Jay Dee Fish To Go To Boys State

Jay Dee Fish has been selected as a citizen of the American Legion Boys State to be held in Austin June 12-18. Jay Dee is being sponsored by the American Legion Post of McLean.

Boys State is a plan for training in the functional aspects of citizenship. It is a program of education sponsored by the American Legion, Department of Texas. Citizens of Boys State not only will be required to review knowledge already acquired concerning the political machinery of a commonwealth, but they will find themselves performing exactly the same functions as real officeholders in the everyday world. In Boys State, citizens organize their own city, county and state governments. They choose their own officials in accordance with regular election procedures. They learn the duties of the various city, county and state officers, and

Sport Fishing Violations Head Citations List

Sport fishermen, primarily the ones who neglected to buy a $4.25 license, comprised the major portion of all arrests made by Texas Parks and Wildlife game wardens as of the end of April.

A total of 648 Texans who angle for the fun of it were cited by the department for violation of the state's fishing regulations; 585 of that number lacked a fishing license.

Only 48 commercial fishing citations were filed by wardens during the same period.

Another 279 persons violated water safety laws, usually by failure to have the proper number of life jackets on board their boats.

More than 1,200 arrests were filed, which garnered the State of Texas some $32,000 in fines.

Museum Memorabilia

By Vera Featherston Back

Going to Amarillo? If so and you have time to run a small errand for the museum, call me at 9-2558.

Summer is here but our summer help from the students has not been made available to us yet. We are still hoping. Mary Lou Glass who has been with us all winter, keeping the doors open from 12:00 till 4:00, is staying the week and donating her services. If the man power program can't find us students that qualify some more of us are going to have to offer our services free if we are to have the museum open for the summer tourists who are already coming by.

If you have helped us before and can work again, please call the museum (9-2731) in the afternoon or reach me at my home. Tell us when you prefer to work and we will try to give you that time.

If you have never helped at the museum, you have a treat coming. It is indeed gratifying to meet the interesting people who come through. You feel prouder of your part of Texas and those who came early to settle our country. The museum is a house of memories and there's an interesting story with each item on exhibit!

If you are a newcomer, do drop by to see us, get acquainted with us, and see for yourself that we have something worthwhile to show and tell about.

Have you given any thought to our plaque, honoring the area pioneers--both living and dead? A number of you reading this need to register your parents, grandparents, or perhaps you and your mate, so come by and do so at the same time, let us have some representation from your family.

Those who donate $25.00 to the museum may designate any two people who came on or before the year 1925. These names will be engraved on a metal plate and mounted on a mahogany plaque.

Those already registered are: A. W. and Jennie Haynes-1909, John and Emma Back-1904, W. E. and Bertie Bentley-1905, S. A. (Sr.) and Mettie Cousins-1902, W. B. and Mattie Upman-1902, J. C. and Amanda Short-1890, John and Lou Car-

Market Report

It's a good time for meat madcaps to stock up, according to most sources.

One is Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A & M University System.

She reports beef production higher than last year, pork prices down a little, and turkeys available in record quantities with very attractive prices.

Beef specials take careful shopping and likely will include chuck cuts, round steak, liver and ground meat. Pork values will be Boston butt, quarter-loin chops, loin-end roasts, smoked picnics and hams.

Turning to vegetables, Mrs. Clyatt said there's good news for onion lovers--big crops and prices about half what they were last year.

More lettuce is available, as are escarole, endive, beet tops and leaf lettuce. Carrots, celery, cabbage, tomatoes, radishes, and cooking greens, cucumbers and yellow squash are other choices.

Peaches are on the market, but prices are high. Cantaloupe, honeydew and watermelon prices are relatively high.

Citrus supplies are only fair, as the end of the season is near, and apple prices are trending upward as supplies dwindle, Mrs. Clyatt added.

CONSUMER WATCHWORDS: Buy fresh strawberries now, if you want some for later use.

Although supplies are increasing--with prices only moderate--the season is short, so consumers should buy strawberries now and freeze them.

COME DOWN AND WE WILL BELIEVE!

Matthew 27:42

These soldiers who stood at the foot of the cross uttering their cry were sensationalists. In their eyes, Jesus could vindicate his claim of Messiahship only by the doing of the stupendous and the colossal. They were asking to see, not the picture of silent self-denial and sacrifice, obeying the will of God, but something as dramatic as loosening his hands and feet and stepping down from the cross. And when he did not do it, the whole incident became so boring that the soldiers sat down and cast lots for his garments. There, within a stone's throw of them, the greatest drama ever enacted was in progress. Yet, they were completely unaware of it because they were looking for the sensational.

Today on every hand, people are trying to find God in the spectacular and dramatic. To them, the test of every sermon is not "Is it true?" but "Does it sweep me across the whole key-board of human emotion, leaving me perched on a mountain-type high?" The test of revelation is not "Did it come from the Book?" for that is ever so undramatic; but, "Did it come by vision or by dream?" Similarly, the test of one's spirituality is judged, not by his devotion to God or his service to man, but by his amazing ability to feel overwhelmed by the Holy Spirit, while speaking in an 'ecstatic tongue."

People who try to find God in the spectacular and dramatic, are often likely to miss God for the very reason that there is a sense in which no one is as unsensational as God for the very reason that there is a sense in which no one is as unsensational as God. Naaman, the leper, (2 Kings 5) wanted God to cure him of his dread disease in a dramatic, spectacular way. God told him to go dip seven times in the muddy Jordan. How undramatic! Yet, he found healing. Jesus came to Matthew who was sitting at the seat of customs and said "Follow me" (Matt. 9:9). It was undramatic, but Matthew, by obeying the command became a faithful disciple and apostle.

So many are missing Christ because they are expecting religion to be dramatic. They are looking for a "sign" which Jesus said was the mark of an evil and adulterous generation (Matt. 27:42). Such need to hear the statement of Abraham to the rich man in Hades: "If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead" (Luke 16:31). Salvation is not a melodramatic occurrence as the result of a highly charged emotional experience, but is the result of the obedience of faith; (Rom. 1:5, 17; 6:1-18), a faith which comes only through hearing the word of God (Rom. 10:17). You can sit in the very shadow of the cross, as did the Roman soldiers, and still miss its meaning.

 TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. — Some of the Constitution's hottest debate is yet to come.

Explosive potential of the general provision article already has been demonstrated in preliminary rounds, and the right-to-work section should produce the biggest bang of all.

Organized labor, headed by State AFL-CIO President Harry Hubbard, stands four-square against writing right-to-work provisions into the new constitution.

A new statewide citizens committee with formidable political and financial muscle has been formed to lobby for placing right-to-work on the ballot as a separate issue from the overall constitutional revision.

The Texas right-to-work law, dating back to 1947, prohibits union contracts which would require union membership as a condition to getting and keeping a job.

Baylor University President Dr. Abner McCall is chairman of the Texas Right-To-Work Committee which opened offices near the state capitol recently. Houston school teacher Mrs. Margaret Wisdom is the co-chairman. Other big-name Texans, including a scattering of industrial leaders, Republicans, conservative Democrats and Gov. Dolph Briscoe's campaign manager, Austin attorney Joe Kilgore, are on the committee roster.

COTTON THREATENED — Drought which destroyed High Plains dryland wheat is now threatening this year's cotton crop. Agriculture Commissioner John C. White fears.

White said High Plains cotton production could be cut almost in half because of dry weather.

The High Plains last year produced an estimated 2.9 million bales of cotton. More than 2.7 million acres of cotton were planted in the area, and 1.1 million were dryland acres. Irrigation costs are running $35-$60 and acre and irrigation fuel which cost 10 cents a gallon last year now costs 27-29 cents.

STUDY ORDERED — Speaker Price Daniel Jr. has ordered a "thorough study" of the Texas Water Quality Board by the House Committee on Environmental Affairs.

The investigation will cover the agency's administration, operation and enforcement of environmental standards.

While inquiry actually will not get under way until the Constitutional Convention adjourns, advance planning and research by staff members is already under way.

Rep. Carlos Truan of Corpus Christi and 44 other representatives petitioned for the investigation May 15.

The standing subcommittee on pollution of the Environmental Affairs panel actually will conduct the study. The House Judiciary Committee will further consider administrative operations of TWQB in its overall review of administrative agency procedures.

Daniel said purpose of the investigation is to "get all of the facts and to lay the basis for any remedial legislation or administrative action which may be needed."

APPOINTMENTS — Ruben R. Cardenas of McAllen was appointed by Governor Briscoe to the Pan American University board of regents and Leonel Garza Sr. and Morris Atlas of McAllen reappointed.

Other recent appointments by Briscoe included:

Rolad of La Feria and Jim Mathis of Edinburg to the Rio Grande Valley Pollution Control Authority board of directors; Homer Bryce of Henderson to the board of regents of Stephen F. Austin State University and Robert H. Lackner Jr. of Brownsville to the Texas Conservation Foundation.

Harry C. Heyman assumed new duties June 1 as director of the Amarillo State Center for Human Development.

WIRE SHORTAGE THREATENS — A serious baling wire shortage may cause economic hazards, Agriculture Commissioner White warned.

White earlier said the shortage would be between 22 and 47 per cent. Industry sources reported a 30 per cent shortage nationwide and a possibly higher figure for Texas.

Prices may rise from $28 and $50 a carton to $70, White said. A year ago, the price was $13. White said a black market situation may develop in baling wire as in fertilizer. Haybaling is just beginning in the state. Ninety per cent of farmers in Texas use wire to bale hay. Twine too is in short supply.

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health

Accent on Health

J.E. PEAVY, M.D., Commissioner of Health

Early detection of disease or a physical problem often can be the difference between a bright future or one filled with continuing medical problems.

Texas youngsters--more than 150,000 of them to date--have a better chance of good health through special medical and dental programs carried out by the Texas State Department of Health.

Preventive health services are being given Texas children through an agreement between the State Health Department and Department of Public Welfare. Those eligible for medical screening and dental diagnosis and treatment services are those youngsters on the Welfare Department's aid for dependent children rolls.

It is anticipated that the early detection and treatment of disease in children served by this program will have a significant impact on their lives now and in the future.

The program--called the Texas Medical Assistance Program--is designed to create awareness of existing health care services, to stimulate the use of these services, and to make services available so that children can receive medical and dental care before health problems become chronic and permanent damage occurs.

The dental program concept is to provide eligible children a certain level of dental care through utilization of services of private dentists in the state. The more than 68,000 children participating in this program have received examinations, preventive care, remedial and emergency dentistry where necessary. A definite freedom of choice on the part of both the recipient and dentist is strictly maintained. The Department of Public Welfare is responsible for identifying eligible children, obtaining and seeing that dental appointments are kept, and providing local administrative services to the program. The Health Department monitors the statewide program, provides a list of participating dentists for each county, issues and processes dental invoices, and maintains statistical data.

The program is charged with giving "early and periodic screening, diagnosis and treatment" of eligible children below age of 21.

Medical screening, performed by medical screening teams, is conducted in a different manner under different operational procedures.

Teams may be located in a regular Health Department clinic, or they may take a mobile clinic into any locality and set it up in such facilities as a school or church.

A medical screening team consists of a physician, nurse, licensed vocational nurse, clinical attendant, laboratory technician and clerk. A child's medical history is obtained and physical inspection is performed. If physical defects are observed, the child may be referred to a private physician of the parents' choice for diagnosis and treatment.

In the more than 84,000 youngsters screened thus far many physical defects have been found and referred to private physicians for treatment. The most common reasons for referrals are--in order of frequency--abnormal blood (low hemoglobin), visual defects, hearing defects, skin problems, muscle and bone problems, cardiovascular problems and psychological developmental problems.

The medical screening teams have operated in 213 of the state's 254 counties, and there's a big job ahead in reaching the 365,000 eligible children in Texas.

Medical screening covers a health and developmental history of the child; a brief family history to check for such conditions as diabetes, tuberculosis, cancer and mental disorders; a physical inspection with emphasis on visual and hearing defects, heart abnormalities, skin diseases and bone problems. Certain laboratory tests also are performed. These include routine urinalysis, blood tests, tests for proper metabolism and skin tests for tuberculosis. Complete records are kept on all recipients.

Park Entrance Permits Revamped

State park users will soon have the opportunity to purchase an annual park permit designed much along the lines of vehicle inspection stickers.

Texas Parks and Wildlife Commissioners in their May meeting approved the concept of an annual permit which is valid for 12 months from the date of issuance.

The TP&W Department currently issues three types of annual entrance permits: $12 fee, $5 restricted fee valid at a designated park and a $12 group fee for youth organizations composed of individual 17 years of age or under.

All such permits now expire Aug. 31 of each year.

Commissioners approved the implementation of the new system beginning Sept. 1, 1974.

families, identifies recipients, gets them to and from screening sites, assists with referrals to private physicians and monitors the child's cooperation with the private physician's recommendations.

Through this program, a strong impact is expected on the present and future health of thousands of young welfare children in Texas.

Students To Finish Course In August

Vocational Nursing students of Frank Phillips College will complete in August, their first annual class since merging the North Plains and Highland General Hospital program last September. This new consolidated program is approved by the Vocational Nurses Examining Board and the Texas Education Agency.

The second annual class of Vocational Nurses is scheduled to begin August 19, 1974, and the tentative deadline for receipt of applications has been set for July 12. Persons interested in the 1974-75 class are urged to act now. Applications may be secured at the offices of Andy Hicks, Dean of the Vocational-Technical Education Division, or Mrs. Ella Mae Weeter, the director of the L.V.N. Program. Both are located in the Administration Building on the College Campus, or by writing either of the two officials c/o Frank Phillips College, Box 111.

The sooner the application is received by the school of Vocational Nursing at the College, the more adequate the time for processing it. Ample time is needed for obtaining responses from references, scheduling the pre-classification test, personal interviews, appointments, with the Screening Committee, and the physical examination—the order of events leading to acceptance in the 1974-75 class.

The following admission requirements are listed for the next class.

Men or women between ages 18 and 55, two years of high school or its equivalent. Good physical and mental health. Definite interest in nursing. Pre-classification test. Approval of screening committee.

Grants and Loan Funds are available for needy students. Contact the Financial Aids Officer on the College campus.

Homesickness

Homesickness is misery. But it is even more than that—loneliness, hostility, guilt, depression, and self-imposed failure, according to one family life education specialist.

Homesickness can strike both children and adults unexpectedly, even in the middle of planning activities and events, says Dorothy Taylor with Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System.

Since summer is often a time of moving, changing jobs and vacationing away from home, it's a prime time for homesickness, the specialist said. She recommended homesick-awareness and some preventive steps.

Entering strange or new situations makes a person more aware of his need for security. He will find this security through accepting himself and being able to make and meet his personal goals.

Keeping busy often helps defeat homesickness. But

ALL 50 STATES are recognized now as "hog cholera free," and Texas has not had a cholera case since May 2, 1973. A state must go for 12 months without a confirmed case to be designated as cholera free. This is the first time since 1962 that all states have been designated as cholera free. A certificate signed by U. S. Secretary Earl Butz was presented to Norman Moser, Chairman of Texas Animal Health Commissioner, in recognition of the cholera free status recently. Hog growers, however, are urged to check their hogs regularly to prevent a widespread outbreak of the disease.

REPORTS ARE that some fields of onions in the Rio Grande Valley are being abandoned because of low prices, according to the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. Onion harvest there is almost completed, and so is the harvest on cabbage and carrots. In the Coastal Bend squash harvest also is almost over, and cucumber harvest is past its peak. Peppers and tomatoes, honeydews and cantaloups are being harvested in the Valley, and harvest is beginning in the Winter Garden-San Antonio areas. Sweet potatoes are being planted in East Texas, and watermelons and vegetables are making good progress. Potatoes and other vegetables are making good progress on the High Plains.

CATTLEMEN are being urged by the USDA's Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service and the Texas Animal Health Commission to catch ticks off their cattle and send samples to the State-Federal Laboratory, 702 Colorado St., Austin, Texas 78701. Purpose is to continue the fight against the fever tick, the "season" for which is here now. Prompt control measures can be taken when the location of infestations are known. An area in Jim Wells and Duval counties is under quarantine now, but only one cattle fever tick infestation has been found in that area since February, and the quarantine may be lifted this year. The infestation was found in 1972. Cattle fever ticks are carriers of the fever which used to do as much as $40 million damage a year to U. S. cattle herds.

IT HAS been determined that if all the farm land in the United States was divided among all families, each family would have 24 acres, valued at $4,814. Each family would have grossed $1,684 and expenses would have been $1,198, leaving a net of $486. That's imaginary, but here in Texas, it is estimated that there are only 209,000 farms which average about 668 acres in size. Average value of those farms (land and buildings) is about $100,000.

TEXAS HEAVY breed turkey poult hatches are showing a decline. The hatch for the week ending May 18 was 272,000, a decrease of 23 per cent from a year ago and 10 per cent below a week earlier. Heavy breed eggs set totaled 494,000 which was 11 per cent below a year ago and eight per cent above the previous week, according to Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. The light breed hatch for the week ending May 18 was 18,000, and there were none at the same time a year ago.

Students To Finish Course In August

Vocational Nursing students of Frank Phillips College will complete in August, their first annual class since merging the North Plains and Highland General Hospital program last September. This new consolidated program is approved by the Vocational Nurses Examining Board and the Texas Education Agency.

The second annual class of Vocational Nurses is scheduled to begin August 19, 1974, and the tentative deadline for receipt of applications has been set for July 12. Persons interested in the 1974-75 class are urged to act now. Applications may be secured at the offices of Andy Hicks, Dean of the Vocational-Technical Education Division, or Mrs. Ella Mae Weeter, the director of the L.V.N. Program. Both are located in the Administration Building on the College Campus, or by writing either of the two officials c/o Frank Phillips College, Box 111.

The sooner the application is received by the school of Vocational Nursing at the College, the more adequate the time for processing it. Ample time is needed for obtaining responses from references, scheduling the pre-classification test, personal interviews, appointments, with the Screening Committee, and the physical examination—the order of events leading to acceptance in the 1974-75 class.

The following admission requirements are listed for the next class.
 Men or women between ages 18 and 55, two years of high school or its equivalent. Good physical and mental health. Definite interest in nursing. Pre-classification test. Approval of screening committee.

Grants and Loan Funds are available for needy students. Contact the Financial Aids Officer on the College campus.

Homesickness

Homesickness is misery. But it is even more than that—loneliness, hostility, guilt, depression, and self-imposed failure, according to one family life education specialist.

Homesickness can strike both children and adults unexpectedly, even in the middle of planning activities and events, says Dorothy Taylor with Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System.

Since summer is often a time of moving, changing jobs and vacationing away from home, it's a prime time for homesickness, the specialist said. She recommended homesick-awareness and some preventive steps.

Entering strange or new situations makes a person more aware of his need for security. He will find this security through accepting himself and being able to make and meet his personal goals.

Keeping busy often helps defeat homesickness. But

ALL 50 STATES are recognized now as "hog cholera free," and Texas has not had a cholera case since May 2, 1973. A state must go for 12 months without a confirmed case to be designated as cholera free. This is the first time since 1962 that all states have been designated as cholera free. A certificate signed by U. S. Secretary Earl Butz was presented to Norman Moser, Chairman of Texas Animal Health Commissioner, in recognition of the cholera free status recently. Hog growers, however, are urged to check their hogs regularly to prevent a widespread outbreak of the disease.

REPORTS ARE that some fields of onions in the Rio Grande Valley are being abandoned because of low prices, according to the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. Onion harvest there is almost completed, and so is the harvest on cabbage and carrots. In the Coastal Bend squash harvest also is almost over, and cucumber harvest is past its peak. Peppers and tomatoes, honeydews and cantaloups are being harvested in the Valley, and harvest is beginning in the Winter Garden-San Antonio areas. Sweet potatoes are being planted in East Texas, and watermelons and vegetables are making good progress. Potatoes and other vegetables are making good progress on the High Plains.

CATTLEMEN are being urged by the USDA's Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service and the Texas Animal Health Commission to catch ticks off their cattle and send samples to the State-Federal Laboratory, 702 Colorado St., Austin, Texas 78701. Purpose is to continue the fight against the fever tick, the "season" for which is here now. Prompt control measures can be taken when the location of infestations are known. An area in Jim Wells and Duval counties is under quarantine now, but only one cattle fever tick infestation has been found in that area since February, and the quarantine may be lifted this year. The infestation was found in 1972. Cattle fever ticks are carriers of the fever which used to do as much as $40 million damage a year to U. S. cattle herds.

IT HAS been determined that if all the farm land in the United States was divided among all families, each family would have 24 acres, valued at $4,814. Each family would have grossed $1,684 and expenses would have been $1,198, leaving a net of $486. That's imaginary, but here in Texas, it is estimated that there are only 209,000 farms which average about 668 acres in size. Average value of those farms (land and buildings) is about $100,000.

TEXAS HEAVY breed turkey poult hatches are showing a decline. The hatch for the week ending May 18 was 272,000, a decrease of 23 per cent from a year ago and 10 per cent below a week earlier. Heavy breed eggs set totaled 494,000 which was 11 per cent below a year ago and eight per cent above the previous week, according to Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. The light breed hatch for the week ending May 18 was 18,000, and there were none at the same time a year ago.

here, she warns, there is the danger of entering too many activities, getting extremely tired and bringing about another stressful situation—exhaustion.
 Concerned friends can help Friends showing affection, approval and recognition chase away homesickness.
 According to Miss Taylor, the person who adapts easily to new surroundings and makes friends easily and quickly can successfully avoid the misery of homesickness.

130 Million Pounds Of Meat Harvested

By what Texas Parks and Wildlife Department game officials call a "conservative" estimate, state hunters and sport and commercial fishermen harvested some 130 million pounds of meat last year.

Tom Moore of the department's wildlife staff said that Texas hunters bagged some 21 million pounds of edible meat during last year with the 13 million pounds of white-tailed deer venison heading the list.

Another nine million pounds of freshwater fish were taken by sport anglers with commercial fishermen contributing 570,000 pounds.

"Commercial saltwater fishermen harvested the largest recorded amount of protein food," said Moore. "The Gulf of Mexico yielded almost 100 million pounds of fin and shell fish."

"We also estimate that sport saltwater fishermen landed on equal amount of poundage but until an ongoing creel survey is completed we can only guess."

Moore said that the 130-million-pound figure represented boneless meat.

THE CATTLE OUTLOOK AND PRICE SITUATION

Ed Uvacek, livestock marketing specialist recently made some very interesting observations in a newsletter to County Agricultural Agents. I thought you would be interested in these comments. I will pass them on to you. I quote:

"Never before in history has the cattle business been so confused or so utterly unattractive. Retailers are continuing to sell beef at record high prices, and margins, yet mainly that consumer demand is off."

"Packers are also reporting record high margins, but can't afford to pay more for cattle. Feeders are losing their shirts on cattle coming out of the lots, and still can't see daylight. On top of all this, the administration keeps saying that beef prices for the consumer are coming down."

"Let's be certain we all understand the facts as compared with a year ago:

1 - Beef production in the first three months of 1974 was up one percent.

2 - Disposable personal income of consumers during the same period was up nine percent.

3 - Retail prices of beef, as a consequence, were up 12 percent.

4 - Fed cattle prices, in the same three months, averaged five percent higher."

We might add gain cost stood at an all-time high during this period, exceeding 50 cents per pound in many cases.

Now I have been hesitant to put this in print but I have a guaranteed solution to the price problem in the cattle situation, with one big "IF."

If there would be no anti-trust violations. Here is my plan:

Get a few executives from the Texas Cattle Feeder's Association together and work the details of this plan, which I will lay out below. There is nothing sacred about it. I'm willing to accept some modification.

Here is the plan:

1 - Put all feedlot cattle on a maintenance ration immediately.

2 - Do not sell or offer for sale for a two to three-week period any cattle.

3 - Do not accept any new cattle in the feedlots for an undetermined period, to be announced at a later date.

4 - Figure out what the average cost is in steers weighing from 1,000 pounds to 1,200 pounds, as well as heifers at different market

Mr. and Mrs. Glyn Pugh of Forsyth, Montana and Mr. and Mrs. A.W. Lankford were in Pampa Saturday.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

"All My Worldly Possessions"

People who write their own wills often have a weakness for flowery phrases. Unfortunately, literary style does not count in the interpretation of legal documents. Take the case of a well-meaning widow who left "all my worldly possessions" to a beloved friend.

Clearly, this included her personal belongings. But did it also include a sizeable piece of real estate that she owned?

Several relatives turned up in court, insisting they were entitled to the realty. After years of litigation, the beloved friend lost out. The court said that, as nearly as it could figure out from the context, the widow had not intended the disputed language to cover real estate.

In another homemade will case, the phrase "personal things" proved to be a stumbling block. A woman left "my jewelry and other personal things" to her two sisters.

But a brother promptly laid claim to her stocks, bonds, and cash, which he said were not "personal things." However, there was evidence that the woman had often spoken of the securities and the money as her "things." Accordingly, the court decided they were all included in the bequest to the sisters.

Even the plainest of words can turn out to be ambiguous when put under close scrutiny by rival claimants to an estate. Major court battles have been waged over the meaning of "house," weights.

5 - Set price at 105 percent of cost of production.

6 - Call a national meeting of the Cattle Feeder's Association and gain their adoption.

7 - Get the hog and chicken boys to adopt a similar plan on a national scale.

8 - Be a price-setter, not a price-taker.

Now this sounds drastic and might have plenty of illegal loopholes, but I think it's worth a try. If you think the plan has some merit and enough interest is shown, we will get reprints run off for you to send to people in the right places.

Call anyone you wish or take this to anyone in an influential place. This certainly isn't as drastic as shooting holes through windshields or as bad as blocking the drives of truck stops. Or doesn't illegally tie up traffic for 10 miles on an expressway.
