When a stranger asks you where the pharmacist, the doctor, or the mayor lives, do you give him directions to their home? We have had several scruffy looking characters knock on our door, and say that someone downtown had told them where to find our house. Last Monday night one knocked on our door, and I happened to be home alone.

It is a little bit of a terrifying feeling to open the door at night and find a stranger (usually very dirty, unkempt and rough looking) standing there.

I'm sure most of these people are very harmless, but who knows? If you feel that the person needs help and you give them directions to a house in McLean, at least pick up the phone and warn the person that a stranger is coming. It might prevent something tragic from happening here.

I once threatened to have a special section in this column called "Linda's Lapses" and perhaps that would have been a good idea, because I seem to come up with a few every week. For those of you who searched in vain in last week's paper for

"Peerless Prognosticator", our weekly prediction of football scores, your eyesight is not bad...we just left Peerless on the paste-up sheet, and he never made the paper. Peerless said to tell all of you that last week was his first perfect week, too! (And if you believe that, you probably still believe in the tooth fairy!)

I'm not sure how we managed to do it, but we left Billy Frank Hambright, and James Matheny, and David Reid's pictures out of the special salute to the Tigers in last week's edition of The News.

Billy Frank is the same young man whose name was left out of a list of Tigers last year, so we own him a double apology. We had borrowed a set of pictures of the football boys from the See DISTAFF* Page 2

Gas Line Construction To Begin In December

Representatives of the engineering firm, the contracting firm, and the Farmers Home Administration met with the McLean city council Tuesday afternoon at the City Hall to discuss final plans for installing the city's new gas system.

Frank King of Wes-Tex
Construction told the city council that his firm plans to begin work on replacing the pipes of the gas system in December.
King said that plans call for the lines to Alanreed and Heald to be replaced first, with work on lines in the city to be done during the summer months.

King said that when work begins, no resident should be without gas for more than 12 hours. He gave December, 1980 as the projected date for comSee GASLINE, Page 2

Tigers Lose Homecoming Game

By Mike Haynes
Early in the second quarter of McLean's football game with Miami Friday night, it appeared that the Tigers might be victory to top off an upbeat week. The junior high Cubs had clinched the district championship Thursday night, the traditional bonfire had flamed spirits, senior Ann Skipper had been chosen as Homecoming Queen at a rafter-shaking afternoon pep rally, and a good number of the women in the and-gold garnished corsages on their heavy coats.

And on the gridiron, the Tigers had battled favored Miami to a scoreless tie in the first period before hitting paydirt on the second quarter's first play to take the lead 6-0.

But McLean's momentum abruptly wilted, long before the homecoming mums would do the same, and the visiting Warriors struck for five touchdowns to win 33-6.

The Tigers slipped to a 2-6

A RADICAL APPROACH...

The government and different education associations may spend millions of dollars to determine why the educational system in America is not working, but the answer to that question can be summed up in one sentence: American youngsters are no longer hungry to

Every good teacher knows that youngsters will and can learn anything as long as they are properly motivated, but the means of motivation have gotten more and more difficult in the last few years.

What do you use to motivate a child who is well-fed, wellclothed, constantly entertained by television, and assured by a loving mother and father that life will be easy for him?

Just as an unused muscle will atrophy and die, so a human brain cannot grow and expand unless it strains against adver-Too many American youngsters, like their parents, are content with their lives, and feel no need to struggle. Almost every person who returns from a foreign country or who visits with students from a foreign country comes away with the same impression. Stu dents in other countries are hungry to learn, and consider schooling a privilege, not a 'drag', as most Americans do. It is no wonder that countries like China, Japan, and West Germany are making rapid progress, while America is stag-

What can parents and educators do? Probably not much as long as the economy is strong. But I have believed for many years that the idea of a "free' education for all was a defeating theory. Children should have a publicly-financed education through the eighth grade, but then they should be given tests, and only those who score high enough on the test should be allowed to go to high school. The others should be placed in job-training programs to prepare them with technical

This approach would practically eliminate discipline problems in the higher grades, and would do away with attendance problems, because the students who qualified for more education would know that they were enjoying a special privilege. Those who finished high school and showed special abilities should have a publicly financed college education. The principle behind this theory is that anything that comes easily is never appreciated. If youngsters knew that they had to study, had to attend classes, and had to excel to stay in school, then they would.

As long as education is free. and guaranteed to all, regardless of their ability, their interest, their attendance, or their behavior, we will have problems in our schools, and we will continue to see the American public school system slide more and more into mediocrity.

KNOW THIS MAN?

Wendell Tooley in The Tulia Herald]

Once upon a time there was a man named Snadley Clabberhorn, who was the healthiest man in the whole wide world. Snadley wasn't always the healthiest man in the whole wide world. When he was young, Snadley drank what he wanted, ate what he wanted and exercised only as a young Lothario. He thought he was happy. 'Life is absolutely peachy,' was fond of saying. "Nothing beats being alive. Then along came the Surgeon General's report linking smoking to lung cancer and heart disease and emphysema. Snadley read about the great tobacco scare with a frown. "Life is so peachy," he said, "there's no sense taking any risk." So, he gave up smoking. Like most people who went through the hell of giving up smoking. Snadley became more interested in his own health; in fact, he became fascinated. When he read a WTCU tract that pointed out that alcohol caused liver damage and brain damage, he gave up alcohol and drank dietary colas instead. At least, he did until the great cyclamate scare. "There's no sense taking any risks," he said; and he switched to sugarsweetened colas, which made him fat and caused dental cavi-

On realizing this, he renounced colas in favor of milk. That was about the time of the great cholesterol scare. Snadley gave up milk to avoid cholesterol, which caused arteriosclerosis. He also gave up meats, fat and jelly products, subsisting on a diet of raw fish. Then came the great DDT scare. There was reported large amounts of DDT in fish, Snadley read with anguish; but, fortunately, that was when he met Ernestine. They were made for each other. Ernestine introduced him to home-ground wheat germ and microbiotic and organic succotash. They were very happy three times a day. They were, that is, until the great color television scare.

"If color TV does give off radiation," said Snadley, "there's no sense taking any sk. After all, we stil each other.

That's about all they had until the great Pill scare. On hearing that the Pill might cause carcinoma and thrombosis, Ernestine promptly gave up Pill.....and Snadley "There's no sense taking any risk," she said. Snadley was left with his jogging. He was, that is, until he read that 1.3 percent of all joggers are eventually run over a truck or bitten by a rabid dog. He then retired to a bomb shelter in his back yard, to avoid being hit by a meteorite; installed an air conditioner after the great smog scare; and spent the next 64 years doing Royal Air Force exercises.

Nothing's more important than being alive," he said proudly on reaching age 102. But never again did he say that life is absolutely peachy. Caution? Being alive can be hazardous to your health.

My husband once told me that when she walked into a room, it was like a light came on. She always had a funny story, and delighted in playing pranks on the grandchildren who worshipped her, and called her their "Granny Honey!"

That light was tragically snuffed out in a brutal car accident which killed my mother and two of her dearest friends. We learned a few weeks after her death, that when she was pulled from the mangled car, she was not aware of the deaths of her friends or the seriousness of her own injuries, and she kept the ambulance drivers laughing all the way to the hospital by telling them jokes!

But that was typical of Mom ma. She laughed her way through many of life's tragedies, and so managed to make them a little less terrifying.

TIGERS

Continued From Page 1 season record with the loss, and their District 1-B mark dripped to 1-3. Miami upped its record to 5-1-1, while its district slate reads 3-1. The Warriors still are mathematically in the loop championship race and could be in line for a district tie should undefeated Wheeler stumble against McLean or Booker. McLean will meet the state's No. 1 Class B football team on the Mustangs' home grass Friday at 7 p.m. Miami will host Booker.

The Tigers will close the 1979 season at Duncan Field Nov. 16 against Follett.

The first and last stanzas Friday night were the ones for Tiger fans to watch, as the Black and Gold outscored Miami 6-0 for that selected half of the game. But the Warriors picked the middle two quarters to do more than enough damage to wreck McLean's home-

Quarterback David Haws began Miami's efforts with fumbled snaps on the game's first two plays, but both were recovered. The Tigers forced Miami to punt from its own 19, and junior Terry Todd returned to the McLean 47.

On 4th and 1, McLean quarterback Randy Suggs sneaked 3 yards for a first down at the Warrior 41. Seconds later, the senior was sacked on the right sideline for a loss to the Miami 46, but a penalty moved Mc-Lean to the 30. Suggs' bad luck continued shortly thereafter as he stumbled for a 4-yard loss at the 32 and then had a pass, intended for senior Smith, intercepted by Robbie Graham at the 19.

Miami returned the favor with a fumble on a sweep to the right, and Todd fell on it at the 11 to give the Tigers a scoring opportunity.

Senior running back Rex Morris, who would be injured later on the cold night, ripped for 6 yards, but Suggs lost 2 on a bootleg to the left. Morris picked up 3 and fumbled, but Suggs recovered to leave the Tigers with a 4th and 4 situation at the 41/2 with 3:40 remaining in the first period.

Suggs started to his right on another bootleg, but Miami dropped him at the 9 to take possession of the ball. The McLean quarterback soon redeemed himself at his safety position, intercepting an underthrown Miami pass on the left sideline at the Warrior 45 and returning it to the 37 before being tackled on the right sideline. A clip backed the Tigers up to their own 48, however.

After losing yardage to the 34 and having two passes fall incomplete, Suggs punted. A 15 yard penalty for too many Warriors on the field still left McLean short, and Suggs kicked it again. The punt was partially blocked, but a Miami player fumbled trying to field the boot, and junior Tim Smith recovered for the Tigers at the Miami 42. McLean's biggest offensive play of the game was next, as Suggs let loose a bomb to junior James Matheny which gave the Tigers a 1st and goal at the Warrior 3. Morris plunged to the 1 as the quarter ended.

2nd Quarter With 11:57 left in the half, junior Billy Kincannon scored on a dive to the left side to put the Tigers on top 6-0. The ensuing extra point attempt might have been an omen for the jubilant McLean lads, as the snap was high and Suggs, the holder, was forced to pass. His throw was complete, but the receiver was hit short of the goal, and the score remained

6-0. The tide was about to turn. Senior kicker Wade Smith tried an onside kick which Miami covered at midfield. A pass from the Warrior fullback to Kevin Jenkins gained the first 11 of the 50 yards to the goal, and Miami was on its way to knotting the score.

The McLean defense stiffened, allowed only 7 yards in three plays, but on 4th and 3 at the 22, a left-side dive put the pigskin on the 19 yard line. The officials measured, the Miami had a first down.

A quick look-in pass to Ron Francis gave the Warriors a 1st and goal at the 5, but McLean allowed only a half yard on the next play. Jenkins ran to the 1 on the next snap, however, and went in from there to tie the score with 7:53 to go in the half. The PAT attempt failed.

It didn't take Miami long to find the end zone again. Suggs ran the kickoff back to his own 25, but an infraction scooted the ball to the McLean 12. On 2nd down, Suggs was sacked at his own 1, not many yards from the McLean fieldhouse at the south end of the gridiron. Suggs put his foot into a quick kick to get the Tigers out of the danger predicament, and Miami had the ball at the McLean 40.

Haws ran around the left end for 11 yards, and an offsides call against McLean made it 1st and 5 at the 24.

Haws ran around the left end for 11 yards, and then fumbled the snap on the next play. But Miami recovered, and McLean was called for being offsides on 2nd down. That put the ball on the 24, the point from which

Jenkins broke loose for a touchdown with 5:33 left before halftime. Miami led for the first time, 12-6. A Haws-to-Francis pass raised the margin to 14-6. With the contest's outcome still in doubt, the remaining moments of the half didn't lack excitement. After junior Mike Lane returned the kickoff to McLean's 34, Suggs tried to run left. He was caught and tried to pitch the ball, but it went awry and hit the ground. A Tiger recovered at the 32.

After a holding penalty backed the Tigers up to the 15, Wade Smith ran to the 25 on a reverse around the left end. Smith was shaken up on the play but returned to the game a few plays later. McLean tried a draw on 3rd and 18, but junior Billy Kincannon fumbled, and Miami took over at the Tiger 21.

On 3rd and 6 at the 17, Haws was sacked for a 7-yard loss, and on 4th down, Tim Smith caught Haws as he tried to run right. The Tigers took possession on the 18 with 2:02 remaining in the half.

The pendulum still had two swings before the clock showed zero. As Suggs ran a keeper on 4th and 1 with 32 seconds left. he fumbled at the 29 and Miami recovered. Haws ran right to the 19, but a holding call moved the Warriors all the way back to their own 49 with 7 seconds to go. On the last play of the half, Suggs intercepted a Haws throw at the Tiger 25 and ran to his own 30. 3rd Quarter

After Homecoming Queen Skipper and her attendants, seniors Elaine Bentley, Sally Haynes, and Judy Trew, were introduced at halftime, Miami began a series of events that totaled 19 points and sealed the Tigers' fate.

Sophomore Billy Joe Skipper ran 19 yards to give McLean a first down at their own 46 in the Tigers' first possession, but a punt soon followed. After Mc-Lean held the Warriors to a yard and a half on two plays, Haws broke loose on an option for 23 yards and a first at the

McLean's Morris and the Duncan Field scoreboard both went out of action about the same time, but the scoreboard's power failure soon was corrected, with 9:03 remaining in the third stanza. Morris later was determined to have stretched knee ligaments. He did not return to the game and definitely will miss this week's Wheeler contest. Coach Jack Dorsett said Morris possibly could see action in the season finale against Follett, but that Lean's 33, but the Tigers then fell on a Warrior fumble. Mc-Lean played Indian-giver as Suggs threw a bomb which was picked off at the Miami 32. In a few seconds, Jenkins sprinted for a long TD with 8:41 showing in the third period to put his team ahead by two touchdowns at 20-6. The snap was fumbled on the PAT try, and the Tigers tackled the ball carrier short of

The Tigers were forced to punt with 6:22 left in the quarter, and the McLean de fenders then held the Warriors to 8 yards in three plays to make it 4th and 2 at the Tiger 44. But Miami went for it, and Tony Hamby ran to the 38 for the first.

Keith Gray swept the left end for a second first down at the 28, and Hamby took his turn for a third first down at the 17. A dive to the right by Hamby took it all the way to the 4 for a first and goal, and then it was Hamby again to the 3. The senior carried for the fourth straight time, this time up the middle, to score from there with 2:22 to go in the third, and Miami had extended its lead to

Todd tackled Jenkins short of the two points on a quickpitch sweep to the right, and the margin remained 20 points.

Another turnover sent Miami toward the Tiger end zone again to end any serious doubt concerning the game's outcome. Following a kickoff re-turn to the McLean 38 by sophomore Dudley Reynolds, the ball was fumbled by freshman Brock Crockett, subbing for the injured Morris.

Miami recovered at the 39 and wasted no time. Haws bobbled the snap on the Warriors' first play, but he retained control and lofted a pass to Francis at the 13 for a first down. Hamby raced to the 1 on a right slant, but a clipping infraction moved Miami back to Haws passed on the left side to Graham to the 4, and Gray bulled his way to paydirt on a left dive with 53 seconds remaining in the period. A successful place kick put Miami's 33rd point on the board.

The Tigers had to punt on their possession which ended the third quarter and started the fourth. McLean also held, and Todd returned the Warriors' punt about 15 yards to the Tiger 33. McLean again was faced with 4th down, and Suggs punted to around midfield, but a penalty with 6:28 left in the game moved Miami to the Tiger On the next snap, senior tackle Mike Reynolds hit the Miami signalcaller forcing a fumble, and Kincannon so ed it up at the 28 with 6:22 left. Dorsett selected that point to send in a large number of substitutes.

McLean was unable to move, and Suggs punted again, this time to the Miami 42. Hamby ran to the Tiger 43, and a personal foul continued the dvancement to the McLean 31. Miami was held to 3 yards on a trio of plays, and on 4th down at the 28, a good McLean rush resulted in an incomplete pass with 2:43 to go. The Tigers again had to kick, but this time Dudley Reynolds was the punter. His boot went out of bounds at the Miami 36. McLean got one more chance offensively with 39 seconds left as Jenkins was hit, fumbled, and a Tiger recovered at the Warrior 44.

Reynolds, playing quarter ack, was sacked at the hosts' 45, and a pitch to sophomore Bobby Sprinkles advanced the ball to the Miami 48 as time expired.

This Week At Wheeler, McLean will meet a team which has lost only two games in the past three years, was the Class B state champion in 1977, finished second in 1978, and currently boasts an 8-0 mark. With the recent faltering of college foot-ball's SMU Ponies, it seems that Wheeler might be the best team around to use the term 'Mustang Mania." Although he must be aware of the odds against his 2-6 squad Friday, Dorsett doesn't sound the least bit awed by the awesome Mustangs. And you know he must be calling on that ancient football truth that "anything can happen on a given

'We're not going to do anything different for Wheeler,' said the young mentor. "We're not going to change what we do like everybody else has," Dorsett said, referring to other Wheeler opponents who have added offensive plays and defensive strategies in hopes of slipping up on the favored

Mustangs. "We're going to do what we've been doing all year. We're just going to line 'em up and go after 'em."

Officiating at the ceremony were the Rev. Buell Wells and Father B.A. Erpen.

The bride wore a formal gown of white Quiana and venice lace, featuring a Queen Ann neckline outlined with Venice lace appliques, centered with clusters of pearls. The fitted bodice was accentuated at the waistline with a lace daisy chain. Long fitted sleeves were detailed with lace cutouts and flared cuffs, edged with daisy chains. The flowing A-line skirt was bordered with a lace daisy chain which dipped to encircle the chapel length train. Daisy chains of venice lace created a tiered effect on the chapel length veil of bridal illusion. The veil was attached to a pearl encrusted tiara of venice lace. Attending the bride were Linda Estes of Pampa, matron honor; and bridesmaids, Earlene Busby of Amarillo and Denise Lamb of McLean. Best man was Jack Willis brother of the groom, of Bartlesville, Okla. Groomsmen were Randy Hart and Earl Nichols, both of Bartlesville.

Ushers were Tony Henley, brother of the bride of McLean; Harold Estes and Dick Henley, both cousins of the bride, and both of Pampa; and Randy Kennedy of McLean.

Flower Girl was Erin Runnells of Ramona, Okla., niece of the groom. Ring bearer was Beryle Estes of Pampa, cousin of the bride. Candlelighters were Kimberly Estes of Pampa, and Kelly King of Tulsa, Okla., both cousins of the bride. Rice carriers were Sandy Estes and Kim Estes both of Pampa. cousins of the bride.

The bride graduated from McLean High School in 1976. She in an insurance agent for American Health and Accident Life Insurance in Amarillo.

The groom graduated from College High School in Bartlesville in 1972. He is employed by Dresser Engineering, head-quartered in Tulsa, Okla.

Club Entertains Seniors At Tea

Members of the Pioneer Study Club of McLean entertained the McLean High School seniors at a tea Sunday afternoon in the Fellowship Hall of First United Methodist Church.

The setting for the annual affair was decorated with Chinese art and artifacts brought by different members of the group and the seniors and their par ents were served tea and Chin ese delicacies.

The Brass Ring provided music for the occasion, pressons and offer excellent wild game taste treats when properly dressed and prepared. Most hunters agree that dry plucking rather than skinning conserves flavor and moisture in quail, doves, turkeys, rail and woodcock. Pheasants may be skinned or dry plucked with seemingly little change in flavor or moisture content.

All game birds should be dressed as soon as possible following the kill. Aging at a temperature just above freezing for 24 to 48 hours generally removes some of the gamey flavor which might detract from eating pleasure.

After the feathers are removed from game birds, singe over flame to remove the down. Remove the entrails, head, craw and feet. Wipe the body cavities clean with a damp cloth. Some hunters find it easier to remove entrails of small birds, such as quail and dove, by making a cut along or across the back to split the bird apart. Larger birds, such as pheasants and turkeys, are dressed in about the same manner as domestic fowl or waterfowl.

Quail are small birds weighing about 4 to 6 ounces. When considering the number of servings, allow at least one bird per person to be served. Quail meat is white and it tends to be dry. It needs a protective cover of bacon or other fat and freent basting. ROASTED QUAIL MUSHROOMS quail idly with the onset of cool weather, so peak populations on cattle occur in late winter and early spring. Uncontrolled lice can soon infest a whole herd because with cold weather, cattle tend to bunch up more so that the pests can move easily from one animal to another. Heavy hair coats on animals during cold weather also afford protection for the parasites and allow for increased reproduction.

Both types of lice-bloodsucking and biting-infest cattle. Sucking lice pierce the animal's skin and suck blood while biting lice feed on particle of hair, scale, scab and skin exudation. Lice infestations irritate animals, causing itching, scratching and rubbing on fences or anything else available. This produces denuded areas, bruises and lacerations on the affected animal. Heavily infested animals will have an unthrifty appearance and will suffer weight reduction, decreased milk production, anemia or even death. Lice infested animals may also be more subject to infectious diseases. Heavy lice infestations often stunt calves.

"It's 2 A.M. and I feel rotten. Who has time to read medicine labels?"

Sorry, there is no excuse for not reading the medicine label. The label tells you what it's for, how much to take and how often to take it. It's important information. Before you take any medicine, read the label. Medicines can't help you if you don't take them right.

NOTES by Sam Haynes WOMAN CHIEF By Benjamin Capps "Woman Chief" is the very interesting story of an Indian girl's rise from Atsina slave to leader of the Crow tribe with whom she was forced to live.

Her exceptional rise to power overcame many hardships and setbacks, but was even more of a tribute to her intelligence and ambition. This work not only documents the exceptional life of this Indian girl, but also is a very excellent commentary on the every-day life of the Crow

CARDS OF THANKS

We want to express our heartfelt thanks and gratitude to our many friends for the cards, flowers, prayers, words of comfort, food and memorials given to us during the illness and loss of our beloved wife, mother, and granny.

Special thanks goes to Rev. Walker for his touching message, Ida Hess, Joyce Haynes, Johnny Haynes, Sam Haynes, S.A. Cousins and John B. Rice for the lovely music, the ladies of First United Methodist Church for the nice meal served to our family, and Creed and Wanda Lamb for all their help and comfort. The people of McLean are special and beautiful. We love you and may God bless you. Jewel Meacham; Donna,

Charlie, Charlie Don and Debbie Vineyard; Doyal, Nancy, Missy, and Melanie Billingsley; Joel, Marcia, and Paul Mea-

We would like to thank all the young people, football players, coaches, teachers, and everyone else who came by after the homecoming game for refreshments and to watch the two films. At least 80 people (probably more) were there, and we thank all of you for making the event a success. We hope you enjoyed it as much as we did.

We also thank the following eople who did the work: Mary Dwyer, Joyce Eck, Joyce Hay nes, Ruth Magee, Martha Parker, Sue Simmons, Joe Walker, and Pat Walker. Thanks also to Mary Dwyer, Joyce Haynes, Monta Jean Smitherman, and Barbara Trew, who provided much of the food.

Art Show Set In Amarillo

Amarillo--Jim Thomas, MARILLO: Danny Gamble, Canyon; Laura Lee Adams, Claude, and Frances Flaherty, Happy, will be among the artists returning to the Eighth Annual Arts in Action show and sale sponsored by the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce.

The show will run noon to 9 .m., Saturday, November 17, and noon to 6 p.m. Sunday, November 18, at the Amarillo Civic and Convention Center. Third and Buchanan. The show has been moved to the new

The sculpture of Jim Thom-as, depicted here in "Past and Future", has gained recognition throughout the Southwest and Danny Gamble will be showing his watercolors of the Southwest.

Laura Lee Adams will be displaying horseshoe nail sculpture in a western theme on native wood bases and many craft works. Frances Flaherty will bring her "Rock Babies" back to the show.

The emphasis will be on action in the eighth annual according to Jim Palmer, show show chairman. Arts in Action is sponsored by the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce Fine Arts Council. For the first time the Fine Arts Council will award a plaque for the best demonstration in the show. "We hope this will emphasize the importance of this show as an educational tool as well as a commercial outlet for artists and craftsmen," Palmer said.

The show and sale is divided into two segments: arts and a new section for drawings has been added to oil and acrylic paintings, watercolors, graphics, photography and sculpture. The craft mediums remain wood, textiles, jewelry, pottery, metal and miscellaneous mater
