Voters Should Not Switch Party Primaries

Voters in the June 3 runoff elections have been warned by Secretary of State Bob Bullock to "stay in the party primary where they voted on May 6."

"Judging from reports several county clerks are receiving, it looks like many Republicans are being tempted to switch over and vote in the Democratic runoff on June 3," Bullock said.

"Every voter needs to know that if they voted in the Republican primary on May 6, they cannot vote in the Democratic runoff. And if they voted Democratic the first time, they cannot switch and vote Republican on June 3.

"We want the public to know that this action violates Article 240 of the Texas Election Code and is punishable by a fine of from $100 to $500.

"Certainly, any crossover voting would distort the true strength of a candidate in the other party. I think the low-key campaign by the Republicans lend itself to making a Republican want to switch over if only for excitement's sake.

"We hope that public awareness will discourage this type of voting. If we find that it still takes place, we will have no alternative but to pass this information along to the proper prosecuting authorities," Bullock said.

"We want election officials to know that there is a law behind them and they should not permit this practice. This will be the only way we can preserve the integrity of the Texas election process."

Bullock said he wanted the voter to know that it is also against the law for a voter to cast a ballot in two different precincts, even within the same party.

"We know that there were instances of this reported during the May 6 primary. Like crossover voting, this dual voting practice is against the law and simply cannot be tolerated.

"I want the local election officials to bear down and make sure this doesn't happen in the runoff," Bullock said.

Screwworm Battle raging Statewide

A "red alert" is being sounded throughout the state as screwworms continue to assault livestock and other animals. Gray County has not recorded any cases to date, but it's most important that all animals be checked closely and regularly for infestations according to Dr. Whaley, county agent. Weather conditions were favorable for heavy screwworm infestations last winter in northern Mexico as well as in parts of the Southwest, explains the agent. Some infestations were spread by transporting infested livestock last fall, and the insect pest spent the mild winter in new quarters. This spring overall conditions were "ripe" for a massive screwworm invasion. According to Whaley, more than 2,300 cases have been confirmed in Texas this spring, the earliest and heaviest outbreak in the history of the Screw worm Eradication Program. Although sterile fly production at the Mission Lab is running at its peak--200 million a week--treatment with these flies is not enough to stop the destructive, flesh-eating livestock pest. Whaley urges all livestock producers and owners of other animals (dogs, cats) to follow certain precautions:

1. Carry out all approved preventive practices to help eliminate screwworms.
2. Inspect animals regularly and carefully and treat all wounds whether they are worm, or not.
3. Delay all surgery until cool weather this fall. Shearing, docking, castrating and dehorning only provide additional wounds for worm infestations. Studies show that almost 90 per cent of all worm samples come from calf navels and man-made wounds.
4. Spray animals with an approved product before shipping them. This is a preventive measure against spreading the infestation.

5. Be cautious of livestock shipments coming from infested areas. If buying such animals be sure to check them thoroughly for wormy wounds.
6. Care should be taken not to move infested livestock across state lines. Infestations resulting from this practice may bring about a quarantine and the regulated movement of livestock.
7. As soon as a wormy wound is found, send a worm sample to the Screwworm Laboratory, Box 969, Mission, Texas 78752. If the case is positive, sterile flies will be dropped as soon as possible to further protect animals in the area.

"Everyone must cooperate if the screwworm eradication program is to be effective," emphasizes Whaley. "This means farmers, ranchers, pet owners, auction managers and others who work with or own animals."

FISH----- The Outdoor Dish

Fish can be a welcome and nutritious addition to the picnic basket, suggests the Seafood Marketing Division of the Parks and Wildlife Department. Picnics can happen most of the year in Texas, but with Daylight Savings Time here again there's an extra hour to enjoy them.

The success of a picnic depends heavily on how good the food is. The old favorites are fine, but sometimes a little variation can add a lot of interest. Potato salad, for instance, is a good old standby but for a change try it with fish, as in "Texas-Tater Salad." Or take along a "Smoked Fish Log," for some tasty outdoor nibbling.

TEXAS-TATOR SALAD
 1 1/2 lbs. fish fillets
 2 cups cooked potatoes, cut into small pieces.
 3 eggs, cooked hard and chopped
 1/2 cup grated carrot
 2/3 cup salad dressing
 2 Tbs. chopped onion
 pepper to season
 1 tsp. salt

Place fillets in boiling, salted water. Cover and simmer about 10 minutes or until flakes easily when tested with a fork. Drain. Remove skin and bones; flake. Mix all ingredients together and place in refrigerator until cold. Serve on lettuce. Serves six.

SMOKED FISH LOG
 2 cups flaked fish or 1 lb. smoked fish fillets
 1 tsp. liquid smoke, if not using smoked fish
 1 package (8 oz.) cream cheese, softened
 1 Tbsp. lemon juice
 2 tsp. grated onion
 1 tsp. horseradish
 1/4 tsp. salt
 1/2 cup chopped onions
 1/2 cup chopped pecans
 2 Tsp. chopped parsley
 Assorted crackers

Poach, drain and flake fish. Combine cheese, lemon juice, onion, horseradish, liquid smoke, salt and fish; mix thoroughly. Chill for several hours. Combine pecans and parsley. Shape fish mixture into a log. Roll in nut mixture. Serve with crackers. Makes approximately two cups spread.

 TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

The long-awaited special finance session of the Texas Legislature has been called for 10 a. m. June 14.

Gov. Preston Smith issued the proclamation last week, stating repeatedly he plans to present a 1973 budget which will require no new taxes.

The governor, who has implied he would veto a tax bill, said he does not think lawmakers can pass one without his placing the subject of revenue on the special session agenda.

Under the proclamation, Smith will allow legislators to consider "such other subjects as the governor may submit from time to time."

However, he made clear he does not plan to open the call to any other business until the 1973 budget--financing state operations from Sept. 1, 1972--August 31, 1973--is finally passed.

Smith vetoed all 1973 fiscal year appropriations adopted by the legislature during the 1971 regular session. In anticipation of more federal aid (that never was received), the legislature did not enact a 1973 welfare budget--which made a special session inevitable even without the governor's veto.

A proposed state officials' code of ethics and a recommendation for repeal of a controversial new trailer brake law are among items to be offered the special session for action after passage of the appropriations act.

There is some speculation Smith may try to avoid the need for new taxes by proposing a welfare program finance act covering less than a full fiscal year. This would leave the balance of 1973 welfare appropriations as emergency business for the regular session next year.

COURTS SPEAK-- The State Supreme Court dismissed the appeal of a Dallas man who sought a reduction of the $250,000 fee awarded his ex-wife's attorneys in a divorce action.

The High Court upheld a Houston court of civil appeals finding that high fees collected by a woman in an insurance case were the result of the insurance company's prolonging litigation. National Life Insurance Company protested that legal fees ran five times as much as the insured collected.

In another case, the Supreme Court agreed that the state was immune from damages after a blind San Antonio boy drowned in a Texas School for the Blind pool.

PARTY SWITCHING ILLEGAL Secretary of State Bob Bullock issued a stern warning that June 3 runoff election voters must "stay in the party primary where they voted on May 6."

Bullock said Republicans who voted in the GOP first primary or democrats who voted in their own May 6 primary cannot switch and participate in the other party's runoff primary.

If violations are discovered, said Bullock, they will be turned over to the prosecuting authorities. It is also a violation, of course, for voters to cast ballots in two different precincts with the same party, reminded the chief state election officer.

$25 MILLIONS IN BONDS SOLD--A total of $25 million in bonds have been sold to municipalities under the state's new financial assistance program for improvement of construction of sewage treatment facilities.

Texas Water Quality Board reported it has received 106 applications for loans of water quality enhancement funds amounting to $28.77 million, and 72 applications totalling $24.63 million have been approved. Thirty-four applications are pending in the amount of $4.1 million, and $4.2 million has been transferred to 16 prefects where bids have been approved and cities are ready to start construction. Loans went to Atlanta, Borger, Clarksville city, Cleburne, Conroe, Dallas (four projects), Iowa Park, Mineral Wells, Montgomery County FWSD No. 2, Nueces County WCID No. 4, Rosenberg, Seagoville and Wortham.

The program makes it possible for cities to make improvement at about 24 per cent of project costs to themselves. Bonds provide the state's share, and the federal government pays the rest.

AG OPINIONS--A $1 special fee is applicable to all delinquent tax receipts and certificates issued by county tax assessor-collectors for special districts and should be included in a "state cost" item on forms furnished by the comptroller, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has held.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded:

"A requirement that portions of tuition fees be placed in a scholarship fund applies to charges for vocational-technical courses at public junior colleges. Up to 10 per cent of the fund may be paid to out-of-state students.

"Collins-Dentin County Water and Sanitation District has Constitutional power to collect and dispose of garbage.

APPOINTMENTS--Governor Smith appointed H. Deskins Wells, Wellington Newspaper publisher, Interstate Compact Commissioner for the Red River, succeeding William R. Elliott of Sherman.

LEGISLATORS HIT--A former state legislator received a four-year prison sentence for using state stamps to buy a second-hand pickup truck, and four other present of former lawmakers were indicted.

Ex-Rep. Walter Knapp of Amarillo drew the prison sentence. Former Sen. David Ratliff of Stamford and Rep. John Allen of Longview were indicted in a scheme to hire each other's children as legislative aides without requiring them to work. Rep. Tom Holmes of Granbury faced indictment of allegedly using House of Representatives-issued postage stamps to pay most of the price of a pickup truck. Former Rep. Hudson Moyer of Amarillo faces accusation of using House postage stamps to pay off a $6,000 bank loan.

Travis County District Attorney Robert O. Smith, who prosecuted former House speaker Gus Mutscher, handled all the investigations and vowed to

By FOSTER WEALEY

The rain was great across the entire county. It slipped into the county early Monday morning, May 29th - Memorial Day. We heard several reports of up to three inches. Others reported up to three and one-half. West of Pampa 2.6 inches was received. The rain will help just about every crop and intended crop for 1972. In McLean and vicinity the rain was some what lighter. We have heard reports that range from 1.5" to as much as three inches. The nice thing about the rain was the fact that it came in unpredicted and was a happy surprise.

Farmers over the entire county can now proceed to plant summer crops. Near Pampa many irrigation farmers were having trouble getting up volunteer milo. If the weather will stay pretty for ten days this should give everyone a chance to work their ground and plant. Unless hot winds set in we should have no trouble getting good stands.

The range land should really produce now that we had earlier rains to get the grass growing.

CATTLE SITUATION

Yesterday we visited with Rex McAnelly, Mgr. Moody Farms Feed Lot, Rex said they planned to discontinue use of stilfrestrol in all their feeding ration. Rex said they were quitting because of the drastic actions being taken by Food and Drug people. Some feedlots have already felt the heavy hand of government regulation. Fines of up to thousands of dollars can be imposed.

Sometime ago Tom Herrick, Head Texas Cattle Feeder's Association remarked sometime ago it would suit him fine if the government would just totally ban the product because of the severe uncertainties of using the product. It is a much proven fact that use of stilfrestrol will increase gains by about ten percent and increase the feed efficiency by eleven percent.

There has been no positive proof that this drug will cause cancer in humans. Yet because of the fact they have caused some ill affects in white rats when they fed or injected over 100 times the normal dosage to other animals there are those that would ban the drug and set us back twenty years in the feed lot efficiency race.

Many of the government regulations in the field of chemicals are based on the premise that everything is guilty until proven innocent. Some of the reasoning is so far off base like the stilfrestrol matter that the consumer will soon be paying for this ultra, ultra safe rulings. Some one is going to pay dearly for the 10 percent loss of gain and 10 percent extra cost of gains. Ultimately the farmer will not produce the beef if it does not pay him. So you the consumer will pay. Some of the rulings made about as much sense as saying "I don't believe I'll get out of bed today-I might break my leg."

Because it hasn't been proven by a shadow of a doubt that every single chemical or drug is 100 percent safe we will ban its use totally. One thing that has made this country great is the fact it was founded with people that would take a calculated risk. Now we have a bunch of people that are trying to erase every single risk of life. At the rate of momentum at which we are traveling-faced shortages are not too far down the road. This reminds me of what Secretary of Agriculture told an audience some time before he took his present office. He said sure we can get by without chemical and fertilizer in these United States but someone is going to have to decide what fifty million people will starve to death that are now being fed by the American farmer.

Tennis Tournament Slated For June

A tennis tournament, sponsored by the Lions Club, will be held the first weekend in June through the second week in June.

"While wall mottoes exhort employees to think, most companies expect them to keep busy, too."

Palo Duro Canyon Is Spectacular

When famed cattle baron Charles Goodnight brought his herd over a little rise in the Texas Panhandle in the 1870's, he almost had a stampede on his hands.

The cattle were suddenly confronted by Palo Duro Canyon, and they panicked. In fact, the mules pulling the chuck wagon were so frightened that they nearly dumped the entire wagon, cook and all, into the 1,000 foot canyon.

Palo Duro Canyon, located 12 miles east of the City of Canyon, is indeed a spectacular sight to behold after crossing mile after mile of the monotonous rolling plains of the Texas Panhandle.

The Canyon is 120 miles long and is 40 miles wide at its mouth. Because of the canyon's breathtaking scenery and its colorful history, more than 15,000 acres of it have been made into a state park.

The canyon has been in the making for 90 million years through the action of wind and water on rock. At least four geologic ages or eras are exposed by the canyon's eroded formations.

Palo Duro, a Spanish term meaning "hard wood," refers to the canyon's supply of strong cedar (juniper) brush from which the Indians made their arrows.

Probably the first European to visit Palo Duro Canyon was Francisco Vasques de Coronado who is generally believed to have been in the canyon in 1541.

The canyon was one of the last strongholds of the warlike Great Plains Indians until after 1874 when General Ronald MacKenzie defeated a large force of marauding Comanche Indian in the canyon, making it safe for permanent Anglo-American settlement.

The first rancher in Palo Duro Canyon was Goodnight, who, in partnership with John Adlar of England, started the first cattle ranch in the canyon as well as the first ranch in the Texas Panhandle, the famous JA Ranch which is still in operation in part of the canyon.

The extraordinary terrain of the canyon is reason enough to visit Palo Duro Canyon State Park. It is, after all, a geological wonder.

But there is also a man-made attraction which has drawn visitors from all over the world. It is the outdoor stage production "TEXAS," a musical drama depicting the early settlement of the canyon area.

"TEXAS" is held in an outdoor amphitheater of natural stone. It is a drama of man's struggle with the element's while trying to settle the untamed portions of central and northern Texas. Since its beginning in 1961, success of the drama has been as spectacular as the country and history on which the story is based.

Pulitzer Prize winner Paul Green wrote the script, and the music was scored by Hollywood composer Isaac Vau Grove. Some of the cast are students, some are housewives and many of the featured performers have professional backgrounds.

Lights playing against rugged canyon walls and special sound effects are used to heighten the drama's excitement. On state a panorama of Panhandle history unfolds as settlers, cowboys, and Indians play out the day-to-day conflicts of that colorful era.

A prairie fire rages and the settlers struggle against searing winds, dust storms and blizzards. Simple pleasures, such as hockeys and "plum pickens" brighten the hard existence.

Life Preservers Could Save Lives

Accidents, by nature, happen when you are not suspecting them.

So it's not surprising to learn from the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department that at least half of the recreational drowning victims in the U.S. last year had no intention of going into the water. As a result, they did not have a life preserver available.

More than 2,800 of these "surprises" victims either slipped, tripped, or fell into the water or were aboard when their boat sank.

The moral, says the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department is to take the simple precaution of wearing a life preserver around water, especially if you can't swim.

The life preserver is more than just a good idea if you're aboard a boat--it's the law. Every boat, including canoes, rafts, sailboats and kayaks, must have one Coast Guard approved lifesaving device for everyone on board. In motor boats 26 feet long and under children 12 years old and younger must wear a vest-type life preserver when the boat is underway.

"TEXAS" is beginning its 12th year at the amphitheater. Performances this year begin June 22 and run every day except Sunday through Aug. 28.

TORNADO Safety Rules

TO KNOW WHAT TO DO WHEN A TORNADO IS APPROACHING MAY MEAN THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN LIFE AND DEATH!

I If you are near a tornado cellar:

When time permits, go to a tornado cellar, cave or underground excavation which should have an air outlet to help equalize the air pressure. It should be kept fit for use, free from water, gas or debris; and preferably equipped with pick and shovel. THERE IS NO UNIVERSAL PROTECTION AGAINST TORNADOES EXCEPT UNDERGROUND EXCAVATIONS.

II If you are in open country:

1. Move at right angles to the tornado's path. Tornadoes usually move ahead at about 25 to 40 miles per hour.
2. If there is no time to escape, lie flat in the nearest depression such as a ditch or ravine.

III If in a city or town.

1. Seek inside shelter, preferably in a strongly reinforced building. STAY AWAY FROM WINDOWS!
2. In homes: The corner of the basement toward the tornado usually offers greatest safety, particularly in frame houses. People in houses without basements can sometimes be protected by taking cover under heavy furniture against inside walls. Doors and windows on the sides of the house away from the tornado may be opened to help reduce damage to the building.
3. Standing against the inside wall on a lower floor of an office building offers some protection.

IV If in schools:

1. In city areas: If school building is of strongly reinforced construction, stay inside, away from windows, remain near an inside wall on the lower floors when possible. AVOID AUDITORIUMS AND GYMNASIUMS with large, poorly-supported roofs!
2. In rural schools that do not have strongly reinforced construction, remove children and teachers to a ravine or ditch if storm shelter is not available.

V If in factories and industrial plants:

On receiving a tornado warning, a lookout should be posted to keep safety officials advised of the tornado's approach. Advance preparation should be made for moving workers to sections of the plant offering the greatest protection.

VI

Keep calm. It will not help to get excited. People have been killed by running out into streets and by turning back into the path of a tornado. Even though a warning is issued, chances of a tornado striking one's home or location are very slight. Tornadoes cover such a small zone, as a rule, that relatively only a few places in a warned area are directly affected. You should know about tornadoes though, "just in case."

VII

Keep tuned to your radio or television station for latest tornado advisory information. Do not call the Weather Bureau, except to report a tornado, as your individual request may tie up telephone lines urgently needed to receive special reports or to relay advisories to radio and television stations for dissemination to thousands in the critical area.
