94 Persons Die on Texas Highways 1971 Report DPS

Donel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said today the tabulation of 1971 motor vehicle traffic accidents shows 3,594 persons died last year on Texas streets and highways. An additional 121,062 were injured and the total economic loss was $1.045 billion. The death figure of 3,594 represents a 1% increase over the 1970 toll of 3,560. Actual deaths with all factors considered, the increase could have been greater," Speir said.

For example, vehicle miles driven increased from 68 billion in 1970 to over 70.7 billion for 1971. This represents a rise in driving of 4%. From an standpoint, the number of licensed Texas drivers rose by 324,000 during the past 12 months to a total near 7 million.

Despite these sizeable increases in both miles driven and number of drivers, actual deaths increased only slightly. This means that our death rate per 100 million miles of travel nationally accepted indicator of traffic safety effectiveness decreased 3% from 5.2 in 1970 to 5.1 in 1971. As recently reported, our death rate in 1966 was 6.2 so progress is being made," the DPS director said.

He said driving too fast for conditions and driving while intoxicated continued as the primary law violations contributing to fatal mishaps. Other violations included driving on the wrong side of the road and failure to yield the right-of-way.

Records Show Rabies On Increase

Rabies in man doesn't happen too often, but the disease still is one to be reckoned with because of its presence in wildlife and the increase in the number of pets owned by Texans.

Those who believe that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure should guard their pets against rabies by having them vaccinated, says the Texas State Department of Health. It is a good way of protecting your pets--and your self--against the threat of rabies.

Rabies last year was on the increase after a record low number of cases in 1970. Following a low of only 226 cases, laboratory confirmed animal rabies rose to 322 cases in 1971.

Surprisingly, cat rabies cases outnumbered the number of dog cases last year. This can be interpreted two ways. First, it could be interpreted to mean that the vaccination of dogs is showing results. Or, it could mean that cat exposure to rabies is increasing and that cat vaccinations aren't on par with those of dogs.

Whichever reason you choose, you'd be correct.

Of the 39 pets which came down with rabies, the cats outnumber the dogs 21 to 18. Dog rabies cases showed a decline by one case, but the number of rabid cats increased from 16 to 21 in one year.

The Veterinary Public Health Division of the State Health Department instituted a bite surveillance program during 1971, and the nine-month results showed the need for more pet rabies protection. Of 5,119 dogs involved in biting episodes only 34.1 per cent--or about one-third, were known to have been vaccinated. The percentage was much worse for cats. Of 835 cats involved in biting incidents, less than 10 per cent were known to have rabies protection.

As usual, wildlife rabies cases took the spotlight in 1971 with 252 cases. Rabid skunks headed the list with 186 of the 252 confirmed cases. Thirty-one cases of rabies were confirmed in livestock last year.

To protect the public, the State Health Department furnished 689 anti-rabies treatment series (14 injections) to bite victims last year. This treatment is doing the job, and the last human fatality to naturally-acquired rabies in Texas was in 1962.

The record is good, but Health Department officials believe that the odds against rabies can be better if all pet-dogs and cats--are protected against rabies.

Junior High Student Council Met Recently

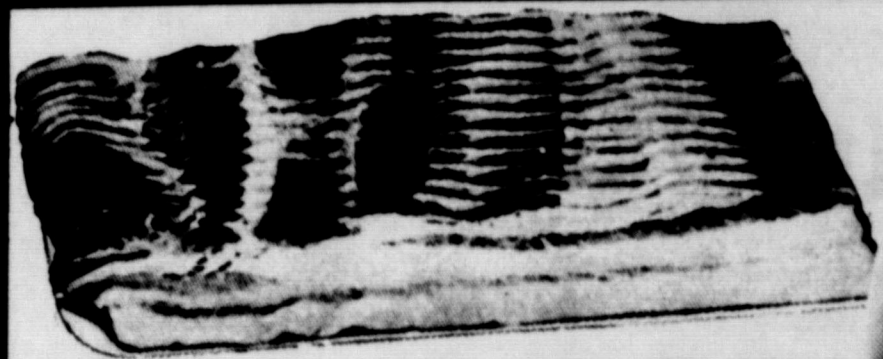

The McLean Junior High student council met March 28, 1972. The president called the meeting to order. He called for the reading of the minutes for the last meeting. They were read and corrected. He asked for any old business. Members talked about the suggestion box and decided it was too late in the year to have one. They also decided for the Junior High Student body to vote on the best citizen. The winner would have to win by 2/3 vote. If there is a tie, the winner would only have to win by 1 vote, in the runoff. They also decided that the Cub, Cubette and Citizenship award recipient would have to be a good leader, a person who takes orders well and a good athlete. The best citizen will have to be nice, courteous, and a helpful person. The president adjourned the meeting.

Diabetic Center Set For 23rd Season

Camp Sweeney Diabetic Training Center for diabetic boys and girls will open its 23rd season May 28th with three-three week-sessions as follows: May 28 to June 17 - June 18 to July 8 - July 9 to July 29.

Camp Sweeney is located 9 miles east and 1 mile north of Gainesville, on 338 acres of beautiful rolling timbered hills with three dormitories for boys and three for girls; a non-denominational chapel a modern hospital; a 30 acre lake for boating, fishing and water skiing; a sanitary swimming pool, tennis courts, recreational pavilion, target range and 20 gentle saddle horses.

Under the supervision of a specialized medical staff, dietitian and counsellors, these children are taught their proper diet with regulated exercise, how to take their own urine tests and give their own insulin injections. Of major importance, through this group association with other young diabetics, they realize they are not alone with their disorder and with proper knowledge and instruction, they can learn how to live with their lifelong, inherited affliction diabetes.

Diabetes is hereditary, incurable and increasing yearly. It is the 7th killer of diseases and ranks 3rd as the cause of blindness. Medical authorities estimate one-fourth of the World's population carries the diabetic gene.

Camp Sweeney operated and maintained by Southwestern Diabetic Foundation, Inc., is an Organizational Member of Texas United Community Services of Texas. If you know or hear of a diabetic child who needs our help, please refer them to this office, their local United Fund Agency or Jaycee Club in Texas or any Jaycee Club in Louisiana. Local Lions Have Used Eyeglass Drive

Two years ago in 1970 the District Lion Clubs gathered over a pickup load of used eyeglasses to be sent to the needy people in India, which the local Lions participated in. This project was initiated by the International Lions President Robert Uplinger. It has been brought to the attention of the Lions that there is also a great need for used eyeglasses in Mexico and the South American country of Chile.

Therefore the Lions are designating April as Used Eyeglasses Month.

James Thompson, Sight Conservation Chairman, is asking the residents of this area to check around and gather up your old eyeglasses and either give them to any Lions Club member or leave them at the Southwestern Public Service Co. office or at the McLean News office.

Library Week Set April 16-22 In Texas

"Reading Makes the World Go Round."

That's what Texas librarians will be saying April 16 through 22 when they take part in this year's observance of National Library Week.

Libraries of all kinds are observing the week that calls special attention to libraries as sources of information and recreation. In addition to the state's 380 public libraries, there are also more than 70 college and university libraries as well as libraries in nearly all of the 1,200 school districts.

In his proclamation Governor Preston Smith pointed out that "through organization into systems, libraries look forward to sharing of resources in order to equalize the opportunity for all citizens to have access to the best services."

Since January, ten library systems have been organized under the Texas Library Systems Act passed by the legislature in 1969. The legislation permits public libraries that reach specified levels of local support to enter into agreements with one another and to receive State funds when they are appropriated to carry out cooperative activities.

"The Library Systems Act and the cooperative activities it provides can have a significant impact on library service for all Texans," said Dr. Dorman H. Winfrey, director of the Texas State Library, the state agency that administers the legislation. "Although all system members are public libraries, the cooperative programs developed by the systems may also include other kinds of libraries."

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bailey visited Mr. and Mrs. Doug Bailey and Pam in Borger Monday.

CATTLE SCABIES

It is my understanding Vernon Turner has resigned as inspector for Texas animal Health Commission. As of this date, I have not been advised as to who his replacement will be. I plan to contact them in the near future in an effort to have a representative for this area.

Effective June 1st dipping of all cattle in movement or cattle changing ownership will be required. There are a long list of exceptions, so don't panic until you have checked your situation with the local inspector or me. Basic cow herds will not be required to be dipped unless ownership is changed or if you are moving the cattle.

WHEAT PASTURE

An abundant supply of wheat pasture is available in spite of dry weather. Some dry land but excellent rank pasture is going for $6.00 per acre. This makes wheat pasture for less than 50¢ per cut. One fellow placed over 800 head near White Deer for 75¢ per cut. The surplus pasture has been created by the heavy sign up in the Government program.

CATTLE NUMBERS

Some observers feel the last total cattle count might be considerably over estimated. I have visited with many order buyers to the east that feel the cattle numbers are down instead of as reported.

Time will tell. My best guess is that numbers are down drastically and even shocking if the real figures were known. No time for reasons here but watch for a revision sometime in the future. I have no inside information. This is why all meat products are going to stay on what the consumer thinks is a high price. Most ranchmen and farmers know we are still selling all products down in the parity bracket.
