Local VICA Members Win Blue Ribbons

Vocational Industrial Clubs of America, Chapter # 1358 McLean, Groom and Pamlico High Schools, participated in the area district meet held at Amarillo Vocational College on March 24. To be eligible for this contest, each member had to set up a mannequin, wig, wiglet or permanent waves (which were then combed into the desired style). The mannequins and hair-ers were then combed into the desired style. Permanent waves (which were wrapped on mannequins) were left up, to be judged with the other entries. The entry was judged mainly on neatness and style. Winners from McLean are as follows: Kandy Carver won for state, with a wig, Debbie Ryan tied for state with a wig.

Five contestants may compete at the state VICA meet. A contest was held in Pampa and the winners are as follows: Kandy Carver, Debbie Ryan from McLean, Loree Matthew, Sims and Sharon Plemon from Pampa.

Debbie Ryan from McLean and Donna Hillman from Pampa were elected to go as delegates. These students will compete in Fort Worth, Tex., on April 27 and 28. Their parents, Mrs. Irene Mullan will accompany them. Contestants have much competition, as only outstanding students from each of the districts of the state are eligible to attend the meeting. Winners of the state meetings will compete in the National competition held in Oklahoma in June. We wish the members of VICA from Pampa College good luck.

Corn Bible Academy Choir To Present Concert At Baptist Church

The Corn Bible Academy Choir will present a full sacred concert in the First Baptist Church at McLean on April 20, 7:30 p.m.

Music has always been an important part of the life of Corn Bible Academy. This is evident because of this high percentage of students who participate in the music program each year. Students must audition for the mixed choir, and out of this group of 40 singers, small ensembles are organized. Each year the choir represents the school in various artistic and meaningful performances. This is done in home concerts, Church programs and in various high schools and colleges.

Mr. Charles E. Regier is director of music at the Academy. This includes directing the mixed chorus as well as the 40 piece concert band. He graduated from Grace Bible Institute of Omaha, Nebraska in 1963 with a diploma in Bible and from Southwestern State College of Weatherford in 1965 where he received his Bachelors of Arts degree. At present he is working toward a Masters degree in Music Education at Southwestern State College.

Corn Bible Academy is a four-year, fully accredited Christian High School located in Corn, Oklahoma. It's student body of 80 comes from 6 states surrounding Oklahoma. The school occasionally has students from other countries as Mexico and Canada.

The academy is a member of the National Association of Evangelical Schools of Wheaton, Illinois. This is a growing Association to promote the Christian School movement prevalent in America today.

The new physical plant contains air conditioned classrooms, administrative offices, library, and auditorium. It is a very meable and efficient educational unit.

You are cordially invited to attend this concert.

Official Memorandum

By
DOLPH BRISCOE

Governor of Texas

GREETINGS: AUSTIN, TEXAS

"Widen Your World...Read"
All over Texas during the week of April 8 through 14 libraries will throw their doors open with an invitation for all Texans to widen their world and to "Get Ahead...Read."

This sixteenth annual observance of National Library Week focuses attention on the year round efforts of libraries to provide informational, recreational and educational services to their patrons. It also provides library patrons an opportunity to show their support for the improvements that are vital if Texas public, school and academic libraries are to provide resources that truly equal patron needs.

Libraries provide an opportunity for self-fulfillment and for continuing education for all who avail themselves of an opportunity to use them. The public library--with its long tradition of service to all, whatever their educational or economic condition--provides real hope for reaching the goal of a well-informed citizenry. At the same time good school and academic libraries insure that adults in the years to come will be able to take full advantage of all kinds of library service.

The greeting during National Library Week welcomes all to come during not only that special week but also the other fifty-one.

THEREFORE, I, as Governor of Texas, do hereby designate the week of April 8-14, 1973 as LIBRARY WEEK in Texas, and urge all citizens to become better acquainted with the services and needs of our libraries.

DOLPH BRISCOE, Governor of Texas

The United Methodist Women met April 10th at 9:45 in the church parlor for Bible study. Romans 3rd chapter was studied with Margaret Coleman as the study leader.

The opening song was "I Love To Tell the Story." The opening prayer was given by Mrs. Earl Husted with Mary Dwyer leading in the closing prayer. There were ten present.

Mr. G. E. Pugh of Forsyth, Montana, is visiting in McLean this week. He came in to the News office while here to renew his paper.

OPEN LETTER

Just how much pressure can a person stand? Of course this will vary according to circumstances and the type of pressure applied. This will also vary depending upon the source from which it comes.

A person can stand untold pressure even to the extent they themselves never dreamed they are capable of. On the other hand when a persons liveliness and that of their loved ones is in jeopardy creates a different situation altogether. In a situation of this type with the right pressure from the right source applied I suppose no one could stand this very long.

I am no longer employed as butcher at Simpson's market. But I am not leaving McLean. I know the pressure and will find the source because I came here under the leadership of God's Holy Spirit and I will leave the same way when I have completed the job God brought me here to do.

In the meantime I will be performing full time duties as pastor of Caprock Baptist Church.

Rep. Cates Reports

State Rep. Phil Cates wants the State to go slow in putting any federal revenue sharing funds into supporting permanent state programs.

Rep. Cates is co-sponsoring a House concurrent resolution which points out that the State Comptroller estimates federal revenue sharing to total $316.2 million for the two years starting Sept. 1, 1973, but only $148 million for the following two years.

"Therefore, if we place excessive trust in the future of revenue sharing we will be shocked at a future date by the magnitude of state funding needed to replace the dwindling, or non-existent federal revenue sharing funds to the maximum extent for non-recurring items, so that they will not be woven into the permanent pattern of state budgeting.

Cates concluded that the state should recommend no permanent programs to become dependent on federal dollars which cannot be counted on in the future.

*Highlights
AND Sidelights*

by Bill Boykin

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

The first of major reform bills before the 63rd Legislature--strengthening of "open meetings" requirements--has reached the desk of Gov. Dolph Briscoe.

The House quickly accepted Senate amendments, sending the measure (HB 3) on to the Governor.

Meanwhile, the Senate passed a version of the "shield bill" to protect newsmen's sources of information from forced disclosure--except on State Supreme Court order. The Senate revision providing that citizens may bring mandamus action to reveal sources doomed the bill (HB 10) to conference committee delay.

A second reform bill (HB 8) backed by House Speaker Price Daniel Jr.,--to require detailed reporting of contributions and spending in speakership races --also landed on the Governor's desk. The Senate passed it with only minor amendment, and the House concurred.

Sponsors of the new open meetings law term it a marked improvement over the present statute, although it would still permit closed executive sessions of governing agencies for these purposes:

Discussions of personnel matters including evaluation, consultation with attorneys on pending or contemplated litigation or settlement offers, talks about real estate purchase, exchange, lease or sale, negotiated contracts for gifts or donations, and school board strategy plans for consultation with employees. Social functions could be kept private as long as no official action is taken and no formal agenda items are deliberated.

Fines up to $500 and jail terms up to six months are provided for known violations.

The House approved Daniel's final reform bill (HB 4), voting 140-3 to set up a State Ethics Commission to supervise tough new campaign finance reporting. RIGHT TO REPLY BILL HEARD IN SENATE

Houston Senator Walter Mengden's bill which would require newspapers to provide a "right to reply" to political stories and editorials was heard by the Senate Jurisprudence Committee last week.

Senator Mengden copied the bill after the Florida law which has been ruled unconstitutional by a County Judge in Daytona Beach, Florida and a Circuit Court and Appeals Court in Dade County, Florida. The Dade County decision is now on appeal in the Florida State Supreme Court.

The Houston Senator quoted so-called "attacks" on him by newspapers in his district, and felt he was entitled to reply to those attacks in the news columns of the newspapers. He cited the "equal time" doctrine of the broadcasting media under existing Federal law.

His measure, SB 541, would require newspapers to publish free of cost any reply a candidate "may make thereto in as conspicuous a place and in the same kind of type as the matter that calls for such reply."

Mengden did not have enough votes to get the bill out of committee, but Senators present did vote 5-2 not to send it to sub-committee and 5-2 to approve the bill and sent it to the full Senate for a vote. Senate rules required seven votes to report the bill out, and many of the Senators were not in the meeting at the time of the vote.

The bill was opposed by the Texas Press Association on the grounds that it was unconstitutional.

INSURANCE CUT BILL OFFERED

State Insurance Board chairman Joe Christie has recommended legislation which he said may reduce auto insurance rates.

The bill would permit some competition in rate-making, though not wide open competition.

INSURANCE Texas is the only state which retains the system of fixed rates set on a yearly basis by the state regulatory agency.

Two House members, Reps. Don Cavness of Austin and Ben Bynum of Amarillo, are pushing a straight-out competitive rating bill

Talkative Children

Talkative children are entertaining--but talking may be a sign of something else.

Miss Jimmie Lou Wainscott county Extension agent, noted that too much talk and little action may indicate a child is attempting a diversion--trying to avoid using other skills.

He may be afraid of tailing at something else--even simple things like working a puzzle, painting or playing a game.

As a result, he tries to "talk himself out of it--or around it."

The child also may realize that talking usually gains a adult approval.

However, excessive talking actually harms the child in the long run. Instead of getting into the action, trying new things or gaining assurance and confidence, he spends all his time talking.

Parents may have difficulty getting a child to try new things after he's found adult attention and approval through talking.

Therefore, they need to help the child in several areas.

--Help him relax. Show him that success isn't demanded at each attempt.

--Try to instill the philosophy that it's fun to "dabble" a bit in many things--just to find out what life is all about. He may like the activity after trying it.

--Give him encouragement, and show him he needs to be a "doer" as well as a talker, the agent concluded.

Citizen Present Petition To City Council

A petition with over two hundred signatures was presented to the Council of the City of McLean at its regular council meeting on Tuesday night at the City Hall, requesting that action be taken to eliminate junked cars, dogs, livestock, fowl and dangerous vacant buildings within the city limits.

The petition filed with the Council states:

"We, the undersigned residents of the City of McLean, Texas, do hereby petition the City Council of McLean, Texas to do whatever is necessary to remove the broken down junk cars that are located on private property, on the grounds they are unsightly and unhealthy and in addition we would appreciate anything that could be done to eliminate the animals (dogs, livestock, and fowls) that are in such numbers they create a health hazard; and in addition all vacant buildings that are dangerous, to be condemned and removed."

Several citizens appeared before the Council to voice their support for city action to remedy the present conditions complained of in the petition and to prevent similar future conditions from arising. The Council is studying ordinances which might be adopted on the items requested in the petition.

AFTERMATH OF THE BEEF BOYCOTT

Now that the housewife have their refrigerator cleaned out and the children and the ole man have had a few fish, chicken and meatless meals, they have turned back to beef as we predicted.

Some objective news reporters are telling the true story. As one reporter said, "As far as lowering price-(The housewives objective). They failed miserably. They did succeed in one thing they put the price of chicken up and found out that fish is higher than beef. Well the self appointed boycotted have had their publicity which I suspect was their main objective in the first place.

While they were having their heyday publicity wise the farmer and rancher didn't sass back very much. We read many real fine rebuttals none of which was too offense. The farmer and rancher quietly withheld their products off the market. Many of the major markets had less than 60 percent of their normal runs.

Today (Tuesday) there are reports the housewives are going to the meat markets in droves to replace their meat supplies in their refrigerators. As one housewife put it when asked if she planned to continue her boycott of meat, "I'm tired of suffering for noble causes, I'm buying beef as usual."

Many of the house-wives were bound to have read such horse sense information such as-In the last twenty years wages of the average worker has gone up from 122 percent for different class of workers, while the retail price of food has advanced only 46 percent. Chiefly responsible for most of this increase has been the 148 percent wage increase by people in the food industry. The farmers themselves have had a eleven percent gross income return (not net).

With this big 11% increase in gross income the farmer's taxes have jumped by 297% during the last 20 years. His labor expense has jumped by 141 percent. His machinery cost have doubled.

It's no wonder that over half of the American farmers have closed shop and moved to those good paying town jobs over the last 8-10 years.

Back to the boycott-today live cattle prices advanced from $1.00 to $2.00 per cwt. Why?

Because the pipeline of beef has been cleaned out. Three weeks by farmers of quietly withholding cattle has cleaned out the coolers. This is about the maximum supply of beef if all slaughtering stopped. What next-You are going to see fat cattle go up to the frozen level. The packer and the retailer are gonna get the stuff squeezed out of them.

The weather has been so bad the last three weeks that more beef was destroyed by floods, snow storms and wet weather than was gained. So ole man weather gave the striking house wives a severe blow just like it did the cattleman.

I'm going to stick with my statement of three weeks ago, before 1973 rolls off the calendar there will be more concern by the housewife as to where she can get a good price of beef than what it's going to cost her.

Cecil M. Jones Former Resident Buried in Ark.

Funeral services for Cecil M. Jones, 56, of Lavaca, Arkansas, were held Tuesday, April 3 at 10 a. m. in Duncan, Chapel in Fort Smith, Arkansas. Rev. Stewart, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Lavaca, officiated.

Burial was in the Military Cemetery in Fort Smith, Arkansas.

Mr. Jones, the brother of Mrs. W.E. Rainwater, a former resident of McLean, was born January 22, 1917 at Giles, Texas. He moved with his parents to McLean in February 1921 and lived in McLean until he graduated from McLean High School. He then moved to Fort Worth where he married Betsy Wade. In the early 60's he moved to Arkansas. He was employed as a control tower operator for Civil Air Service for 30 years.

He is survived by his wife, Betsy; one son, David of Lavaca; one daughter, Kay Agee of Hellmar, Arkansas; one sister, Mrs. Mae Rainwater of Uvalde, Tex.; three grandsons.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of Canton, Okla. are visiting friends in McLean this week. He is a former superintendent of Alanreed Schools.

Upstairs Neighbors

Madge had always been a restless sleeper. But matters went from bad to worse when a young couple with a baby moved into the apartment upstairs.
 It seems the baby was teething.
 To keep her quiet at night, the parents would trundle her around their apartment in a baby carriage, causing sounds that were plainly audible to the wakeful Madge.
 Finally she went to court for an injunction. But at the hearing, the baby's father said there was no other way to keep the child from crying. Besides, he pointed out, their carriage had rubber wheels and their floor was carpeted.

The court thereupon tossed out Madge's complaint, saying that a moderate amount of noise must be accepted by those who choose to live in apartments.

"Where people indulge their inclination to be gregarious," said
 the judge, "they must not expect the quiet that belongs to solitude."

Courts generally take this hands-off attitude in disputes between apartment dwellers. Nevertheless, a court may well intervene if the noise gets out of hand.

In another case, an upstairs
 tenant—a do-it-yourself enthusiast—decided to install new parquet flooring. This time, when the tormented people downstairs went to court, the judge ordered the man to work on weekdays only, from nine to five, and to keep the noise and vibration to a minimum.

What role does the landlord play in these conflicts? Must he take action if the downstairs
 tenant asks for his help?

In most cases, the answer is no.
 Take this example:

A downstairs tenant, disturbed
 by relentless piano playing from the apartment upstairs, asked the landlord to enforce a house rule against such conduct.

But the landlord refused to mix in—and his refusal was upheld in a court hearing. The judge said the rules in a lease are put in primarily for the landlord's benefit, to be enforced or not according to his discretion.

At the end of the seventh season in 1972, 499,758
 people had seen "Texas".

else enjoyed the dinner
 anyway. A dinner guest was Jewel Warner.

Market Report

With food prices fluctuating more than usual, efficient shopping requires special effort.

"Make careful observations
 at grocery stores and check newspapers, television and radio for up-to-the-minute
 information on supply,
 quality and prices of foods,"
 advises Mrs. Gwendolyne Olyatt, consumer marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University.

Consider dry beans and peas, peanuts and peanut butter as meat alternatives-- they're plentiful and versatile Generally, look for best beef buys on chuck roasts and steaks, round steaks, certain boneless roasts, and beef and calf liver.

The specialist cited pork
 values as quarter loin sliced,
 end-cut loin roasts, shoulder
 roasts and steaks, pork liver, smoked picnics and hams.

Egg supplies are plentiful with large sizes currently the best values.

Fryer chicken prices are a bit lower this week. They're excellent meat choices considering quality, nutrition and price.

Fresh fruits and vegetables in best supply at the most economical prices include Navel and Valencia oranges,
 grapefruit, apples, bananas,
 and pineapples.

Also potatoes, cabbage,
 celery, carrots, broccoli,
 asparagus, mustard, collards,
 turnips and greens, bunch spinach and dry yellow onions.

In addition, cantaloupes,
 honeydew and watermelons
 are available--but at early season prices, the specialist concluded.

Thoughts

From The Living Bible.

So they brought the colt
 to Jesus and threw some of their clothing across its back for Jesus to sit on. Then the crowds spread out their robes along the road ahead of him, and as they reached the place where the road started down from the Mount of Olives, the whole procession began to shout and sing as they walked along, praising God for all the wonderful miracles Jesus had done. "God has given us
 a King!" they exulted.
 "Long live the King! Let all heaven rejoice! Glory to God in the highest heavens!"

Postal Week To Be Observed In McLean

Postmaster Frank Simpson announced plans today for "Postal Week" to be celebrated here April 29 through May 5.

On April 30, the McLean Post Office will highlight this observance with activities that dramatize the importance of the performances of Post People as they move the mails.

Postmaster General E. T. Klassan said the Postal Week observances are "an appropriate occasion for recognition of the vital responsibilities assigned to the mail service and a valid time to take stock of the challenges which must be jointly met by postal people and by the millions of citizens throughout America who depend upon the mail as an essential part of their personal and business life.

As part of the observance, the McLean Post Office will mark the occasion with the Ten New Postal People stamp to be placed on sale. Other plans for observing Postal Week are being planned and will be announced as they materialize.

Lean one day this week, and stated that from all indications, broom corn would be very high priced next year.
