McLEAN, GRAY COUNTY, TEXAS - THURSDAY, AUGUST 8, 1974

NUMBER 32

C. To Offer Two New Courses

Welding and Fabrication is one of two new courses to be offered this fall at Texas Technical Institute, Mc-Continent Campus, Amarillo, announces General Manager Lovell A. Pillow. After a review of Panhandle needs, we found that a relatively short welding program was needed. This program will specialize in fabrication techniques needed for production in medium and small shops in the area. Based on our survey, job opportunities are practically unlimited.

More than 30 applications for admission to the fall quarter welding program have already been received in State Tech's admissions office, and many as 40 to 45 are expected. Instructors are confident they can place every student who finishes the course. Some even find good jobs when they complete the four quarters.

It is possible for a student to exit at the end of any quarter with varying degrees and areas of skills. Completion of the course requires 30 contact hours per quarter for four quarters, or five months.

Registration for the fall quarter at State Tech begins September 3, but students are urged to make application for admission now.

Living Bonds Goal Reaches 49%

Sales of Series E and United States Savings Bonds amounting to $25,503 in the first quarter were reported today by County Bond Chairman Fred Watson. Sales for the first three-month period totaled $2,178 for 49% of the $4,475,000 goal of $4,475,000. Sales in Texas during the first quarter amounted to $17,074, while sales for the first three months of 1974 totaled $116,089 with 49% of the quarterly goal of $236,800 goal achieved.

McLean Area Receives Rain

The McLean area received much needed and refreshing rain Monday night. There were reports from 5 to 7 inches received. The Panhandle along with other parts of the state and nation have been experiencing a period of drought.

D'Ann Phillips To Represent McLean In Top O'Texas Show

Miss D'Ann Phillips will represent McLean in the annual Top O'Texas Beauty Pageant. The contest will be held this Friday night in the M. K. Brown Auditorium with the program beginning at 8 p.m.

D'Ann is a 1974 graduate of McLean High and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warner Phillips.

The reigning Miss McLean, plans to study to be a dental assistant at a Dallas school this fall.

S. S. Handbook Is Printed

Lawyers, accountants and others who advise people on their social security rights and responsibilities should add the new edition of Social Security Handbook to their reference library, according to Howard L. Weatherly, Manager of the Pampa social security office.

Intended for professional people and others who need detailed information, the handbook explains regulations and rulings relating to retirement, survivors, disability, and health insurance, black lung benefits, and the new supplemental security income program.

The fifth edition of the handbook contains the major provisions of the Social Security Act, as amended through January 1, 1974. Copies may be purchased directly from the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. Order by stock number 1770-00220.

The Old Timer

"Just about the time you manage to make ends meet, somebody moves the ends!"

Local Student Listed On Who's Who

Jay Dee Fish who will be a senior at McLean High School was recently notified that he is to be featured in the Eighth Annual Edition of Who's Who Among American High School Students, 1973-74, the largest student award publication in the nation.

Students from over 20,000 public, private and parochial high schools throughout the country are recognized for their leadership in academics, athletics, activities or community service in the books. Less than 3% of the junior and senior class students nation-wide are awarded this recognition.

Jay Dee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fish of McLean. He is active in F. F. A. sports and band and will serve as Student Council President for the 1974-75 school year.

In addition to having his biography published in the book, Jay Dee will also compete for one of ten scholarship awards of $500 to $1,000 funded by the publishers and will be invited to participate in the firm's annual "Survey of High Achievers".

Jay Dee plans to attend Texas A&M University upon graduation.

Students Can Still Enroll At A. C.

Students who did not have admission forms on file by the July 31 deadline are still eligible for enrollment this fall at Amarillo College said Registrar J. Fred Balderston.

Day and evening students interested in enrolling at AC may come to the registrar's office located in the Washington Street Administration Building.

"They need all their admission forms," said Balderston. This includes an application for admission, official transcript, certificate of residence, physical examination, college entrance tests scores, and certificate of immunization.

Guidance tests, ACT and SCAT, will be administered Aug. 14 for those students enrolled in 10 or more semester hours that do not have these tests scores on file.

Orientation will be held for new students Aug. 22-23 and Aug. 27-28.

Registration for evening classes will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. Aug. 28-29 in Badger Gym.

Day students will register Aug. 28 from 1-4 p.m. and Aug. 29-30 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in Badger Gym.

Classes begin Sept. 3 after the Labor Day holiday.

Call 779-2447 to Report your news.

McLean Students To Register On August 15 and 16

McLean Schools have established the schedule for student registration for the fall term.

High School students will enroll Thursday and Friday. Seniors are asked to come 8:30 to 10:00 a.m. and Juniors at 10:30 to 12:00 a.m. Thursday, Aug. 15, and Friday, August 16.

Sophomores sign up at 8:30 to 10:00 and Freshmen are received from 10:30 - 12:00.

Elementary and Jr. High School students may enroll from 1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. Thursday or Friday afternoons.

Classes for the new school year will begin at 8:30 a.m. on Monday August 19.

TSTI To Offer Auto Repair-Painting

A sixteenth program will be included in the fall curriculum at Texas State Technical Institute's Mid-Continent Campus, here, according to Lovell A. Pillow, general manager.

Auto Body Repair and Painting was approved this month by the Texas Education Agency in Austin. Pillow states,

"We have run two highly successful Auto Body Repair programs with federal funds. These have led us to believe that we have the right combination of facilities, outstanding instruction, and available jobs and students. From our experience to date, it is safe to say that students completing this program will be highly successful on the job."

TSTI Instructor Robert Skaggs of McLean expects more than 20 full-time students in the fall quarter of the Auto Body Repair and Painting course. Classes will meet for 30 hours a week and will include the following subjects: orientation and safety, welding, math, refinishing preparation, metal finishing, body filling, spray refinishing, human relations, communications, sheet metal alignment, electrical service hardware and trim, soft trim, shop management, business records, estimating, glass service and installation, replacement of body components and unit body and frame repair.

Skaggs points out that it is possible to exit at the end of any quarter and enter the working field with a specified skill, but that the student who completes the three quarters have a limitless choice of jobs.

Skaggs is a veteran of more than 30 years' experience in the Auto Body Repair field. He joined the TSTI staff in June, 1973, after owning a shop in McLean for three years. He comments that he turned his shop over to a man from Kansas whom

REV. AND MRS. GWYN VAUGHN

Gwyn Vaughn To Speak In McLean

In June of 1974, Gwyn Vaughn resigned his pastorate of eight years in Santa Ana, California to launch out into a nation-wide effort to win thousands of souls to Jesus Christ.

Rev. Vaughn returns to McLean by special request after having been here last year at the Assembly of God church where Rev. Z. A. Myers is the Pastor.

He is the father of two children; Sheri is a ventriloquist age 13 and Paul who works with hand puppets age 9. The two children will take part in a special pre-service rally for the kids at 7:00 to 7:30 each evening.

Mrs. Gwyn Vaughn is an

Young At Heart To Meet Friday

The Young at Heart Club will meet Friday, August 9 at 7 p.m. at the Casper Smith Building.

All couples or single people over the age of 50 are urged to come and join the others.

Church of Christ Meeting to Continue Thru Sunday

Frank Welcher of Del Norte Colorado will continue to speak at the McLean Church of Christ thru Sunday.

During this meeting he will be proclaiming undenominational Christianity. The teachings of the Bible will be preached without private or partisan interpretations. Jay Farber, local minister, extends an invitation to every one in the community to attend. Services begin each evening at 8 p.m. On Sunday 10 a.m. and 6 p.m.

He had previously trained in the trade.

accomplished musician at the piano and will play a very important role in the family talent during the 15 day crusade beginning August 11th.

Rev. Vaughn says the 10 a.m. Layman's Bible Clinic will deal with such matters as: How to know our prayers reach heaven. Faith and how to use it. How to have a happy marriage. The Church and its role in today's society.

The 7:30 evening service is designed for worship that brings an uplift to all who attend. People of all faiths are invited. Prayers for the needs of any kind will be offered at the close of each service. His messages will deal directly to everyday problems and will tell how God respond to him as a person through the Word of God.

For transportation or information contact the Assembly of God church.

C. C. Students To Register On August 26 - 27

Clarendon College has announced the college's Pre-Registration dates for the fall semester as August 26 and 27.

Students interested in attending Clarendon College may enroll from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on either date in the college cafeteria.

Regular registration will be held on September 3, with classes starting September 4.

Applications for admission to Clarendon College are still being received and anyone interested in attending the fall semester that has not made application is encouraged to do so by contacting the Office of Admissions at the school.

THOUGHTS ON YOUR LIFE

...Your Life is fragile, handle it with prayer (Col. 3:17).
 ...Put God first in your life and all other things will fall into place (Matt. 6:24-34).
 ...If you make a place for God in your life, He will make a place for you in the hereafter with Him (John 6:22-71).
 ...Your life was never intended to be a pampered rose pathway (Job 14:1-2; 1 Pet Peter 1:24).
 ...Your life consisteth not in the abundance of the things you possess (Luke 12:15).
 ...Your life comes to you only a day at a time (Prov. 27:1; Luke 12:16-21).
 ...Your life is even a vapor that appeareth for a little time, then vanisheth away (James 4:14).
 ...The greatest yearning of your life should be to be with God throughout all eternity, because "the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt away with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up (2 Peter 3:10). All those unprepared on that day face the sentence of everlasting punishment (Matt. 25:46).
 What value do you place on your life? God values it so highly that He sent his only begotten son (John 3:16) to die that you might live in hope of eternal life. Many today desire eternal life, but have failed to learn that the hope that is in Christ contains two elements, i.e. desire and expectation. No matter how strongly one may desire to go to heaven, he (or she) cannot expect to without keeping the commandments of God (1 John 2:3-5; John 14:23; 1 John 3:24; Rev. 22:14).
 We lovingly and earnestly invite everyone to hear "the words of eternal life" (John 6:68) preached at 8 p.m. each evening this week end at 10:50 a.m. and 6:00 P.M. Sunday. "For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? (Matt. 16:26).

STATE CAPITAL
Highlights
AND Sidelights
 by Bill Boykin
 TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. — When the Constitutional Convention collapsed in total failure, state legislators immediately began proposing new approaches to the long-hafted revision effort.

A wide range of alternatives are available, and lawmakers are committed to try all of them. These suggestions already have been offered:

— Creation of a brand new Constitutional Convention, with plain citizens rather than legislators occupying most of the delegate seats.

— Submission to voters of the basic revision document drafted by the 1974 convention, without the controversial separate submission proposals (like right-to-work) which deadlocked this year's session.

— An article-by-article revision, based largely on work of the convention.

— Submission of the document originally prepared by the 37-member Constitutional Revision Commission as a guide to the convention.

— If all else fails, consideration of a cleaned-up and slimmed-down version of the 1876 constitution stripped of outmoded provisions.

While the 1974 convention ran out the clock without accomplishing anything, hope remains lawmakers will have learned some lessons and that more than a year of research and expenditure of $3.2 million will not be a total loss.

NO SPECIAL SESSION — Gov. Dolph Briscoe rejected requests for a special legislative session on state employee pay raises and supplementary school financial aid.

He said a special session at the tag end of an exhausting Constitutional Convention would not be practical, and the most pressing problems can be met by emergency action in the next regular legislative session.

Specifically, Briscoe committed himself to these emergency goals in 1975, which will cost approximately $216 million in general revenue:

— A 10 per cent cost of living pay raise for all state employees effective Feb. 1, 1975. (Legislative Budget Board has recommended $285 million in pay and fringe benefit increases for state employees during the 1976-77 fiscal period).

— An increase of $40 per student in average daily attendance for maintenance and operation of public schools, with distribution arranged to benefit "poor" districts most.

— A 15 per cent increase in benefits of teachers who retired before March 31, 1969, and a 10 per cent increase for those who retired between that time and May 31, 1971.

— A 10 per cent increase in retirement benefits for state employees who retire before August 31, 1974.

AUTO HEARING SET — The annual auto insurance rate hearing has been scheduled for October 1.

The State Board of Insurance will conduct the hearing for new rates to become effective December 1.

While the hearing is usually held in the summer, it was delayed this year to get maximum information on impact of the gasoline shortage and slower speed limits which may bring rate reductions.

AG OPINIONS — Cities cannot purchase land for industrial site development by promissory notes to be paid out of revenues from the project, Atty. Gen. John Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

• District clerks are liable for mysterious disappearance of child support money paid into registry of the court prior to deposit.

• When judgement on which an execution sale is based is void, a purchaser obtains no title to property.

• Requirements that counties, hospital districts and certain cities must adopt a uniform system of accounting and make quarterly reports of expenditures made for welfare programs are valid.

• A contract to buy fuel for a county from the brother of a county commissioner is not necessarily void when the commissioner has no interest in fruits of the contract, direct or indirect.

REEF OBSTACLES LIFTED — Obstacles to permits for Liberty Ship fishing reefs have been removed, according to Sen. A. R. Schwartz of Galveston.

Schwartz, of the Texas Coastal and Marine Council, said U. S. Department of Interior concern over placement of the ship hulls at points selected by the council is now lifted. Interior feared the ship sites might interfere with offshore oil and gas exploration.

Several steps remain, however, before the ships can be obtained, scrapped and sunk. Proposed locations are southeast of Freeport, south-southeast of Port O'Connor, south-southeast of Port Aransas and about

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health

Accent on Health

J.E. PFAVY, M.D., Commissioner of Health

All preventable diseases in Texas may never be wiped out, but the Texas State Department of Health--with cooperation of private physicians--is working toward that goal through a strong immunization campaign. Last year a combined total of only 1805 cases were reported for diphtheria, tetanus, pertussis, measles and rubella. There was no polio reported in 1973.

Because of the success of the compulsory school immunization program, more attention is directed toward the pre-schoolers in State Health Department activities. Statistics show that epidemics have repeatedly taken the heaviest toll among children from one to four years old.

A dramatic decline in disease incidence has been marked up in Texas for such diseases as diphtheria, tetanus, pertussis, polio, measles and rubella. Sharing in this success is a group of Community Service Aides who concentrate on infant immunization.

When a baby is born in Texas, the Immunization Division gets a computer printout showing the baby's name, parents' names and home address from the Record and Statistics Section of the State Health Department.

Parents of newborns receive a card informing them of immunization schedules and recommending vaccination times. They are asked to return the card and indicate which immunizations have been started.

Not all parents respond to the inquiry, and not all begin immunizations for their babies.

That's where the Community Service Aides come in. They take referrals from the Immunization Division and attempt to track down those who don't respond. How well do they do their job?

Last year an average of 56 Community Service Aides were employed and assigned to regional and field offices to promote immunizations in the pre-school group.

They received 175,075 new referrals during the year--about 3,100 per aide. The average aide visited 1,707 homes and made 638 telephone contacts during the year. Each aide determined that a total of 1,222 immunization starts and/or completions had been made.

Total figures show that aides were responsible for 18,989 children starting immunizations; 26,253 completing the initial series; and 23,168 others completing the one-year series for a total of 68,410 starts and/or completions.

What this activity has done, says state health officials, is to cut deeply into that reservoir of potential disease victims.

"They are reaching that segment of the population that nothing else reaches--pre-school children staying at home with momma. They seek out and then motivate those hard-to-reach people by informing them of disease consequences and where they can get immunization services," said one immunization director.

The Immunization Service Aides take pride in their work and receive a lot of personal gratification from it, report their supervisors on both the state and local levels.

I may have something to do with the background of the aides. In looking for new aides, the State Health Department attempts to find individuals from areas where they will be working, possibly in neighborhoods where they grew up.

The home town aides relate better to the people they contact and talk their own language.

When an aide is hired, a three to four day training course is given, followed in about six months with more training. They also receive on-the-job training from their supervisors or other experienced aides.

Aides show a lot of initiative in finding unimmunized children. Often they hear about them in conversations with contacts, who tell them of new people moving into a neighborhood. They institute record searches in health department clinics.

Many aides visit offices of local registrars to check out new birth certificates, often making contacts before receiving referrals from the state office.

They also turn up immunized children whose parents hadn't responded to the mail questionnaire. In cases where parents have taken their children to private physicians, notification cards are left with the physician so that immunization information can be reported.

Immunization aides are doing a good job for Texas as part of a State Health Department effort to make the state a healthier place in which to live.

or Alanreed attended the Gibson family reunion held at Memphis. The reunion was held by the Tabernacle at the park. There were about 70 people in attendance. There were four brothers and five sisters, out of ten children from the Gibson family there. The reunion was held the 3rd and 4th of August.

The D.B. Pattons of Los Alamos were visitors in the P.M. Gibson home the night of the 4th. Mrs. Patton is the former Almeda Gibson.

Amarillo College Plan Critical Care Nursing Course

Amarillo College will offer a critical care nursing course beginning Aug. 12.

Offered as a short-term health course, classes will meet 7 to 10 p.m. on Mondays and Wednesday at High Plains Baptist Hospital.

"This course is designed to teach the basis critical care nursing procedures," said Mrs. A.L. Crawford, supervisor of the program.

It will include the basic study of anatomy and physiology of each anatomical system of the body, she said. The medical and surgical management of each illness that requires critical care will be studied in depth as well as emergency procedures.

Those interested in the course may enroll in the registrar's office located in the Washington Street Administration Building.

Additional information may be obtained from Mrs. Crawford.

My Neighbor

"You just can't imagine I look forward to your visit."

THINK ABOUT THIS!

Wisdom promises Godliness to her children and direction in good ways.

Proverbs 2:15 My son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandments with thee; so that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding; yea if thou criest after knowledge, and liftest up thy voice for understanding; if thou seekest her as for hid treasures; then shalt thou understand the fear of the Lord, and find the knowledge of God.

There is a difference in the wisdom of the world and the wisdom of God. 1 Cor. 3:19, For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, he taketh the wise in their own craftiness. The wisdom of this world is to seek first to provide good things for this life, but God said seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Matt. 6:33.

Hear council and receive instruction, that thou mayest be wise in the latter end. Prov. 19:20.

For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? Matt 16:26.

WHAT GULLY? These two pictures were taken on the Elmer Balch farm east of Pampa on two consecutive years at the same location. The gully was located at the end of an irrigated field and the beginning of the breaks country. Runoff from rains started the gully and irrigation tailwater added to the problem. Valuable irrigated land was being lost to erosion. To solve the problem, Elmer Balch installed a grade stabilization structure along with a tailwater recovery pit. Engineering assistance was provided by Jim Roach of the Soil Conservation Service. The tailwater recovery pit catches irrigation tailwater for reuse. The grade stabilization structure traps and stores water from excessive rains until it can be released without causing erosion.

C. C. Plan New Athletic Program

Clarendon College will enter the 1974-75 year with two new athletic programs at the school.

The college will be participating the men's varsity golf after an absence of one year. The golf schedule will include participation in all conference competition as well as some institutional tournaments. The team will be coached by Lyndon White, golf pro at Clarendon Country Club and anyone interested in trying out for a golf scholarship should contact Mr. White.

Girl's basketball will be on a full schedule this year at Clarendon after playing a limited schedule last year. Under the direction of Miss Susan Addy, the team will feature several outstanding players from the West Texas area. The girl's program is a non-scholarship program.

Icy Step

Neither snow nor rain nor heat nor gloom of night ever kept George from delivering the mail at the Jenkins house. But an icy step finally did him in. He skidded, went sprawling, and dislocated his shoulder.

In due course, George filed a damage suit against Jenkins.

"They have a special problem at their house," he pointed out in court. "The roof spills rainwater across the front steps, and in cold weather this creates an unusually slick coating of ice. I didn't know about the situation until after I fell."

This "special problem," which Jenkins did not deny, was held enough basis to establish legal liability. The court said a home owner must take precautions against hazards that a visitor is not likely to notice by himself.

What kind of precautions? Perhaps sprinkling salt or spreading ashes on the ice.

Or perhaps providing adequate lighting. Thus, another home owner was held liable for neglecting to turn on his porch light, after having ordered a taxicab to come to the house at 8 p.m.

True, the cab driver realized that the steps might be icy from an afternoon storm. Still, handicapped by the darkness, he slipped anyhow. And a court later granted his claim for damages. The court said that while the home owner could not be blamed for the ice, he could indeed be blamed for showing so little regard for the cabbie's safety.

But both of these cases involved some degree of fault on the part of the home owner. If he is fault-free, he is generally free from liability as well.

The claimant in another case was a newsboy who slipped while delivering the evening paper. But the visibility was all right and the step he slipped on, though icy, was no worse than the other steps on the block.

Result: no liability. The court said a home owner owed "only that care which an ordinarily prudent person in like circumstances would exercise"—but no more.
