New Telephone Books Delivered

A painting featuring elements representative of the history of Texas will highlight the cover of the new McLean telephone directory which was delivered beginning May 19.

The painting, "Our Texas" by Edward Herbes, represents Texans of all faiths, races and cultural backgrounds and their historical achievements, said Gary Stevens, manager for Southwestern Bell.

Stevens pointed out that due to the nationwide paper shortage, the number of directories delivered to residences in both towns will be reduced.

The directories will be mailed to customers.

The basic concept of the unique "Our Texas" painting is a scroll representing the documents of Texas liberty, entwined by a red, white and blue ribbon to symbolize the historic patriotism of Texans.

Other significant articles in the painting include a military bugle depicting the impact of military forces on the state, a Colt revolver for the Texas lawman's edge over the bandit, a quill for the communications media and a school bell for the educational system.

"This painting," said artist Herbes, "has been in my mind for years and is a culmination of much research and travel throughout the state." Herbes pointed out that choosing which articles to include in the painting was difficult because there is so much to the state's history.

Southwestern Bell commissioned Herbes, a retired Air Force colonel, to do the painting especially for the directory cover.

Sept. 28 proclaimed "Texas Hunting and Fishing Day"

By Governor Dolph Briscoe's official memorandum Sept. 28, 1974 has been designated "Texas Hunting and Fishing Day."

The date, which correspond with National Hunting and Fishing Day, was set aside to recognize the "Outstanding contributions that America's hunters and fishermen made to conservation, recreation and the economy."

The memorandum, in its entirety, says:

"Because of the outstanding contributions that America's hunters and fishermen have made to conservation, recreation and the economy, they are deserving of special recognition."

"Since the turn of the century, hunters and anglers have been the leaders in nearly all major conservation programs. These sportsmen-conservationists are responsible for the founding of state fish and game departments in all 50 states. They asked that they, themselves, be required to buy licenses and that the money collected be used to support state conservation agencies."

"Hunters and fishermen asked for the establishment of regulated seasons and bag limits so that sportsmen could harvest the annual crop of game and fish without damage to the basic breeding population. Further, sportsmen's programs have benefited numerous species of non-game fish and wildlife through habitat development."

"Hunters and fishermen, unique in all America, asked that their fishing and hunting equipment be taxed and that the money be used for land acquisition, research and habitat management for fish and wildlife for the enjoyment of all Americans."

Through their publications and organizations, hunters and fishermen have led the nation in the battle for a better environment and the wise use of our natural resources.

"THEREFORE, I, as Governor of Texas, do hereby designate September 28, 1974 as TEXAS HUNTING AND FISHING DAY, and urge all citizens to join with sportsmen-conservationists in a rededication to the wise use of our natural resources and their proper management for the benefit of future generations."

County Superintendent Rena Belle Anderson and I spent a nice day visiting in McLean last Wednesday. I have made arrangements to be in the Bank Hospitality room Monday, July 29 from 9-12 so that I might meet with the homemakers in the McLean area. ### ELECTRIC BLANKETS CAN BE WASHED Washing electric blankets before storing keeps them fresh and discourages moths if the blankets are wool. There are really only two steps in washing electric blankets—first pretreat, then wash.

Before washing an electric blanket, pretreat any spots. Protect the plug by tying a wash cloth of plastic bag over it. Then fill the washer with lukewarm water and add a mild soap or detergent. Let the blanket soak for ten minutes and then agitate it for one minute. Then spin for just two minutes. Next fill the washer with lukewarm rinse water. Agitate again for one minute and spin two minutes.

To dry, hang the blanket lengthwise over two parallel clotheslines. Change positions of the blanket frequently so it will dry evenly. Dry the blanket in the shade—not in the sun.

You can dry an electric blanket in your dryer if you are careful. Check your instruction booklet to see if your automatic drying is recommended.

formation concerning tuition and basic fee costs are available from the registrar's office in the AC Administration Building.

Second session courses started July 16 and finish Aug. 16.

Market Report

You can save money by visiting the poultry and egg departments of your favorite store, advises one expert.

"Turkeys are a likely feature in many stores because supplies are plentiful and turkey barbecues well," Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing information specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, said this week.

Grade A large size eggs are the best quality and economy combination for your egg money.

The specialist reported beef prices similar to last week, but broiling cuts have generally taken a slight price increase.

Look for best beef values on chuck roasts and steaks, ground beef and round steaks, and roasts.

Good pork buys are picnics, ham portions, shoulder roasts and steaks and end-cut loin roasts and chops.

Supplies of sweet cherries, apricots, peaches, seedless grapes, plums and nectarines have increased but these will take a little time to go into the economy class.

Prices of cantaloupe and watermelon are slightly lower as the supplies increase now.

Most economical vegetable choices include cabbage, carrots, radishes, green onions, tomatoes, dry yellow onions, and locally grown mustard, collard and turnip greens.

CONSUMER WATCHWORD: To preserve egg quality during hot weather, hurry eggs home from the store and refrigerate immediately.

THE CHURCH OF CHRIST & DENOMINATIONALISM

When we read about the church described in the New Testament we are impressed with the fact that it is not a denomination or sect or religious party. The church (Greek; "ekklesia") is simply the "called out," the saved ones who have obeyed the gospel of Christ (2 Thess. 1:8; 1 Pet. 4:17) and are walking in the way of Christ (Rom. 8:1). The word "church" as used in the Bible always refers to the saved and never to the building they meet in! Wherever the Word of God is preached and men believe and obey (Acts 18:8) its message, you will find the undenominational church of Christ! Jesus said: "The seed is the word of God" (Luke 8:11). In our modern??? word "denomination" has become synonymous with the Bible word "church." This is most unfortunate because the church which fits the New Testament description must be and is "non-denominational." It will have no head but Christ, no earthly headquarters, no requirements for admission other than those laid down by Christ (study well Acts 2), no name but the names used in the New Testament, no organization other than the simple order described in the Holy Scriptures. Christ wants all to be just Christians (Acts 4:12, 11:26), nothing more and nothing less. He does not want them divided into "sects," "denominations," "parties", etc., with rival names, creeds, loyalties, and organizations. The church of Christ is non-sectarian. It is the body of Christ (Eph. 1:22-23), the kingdom of Christ (Matt. 16:16-19; Col. 1:13), the bride of Christ (Eph. 5:25-29; Rev. 21). Wherever men obey the gospel of Christ as they did on Pentecost, God adds them to the church (Acts 2:36-47). As Christians they are bound together by their common loyalty to Christ and love for the brethren everywhere.

Denominationalism cannot be found in the Bible, therefore it is not of God as He "furnishes" man unto every good work (2 Tim. 3:16-17; 2 Peter 1:3). It is for this reason that the churches of Christ have no part or fellowship with denominationalism. We cordially and lovingly invite each and everyone to visit and worship with us and closely examine what you see and hear in the light of the Scriptures (1 John 4:1). We invite any question you desire to ask concerning spiritual matters. It will be answered from God's book, the Bible (1 Peter 4:11).

 TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex.—Constitutional Convention delegates approved a new approach to state revenue raising and sent delegates' hopes rising for a painless tax source.

The Convention authorized the legislature to levy a petroleum products manufacturing tax that will not (like three-fourths of gasoline taxes) go into highway building.

Sen. D. Roy Harrington of Port Arthur already is preparing for introduction next year a bill to impose a two cents per gallon gasoline tax at the refinery level.

At the same time, Harrington will propose reduction of the gasoline tax at the pump from five to three cents a gallon if the new constitution is approved.

Since 75 per cent of Texas-refined gasoline is sold out of state, proponents of the tax claim the two cent levy would raise $686 million in additional revenue without increasing the burden on Texans.

Although such a tax probably could be levied now, most of the money would go to highways instead of general revenue.

The convention went into its windup stages this week. Delegates began voting on the entire revision package, including proposed separate submissions of five alternative propositions.

When and if a two-thirds majority is mustered, the document and the "side issues" will go to the voters in the November general election.

HEATLY CUT OFF—The Constitutional Convention Compensation Committee served notice it didn't intend to allow Rep. W.S. (Bill) Heatly of Paducah to charter airplanes at state expense. Convention officers said they won't approve any more such charges.

However, Heatly indicated he won't take that without a fight. He produced an attorney general's ruling saying renting of aircraft by state employees on official trips is authorized, and called on officials to consider his bills legal.

Heatly blamed his troubles on a "personal vendetta" against him by Convention President Price Daniel Jr. and Executive Director Jim Ray — which Daniel promptly denied.

A check of House records showed Heatly, as of May 31, ranked 24th among state representative-convention delegates in total spending since last January.

NEAR RECORD PAID—Oil companies paid a near record $24.6 million in bonus payments for oil and gas leases on Texas public lands at the third largest oil and gas lease sale in history.

Bids were received for more than 336,037 acres and brought the permanent school fund to more than $1,074,743,900.

Texas will receive a substantially higher royalty for oil and gas produced from the state lands under new terms in effect for the sale. All royalties will be at least one-fifth. The state may also take its royalty "in kind" — which assures top prices for the state's portion of oil and gas and ability to sell the resources in areas where they are needed.

Three bids exceeded $1 million. One was for $9 million by Transocean Oil Incorporated of Houston — for 25 tracts, most of them in the Gulf of Mexico.

TEXANS PLEDGE $508,000—Texas Democrats committed themselves to a record total of $508,000 during the June 29-30 party fund-raising telethon.

Two-thirds of the take — enough to pay off debts and last a few months into the future — will be retained by the state party after deductions for overhead of the telethon.

More than 1,000 volunteers manned 350 telephones in 16 Texas cities during the fund-raising extravaganza which brought in $7 million in pledges to the national party.

More than 3,000 pledges were received in Texas.

LIQUOR AGENTS CLEARED—An investigation by Atty. Gen. John Hill's staff found no evidence of mileage expense account padding by Dallas district office Alcoholic Beverage Commission inspectors.

Hill did recommend better record keeping procedures in the office to "remove suspicions and concerns."

He found irregularities in the manner in which the records are maintained and said that inspection tickets were in "a state of disarray."

AG OPINIONS—States and subdivisions are required to include equal employment opportunity clauses in federally-assisted construction contracts exceeding $10,000, Attorney General Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

• County Commissioners may expend county funds for service pins to reward county employees, and pins may include a replica of an un-official county seal.

• An act extending workmen's compensation benefits to employees of political subdivisions is constitutional and applies to housing au-

*** County ***
 Agricultural Agent
 Texas A. & M. College
 Extension Service

By FOSTER WHALEY

An open letter to Dr. Earl Butz. Honorable Secretary of Agriculture.
 Dear Dr. Butz:
 A few weeks ago we wrote
 you a personal letter pointing out the plight of the cattle feeders, stocker operators, and cattle people in general. We requested you take action on four steps to help alleviate the catastrophic situation caused by the imposing of ceilings on beef over a year ago.

1. We asked you to put the spotlight and heat on the major food chains for holding their beef prices high in the face of a disastrous low price for live cattle.
2. We asked you to take steps to curtail meat
 imports.
3. Create an awareness by the American public of the plight that cattle people now find themselves in as a result of the price ceiling imposed a year earlier.
4. Point out the seriousness to the American consuming public. Cite the fact that cattle placements on feed have dropped for fourteen months. More recently, they dropped fifty percent in June 1974 as compared to June '72 and a forty percent of June this year compared to June 1973.
 The American consumers need to know if there was not a turn around in price, we were going to run out of beef. Seventy-five percent of all beef that goes across the meat block has been fed as live cattle.

Secretary Butz, you have done a great job on every item I listed in this personal letter. In addition, you have taken a host of other steps for which I am extremely grateful.

If there ever was a time
 we need statesmanship in Government it is today.

You have demonstrated the highest in statesmanship by opposing a government guaranteed loan to cattle feeders and bankers. I have talked to a number of cattle feeders and some bankers that feel very much as you do. Pouring in a few billion dollars of easy credit into an industry that is already waning from an oversupply
 of credit is not the answer.

What we need in the cattle business today is a limitation of capital. This is what we are getting. If the easy credit bill gets through and becomes law, it will most assuredly cause another shipwreck in the cattle business six to ten months hence.

Let me ask the proponents of this proposal why they are picking up the almost unanimous support of both houses in Congress? Do they think it is because they as cattle feeders represent less than one-tenth of one percent of the nation's population? Or, could it be because the congress is more interested in having cheap beef eight to ten months hence for the near 100 percent of population.

Here is a quote from a straight-thinking banker friend of mine.

"I can see where the easy credit bill would give temporary relief to custom

feedlots and some bankers that made some overextended loans, but this is not in the best short-term or long-term interest of the cattle people.

I would like to recommend that some of our organization representing cattle feeding interest, concern themselves with the cration of marketing outlets owned by cattle people that will drop beef prices in direct relationship to live cattle prices.

In times of oversupply,
 drop the price so the glut of beef is moved into the trade.
 Why not a national chain of meat markets to handle meats exclusively? Then your promotion of beef
 through these national outlets would get a responsive note.

Today, the only way the cattle people can get beef profit margins down and a national advertising of beef is on a bended knee. We need some market muscle.

Again, Secretary Butz, we congratulate you for your statesmanship approach on the government guaranteed loans.

Sincerely,
 Foster Whaley

P. S. One thing more - Let's change the outmoded grading system for beef. We have talked this for fifteen years. It's now time for action. In the past it has been opposed by certain breed associations that are a great deal more concerned about the eye appeal on foot in the show ring than the palatability after it becomes beef.

The last thirty to forty days in a feedlot on a 1,050 pound steer is primarily to make one hit USDA choice grade. Gain usually costs from ten to fifteen cents a pound more than the steer will bring. The fat put on the last thirty days has to be trimmed off before the housewife will purchase the beef. Fat is still worth about three cents a pound. If the USDA would call a high good a choice, we could eliminate the last thirty days in the feedlot and save everyone from the cattle feeder to the housewife a bunch of money.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Found Money

Phyllis was having tea in an open-air cafe when she spied a wallet under a nearby table. A look inside revealed $900 in cash but no identification. Dutifully, Phyllis left the wallet with the proprietor of the cafe, to be held for a possible claimant.

Months passed, and no claimant appeared. Finally Phyllis decided it was now hers to keep. But the proprietor demurred.

"The wallet was found on my premises," he pointed out in a court hearing. "Therefore, unless the original owner shows up, it belongs to me."

However, the court ordered him to hand the wallet and the money over to Phyllis. The court said lost property found in a public place, not traceable to the original owner, may be retained by the finder.

Most courts endorse this rule. Unclaimed money (or other valuables) found in public places, like the lobby of a hotel or the aisle of a supermarket, are usually awarded to the finder rather than the management.

Does it matter if the finder was a company employee? Generally, no.

Thus, a bank teller who found a diamond ring near the entry way was held entitled to keep it as against the bank. So long as it was not part of his job to find lost articles, said the court, he was "on his own" in making this discovery.

It may indeed matter, though, if the item was not technically lost but only mislaid (that is, laid down on purpose, then left behind by mistake).

Such a case arose when a customer in a barber shop noticed a wallet that had been forgotten on a table. When no owner could be located the customer and the barber went to court to settle the right to the wallet.

This time, the court ruled in favor of the barber, not the customer. The court said the fact that the owner of the wallet had originally placed it on the table meant that he had entrusted it to the custody of the shop.

Some people once thought that a cuckoo had to sing until it had made three good meals of cherries!

J.E. PEAVY, M.D., Commissioner of Health

The battle against tuberculosis is one of the most successful being waged by State Health Department authorities who in 1973 saw the number of new cases drop to its lowest point.

Statistics from the State Health Department's Tuberculosis Control Program revealed that only 2,224 new active cases were reported in 1973--a case rate of just 19 per 100,000 population. This compares to the high mark in 1968 of 3,216 new active cases-- a case rate of 29.3 per 100,000 population. Last year's figures, as compared to 1968, represent a 31.8 per cent reduction in newly reported active cases and a 35.2 per cent reduction in the new active case rate.

Statistics don't tell the full story about tuberculosis or any other disease for that matter. How can you accurately chronicle the pain, the suffering, the stigma accompanying a disease which didn't occur?

The Bureau of Tuberculosis

Services attributes the success of its TB Control Program to the active campaign that ensures: treatment and other essential services for the known cases; examinations of persons suspected of having tuberculosis; and, prevention of disease in persons at high risk.

Services are provided through local health department outpatient clinics and in 10 State Health Department Regions, three State Chest Hospitals at Tyler, San Antonio and Harlingen and contract with other medical facilities for other support services.

The Tuberculosis Control Program as we know it today was placed under the State Health Department in 1965 by the 59th State Legislature.

A significant change has been seen in tuberculosis casefinding, treatment and prevention.

One aspect of the program is centered in the schools of Texas with close cooperation of school officials, nurses, local health departments, health officers and voluntary organizations. All school personnel must have an annual tuberculosis examination. In addition, an average of a half-million first and seventh grade students have been tested annually since 1966. The result has been a sharp decrease in the incidence of TB in children through 14 years of age.

New drugs and new treatment procedures have greatly shortened the length of time necessary to cure a new tuberculosis patient.

Tuberculosis, in fact, has been tamed. But, according to State Health Department authorities, it hasn't been eliminated and probably will not be eliminated anytime in the near future.

What can you expect if you get TB?

There are some reassuring facts. First, very few TB patients die of the disease. In fact, tuberculosis no longer means that the victim must spend endless years, languishing in a hospital. In many cases, a tuberculosis patient today will spend about two or three months in a hospital--either one of the State Chest Hospitals or in a public or private hospital closer to home.

Medical treatments begins as soon as the disease has been accurately diagnosed. Usual treatment consists of more medicines, taken several times a day. In cases, the spread of the disease can be stopped in a matter of days and the patient is no longer infectious.

Once it is certain the disease has been checked, the patient can be released from the hospital. And, in a few weeks, the patient returns to his normal life including his usual work. Health authorities report that most TB patients, as soon as medications begins, feel better than they have for

After release from the hospital, the tuberculosis patient must continue medication for as long as two years in order to be sure that the disease organisms won't have a chance to take hold again. Because this long-term therapy, the patient must see a physician regularly.
