Butterfly Dance By Business Men; Tap Numbers, Songs To Feature Play, "Oh, Professor"

The curtain will rise tonight at 8 o'clock on the musical comedy "Oh Professor" to be given at the Municipal Auditorium, the first home talent show since depression turned the corner.

Several specialty numbers will feature the show. Little Miss Jean Porter will give a tap number; so will Jacqueline Faw and Evelyn Ragsdale.

Each act will contain catchy songs and dances by members of the cast aided by the chorus girls in special costumes sent out by the producing company. There will also be a butterfly dance by Business men.

The songs will be:

Act I.
 1. Opening chorus "Books".... Children and Girls Chorus.
 2. "Campus Flirts" Girls Chorus.
 3. "I'd like to be your shiek for awhile" Steve Wilhelmima, College Chorus and Girls' chorus.
 Curtain.
 Specialty Tap... Evelyn Ragsdale Pupil of Martha McCluskey.
 Act. II.
 1. "I'd like to be a butterfly in a garden of girls" Professor and Butterfly chorus.
 2. "Oh Professor" Mrs. Burmbord.
 3. "Whoop-to" Wilhelmima, College chorus and Girls chorus.
 Specialty Tap... Jacqueline Faw. Pupil of the Robert Riegel School of Dancing.
 4. "Rita" Wilhelmima and chorus.
 Curtain.
 Specialty Tap... Jean Porter Pupil of Martha McCluskey.
 Act. III.
 1. "When you're waltzing with the one you love" College crowd and chorus.
 2. "Whoop-la" Professor and Dave.
 3. "I'm gonna keep you guessing for awhile" Helen FINALE—Entire company.

The scenes of the play are all in the living room of a fraternity house at Kentwood college. Miss Sue Lamb of the Wayne P.

Garden Club To Hold Flower Show In Spite Of Summer Drought And Fall Winds; Seek Potted Plants, County-Wide Assistance

Mrs. J. R. Phillips was hostess to the members of the Garden Club Tuesday afternoon for a social and business meeting.

The members brought seeds and plants to exchange with each other.

The time was devoted chiefly to making plans for the flower show to be held on the 10th of November in the Big Spring Motor Co.'s show rooms, the Ford dealers.

It was voted to throw the show open to the public and to invite every woman in Howard county to enter potted plants or cut flowers.

Because of the dry summer and the windy fall, it is suggested that flower-lovers enter their potted plants, as well as cut flowers.

Mrs. J. R. Manion was named chairman of the show. Her committees will be announced later.

The flower show will be held from 10 o'clock until 8 in the evening. All who enter flowers must have them at the show rooms by 10 o'clock Saturday morning, Nov. 10th.

There will be a called meeting of the club on Tuesday, Nov. 6th at 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Searcy of Ponca City are visiting Mrs. Searcy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Shive. They are enroute from their vacation in Colorado to Ponca City, Okla.

Mrs. Hayes Stripling Is Ecclesiastical Hostess

Mrs. Hayes Stripling was hostess to the members of the Ecclesiastical Circle of the First Methodist Church Monday afternoon. Mrs. Barnett gave the devotional.

The subject was "The Negro in the Rural South." Mrs. Joe Paucet began the discussion and everyone took part.

Present were: Misses Kin Barnett, Joe Paucet, Dave Dunson, H. W. Howie, M. E. Goley, Cliff Talbot, S. P. Jones, C. M. Watson, A. M. Rowe, D. F. Higon and Cole.

The Circle will meet again next Monday at the home of Mrs. Kin Barnett.

Mrs. Lowmire Entertains Club

Mrs. E. W. Lowmire was hostess to the members of the Congregational Club Tuesday afternoon for a make-up meeting.

All club members were present. They were: Misses C. C. Carter, R. F. Bluhm, Ches Anderson, R. H. Miller, F. R. Wilson, Cecil Long, R. D. McKillan.

Mrs. Miller will be the next hostess.

Mrs. F. F. Gary, Mrs. J. I. McDowell and Mrs. C. E. Bivings are spending the day in Colorado.

Dr. Glenn Frank, president of the University of Wisconsin, says in a book, published yesterday and called "America's Hour of Decision," that unless our swing toward a self-contained nationalism is checked it will bring ruin upon commercial agriculture and lower the farmer to the status of the European peasant.

"I am aware," the United Press quotes Dr. Frank as writing, "that the nature and volume of world trade have changed radically in the post-war period as nation after nation has enlarged its production of commodities that formerly bulked large in our export trade. But, for all this, I am convinced that the current swing toward self-contained nationalism is a venture in madness."

The American farmer, and particularly the cotton farmer, has depended upon the world market for his "velvet" surplus. Nearly 60 per cent of this country's cotton crop, in former years, has been shipped abroad. Ninety per cent of Texas cotton rode the ocean waves. Today all that is changed. Due to a combination of circumstances, not the least of which has been a studied indifference to tariff revision, the American cotton farmer has lost the bulk of his foreign market. Whether he ever regains it is a question no one can answer at the moment. That it will take years to build it back up to the pre-depression high is certain.

A self-contained nationalism, which policy and circumstance are forcing upon us, is what Dr. Frank fears. The "European peasantry" for the most part lives in squalor, eking out a bare existence, with no hope of producing for other than home markets. Let us hope the American farmer, by having his world market closed to him, isn't reduced to the same level.

Very Much Improved After Talking Cardui

"I have suffered a great deal from cramping," writes Mrs. W. A. Sewell, Sr., of Waco, Texas. "I would chill and have to go to bed for about three days at a time. I would have a dull, throbbing, aching feeling. A friend told me to try Cardui, thinking it would help me—and it did. I am very much improved and do not spend the time in bed. I certainly can recommend Cardui to other sufferers."

Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

New Deal Leaders Journey By Plane

WASHINGTON—New Deal executives are busy men and few are the number who do not take advantage of the time economies possible by using air transport in and out of Washington.

Newest of the air commuters is Joseph P. Kennedy, New Deal boss of Wall Street. Week-end visits to his home in Boston are facilitated by airplane and he is frequently a passenger on American Airlines planes out of New York.

Another recent regular commuter is Governor Winant of New Hampshire, chairman of the President's arbitration board in the textile strike. The facility with which peace in the textile strike was arranged, as has been the case in many other industrial troubles, is in part due to the speed and convenience of modern air transport.

Legion Auxiliary Honors Ex-Head

The American Legion Auxiliary met at the home of its new president, Mrs. C. C. Carter, Tuesday evening for a social meeting. Bridge and 42 were played. Mrs. Fontaine Hair, retiring president, was the honor guest, and was presented by the Auxiliary with a silver sugar and cream set on a silver tray.

Mrs. Bluhm received a footed comote for high score in bridge and Mrs. Payne a relish dish for high in 42.

Present were: Misses Hair, R. F. Bluhm, J. E. Payne, E. W. Anderson, H. H. Miller, L. E. Jobe, H. L. Mungrove, Reger, Alfred Moe, M. C. Stulting and Miss Frances who has been made Auxiliary list.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. E. Payne on November 6th.

Miss Gallagher Wed To Y. C. Gray

Miss Helen Gallagher and Y. C. Gray of Garden City were married Sunday evening in Big Lake. They are now on a honeymoon trip in Mexico.

The bride is the niece of Pete Johnson of this city, and the daughter of Mrs. Annie Gallagher of Langford, Pa. She was born and reared in Pennsylvania and took her nurse's training in the Philadelphia General Hospital. Last February she came to Big Spring to visit her relatives, she was employed by the Big Spring Hospital with which she was connected until the time of her marriage.

The groom was born and reared on the Gray Ranch in Borden county and has a host of friends throughout this section. He is now making his home in Garden City where he is manager of the Elliott-Waldron Abstract Co.

"Next to Advertising Matter"

THERE used to be a favorite phrase of advertisers. They asked to have their advertisements placed "next to reading matter" in the belief that such a position would assure more attention.

But today the editor might well ask to have his news items placed "next to advertising matter," for very definitely the advertisements have a tremendous reader following. Today's advertisements win eager attention because they help people buy intelligently, quickly, without waste of time, and get full value for the money spent.

That is the great function of advertising—to guide you swiftly and surely to wise, economical buying. The best advertisement is always the one that gives you the facts you want—simply, honestly, without exaggeration.

Can You Prove Your Oil is Better than the Others?

We Can and Do!

This Machine Shows Why this New Oil Cuts Motor Wear and Saves You Money!

YOU, as a buyer of Motor Oil, should ask that question—and demand facts! Here is Continental's answer:

In the demonstration pictured below, the film strength and oiliness of every well known motor oil in America have been shown to be increased by the addition of a drop of Germ Essence.

Demonstrations before at least two hundred thousand motor-minded men have proved that "Any oil would be better oil if Germ Processed!" But there is only one oil made by the patented Germ Process—New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil! Use this oil of proved strength in your car! It saves you money by giving greater motor protection and lower oil consumption. It gives you the comfortable feeling that you know your car is protected by the safest, finest motor oil made!

TO ALL CAR OWNERS OF BIG SPRING

Continental backs claims with facts. To prove that New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil gives you lower oil consumption as well as greater motor protection, we drove six brand new cars to destruction, testing this oil against five other nationally known oils. Any Conoco station will give you a booklet that tells the story of this convincing test. It will pay you in money saved to read it! Drive in and ask for a copy—or try this oil!

WILKERS OPEN BASKETBALL PRACTICE

Cosden to Have A Snappy Outfit

By HANK HART
The Cosden Oilers will begin work in earnest today in preparation for their annual basketball trial.

The Cosdenites will break forth with one of the greatest teams they have ever had. Eleven former high school and college stars will carry the Oiler banner.

Among the eleven are three former stars of the local high school. In David Hopper and Jack Morgan, Henninger, has two forwards that carried part of the Bears' burden when they journeyed to the State meet. Both were selected on numerous All District lists.

Townsend, diminutive all-around star, is at home on the courts at either the forward or guard position. Townsend made the Bears' first trip to Austin and with his brilliant play, received mention for All-State.

Among Henninger's forces are two former Oklahoma dribblers, "Riffey" Baker, has assisted to keep the team for next year's basketball season and has announced that he will make a try at one of the guard positions. Baker rendered his services to Rush Springs, Oklahoma and that section of the state has not forgotten his brilliant play in football as well as in basketball.

Among other Oklahoma men is Bedon, newcomer from Ponca City. Bedon was a member of that championship five that swept through the finals for Oklahoma's state title in 1923.

The newcomers this year are Houser, Phillip Smith, and White and Brooks. King represented the San Antonio College while in school. A joined up with the widely known Christiano Bats upon finishing his work with the Tomlinson professors.

King gained quite a reputation attending Trinity. Smith's play marks him as one of the best guards in this section.

White, formerly a member of the A.C.C. Wildcats, has been working out daily in the Forsan gym, and seems to have recovered from last year's injury.

King played his freshman year at the University of New Mexico before signing up with the local and gives promise of developing into a fair hand.

A recent import from Abilene is Jack Smith, who attended Simmons University before coming west. Smith is a left hander, better known around here as an Oiler soft ball first baseman.

The center position will probably be taken care of by the "Great Bear" West, otherwise known as "Skeets." West is a holdover from last season's team and has been a shining light for the Cosdenites for several seasons.

Workouts will be held each Wednesday and Thursday in the High School gym and will continue until Manager Claude Henninger arranges for the initial game.

Arrangements are being made to meet several West Texas college teams, Simmons, McMurry, and A.C.C. of Abilene are being contacted in an effort to arrange games.

Triple-Threat Bear Injured

Coach Morley Jennings Faced With Serious Problem

WACO (Sp.) — Coach Morley Jennings is faced with the prospect of revising his offensive tactics for the game next Saturday with Coach Homer Norton's Texas Aggies. Lloyd Russell, triple-threat sophomore back, one of the mainstays of the Bear running back on the sidelines for two years or more with a dislocated knee, suffered in scrimmaging last week. In addition, Hal Finley and Lawrence Thornton, both first rate backfield men, are out with injuries received in the game with Hardin-Simmons last week-end. Thornton has a broken leg and is out for the season. Finley is out indefinitely with a bad knee.

These casualties do not seriously hamper the chances of the Bears, but it is probable that a passing attack will be more in evidence next Saturday than at any time this far in the season. To bolster the backfield strength of the Bears, John Williams, a full-back last year who has been playing capably at right end this season, may be shifted back to his old position. Coach Jennings can still start an excellent backfield in Joe Jack Pearce, Pehnie Frisby, Bob Masters, and Aubrey Stringer.

The freshmen scrimmaged the varsity today, using Aggie formations. On the whole, the attack was solved satisfactorily by the Bears but there will be two more scrimmages with the freshmen before Saturday in order to get the Bear machine in top form. Sonny Bantosh, promising sophomore lineman, is being held out a few days by an injury received in the Hardin-Simmons clash last Friday night.

Despite the poor record made by the A & M team to date, the Bears are not expecting a picnic Saturday. They know that the Farmers come to Waco primed to erase all defeats with a win over and no matter what the game will be bitter.

HEARD AND O'SHEA STAGE REAL BATTLE

Charlie Wins With Body Pins

The second of series of contests staged by the Big Spring Athletic club at their gymnasium, 403 Runnels street, Tuesday night, brought an additional high-class bone crusher before a comparatively small but evidently well pleased audience in the person of Eddie O'Shea, the "Crazy Irishman," while Gorilla Ford was so much too heavy for Claude Swindell that he was not able to show how good he was, although Claude did his "little" best to entertain the apeman.

Ladies Night
The management announced that next Tuesday night would be ladies' night, and promised another road show, with the possibility of their staging a match between two physical make-up on that night as they hoped to bring together Mrs. Eddie O'Shea, who is a wrestler, and the former woman middle-weight champion of the world, who now resides at Sweetwater, if she can be induced to perform. Anyhow, the ladies will be admitted free on that night, that is, one with each paid admission, so the gentlemen fans are invited to bring their wives or other lady friends along.

Sammy Wins
The first prelim brought together under amateur rules, Lloyd Brown, a local amateur who weighed 150, and Sammy Goodman, weighing 155, another amateur, whose extremely different types of physical make-up did not keep them from being well matched.

After eight minutes of earnest endeavor, Sammy threw Lloyd with a top body pin.

Gorilla Too Heavy
In the semi-final mixer, Claude Swindell, who did not look his reported 140 pounds, showed a display of aggressiveness and speed to try and smash the one-looking man, Gorilla Ford, who appeared to weigh more than 145, but his best was not a match for the weight and strength of his opponent, with the result that Gorilla took him for the first fall in 25 minutes flat with a pile driver pin, which is really a cruel looking hold especially from the bottom side of the Gorilla.

Neither could obtain a fall in the second round of the set, as Claude the "professor" apparently had more respect for Gorilla, and although he was dazed several times during their struggles, managed to obtain several holds which Gorilla allowed out of and at the same time kept Gorilla from getting any very bad ones on him, so that the nineteen minutes left after the first round, resulted in a draw for that scum.

Tough Going
From the standpoint of the fans wanting more action, the final, between Charlie Heard of San Antonio, weight 152, the world's fastest, and Eddie O'Shea of New York, weight 150, and probably the world's meanest, was a delight.

It would probably be impossible for the promoters to bring together another two wrestlers any better matched or who could either "put out" or "take it" than these two boys demonstrated that they could for from the first bell, the bout was one of tortuous holds, applied with all the vim and vigor that a perfectly developed and conditioned athlete with plenty of science, could put out.

At times the referee, the famous Benny Wilson, had plenty to do to keep the "Crazy Irishman" from smothering Charlie, and he finally did get fanned himself while he was trying to unloosen Eddie from some "Machinista" hold.

The first fall was won by Eddie in 27 minutes flat, with a cradle leg-splint, after he had rolled Charlie around the ring several times in that embarrassing position, with Charlie's head pounding the floor at each revolution.

In the first round the boys really began to get rough, forcing one another back over the ropes while trying to tear them apart and necessitating several time-outs for one or the other to crawl back into the ring, but Charlie finally won the fall in 18 minutes after he had "one out" of the ring to get Eddie and threw him back in where he won with a ton body pin.

Although he lasted only four minutes, the final round was still more fast and furious, if such was possible, and Charlie won it that time, with another ton body pin.

It appeared that he was really out of the ring as a result of a slam after slam and "hit" punch after "hit" punch from the muscular Eddie, one of which he came out of on top, to win the decisive fall.

Mrs. V. V. Strahan Is 1922 Hostess
Mrs. V. V. Strahan entertained the 1922 Bridge Club Tuesday afternoon with an enjoyable club session.

Mrs. Richardson made high for visitors and was presented with a deck of cards. Mrs. Cunningham made high for club.

Present were: Meses. Grovet Cunningham, Mae Battle, E. O. Price, Bob Parks, V. Van Gleason, W. A. Robertson, Emil Fahrnkamp and Buck Richardson.

Mrs. J. J. Robb will be the next hostess.

Mrs. Ed Douthitt was the house guest of Miss Gertrude McIntyre Tuesday night.

Insert TWO rules which are being broken

Continuing the effort to make the school children of the country "safety conscious," the October AAA school poster sounds a strong warning on the danger of hurrying.

This statement was made today by Jack Douglas, general manager of the South Plains Automobile club, in connection with the distribution of the second of the series of 1934-35 posters to schools in this territory.

"Hurry—the Accident Maker" is the title of the poster, which depicts a youngster rushing into the street without regard for an approaching automobile, in an effort to save her doll being carried away by a dog. At the bottom of the poster, which is in colors, is space for the insertion of the two safety rules being broken. Thus it takes the form of a question and answer poster.

Simultaneous with the distribution of the poster, Mr. Douglas declared that motor clubs affiliated with the American Automobile Association are making an intensive drive to establish a new record for child safety during the school year ahead.

"From all parts of the country," he continues, "come reports indicating a new interest in safety edu-

"Mrs. Wiggs of The Cabbage Patch" Coming to Ritz Friday, Saturday

Three girls selected by Earl Carroll as being among the "most beautiful in the world" are members of the "Glow-Worm Ballet" which LeRoy Prinz, Paramount dance director, prepared for the vaudeville theatre sequence of Paramount's "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," coming Friday and Saturday to the Ritz theatre.

They are Dorothy Ross, who was in Carroll's stage production of "Murder at the Vantiles," Daisy Rooney, "Vantiles" beauty of a few years ago, who plays Nita in movies now and then for the fun of it, and Gladys Young, one of the Hollywood girls Carroll selected for the filmization of his "Murder" play.

The twelve girls Prinz selected for the ballet were chosen for their resemblance to the "Gibson Girl" type. The ballet is included in the vaudeville show which the famous Wiggs family of literature attends.

A broadcasting station, claimed to be the most powerful in South America, was opened in Lima, Peru, with the operating company importing a thousand radio sets to be sold at cost as a means of stimulating interest in the station.

Officials present were: Tom Gooch, Fort Worth; John Lee Smith, Throckmorton; Theo Yarbrough, Weatherford, and Royal G. Phillips, Tyler.

The entertainment consisted of specialty numbers by male quartets from Abilene and San Angelo lodges, and Abilene High School band. Refreshments were served by Pythian Sisters of Abilene in the church basement. The keynote speech, a message from Supreme Chancellor, was delivered by John Lee Smith, outstanding Texas Pythian.

Attending from Big Spring were: O. R. Bolinger, Morris Burns, C. A. Johnson, H. M. Rainbolt, Kit Carson, J. P. Ferguson, and C. B. Johnson.

Elder Speaks To Moore Students Learn From Doctors How to Treat Colds

J. Frank Elder, president of the Game and Fish Protective association, spoke to students in the Moore school Monday. He was introduced by Miss Arah Phillips, principal of the school.

Elder discussed the value of song birds to agriculture and among the valuable birds mentioned were the blue and white red headed woodpecker.

He described this bird as a friend to fruit trees, giving these birds credit for destroying wood borers and other harmful insects. Were it not for helpful birds, insects would make life practically impossible for man, he said.

The speaker explained the game laws and gave reasons for conservation. "You wouldn't shoot your old hen while she was setting," he said in drawing a parallel between

Four Points to Remember
As colds cause more loss of time and money than any other disease, every one should learn what modern medical science teaches as to their proper treatment. Your doctor has the following objectives:
First—To relieve the congestion in the nose and throat, thus aborting, or lightening the attack and relieving the symptoms caused by the congestion.—Calotabs, the improved calomel compound tablets, accomplish this by attracting the excess blood to the bowels.
Second—To help the kidneys wash out of the blood the cold-poisons which cause the chilly sensation, feverishness, aches and mean feeling.—Calotabs are diuretic to the kidneys, assisting them in ridding the blood of the poisons.
Third—To expel the germ-laden mucus and toxins from the bowels, thus preventing their absorption into the blood.—Calotabs accomplish this thoroughly.

Fourth—To keep the bile of the liver flowing freely through and out of the intestines, thus relieving the biliousness and constipation, which attend and aggravate a cold. As Calotabs contain calomel, they promote the flow of bile.
Thus, Calotabs meet these four important objectives of medical treatment for colds. One or two Calotabs at bed time, with a glass of sweet milk or water, is usually sufficient; but should be repeated the third or fifth night if needed. The milk tones down the action, making it milder, if desired.
Why risk doubtful or make-shift remedies? Get a family package of Calotabs containing full directions, only twenty-five cents; trial package ten cents, at your dealer's.—(Adv.)

It Happened At School

By Cleo Lane

And, my little classmates, I have many sad and mournful tales to tell but after all, our battle was fought and won so here we are just one more happy bunch of little girls and boys!

Again, she turned out to be a home loving gal—JANE-LEE, not thoroughly convinced after her recent EDWARDS affair that there ain't no good in men, turns away JACK TINGLE and CLARENCE PERCY just in case our gallant BOBBY MILLS should appear on the scene.

REBUREAUCTION OF THE STEER SPIRIT

"Buried" last spring by a practical joker, the Spirit of B. S. H. S. has made a full revival. Our past few games have shown us a spirit which gives promise to live perpetually.

Last year we entered play the under-dog in the greater part of our games. Our grandstands were silent; at intervals the sublimity was broken by feeble cheers that faded and died. Those boys played plugged away, but their souls into the game, only to have their backers render no aid in urging them on to fight. Everywhere was silence.

Last week the powerful Ponies fell before our strong squad as we cheered. Every day, good or bad, was met by a rousing cheer. We joyed in the sight of hurtling, crashing bodies. A reborn spirit made us shout.

Last year the Bristowman went into the games the low man. All material was comparatively green. But this year we entered the arena with a team full of experience and determination.

This victory over Sweetwater hailed the revival of the spirit of B. S. H. S. khile our people were blessed with a sentimental heart that helped this spirit awaken. We welcome this spirit to our stronghold. The rising of the Spirit of B. S. H. S. is a reminder of the story of the Phoenix rising from ashes. As Phoenix rose from ashes, the spirit of B. S. H. S. is rising, youthful and full of zest, ready to go the limit for the school we back so loyally.—P. R. Z.

Classroom Notes

Mr. Parsons' 1A General Science class is studying lights in the home. To try to convince all they asked her if she would like some pie or cake. Her reply was "Pi r square".

The moral: Don't study too hard; all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy.

IF
If you can squeeze the urge to dump your books into the creek;
If you can calmly face the prof with gum inside your cheek;
If you can skip upon the surface of the halls and not get caught;
If you can sleep through every class;
Remember still what's taught.

If you can smile and take your card while those about you moan;
And smiling still, present it to the irate folks at home;

If you can learn your Latin on a day that's stinging hot;
And cheerfully drone with all the rest

If you can say your speech in class Without a blush or blunder;
You'll not only be a man, my son,
By-gosh, you'll be a wonder!

Auditors Check School Books; Report Shows Fine Condition

The annual audit of the books of the Big Spring Independent school district was completed last week, and the auditor reported to members of the school board that the books were in excellent condition. This audit is for the purpose of verifying all transactions completed during the fiscal year, and to check the books. Upon completion of the audit, typewritten report in a condensed form is sent here for use as a reference in later years. The form contains all information contained in the books concerning the assets and indebtedness of the district.

The audit was made by Mr. Hutchinson, a certified public accountant, with the firm of Hutchinson and Hutchinson of Dallas. For the last three or four years the audit has been made by Rodgers and company of San Antonio.

Steers Thump Mustangs 19-0

Four Year Ambition Finally Realized, Ponies Stopped

An ambition cherished for four long years has come true. Friday afternoon Oble Bristow's present edition of black and gold warriors thumped the Sweetwater Mustangs to the tune of 19-0 in a hectic battle. The victory came after a fierce struggle by both teams. Every inch that was gained was hotly contested by both clubs.

The Steers won by having more experienced men, better teamwork, and getting some breaks that they used to the utmost. Oble Sweetwater possessed an expert team and an accurate passer, the story might have been different. Several times the Sweetwater receivers were clear only to have the passes fall short or sail over their heads. The Steers prevented a strong running attack headed by Buckett Hare and Bill George Neel behind some great blocking by Capt. Bob Flowers and Big Oble Cordill. In the line Sam Flowers, Steep Jones and James Vines were standouts, while the club as a whole played heads up throughout.

Standouts for Sweetwater were Little Josh Billings, Barnett, Roy and Rosebrough.

The Steers play their next conference game with San Angelo November 12. This game will no doubt prove who is to be the District 3 champs.

Pep Squad Honored With Lovely Banquet Friday In Settles Hotel

The Pep Squad was honored with a lovely banquet Friday noon at the Settles hotel before the game with Sweetwater.

A three course luncheon was served with the program between courses.

The colors "Black and Gold" were carried out with orange suckers tied with black and gold ribbons as favors. All the members were present in full uniform, as were the sponsors Miss Shick and Miss Jordan.

Jo Ann Bennett, president of the Pep Squad, gave a very interesting talk to the members and Gene Dublin, a freshman, also gave a most encouraging talk. Mary Ruth Diltz gave a tap dance accompanied on the piano by Wills Nell Rogers.

La Verne Toller gave a reading. Francis Stampert sang a solo also accompanied on the piano by Wills Nell Rogers. Later yells and songs directed by the three pep leaders, Cleo Lane, Francis Stampert, Bobby Gordon, were given.

Those present were: Miss Bobby Gordon, Helen Thompson, Margaret Smith, Fern Smith, Jo Ann Bennett, Edna Straughn, Geraldine Green, Doris Shettleworth, Dorothy Hoover, Beatrice Heath, Marvin Louise Davis, Wanda Owen, Emma Jo Reddock, Julia Johnson, Dorothy Coleman, Inell Curtis, Mary Francis Robinson, Jean Dublin, Leida Plankton, Geraldine Tynes, La Verne Toller, Mary Louise Inkman, Francis Stampert, Cleo Lane, Wills Nell Rogers, Judith Pickle, Mary Ruth Diltz, Wynell Woodall, Doris Cunningham, Lois Whitehead, Maurine Montgomery, Louise McCrary, Mary Alice McNew, Eloise Kuykendall, Ruth Arnold, Elizabeth Graves, Charlene Fallon, Nina Rose Webb, Frances Eldeao, Camille Kober, Janice Jacobs, Margaret Hudson, Mary Louise Wood, Ida Rae Lee, Jamie Lee Mendorf, Josephine Edwards, Nancy Bell Phillips, and the two sponsors Miss Shick and Miss Jordan.

Literary Talk

By Eddy Raye Lees

"The Literary Digest" for October 20 has many interesting features in it. Among the most interesting features were: "Dizzy, Daffy and Dangerous Dramatic" which tells all about the Deans and the World Series; and "Cuba Bolls Again With Two Dictators."

In the Cuban foreground are daily bombings, strikes, assassinations. In the background two men struggle—President Carlos Menzies to remain nominal autocratic power which he does not use, and Col. Fulgencio Batista, the army chief, to force the president to pacify Cuba with stern military measures.

That each is subtly defying the other while neither is completely arrested. Menzies is a chief cause of Cuba's trouble. He is often expressed with dynamite and bullets, violence is more and more the vogue.

A third, or more, of the bombings are the work of girls and young women, but none has been arrested. Menzies is chivalrous; he says women are not responsible; that they are victims of the emotional forces of the revolution, and that if he leaves them alone they will quit voluntarily. The female bombers multiply and become more audacious.

Criminals find this situation ideal for them. Rackets flourish. "Protection" is exacted of merchants and wealthy persons, but it often does not protect. The gangs who levy tribute are known; they are so bold as to leave their real names and to masquerade as "political clubs." When places which have paid, and still are blown up, complain, the "political" gangsters say—"It was not us, but those crazy students."

A blanket of terrorism has settled over the island like a black cap.

The consensus of opinion in Cuba points to the man behind Menzies as the sole visible hope in the situation. He is the commander of the army, and the dictator without portfolio.

While civil government has practically collapsed, Batista has stepped in quietly, persistently, and efficiently he has organized all military forces on the island, including all police. He has more than 25,000 men disciplined, equipped, and subject to his will. The back-stage content between the two men is unceasing and increasing.

Menzies is a "yes" man. He is always confident tomorrow will be a better day. Batista wants things better today, and he proposes to make them so by force, if necessary.

The army controls Cuba, and will for a long time to come, and Batista controls the army. He will name the next president.

Conley Speaks At PTA Meet Tuesday

The high school P. T. A. met Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. H. D. Hilliard in charge of the program. Mr. D. W. Conley gave a talk on "Music in Public Schools". The High school band played, and another talk was given by Mrs. Fox Stripling. The subject of her talk was, "Some Problems of Parents."

This year the P. T. A. will follow last year's schedule, welfare work, co-operate with Home Economics teachers, and other things.

Reverend C. A. Bickley pastor of the First Methodist church appeared before the student body Wednesday morning in the regular chapel period. The subject was "The Game of Life."

Reverend Bickley used, as a figure to illustrate his subject, a football game. "Play fair, and always run toward the right goal."

Studes To Enter Poetry Contest

The thirteenth annual Texas High School Poetry Contest, conducted by Baylor Belton, is open to any regular student of a Texas high school.

Any poem may be entered, which has been written since the close of the last contest, a year ago. Previous publications or entries in another contest will not bar its entrance.

Each high school may submit as many as three poems, provided they are by different students. No poem, or group of poems, may be more than one hundred lines in length. Each poem must have three typewritten copies; the name of the writer, and of the high school represented must be on a separate page.

The high school whose representative wins first place will be awarded the Bjolander Cup, and may keep it for one year. The winner will have his name engraved on the cup and in addition will receive an autographed copy of the volume by the winner of the publication prize of the Poetry Society of Texas for this year. The winners of second and third places will also receive an autographed copy of a volume by some Texas poet.

All three ranking contestants will be invited to read their productions before the Texas High School Press Association, which meets in convention at Mary Hardin-Baylor College, December 14 and 15.

All poems must be sent in by
