Bell Telephone Files Application For Rate Increase

An application for an increase in basic telephone rates--the first such request in more than 5 years--was filed by Southwestern Bell with the McLean City Council.

Gary Stevens, manager for Southwestern Bell, stated that under the present regulations issued by the Cost of Living Council, the rate increase may be effected when approved by the City Council. Stevens went on to tell the Council that "continued inadequate earnings on our operations--in the face of today's high cost of doing business--leaves us no choice but to ask for this increase in local rates."

The new rates requested by the company include a monthly increase in business one-party from $9.50 to $13; residence one-party from $5.50 to $6.25, and residence two-party from $4.50 to $4.75.

"Present rates in McLean were established in 1969," Stevens explained. "Since then, salaries, wages and the company's investment in McLean have all grown to the extent that we must seek this increase. The present rates, based on 1968 operations, are simply too low to meet the company's cost of doing business today."

Stevens stressed that the company has been able to hold the line on basic rates over the use of numerous technological advances in equipment and facilities. These factors, he pointed out, allowed the company to meet some of the increased costs of doing business without asking for an increase.

The Tigers go into this conference bout 3-6 and in district 2-4. The Tigers fell 17 to 6 at the hands of the Wheeler Mustangs last week and lost senior Joe Ray Riley who received a back injury during the game.

The McLean touchdown break came from a Joe Sherrod fumble recovery deep into Wheeler territory in the first three minutes. Marty Duniven ran 15 yards under the protection of the right end to post the first score.

"Injuries", said Coach Bill Nitcholas, have dampened our defensive efforts quite a bit but we hope to have it all together again for Friday night.

At the close of the season the ten senior Tigers playing tomorrow are Skeet Lowery, Terry Smith, Craig Cunningham, Leland Myers, Jim Seane, Ricky Kennedy, Milton Best, Joe Sherrod, Dennis Brooks, and Wesley Brown.

Two others Gary Griffin and Joe Ray Riley will not be able to play.

Tiger fans are urged to join the high school student body for the pep rally to be held at 3:30 p.m. in the gym tomorrow, Friday.

Although in the past in McLean, pep rally attendance has been composed largely of students and faculty it is a valuable opportunity for citizens to support school spirit.

Head cheerleader Lana Duniven said "I know it would mean a lot to the whole team and especially to the ten senior Tigers who will be playing high school ball for the last time." Miss Duniven made the comment when asked how she felt about a rally involving the whole community.

The coaches, when the idea was mentioned to them, said they thought it was a good idea and was something common to most communities already.

One of the coaches, Casper Smith, expressed the hopes of others working with the program that it will begin at an earlier date next year and more practice time allowed.

The Pee Wee basketball program will begin at 2 p.m. Saturday afternoon in the gym All 4th, 5th and 6th graders are eligible.

Cubs Stomp Wheeler Mustangs 20-0

The Cubs stomped Wheeler Jr. High 20-0 and their season 5-5 in McLean last Thursday evening.

A 25 yard push by Sam Haynes under the blocking of Randy Kennedy and Scott Raines in the 2nd quarter set the Cubs on the 2 yard line. Ken Parker took the ball a cross behind Brian Henry and Charles Van Horn. A Curtis Simpson bomb to David Tolleson took the extras.

Simpson made the second score on a 70 yard explosion with some good blocking work by Randy Kennedy, Glen Oldham and Greg Henley.

The same people opened a loop for Simpson to slip 55 yards for the final score.

Defensive standouts were Conard Rowell, Ken Parker, Jeff Matheny, Sammy Don Haynes, and Curtis Simpson. "We were encouraged by the enthusiasm and hard work put forth by these boys and have sincerely enjoyed working with them this year," reported the coaches.

FFA Team Places Third At Conference

The McLean Parliamentary Procedure team received the third place banner at the FFA leadership conference held November 3 on the campus of Clarendon Jr. College.

The contest requires that the team carry out members properly execute a meeting agenda with which they are unfamiliar. The team is allotted a five minute period to review agenda sheets before beginning. Following the mock meeting, a question is directed to each boy and rating points are compiled for the group to be compared with those of others.

Wedding vows were exchanged Friday, October 5 at 7 p.m. in the First Christian Church in Pampa by Miss Glenda Holloway and Jimmy Dale (Beck) Winegeart.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holloway of Pampa, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Winegeart, who reside northeast of McLean.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was Rev. J. W. Dole of Hobart, Okla. Mrs. Barry Johnson of Amarillo, pianist, accompanied Mrs. Don Dorsette also of Amarillo as she sang "Walk Through This World With Me" "Take My Hand", "Whither Thou Goest". Other wedding selections were "Bridge Over Troubled Water" and "My Love."

Church decorations were two nine-branched candelabras with chimney glass over gold tapers flanked by two horseshoe floral arrangements with bronze and gold mums entwined with greenery and ribbon banners with the couples names.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a white-length gown of dotted swiss styled with a high neckline, long leg-of-mutton sleeves and enhanced with tiny satin buttons and a fitted waistline. The skirt gathered at the waist was complemented with a wide ruffle at the hemline. Lace and seed pearls enhanced the neckline, sleeves and hemline of the gown. Her floor length veil of illusion cascaded from a small bandeau of lace and seed pearls.

The bride carried out the tradition of something old, new, borrowed and blue. The bride's gown was designed and created by the groom's mother.

Mrs. Chris Caldwell of Amarillo, aunt of the bride was matron of honor. She was attired in a blue and white empire styled floor-length dress of organza and carried a horseshoe arrangement of miniature chrysanthemums and daisies.

James Davis of Pampa, a longtime friend of the groom served as best man and ushers were Cecil Newman of Pampa and Johnny Winegeart, brother of the groom. All male attendants wore western attire.

For the reception in the church parlor the serving table was covered with a blue satin cloth with a white lace over-lay. The centerpiece was a three branched-candelabrum with chimneys holding gold tapers with miniature mums and shasta daisies.

The four-tiered white wedding cake was decorated with an authentic gold horseshoe arch for a miniature bride and groom attired in western clothes, which was encircled with miniature gold shasta daisies.

Mrs. James Bradley of Canyon assisted at the punch bowl and Mrs. Gary Johnson of Amarillo served cake from the bridal table.

The groom's table was covered with a gold satin floral arrangement which was used at the rehearsal dinner. Mrs. Tom Kesterson and Miss Donna Winegeart, sisters of the groom presided at the table.

The guests were registered by Miss Dana Martin of Canyon.

For the wedding trip to Santa Fe and Taos, N.M. the couple wore western suits.

The couple will reside at Synder, at the Hayes Quarter Horse Ranch.

The bride is a 1971 graduate of Pampa High and attended WTSU in Canyon.

The groom attended McLean High and TSTI of Amarillo with a degree in feedlot and ranch management. Both are employed by the Hayes Quarterhorse Ranch.

Thoughts

From The Living Bible

Look at the result: You plant much but harvest little. You have scarcely enough to eat or drink, and not enough clothes to keep you warm. Your income disappears, as though you were putting it into pockets filled with holes! "Think it over," says the Lord of Hosts. "Consider how you have acted, and what has happened as a result! Then go up into the mountains and bring down timber, and rebuild my Temple, and I will be pleased with it and appear there in my glory," says the Lord.

Please Don't Call Me Reverend

Preachers among churches of Christ are often asked why they object to being called by religious titles, especially the title "Reverend." Here are my reasons:

BECAUSE nowhere in the Bible is there an example of any one wearing this title. I believe that I would be presumptuous to apply a title to myself that God has not.

BECAUSE wearing such a title is contrary to the spirit of the New Testament. We are ALL brethren in Christ if we are Christians. (James 1:9-10; Rom. 8:17). Preachers are a special class of brethren who deserve some special title to set them apart.

BECAUSE the New Testament makes no distinction between "clergy and laity." Men make this distinction without the Lord's approval. Christianity is a priesthood of the believers... 1 Peter 2:9; Rev. 1:6. We all stand equal before God and have equal access to the throne of grace. The title of honor that is denied other Christians or who may be called in such a way as to set them apart as "holy men." Christians are to be holy men and women.

BECAUSE such titles are forbidden by Jesus in Matthew 23:8-10. Yet this plain commandment of our Lord is forgotten by too many religious leaders some of whom not only wear the titles but insist upon being addressed by the titles.

BECAUSE I am only a man trying to serve God to the best of my ability according to His instructions in His Word, the Bible. The fact that some of us preach does not make us "reverends." God has not set us apart from our brethren.

So, please don't call me "Reverend." I'll be your brother, your friend, your fellow servant or just plain Jay. Don't call me "Reverend," but call me if I may be of any help to you, because I love you and want to serve you.

STATE CAPITAL

Highlights AND Sidelights

by Bill Boykin

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Outlook for a bleak winter grew steadily worse as the energy crisis mounted.

Speed limits reductions and year-around daylight savings time, recommended by President Richard Nixon, may be some of the milder results.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe, assessing the president's proposals and reaction of other states before announcing his own program, said gasoline rationing is an "eventuality that will have to be considered."

Grimmest of all was Railroad Commission Chairman Jim Langdon's forecast: "Some people in Texas are going to be cold this winter." Those who use butane, propane or electricity for their heating are the ones most likely to get the shivers, said Langdon.

Middle distillate fuels, used primarily to generate electricity—and of increasing importance due to the shortage of natural gas -- may also be in short supply as much as 400,000 barrels daily, according to Langdon's estimate.

Meanwhile, the Nixon administration altered previously-announced allocation policies to allow middle distillate suppliers to provide Texas customers diesel fuel, fuel oil and kerosene without limit through November.

Even in the reprieve from mandatory allocations, there was an implied warning to Texas electric utility companies: come December they may be running short of fuel oil, since allocation formulas are based on 1972 purchase. Most Texas utilities, used to plenty of natural gas, didn't use much fuel oil to fire their boilers in 1972.

Things apparently are going to get a lot worse before they get better on the energy front. PAY ADJUDGMENT DEFEAT ASSESSED--For the fifth time in eight years Texans voted down a pay raise for legislator and assessments of the reason why varied widely.

House Speaker Price Daniel Jr. and others concluded that the vote on the $15,000-annual pay-annual-sessions adjournment was due to "tragic events at the national level that have crushed public confidence in out political and governmental systems."

Not so, said Republican gubernatorial candidate Jim Granberry, who maintained lawmakers asked too much salary and made an error in coupling the pay raise issue with that of annual sessions.

Granberry suggested voters will approve $8,000 to $10,000 salaries and limited annual sessions with proper leadership support and a clear presentation.

At any rate, Texans undoubtedly will get to ballot on the issue again in some form after next year's constitutional convention. Most likely proposal will be creation of a commission of citizens, as recommended by the Constitutional Revision Commission, to set salaries of lawmakers and other state officials. Prospects for the kind of unlimited annual legislative sessions recommended by the Revision Commission dimmed with results of the November 6 election, COMMUNITY AFFAIRS CHIEF SWORN IN--In swearing ceremonies for Ben McDonald as executive director of the Texas Department of Community Affairs, Governor Briscoe promised that the department will stand ready with aid to local communities.

He said McDonald will have a team of experts ready at all times to go for on-the-scene help in community emergencies. A special long-distance telephone will be available for calls to the department. The Community Affairs department encompasses the significant drug abuse program, as well as such divisions as housing, child development, youth services, public employment, model cities, local government personnel and a number of others.

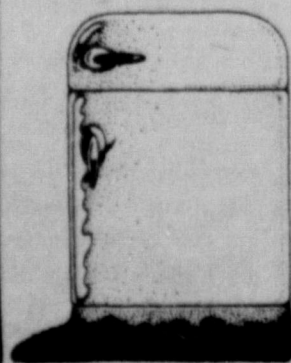

In naming attorney McDonald, the Governor said the former Corpus Christi mayor represented the dynamic leadership the Community Affairs Department needs. NEW INSURANCE HEARING SET--Life insurance policy price disclosure and cost comparisons will be considered at a public hearing in Austin on November 27.

The State Insurance Board is then expected to review a model rule covering "life insurance interest-adjusted cost comparison indexes." While the Insurance Board does not set prices of life insurance policies, it does police misleading and deceptive sales practices. Board Chairman Joe Christie said calculation of life insurance costs through the cash-surrender value doesn't always show true cost to purchasers.

GOVERNOR WILL GET REPORTS--Gov. Dolph Briscoe talked about two important study reports forthcoming from the Texas Research League -- at that group's annual meeting last week.

He will soon receive a report on the impact of the federal welfare law on mental reorganization study for the Governor's office.

Another study is being prepared by the research organization for the Legislative Property Tax Committee on "state school financing."

"The legislative committee has asked TRL to prepare a plan to estimate property values in all Texas school districts," the Governor said.

During his annual talk before the statewide group of businessmen, he discussed the need for a "zero" base budgeting system for the state, and changes in the constitution to strengthen local units of government.

Briscoe talked about the energy crisis -- blaming the shortage of natural gas on the artificial "price" set on gas by the federal government.

"The crisis can be solved best by industry -- not by government," he added. "The people of Texas are interested in 'less governmental' intervention into their affairs. And," he concluded, "they are not interested in any new taxes."

IN THE COURTS--

The Supreme Court upheld an intermediate court decision that a Houston fireman's family was entitled to death benefits and disability payments following his illness and death in 1969. The High Court said a fireman need not prove the actual medical cause of his disability to establish his eligibility for such benefits.

A Lubbock murder conviction and 10-year prison sentence were affirmed by the Court of Criminal Appeals, which ruled admissible a Texas Ranger's testimony that the defendant confessed the shooting to him.

PEANUT PROGRAM CHANGE OPPOSED -- Proposed changes in the federal peanut price support program drew fire from Governor Briscoe and others.

Briscoe zeroed in on transfer of supervisory functions from the Peanut Growers Association to the U.S. Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service State and local offices. He also criticized revision of sales policies so no sales could be made at less than 115 per cent of the loan rate.

Aoudad Sheep Not Really A Sheep

Not that it really makes any difference but what is popularly known as the aou-dad "sheep" is not really a sheep.

Before proud aoudad trophy owners rip down their prizes, let us explain that the aoudad is a member of the genus Ammotragus which is closely related to both true domestic and wild sheep as well as goats.

Such a pedigree should not make the aoudad or Barbary sheep any less prized
 by sportsmen.

Aoudad sheep hunting is one of the most challenging sports in Texas. Unlike deer and antelope, aoudad do not have any large patches of white on their bodies to aid
 the hunter in sighting the animals.

A native of the Atlas Mountains in northern Africa, some 44 of these sheep were first released in 1957 in the Panhandle's Palo Dura Canyon.

The hunt is physically demanding and in some instances the kill is just the beginning of hard work if no pack animals are available to haul out a 3--pound ram.

According to a questionnaire sent to some 900 aoudad
 hunters by the New aoudad meat was good if cared for properly.

Responses ranged from "better than either deer, antelope or elk" to "everyone took a helping of both roast beef and barbary sheep at a recent lodge dinner and those who returned for seconds took the Barbary sheep."

The New Mexico survey
 also found that 94 percent of the hunters would hunt aoudad
 again if they had the opportunity and 73 percent of them
 regarded the aoudad as an excellent game animal.

There are now an estimated 3,217 aoudad in Texas and only the approximately 600
 animals in the Palo Dura Canyon area are considered game animals by the Parks and Wildlife Department and regulated as such.

Aoudad season in this portion of Texas is Nov. 10-16,
 limit of one sheep per season
 by permit only

Elsewhere in the state there are no closed seasons or bag limits.

Prior to introduction of aou-dad in the Palo Dura, the Panhandle had only a few species of wildlife to attract big game hunters. Some mule and white-tailed deer lived around the perimeter of the canyon, but the population was small and little hunted.

Food habits of the big sheep
 indicate that it can compete with both mule deer and cattle.
 However, the aoudad browses
 the more difficult and rugged areas of the canyon. Mule deer usually stay on the gentler slopes and cattle seldom venture at all onto the treacherous sides.

Barbary sheep or aoudad
 are remarkably disease-free
 in both the wild and captivity.
 New Mexico studies show that of 100 species shot and examined only one -- and old sheep -- was in poor health.
 Potential predators include cougars, coyotes and bobcats
 but no instances of predation on the well-armed sheep have been recorded.

Adapted to both heat and cold, aoudad have the curious habit of digging in soft, moist sand with their horns to dissipate heat.

The horns have small ridges which seem to increase the surface area much like the fins of a radiator.

W. E. Beck, J. P. Attend Schooling

Four justices of the peace
 from Gray county were among the 72 judges who participated in a regional 20-hour
 in-service training school
 held in Amarillo Oct. 23-26.

The training school was held under the auspices of the Texas Justice of the Peace
 Training Center, headquartered at Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos. It was the second in a series of 10 which will be held throughout the state.

The justice of the peace training program is part of the State Criminal Justice Plan and is funded by the Governor's Criminal Justice Council.

The in-service training school was designed to help satisfy judicial training requirements set forth by the state legislature. As a result of bills passed by the 62nd and 63rd legislatures, justices of the peace must complete a 40 hour course in the performance of their duties
 within one year of taking office and then complete one 20-hour course each year
 thereafter.

Record Prairie Chicken Harvest

A record 759 prairie chicken
 were harvested in the two-day
 Oct. 20-21 season in 12 Panhandle and Permian Basin Counties.

According to J. D. Peer,
 Parks and Wildlife Department information officer in Lubbock, this is more birds
 than the previous estimated high of some 500 birds in 1971.

Last year's harvest was 390 prairie chickens during the brief season.

"There were a lot of birds in this area, said Peer, and cooperation between hunters
 and landowners was excellent.

Only seven game violations
 were filed by department
 wardens during the two days of hunting. Six were for failure to check birds at one of the Parks and Wildlife Department check stations
 and one other hunting citation.

"One rancher who has lived in the area since 1936," said Peer, "told me that this is the most prairie chickens he has seen since he started ranching."

Mrs. W. E. Kennedy entered the North West Texas hospital in Amarillo on Sunday, Nov. 4 for test and treatments.

Little heat is produced in the horns but they serve as conductors.

Driving their horns into moist sand helps in removing heat by conduction.

Tough, adaptable animals
 these aoudad.

COMPENSATOR LIQUID FEED
 All liquid supplements aren't created equal.
 Compensator can outperform other supplements that guarantee the same analysis.
 It contains COMPEN,* a patented ammonium polyphosphate that outperforms even more costly sources of phosphorous. Its greater sequestering ability increases mineral availability and maintains the highest vitamin stability.
 Sulfur is added to give Compensator the right nitrogen-sulfur ratio. Its pH is nearly neutral to match the rumen pH. (Which also prevents equipment corrosion.) And Compensator is made in a way that prevents over consumption,
 and releases nutrients slowly for maximum utilization.
 It's no accident Compensator is a better liquid
 feed. Allied Chemical makes sure of it.
 Compensator is made to be the

Feedlot Waste As A Fertilizer

By Jim Valentine
Throughout recorded history the use of animal waste has made an important contribution to domestic agriculture. Within the last few decades commercial incorganic fertilizers have come into prominence as a source of plant nutrients. Without doubt commercial fertilizer will retain this position but since their price is increasing and inadequate supplies are in prospect it is time to take a new look at feedlot waste as a source of plant food.

The USDA Southwestern Great Plains Research Center at Bushland has been studying the effects of feedlot waste since 1968. Their chemical analyses of material from 23 feedlots show that on an average 10 tons of manure are much higher than those previously reported for barnyard manures. The material varied in nitrogen content with extremes being 226 and 392 lbs. N in 10 tons.

Their research indicates that about half of the nitrogen present in 10 tons of manure, or some 120 lbs. of nitrogen, is available to the first sorghum crop. Sixty lbs. of the remaining nitrogen will be available the second year and 30 lbs. nitrogen will be available the third year.

The rate at which phosphorus becomes available for plant use appears to be similar to that of nitrogen. Potassium in the material is readily available. In consideration of lesser crop removal and the slower mobility of phosphorus and potassium when compared to nitrogen, it is highly probable that application rates sufficient to supply adequate nitrogen will be more than adequate to supply these elements even on soils known to be deficient.

Ten to 15 tons applied anytime after harvest and just ahead of cultivation is generally adequate for high yield of irrigated sorghum or corn. Additional commercial fertilizer is not likely to be needed.

The possibility of introducing weeds from seeds contained in the waste warrants consideration. Even distribution and good incorporation into the soil soon after application will insure best results.

Kathy Wyatt Has First Birthday

Little Miss Kathy Wyatt was honored on her first birthday with a party given in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Butch Wyatt of Canadian. Kathy is the granddaughter of Lyda May Wyatt and Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Foshee of McLean.

The little birthday girl received many gifts. Birthday cake and ice cream was served to Kathy, her mother and daddy, Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Foshee, Lyda Mae Wyatt of McLean, Mr. and Mrs. LeWayne Foshee, Tonya and Kristy Wyatt of Pampa, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Holland of Alanreed. A good time was had by all.

"Have you ever been troubled by diphtheria?"
"Only when I tried to spell it."

Mrs. Black: "Yesterday I almost got killed."
Mrs. Blue: "What happened?"
Mrs. Black: "I walked into an antique shop and asked, 'What's new.'"

On November 5th, we had our annual income tax Seminar in Pampa. Mike Strott, Specialist in Farm Management and income tax did a fine job of pointing out numerous income tax tips. Ways to avoid income tax, not evade.

The 1974 edition of the Farmer's tax Guide will be off the press soon. I will have copies at my office. I will also bring a supply and leave at the McLean News.

The best way to save tax dollars is to pick up one of these guides and read it cover to cover. The fact you have someone else make out your return is the best reason I can think of for your studying the tax guides.

We have a long list of income tax tips which we have in memograph form. If you will drop a card to me I'd be happy to mail one of these to you.

MIL O HARVEST

We had the smallest acreage of dryland milo this year we have had in years. This was due to the 75 days of extremely dry weather at planting time. We estimate about half of both the dryland and irrigated milo has been harvested in Gray County. Over the state, over three-fourths of the milo has been harvested.

Yields on the irrigated land is running from 5000 lbs. per acre up to over 8000 lbs. The wide variation is due to date of planting. Planting date was affected by moisture conditions.

WHEAT PASTURE

A good rain would produce more wheat pasture than you have seen in years. In the absence of rain there will be very little pasture. Here is the key to the price of stocker calves. From Kansas North earlier rains kept farmers out of the field and all the wheat is very late. There will be little or no wheat pasture in that area. We probably have largest and most promising pasture acreage prospects than we have had in years. By the time it dried up after a 2 inch rain there would be four times as much pasture as there is cattle to put on it. This would cause an unprecedented jump in the price of light calves. If it doesn't rain, don't expect stockers to do anything until shortly before the grass gets here.
