

Conviction Of Lewis Upheld By High Court

WASHINGTON, March 6. (AP)—The Supreme Court upheld 7 to 2 today the contempt convictions of John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers for refusing to call off their soft coal strike last November.

In an extraordinary midweek ruling that caught the nation by surprise the high court in effect gave the Truman administration a smashing victory in its titanic struggle with Lewis and his miners.

Soviets Assert Borders Won't Open For UN

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., March 6. (AP)—Pessimistic security council delegates, groping for a solution to global control of atomic energy, pondered today a Russian assertion that Soviet frontiers never would be thrown open to unlimited international inspection nor Soviet factories allowed to operate under United Nations control.

Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet deputy foreign minister, made these points clear in a major policy speech, devoted principally to an outspoken attack on the American control plan.

Gromyko said the United States proposals, already accepted by all members of the 12-nation atomic energy commission except Russia and Poland, were contrary to the basic economic and national interests of other nations and "directed against the independence of other states."

The Russian delegate insisted that he was in favor of strict and effective international control, but not on the broad terms laid down by the United States. While repeatedly assailing the American provisions in a 78-minute speech, Gromyko did not state how far his country was willing to go toward "strict" control.

The United States wants an atomic development authority with full powers of inspection and control of atomic matters everywhere. Delegates generally reserved immediate comment pending a study of the text, but it was apparent that many envisioned major difficulty in clearing up the inspection-control problem in the face of the Russian stand.

Coming almost on the eve of the Moscow Conference, the speech was viewed as especially significant.

General Goodman Of Waco Succumbs

BRIDGETON, Me., March 6. (AP)—Brigadier General John F. Goodman, USA (Ret.) 55, Waco, native and veteran of both World Wars, died today after a short illness.

General Goodman, who returned here last fall after service in the Aleutian Islands, was a 1916 graduate of the US Military Academy and won five decorations in World War I.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Zita Goodman, and two sons, John F. Jr., of Waco, and Thomas of Bridgeton. The family said burial would be in the National Cemetery at Arlington, Va.

Annual Election Of Trustees Set

A formal order setting the annual trustee election for Saturday, April 5, was issued by the Big Spring independent district school board in session Wednesday night. Simultaneously, two of three men whose terms expire this year filed as candidates for reelection. They are John E. Hogan and John Coffee, both of whom have gone on the board in recent months by appointment, to fill unexpired terms.

George White, president of the board, whose term also expires this year, said he did not choose to submit his name for another term. Balloting in the trustee election will be done at the city hall, and Robert Stripling was named as election judge, with authority to pick his own assistants.

The board approved a recommendation of Supt. W. C. Blankenship that teachers be authorized to attend the West Texas State Teachers association convention in Lubbock on March 14. Classes will be suspended for the day, and students will have a holiday.

The board approved Blankenship as director of the scholastic census, which currently is under way. Other business discussion was devoted to athletic matters, principally to location of the proposed baseball field which, under a community project, will ultimately become school property.

Financial statement presented to the board showed total receipts of

US Raps Red 'Interference' In Hungary Affairs

Sharp Note Says Russians Caused Political Crisis

WASHINGTON, March 6. (AP)—The United States today charged Soviet Russia with causing a political crisis by an "unjustified interference in Hungarian internal affairs."

A sharp note, delivered to the Russian, British, and Hungarian governments, and to the Soviet Military Commander in Budapest, said that the Soviet high command by direct intervention has brought political difficulties in Hungary to a crisis.

An official summary of the note handed Moscow as Secretary of State Marshall traveled toward the Soviet capital, said this government deems "unwarranted" charges filed against Parliamentary Deputy Bela Kovacs, who was arrested last week by Russian soldiers.

Kovacs until recently was Secretary General of the Smallholders Party, the moderate majority group in the Hungarian parliament, which the Communists and other parties have tried to oust.

The State Department's note added: "The pattern of recent political developments in Hungary appears to threaten the rights of the people to live under a government of their own free choosing, for it involves foreign interference in the domestic affairs of Hungary in support of repeated aggressive attempts by Hungarian minority elements to coerce the popularly-elected majority."

"The United States government is opposed to this attempt to nullify the electoral mandate given by the Hungarian people."

GOPs Changing Name Of Dam

WASHINGTON, March 6. (AP)—House Republicans get their chance today to set up a monument to the last GOP President—Herbert Hoover—and at the same "right a great wrong."

After 14 years, they were ready to designate mammoth Boulder Dam on the Colorado River Hoover Dam once more.

Senate approval and President Truman's signature still will be required.

Okayed only Tuesday by the House Public Lands Committee, the name-changing resolution won a quick place on the chamber's calendar for a vote today.

To many Republican members the action brought an opportunity they have been waiting for since 1933.

That was the year Harold L. Ickes, President Roosevelt's secretary of the Interior, discarded the Hoover label and announced that thereafter the dam would be given its "original and proper" name, Boulder Dam.

Witnesses before the Public Lands group noted that Congress never had got around to naming the dam formally. Since its conception, the title has depended upon the wishes of the current Secretary of the Interior.

President's Waco Talk Warns Of Trade Barriers

Cold Weather Keeps Crowd From Gathering

Secret Service Men Swarmed On Campus At Baylor

WACO, March 6. (AP)—A cold, blowing rain greeted President Truman in Waco as he stepped from his plane at 9:57 a. m. (CST) today.

It was in sharp contrast to the warm sunshine of Mexico City, where he had spent the last three days in a history-making visit.

Truman, sitting in the back of the plane, was seen grinning broadly and waving as the Sacred Cow taxied up the slick runway.

The plane moved to the control tower and halted. Secret service men swarmed to the field.

Attorney General Tom Clark, Senator Tom Connally and Pat Neff, president of Baylor, were at the field waiting.

The three entered the plane, and remained about three minutes. Then the President appeared at the door of the plane. A ramp was moved up, and the big black Cadillac, the presidential car brought from Washington, drove up to the ramp.

Gov. Beauford Jester of Texas walked up and shook hands with Mr. Truman.

The President, Connally, Clark, Neff and Jester got into the official car, and escorted by secret service men and highway patrolmen, began their nine mile drive to Baylor.

The presidential car, accompanied by a parade of several other large machines and escorted by a motorcycle brigade of officers, drove on rain-slick, narrow highways to downtown Waco.

The street jammed and broadened into a major boulevard.

The crowd was far below expectations. Officials blamed it on the blustery, cold and wet weather.

Some stood under umbrellas, some in doorways, but many braved the weather to stand on sidewalks to get a good view of the President.

A crowd already was gathered at Waco Hall, on the Baylor campus, where the President was due. By 10:30 a. m., the hall was four-fifths full. All who entered the hall had to have either invitations or passes.

Secret service men were everywhere.

The stage, obviously hastily decorated, was draped with flags. Many men in caps and gowns were standing about. Some walked up to the stage, waiting for the presidential entry.

President Truman arrived in the hall. The men in caps and gowns, inside near the stage, formed two long lines, ready to march onto the stage.

Several thousand people were mobbed outside, unable to get in. Secret service men and other officers swarmed everywhere.

Two men held their children on their shoulders to enable them to look through the doorway and get a glimpse of the President, smiling and shaking hands.

The capped and gowned men, faculty members of Baylor, walked

WACO CAUGHT WITH ITS BUNTING DOWN

The sudden change in plans, caused by the inclement weather, caught Waco with its bunting down.

All arrangements had been made to have the award ceremony and speech at the open air Union Bowl. When temperatures dropped below freezing and a bitter 20 mile wind whipped sleet and rain through the city, the event was moved indoors to the school's auditorium.

Pennants, bunting and other decorations had to be erected hastily. Workers were still hard at it when the president's plane landed at the airport, nine miles away.

"Oh, what a mess," one usher said. Doors were opened at 9 a. m., but were closed when the president arrived.

The steps up which the president walked to the stage were quickly erected—but remained unpainted. They were of pine. Eighty Second Division soldiers guarded the back door.

More Snow Coming, Weatherman Says

The elements handed Big Spring and surrounding communities a surprise package this morning.

Sleet that started falling sometime before daylight had covered the ground with a mantle of white long before most of the people had awakened. Shortly after 7 a. m., the sleet turned to snow—a "wet" snow that kept up throughout the morning.

Farmers and ranchers alike, whose land had been drying up for lack of moisture, were hopeful that the fall would continue throughout the day.

The rain gauge at the US weather bureau at the airport measured the fall at one inch at 12:15 p. m. The moisture content was .07 of an inch at that time, one meteorologist stated.

Ranchers are being kept busy feeding their stock. Cattle and sheep are expected to withstand the snow well, however, unless the bottom drops out of the thermometer.

M. R. Turner, Coahoma school superintendent, says that his section had been visited by something like two inches of snow during the morning but the slick roads did not keep the school buses from operating.

At Forsan, an estimated one and a half inches fell during the morning and it was still coming down at noon. Gerald Anderson, one of the teachers, could blame slick roads for a minor accident he had before reaching the school house. His vehicle slipped off the pavement as he was leaving the highway and crashed into a fence. He escaped injury but a door on the machine was battered.

Snow fell all morning at Ackerly, where moisture had long been needed. All school buses were running, however, and general traffic had not been restricted.

No commercial planes had landed at the Municipal airport from 6:30 a. m. until noon. An American Airlines ship which put in during the early morning was still in the air. Continental and Pioneer airlines both reported all traffic through Big Spring had been halted.

Continental's northbound flight was reportedly stopped at San Antonio and Pioneer planes were down at various places along the line. All lines expected to resume flights sometime this afternoon, however.

Snow blanketed most of west and north Texas, extending as far east as Dallas, with freezing rain and sleet falling in many other sections.

The weather bureau reported that

Science Foundation Urged By Patterson

WASHINGTON, March 6. (AP)—Secretary of War Patterson, testifying before the House Commerce Committee, urged that Congress create a national science foundation to direct basic research. The committee is studying several differing bills which would do this.

The Senate Banking Committee, inquiring into the shortage of newsprint, received a report from Charles F. Brannan, assistant secretary of agriculture, that prospects are "highly favorable for early establishment of one or more pulp and paper enterprises in Alaska."

Bus Employes Strike

CUMBERLAND, Md., March 6. (AP)—The 90 drivers and mechanics of Cumberland's only city bus line went on strike today and thousands of workers had to walk or hitch rides to their jobs.

Spotlight Is Shared By Neff Of Baylor

WACO, March 6. (AP)—President Truman warned the nation today that the alternative to lowering of international trade barriers is "economic war."

The president spoke after a parade through Waco a few minutes following his arrival from Mexico.

Dr. J. T. Harrington, 89-year-old chairman of the Baylor board of trustees, introduced Mr. Truman as a candidate for the award, then conferred the honorary degree.

Neff, president of Baylor, spoke briefly. One sentence of his prepared text, saying that Mr. Truman was so much a southerner that his mother said she would not sleep in Lincoln's bed at the White House, was deleted at the request, apparently, of the president's aides.

Neff told the President he had sent flowers to his mother in Independence, Mo.

The President, as he began his address, said he was touched by the reference to his mother.

Before the President spoke, Senator Tom Connally (D-Tex.) addressed the crowd. He said he had known Mr. Truman as vice-president and as president, and that in his present position he is crystallizing the thought of America to believe in world peace without ever losing the "common touch."

Speaking at Baylor University upon his return from a "good neighbor" visit to Mexico, the President appealed for full Congressional support of the reciprocal trade agreements program and the forthcoming Geneva negotiations.

Because "We are the giant of the economic world" of today, Mr. Truman said, "we can lead the nations to economic peace or we can plunge them into economic war."

"In such a war," he continued, "nobody wins" and a policy of economic "isolationism" could result in another depression.

Life Insurance Bill Is Tabled

AUSTIN, March 6. (AP)—The House of Representatives today tabled an amended Senate bill which would have authorized life insurance companies to invest 5 per cent of their admitted assets in building apartments of not less than 20 units to be disposed of within 20 years.

Opponents scored a decisive victory with an 81 to 45 vote to table, which had the effect of killing the measure.

Chief argument voiced against the bill was that it would shut out the veteran wishing to build his own home instead of renting an apartment.

Rep. Dallas Blankenship of Dallas, House sponsor of the bill by Sen. Alton York of Bryan, contended that present prices make it impossible for the veteran to build. He said the great majority of veterans desire to rent.

After a routine session, the Senate adjourned until 10 a. m. Monday.

Grain Shipment Total Increases

GALVESTON, March 6. (AP)—Galveston shipped 8,859,730 bushels of wheat, corn and milo during February—the highest monthly total in 18 years—the office of the grain inspection department, Galveston Cotton Exchange and Board of Trade said today.

Update New York and New England were fighting clear today of the four-day snowfall that bogged down travel, isolated some communities and closed many rural schools, but late winter was bringing new troubles to other areas.

In Maryland, 600 miles of secondary roads still were closed and two eastern shore fishermen died of exposure.

Kansas highway crews reported trouble keeping roads open as snow drifted deeply on the western prairies. Up to five inches of snow fell in parts of Kansas and Missouri.

A rotary plow bucked 15-foot drifts trying to reach Oswego, N.Y., whose 22,000 residents, isolated for a fourth day, were running out of milk and bread.

The clearing weather also helped the opening of storm-blocked roads in Pennsylvania, where several towns had been isolated.

Million Long Ton Of Food Unloaded

SHANGHAI, March 6. (AP)—The millionth long ton of food sent to China by UNRRA was unloaded at Shanghai Wednesday as the freighter Paul David Jones discharged a consignment of wheat from the United States. A few more shipments will complete UNRRA's China food program.

New Fuel Crisis Slated In Britain

LONDON, March 6. (AP)—A new fuel crisis threatened storm-battered Britain today.

Ice and mountainous snows knotted the nation's transportation system and slashed critically needed coal production. The Daily Herald, organ of the ruling labor party, forecast "further checks" on fuel-short industry unless coal stocks get through.

A two day blizzard that died out last night had blocked 120 highways, stopped all movement on forty branch lines of the Great Western Railway alone, and entirely isolated thirty-three South Wales mines, which went out of production. Attendance at other mines there and in the midlands was cut by 50 percent.

Prime Minister Attlee called a meeting of his emergency "coal cabinet" today.

Tiny Car Loses Race With Stork

SHERMAN, March 6. (AP)—C. W. Little, 33, Sherman electrician, and his 700-pound two-cylinder automobile lost a race with the stork at 12:30 a. m. today when Little's 160-pound wife gave birth to a daughter in the tiny vehicle less than a block from St. Vincent's hospital.

The race began at the Little home, two miles southeast of Sherman. Little drove at a maximum speed of 15 miles an hour. The trip was held up by a freight train but State Highway Patrolman A. D. Lummlis and I. M. Rains later gave aid by clearing traffic.

When the midjet car arrived at the hospital, the infant already was crying.

Margaret Truman To Make Radio Singing Debut In Detroit Monday

WASHINGTON, March 6. (AP)—Miss Truman and her teacher planned her singing career "long before Mr. Truman became President of the United States," and they have worked long hours together perfecting Margaret's voice.

The President's daughter will appear on the Sunday evening hour of the American Broadcasting company network.

The announcement was made at a news conference held by Miss Reatha Odum, secretary to Mrs. Truman, who read a prepared announcement saying that: "Miss Truman does not want to base her career upon the fact that she is the daughter of the President—she wishes to be accepted as a singer on her own merit, and in the same manner in which any other aspiring American singer would approach her career."

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcenate (formerly called Barcol Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloated disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

American Reporter Writes First Classical Japanese Love Song

TOKYO, March 6. (U.P.) The first classical love song in Japanese history with lyrics that rhyme has been written by an American correspondent. It is being presented in recitals, recordings and by radio to an interested public by Japan's foremost exponent of Nagauta, or classical ballads.

'Crackpots' Did Heroic Deeds During Last War

WASHINGTON, March 6. (U.P.)—Dr. Walter V. Bingham, chief personnel research psychiatrist of the army, said today that some of the most heroic deeds of the last war were performed by neurotics and "crackpots."

He said one of the biggest personnel mistakes made in World War II was the attempt to cull out of the army neurotics or persons expected to crack under the strains of war.

"We all have our breaking point," Dr. Bingham said. "You can't possibly screen out all of those who would have a neurosis during the course of a war. If you did you would have a very small army."

He said it was much more important to have officers trained to know when a man had reached the breaking point and send him back for a good 48-hour rest.

Bingham is a short, wiry man with receding grey hair and piercing dark eyes that peer out from under shaggy grey eyebrows. Otherwise he looks like a college dean.

The psychologist said a brief rest behind the lines for a man in combat, who was near the breaking point, could save the government the expense of paying for 30 years of treatment of a psychotic.

The army has worked out an entirely new system of picking its officers on a scientific basis. "For the first time in personnel history, it is possible to test men under our new system and keep them from beating the game by giving false answers," Bingham said.

He explained the new system would give a higher score for frank, forthright answers of an honest, intelligent man than for an intelligent man who tries to beat the game by "fudging" on the answers.

echt's novel by the same name, which is a current best-seller in Japan. "Tokyo Romance" (the song) was translated from English into Japanese by Rokuzemon Kineya, Japan's leading Nagauta singer. Kineya is doing most of the song-plugging.

"Rhyming a Japanese love song," Kineya says, "is as revolutionary as the new constitution—but after 18 months of the occupation, Japan is ready for it."

Hoberecht (pronounced Hober-rit) in Japanese) is the first American to have a novel published in Japanese since the war. He decided it was also time to demote Japanese lyrics.

"I was shocked to discover that Japanese love songs aren't supposed to rhyme," Hoberecht says, "but I soon found out why. The word for June in Japanese is 'roku-tatsu.' The word for moon is 'tsuki.' This naturally shaped the whole course of Japanese song-writing."

Hoberecht almost chuckled the project when he found that 'love' and 'above' don't rhyme in Japanese either.

He and Kineya, however, sat down to work out the problem, and "Tokyo Romance" was the result. A sample couplet of the three-verse song reads:

"The memories that I have cannot replace
The actual thrill of your embrace."

In Japanese, these sentiments are conveyed by:
"Utakata no omoide wa itomo hakanashi
Idakereshihno yorokobini masaru"

Stock Pen Workers Tie Up Meat Plant

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 6. (AP) Strike of 300 stock pen workers at the St. Paul Union Stockyards company at nearby South St. Paul today tied up operations in three large meat packing plants when more than 5,000 workers refused to cross picket lines established shortly after the walkout started at 4 a.m. (CST).

Butcher, Stocker Cattle Move On Steady Market

Both butcher and stocker cattle moved on a steady market, with a few choice head slightly stronger, at the Big Spring Livestock Auction company's weekly sale Wednesday.

Hogs continued at fancy prices. Receipts totaled 70 head and they moved from $27.80 to $28 cwt. The firm handled 1,234 head of cattle and calves. Fat butcher yearlings ranged from 18.00 to 24.00; fat cows, 15.00-16.00; bulls, 14.00-15.80; canners and cutters 10.00-12.00.

There was a heavy demand for stocker steer calves, with the bulk of consignments bringing from 21.00-22.00 and a few odd head of choice calves went up to 24.50. One full car load of good feeder steers, averaging approximately 720 pounds, sold for 19.40.

Turner, Kennedy Elected Teacher Delegates At Meet

M. R. Turner of Coahoma, G. D. Kennedy of Forsan and Walker Bailey, county school superintendent, were elected delegates to the West Texas Teachers association meeting in last night's session of the county teachers' organization held at the courthouse.

Turner and Bailey served as representatives from Howard county at the 1946 convention. The West Texas meeting will take place at Lubbock March 14 and 15.

Alternate delegates picked by Turner, who is also president of the Howard county association, are Joe Holladay, Forsan; L. G. Fuller, Elbow; and Paul Sweatt, Coahoma. Dean Bennett, president of the Big Spring Teachers association, urged the teachers to orient the general public with the legislation introduced recently in the Texas congress to raise the minimum wage scale of teachers to $2,000 annually.

All school districts within the county were represented at the party with the exception of Hartwells and Gay Hill.

Small Craft Warning Continues On Coast

Veterans' Farm Classes Meet

COLORADO CITY, March 6. — The Veterans' Vocational Agriculture school for Mitchell County is in full swing with 50 Mitchell veterans participating and five more on the waiting list. Two classes meet for farm-ranch theory lectures and demonstrations each Tuesday night and Saturday afternoon.

Classes are held in the city-county building with Olsen A. Sweet, veterans' school co-ordinator for the county, and Ross Glover as teachers. Glover, himself a veteran, is an agriculture graduate of Texas A. and M. Sweet, former F. S. A. supervisor for the county, is a graduate of West Texas State Teachers' College, Canyon.

In addition to the class work veterans have a field trip schedule for observation of soil conservation practices and experimental farms. The experimental station at Spur was recently visited and Mitchell veterans placed orders for 4,000 lbs. of certified early heifer seed after that field trip. Visits are scheduled in the near future Lubbock, and the one in Howard county.

Livestock teams from the school have also visited several spring livestock shows, including exhibits at Sweetwater, Snyder, San Angelo, and Colorado City. At the Mitchell County show they took highest honors of any judging team with two men scoring more than 800 from a possible 600 points. With prize money given by the Colorado City Jaycees the VA students plan a social for March 18 in city-county building.

Directing plans for the affair, which will fetter their wives and sweethearts, are the class officers. President of class one is Edwin Carlock. Vice-president is A. K. McCarley, Jr., with Jay Hooks as secretary-treasurer. Officers of the second class are Gwan Strange, president; Charles Stevens, vice-president; D. N. Smith, treasurer; and Maurice Watson, secretary.

Sweet, co-ordinator, is busy working on master plan and individual plans in co-operation with the Scurry county co-ordinator, Haskell Beard. Mitchell veterans are being taught to run terrace lines. Soil conservation practices have also included the distribution of mineral fertilizer, the study of the planting of vetch and rye. Emphasis on better feeding practices and the control of parasites is the current livestock study program.

"The men are enthusiastic and their attendance and interest is running high," the co-ordinator said here this week. Veterans' school for welding and auto-tractor mechanics are also contemplated with Noble Walker as teacher. A third class in agriculture will be started in the near future.

Mauer Selected Coach At Point

WEST POINT, N. Y., March 6. (AP)—Johnny Mauer, whose won-loss average for eight years as Tennessee basketball coach was .750, is Army's new cage mentor, succeeding Stuart K. Holcomb, who next week will assume his new job as head football coach at Purdue.

Mauer's appointment was announced yesterday by Col. Lawrence McC. (Biff) Jones, graduate manager of athletics at the military academy.

Rabbit Skin Exports Boom

SYDNEY, Australia, March 6. (AP)—Rabbit skin exports, which have increased in value since 1939 from $1,398,000 to $20,560,000 a year, are now Australia's sixth most valuable product in the overseas market, Australian Government statistics reveal.

Only exports of greater value in the year ended June 30, 1946, were wool, $205,380,000; meat, $39,120,000; flour $35,860,000; butter, $32,600,000; wheat, $20,792,000.

The United States which uses the skins for felt hat manufacture, was the largest buyer, followed by Canada and the United Kingdom.

Big sheep farmers still class the rabbits, which eat out their pastures, as their worst pest, but smaller sheep farmers find them more profitable than sheep. Good rabbit trappers have been earning from $163 to $244 a week.

Florida Commission Cancels Advertising

LAKELAND, Fla., March 6. (AP)—The Florida citrus commission has cancelled $227,500 worth of advertising commitments because of anticipated reduced revenues caused by adverse weather conditions and tin can shortages.

The commission cancelled $120,000 worth of advertising in January after the long drought reduced contemplated shipments. Its original budget, adopted last fall, was $2,400,000.

Funds for advertising Florida citrus are derived from per-box taxes on boxes of fruit.

Convicted Of Assault

DALHART, March 6. (AP)—A Dallas county jury last night convicted Vernon Carl McDaniel, 39, of criminally assaulting a seven-year-old Dalhart girl in late January and sentenced him to 30 years and a day in prison.

Game Law Plan Moves To House

AUSTIN, March 6. (AP)—A revolutionary proposal to give the State Game, Fish and Oyster Commission inland regulatory powers new vested in the legislature survived a searching committee examination and moved to the floor of the House today.

It would empower the commission to set up regulations for open and closed seasons for hunting and fresh water fishing over the state. It would give the agency authority to determine bag limits and methods and means of taking all wildlife, except salt water fish.

The bill by Rep. Claud Gilmer of Rocksprings, was recommended for passage after he agreed to 13 amendments, most of them washing from it any hint of control over salt water fishing, either sport or commercial.

If finally enacted, it would erase from the statute books approximately 600 local game, fish and trapping laws which have long confused sportsmen over the state, but leave in force all laws bearing on salt water fishing.

The corn crop in Iowa, the greatest American corn state, averaged more than 50 bushels to the acre in the years 1943, 1944, and 1945.

Tojo Gave Orders To Army 'On Spot'

TOKYO, March 6. (AP)—Hideki Tojo, former premier and war minister of Japan, "made it a practice to give instructions to the Japanese Army on the spot" while touring occupied countries in 1943, the International Military Tribunal was told today.

This testimony, by Kumalchi Yamamoto, former vice minister of the Greater East Asia Affairs Ministry, conflicted with previous defense assertions that the civil government in Tokyo had no authority over Japanese armies in the field.

Among those who "freely expressed opinions to Tojo and myself" during the 1943 tour, Yamamoto said, were puppet President Jose Laurel, Jorge Vargas and Benigno Aquino of the Philippines; Prince Regent Wan Wat, Prime Minister Pibul and Foreign Minister Bisto of Siam, and Ba Maw of Burma.

Life insurance statistics show that deaths of airline passengers per one-million passenger miles decreased from four and eight-tenths in 1935 to one and two-tenths in 1946.

Fly In The Compulsory Ointment

In many minds, there has been an easy feeling that compulsory arbitration would be the solution to labor-management difficulties. Of course, labor was the first to shy from this possibility, and out of this timidity, many from the management side pressed for the "reform." Now, however, it is interesting to note that the heretofore arch-conservative National Association of Manufacturers also is taking a very pointed stand against the possibility of compulsory arbitration.

The reason is simple. Business has no assurance that it would win its case or that the decision would be acceptable to it in any court of arbitration. The same might be said for labor. Hence, both are hedging on that possibility.

It probably is not without good reason, for the best way to settle difficulties between the two is for labor and management to sit down across the table in a good and open-minded spirit with the honest intention to reach as nearly a just and sound solution as possible. This, however, cannot be done if either side is obstinately selfish in its pre-conceived notions; if one is determined to break the other; if the desire to conciliate is totally absent.

There is a possibility that there may be machinery set up for compulsory arbitration of basic industries and services where stoppage in any of these fields would cripple the nation seriously. There may well be some overhauling of existing regulations to give employer and employee greater equality in bargaining and responsibility for contracts there may even be some revision of methods and time of balloting for strike votes. Compulsory arbitration across the board, however, is not probable.

1040 Long-Form Changed Slightly

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the ninth of 12 stories explaining who must do what about filing his income tax return.

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Figuring your income tax on the 1040 Long-form is a little different from last year.

Last year you had to figure separately your normal tax and your surtax and then add them to get the total tax due.

This year, for purposes of figuring tax, the normal tax and the surtax have been combined into one.

What you do now can be told simply in four main steps:

1. From your total income, you deduct your expenses.
2. For what's left, you deduct your exemptions.
3. To what's left, you apply the combined normal tax and surtax.
4. Then you deduct 5 per cent from the amount of tax. What's left is the full tax you owe.

If your income was $5,000 or more, you can take the $500 standard deduction allowed everyone for personal expenses. You don't itemize.

If your deductions were more than $500, you can claim them but must itemize them on Page 3 of the Long-form.

People—whether less than $5,000 income—who use the 1040 Long-form must itemize their deductions on Page 3. They can't take the standard $500 deduction.

Here's how to fill out the Long-form, using an average person. Before you start, have beside you the government's instruction sheet which goes with the Long-form.

You, married, had two children. Your only 1946 income was $8,000 salary. Turn to Page 3 of the Long-form where it says "tax computation."

Line 1—Write your income, $8,000. Line 2—Write your standard deduction, $500. Subtract the $500 from the $8,000 and write the result, $7,500 on Line 3.

Line 4—Write $2,000, your total exemptions, since they were $500 each for your self, wife, and two children. Subtract that from the $7,500 on Line 3 and write the result, $5,500, on Line 5.

(That $5,500 is your taxable income. It's the income you have left after subtracting your deductions and exemptions from your total $8,000 income.)

Turn to the instruction sheet, to the tax-table on the bottom of Page 4. Your taxable $5,500 will be in the line where it says "over $4,000 but not over $6,000."

Right across from that bracket you see that the tax on the first $4,000 of your taxable $5,500 is $840, plus 26 per cent of the remaining $1,500, or $390.

Adding the $390 to the $840, you write the total tax, $1,230, on Line 6, Page 4 of the Long-form. But that isn't the tax you have to pay. There's another step.

You take 5 per cent of that $1,230—it's $61.50—and write the $61.50 on Line 7. Subtract the $61.50 from the $1,230 on Line 6 and write the result, $1,168.50 on Line 8.

That $1,168.50 is your total tax you must pay. But there are a few more steps.

During 1946 you had some raises which brought your total salary to $8,000. Those raises upset the total tax you had figured—at the beginning of 1946—you'd owe for the whole year.

Your boss in 1946 had withheld—say—$900 in taxes from your salary.

And in 1946 you had paid in quarterly installments $100 on the full tax you estimated, back at the beginning of 1946, you'd owe for the year.

So in 1946 you had paid the government $1,000 in taxes—$900 withheld and $100 in estimated payments—but now you find your full tax, because of the raises, is $1,168.50.

So turn to Page 1 of the Long-form and on Line 7 you enter your total tax, $1,168.50. Under that, on the proper lines, you write the $900 tax withheld from you and the $100 estimated tax you paid.

Subtracting that $1,000 tax already paid from the full tax, $1,168.50, you write $168.50, the tax still owed, on Line 9.

You must pay that $168.50 in full when you file your return, in person or by mail.

You're through except for answering the rest of the very simple questions on Page 1. Keep a duplicate copy of the return, in case you have to refer to it some time.

Middle Class Squeeze

HAVANA. (AP)—Inflationary boom times are enriching Cuba's big sugar planters and creating a delirious heyday for its happy-go-lucky "obrerros"—laborers—but its small middle class is being squeezed dry by rising costs.

From the fifteenth-century arrival of the gold-seeking Spaniards Cuba has been a country of fantastic contrasts between extreme wealth and barest poverty.

Members of the slowly evolving middle class in Cuba feel their nation's growing sugar prosperity is grinding them back down toward the level of mass indigence.

"An obrero before the war made only about $1 a day," complained one office worker. "Now he gets $5. He has more money in his pockets than he knows what to do with. He lives in the same house he did before, in an old shanty and a pair of trousers."

"We of the middle class, however, must dress better. Yet our wages have risen much more slowly than those of the field workers. To buy a good pair of American shoes that cost me $8 before the war I now must pay $18. Government clerks got $50 a month five years ago. Now they get only $75 to $80—not nearly enough to make up for the rise in prices."

In Cuba, as in the United States, the onetime prestige of the white collar is being outweighed by the financial advantages of overalls.

The warborne wealth is reflected in intense building activity along Havana's famed Quinta Avenida which passes through the exclusive Miramar residential district to Marianao beach.

Hundreds of spacious plaster-covered brick villas costing $50,000 or more are going up. For $10,000 you get something that looks like a glorified chicken coop with windows.

The city boasts of its facilities for the care of indigents—forty percent of the national lottery goes to charity—but children and old women beg in the streets. At night lettered figures sleep huddled in midtown doorways, just as in China and in India.

Cubans are strangers to the unbiased attitude. They have deep and violent opinions on every subject and express them with an eloquent language of the hands.

They are thoroughgoing partisans. If their favorite baseball team wins, the fans like to show their enthusiasm by tying a banner to a motorcycle and speeding through the narrow streets, cheering happily as they disembowel friend or foe.

British-French Treaty Discussed

England and France finally have signed their much discussed 50-year alliance in the dramatic setting of Imperial Dunkerque but, while the ostensible purpose of the treaty has been cited, there still is ground for much speculation as to just what might grow out of it.

We are told that it is designed to provide mutual protection against any future aggression by Germany. Similar accords are proposed with Holland, Belgium, Czechoslovakia and Poland—to encircle Germany with a new entente. Well, the desire for such a safeguard certainly is understandable, although its inauguration isn't particularly pressing in view of the fact that the Fatherland is so crippled as to be unable to make war within the fifty year period of the alliance.

Of far more immediate practicability is the projected economic pact on which statesmen of England and France are at work as a supplement to the alliance. Under this pact the economies of the two nations would be integrated—a remarkable and perhaps far-reaching development.

So we see these comrades in arms, but rivals in trade, zealously seeking to coordinate their economies for mutual advantage.

Many will find this unusual situation somewhat reminiscent of that awful war crisis of 1940 when, to counter the victorious Hitlerian onslaught, British Prime Minister Churchill offered "to conclude a solemn act of union" between France and England. The constitution of the unions would "provide for joint organs of defense, foreign, financial and economic policies."

French citizens would become citizens of Britain, and Britons citizens of France. The two parliaments would be formally associated.

That was on June 16, soon after the epic withdrawal of British forces from the bloody beaches of Dunkerque and as the French were being bludgeoned to their knees by the German onslaught.

That is not to say, as Churchill projected is in process of being created. Far from it. But Britain and France are utilizing a modification of the plan in an effort to escape economic disaster—and perhaps other threats.

They are experimenting without knowing what the final reaction may be.

And who can predict how such an experiment may develop, especially in view of the dangerously disturbed political situation in Europe?

Easy Money Still Rolling Around

NEW YORK.—There had been more than a sneaking suspicion about Broadway that the days of free-spending are at an end. But by the appearances of the recent opening of the new and huge night club, the Vanity Fair, it looks as if easy money still is rolling around.

Joe Howard and Carl Erbe, who also run The Singapore and The Zanibar, had the temerity to plan and execute this glittering expanse of velvet and sequins, rainbow hues and fancy decor, at the cool cost of $150,000, on the site of the huge Zanibar at 49th and Broadway. The Zanibar is moving to a large nearby basement where its all-Negro shows will be continued.

In premiering this monster second-floor saloon, awash with chateaux, majestats, reds, emeralds, pale blues, purples, milk-white porcelain, black velvet drapes, white leather banquettes and apparently every other material and fabric impossible to locate during the war, the Messrs. Howard and Erbe seem to be sticking their amiable chins out. "Experts" agree on an approaching dive in the Stem's night club business.

Furthermore, after lopping off $150,000 from their apparently plentiful bankroll, an additional fortune was put in jeopardy when the boys finally counted noses in the floor show. Including Gertrude Nielsen, the star, the personnel totaled 85!

The combined stage and dance floor had to be enlarged considerably to hold the out-size production, thereby cutting down the capacity by 50 to 75 customers, valuable minimum charges thereby being lost. But having prepared for every other possible disappointing eventuality, the owners ignored one possibility—that so many eager would-be clients would bombard the doors that a near riot would occur. And that's what happened.

In the first place, such premieres usually are sold out to celebrities who like to have their faces in publicity pictures, plus the Broadway regulars who know the owners, headwaiters, and relatives of the members of the cast, plus a hefty sprinkling of Broadway newspapermen who attend such glittering trivial events for professional purposes.

At least 1,000 others without reservations showed up well before the midnight show and refused to leave. Firemen were called out to help the police clear the lobby and stairways, and only by a final appeal to those standing hopelessly outside to go home, were the combined police and fire ladders able to permit things to start, and then an hour later.

A large percentage of the celebrities and newspapermen, including myself, had to be escorted with all the secrecy of a member of the French underground planning a raid up a dark and spooky back stairway, through dressing rooms and kitchens and finally into the gaudy premises.

In my party was a lawyer named Jack Adler, who opened the first night club on the same site—The Paradise, back in the early thirties.

Inside Story Of Truman's Trip

WASHINGTON. — Some of the international experts have been trying to figure out the significance of President Truman's mission to Mexico. They wonder whether it means a new spurt in the good-neighbor policy, a new effort to woo Latin friends against Argentina, or what. However, here is the inside story of how the trip originated.

Several months ago the new Mexican ambassador, Harvard-trained Antonio Spinoso De Los Monteros, called at the White House to present his credentials. Truman was taken with the charm of the Mexican diplomat, who is just as familiar with the USA as with his native land. Ambassador Monteros told the President how he had spent a lot of time in New York, had been educated at Harvard, had a wide acquaintanceship in Washington.

"I have never had a real opportunity to visit Mexico," replied Truman, by way of making conversation, "and I would like to some day."

"Well, why don't you do it fairly soon?" said the new ambassador.

"All right, I will," said Truman, who so frequently acts on the spur of the moment. "How about arranging it? I would like to go during early March."

Monteros assured Truman there would be no trouble at all, and several weeks later the ambassador returned to the White House to inform the President that he had set up a fancy three-day official visit in the capital of Mexico. Truman was delighted.

And that is the only political significance behind the president's trip.

NOTE — Truman and Monteros became such good friends that the President took the unusual step of inviting the ambassador to accompany him to Mexico City on his private plane, the Sacred Cow, even had him along for the stopover in Kansas City while visiting his mother.

PROGRAM VANISHES

It has been just about a year since President Truman summoned Wilson Wyatt, ex-mayor of Louisville, to Washington and told him to make "no small plans" for veterans' housing. Wyatt was instructed to push housing as we pushed the war. Instead of foxholes, veterans were promised they would soon have roofs over their heads.

Today, however, it looks as if the last feeble attempt to carry out this promise is about to go up in smoke.

Little by little the real-estate and construction lobbies have whittled the program down. Little by little, the puny men around President Truman have faded. Even the Kingmakers of the American Legion, an organization supposed to protect the veterans, have ended up on the side of the real-estate lobby.

Climax came last week when Michigan Congressman Jesse Wojcicki, Republican chairman of the House banking and currency committee, announced that he would move to repeal the Patman act. This is the basic law which permits the government to control nonresidential building, allocate materials, and give preference to veterans. If this act is repealed, not one vestige of the original housing program will be left.

Frank Creedon and Ray Foley, the feeble gentlemen appointed by Truman to carry on the housing program, may issue a few statements defending the Patman act, but they will not stage a real battle.

"I'm no crusader," Creedon told his friends last week. "Therefore, unless homeless veterans bombard Congress, particularly Republican leaders, the basic legislation for the Housing program will be wiped off the books."

NOTE — Controls over concrete soil pipe, one of the vital materials for housing, are being removed this week. Soil Pipe is still in short supply, and removal of controls simply means that it will be much harder for veterans to build new homes.

ADMIRAL'S WHITEWASH

Last month this column published a series of radio messages exchanged between naval officers regarding the sale of an automobile owned by Adm. C. M. Cooke, Jr., commander of US naval forces in the western Pacific. Adm. Cooke had his car shipped to Shanghai where auto prices were exorbitant, and sold it.

Following publication of this column, Admiral Cooke was ordered to Washington and asked for an explanation. All the facts as published in the column were admitted by the navy, but in the end the old Annapolis tradition of admiral's protection prevailed, and Adm. Cooke issued a whitewash.

He explained that naval officers have a right to ship their household effects from one permanent station to another at government expense and to use government radio facilities for personal messages provided they do not interfere with official business.

In protecting his fellow admiral, however, Admiral Nimitz overlooked several things. One was that Admiral Cooke's automobile was sent at government expense to Shanghai, whereas Cooke's base was Tsingtau. Therefore, he did not transport his property from one permanent base to another.

Senate Groups Coy On Rejecting Bills

By DAVE CREAVENS

AUSTIN, March 6. (AP)—Senate committees this session seem to be operating on the theory that the best time and place to dispose of a pending bill is after debate on the floor of the legislature.

Thus far in the session, senate committees have recommended favorable action on 78 bills or joint resolutions proposing submission of constitutional amendments. They have referred a few to subcommittees, but not one at this writing has suffered outright rejection.

The House, on the other hand, has no such crowded calendar. Outright hatchet work on pending measures has not been the policy, but scores of bills have been postponed or held up by referral to subcommittees.

The House, in fact, has such a lean supply of important legislation that it has been devoting regular sessions to local squirrel bills and similar trivial matters that ordinarily are handled in night meetings set aside for consideration of local or uncontested legislation.

The situation has already prompted Speaker W. O. Reed to urge house committees to put on a little steam in order that the business of the session move along. It is now well into its second month. Reed wants to avoid the usual last-minute hurried consideration of important appropriations bills, and he also wants to get the work done as nearly as possible within the constitutionally-suggested 120-day session.

Highly controversial legislation jams the Senate calendar.

Fairly near the top of the heap is the so-called "Fair Trades Practices" act, a perennial source of stiff conflict in the legislature. Its backers hope to obtain final Senate passage soon, with the real fight coming on the floor of the House if it survives committee action.

Not far back of it is the bill by Sen. R. A. Weinert of Sequim which would limit the fact-finding powers of the railroad commission in issuing oil and gas orders. This is a measure bound to provoke stiff opposition. The oil industry is watching its legislative progress closely.

Other important legislation awaiting Senate action includes:

A proposal by Sen. Grady Hazelwood of Amarillo providing airport zoning rules and another on regulation of airports.

Sen. Pat Bullock's chiropractic regulation bill and Sen. Walter Tynan's basic science bill.

Sen. Hazelwood's bill providing for statewide, rather than municipal, control of plumbing regulations.

Sen. Howard Carney's bill setting up a state real estate commission and removing control of real estate dealer licensing from the secretary of state.

Sen. R. B. Cousin's oil field unitization bill.

These are all classified as controversial measures, and if Senate committees follow the trend to date, they will load the calendar with many more before the end of the current 30-day period.

In the balcony, the Baylor band began to play to entertain the tense, expectant crowd.
Pat Neff came on to the rostrum. The benediction was delivered by Dr. Forest C. Feezor, of the Baptist church here. The band played "Hail to the Chief."
"This is a great day for Texas, Waco, and Baylor," Neff said. "The eyes of the nation are upon us."
"I find the President has a sense of humor," Neff continued. "He is easy to talk to. That's the reason we have gotten along, even in this bad weather."

WAA Assures Sale Priority For Big Spring

War Assets Administration officials have given assurance that Big Spring's priority will be recognized when disposal proceedings for property at the Army Air Field are launched, H. W. Whitney, acting city manager, reported today.
Whitney and J. H. Greene, chamber of commerce manager, returned Wednesday night from Dallas, where they conferred with R. E. White and other WAA officials.
The city will list certain buildings at the field which would be desirable in lieu of restoration of the Air Field property at the federal government's expense. Included in the list will be structures sought by various local organizations. The WAA probably will approve a sufficient number of buildings for transfer to the city to cover estimated cost of restoring the property to its original state, as provided in the lease. Valuation of the buildings will be made by the WAA.
Whitney said White indicated that negotiations probably would begin by the end of the month.

T&P To Open Recreation Center Tonight

T&P railroaders who spend their "turn-around" time at Toyah are going to find things more pleasant henceforth in that far West Texas town.
The T&P Railway company tonight is formally opening a new recreation center for its employees, offering a facility which is believed the first of its kind for railroads.
The old Toyah hotel was used as the building, and this structure has been completely remodeled and redecorated, to provide reading and game rooms, shower facilities, and other space to help make railroaders' leisure hours more pleasant. A large number of trainmen spend time in Toyah, and facilities heretofore have been limited.
A program at 8 o'clock this evening in Toyah will mark the opening of the quarters. W. G. Vollmer, president of the T&P, will be on hand to make the presentation to employees, and the T&P quartet will give a musical program. Vollmer was accompanied to Toyah today by other railway officials, including L. C. Porter, assistant to the president; R. C. Parker, general superintendent, and J. B. Shores, public relations director.

Several Millions In US Securities Are Forgotten

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—Tucked away in forgotten trunks, blended into the ashes of burned homes or in carefully guarded curio collections are millions of dollars worth of government securities, long since matured and no longer drawing interest.
These securities were issued between 1791 and the end of last year. They were for the purpose of setting up the new government, for building ships, for fighting wars, depression, pestilence, illiteracy and a host of other battles faced by a democracy.
Whether people have been absent-minded or just wanted to write off their government debt, the treasury does not know. Every dollar would be paid off if the securities were presented and proof of ownership shown.
But it is unlikely that any securities issued prior to 1917 and still outstanding ever will be redeemed. Proof of ownership would be hard to establish.
Then, too, the older bonds are of value as collectors' items.
The total of matured securities outstanding to date on which interest has ceased is $450,000,000. That includes about $13,000,000 of liberty bonds and victory notes issued during and after World War I. It also includes $1,410,000 of securities issued between 1791 and 1917, with interest. Most of the unredeemed bonds were issued in the last 25 years, however, and some of these may turn up.

Jury Completes Land Appraisal

The jury of view has completed its appraisal of the condemned property along the proposed right-of-way of the Snyder-Big Spring highway and turned its findings over to the county court.

CALIFORNIAN SPEEDS SLOWLY

PORTLAND, Ore., March 6. (AP)—Municipal Judge J. J. Quillin suspended a speeding fine when he learned Lee Walker, charged with traveling 39 miles an hour in a 25 mile zone, was a former Californian.
"You are the first Californian in this court in the past two months who was going less than 50 miles per hour," said Judge Quillin. "I would almost say you were deserving of a medal."

Telephone Workers Prepare To Strike

NEW YORK, March 6. The Red Cross fund drive was stalemated again this morning, with exception of a few special gifts reports and scattering contributions from group businesses.
At noon today the total had reached $5,314.68, or approximately 53 per cent of the quota.
A $30 special gift was received from the McCrary Garage, and the J&K She store submitted a special gift and group business report. J&K employees contributed 100 per cent and the firm gave $25. Another $25 gift was acknowledged from Ashley and Howell, $15 each from Sears Roebuck and Junior Hubbard, $10 from Joe Edwards and Shroyer Motor Co.
Other special gifts came from Wayne Williams, Rev. Gage Lloyd, Dalton Mitchell, Vernon Kile and Vicente M. Vela.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

A Definition of Our Town

Sombody defined our town just the other day as "A place where the people talk about you behind your back, and come to wait on you when you're sick."
I've got to admit there's something to it. A lot of our folks are inclined to be pretty outspoken and quick to criticize... even about little things, like a woman's hat, or a man's preference for a glass of beer, or the color of Cy Hartman's new barn.
But when anyone's in trouble, those differences and points of criticism are forgotten... and folks become neighborly and helpful, like they really are.
From where I sit, criticism never did much harm to anybody, so long as folks don't let it guide their actions... so long as they respect our individual preferences, whether they apply to hats or beer. That's the way it is in our town, anyway, and I hope that it's the same in yours.

Widespread Round Of Strikes Feared

WASHINGTON, March 6. (UP)—Chairman Paul M. Herzog of the National Labor Relations Board said today proposed changes in the Wagner collective bargaining act could set off a nationwide round of strikes. But the U.S. Chamber of Commerce cannot rest easy until Congress rewrites parts of the law to wipe out any question of its intent. The divergent views were prepared for Senate and House labor committees, both of which are considering amendments to the basic labor relations act, along with other measures designed to reduce industrial strife.

Herzog, whose job is to help administer the Wagner Act, said the strike wave might materialize if all provisions of pending overhaul bills were adopted, even though "no strike could be lawful" under one of them once an employer had made a simple back-to-work offer. The NLRB chief put it this way in his statement submitted to the Senate committee: "At best, several years of uncertainty and court litigation would flow from enactment of many of the proposals that amend the act. At worst, American workingmen and their representatives would so resent the destruction of rights they have so recently won that work stoppages would sweep the country."

The chamber of commerce stand was outlined for the House committee by Herman W. Steinkraus, chairman of the business organization's Labor Relations Committee. His testimony said "vast areas" of the Wagner Act have been left to interpretation by Herzog's board. Because of "shifts in the board's policies," he said, "the employer has never known when a long-established administrative ruling would suddenly be changed with new and unforeseen results." Raymond S. Smethurst, counsel for the National Association of Manufacturers, told the Senate committee yesterday pending bills to change the act have prompted several recent reversals of NLRB policies. He urged Congress to act anyway. Herzog took note of this situation, saying the trend has been to write into NLRB decisions principles which some Congress members want to put into law.

Puerto Rico To Pay Own Way

WASHINGTON, March 6. (UP)—Puerto Rico, whose economy has depended heavily on federal aid since it became a part of the United States in 1898, aims to support itself without outside financial assistance by 1960.

Powered by an aggressive New Deal program of industrial and economic reform originated largely by former governor Rexford G. Tugwell, the island administration has laid down the broad lines of its program for self-sufficiency in less than 15 years.

Exponents of the program make it clear, however, that in the period of growth and expansion the island will need generous help, both financial and moral, from the United States. Dominant in the island now is the Popular Democratic Party, a reform movement led by liberal Luis Munoz Marin, president of the senate. The governor, Jesus T. Piñero, was one of the cofounders of the party in the late '30's.

Whether Munoz and Piñero can lead the island to self-sufficiency by 1960 is decidedly a moot question, with such impressive authorities as the U.S. Tariff Commission apparently ranged against the view that they can easily succeed.

Under heraldic interpretations of flag usage adopted by US patriots, the flag is considered to represent the living country and is itself considered as a living thing.

One In Million Child Survives

GADSDEN, Ala., March 6. (UP)—Claudia Paulette Starkey, three-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Starkey of Gadsden, is one child in a million.

Eleven-pound Claudia is one of the few persons to survive Erythroblastosis, and the only one of four Starkey children to live through the dread affliction.

The three Starkey children, preceding Claudia died of the almost incurable blood malady on the 19th day after birth. In 1930 the young couple lost Jula Ann. The following year a son, Claude Jr., died. In 1938, Michael Anthony was born, only to die on his 19th day. Physicians were stumped.

But between the time of the death of the first Starkey child and the birth of Claudia, last Oct. 31, scientists had discovered the Rh factor. The blood of parents of children born with erythroblastosis, they found, had opposite Rh factors, one negative and the other positive.

If the mother's blood differed from the child's, their blood "fought" throughout pregnancy. But, they figured, if the blood of a child threatened with the disease could be classified soon enough and a transfusion of matching blood made, its chances for life could be greatly increased.

Findings showed Mrs. Starkey to have a negative Rh factor, her husband a positive one.

Plans for the battle for Claudia's life were made months ahead.

Minutes after her arrival at a Birmingham hospital, she was found to have a positive Rh factor, matching her father's. Eight hours after birth, the blood was pumped from the child and fresh blood of the proper type injected in her veins.

10 Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Thurs., March 6, 1947

The first weeks of Claudia's life were suspense-laden, but when she passed the fateful 19th day, science relaxed and declared another victory.

Electric cells are said to generate enough current to bring a horse to his knees.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 60 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Ball Park To Be Located Near Steer Grid Stadium

Plans Presented To School Board

Final plans as to the exact location of the grandstand remain to be worked out, but the municipal baseball stadium will be placed immediately north of the Steers' football stadium.

That much was assured Wednesday night when the school board voted favorably on the proposition.

Under the proposed layout, the field will extend 345 feet north of the football plant, including land on which the present grid practice field is situated.

The trustees debated putting the field west of the stadium but felt that the grading and filling work that was needed was too big a project to undertake.

Originally, it had been planned to locate the stadium on school property north of North ward school.

AUSTIN, March 6. (AP)—The annual basketball carnival of the Texas Interscholastic league with 24 teams battling for state championships in three divisions opened today with Thomas Jefferson of San Antonio, Levelland and Johnson City occupying the unenviable positions of favorites.

This afternoon Johnson City takes the court against Prairie Valley of Nocona. That game will end the Class B first round and furnish semi-finalists for tomorrow morning.

All things considered, Homer Norton probably did the smart thing by not making a major bid for the University of California coaching job.

If Norton thinks there are too many cooks for the broth at College Station, he should take inventory of the California picture, where alumni make a habit of feasting on pickled coaches' hearts.

Frank struggled through two sessions in the Bear den with the ex-students doing little toward creating any athletic scholarships or talking footballers into casting their lot at Cal.

Albert Jordan, who is a range conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service here, was in the athletic coaching business for something like 17 years before he decided to change professions.

He wrestled as a professional for more than a score of years, was a heavyweight when he was 12 years of age. In his time, he met such men as Strangler Lewis, Jim Browning and Stan Zbysko.

Williams Shows Up At Sarasota

SARASOTA, Fla., March 6. (AP) Ted Williams pulled his new car to a screaming stop and stepped out into the bright sunshine.

Lean and tan after two months fishing in the Everglades, Slim Teddy held court in a sidewalk interview. Twisting and turning his head and craning his neck like a schoolboy, the slugger answered the queries of newsmen who had been awaiting his arrival.

In keeping with a quaint Williams custom, Teddy arrived late yesterday afternoon, hours after the regular workout and three days after the rest of the team reported. He mumbled something about being caught in the heavy traffic and visiting a reptile farm but nobody paid much attention. The team had arrived.

"Are you going to try hitting to left field this year?" a reporter asked.

"I'm not going to change my style," the Splendid Splinter replied as he eased into a pair of knee length woolen socks.

"I think the club agrees with me that I am most valuable hitting that home run when I can. If it means the ball game for me to hit for the homer, that's what I'm going to try to do. I think I owe it to the club."

Dress Up Vegetables During Lenten Season

ONION CHEESE PIE . . . .

By CHARLOTTE ADAMS
Associated Press Food Editor
VEGETABLES can be dressed up so that their serving brings cheers of praise during the Lenten season, if you'll just remember that they make wonderful pies. Here are a few suggestions, though you probably can invent dozens more if you just put your mind to it.

Meatless dish for Lent . . . .

Onion Cheese Pie
1 1-2 cups cracker crumbs
1-2 cup melted butter or vitaminized margarine
2 Bermuda onions, sliced thin
1 1-2 cups milk
3 eggs
1 teaspoon salt
1-4 teaspoon pepper
1-2 pound processed cheese, added.

Crush crackers fine and mix with a half cup of melted butter or margarine. Press into a 9-inch pie plate. Sauté onion in butter or margarine until yellow. Arrange attractively in crust. Scald milk and add slowly to eggs with salt, pepper and cheese. Pour over onions. Bake in slow oven (325 degrees) 40-45 minutes. Serve hot with tomato wedges.

Mushroom Pie
2 pounds mushrooms
6 tablespoons butter or margarine
6 tablespoons flour Rich pastry
Mushroom liquor
Thin cream (total liquid 3 cups)
Salt and pepper

Peel and stem mushrooms, leaving caps whole. Stew peelings and stems in two and a half cups water about 20 minutes. Drain, reserving liquor. Sauté caps in a little butter five minutes. Melt butter or margarine. Remove from stove and blend in flour. Return to stove and add mushroom liquor, plus thin cream (or rich milk) enough to make the total liquid three cups. Season with salt and pepper and add sauteed mushrooms. Line a deep baking dish with rich pastry. Pour in mushroom mixture. Cover with pastry and in the center prick a design with a fork. Bake 400 degree oven until crust is nicely brown (25-30 minutes).

Mixed Vegetable Pie
1 cup lima beans
1 cup carrots
1 cup celery
1 cup peas
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
3 tablespoons flour
2 cups milk
2 cups mashed potatoes.
Cook lima beans, celery, carrots and peas, each separately. Drain. Melt butter or margarine. Remove from stove and carefully blend in flour. Return to stove, add milk, and stir until thickened. (A cup of the liquor in which the vegetables were cooked may be substituted for one of the cups of milk.) Pour sauce over vegetables in a deep baking dish and top with mashed potato crust. Dot with butter or margarine and bake in 400 degree oven until crust is golden brown.

MEXENE

ALL-PURPOSE SEASONING

Use about 1/3 as much Mexene as you would black pepper—more, if desired. Mexene is superior for all seasoning.

Lumber Company Burns In Waco

WACO, March 6. (AP)—A spectacular fire of undetermined origin destroyed the Dewitt Clark Lumber company's plant in downtown Waco last night. Damage was estimated by the owner at $60,000. Sparks, blown by a strong north wind, endangered buildings in two neighboring blocks, but firemen confined damage to the lumber plant. Three firemen narrowly escaped injury when a wall collapsed. State highway patrolmen here to help control expected crowds tomorrow for the visit of President Truman, helped city police direct the crowds that covered sidewalks for blocks.

North Loraine To Participate In Rural Neighborhood Contest

COLORADO CITY, March 6. — Meetings are called by the chairman. The agriculture magazine sponsoring the contest has set forth 11 points on which neighborhoods will be scored; progress in soil conservation; progress in home food supply, including gardens; in livestock improvement, including culling; in crop and pasture improvement; in farm and home equipment; in school and educational facilities; in churches, including active organizations; in communications, including roads; in farm building and fencing; and, finally, in original and unique neighborhood activities covering projects for neighborhood improvements. Additional of about three percent asphalt emulsion to standard concrete floor mixture is said to increase the shock absorbing qualities of the finished concrete.

Policy On Germany To Be Discussed On Radio Program

The views of three noted journalists and a member of the US senate on the most desirable policy for this country to adopt toward Germany when the Moscow Conference convenes will be sought when America's Town Meeting is broadcast over KBBT tonight at 7:30-8:30 p.m. Turning their attention to the question—"What Should Be Our Program for Germany at the Moscow Conference?"—will be Dorothy Thompson, author and syndicated news columnist; Sen. Harry P. Cain (R. Wash.), member of the Senate Banking and Currency Committee; Wallace R. Deuel, former special assistant to Ambassador Robert Murphy in Germany and now Washington correspondent for the Chicago Daily News; and Edgar Ansel Mowrer, author and foreign correspondent. Tomatoes packed in airtight containers sometimes develop poor color and flavor because of "smothering."

Clack Of Typewriters Disturbs Wife Of Speaker In Texas House

AUSTIN, March 6. (AP) — The housing shortage, if nothing else, made Mrs. W. O. Reed very happy when her husband was elected Speaker of the Texas House. The Speaker and his family are furnished quarters by the state. It is a high-ceilinged five-room apartment directly behind the House chamber on the second floor of the Capitol. "I'm just thrilled with it," said the slender, brown-eyed wife of the representative from Dallas. "If we hadn't been given this apartment, we'd be living in a hotel. And I hate hotel life." The Reeds don't claim to live a normal family life in their capitol-building home. They are almost obliged to eat, sleep and breathe legislation. In their living room is a loudspeaker attached to the microphones on the House floor. The loudspeaker, which is left on at all times, keeps Mrs. Reed in constant touch with the proceedings. "Whenever something is about to happen, I start bustling around and do my work so I can go and watch," she said. Mrs. Reed has contended with another problem most housewives are spared. It involves about 80 typewriters. Just outside the speaker's apartment is a long corridor occupied by legislative stenographers—and the clatter of typewriters can be heard in the apartment from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. "The noise doesn't bother me, though. Neither do the porters who come to clean up the house at 6 a. m.," Mrs. Reed said. "The only thing that did bother me was the high ceilings," she continued. "When we first moved in, I couldn't sleep with the ceilings so far up."

Rice Cheese Fritters Special Sunday Brunch

Planning something special for Sunday brunch? United Fruit's Middle America Test Kitchen gives you a rather different suggestion—Rice Cheese Fritters, or bunuelos de arroz (boo-nyoo-ay-los day ar-roth) as they are called in Middle America. Bunuelo means fritter and the variety is unlimited. They are usually fried and

Rice has long been recognized as an excellent source of food energy by our friends South of the Rio Grande, and forms an important part of many of their dishes. Their arroz con pollo (ar-roth can pol-yo... chicken with rice) has become one of our familiar delicious treats. They have also given us many unusual native sauces to pour over rice rings, masters as they are in the art of stretching a meal to the utmost. We can certainly learn from these Middle American neighbors how to make a little go a long way. Today's recipe makes good use of left-over rice. These Rice Cheese Fritters are equally delicious as a main dish for luncheon or Sunday brunch.

RICE CHEESE FRITTERS
 1/4 cup sifted flour
 1 teaspoon baking powder
 3/4 teaspoon salt
 1 1/2 cups cold boiled rice
 1/2 cup grated sharp American cheese
 2 egg yolks, well beaten
 1/2 cup milk
 2 egg whites, stiffly beaten
 Fat for frying

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Add rice and cheese and mix thoroughly. Combine egg yolks and milk. Add to rice-cheese mixture and stir until blended. Fold in egg whites. Drop from spoon into hot deep fat (375 degrees F.) Fry 4 to 6 minutes, depending upon size of fritters, turning frequently to brown evenly. Serve very hot with syrup or honey. Makes 12 fritters.
 Note: Fritters may be fried in shallow fat, if desired.

Utilize Color, Taste Appeal Of Bright Red Beets

March will usher in the peak of the beet season at southwest markets. Good supplies are expected in retail stores from now through April and prices should be reasonable. However, the amount available may be about 10 per cent below average and a fifth below last year. Farmers didn't plant so many acres in beets this season, and there would have been a much smaller supply if yields had not turned out high.

Most of the beets at the corner grocer's right now are from Texas, which grows nearly all the winter crop and averages about half the total beet production for the country every year. Later on, supplies will come from Louisiana, which USDA's marketing specialists call a "spring" producer and which contributes on the average about a fourth to a fifth of the nation's total supply of beets every year.

The next few weeks will be a good time to utilize the color and taste appeal of bright red beets to make meals more interesting and appetizing. Beets are especially good on the reducing or low-caloried diet because they're easy on food energy but contain some vitamins and minerals. Beet tops, of course, are rich in iron and vitamins.

The 1946 prices of US farm lands were within 11 percent of the peak prices in 1920.

Contour Approval By Farmers Asked

Howard county farmers who expect to plant or till row crops on the contour, either following terraces or guide lines established by a farm level, are being urged to contact the county AAA office sometime during the month of March in order to obtain prior approval for the practice.

Prior approval, which is the setting aside of required funds, is necessary in order that the benefits may be collected.

In event a farm operator is uncertain about the lines being properly established, a check should be made to determine if guide lines are run at twice the terrace interval.

If the land has an average slope of three per cent or more, payment will not be made for contour farming unless it is in connection with terracing.

FWA Conference Clarifies HCJC Gymnasium Gift

E. C. Dodd, president of the Howard County Junior college, said Wednesday that conferences with Federal Works Agency representatives today had clarified the announcement from Rep. George Mahon Tuesday that the college would soon come into possession of the gymnasium at the bombardier school.

Apparently, the gym is slated for the college in a matter of days. Other equipment, however, mentioned in the announcement, is to be offered to the college as it becomes available. Included are typewriters, business machines, etc. All in all, Dodd said it appeared the building and equipment situation was progressing satisfactorily.

Double-Decker Buses To Be On Display Here

Three relics from Gotham's past—the colorful double-decker buses—will arrive here this afternoon and be on display overnight downtown.

The vehicles, veterans of years of service before the "rubberneck" buses were retired recently in New York City, have been purchased by Monogram Pictures and will be used as state properties at the West Coast studios.

Of course, it is only coincidental that the tour ties in perfectly with release of Monogram's million-dollar production, "It Happened on Fifth Avenue." Where the buses "once carried streamers advertising tooth paste, shaving cream, etc., modest mention is made of "It Happened on Fifth Avenue."

The bulky buses, with sweeping steps leading up from the rear, are veterans of 185,000 miles service each, and they will have covered another 3,600 miles before they get to Hollywood.

In charge of the group will be Ed Luria, exploitation manager for Allied Artists Productions. He will be accompanied by a crew of four drivers, who put the vehicles over the highway at 20 miles per hour.

Amateur Radio Club Starting Code Class

Members include Mel Boatman, Marion Beam, Dick Hooper, Bob Benson, Ben Jernigan and Andy Jones.

Cotton Council Representative Will Talk Here

A meeting of special interest not only to farmers but to all persons interested in cotton or cotton products has been scheduled for the night of April 11 in the district court room by the Howard County Farm Bureau.

At that time E. H. McDaniel, field representative for the National Cotton Council who has his headquarters in Abilene, will appear to acquaint local persons with objectives and plans of the council.

The meeting was arranged Tuesday night at the regular Farm Bureau directors' meeting.

C. H. DeVaney, a director of the state Farm Bureau Federation said the April 11 meeting should be of interest to bankers, feed dealers and any other business men whose firms are even remotely connected with the cotton industry. All farmers in the area will be urged to attend.

The Howard County Bureau directors also adopted two special resolutions at their meeting last night, one authorizing the chairman to notify state legislators that the local organization opposes a proposed four-cents-a-gallon tax on farm tractor gasoline and another endorsing a $55 state apportionment for each scholastic in all schools of the state.

McALLEN, March 6. (AP)—The current quotation of $50 a ton for oranges struck an optimistic note for Texas citrus growers today. They confidently predicted that at the present rate the supply of Valencia oranges from Texas would be over by the end of May.

Massachusetts Curbs Release Of Sex Offenders

BOSTON, March 6. (AP)—Aroused state legislators and Governor Robert F. Bradford moved swiftly today to put a curb on the release of sex offenders as a grand jury convened in nearby Cambridge to investigate the lust-slaying of 11-year-old Jacqueline Maxwell.

The House of Representatives approved orders calling for establishment of special committees to probe the release from a state training school of Robert L. Coombes, 17, charged with murder of the child, and to study the administration of all such institutions in the state.

The governor called for "better screening and adequate segregation of youthful sex psychopaths." He said there should be "provisions for segregation for life, if necessary, or until it is demonstrated the person is cured."

Young Coombes, a sex offender of previous record, was released from Shirley school only three weeks ago over objection of his parents. School trustees explained they were obliged to set him free after he met certain conditions under the state's present correctional setup.

The Maxwell girl was slain in a field near her home Sunday night.

Theater Patron In Dallas Shot

DALLAS, March 6. (AP)—W. R. Camp, 34, was shot twice in the head and fatally wounded last night in a neighborhood theater as he watched a picture with his divorced wife. He died a few minutes after arriving at Parkland Hospital.

Two men in the audience seized Sam Williams Lyons, 33, also a divorced husband of the woman, and disarmed him of a revolver in the rear of the theater.

In a signed statement to police Mrs. Margie Lyons, 38, said she had married Lyons in 1934 and divorced him in 1942. She married Camp in October, 1945, and divorced him three months later.

She said two weeks ago she swore out a peace bond against Lyons and afraid something like this would happen.

Districts For Prep Baseball Are Set Up

AUSTIN, March 6. (AP)—A total of 454 schools are registered with the interscholastic league, which has set March 15 as the opening date for official baseball competition.

Rhea Williams, assistant league director, said 61 districts have been created and that play will extend only to district championships. Length of the baseball session is left to individual schools.

Soil District Contest Awards Are Announced

Winners in the Fort Worth Press "Save the Soil and Save Texas" Soil Conservation District awards program were announced by the supervisors of the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District at their regular meeting in Stanton Tuesday, reported E. J. Hughes, District Conservationist.

M. H. Ulmer who farms in the West Vealmoor conservation group was selected as the farmer having applied the best coordinated soil conservation program in the district during 1946. Ulmer's program included good soil management supported by adequate mechanical treatment such as terraces, contour cultivation and stock tank.

The Prairie Lee conservation group located 8 miles southeast of Midland earned the highest score as a group for conservation applied in 1946. The basis for selection was made on a score sheet designed to show the percentage of conservation applied. Out of a possible 1000 points, the Prairie Lee group scored 900 by applying 90 per cent of the conservation program planned.

The $10,000 awards program is sponsored by the Fort Worth paper in recognition of sound conservation applied on the land, with public spirited firms and organizations who are interested in the furtherance of the battle to save our most precious natural resource — The Land — as co-sponsors.

Other business of the board included reviewing and adding to the district work load 29 conservation plans embodying 22,252 acres, and approving 13 applications for assistance in planning a complete conservation district program. The SCS will furnish technical assistance in planning and establishing the program, the supervisors reported.

Norton Problem To Be Settled

COLLEGE STATION, March 6. (AP)—The Texas A. and M. College board of directors meets tomorrow with the question of whether head football coach Homer Norton is to be retained high on the agenda.

Norton, under fire from the ex-students, has announced he either wants a vote of confidence or to be paid for the three and one-half years remaining on his contract and dismissed.

The board will be holding its reorganization meeting with two new members—Tyree L. Bell of Dallas and C. C. Krueger of San Antonio—attending. Bell and Krueger were appointed by Gov. Beauford Jester and confirmed by the state Senate Tuesday.

A president, vice-president and secretary will be elected, then the newly-elected president will appoint various standing committees. The meeting is scheduled to start at 1 p. m. and the coaching situation is not likely to be reached until mid-afternoon.

Coaches, Writers To Be Entertained

LAREDO, March 5. (AP)—After coaches attending the border Olympics here have tucked their athletes under the cover tomorrow night they will join sports writers and meet officials in an elaborate entertainment program. The group will be honored at a cocktail party in Laredo, then will cross the Rio Grande to Nuevo Laredo for a ball dinner in the historic Cadillac Bar and will wind up the evening as guests of J. J. O'Hern, wealthy oil man and Olympics booster, at his nearby ranch.

Sports writers from Austin, San Antonio and Houston are scheduled to cover the meet and extensive wire service filing is planned.

Poland Gets Russ Help In Economy

MOSCOW, March 6. (AP)—A new Polish-Soviet agreement — reported to provide for numerous apparent economic benefits to Poland and to express a unity of opinion on the German question — dominated the press of the Soviet Union today.

Newspapers reported that among the things the young Polish republic would receive were:

- (1) A Russian loan of $28,855,000 in gold.
- (2) Reduction by half of the coal supplies due Russia from Poland.
- (3) Trains which the Soviet seized as war booty from Germany.
- (4) An arrangement on "mutual financial obligations."
- (5) Establishment of "scientific and technical collaboration" in the field of industrial production.
- (6) Armaments and military equipment as a credit from the Soviet Union.
- (7) A part of the German merchant fleet "due Poland," to be handed over by May 15, 1947.

"There also was an exchange of opinions on the German question which revealed the principle of harmony in the standpoints of both governments," said a communique.

The discussions from the Russian side were reported to have been conducted by Prime Minister Stalin with the assistance of Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, Minister of Foreign Trade A. I. Mikoyan, Finance Minister A. G. Zverev and Deputy Foreign Minister A. Y. Vishinsky.

Representing Poland were Premier Josef Cyrankiewicz, minister of industry Hilary Mine and others.

The Polish premier spent nine days in the Soviet capital. Before he left, he said: "We are very satisfied with our talks on economic questions, and also they were very important, too, on the very substantial political questions."

24-Hour Curfew Put On Lahore

NEW DELHI, March 6. (AP)—The all-India radio said in a Delhi broadcast today that a 24-hour curfew had been clamped on Lahore as a result of three new outbreaks of violence this morning in the Punjab capital, where communal rioting has cost at least 32 lives since Tuesday.

The broadcast said rival "mobs" opened fire on each other in a Lahore suburb, causing five "casualties" and that police and the military cordoned off the area and dismissed the groups. The radio said police opened fire on two other occasions, also.

The "mobs" were not identified by the broadcast, but rioting up to the time a tight censorship was imposed last night, after British Governor Sir Evan Jenkins took over administration of the province, had involved Sikhs and Hindus against Moslems.

Heavy Storms Slow Atlantic Crossing

CORK, Eire, March 6. (AP)—The United States liner America docked here today two days behind schedule as the result of heavy adverse winds on her voyage from New York.

Ship officials said speed was reduced to six knots during the height of the gale to avoid discomfort to passengers. The liner was not damaged.

Boxcar Shortage Already Felt In West Texas

The shortage of boxcars already is being felt in West Texas and may be felt to a far greater degree before the year is out, according to Rep. George Mahon.

Grain sorghum and wheat movements are most acutely affected in West Texas where large yields previously had made necessary stock-piling in anticipation for rail movement. Flour milling concerns have had to cut production, up to 40 per cent in some cases, Monroe Johnson, ICC member, recently told the appropriations committee, of which Mahon is a member, that some manufacturing concerns will have to slow or stop production because goods are piling up and transportation is limited.

A dim ray of hope is seen in a slowly rising rate of car production, said Mahon. Reports indicate that the rate now is 7,000 per month and that it may reach 10,000. Even at this clip, it will take more than a year to appreciably take up the slack. Last year there were 40,000 made, but 59,000 became unfit for use.

"The accelerated program is important to West Texas," said Mahon, "but unfortunately, it appears that box car difficulties will continue to plague us through the 1947 crop year."

Leopold Parole Chances Slim

CHICAGO, March 6. (AP)—Nathan Leopold, serving a life sentence and a 99 year sentence in Stateville Prison for the kidnap-slaying of young Bobby Franks in 1924, will not be eligible for parole for at least 10 years, Illinois parole officials have advised state Attorney William J. Touhy.

Touhy said he sought the parole board's opinion in view of reports that Leopold would seek parole on the ground that he submitted to a malaria control experiment in prison during the war. Parole officials said some convicts in the tests would be given preferred parole consideration or possible executive clemency.

However, they said Leopold, convicted with the late Richard Loeb in the "thrill slaying" of the 14 year old Franks boy, must serve a minimum of 33 years of the 99 year kidnaping sentence before his application for parole can be considered.

Brackets For Two Meets Incomplete

NEW YORK, March 6. (AP)—Selection of teams for two of the major post-season college basketball tournaments stood at the halfway point today as the fields for the NCAA and national invitation playoffs in Madison Square Garden began to shape up.

The national collegiate brackets now contain four teams, with Holy Cross and Navy lined up for the eastern eliminations and Wyoming and Texas for the western. Naming of two more teams in the east and two in the west will complete the picture.
