Noting preliminary census figures discouraging to many communities, Gov. Preston Smith said revitalizing the small towns of Texas may be tougher than starting them.

"Right now," said Smith in a speech at Crane, "the people of Texas—whether they live in the largest city or the smallest rural community—have some problems as tough for them as we have those that confronted the 'frontier buster.' In many re- spects, our challenge and our task are more demanding and much more complex.

Griffin of Griffin Aviation, Borger, Texas, at 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. on the 16th, 17th and 18th of June at the Borger Airport Terminal located in Borger, Texas. Smith, Accident Prevention Specialist of the Federal Aviation Administration Office in Lubbock, Texas, who is coordinating the activities associated with the seminar.

Other FAA personnel assisting includes Mr. Philip R. Cramer, Supervising Inspector of the General Aviation District Office of the FAA. Designed to give local pilots the latest in- formation on the safe operation of aircraft, the seminar topics will include vertigo, direc- tional control, in-flight visibil- ity, weather, safety tips to pi- lots and accident cause factors.

The seminar will also provide the opportunity for some par- ticipants to receive a courtesy standardization flight. A de- signed flight instructor or an FAA flight inspector will ride with the pilot to counsel him on ways to improve his flying. Specialist Smith said, "We be- lieve that a reduction in gen- eral aviation accidents can be achieved by improving individ- ual attitudes toward safety. The program is designed to in- crease the pilot's knowledge and proficiency as an aviator."

There will be no charge for the seminar. Pilots and other persons interested in learning more about this program should contact Mr. M.E. Griffin in Borger, Texas, at 806-273-2845, or Otis W. Smith, Accident Pre- vention Specialist, Lubbock, Texas at 806-762-0335.

Baylor To Have Orientation Days For Freshmen

Baylor University has invited all students who will be fresh- men during the 1970 fall semes- ter to attend one of its three annual summer orientation pro- grams June 26, July 24, and Aug. 7.

The programs are intended to give the new college students and their parents a first-hand look at Baylor—to get acquaint- ed with the campus, university officials and procedures of col- lege life.

The first session will begin at 9 a.m. June 26 with registration and a coffee in the Student Union Building, where university of- ficials will be available at tables to give information about dor- mitory assignments, business office policies, advanced place- ment, testing, the Honors Pro- gram and the Air Force ROTC program at Baylor.

Once again it is time for ranch- ers and others to guard against fire, the greatest hazard to rangeland during the hot summer months, Bobby J. Ragdale, range specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, has noted.

"Good moisture during the spring has resulted in good vege- tative growth in many areas of the state, and the high temper- atures and summer dry period will result in optimum fire con- ditions," Ragdale said.

Everyone has a stake in pre- venting range fires. The ranch- er depends upon the vegetation produced for livestock forage which ends up in the steaks, lamb chops, and other products which all Texans enjoy.

"Fishermen and water enthu- siasts want clear lakes for fish- ing or other forms of recreation," however, fire denuded range- land leads to soil erosion when the rains come, resulting in silt- filled muddy lakes.

CPCA Is Fast Growing Farm Organization

The Canadian Production credit Association, among the fast- est-growing farm-credit orga- nizations in the Southwest in re- cent years, is now ranked Num- ber Ten in the nation in volume of business... and Number Two in Texas.

The Canadian Association, which serves six Northeast Pan- handle counties, topped $50 million in loans in 1969, almost doubling its volume in a single year, to rank tenth in the nation in a list released this week by the Farm Credit Administration in Washington.

The only association in Tex- as which is topping the Canadian PCA in volume is Plainview, which ranks second in the nation (behind Garden City, Kansas) with $112,585,000 in loans last year.

The Canadian PCA reached the $10 million mark for the first time that Larry E. Albin, who had been with the Associa- tion as vice-president since 1964, succeeded Erbin L. Crowell as president and general man- ager of the association. (Crowell, now a vice-president of the Fed- eral Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston).

During 1969 it almost doubled its volume again, lending a to- tal of $50,767,000 to stockhol- der-members who are farmers, ranchers and feeders in the six- county Northeast Panhandle area.

June & July Are Proclaimed As Watermelons Months

Governor Preston Smith will sign a proclamation today de- signating June and July as wa- termelon months in Texas. In conjunction with Commis- sioner John C. White and the Tex- as Department of Agriculture, the governor will salute the watermelon industry which pro- duces nearly 500 million pounds yearly. Texas ranks with Florida as the largest pro- ducing state.

On hand to greatly enhance the ceremonies will be Nation- al Watermelon Queen Dina Mc- Ginty, a twenty year old ju- nior at Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos. The beautiful brunette, a San An- tonio native majoring in home economics, captured the Texas crown in February in competi- tion with 27 other girls. She won the national title in Jack- sonville, Florida on March 3, besting queens from eight other watermelon-producing states.

On May 27, Miss McGinty will begin an expansive tour in Los Angeles that will cover two months and stretch from St. Louis to Ontario. The queen re- ceived a $500 wardrobe and a $250 scholarship among other prizes for her winning. Her other honors include Miss Pi- rate Queen and an officer position in SWT's crack drill team, the Strutters.

Miss McGinty will aid the TAP program in promoting the vegetable that is grown com- mercially in more than 50 Tex- as counties. Texas farmers earned some $9 million from watermelon sales in 1969. Be- ginning in late April or early May, in the lower Rio Grande Valley, East and West Texas, watermelons are grown on 3,000 farms until August. Over 75,000 acres were devoted to wa- termelon growth this past year.

It was not until this year that he felt financially capable of taking care of the payments, and then only in case he could pick up what he considered a bargain. After looking about

JIM WAS GRADUATED

Mary and I sat on the bleachers overlooking the high school athletic field and watched him march in with his class. A bird glided overhead, and, from far off, a dog's bark and children's voices mingled on the evening air. Behind circling hills, blue mountains made a stately backdrop.

Jim avoided our glance, the habitual grin he's worn since babyhood stilled for a moment in a gaze of earnest solemnity. His first big milestone had come, and I smiled to myself remembering his eagerness to embark upon the "world of tomorrow."

I have no fears for his future... for Jim is a Christian. What a wonderful assurance it is to his mother and me to know that wherever he goes, whatever happens in that wonderful "world" ahead, the values and principles he has been taught will be there to guide and sustain him.

How grateful we are to our church for the guidance and encouragement it gives us in the Christian education

LOOKIN' BACK

by Vera Featherston Back

The last week has been an eventful one. Tourists have been discovering our new highway signs and are finding the museum an oasis on their long trek across the continent.

Monday, Mrs. Robert Bruce and Mrs. Cecil Carter had visitors from San Antonio, Dallas, Midland, Skellytown, and Shamrock in Texas; and from Arkansas, and Iowa, as well as numbers from McLean and Alameda.

Maude Carpenter and Vema Hudgins were equally busy on Tuesday with California, Oklahoma, and Missouri sending people by. They also came from Lubbock, El Paso, Idalou, Pampa, and Clarendon. All these in addition to many local visitors.

Wednesday was a quiet day for Clara Colburn and Pauline Miller.

Thursday! That was the day! To begin with, the wind was blowing a gale when I opened the door at 9:30. Thankful for the nice flag pole which Billie Jack Bailey had made and Chuck Cooke installed, I carried the two flags out and pulled down the ropes. The wind blew harder. I lost my hold on the rope and dropped the Texas flag. With inward apologies to the Lone Star State, I retrieved the banner, only to lose my hold on the Stars and Stripes.

I braced myself against the stiff pole from the north and snapped one corner of the flag in the ring, pulled up the rope snapped the other corner to the lower ring. With great care that the point of the white star was on top, I secured the Texas flag, pulled the rope tight, and anchored it to the pole.

I rushed in for the red windmill Josh Chilton had fashioned for us and moored it to the curb. Back inside I felt I had accomplished a miracle in defying the wind. In rushed two young men asking, "Are you in trouble, Lady?"

"Trouble? Why, No!" My eyes followed theirs to the flag pole. The Stars and Stripes were flying all right—but upside down! Terry Cutler and Buddy Latham from Amarillo corrected my error and then toured the museum. They were such interesting visitors, and Latham—a being a semi-pro photographer—asked permission to bring his camera next time. Welcome anytime, Buddy!

Not long afterwards, Lena Bailey came in and, with her help, "Flapper Fannie," wearing Minnie Morse Haynes' hat and Barbara Simpson Coleman's green dress with white trim fringe, came into being. The skirt was a little short, but Mary Sitter remedied that Saturday by sewing another row of fringe on the bottom.

Earle Stubbiefield had asked permission to pose with our model when she was finished. Come on down, Earle; the "Girl of the Roaring Twenties" is waiting to dance the Charleston with you.

Other visitors were Vere and Ruby Ferguson from Sacramento, California. While she and I were admiring the baby dresses, he was looking at the swinging panels. He came over to ask, "Do you know Vera F. Back, who had that diploma as an instructor in the Electrical Branch of the Amarillo Air Force Base during World War II?"

"Yes, I know her!" Vere said, "I was instructor in that same branch and at the same time she was!"

Though we couldn't recall each other—he, being a military, and I a civilian instructor, we did recall many mutual friends, supervisors, and numerous incidents which each remembered vividly. It's a small world!

Ruby had been looking for a suitable Father's Day present for Vere everywhere they had been. She found it in our museum!

Incidentally he needed a barber so he and Peb swapped early day stories and while Vere's hair was being trimmed.

Friday in Amarillo, I picked up two beautiful lady mannequins at Sears. The generous display manager, Marvin T. Blair, said he'd been reading about our museum in the Amarillo News. He did not have any male mannequins for us, but he's working on it.

Saturday afternoon Alma Glass and I were pleased to see so many of the kunkels—here for their family reunion. Another visitor we enjoyed was Martha Howard Bohannon, Martha, whose par-nets were the W.D. Howards day, June 8. If she survives her first day in getting accustomed to categories, ledgers, white cards, blue cards, display cards, and Aleta Holloway Riddle, with donor's numbers, etc., she'll be her. Oleta found her birth re-worth her weight in gold.

Shortest recorded reign was that of Dauphin Louis Antoine, Louis XIX of France, which lasted for 15 minutes.

First tank to be used in battle was "Little Willie", which saw service in the battle of Fiers in France on Sept. 15, 1916.

June Hugg began working permanently at the museum Monday.

Soil Conservations

By Earl D. Lewis

Control of undesirable brush on Rangeland will increase yields and profits on Range in this area. Chemical control will increase yields as much as three or four times, if proper range management is carried out after spraying. The sprayed area should be rested for one full growing season after spraying. This allows the better grasses to come back and the seedling grasses to get a good start before grazing begins.

Some of the people who controlled brush on their Rangeland last year was: Harvey Hudgins and Craig Morris in the McLean area, and Fred S. Vanderburg, Sr. 15 miles south of Pampa, Texas. They all got good control on their brush.

Ranchers planning to spray this month are: Johnny Haynes, Lester Bailey, Ercy Cubine, Craig Morris, C.J. Magee, and Mrs. James B. Noel all of the McLean area.

The Ranchers listed above all have Great Plains Conservation Program Contracts on their Ranches.

Chemical control on brush should be completed by the 15 of June.

We at the Pampa Soil Conservation Service Office will be glad to answer any questions about brush control or any other Soil and Water Conservation problems. Come by and see us soon.

Drivers under 25 were involved in much more than their share of auto accidents in 1969. One-fifth of all drivers are under 25, but the under-25 group was involved in one-third of last year's fatal accidents.

Three out of four people killed in highway accidents in 1969 were on dry roads in clear weather.

With the help of every one, our office is back to normal operations. All the papers blown away have been replaced. We want to thank the farmers for coming back and re-signing the papers over the first ones were lost.
