New Deal bedside specialists have been considering a similar remedy for the Blue Eagle. Some of the consultants have even advised putting the bird's neck on a chopping block. Too many reports have been received at headquarters that the old Eagle isn't as popular as it used to be—either with industrialists or consumers. It appears to have lost its sales appeal.

Yet, emulating many a sick patient during the crisis, the Blue Eagle is enjoying a momentary revival. There is always a reason for the diagnosticians can put their fingers on it.

First Murder Case At Gail Goes On Trial

Johnny Cox Accused In Fatal Shooting Of F. L. Burrus

SNYDER — First murder case ever to be tried in Borden county got underway Thursday morning at Gail, when Johnny Cox of Treadway, community near Gail, faced a murder charge in connection with the death of F. L. Burrus.

Burrus was fatally shot on the night of August 6 in front of Cox's store at Treadway, the shooting allegedly the outgrowth of a domino game in which his son, Stelvin Burrus, and Cox had engaged earlier in the day. The bullet which killed the elder Burrus reportedly was intended for his son, said Sheriff J. R. Jenkins, to whom Cox surrendered. Cox has been at liberty since August 9, under bond.

A venire of 50 jurors has been summoned for the trial. The indictment was the seventh criminal charge ever to be brought in Borden county in 32nd district court, and the second charge to be prosecuted the first being a liquor-violation charge two years ago. Another murder case, originating in Borden county, was transferred to Mitchell county for trial.

George Outlaw of Sweetwater, new prosecuting attorney of the 32nd district, will be assisted by Clyde Thomas of Big Spring in handling the case. The defense will be represented by James T. Brooks of Big Spring and Sterling Williams of Gail.

Kiwanis Plans Newsies Party

Annual Event By Local Club To Be Held Thursday, Dec. 20

All plans are complete and were approved today at the meeting of the Kiwanis Club in the Crawford Hotel, for the Annual Christmas Party for the newsboys and messenger boys of the city which is given each year by the club.

The date of the party has been changed from Friday to Thursday, Dec. 20th, at 7 p. m. Dinner will start promptly on the hour and afterwards will come the big party, details for which are being worked out by the program committee, headed by Nat Shick. There will be no noonday meeting on that day.

Dr. Lee Rogers, chairman of the Underprivileged Children Committee of the club, reported the activities of that club to date this year. Among other accomplishments in this line, the club fitted 10 underprivileged children with glasses.

Herbert Whitney had charge of the program for the day and Joe Fisher presided in the absence of W. Vance King, who is out of the city on business.

Football Tickets Go Off Sale Friday Noon; Plenty Seats Remain To Be Sold

There are plenty of tickets remaining for the Steer-Sandies football game at Texas Tech Saturday afternoon, according to a check made at The Herald office late Thursday afternoon.

There are 700 remaining tickets in Section D, between the 27- and 42-yard line. There are a few left in Section C around the fifty-yard line.

George Gentry said there had been only a few students to purchase tickets at the high school. He has 600 tickets for students only on the east side of the stadium at 50c apiece but will go off sale promptly at 12 noon Friday. All students who do not have tickets at that time and desire to see the game will be forced to buy general admission tickets at the gate for 75c each. Mr. Gentry urged all students to buy their tickets before 12 noon Friday.

Tickets at The Herald office also will go off sale at 12 noon Friday. Eight box seats extending from the 27- to the 42-yard line were unsold at 5 p. m. Thursday. Each box contains eight seats, priced at $1 each, the same as the reserved stands.

Indications point to a complete sell-out, if reports from Lubbock and Amarillo are correct. It is reported Amarillo is bringing a strong delegation to the game, while Lubbock and neighboring towns are demanding tickets in great numbers.

Big Spring up to now has been slow in purchasing tickets, and if the sections allotted to Big Spring are not sold by Friday noon, the tickets will be returned to the Lubbock authorities, where they will be sold to anyone applying for them.

The Herald office will remain open until 5 o'clock tonight to sell tickets for the game.

A large platform will be erected in the middle of the street, where Santa will talk to the hundreds of children expected to be on hand next Wednesday night.

"I am going to bring lots of candy with me this year, and I will give it away to all the good little boys and girls," said Santa Claus in his telegram to The Daily Herald Thursday.

Government Takes Steps To Prevent Rumored Uprising

HAVANA (AP)—The strong ABC Political Society said Thursday an alleged government-inspired raid on its newspaper is "equivalent to a declaration of war."

The society's statement came as the government took precaution against uprisings. Rumors of an impending revolt raced over the island. Forty armed police took charge of the newspaper office.

The ABC society broke with President Carlos Mendietta's government several months ago and forced the resignation of its members within the cabinet. The society's newspaper has been waging a strong campaign against the administration's army.

Havana is on edge. The government has suspended constitutional guarantees in practically every province. Many police are armed with rifles.

Lions' World Head Greeted Local Club

Vincent Haschall Speaks To Lions In Meeting Thursday Noon

Vincent C. "Stub" Haschall, president of Lions International Thursday noon told Lions here that in the word of a noble Lion from the Tribe of Judah, "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

Traveling as he has over the nation since his election as head of Lionism, Haschall said he had come to the realization that "we are more than just neighbors. We are brothers and I have come to the realization that I am my brother's keeper."

Patriotism is more than mere love of country, he said. True patriotism is a desire to shoulder responsibility in the community in which one lives.

"Most of us were told that we were to represent our classification in Lionism," said Haschall. "We ought to represent Lionism in our classification."

The international president then said that he thought Lions everywhere were becoming aristocrats. Aristocrats, as he described them, are men who "are unfeeling above."

"Above what? About common thinking, about our environment, above missing the beauties around us, above failure."

"We have been trying to get something for nothing. (We have been going too fast. We must realize that to really serve that we must give and sacrifice of our time and efforts. 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

President Haschall was introduced by E. L. Pitts, district governor of 21. Pitts also paid a brief tribute to Mrs. Haschall, accompanying the president on this tour.

The Non-Sectarian Trio was loudly acclaimed in two vocal selections. The trio, composed of Mrs. R. E. Blount, Mrs. Willard Read, and Miss Ruby Bell, was accompanied by Mrs. Jimmy Hicks.

Cecil Collings extended the welcome address and drew a burst of applause when he dubbed Big Spring as the home of the next state football champions.

President and Mrs. Haschall were presented with gifts from the club by Joe Pickle. Lion President Charles Corley presided at the meeting.

A number of out of town and local guests attended the affair. President and Mrs. Haschall left soon after the luncheon for Lubbock.

Football fans wishing to go to Lubbock Saturday via South Plains Coaches, Inc. are urgently requested to purchase roundtrip tickets early Friday to enable the management to ascertain how many buses will be necessary to transport the crowd, E. L. Rose, assistant manager at the Crawford hotel, said Thursday morning.

"Tickets will go on sale Friday morning at 8 o'clock at the bus terminal and the charge will be $2.25 for the roundtrip."

Joe W. Bowman, general manager of the lines at Lubbock, said Thursday morning over long distance telephone that the company must know by Friday night how many people desire to make the trip by bus before they will send equipment to Big Spring to handle the crowd.

The first bus to Lubbock is scheduled to leave Big Spring at 8 a. m. and other will follow at intervals as long as the bus equipment will handle the football crowd. Returning buses will leave Lubbock at 6 p. m. and 9 p. m.

The football team will travel to Lubbock Friday and will make their headquarters at Hotel Lubbock. They will go by bus.

The high school band and pep squad will leave by bus from the high school Saturday morning at 7:30.

A football fan called in from Plainview Wednesday inquiring as to whether or not one of the Flowers boys had chicken pox. We are happy to say all of the players are in good shape.

Dutch Meyer and Ziggy Sears two officials slated to work the Amarillo-Big Spring game, may cause the locals some trouble. Meyer and Sears never miss a whistle, and what they miss is very little.

Blondy pulls for us in the dark. "District 3's football hopes seem destined to go down Saturday in Lubbock, the Big Spring Steers lost in the swirling assault of the Amarillo Sandstrom. All of us, of course, are pulling for Big Spring, but the Amarillo record indicates too much."

Gene Howe, boss of the Amarillo Globe, who may or may not be a football expert, says: "The Steers' Saturday against Big Spring should be just as the coach wants it. If Big Spring scores it will be a fluke. The Sandies are at least ten touchdowns plus better than Big Spring."

Paragraphs like that are just more reasons why the Steers are going to turn the trick. The Sandies never saw the day that they could swamp the Steers.

Here's a hit for our side. A fan tells Al Parker of the Wichita Falls Times how good the Amarillo boys are. "This Amarillo team has power, speed and the finest blocking I have ever seen in high school football. But probably most important of all is its cool, heady presence under fire. Those boys simply refuse to do anything wrong, and they play game after game without committing a single mental error."

Now listen to Parker's answer: "We have heard the same thing about Amarillo teams before. We have seen Sandie eleven that appeared invincible. That little number Mr. Cherry turned out in 1930, featuring Fowler and Bufkin, had everything. But it lost in the championship final to a Tyler team that never before or since appeared in the same class with the Sandies. Then there was that artistic creation of 1932 that swept all before it until it met disaster at Fort Worth at the hands of Massimo Home in the semi-final. Amarillo all before it on the home field, but the Sandie teams have never come through when hauled down off the caprock to play in the late stages of championship races."

Bob Cook of the Gainesville Record lets us down: "We've never gone in for this picking the winners of various games, for we consider anyone's guess as good as our own, or better—most generally better. But the setup this week-end looks so easy we venture to pick the winners. But we are not guessing at the score. The winners appear to us to be: Greenville over Corsicana, Masonic Home over Highland Park, Houston over Corpus Christi, Amarillo over Big Spring.

SPORT SLANTS by Pap

Four years ago, when Frank Thomas took over the coaching reins at the University of Alabama, the students, players and well-wishers of the Crimson Tide were bemoaning the unkind fate which had weaned Wallace Wade from their ranks after eight successful years at Tuscaloosa.

Thomas was an able enough coach; his success at Georgia proved that, but they reasoned, it was bound to take any coach a season or two to install his system. And in the process, not only would the progress of the Tide be retarded but might be sunk altogether.

It is no easy task to tear down the mental barrier thrown up by the students and players. True, Thomas was installing the Notre Dame system, a system of play new to Alabama. But this Notre Dame system, like any other successful scheme of football, is based on the same sound fundamentals which were responsible for Wade's success with the Tide—hard, clean tackling and blocking.

Thomas set about teaching Alabama's brand of football with determination and observers were delighted with his painstaking thoroughness in coaching detail. His teams showed a slashing, driving attack and an effective defense.

How successful Thomas was in teaching his type of football is best illustrated by the records which show that under him Alabama has lost only four games—two to Tennessee, and one apiece to Georgia and Fordham. This year the Tide has been unbeaten and untied.

Graduating from Notre Dame in 1923 after winning national distinction as a player in famous backfields which included those who eventually became noted as the Four Horsemen and such other stars as Chet Wynne and Paul Castner, Thomas coached the backfield at the University of Georgia that fall.

The following year he accepted the position of head coach at the University of Chattanooga where he continued to coach until recalled to assist Harry McCreath at Georgia, in 1929. Two years later, when

Forwards Must Cage Meets In Local Gym

Be Rugged, Rough

Important rulings were made by the executive committee of the Howard county interscholastic league in session here Saturday.

Foran, Midway, Big Spring junior high school, Coahoma, Knott, Highway, and Elbow were classified as class B schools. This classification is in accordance with the interscholastic league rules for 1934-35 and will be used as a basis for participation. All schools with four teachers or less are classified as rural schools.

Basketball tournaments will be held in the Big Spring high school gymnasium soon. The senior girls and junior boys tournament will be held February 8 and 9, 1935. Senior boys and junior girls tournament will be held on the following week end February 15-16.

There will be a rural division and a class B division for each of these tournaments. All class B teams shall play for a championship of the class B division and all rural teams shall play for the championship of their division. Trophies will be offered to the winning team in each division.

The winner of each division shall play to determine the county championship February 18. A slight admission charge will be made for these games, with the exception of the championship series which will be a trifle higher.

Should a team with a dirt court win one division and a team with a gymnasium win another division, a toss of coin shall decide whether the championship game will be played in the gymnasium of the winning team or a neutral gymnasium.

All class B schools are reminded that December 15, 1934 is the last date for paying the basketball fee without penalty. This fee must be paid if a team desires to compete in the senior boys division. Rural schools do not have to pay this fee but must be a member of the league.

Rural schools desiring to participate in the league basketball are required to register in the state office on or before January 13, 1935. This applies to rural schools entering senior boys in the basketball tournament. The interscholastic rules say that no team shall be allowed to take part in any game, county, district, or regional, that has failed to register in the state office.

The committee decided, in accordance with interscholastic rules that no contestants will be allowed to enter any event whose names have not been submitted to the proper director.

Composite teams will be allowed in all rural schools entering any athletic team contest, but in all class B schools, composite teams will be allowed only in senior girls, junior girls and junior boys basketball. The March rules will apply to all other factors of eligibility.

It was decided by the committee that in order to create more enthusiasm for basketball competition among the rural and class B schools, the junior boys basketball teams of rural and class B schools will not have to compete against

They Can Do It! Ben Says So

Ben Daniels, junior football coach here, thinks the Steers have a good chance of defeating the Amarillo Sandies Saturday.

Said Ben: "The boys are due at least one GOOD game during the season, and they haven't played it yet."

Most of the players on the Steer team now came up under Ben's tutelage on the Devil squad, and he knows them pretty well.

"The Big Spring line has one big fault," Daniels said, "and that's a tendency to let down after gaining a slight lead. It's mighty hard to reach the peak again after slowing down, and they'll have to click for full six minutes to beat the Sandies."

Greyhound Announces Christmas Excursions

Additional Christmas excursion fares effective December 15th, were announced today by A. F. Balduz, general traffic manager for Southwestern Greyhound Lines. The round trip excursions will be one and one-half times the one way fare and will be good between all points on Southwestern Greyhound Lines. Mr. Balduz stated that the excursion fares will be in effect during the entire holiday season up until January 1st, and will carry liberal return limits.

The Big Spring high school juniors. Heretofore, the committee agreed, many schools have failed to enter contestants because of a feeling that they did not have a chance due to too strong competition offered by the high school junior team.

MORE FACTS ARE NECESSARY

The Senatorial Munitions Committee, which dug up so many interesting and appalling facts about the trade in guns and explosives for us a month or so ago, is broke now. It has much work still to do, but its investigating staff has been decimated, and such investigators as remain will have to work without pay through December, according to a recent dispatch from Rodney Dutcher.

This would seem to put the issue squarely up to Congress. The committee has spent only $50,000, to date—and the disclosures it has made have been worth many times the price. If more money is needed to enable the committee to finish its job, the new Congress should provide it without delay. This work should not be allowed to lapse for want of financial support.

Beasley To Have Big Laugh When Steers Dump Amarillo Sandies

(By Associated Press)

Sports writers who know their high school football have voted a consensus favoring Amarillo, Masonic Home, Greenville and Corpus Christi as probable winners of this week's four Texas interscholastic league football games.

Herman Scott of the Greenville Banner, and Paul Moore of the Corsicana Sun, disagree on the eventual outcome of Friday's Corsicana-Greenville melee at Greenville.

Scott favors Amarillo, Masonic Home, Jeff Davis and Greenville. Moore likes Amarillo for an easy win over Big Spring; Highland Park in a surprise victory over Masonic Home; Corpus Christi to turn back Jeff Davis, and Corsicana to win a thriller from Greenville.

Vic Cook, Corpus Christi Caller field goals, for a total of 173 points in 12 games. The longest touchdown pass gained 30 yards (against A. & M.) and the shortest 2 yards (against Denton Teachers). The longest touchdown run was 26 yards (against Daniel Baker) and the shortest was for 2 yards, made in several games. The average gain on touchdown passes was 15 yards and the average on runs was 9 yards. One touchdown—(against Loyola) was made on a blocked punt, for a gain of 8 yards.

Amos Melton, Fort Worth Star Telegram sports writer, is peering through rose colored glass and all he can see is a Fort Worth Masonic home victory Saturday over Dallas Highland Park Scotties; Amarillo, Corpus Christi and Greenville are other Melton favorites.

And here is a surprise for Melton: George White, Dallas News sports editor, and Louis Cox, Dallas Times-Herald sports writer, agree that Masonic Home probably will defeat Highland Park. White favors Greenville, Amarillo, Jeff Davis and Masonic Home. Cox leans to Masonic Home, Amarillo, Greenville and Corpus Christi. George and Louis deserve medals for being the only "home towners" who did not pick their own team to win. W. C. Poole, Jr., of the Greenville Herald, cast another vote for Masonic Home along with Amarillo, Greenville and Corpus Christi, giving the consensus vote the following tabulation:

Team	Votes	Win to Lose
Amarillo	10	1
Big Spring	1	10
Greenville	9	2
Masonic Home	10	9
Corsicana	2	9
Jeff Davis	5	6
Corpus Christi	6	5
Highland Park	1	10

Tom Beasley, Big Spring Herald sports editor, is ready to argue with Melton over the Amarillo and Big Spring game which will be played at Lubbock. Beasley expects Big Spring to beat Amarillo 13-7. In the other games he favors Greenville to beat Corsicana 19-13; Jeff Davis to whip Corpus Christi, 20-19; and Masonic Home to take Highland Park, 25-13.

Lomax Cagers Win Two Games

Lomax cagers won two out of three games with Foran at Lomax Wednesday night.

Lomax junior boys took a fast game from Foran juniors, 12 to 9. Burnett of Lomax with high with eight points.

The Foran senior girls team was swamped by Lomax, 22 to 13, in a slow game. Chapman, Lomax, marked up twenty-four points.

In a rough and tumble battle with lots of fouls, the Big Foran club barely edged out a 22 to 20 decision over the fast Lomax team. Scudly, Foran, chalked nine points.

"The Signs Of The Second Coming Of Christ" Subject Of Rev. Wilson

"The signs of the second coming of Christ" was the message brought by Evangelist Gilbert Wilson at Fundamental Baptist Tabernacle, Wednesday night. Rev. Wilson read the following scripture from Luke 21: "And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth; for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh."

Some of the thoughts of Rev. Wilson's message follow:
"There are definite signs given in the word of God concerning the second coming of Jesus Christ. These signs shall come to pass before our Lord shall return. We do not know the day nor hour that He will come back again, but God's word tells us that when we see certain things coming to pass, then we know that His coming is near at hand."
"One of the outstanding signs of the second coming of Jesus Christ is the preparation of Palestine for his coming. In all this drought stricken area with shortage of water everywhere, Palestine has plenty of water. While the drought has been almost universal Palestine has celebrated for the first time the overflowing of the pools of Solomon. All the wild animals are going from Palestine and grass is sprouting up everywhere. The Dead Sea has been discovered to contain an immense wealth of minerals. New cities are being built in Palestine and Jews are returning there by the thousands. In 1927 statistics show that 8,000 Jews returned to Palestine, while in 1933 there were 80,000 that returned. This is direct fulfillment of scripture because God's word teaches that the Jews will return to Palestine. Adolph Hitler has driven 12,000 Jews out of Germany back to Palestine.

"The Jew plays an important part in prophecy, for they were driven out of their own country and scattered among all the nations of the earth because they rejected the Son of God and delivered Him into Roman hands to be crucified."

"Another sign of the return of the Lord is mockery. Before Jesus comes again the Bible says men will mock and make fun of the second coming of Christ. The time will come when Jesus will burst forth from the clouds of Heaven, all things are not going to continue as they are and the mockery of the people is only a sign that his coming draweth nigh."

"Another sign is money. In James we read: 'So to now, ye rich men weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.' The many, many rich men who have lost their fortune almost overnight and died at their own hands is only a fulfillment of prophecy."

"Then we have the sign of the distress of nations. There is an unsettledness among all nations of the earth today and no man knows what the outcome will be. There is universal distress but is only a sign of the soon return of Jesus. Lift up your head and rejoice for your redemption draweth nigh. Behind dark clouds of distress God's eternal sun is shining."

"There is the sign of increasing knowledge. In the book of Daniel we are told the knowledge shall be increased and we see that manifest on every hand today."

"Also have the sign of dictatorship. The Bible teaches that before the end of time there will be a world dictator and we have dictators already manifest in many nations. There is no cause for alarm, just God's word being fulfilled."

"Then there is a prophecy of the arise of false prophets and teachers, this is being manifest very plain today but the Bible says their end shall be sudden destruction."

The repeal of the eighteenth amendment is a fulfillment of prophecy. The Bible says there shall be a crying for wine in the streets of the city and there was that crying for wine which resulted in the repeal of the eighteenth amendment. Our president has much power but when God comes on the scene then our president is powerless. There is just one thing for us to do and that is to prepare and be ready to meet our Lord when He returns. In Isaiah 21:5 we have a prophecy concerning the aeroplanes: 'As birds flying, so will the Lord of hosts defend Jerusalem; depending also he will deliver it; and passing over he will preserve it.' This was fulfilled at Jerusalem during the World War when Jerusalem was taken by aeroplanes without a shot being fired or any damage being done to the city. "Then God's word tells of chariots with flaming torches which are our automobiles. Another sign of our Lord's second coming is the immortality of the present age. The country is on the verge of a moral relapse. Before Jesus comes there will be a falling away of the church and certainly we are experiencing this now. In the last ten years the statistics show that church attendance has decreased eighty per cent. "Then the sign of famine. In different nations thousands are perishing from starvation. There are famines but it is only to remind us of the coming of our Lord. "The sign of pestilence is a sign of Jesus' second coming too. In Zechariah we read that there shall not be hire for men. "Then pestilence. There are now diseases every day that are baffling physicians. "Then beheading as a form of capital punishment. The word of God tells us that the world dictator will use beheading as a form of punishment in the great tribulation period and it has already been reinstated in Germany by Adolph Hitler. Let us consider the signs in the heavens and they concern the return of the Lord. Astronomers today tell us there are spots on the sun caused by gas that is dense enough to completely obliterate the sun's rays if it should cover the sun. They also tell us the moon is out of its course two points but they cannot account for it, but God's word says: 'There shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars, and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring.' Scientists tell us the whole universe is expanding and in course of time it will burst like a bubble and be dissolved. God's word says: 'But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth and the works that are therein shall be burned up.' "There is only one thing we can do in the face of these signs of the second coming of Jesus Christ and that is to prepare to meet him by trusting in him for salvation now. Will you be ready when He comes?"

Magnitude Of Ulm Search Surveyed

A week had elapsed Tuesday since the beginning of one of the largest naval and aerial searches ever attempted, but no trace had been found of the three missing Australian fliers, Captain Ulm, and his two companions, Littlejohn and Skilling, down near Honolulu. Figures compiled by the Denver Post said there had been $40,000,000 worth of government equipment engaged in the search, that the distance flown over the waters had been the equivalent of five times around the world and that, in the 130,000 miles covered, not an accident had resulted to government men or equipment.

Unique Traveling Prize Is Awarded At Both Parties; Won By George Wilke And Bernard Fisher

Dr. and Mrs. E. O. Ellington entertained at bridge with two pretty Christmas evening parties Tuesday and Wednesday. Lighted candles and Christmas decorations made the rooms festive for play.

A clever traveling prize was awarded each night. The guests who made slams and were eligible for the prize had to write their names on the package; the guest whose name appeared there the greatest number of times received the gift at the end of the game. On Tuesday Mr. Wilke received the traveling prize which was imported tea and a set of fortunes in a lovely China box.

Mr. Wilke also made high score for men for which he was awarded playing cards. Mrs. Richardson received cards for high score for the women.

Tuesday evening's guests were: Messrs. and Mmes. A. E. Service, G. T. Hall, George Wilke, Vivian Nichols, Albert M. Fisher, W. W. Inkman, V. Van Gieson, R. Home, McNew, E. V. Spence and Buck Richardson and Mmes. J. Z. Young, J. D. Biles and Shine Phillips.

A pretty Christmas plate holding a salad course, fruit cake and red and green orange peel was served on both evenings.

On Wednesday Mrs. Martin made high score for the women and Mr. Fawcett for the men for which they received playing cards. Bernard Fisher was awarded the traveling prize, a smoking set.

WATCH KIDNEYS SAME AS BOWELS

Watch Out Your 75,000 Feet of Kidney Tubes

Your bowels contain only 27 feet of intestine, yet the kidneys contain nearly 75,000 feet of tubes or filters which would measure 75,000 feet if laid end to end. Therefore, it is just as important to watch the kidneys as the bowels. Kidneys are the filters of the body. They are the way of taking the acids and poisonous waste out of the blood.

Healthy persons pass 3 pints a day thru the bladder which contains nearly 4 pounds of waste matter. If you pass less than this amount, your 75,000 feet of kidney tubes may be clogged with poisonous waste. This is the danger signal and may be the beginning of rheumatism, backache, leg pain, loss of pep and vitality, getting up at night, lumbago, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic joints and diabetes.

Kidneys should be watched closely and need cleaning out the same as bowels. A good drug for DOAN'S PILLS, an old prescription, which has been used successfully by millions of kidney sufferers for over 40 years. They give quick relief and will help to wash out your 75,000 feet of kidney tubes.

But don't take chances with strong drugs and so-called "kidney cures" which claim to do you up in 14 minutes. The common sense will tell you that this is impossible.

Treatments of this nature may seriously injure and irritate delicate tissues. Insist on DOAN'S PILLS, the old reliable relief that contains no "doses" or habit-forming drugs. The name you see DOAN'S PILLS at your drugist.

CHAPTER 10
CURIOUS STORY

"Do you know who I am?" the girl asked.

"I don't," my head. "I haven't the slightest idea."

"I saw you in court, sitting in the gallery. I wondered then why you were so interested in the case."

"My name," she said. "O'Brien—Molly O'Brien. Does that suggest anything to you?"

"I reflected. 'Only a faint idea that you might possibly be Irish.'"

"I am Desmond O'Brien's daughter."

There was another pause. "I'm sorry," I said, "but I'm still completely in the dark."

Her blue eyes were fastened upon like to know where you came from and how you managed to get into my bedroom."

She hesitated. "Mr. Trench," she said almost desperately, "will you—will you listen to the whole truth? I can't explain why I am here unless I tell you everything."

"I shall be most interested," I assured her.

She accepted one of my cigarettes, and having lit it, sat for a moment looking down at the little curling trail of smoke.

"The paper," she said slowly, "which those two men wanted to steal from you belonged to my father. He wrote it out the night before he died. It's the complete formula for a new metal, and there mine with a passionate intentness. "You are telling me the truth? You swear it?"

"I give you my word of honor that I've never heard of either of you."

An almost inaudible sigh escaped my visitor and for the first time the ghost of a smile flickered round the corner of her lips.

"It seems funny that I should be questioning you; it ought to be the other way about."

"Oh, there's no hurry," I protested. "Won't you sit down and have a cigarette? At the present moment that's the only hospitality I can run to."

She seated herself in the chair which I had pulled forward and leaning back against the arm of the sofa I produced my case.

"I'm not inquisitive, as a rule," I continued, "but I should rather ask people in the world—people interested in that kind of thing—who would give you almost any sum of money you liked to ask for it."

Sir William Avon's letter, which was still lying on the desk, flashed back suddenly into my mind, and I whistled softly.

"My sainted aunt!" I muttered. "Why that...?" I checked myself. "Go on," I said encouragingly. "Tell me all about your father. What was he, and did he invent this metal himself?"

"Father was an engineer in Dublin to start with. He went out to America about twenty years ago, and at first, after he married mother, he used to work for a big firm in Chicago. Then when he had saved a little money, he gave that up and we moved down south to New Orleans."

"He had always been delicate and the doctors thought that the warm climate would suit him better. He was very clever at everything to do with engineering, and he brought out quite a lot of small patents which he sold to different companies. But all the time, though no one knew anything about it, he was working secretly at this invention."

"He was trying to find a metal which would be lighter and stronger than anything known now. It took him nearly twelve years,

FOUR HORSEMEN OF BASKETBALL

From the state where the tall corn grows come these veterans who have been dubbed the "four horsemen" of the University of Iowa basketball team. but at last, one evening this spring, he came back from the laboratory and told me that he had done it. He was very excited and he looked dreadfully tired.

"He sat up talking to me about it till nearly midnight, and next morning when I went into his room to see how he was, I found that he had died in his sleep." Her voice faltered. "The doctor said that his heart had just stopped beating."

"It must have been a dreadful shock," I said sympathetically. "Were you all alone? Wasn't your mother with you?"

She shook her head. "My mother had been dead for three or four years. We were quite by ourselves, except for two old colored servants. Father didn't seem to have many friends; he hated strangers and the only persons he ever asked to the house was his assistant at the laboratory."

"He was a young Englishman, Mr. Trench, just about your own age, and his name..." she drew in a quick breath—"his name was John Osborne."

There was a pause. "Really!" I said. "This is becoming distinctly thrilling."

"He didn't call himself Osborne out there. He went under the name of John Oliver."

"How on earth did your father run across him?" I asked.

"They met in the train one day coming down from New York. Father was taken ill and Osborne helped him and looked after him. He said that he was trying to find work, and as he seemed to know something about chemistry and engineering father offered him a job in the laboratory. He turned out to be very useful, and before long he became a sort of confidential assistant. He was the only man in the place who knew anything definite about father's secret."

"And it was he," I said quietly, "who stole the formula?"

She nodded. "Father had written it out and locked it up in the safe at his office. When I went to look for it two days later it had disappeared. Osborne had gone too. I don't know how he got away—in a car by night I suppose—anyhow, nobody had seen him leave, and although inquiries were made all over the country the police were never able to find the smallest trace of him. He had just vanished and the formula with him."

"Well, whoever hatched his head in has my thorough sympathy," I observed. "If anyone did me a dirty trick like that I'd search the world until I ran the swine to earth."

"That," she said in her soft voice, "is exactly what I made up my mind to do."

Whirligig (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1) federal money is involved. This goes much deeper than bidding on a direct government contract. Out in the states, counties and municipalities a proposition is verboten to a non-Blue-Eagle-holder if any funds from Federal Relief, Public Works, RFC, etc., are concerned in any way. The squeeze has been put on from Washington without publicity. Many heretofore obdurate executives discovered overnight that they were shut out from a lot of lucrative business. Only the NRA bosses can say who inspired revival of the old order and they won't tell. There are skeptics in the Capital City who suspect some smart code authority secretary of having nudged Washington into action. The more code adherents, the more money paid in to support any given code authority.

Buying of Cattle to Be Resumed; Cotton Act Vote on Friday. Cattle buying will be resumed here Thursday and continue through Tuesday, County Agent O. P. Griffin said Wednesday. Persons having cattle they wish to sell to the government are requested to bring them to the stock yards east of here where they will be inspected and appraised. If one person has as many as 20 or more cattle, the county agent's office should be notified and the appraiser and inspector will go to the farm or ranch. Attention of the Bankhead act referendum scheduled for Friday between 9 a. m. and 5 p. m. at this election box in the county. One box will be located in Big Spring for eligible voters residing within the city limits. The question on the ballot will be: "Do you favor continuing the Bankhead act through 1935?" Thursday morning two more such machines were seized. The machines are the type which pay off in slugs or coins when they are successfully paid and are in violation of the state law. Police said they would be held until a court order could be had to permit their destruction. They promised further action against such machines within the city.

Defiance. Showdown after showdowns in filling up for the National Labor board. The Goodrich and Firestone companies are grimly in earnest about refusing to allow the board to conduct elections among their employees for collective bargaining representatives. Both corporations are extremely conservative and have decided it's time to stop this new-fangled labor nonsense once and for all. They are in a strong position to resist and nothing but an increased charge of decision—if that—can make them change their minds. All industry is watching these two companies. If they get away with their defiance there'll be darn few more corporations which won't follow their lead. The Board will have to land a fish or cut bait pretty soon. Regiments. New Yorkers friendly to the New Deal suggest that those who complain about registration take a careful look at Germany. Talk about limitation of profits! Minister Schacht's recent decree that any company which earns more than 8% (in a few cases 8%) must invest the excess in German government bonds makes the laments of American industry about interference look as trivial as a peanut at a banquet. The only reason there's any capital left in Germany is because it can't get out. A few of the wealthiest evaded this absolute prohibition by lavish bribery—but not many. The German government even tries to collect a large slice of the incomes earned by its citizens working abroad. Of course collections are smaller—but those who don't pay' has better not be in a hurry to go home. Awkward. Some of the Stock Exchange's personal brain-trusters may resign shortly if the Exchange doesn't pay some attention to their advice. They make suggestions and nothing happens and they're beginning to think they're wasting their time. The real trouble is that the Ex-

Amarello to Try Beaumont. AMARILLO, (Sp.)—When those amazing, boisterous boys that make up the Amarello College football team play the Lamar college of Beaumont here Friday for the Texas junior college championship, the entire Panhandle and sections of two other states will be represented on the local squad. The fact that the Badger team is made of material coming from a wide area makes this game truly the Panhandle's own. It is not confined in its interest to Amarillo, but is of chief concern to the entire territory. Amarillo, the following towns and cities are represented on the famous Amarello squad: Wheeler, Irene, Borger, Dalhart, McCamey, Dumas, Hereford, Shamrock, Paducah, Breckenridge, Big Spring, Friona, Pampa, Oklahoma City, Clovis, Stamford, Clayton and Matador. The Badgers have piled up an unblemished record this year in a spectacular campaign of touchdown making. Many observers believe this team could have its own with any minor and several major colleges and universities. The same is true of the Lamar team. There is no index to serve as a basis for comparison between the Badgers and Cardinals; but the records indicate enough to warrant the prediction that the winner of the championship of Texas will be one of the season's most thrilling contests. Furthermore, it will be a fitting climax to the end of the Badgers' successful season and will mark the first time a grid game of championship caliber ever has been played in the Panhandle. Amarillo is expecting a host of out-of-town fans to attend the game and it is hoped the South Texas eleven can carry back to their homes a sentiment of good-will and a true idea of the spirit that guides this section of the states in its contacts with strangers.

Police said they would be held until a court order could be had to permit their destruction. They promised further action against such machines within the city.

Bats Defeat Oilers, 40-38. CHRISTOVAL Wins With Mighty Spurt Late In Game. By HANK HART. CHRISTOVAL—With two regulars left behind and both "Caruso" West and "Dandy" Dave Hopper on the ailing list, mighty Couden Oilers played the Christoval Bats off their feet during the first period here Wednesday but failed with lack of reserves late in the game and the Bats edged out a 40-38 victory. The Bats opened up with a devastating attack late in the game to overcome an Oiler twelve point lead, and with J. Hanson and Lewis hitting the basket from all angles of the court, the Bats took a six point lead five minutes before the final whistle sounded and managed to weather late Couden rally. Despite an injury the great West managed to lead Couden with ten points in the last two minutes, and in to take second honors with four field goals and free try. J. Hanson accounted for almost half the victor's counters with 19 marked-up in his favor. Both "Ice Wagon" Townsend and "Chesty" White opened their bag of tricks to finish their best form of the year and the Bats had plenty of trouble in stopping the pair until White fouled out late in the game. The defeat was the first suffered by the Goodenites this season. Sheriff Discounts Kennamer's Tale. TULSA, (AP)—Sheriff Charles Price Thursday discounted Phil Kennamer's story of the John Gaylor slaying. Southwest Football Closes Out Biggest Season In All History. By J. WILLIARD RIDINGS. FORT WORTH, (Sp.)—Southwest Conference football came into its own this year. Coaches, sports writers and fans of this section have been crying for several years that the grid sport in the Southwest is the equal of that anywhere. The inter-sectional records of Southwest eleven during the season just closed, the sensation caused in the Big Ten by Coach Francis Schmidt (former Texas Christian and Arkansas mentor) at Ohio State, and a confirming remark by Grantland Rice to the effect that Southwest teams are the toughest in the country—these are among the major events which brought about the recognition. Southwest Conference eleven played 22 inter-sectional football games this season. They won 12, lost 7 and tied 3. Three of the seven losses were to Centenary, which might well be counted one of the strong teams of the Southwest rather than an inter-sectional foe. Among the notable Southwest victories were: Rice from Purdue, 6 to 0; Texas from Notre Dame, 7 to 6; Southern Methodist from Fordham, 26 to 14; and Texas Christian from Santa Clara, 9 to seven. Other victories which brought fame to Southwest gridrons were: Texas from Oklahoma, 19 to 0; Rice from Loyola of New Orleans, 12 to 0. Southern Methodist from Washington of St. Louis, 7 to 0; and Texas Christian from Tulsa, 14 to 12, and Loyola of New Orleans, 7 to 0. L. S. U. was tied by two Southwest teams, 9 to 9 by Rice and 14 to 14 by S. M. U. The season's record for inter-sectional games by Southwest Conference teams is as follows: Rice, 12; Loyola, 0. Rice, 9; L. S. U., 9. Rice, 14; Purdue, 0. Rice, 47; Creighton, 13. Texas, 7; Notre Dame, 6. Texas, 19; Oklahoma, 0. Texas, 6; Centenary, 9. S. M. U., 14; L. S. U., 14. S. M. U., 41; Oklahoma A&M, 23. S. M. U., 26; Fordham, 14. S. M. U., 7; Washington U., 0. T. C. U., 14; Tulsa, 12. T. C. U., 0; Centenary, 13. T. C. U., 7; Loyola, 0. T. C. U., 9; Santa Clara, 7. Arkansas, 20; Missouri Mines, 6. Arkansas, 7; Tulsa, 7. Texas A&M, 6; Temple, 40. Texas A&M, 0; Centenary, 13. Texas A&M, 18; Michigan State, 26. Baylor, 0; Centenary, 7.

IF YOUR BREATH HAS A SMELL YOU CAN'T FEEL WELL. When we eat too much, our food stays in our bowels. Our friends smell this decay coming out our mouths and call it bad breath. We feel the poison of this decay all over our body. It makes us gloomy, irritable and no good for anything. What makes the food decay in the bowels? Well, when we eat too much, our body juice can't digest it. What in the bowels it is the most vital digestive juice in our body. Unless it gets out, it is poisoning from our liver into our blood, and it over our body every six minutes. When our friends smell our bad breath (but we don't) and what in the bowels, don't use a mouthwash or take a laxative. Get at the cause. Take Carter's Little Liver Pills which gently and safely flow your bile juices. But if "something better" is offered you, don't buy it, for it may be a salacious laxative which loosens teeth, gripes and causes the rupture in many people. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and get what you get for—25c. CHAS. C. CO.
