Just Between Us

Thanks to the summer re-runs, intelligence-insulting commercials and downright immoral shows, the four people who call our house home have discovered something new:

Life's even greater without television.

It had become a habit to click the thing on almost as soon as we entered the house each afternoon or evening. Whether there was anything worth watching or not, the set had to be turned on.

And as long as it was, we were content to sit in front of it with eyes fixed in a glassy stare. There was seldom a thought of conversation, for we might miss a word or a sentence coming from the TV speaker.

Then one evening we pulled out the hammock and opened lawn chairs in the backyard to sit for awhile during the cool hours.

Why, we even dragged out the telescope which had stood unused for so long in the closet, and spent an enjoyable hour or so viewing the craters on the moon.

Who knows, maybe we'll stir up enough ambition before long to put up the badminton or volleyball set or play a little croquet. After 10 years with a TV set, we wonder if the old bones can stand the strain.

New house fever seems to be spreading among some McLeans, and when construction starts on one perhaps the temperatures will rise elsewhere.

The George Saunders have moved their former home from its location west of town and are preparing to erect what we've heard will be a larger new house there. During the construction period, the Saunders are occupying Mrs. Diana Batrum's house in Floral Addition.

The Elton Johnstons recently purchased the site for their new home in the city, and Skinny has indicated work probably will begin in the not too distant future.

An old house at the location must be moved before the Johnstons erect their new ranch-style residence.

The Church of Christ has sold its parsonage and is in the planning stage for a new minister's residence just north of the church sanctuary.

In the meantime Jay Channell, minister of the church, and his family have moved into the Rush Turner residence on North Main.

R. T. and Veral Lynn Wood also are talking over house plans, and already have put an architect to work designing just what they want.

So it appears possible that the sound of hammers may soon be echoing all across town, with the McLean Hospital and several new houses under construction.

Ross Collie had to mix up quite a concoction to do it, but he finally stopped the raccoons and coyotes from eating his watermelons.

Both coons and coyotes have been having a real time of devouring melons in Collie's patch on the Sitter Ranch south of here.

Ross even put radios in the field to scare the critters away, but the coons liked music so well they continued to come.

So he thought the problem out carefully and came up with a formula which included hot pepper and snuff. After whitewashing the melons, he sprinkled the snuff-pepper powder on the fast-ripening ones.

Entire Panhandle Sizzles Mercury Climbs To High of 103 Here

Thermometers in McLean appear to be stuck above the century-mark, with five straight days of 100-degree-plus readings.

Wednesday was the hottest day the city has experienced in a long, long time, as the Weather Bureau thermometer here shot to a scorching 103 degrees.

The U. S. Weather Bureau in Amarillo forecast continued hot through today, with the possibility of scattered showers.

The bureau said the mercury may not climb as high today, but the reading probably will be only a couple of degrees lower than this area has been experiencing all week.

No General Rain

No general rain is forecast, as the entire Panhandle continues dry. Through Wednesday, rainfall here for the year totaled 9.36 inches, almost an inch less than the 10.27 to date in 1962.

With the end of July less than a week away, McLean now has received only 64 inch for the month. An even three inches fell here during July, 1962.

Lowest reading in the city the past week was 70 degrees on Saturday.

FIREMEN ARE BUSY AGAIN

McLean volunteer firemen, who had been enjoying a rest the past few weeks, have suddenly found themselves back in business.

The department answered three fires on Sunday and another on Monday.

The first was a grass fire on the highway right-of-way four miles west of town.

Later Sunday, a hay meadow caught fire some 12 miles southeast of the city, destroying some hay before being extinguished.

Car Damaged
Still later in the afternoon fire caused slight damage to a car in the city.

A grass fire behind the June Woods residence was stopped Monday before doing any more than blackening a small area.

Saturday afternoon, a grass fire northwest of Lake McClellan burned over several acres. However, it was extinguished without having to summon the local fire department.

Golf Meeting Tonight

An important meeting of the McLean Lions Golf Association is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. today at the Methodist Church. All members of the association and other golfers are encouraged to attend.

Clinic to Close

The McLean Clinic will be closed Friday through next Wednesday. Dr. Harold Fabian announced this week. The clinic will re-open on Aug. 1.

Oil, Gas in Economy Spotlight

The importance of oil and gas production to McLean's and Gray County's economy is pointed up in statistics released to The McLean News this week by Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association.

According to the association, production from those deep holes in the earth is worth about $46 million a year.

The figures, latest available from the U. S. Bureau of Mines, are from the year 1961 and show that more than one out of every three payroll dollars in the county is derived from employment in oil and gas work.

This is in addition to the production revenue. "We have pulled together some figures from the most authoritative sources so residents of Gray County can see how local pocketbooks are affected by some of the issues which involve our industry," said J. Clyde Tomlinson, association president.

Tomlinson continued: "Issues of current concern include the proposals to cut percentage depletion rates, extension of federal controls over prices at which Texas producers sell their gas and development of laws and production methods that will help Texas compete with other states and nations for markets."

The 1961 figures show Gray County producing more than 12.3 million barrels of crude oil, valued at $36.7 million, and 73 billion cubic feet of natural gas, with a value of $8.9 million.

Gray ranks 19th among Texas counties in value of oil and gas production. In 1961 there were 4,677 producing wells in the county—3,819 oil and 858 gas, according to the Texas Railroad Commission.

The Panhandle Field and the West Pampa Field are classified by the Oil and Gas Journal as two of the nation's "giant" fields with an estimated ultimate recovery in excess of 100 million barrels each since discovery.

Although its first field was discovered 38 years ago, Gray County is the scene of the industry's continued search for oil and gas. Some 87 wells were drilled in the county last year, with three being wildcat exploratory wells, according to the

Oil and Gas Journal

The association estimated that more than $3.4 million was spent on drilling in the county last year and some $50,000 of this went for dry holes. Close to $77,000 was spent this past year on geophysical crews using seismic devices to probe the underground formations of Gray County for possible drilling locations.

Also adding many thousands of dollars to the county's economy is leasing. Tabulations by the International Oil Scouts Association show major companies in 1961 were paying rentals on about 57,000 undeveloped acres, which comprise about one-tenth of the county's (See OIL, Page 2)

4-H'ERS WILL ATTEND CAMP

3 Members, Adult Going From Here

Three McLean 4-H Club members and an adult leader will leave next Monday for Cloudercraft, N. M., to attend a three-day camp sponsored by Southwestern Public Service Co.

Members Jakey Hess, Johnny Carpenter and Joe Magee, accompanied by Leader George Orrick, will represent the local club at the camp.

Bill Skaggs, 4-H member from Pampa, is to meet the group in Amarillo, where they will travel by chartered bus to Cloudercraft.

Mrs. Jaunita Channell, assistant Gray County home demonstration agent, also will attend along with three girl delegates from the county.

The camp, based on safe use of electricity and other subjects related to 4-H Club work, will have delegations of three boys and three girls and one man and one woman adult leader from each of the 22 Panhandle counties.

No Cost

After the groups reach the camps, all expenses are taken care of by Southwestern Public Service Co., including meals and lodging.

Transportation for the county group will be paid for from the 4-H Club fund.

By special permission, Gray County was allowed to send one more delegate than the three allowed for other clubs.

County Agent Foster Whaley said Orrick is to be congratulated for taking this much interest in local youth by attending the camp along with the outstanding 4-H Club members.

Addresses Needed For Ex-Students

The McLean Ex-Student Association needs the addresses of several members of the high school class of 1958.

Mrs. Faris Hess said this week that letters sent to 11 class members had been returned because of incorrect addresses. Anyone knowing the addresses of these persons was asked to contact Mrs. Hess:

Olive Louise Atwood, Florence Jones Malone, Jesse Dean Cobb, Eva McDowell McDonald, Morris Turner, Wanda Estes, Ione Jordan, Stanton Gardner, Evelyn Burrows, Ione Pettit and Marion Thompson.

Baseball Glove Is Won by City Boy

A $30 baseball glove was awarded this week to a McLean boy as a third-place prize in the just completed state-wide Southwest Baseball Clinic contest.

Steve Fuller, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Fuller, was presented the glove by Lacy Terrell of Pampa, district representative of the Wright Packing Co. of Vernon.

Young Fuller entered the contest by completing the sentence: "I would like to attend the Southwest Baseball Clinic because..."

More than 100 prizes were awarded. Steve's entry was made through Pickett's Food Store in McLean.

Steve, who will enter the eighth grade next fall, also was presented a baseball which glows in the dark.

YOUTHS GOLF AT LUBBOCK

5 From City Do Well in Tourney

Learning to play on sand greens obviously was no handicap to five McLean youths who entered the Lubbock Country Club Junior Invitational Golf Tournament last week.

Among the 238 young golfers were Eddy Jay and Pat Windom, sons of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Windom Jr.; Joel McCarty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hershel McCarty; Mike Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Simpson, and Johnny Mann, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mann.

They were accompanied to Lubbock by Mrs. Windom and Mr. and Mrs. Simpson.

Among the 14-15 age group, in which 70 boys were entered, Eddy Jay finished 11th down from the top with a score of 174 for the 36 holes.

The tournament winner came from this age group. He was Buddy Hamilton of Amarillo, who fired a sizzling 148.

Mike Finishes Fifth
All four of the other McLean boys were in the 12-13 age group containing 48 entries.

Mike was fifth with a score of 183; Pat, ninth with a 190; Joel, 11th with 194, and Johnny, 25th with 226.

The tournament opened on Monday with a golf clinic conducted by Jackie Burke, Houston golf pro and winner of numerous top tournaments, including the Masters and the PGA in 1956.

Burke was introduced by Bobby Layne, professional football star. Action on the Lubbock course began on Tuesday and was completed the following day.

In the Lubbock tourney, the McLean boys were competing with young golfers who play on grass greens all the time, and who have had professional coaching ever since they began learning the game.

Equalization Board Meets Next Monday

SCREWORM PROGRAM

During the week of July 6-12, 1962, the largest number of screw-worm infestations for any one week were recorded—3,023. In contrast, last week Texas producers sent in 91 confirmed screw-worm samples. Clyde Magee tells me he was notified today (Tuesday) from the headquarters of the screw-worm eradication program that a sample he sent in was confirmed as being screw-worms.

Clyde picked up a mailing carton from The McLean News office.

To our knowledge, this is the first case this year north of Donkey County.

Jack Shelton has only one mailing carton left. I hope to get another supply to him before the week is out. Should someone be in Pampa from the McLean vicinity, please check by our office. We might want to send these mailing cartons back with you.

I was talking with John B. Rice today. As you know, John B. headed up the drive in Gray County for funds last year and this year as well for the screw-worm eradication program.

In the initial drive officials from the state level thought there would be only one fund drive necessary. As it turned out, it was necessary to come back and ask producers for a second contribution.

Although John B. and several on our Gray County committee were rather hesitant about going back and asking for the second contribution, we all feel the cause was very worthwhile.

A representative from the headquarters branch of the screw-worm eradication program has recently been assigned to Gray, Wheeler, Hemphill and Roberts Counties.

In visiting with him Monday of this week, he told me they ran an experiment in a county in the ordinarily heavily infested area in south Texas in the release boundary. A rancher castrated 100 calves and did not use any type of fly repellent or smear.

They watched the calves for several days and did not have a single case of screw-worms.

Yes, our contribution was a good investment. If you are a cattleman and failed to make either a first or second contribution, leave your check with John B. Guy Bessley or the local bank.

Miss Mason also reported that reporters currently are measuring cotton and grain sorghum acreage across the county.

"If you should plant some more feed grains after your farm has been measured, be sure to report immediately to the county office," she advised.

"This will be to your advantage," Miss Mason explained, "since the price support payment is made on the planted acres of feed grain, so we need to have a record of all your feed grains for full payments."

BLWIN' Out the CORNERS by Uncle Zeb

Unless Congress acts in a hurry, it appears that the words "One nation under God" will be stricken from our pledge of allegiance. If this should be allowed to happen we could expect a ruling soon on our right to observe Christmas and Thanksgiving. . . . It looks for all the world to us that the highest court in our land seems determined to make us a godless nation. Think it over.

J. C. Penny once said, "If you would be happy, choose the hard right way rather than the easy wrong way." . . . After making this wise expression he stuck by the cash over the counter way of doing business until just over a year ago. . . . We wonder sometimes which is the easy wrong way.

A nickel goes a long way these days. You can carry one for weeks without buying anything it will buy. . . . Can't find a cigar, or even make a telephone call. . . . It is not the same with pennies—anyway, not since we have the state sales tax.

One fellow was asked, "Do you know what nine out of 10 Cadillac drivers say?" The answer was "Dem white folks shore do build good automobiles."

'Bout the only good thing about the installment is that we don't get 100% mad on the same first of the month.

area. County farmers, ranchers and other landowners are receiving royalty payments running at more than $5.7 million annually.

Producers and royalty owners in Gray County also make a sizable contribution to the support of state government, with production tax payments of more than $2.3 million a year—some $1.7 million from oil and $625,000 from gas.

Likewise industry taxes are important to the county government and school districts in the county. For instance, 95 per cent of the local property taxes collected for the Lefors independent school district comes from oil and gas operators. Seventy-two per cent of the McLean district taxes come from the same source.

The Texas Employment Commission reports that the oil and gas industry payroll is almost $12.5 million a year, with the average employe receiving more than $5,000 annually.

Six natural gas plants are operated in the county, handling some 265 cubic feet of gas a day. Four carbon black plants, processing 66 million cubic feet a day, are also located in Gray County.

"At last! Those canine candles are really good. I don't want to wolf it down, though. Not in front of all these people."

"And now some nice cold water. From my own clean cup, too. He's not so bad after all, the boss isn't. Couldn't treat me better, really, if I were Lassie."

40 Years Ago

A number of young people enjoyed a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Shaw Tuesday evening. Outdoor games and music were the principal forms of entertainment. Refreshments of punch and cake were served to the following: Misses Minnie Moxe, Sallie Campbell, Ruby and Mary Anderson, Vera Wilson, Laura Bumpas, Lula Peters, Mammie Burrows, Inez and Jewel Shaw; Messrs. Houston Egan, Hansel Christian Charles Jordan, Bryan Burrows, J. F. Watkins, John Haynes, Emory Crockett and Jenkins Shaw.

The program given by Mrs. Boyett's music class at the school auditorium last Friday evening was a very enjoyable affair. Many of the performers showed marked musical talent and every number reflected credit on the player as well as the teacher.

The following members of the class took part in the exercises: Luella Jones, Sybil Graham, Emily Waldron, Tilene Roberts, Merle and Thelma Young, Chas. Wm. Cooke, Lois Kirby, Margaret Johnston, Johnnie Villa Haynes, Maybelle Veatch, Eleanor Cooke, Floye Landers, Jessie Maule Roberts, Ima Anderson, Lora Saunders, Beatrice Cash, Elgin Shell, Lena Sparks, Minnie Morse, Jewel Shaw, Frances Noel, Margaret Glass and Audra Wilson.

On Tuesday afternoon little Miss Oleta Holloway was given a surprise party in honor of her birthday. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to the following guests:

Fern and Marie Landers, Estelle Kunkel, Luella Jones, Laverne Kunkel, John Lee Shell, Janie Villa and Gorda Lou Haynes, Josephine and June Turner.

Mrs. S. W. Rice and daughter, Miss Sinclair, and Mesdames Scott Johnston and Arthur Collins were Shamrock visitors Saturday.

INSPIRED BY SONG: The words from the song "Oh What a Beautiful Morning," from the musical "Oklahoma," inspired this picture taken at Six Flags Over Texas. At Fort St. Louis in the French section of the famous family fun land midway between Fort Worth and Dallas, corn and vegetables are grown just as were cultivated in the early days to feed the inhabitants. Now the corn—not the stalks—is as high as an elephant's eye, but baby elephant Sis Flagg and Hostess Mona Freeman are somewhat skeptical as to whether the Texas corn "will climb clear up to the sky," as it does in the famous song from the popular Rodgers and Hammerstein show, "Oklahoma."

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Billingsley, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Margaret Nix, and her daughter, Margaret Ann, of Lubbock, attended funeral services in Whitesboro for Mrs. Frank Mayo. The Billingsleys returned home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Smith and grandson, Roy Blaylock, have just returned from a vacation trip in Colorado and Farmington, N. M. In Farmington they visited the Smiths' son, Raymond Jr.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Gayton over the weekend was their niece, Paula Gayton of Abilene.

Doyle Billingsley of Amarillo visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Billingsley, during the weekend.

Wayne McLroy attended funeral services in Clarendon Wednesday for his aunt, Mrs. Walter Howard, who died Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Luther Petty was in Amarillo Saturday and visited in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Zora Pickett, and her son, Vernon Mrs. Petty's son, Francis Petty of Midland, was also a guest. In the afternoon Mrs. Pickett and Mrs. Petty drove to Tucumcari, N. M., for a bridal shower and visited with friends.

SAM HOUSTON'S HOME: Thousands of visitors to historic Huntsville each year make a pilgrimage through this white cottage which was once the home of the famous Texas statesman Sam Houston. The house is part of the Sam Houston Shrine, located across from Sam Houston State College. Other points of interest here include a museum containing clothing, weapons, books and rare documents owned by Houston. Nearby is his old law office and the frame building shaped like a steamboat in which he died.

NEWS OF CONSERVATION

R. J. Bradley has completed a stock pond on his farm south of Pampa. George Philpott, Moody Farms and T. D. Anderwald are in the process of doing some land leveling.

Land leveling helps to conserve rainfall, irrigation water and helps to make more efficient use of water.

Floyd Franklin is planning on putting in two diversions on his farm southwest of Pampa. He plans to carry out a complete conservation plan.

Farmers and ranchers in Gray County are to be congratulated on the way they are managing their crop residues. If the dry weather continues the residue left on the surface will be a valuable asset in controlling wind erosion.

Many ranchers and farmers are becoming concerned about the lack of growth our native grasses have. Although cattle are presently doing well, but unless we get some good rains there will not be much grass to winter livestock on.

Almost three months of our growing season is gone, and even if we get good rains we could still be short of grass.

Now would be a good time to lay in a supply of roughage to feed this winter, or reduce our herd by selling off some of our less desirable stock. Many farmers and ranchers were short on grass and feed back in May and are still short. Several ranchers who have been doing a good job of grass management say they can go through the winter in good shape.

They have already or plan to lay in a supply of roughage for winter use.

Wedding Postponed

The wedding of Barbara Ann Simpson of McLean and James Coleman of Lefors has been postponed indefinitely, it was announced this week.

Monday evening guests of the Switzer family and Miss Eunice Stratton were their sister, Mrs. Vina Meier of Amarillo, and her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Starnes and three boys from Reading, Pa.

Bobby Turner of Amarillo visited friends here last week.

UNLIMITED FACILITIES FOR FUN

Tourist information on Burnet, one of Central Texas' finest vacation cities, lists many fine features. Fact of the matter is, there are so many fine features in this wonderland of lakes and hills that it's hard to relate all of them. Perhaps Burnet's best and most accurate claim is that it has "unlimited facilities for fun." To list a few features: Burnet is located among five lakes with a total of 76,000 surface acres of water; nearby Buchanan Dam is the largest multiple arch dam in the world; Inks State Park, located on the shores of Inks Lake, covers 2,000 acres; nearby Longhorn Caverns is the third largest in the world and is dramatically lighted throughout its two-mile expanse. There are other recreational facilities such as parks and a golf course, but there also are historical sights to see. In addition to a fine museum, nearby Packsaddle Mountain was the site of the last Indian battle in Texas.

Mrs. Jack McClellan and John McClellan were in Albany over the weekend visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Morrison and family.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford
 TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—(Special) — Gov. John Connally says Texas is making a lot of progress on civil rights without demonstrations and disturbances. He urged Texans to avoid the trouble which is plaguing other states.

Roy Evans, secretary of Texas State AFL-CIO, indicated mass demonstrations are needed in Lower Rio Grande Valley to improve working conditions of Mexican workers. Connally commented such statements are irresponsible and inflammatory.

Governor also rejected labor's appeal for a special session of the Legislature to abolish right-to-work law and enact state minimum wage, saying he saw "no need, emergency or desirability" for such a session.

Evans said labor's traditional role is to try to inflame people against injustice, and he intends to keep on trying to do that.

QUICK CHANGE—From one of the unpaid boss jobs to a $16,500-a-year assistantship is the story of Dr. J. B. Copeland of San Antonio.

When the Legislature created the new job of deputy commissioner of the Health Department, Dr. Copeland resigned as chairman of the Board of Health to accept the job of deputy commissioner. He had been board chairman for the past 10 years.

Gov. Connally named Dr. N. L. Barker of Paris to replace Dr. Copeland. He reappointed Dr. Elmer Baum of Austin and named Dr. John M. Smith of San Antonio and J. D. Flores of Floresville, a pharmacist, to the Board of Health.

LOANS—Frank Miskell of Austin, who headed up the Texas Legislature studies on the loan shark problem, will be the administrator of the new law which regulates licensed lenders.

Miskell was chosen by the State Finance Commission to be the first regulatory loan commissioner. He will assume his new duties on Aug. 23.

DRY AND WET—Texas is spotted with drought and flood points. Texas Water Commission found that reservoirs declined a little in June. They wound up the month 76 per cent full, so there's room to store more floods when and if they come.

In general, northeast Texas reservoirs are full, while those in south Texas are shrinking.

ROADS—Highway construction is one thing dry weather helps. State Highway Engineer DeWitt C. Greer reported that contractors on state-federal projects completed $34,973,319 worth of work during June.

One of a series of reports by this newspaper and the Print Advertising Association on the advantages of print media.

Don't you read before you buy?

Most people generally do. Not only do they read, they cut out and show ads to their family and friends; they clip coupons for information and samples. When people see an advertisement in print, they can compare designs . . . features . . . and prices of nationally known products and services. (And people do compare before they buy.) Advertising in print is a handy thing. You can always check back; the message is still there even if your attention is distracted. When you add it up, print advertising—the kind you read in this newspaper—makes sense. And because it measures up to the buying habits of most consumers, print makes sales.

Safety Rules Given
By County Agent
For Using 2, 4-D

County Agent Foster Whaley reports that numerous calls have been made to his office concerning damage to shade trees and potential damage to cotton as a result of 2, 4-D weed spray drift. He sets forth a few safety rules in using 2, 4-D:

1. It should always be kept in mind that 2, 4-D regardless of formulation is extremely toxic to cotton and other broadleaf plants.
2. Always spray down wind from cotton and other sensitive plants.
3. Grain sorghum should be sprayed when it is from eight to 12 inches tall for maximum control of weeds and minimum injury to the grain sorghum. Earlier or later spraying can injure the grain sorghum.
4. Set nozzles so that good coverage of weeds is obtained. This will vary with type of nozzle and fan angle. Setting the spray boom low helps minimize drift; about 20 inches above weed tops is usually a good spacing.
5. Never spray when wind is above 10 miles per hour and preferably less. Remember, drift is the thing that is the most dangerous to nearby cotton and other broadleaf plants.
6. Spray pressure should be just enough to make nozzles work—15-20 pounds per square inch. This minimizes drift. It is extremely important that the low spray pressure be used because high pressure produces small spray droplets which are easily carried by wind. Use large tips to insure adequate total spray solution per acre.
7. Use only amine salt formulations, low volatile ester formulations or emulsifiable acid formulations to reduce the hazard of volatility.

8. To further reduce drift use a large volume of total mix, 10 to 20 gallons per acre.

9. One-half pound 2, 4-D per acre should be sufficient.

10. Hybrids with certain percentage are more easily damaged than other hybrids. Check with your seed dealer to determine if the hybrid you planted is sensitive to 2, 4-D.

11. All farmers and commercial applicators using any type formulation of 2, 4-D should be careful to conform with all state laws and regulations pertaining to cotton or other crops susceptible to 2, 4-D.

Remember, 2, 4-D regardless of formulation is extremely toxic to cotton and other broadleaf plants and anyone who uses it should be most careful in his application and be prepared to pay damages if he can't operate a sprayer so that drift does not occur. Whaley said.

22 Per Cent Of Bond Goal Reached

During the first half of 1963, the citizens of Gray County purchased $143,251 in Series E and H savings bonds according to a report received from George B. Cree Jr., chairman of the Gray County savings bonds committee. Twenty-two per cent of the county's 1963 goal has been achieved.

Savings bond sales in Texas during the first half of 1963 were $78,246,599, or 50.6 per cent of the 1963 goal of $150,000,000.

Highway Death Toll
Increases in State;
1,136 to July 1

The Highway Patrol investigated 21 rural traffic accidents in Gray County during the month of June, according to Sgt. J. W. Wilson, patrol supervisor of this area.

The wrecks accounted for 12 persons injured and estimated property damage of $9,810. The sergeant stated that this brings the total for the year thus far in Gray County to 83 accidents that claimed three lives, injured 47 people and caused property damage of $69,738.

For a comparison, the patrol supervisor pointed to accidents in this county for the first six months of 1962 that accounted for six deaths, 57 injuries and property damage of $48,240.

"Prior to July 1, there had been a total of 941 fatal accidents in Texas," Sgt. Wilson said. "These took the lives of 1,136 persons."

"As the year is over half gone, there are definite indications that traffic deaths will hit an all-time high in 1963. Motorcycles at this time are over 100 more at the same time last year."

"If we continue to take lives at the present rate, 1963 will become the most deadly year in Texas history for traffic fatalities. Considering the trend of increased accidents and casualties, we have every reason to expect that traffic deaths will exceed the previous all-time high in Texas of 2,611 in 1966."

Connie and Debra Trent of Childress spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Wayne McIlroy and children.
