ASCS NEWS By Evelyn Mason

Set-aside payments will begin promptly with the beginning of the fiscal year on July 1 for farms of program participants who have made early certification of compliance and reported their feed grain, cotton and set-aside acres.

Farm program payments cannot be made until the farmer has certified to his acres of feed grain and cotton and set-aside. It will be submitted for payment when this is done and payments will start coming in July. "Early certification means an early payment; however, no one can make certification to an acreage until he has planted that acreage and knows he is in compliance."

When a farmer certifies compliance, he reported the exact acreage of his set-aside land and feed grain and cotton acres (He has already reported wheat acres). He designates his set-aside acres on the farm on the photocopy in the county office.

As soon as this is done, payments are processed but they cannot be made until after July 1. When a farmer certifies, his farm is subject to spot-check for compliance so he needs to be in compliance before certifying.

Accurate certification is essential as once final certification has been made, a farmer may not change his mind. nor make changes in their acreage and set-aside land.

Payments will come sooner if producers will report acreage as soon as they have finished planting acreages and have the farm in compliance.

Edward E. Thomas Newly Appointed Conservationist

Youth, dedication, experience, professionalism--these are some of the traits of Edward E. Thomas, newly appointed state conservationist for the U.S. Soil Conservation Service in Texas.

Thomas returns to his native state from Nashville, Tennessee where he was deputy state conservationist for SCS. He succeeds Clyde W. Graham who has been named director of the South regional technical service center in Fort Worth.

A career conservationist since 1954, Thomas was an assistant to Graham at the Temple state office until he went to Nashville in January 1971.

After starting his conservation career at Lubbock in 1954, Thomas worked at Wellington, Wheeler, Jayton, and Morton. Then he became area conservationist at Pecos in 1963.

After holding a similar position at Harlingen, he moved to Temple as assistant state conservationist in 1968.

Thomas is a 1954 graduate of Texas A&M University where he was a member of the track team. He is also a graduate of Vernon High School and served as an Army officer in Korea from 1954 to 1956. He is a member of the T Association of Texas A&M, the Soil Conservation Society of America, and the American Society of Range Management.

He and his wife Mary have three children: Eddie, 15; Bill, 13; and Susan, 11.

Mental Health-- A Family Affair

"Attitudes of the family, particularly the parents, begin molding a child's personality almost immediately after birth," said Dorothy Taylor, Texas Agricultural Extension specialist in family life education.

"People are often influenced by the atmosphere surrounding them in the first weeks and months of life," Miss Taylor explained. "Personality problems can hatch during these crucial earliest stages."

According to the Texas A&M University specialist, understanding and influencing the development of man's personality problems begins with a close look at his parents.

"Happiness, a universal goal, depends on the parents' own state of mind," Miss Taylor said. "Emotional difficulties between father and mother will destroy the climate of security and love, which children need to develop normally. But if parents are happy, they will bring up happy children." The family life education specialist pointed out that deeply felt happiness is mental health.

"Men and women who have a sense of well-being, a zest for working and playing and an ability to derive the utmost satisfaction from personal relationships are mentally healthy. And chances are their children will also be mentally healthy."

She said that the first step in dealing with early stages of personality problems in families is to help parents become happier. The modern American often many resources, through which family ties can be strengthened and the home atmosphere can be improved.

"To find these resources, parents must look within their communities and within themselves. They must have a pride in their parenthood, imagination to investigate new ideas, and courage to put these ideas into action."

Weekly Market Report

Don't forget to look for specials and other food-saving tips in your local market this week, advised Gwendolyn Clyatt, Houston consumer marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Beef and pork prices climb a bit higher, but usually five or more cuts are featured each week, so plan your menus around these specials, Mrs. Clyatt suggested.

She explained that most of the increase in beef prices is aimed at hindquarter cuts. Steaks, then, carry higher price tags. Frontquarter pieces such as chuck roasts offer the better values. Good values may also be found in ground beef in three-pound units.

Thursday. Melon judging, arts & crafts exhibits, carnival, street dance and the famed watermelon seed spitting contest highlight Friday's schedule. The Watermelon Thump parade (10 a.m.), which last year attracted over 10,000 spectators, shares Saturday billing with a two-ball golf tournament, car rally, barbecue, old time fiddlers' contest, watermelon eating contests (ages 1-7, 8-14 and 15 up), melon auction, drug store farmers auction, arts & crafts exhibits, carnival and street dance.

round steaks and beef liver, Boston butt roasts and half loins cut into chops, plus a variety of smoked hams, bear attractive pork prices. Some markets feature loin end roast, smoked picnics and liver.

According to the Texas A&M University employee, eggs continue to provide much needed protein at very little cost. Serve versatile hard-cooked eggs, creamed for sandwiches and salads or deviled for variety. She added that fryer chickens and frozen turkeys also make economical protein choices.

In vegetable sections, fresh corn is more plentiful and at its peak of tender, flavorful goodness. Besides corn, new crop potatoes, carrots, cooking greens and cabbage stock markets in plentiful supply. Also, lettuce, cucumbers, celery, radishes and green onions.

Fresh strawberries continue to highlight fruit counters. Pineapples, bananas, oranges, cantaloupes and honeydew melons also top shopping lists as best buys.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank everyone for the cards, visits, flowers, and for everyone's thoughtfulness during my stay in a Amarillo Hospital.
Milton Carpenter

Did you hear about the Texan who just bought his son a cowboy outfit—a 20,000-acre ranch, 1000 head of cattle and 200 horses?

The parking lot owner called the three attendants together. "Look, boys," he said, "we haven't had one single complaint about a dented fender all week." He paused to let his words sink in. "Now tell me, he bellowed, "how can we make any money leaving that much space?"

A bride-to-be had just shown her friend the list of wedding guests. "Isn't it strange," asked the friend, "that you've included only married couples?" "Oh, that was Albert's idea," the bride-to-be replied. "He says that if we invite only married people, the presents will be all clear profit."

Someone asked Groucho Marx if the new house he is building is stucco. "Stucco?" cried Groucho. "I'll say we're getting stucco. We're getting stucco so good our bathroom will cost more than Boulder Dam!"

MRS. RONALD SIMS
Miss Jenny Everett Becomes Bride Of Ronald Sims

Saturday, the twentieth of May, Miss Jenny Lee Everett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lee Everett of McLean became the bride of Mr. Ronald Stephen Sims of Amarillo in the Church of Christ in McLean, at six o'clock p.m. The groom is the son of Mrs. Opal Sims of 3021 Mockingbird Lane of Amarillo. Brother Curtis Camp, presently the minister at Bell Av. Church of Christ in Amarillo, officiated the couple in a double ceremony.

The church was decorated with orange and white flowers on each side and a basket of orange gladiolus.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and mother. The bride, was radiant in her formal floor length wedding gown of chantilly lace and Peau De Soie over Vidal Tafeta designed with a high neckline, natural waist, full skirt and long camelot sleeves. The front of the gown was enhanced with a panel of Peau De Soie. The full skirt ended in a sweeping chapel length train. Her veil of imported illusion, was a border of Chantilly lace, fell from a Coif of lace and ribbon, and she carried a white bouquet of baby roses which border two orchids on top of a small white bible. She wore the two orchids on her going away dress.

For her something old, she wore silver ear rings. Something borrowed was a small white bible belonging to Mrs. Leta Mae Hess. The same bible was carried by the bride's mother on her wedding day. For something blue she wore a blue garter. She carried a 1951 penny signifying the year of her birth in her shoe to bring her a spark of good luck. Miss June Hugg served as Maid of Honor and Miss Janis Sims, the groom's sister, served as bridesmaid. They wore identical floor length dresses, the color was burnt orange, the material mikrot mist nylon. With a just above the waist line band of orange velvet ribbon. The dresses had low square necks with puffed long sleeves. The dresses were flowing with an added ruffle on the bottom. Their headpieces of orange illusion fell from a flat bow of orange velvet ribbon. They each carried a long stem white rose with white streamers. The flower girl was Miss Candi Carpenter daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Johnnie Carpenter of McLean. Candi is the first cousin of the bride. Her dress was designed with the same effect as the maid of Honor and Bridesmaids. With a soft orange ribbon in her hair, she carried a small white basket and sprinkled the path of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a brown and beige street length dress and beige shoes. The groom's mother wore a light blue and white brocade street length dress. With white accessories.

Mr. Dick Rice of Amarillo, first cousin of the groom served as the Best Man. The brides brother, James Everett served as a Groomsman. Mr. David Diedrich and Ron Willingham served as ushers, Master Eddy Brooks served as Ring Bearer. The music was pre-recorded and played by Mr. Sam Gayton Jr. Miss Kay Layne registered the guest.

The reception was held following the ceremony at the McLean Country Club. The brides table was white with added touches of orange. Mrs. Claudia Brown served the cake and Mrs. Nell Going served the punch. Mrs. Wanda Bailey served at the coffee table.

The brides going away dress was blue, white and rust. Her shoes and purse were white.

The bride graduated from McLean High School, the class of 1970. She has attended West Texas State University for the last two years.

The groom graduated from Foscova High School in Amarillo 1968 and plans to graduate from W.T. in August. In October they will move to Virginia for his Officer's Basic course in his assigned branch. Their present home will be 4712 S.W. 57th Apt. 13 Amarillo, Texas.

Mrs. L. Petty who accompanied her son Francis of Midland, to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Milton Billingsley and husband in Amarillo, Monday of last week, was returned home Friday by her granddaughter Mrs. Vernon Kennedy and Tina.

Mrs. Petty also visited other relatives and friends and went through a clinic receiving a fine report.

"THE ORGANIZATION"

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Bill Boykin

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Forecast for the State Democratic Convention at San Antonio June 13 grows steadily stormier.

Agriculture Commissioner John C. White, who already had announced as a candidate for convention chairman against Roy Orr of De Soto, the state Democratic executive committee chairman, received backing of National Committeewoman Mrs. Carrin Patman, Ganado.

Mrs. Patman accused Orr of "wrecking the party" and predicted a "disastrous blood-letting" at San Antonio if he presides. She said Orr won't abide by the party rules he helped write himself, and that giving him the convention gavel would "sabotage chances of the Texas delegation's being seated at the July 10 national convention.

Supporters of Sen. George McGovern for president agreed Orr should not be chairman and that White is a "fair man." However, they contended, an endorsement on their part would be "premature".

Also under fire is makeup of the convention credentials committee named by Orr. Critics claim it isn't representative of presidential preferences and age ethnic groups.

Orr earlier fired back that "liberals" are trying to take over and run the show, and he isn't going to permit it if he can help it.

Some observers have calculated the convention delegate spread is actually pretty close, with backers of McGovern, Gov. George Wallace and Sen. Hubert Humphrey all claiming a sizeable chunk of the votes. To gain as much strength as McGovern and Wallace on the 130-vote Texas delegation to the national convention, Humphrey would have to pick up most of the uncommitted delegates.

Republicans see only harmony for their state convention in Galveston June 13. They are even scheduling beach parties.

AUTO RATE CUT SEEN-- The State Board of Insurance will meet July 24 for its annual hearing on auto insurance rates, and Chairman Larry Teaver thinks a reduction is in order.

A 2.8 per cent increase approved last year was blocked by a presidential wage-price freeze. Rates have been in effect since Jan. 1, 1971, when a 15 per cent boost was approved. There has been no reduction since a fractional cut in 1967.

Teaver said profits from underwriting nationally are at an alltime high, as are investments profits of auto insurance companies. He plans to submit a "personal injury protection" proposal to the Board as a substitute for no-fault auto insurance. The Teaver recommendation includes liberalized medical benefits on a no-fault basis, income replacement and life insurance instead of uninsured motorists and medical payments coverage.

Conceivably, Teaver could be out of a job before the July hearing. The Legislature convenes in special session June 14 and Teaver's appointment to the Board is pending in the State.

DRAFT PLANS TOLD-- About 400 men from Texas are expected to be inducted into military service during the month of July, although no quota yet has been assigned the State.

State Selective Service Headquarters has announced that young men with lottery numbers of 50 or lower in the year's first priority selection group will get their induction orders next month.

Those with numbers of 90 or lower may get pre-induction physical examinations during July.

Col. Melvin Glantz, state director of Selective service, said 30 days' notice is planned for all induction orders.

COURTS SPEAK-- Farmers can sue cattle feedlot operators for damages due to offensive odors even if they don't live on their land, the State Supreme Court held.

To properly assess whether movies are obscene, judges and juries must see the entire films, the Court of Criminal Appeals ruled.

SMITH SEEKS FUNDS-- Gov. Preston Smith went to Washington in search of federal matching funds for social services to welfare beneficiaries. He said the federal government now pays states $3 for every $1 they spend on social services, but the White House' proposed new rules would prevent Texas and other states from considering work by some agencies.

An aide to the governor said the state is not getting federal matching money for counseling family planning and homemaking assistance to the needy.

COLLEGE FUNDS AVAILABLE-- More than $13.2 million is now available on a formula basis for 17 universities to construct buildings, Comptroller Robert S. Calvert announced.

Calvert said these sums are available to the following institutions:

University of Texas at Arlington, $635,198; Texas Southern $233,687; University of Houston, $1.15 million; Texas Woman's University, $225,596; Texas A. & A., $803,969; Texas Tech, $723,226; Lamar, $1 million; Midwestern, $205,822; Pan American, $586,169; East Texas State, $614,673; North Texas State, $1.1 million; Stephen F. Austin, $1.6 million; West Texas State, $289,710; Angelo State, $396,203; Sam Houston State, $1.3 million; Southwest Texas State, $2 million and Sul Ross, $109,952.

DANIEL CLAIMS SPEAKER SHIP-- Rep. Price Daniel Jr. of Liberty claims 85 firm vote for speaker of the House of Representatives next year.

Present Speaker Rayford Price of Palestine faced a strong runoff challenge for re-election in his home district.

Daniel said he would not be a party to any movement to oust Price as speaker during the June special session.

ETHICS BILL PLANNED-- A House committee on rules reform scheduled a June 8 meeting to write an ethics bill requiring full financial disclosure by members of the legislature, the governor and lieutenant governor.

Rep. Guy Floyd of San Antonio said the committee will offer reform rules to the special session. Floyd said he envisions an ethics bill requiring reporting of stock and land transactions annually as well as all income sources.

Aunt Sarah I love you.

Remember my 10th birthday, when you gave me that funny piece of green paper and everybody made such a fuss over it. (Except me.) Frankly, it was a pretty disappointing present for a kid. I couldn't eat it, couldn't play with it, couldn't wear it—and Mom took it away from me practically the minute I got it.

And every birthday after that (and Christmas, too), you gave me another one of those Bonds, you called them. I thought you were pretty gooney.

At least, I never had to guess what I was going to get from good old reliable Aunt Sarah.

And what I got was good old reliable U.S. Savings Bonds.

What I didn't realize then was that you gave me a gift of security for the future. Thanks to you and those Bonds, I had extra funds for college. And they helped when I bought my first new car.

Next week, I'm giving my nephew, Harry, his first U.S. Savings Bond. I know the kid is gonna think I'm some kind of nut. But, someday...

Bonds are safe. If lost, stolen, or destroyed, we replace them. When needed, they can be cashed at your bank. Tax may be deferred until redemption. And always remember, Bonds are a proud way to save.

Take stock in America. Now Bonds pay a bonus at maturity.

The U.S. Government does not pay for this advertisement. It is presented as a public service in cooperation with the Department of the Treasury and The National Endowment for the Arts.

REV. AND MRS. FOREST LAWSON AND FAMILY

The Forest Lawson Family Are New Residents To McLean

New residents to McLean are Rev. and Mrs. Forest Lawson and family. Rev. Lawson is the new pastor of the Pentecostal Holiness Church in McLean. Lawson replaces Walter Comstock, former pastor who is retiring.

The Lawson family moved here from Garfield, N.M., after spending two years as pastor in that city.

They have evangelized thru out Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Colorado and are noted for their musical abilities.

Lawson and his wife Mary, have four children, Jeff, Traci Perry and Terry.

Practice Child Safety At Home

"Ninety-five per cent of accidental poisonings occur while children are supposedly under adult supervision," said Mrs. Doris Myers, home management Doris Myers, home management specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

More than half a million different kinds of medicines, cleaning aids and other household substances tempt children's curiosities and often cause poisoning.

"The key to halting these poisonings is a continuing plan of prevention in the home," the Texas A&M University employee said. "First, don't store bleach, detergent, drain cleaner or other hazardous substances under the kitchen sink or any other place accessible to small children.

"And don't keep bug killers, medicines or other dangerous items next to food."

Paint, insecticide, turpentine, alcohol or other such substances may be mistaken for something to drink when poured into bottles or similar-type containers.

"Just because something looks smells or tastes horrible to you doesn't mean that a child won't eat or drink enough of it to poison him," Mrs. Myers said.

STAMP PROGRAM PLANNED

The State Department of Public Welfare has been called on by the governor to develop a pilot food stamp program in preparation for a statewide plan.

A state-funded program will be proposed in the special session of the Legislature next month. Federal courts have ordered all counties to have either a food stamp or a food commodity program for the needy. The stamp program is expected to generate $285 million in economic activity.

Apollo 15 moon walking astronaut, Colonel James Irwin (right) receives a specially inscribed copy "The Living Bible" by the Book's translator, Kenneth N. Taylor. Taylor was invited to the N.A.S. spacecraft center in Houston by Irwin to present "Living Bible" to all 43 astronauts in the program. MISCELLANEOUS

WHEN the foundation of my home was made, for the most part the concrete was placed barely a few inches beneath the ground surface. Indeed, in spots it appeared to rest on top of the ground. This was was not without intent and purpose - for this was to be a vehicle of torture against me - to be used only in the dead of winter. Then, it was, particularly if it was snowing, that my enemies from underneath my house, jacked up a length of the foundation, and scraped concrete underneath it.

I recall one such snowy midnight they jacked up the S.E. corner of my home, and the cold, damp wind blew in, making coverlets and cloth soggy with dampness. Standing above them shivering in my gown and house coat, I listened to their voices and that cracking-scraping sound, enough to raise the hair on the back of any body's neck.
 That sound is bad enough in the day time, but taking place underneath one's house, is torture - pure and simple - cruelty.

Basically it was grown men who did this - not boys. Some of these men I had known for many years. Who do you suppose was the brains of this activity.

the good earth

This is the soil, the good earth without which man could not exist. Suppose we woke up tomorrow to find a concrete world. Flowers would wilt, plants would die, and famine would sweep the land.

God, in His infinitely wise planning, gave us the earth to make use of — to care for. Without this care, the soil and fields become barren.

People are not very different. We need three kinds of care if we are to flourish — physical, mental and spiritual. Unfortunately the last, in many ways the most important, is often most neglected.

The spirit is a great part of you! Nurture it by attending the church of your choice.
