocks! Swing axies in the rear heip the Tempest to carve out clean, firm curves.

TELEPHONE SERVICE NEAR NORMAL AFTER HURRICANE CARLA STRIKES

Hurricane Carla has come and gone, and I know we were all glad to see her go. Even though we were not directly affected here in McLean, I'd like to tell you a little of what she did to telephone service on the Gulf Coast and what Southwestern Bell did about it. It's an interesting and dramatic story.

As Carla faded northward after her terrible blow at the Gulf Coast.

-damage totaling $61/2 million to telephone facilities -144,000 telephones knocked out along a 500-mile stretch of coastal front and inland points

-miles of telephone lines and poles flattened in a twisted maze of wire and splintered wood —15 Southwestern Bell exchanges completely isolated, in-including Freeport, Bay City and El Campo, along with 28 other communities

Telephone people were ready for the emergency. Before the winds and rains had subsided, Southwestern Bell had men and equipment rolling to the disaster area to restore crippled telephone service. An army of 5,400 telephone men from many cities and states was hastily assembled in the Galveston-Corpus Christi-Victoria areas.

Kansas and Missouri. Equipment Flown In

More than 900 came from points in North Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas,

At the same time, the company flew emergency generating equipment for electric power into the storm area from many places in five-state territory. From other cities in North Texas, special mobile radio trucks converged on the stricken area to help bridge the gap left by silenced telephones, relay emergency messages, and maintain contact with the "outside world."

These joined forces with the men, trucks, and other emergency equipment which Southwestern Bell already had sent into the area as a precautionary measure when hurricane warnings were first issued.

Operators from West Texas

While repair crews began the work of restoration, 150 telephone operators from Lubbock, Amarillo, Abilene and other West Texas points were sent to Houston and other storm-hit cities to help handle the tremendous volume of long distance calls . . . many of them vital messages from police, public health, civil defense, and other

With skill, determination, and co-ordinated teamwork, Southwestern Bell people worked 'round the clock until all circuits were restored and all telephones back in service (where the condition of homes and businesses permitted). Telephone service in the disaster area is now back to normal. It was a tremendous job, carried out under trying
